- (c) The person shall for the like period have not been heard from by means of any message, oral or written, or by means of any token, received by those persons most likely to hear from the person.

(d) Those persons most likely to know the last place of abode and the whereabouts of the absent person, and most likely to hear from the absent person, shall be the spouse left in the last place of abode and the parents of the absent person; and if there be neither such spouse nor parent, such persons as the court shall determine upon proofs in each particular case.

In the event a certificate of death shall have been issued in any manner provided by law, then such disappeared person shall be presumed to be dead and his estate may be administered in accordance with the regular procedure concerning estates of deceased persons.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 705.1;—Am. 1951, p. 140, Act 110, Imd. Eff. May 31.

705.2 Disappeared persons, estates subject to probate; administration of property, restrictions.

Sec. 2. Whenever any person leaving property in the state of Michigan shall have been absent from his last known place of abode for the continuous period of 7 years with his whereabouts also for such period unknown to those persons most likely to know thereof, and such person has for the like period not been heard from by those persons most likely to hear from such person, the property of such person in the state of Michigan may be administered as though such person were dead, subject to the conditions, restrictions and limitations hereinafter described.

705.3 Probate court having jurisdiction.

Sec. 3. The probate court of any county in the state where any real property of the absent person is located, and the probate court of any county where any personal property is located, in case there be no real property in the state, shall have jurisdiction in the premises.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 705.3. This section re-enacts Sec. 3 of Act 205 of 1925, being CL 1929, 15626.

705.4 Probate proceedings; title.

Sec. 4. The title of all proceedings commenced and prosecuted under the preceding sections of this chapter shall be "In the Matter of the Estate of, disappeared."

HISTORY: CL 1948, 705.4. This section re-enacts Sec. 4 of Act 205 of 1925, being CL 1929, 15627.

705.5 Probate proceedings; petition for administration, contents, verification.

Sec. 5. The petition for administration or probate of the last will, as the case may be, of the absent person shall be verified to the best of the knowledge and belief of the petitioner; and the petition, in addition to allegations regarding the existence of property to be administered and the names and addresses (so far as known) of the persons who are the heirs-at-law, next of kin, devisees and legatees of the absent person (if deceased), shall contain allegations as to the last known place of abode of the absent person; when he disappeared therefrom; the fact that he has been continuously absent therefrom and has not been heard from by the persons most likely to hear (naming them and their relationship to the absent person) and the fact that his whereabouts are unknown to such persons.

705.6 Probate proceedings; publication and mailing of notices.

Sec. 6. Notice of hearing of the petition for administration or probate of the last will of the absent person shall be published in the form of similar notices of hearing in the administration of the estates of deceased persons, once each calendar month for 4 months prior to the month set for the hearing of the petition; and, in addition, within 30 days after the filing of the petition, copies of the notice shall be sent by registered mail to each person named in the petition as heirs-at-law, next of kin, devisee and legatee; and due proof of such publication and such mailing shall be filed prior to the hearing.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 705.6. This section re-enacts Sec. 6 of Act 205 of 1925, being CL 1929, 15629.

705.7 Hearing; determination of issues; transcript of testimony.

Sec. 7. Upon the hearing of the petition, the truth of the allegations thereof regarding the last known place of abode of the absent person, his disappearance therefrom, knowledge of his whereabouts, and the fact of his having been heard from, shall be issues of fact to be determined by the court; and the testimony upon those questions shall be transcribed and filed in the case.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 705.7. This section supersedes Sec. 7 of Act 205 of 1925, being CL 1929, 15630.

705.8 Hearing; written or oral statement of missing witness.

Sec. 8. Upon the hearing of the petition, in case the testimony of any person must likely to know the last place of abode of the absent person, or to know his whereabouts, or to know whether he has been heard from, cannot be procured because of death, mental or physical incompetency, or removal to some jurisdiction where a deposition cannot be compelled by process of law, the signed statement in writing of the needed witness made to anyone, or the oral declaration of the needed witness, made to some person in no manner interested in said proceeding as creditor or beneficiary, may be received in evidence and given such weight as the court or jury shall deem proper.

705.9 Sale of property prior to one year from appointment of fiduciary.

Sec. 9. Except for the purposes of paying taxes, special assessments, liens, insurance premiums, allowed claims for debts contracted by the absent person before his disappearance, or to prevent great depreciation on account of neglect, or to specifically fulfill contracts made by the absent person before his disappearance, no sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the property of the absent person shall be had until the lapse of 1 year after the appointment and qualification of the fiduciary of his estate.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 705.9. This section supersedes Sec. 9 of Act 205 of 1925, being CL 1929, 15632.

705.10 Distribution of property; prohibited within one year period; permitted after three years when bonded.

Sec. 10. No distribution nor assignment to beneficiaries of the property or the proceeds thereof of the absent person shall be made in any event until after the lapse of 1 year after the appointment and qualification of the representative of his estate; nor shall such distribution or assignment be made until after the lapse of 3 years after the appointment and qualification of the fiduciary of his estate, unless the distributee or assignee execute and deliver to the fiduciary a surety company bond in a penal sum not less than the value of the property distributed or assigned and for such additional amount as the court may prescribe, to be approved by the probate judge conditioned to return the property or the value thereof to the fiduciary in case the absent person be adjudicated in the manner hereinafter set forth to have been still living since the commencement of said period of 7 years, and also conditioned to save the fiduciary harmless from the damages and expenses of all suits or proceedings brought by the absent person or anyone succeeding to his rights by reason of such distribution or assignment having been made during said period of 3 years.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 705.10. This section supersedes Sec. 10 of Act 205 of 1925, being CL 1929, 15633.

705.11 Appearance of disappeared person within three year period; petition, notice, framing of issue; security for costs.

Sec. 11. In case any person shall, within the period of 3 years after the appointment and qualification of the fiduciary, file his petition in the proceedings signed and verified by himself or by his guardian (if an infant or mentally incompetent) claiming in such petition to be the absent person, and shall also cause a copy thereof to be served either personally or by registered mail upon the fiduciary of the estate and upon each beneficiary and upon the surety in any bond given to protect the fiduciary in case of a distribution or assignment prior to the expiration of said period of 3 years, an issue shall thereupon be framed by the court to determine the identity of the claimant, which issue shall be tried by the court: Provided, however, That the court may upon the application of any interested party require the claimant to give security to be approved by the court for all costs and expenses involved in the trial of the issue and the ultimate determination thereof, in case the issue be decided against the claimant.

705.12 Appearance of disappeared person within three year period; order vacating proceedings, exception.

Sec. 12. In case the issue last aforesaid be determined in favor of the claimant, an order shall be entered vacating all the proceedings for administration and in the course of administration, except those providing for the payment of taxes, special assessments, liens, insurance premiums, allowed claims, the specific fulfillment of contracts, the prevention of great depreciation on account of neglect, and also except any sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the property of the absent person to innocent persons for value made to effect the results first above excepted.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 705.12. This section re-enacts Sec. 12 of Act 205 of 1925, being CL 1929, 15635.

705.13 Claim of heir to estate of disappeared person; petition filed within three year period, framing of issue; security for costs.

Sec. 13. In case any person shall within the period of 3 years after the appointment and qualification of the fiduciary, file his petition in the proceedings signed and verified by himself or by his guardian (if an infant or mentally incompetent), claiming in such petition that the absent person died subsequently to the 7 year period aforesaid and that the petitioner is entitled to the property being administered or any portion thereof as successor to the rights of the absent person because of his death; and if the claimant shall also cause a copy of the petition to be served either personally or by registered mail upon the fiduciary of the estate and upon each beneficiary and upon the surety in any bond given to protect the fiduciary in case of a distribution or assignment prior to the expiration of said period of 3 years; an issue shall thereupon be framed by the court to try the truth of the petition, which issue shall be tried by the court: Provided, however, That the court may upon the application of any interested party require the claimant to give security to be approved by the court for all costs and expenses involved in the trial of the issue and the ultimate determination thereof, in case the issue be decided against the claimant.

705.14 Claim of heir to estate of disappeared person; order vacating proceedings, exceptions.

Sec. 14. In case the issue last aforesaid be determined in favor of the claimant, an order shall be entered vacating all of the proceedings for administration and in the course of administration, except those providing for the payment of taxes, special assessments, liens, insurance premiums, allowed claims, the specific fulfillment of contracts, the prevention of great depreciation on account of neglect, and also except any sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the property of the absent person to innocent persons for value made to effect the results first above excepted.

705.15 Completion of administration; date of death; estate of persons absent for fifteen years closed after one year.

Sec. 15. In case no person makes claim during said period of 3 years after the appointment and qualification of the fiduciary either to be the absent person, or to have succeeded to the rights of the absent person since the commencement of said period of 7 years by reason of the death of the absent person, then a conclusive presumption shall arise that the absent person died prior to the filing of the petition for administration or the probate of his will, and such date of death shall be presumed to be 7 years from the date of his disappearance, unless a different date is shown under section 13 of this chapter; and the estate shall be distributed accordingly, so far as the same has not already been accomplished; and by order of court, the estate shall be closed and the liability of the fiduciary to claimants ended, and the liability of distributees ended, and all bonds given by them cancelled: Provided, That, if in case such period of absence as set forth in section 1 of this chapter shall have exceeded 15 years at the time of the filing of the petition for the appointment of an administrator, then said estate may be distributed and closed at the end of 1 year, without a bond being given, with like effect as hereinbefore provided for at the end of 3 years.

705.16 Absence of beneficiary for seven years; no distribution of his share of estate for three years.

Sec. 16. Whenever any person shall die testate or intestate, leaving property in the state of Michigan to be administered and 1 or some of the apparent beneficiaries of his estate is a person who has been absent from his last known place of abode for the continuous period of 7 years with his whereabouts unknown to those persons most likely to know thereof, and who has not been heard from by such persons during said period, no distribution or assignment of that portion of the estate which would be distributed and assigned to the absent person, if alive, shall be made until the lapse of 3 years after the death of the decedent.

705.17 Beneficiary; determination of existence; notice, hearing, expense.

Sec. 17. The question whether or not there is an apparent beneficiary, as described in the next preceding section, shall be a question of fact to be determined by the court on its own motion or upon the verified petition of any interested party showing probable cause, at any time before a final order of assignment and distribution is made and after due notice by citation to all interested parties; and, if the possible existence of such beneficiary be disputed by any interested person, an issue shall be framed by the court to try the question, and the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the possible absent beneficiary at the expense of the ultimate assignee or distributee of the portion of the estate involved.

705.18 Absent beneficiary; distribution of share of estate; notice of hearing.

Sec. 18. Prior to the distribution and assignment described in the second preceding section, the fiduciary of the estate shall by order of court cause to be published at the expense of the person or persons ultimately receiving said portion a notice signed by him and addressed to the absent person by name and also to his unknown presumptive heirs, next of kin, legatees, and devisees, stating that, unless cause to the contrary be shown, on a day certain after the lapse of said period of 3 years an order of assignment and distribution will be made by the court of the portion of the estate aforesaid as though he were deceased.

705.19 Absent beneficiary; distribution of share of estate; notice of hearing, publication and mailing, filing of proof.

Sec. 19. The notice described in the next preceding section shall be published in some newspaper in general circulation in the county once each calendar month for 4 months prior to the month containing the day certain when the order is to be made; and, in addition, within 30 days after such order, copies of the notice shall be sent by registered mail to each person named in said notice as entitled to receive the portion, in the absence of cause to the contrary; and due proof of the publication and such mailing shall be filed prior to the entry of any order of assignment and distribution.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 705.19. This section re-enacts Sec. 19 of Act 205 of 1925, being CL 1929, 15642.

705.20 Absent beneficiary; appearance of person claiming to be; framing of issue; security of costs.

Sec. 20. In case any person claiming to be the absent person on the day certain shall appear in person or by a guardian, if an infant or mentally incompetent, or by an attorney authorized by him so to appear by a paper-writing signed by such person and thereupon filed, an issue shall thereupon be framed by the court to determine the identity of the claimant, which issue shall be tried by the court: Provided, however, That the court may upon the application of any interested party require the claimant to give security to be approved by the court for all costs and expenses involved in the trial of the issue and the ultimate determination thereof, in case the issue be decided against the claimant.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 705.20. This section re-enacts Sec. 20 of Act 205 of 1925, being CL 1929, 15643.

705.21 Absent beneficiary; appearance of person claiming to be; determination of issue in favor of claimant; order.

Sec. 21. In case the issue last aforesaid be determined in favor of the claimant, an order shall be entered assigning to the claimant the portion of the estate aforesaid less the expenses.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 705.21. This section re-enacts Sec. 21 of Act 205 of 1925, being CL 1929, 15644.

705.22 Absent beneficiary; appearance of person claiming to be successor; framing of issue; security for costs.

Sec. 22. In case any person on the day certain shall appear in person, or by any attorney authorized by him so to appear by a paper-writing signed by such person and thereupon filed, and claim in a verified petition filed by him to be entitled to all or a share of the portion of the estate to be distributed, or a different proportion thereof from that described in the notice, by reason of having succeeded to the rights of the absent person because of the latter's death since his disappearance from his last known place of abode, an issue shall thereupon be framed by the court to try the truth of the petition, which issue shall be tried by the court: Provided, however, That the court may, upon the application of any interested party, require the claimant to give security to be approved by the court for all costs and expenses involved in case the issue be decided against the claimant.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 705.22. This section supersedes Sec. 22 of Act 205 of 1925, being CL 1929, 15645.

705.23 Absent beneficiary; appearance of person claiming to be successor; determination of issue in favor of claimant; order.

Sec. 23. In case the issue last aforesaid be determined in whole or in part in favor of the claimant, an order shall be entered assigning to the claimant the proper portion of the estate less expenses.

705.24 Absent beneficiary; assignment of share pursuant to order in case of failure of claimant to appear.

Sec. 24. In case no person makes claim upon the day certain to any part of that portion of the estate which would be distributed to the absent person, if alive, or, in case the issue or issues framed are decided against the claimants, the portion of the estate in question less expenses shall be assigned and distributed by an order of court to that person or those persons described in the order to show cause as therein stated; and the absent person, and his unknown heirs, next of kin, legatees and devisees shall be forever barred from all claim or right thereto.

705.25 Petition for probation by heir of disappeared heir.

Sec. 25. Whensoever any person shall die testate or intestate, leaving property in the state of Michigan to be administered, and the only person apparently qualified to petition for administration or probate of the last will is a person who has been absent from his last known place of abode for the continuous period of 7 years with his whereabouts unknown to those persons most likely to know thereof, and who has not been heard from by such persons during said period, a petition for administration or probate of the will may be made by any one who would be qualified so to do, if the absent person had predeceased the decedent, and the fact that the absent person may have left surviving issue unknown to those persons most likely to know thereof shall not affect the validity of such petition.

705.26 Appeals to Circuit Court; estates of absent persons.

Sec. 26. Appeals may be had to the circuit court as in the case of such appeals in matters relating to the estates of deceased persons in the following cases:

(a) By any person interested, as apparent beneficiary, in the estate of any absent person, as defined in this act, from an order appointing an administrator of such estate or denying such appointment; or from an order admitting a will of such absent person to probate or denying such admission.

(b) By any person adversely affected, from an order of sale, mortgage, or other disposition prior to an order of assignment and distribution of property of an absent person, as defined in this act.

(c) By any person adversely affected, from the allowance or disallowance in whole or in part of any claim against the estate of an absent person, as defined in this act.

(d) By any person adversely affected, from an order affirming or denying any claimant to be the absent person, whose estate is being administered.

(e) By any person adversely affected, from an order affirming the right of any claimant as successor of the absent person, whose estate is being administered.

(f) By any person adversely affected, from an order allowing or refusing to allow in whole or in part the account of any administrator or executor.

(g) By any person adversely affected, from an order of assignment and distribution.

(h) By any person adversely affected, from any order where a like appeal or review would lie, in case the absent person were actually dead.

(i) By any person interested as beneficiary, from an order finding or refusing to find the existence of an apparent beneficiary, who has been absent as defined in this act.

(j) By any person adversely affected, from an order affirming or denying any claimant to be the absent person or as having succeeded to the rights of an absent person interested in the estate of a deceased person being administered.

705.27 Provisions of chapter; retroactive effect.

Sec. 27. The provisions of this chapter shall apply to all cases of absence in the required manner from the last known place of abode for the continuous period of 7 years, whether such absence commenced heretofore and has been completed, or is still running, or shall hereafter commence to run.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 705.27. This section re-enacts except changes "act" to "chapter" Sec. 27 of Act 205 of 1925, being CL 1929, 15650.

705.28 Provisions relating to absent beneficiaries; pending proceeding.

Sec. 28. The provisions of this chapter relating to the administration of the estate of decedents, where 1 or more beneficiaries or the only beneficiary are persons who have been absent in the required manner from their last known place of abode for the continuous period of 7 years, shall apply to pending proceedings: Provided, however, That no orders of assignment or distribution have yet been made.

705.29 Special administrator; appointment following absence for three months to preserve estate.

Sec. 29. If any person shall be missing or absent from his usual place of residence in this state, and his whereabouts unknown, for the space of 3 months or more, and shall leave property which is going to waste or is in danger of being destroyed or lost for the want of a proper custodian, the judge of probate of the county in which he was last known to reside, shall have power, upon the petition of the wife or next of kin, or of 1 or more of his principal creditors, which petition shall state the facts of the case as known, and be verified by the oath of the petitioner, to appoint a special administrator to collect and take charge of the estate of the person so missing or absent, until the fact of his death or survival can be satisfactorily established, and in case of his death, until the question of the allowance of his will, if any, shall be determined, and an executor or administrator, or special administrator, shall be appointed and qualify.

705.30 Special administrator; hearing on appointment; bond, powers, duties; appeal.

Sec. 30. Such special administrator shall, before entering upon his trust, give a bond as prescribed by law for other administrators, and shall, during his term of office, have such general powers, and perform similar duties as, special administrators as provided for by law. From the appointment of such special administrator there shall be no appeal, except that parties claiming an interest in the property of the absent person either as creditor, heir, devisee, legatee, owner or custodian shall have the right to appeal: Provided, That no special administrator shall be appointed until after a hearing duly held before such judge of probate, and previous notice of such hearing shall be published once each week for 3 weeks consecutively in some newspaper in the county where such hearing is to be had.

705.31 Rules governing procedure of court; supreme court may adopt.

Sec. 31. Appropriate rules of court may be promulgated by the supreme court to regulate the practice in matters covered by this chapter, in case that court deems it necessary.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 705.31. This section re-enacts except changes "act" to "chapter" Sec. 29 of Act 205 of 1925, being CL 1929, 15652.

705.32 Estates of absentees listed missing, interned, captive, in military service; conservator, petition, appointment.

Sec. 32. Whenever a person, hereinafter referred to as an absentee, who while serving in or with the armed forces of the United States, or while serving as a merchant seaman, has been reported or listed as missing, or missing in action, or interned in a neutral country, or beleaguered, besieged, or captured by an enemy, has an interest in any form of property in this state and has not provided an adequate power of attorney authorizing another to act in his behalf in regard to such property or interest, then, the probate court of the county of such absentee's legal domicile, or in case of a non-resident of Michigan the probate court of the county where such property is situated, upon petition alleging the foregoing facts and showing the necessity for providing care of the property of such absentee made by any person who would have an interest in the property of the absentee were such absentee deceased, or on the court's own motion, after notice to, or on receipt of proper waivers from, the heirs and next of kin of the absentee as provided by law for the administration of an estate, and upon good cause being shown, may, after finding the facts to be as aforesaid, appoint a conservator to take charge of the absentee's estate, under the supervision and subject to the further orders of the court.

HISTORY: Add. 1947, p. 51, Act 45, Eff. Oct. 11;—CL 1948, 705.32.

705.33 Estates of absentees listed missing, interned, captive, in military service; conservators, appointment, bond, reports, powers, duties.

Sec. 33. The court shall have full discretionary authority to appoint any suitable person as such conservator and may require such conservator to post an adequate bond and to make such reports as the court may deem necessary. The conservator shall have the same powers, authority and duties as the guardian of the property of an infant or incompetent as set forth in chapter 3 of this act, and shall be considered as an officer or arm of the court.

HISTORY: Add. 1947, p. 52, Act 45, Eff. Oct. 11;—CL 1948, 705.33.

705.34 Estates of absentees listed missing, interned, captive, in military service; conservatorship, accounting, termination; transfer of property; death of absentee.

Sec. 34. At any time upon petition signed by such absentee or his guardian, if a guardian has been appointed, or on petition of an attorney-in-fact acting under an adequate power of attorney granted by such absentee, the court may require an accounting to be made and shall direct the termination of the conservatorship and the transfer of all property held thereunder to the absentee or to the designated attorney-in-fact, or to such guardian. Likewise, if at any time subsequent to the appointment of a conservator, it shall appear that the absentee has died and an executor or administrator has been appointed for his estate, the court shall direct the termination of the conservatorship and the transfer of all property of the deceased absentee held thereunder to such executor or administrator.

CHAPTER VI.
TESTAMENTARY TRUSTEE OR GUARDIAN.

706.1	Trustee or guardian; appointment by court when not nominated by will.	706.4	Transfer of property to trustee; appointment by court of domicile.
706.2	Trustee; irregular appointment; accountable for transactions; ratification of acts.	706.5	Transfer of property to trustee; procedure.
706.3	Protection of interest of persons unascertained upon petition to sell part of estate; guardian; notice.	706.6	Transfer of property to trustee; discretion of court; discharge of trustee, filing receipt.

706.1 Trustee or guardian; appointment by court when not nominated by will.

Sec. 1. If a testator has omitted in his will to nominate a trustee or guardian in this state, and if such an appointment is necessary to carry into effect the provisions in the will, the probate court in any county in which the will is admitted to probate shall at once give notice to all interested parties in the manner provided in sections 32 to 35 of chapter 1 of this act, and after hearing thereon, shall make such appointment on his own motion or on that of any interested party, and shall fix his bond as provided by law; and upon the filing and approval thereof, the court shall order delivery to said trustee or guardian in accordance with the terms of the will.

Whenever it shall become necessary or convenient, in the settlement or distribution of the estate of a deceased person, to appoint a trustee to take charge of or invest and distribute any portion of such estate, the judge of probate shall have power, and it shall be his duty, on the application of any person interested in the estate, to appoint such trustee.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 706.1. This section supersedes part of Sec. 1 of Ch. LXI of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14052;—CL 1929, 15463; and Sec. 48 of Ch. LXI of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14099;—CL 1929, 15910; and re-enacts Sec. 47 of Ch. LXI of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14098;—CL 1929, 15909.

706.2 Trustee; irregular appointment; accountable for transactions; ratification of acts.

Sec. 2. When an appointment of a trustee is invalid by reason of an irregularity, or for want of jurisdiction or authority in the court making such appointment, the person so appointed shall be held to account for all moneys, property or assets which have come to his hands as such trustee, or by reason of such appointment, in the same manner as if the appointment had been regular and valid; and any bond given in pursuance of such appointment shall be held to be valid and binding both on the principals and the sureties thereon, and payments to or by a person so appointed, if in other respects properly made, may, with the approval of the probate court, be ratified and confirmed by the trustee who may afterwards be legally appointed.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 706.2. This section re-enacts Sec. 10 of Ch. LXI of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14061;—CL 1929, 15872.

706.3 Protection of interest of persons unascertained upon petition to sell part of estate; guardian; notice.

Sec. 3. If it appears to the court during proceedings under chapter 9 of this act to sell, lease or mortgage any property or interest therein, that the estate which is the subject of the petition may be held in trust for, or that a remainder or contingent interest therein may be limited over to, persons not ascertained or not in being, notice shall be given in such manner as the court may order, to all persons who are or may become interested in such estate, and to all persons whose issue, not then in being, may become so interested; and the court shall in every such case appoint a suitable person to act therein as the guardian ad litem of all persons not ascertained or not in being, who are or may become interested in such estate, the cost of whose appearance.

including the compensation of his counsel, shall be determined by the court, and paid, as it may order, either out of the trust estate or by the petitioner, in which latter case execution may issue therefor in the name of the guardian ad litem; and a conveyance, transfer or mortgage, made after such notice and proceedings, shall be conclusive upon all persons, whether in being or not in being, who are or may become interested in the trust, or to whom a remainder or contingent interest in the trust estate may be limited over.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 706.3. This section supersedes Sec. 17 of Ch. LXI of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14068;—CL 1929, 15879.

706.4 Transfer of property to trustee; appointment by court of domicile.

Sec. 4. Whenever any personal estate shall be holden by any trustee or trustees under the last will and testament of any person whose will has been admitted to probate or allowed and filed by any probate court of any county in this state, or under any appointment made by any probate court in any county of this state, for the benefit of any person or persons permanently residing in any other state of the union, such trustee or trustees may transfer, assign and deliver such estate so holden in trust to any trustee or trustees lawfully appointed in the state where such beneficiary resides to be by said trustee or trustees in such state holden upon the same trust as the same is holden in this state.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 706.4. This section re-enacts Sec. 44 of Ch. LXI of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14065;—CL 1929, 15906.

706.5 Transfer of property to trustee; procedure.

Sec. 5. The person or persons entitled to the benefit of such estate, or some one of them, shall first procure the appointment of a trustee or trustees in the state where such beneficiary resides, to receive and hold such estate, and shall obtain a copy of such appointment certified conformably to the act of congress relating to the authentication of judicial proceedings between the different states, and file the same in the probate court where such will was admitted to probate or where such trustee or trustees received his or their appointment, and shall also proffer a petition to said court asking the court to direct a transfer and delivery of such trust estate to a trustee or trustees so appointed in another state.

706.6 Transfer of property to trustee; discretion of court; discharge of trustee, filing receipt.

Sec. 6. The court of probate aforesaid may at its discretion authorize and direct such transfer, assignment and delivery of such trust estate to the said trustee or trustees so appointed in another state, and said trustee or trustees of such estate, after such assignment and delivery of such estate, shall procure a written acknowledgment of the reception of such estate, and the same being filed in the probate court where such will was admitted to probate, or where such trustee or trustees were appointed in this state, shall be thereupon discharged from all liability on account of the said trust.

707.10	Death of mortgagee or assignee; authority of fiduciary; effect upon foreclosure proceedings.
707.11	Mortgage debt, sale or redemption of property; funds from payment.

707.1 Collection of assets; fiduciary's right to possession of real and personal estate; real estate, delivery to heirs, conditions.

Sec. 1. The fiduciary shall have a right to the possession of all of the real as well as the personal estate of the deceased or the ward, and it shall be his duty to take possession thereof immediately following his appointment. The fiduciary may lease said real estate as provided in this act, and cancel or modify any existing lease or leases given by a decedent or ward in the same manner that the deceased or ward might have done, and may receive the rents, issues and profits of the real estate of a decedent or ward until the estate shall have been settled, or until delivered over by order of the probate court to the person or persons entitled thereto; and he shall keep in good tenantable repair all houses, buildings and fences thereon, which are under his control, so long as they are under his control: Provided, That whenever, on the application of any heir or devisee interested in any parcel of real estate in a decedent's estate, it shall be made to appear to the probate court that there are no charges outstanding and unpaid against said estate and that there are no legacies unpaid or other rights unsatisfied for the payment or satisfaction of which such parcel of real estate is subject to appropriation, or that there is other property in the estate which is subject to prior appropriation for the payment of such charges and legacies or the satisfaction of such rights, and that such property is amply sufficient for that purpose, the said probate court shall thereupon by order deliver over the said parcel of real estate to said heir or devisee, although the said estate shall not then have been fully settled, and thereupon the right of the said executor or administrator to the possession of said parcel of real estate, and to receive the rents, issues and profits thereof shall cease. The provisions of this chapter shall not be construed to interfere with the possession of the homestead.

707.2 Inventory and appraisal; appraisers, appointment; determination of fees and mileage.

Sec. 2. Every fiduciary shall, within 30 days after his appointment, make under oath and return into the probate court a true inventory of the real estate, and of all the goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, or of the ward, which shall have come to his possession or knowledge. If any property of the decedent or ward is encumbered, said inventory shall include a statement of the nature and amount of each such lien.

Appraisal; cash, securities, land contracts or mortgages receivable.

The estate and effects, other than cash or money on deposit, in such inventory shall be appraised by 2 or more disinterested persons, appointed by the judge of probate for that purpose. The appraisers shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of their trust; and if any part of such estate or effects shall be in any other county, appraisers may be appointed either by the judge of probate having jurisdiction of the case, or by the judge of probate of such other county. The appraisers shall be competent persons residing in the county of the court of original jurisdiction or in such other county in which real estate belonging to such estate may be located. To the extent that the assets shall consist of cash, obligations of the United States of America, or stocks, bonds, notes or debentures listed on recognized securities exchanges, no appraisalment thereof shall be required or made and the fiduciary shall designate opposite such items the market value thereof as of the date of death of the deceased or the date of appointment of the guardian. To the extent that the assets consist of land contracts receivable or mortgages receivable, the fiduciary may elect to designate opposite such items the amount of principal and interest owing thereon as of the date of death of the deceased or the date of appointment of a guardian, in which case no appraisalment shall be required.

Appraiser's fees, mileage.

The fees of each appraiser so appointed shall be such amount as shall be found by the probate judge to be reasonable under the particular circumstances involved. Each appraiser shall be entitled to mileage computed at 5 cents per mile from his place of residence to the place or places of making such appraisal and return.

HISTORY: Am. 1947, p. 231, Act 164, Eff. Oct. 11;—CL 1948, 707.2;—Am. 1949, p. 41, Act 51, Eff. Sep. 23;—Am. 1961, p. 51, Act 52, Eff. Sep. 8.

This section as originally enacted superseded and merged with additions Sec. 1 of Ch. LIV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13845;—CL 1929, 15654; Sec. 2 of Ch. LIV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13846;—CL 1929, 15655; and part of Sec. 14 of Ch. LVIII of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13963;—CL 1929, 15776; and Sec. 6 of Ch. LXI of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14057;—CL 1929, 15668.

707.3 Appraisers; appointment by other county; order of appointment.

Sec. 3. When appraisers shall be appointed by the judge of probate of such other county, he shall issue an order to them in substance as follows:

“County of, ss.

“To, of, in said county:

“You are hereby appointed to appraise on oath the estate and effects of, of, which may be in said county; and when you have performed that service you are required to deliver this order, and your doings in pursuance thereof, to, (executor, administrator or guardian as the case may be) of said deceased, or ward, as the case may be.

“Given under my hand this day of, in the year

Judge of Probate.”

HISTORY: CL 1948, 707.3. This section supersedes Sec. 3 of Ch. LIV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13847;—CL 1929, 15656.

707.4 Appraisal; contents; filing; amendment of inventory.

Sec. 4. The appraisers shall set down opposite each item in such inventory, other than those valued by the fiduciary pursuant to section 2 of this chapter, the value thereof in money, and deliver the same, certified by them, together with their appointment, to the fiduciary who shall file the same with the probate court. The court may order an amendment of the inventory when necessary and, after notice and hearing, may enter an order striking items of personal or real property therefrom which are not assets of said estate.

707.5 Embezzled property of estate; examination of persons suspected of having knowledge; procedure.

Sec. 5. If any fiduciary, heir, legatee, creditor or any other person interested in the estate of any decedent or ward shall complain to the judge of probate, on oath, that any person is suspected to have concealed, embezzled, conveyed away or disposed of any money, goods or chattels of the decedent or ward, or that such person has possession or knowledge of any deeds, conveyances, bonds, contracts or other writings, which contain evidence of or tend to disclose the right, title, interest or claim of the decedent or ward to any of the real or personal estate, or any claim or demand of the decedent or ward, or any last will and testament of the decedent, the said judge may cite such suspected person to appear before said court, and there submit to examination upon oath upon the matter of such complaint.

707.6 Embezzled property of estate; refusal to submit to examination; testimony.

Sec. 6. If the person so cited shall refuse to appear and submit to such examination, or to answer such interrogatories as may be put to him touching the matter of such complaint, the court may, by warrant for that purpose, commit him to the common jail of the county, there to remain in close custody until he shall submit to the order of the court. The probate judge shall cause the examination to be taken stenographically, or in such other mode as he shall deem best, and said judge may direct that all such interrogatories and answers be reduced to writing, signed by the party questioned, and filed in said court.

707.7 Safe deposit boxes of decedents' and wards; opening.

Sec. 7. The safe deposit box of which a decedent was an individual or joint lessee, may be opened following his death only upon compliance with the provisions of Act No. 188 of the Public Acts of 1899, as amended. The safe deposit box of a person who is an individual or joint lessee and for whom a guardian has been appointed, may be opened by a duly appointed and qualified guardian of the estate of such ward.

NOTE: Act 188, 1899, above referred to, is Compilers' § 205.201 et seq. See in particular Compilers' § 205.209b.

707.8 Persons entrusted with possession of estate; accounting; proceedings, citation; enforcement.

Sec. 8. The judge of probate, upon the complaint on oath of any fiduciary, may cite any person who shall have been entrusted by such fiduciary with any part of the estate of the decedent or ward, to appear before such court, and may require such person to render a full account, on oath, of any money, goods, chattels, bonds, accounts or other papers belonging to such estate, which shall have come to his possession, in trust for such fiduciary, and of his proceedings thereon; and if the person so cited shall refuse to appear and render such account, the court may proceed against him as provided in section 6 of this chapter.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 707.8. This section supersedes Sec. 9 of Ch. LIV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13853;—CL 1929, 15662.

707.9 Debts due ward or estate; compounding.

Sec. 9. When any debtor of a decedent or ward shall be unable to pay all his debts, the fiduciary, under the order of the judge of probate, may compound with such debtor, and give him a discharge upon receiving a fair and just dividend of his effects.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 707.9. This section supersedes Sec. 10 of Ch. LIV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13854;—CL 1929, 15663.

707.10 Death of mortgagee or assignee; authority of fiduciary; effect upon foreclosure proceedings.

Sec. 10. When any mortgagee of real estate, or any assignee of such mortgage, shall die without having foreclosed the mortgage, all the interest in the mortgaged premises conveyed by such mortgage, and the debt secured thereby, shall be considered as personal assets in the hands of the executor or administrator; and he may foreclose the same, and have any other remedy for the collection of such debt which the decedent could have had if living, or may continue any proceeding commenced by the decedent for that purpose. The death of a mortgagee or assignee of a mortgage following first publication of notice of foreclosure, of such mortgage by advertisement shall not affect such proceedings regardless of whether such mortgagee or assignee held title to such mortgage individually or with others, but such proceedings may be continued as though originally instituted by either his executor or administrator, or in case title to such mortgage was held subject to right of survivorship by the surviving mortgagee or assignee.

707.11 Mortgage debt, sale or redemption of property; funds from payment.

Sec. 11. In case of the payment of the mortgage debt, or the sale of the mortgaged premises by virtue of a power of sale, contained therein or otherwise, or redemption of the mortgaged premises from foreclosure sale, at which the premises were bid in by the executor or administrator, the money paid thereon shall be received by the executor or administrator, and he shall thereupon give all necessary releases and receipts.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 707.11. This section supersedes part of Sec. 12 of Ch. LIV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13856;—CL 1929, 15665.

707.12 Real estate acquired by foreclosure proceeding or execution sale considered personal property; sale.

Sec. 12. Any real estate, which may have been purchased or which may hereafter be purchased by an executor or an administrator as such, upon a sale on execution for the recovery of a debt due to the estate or conveyed to such estate by deed in lieu of foreclosure or execution sale or which may be received as a result of compromise of such debt or upon a sale in the foreclosure of a mortgage or land contract held by said executor or administrator (whether owned by the decedent in his lifetime or acquired after his death), or may have been purchased at any such sale by the decedent in his lifetime but as to which the period of redemption had not expired at the date of his death, shall be considered as personal estate and may be sold and conveyed by said executor or administrator in like manner as real estate may now be sold, and the same or the proceeds thereof shall be held and divided as personal estate.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 707.12. This section supersedes with additions part of Sec. 13 of Ch. LIV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13857;—CL 1929, 15666.

707.13 Real estate acquired by foreclosure proceeding or execution sale considered personal property; distribution, partition.

Sec. 13. If any land so held by an executor or administrator as mentioned in the preceding section shall not be sold by him as therein provided, it shall be assigned and distributed to the same persons, and in the same proportions, as if it had been part of the personal estate of the decedent; and if, upon such distribution, the estate shall come to 2 or more persons, partition thereof may be made between them, in like manner as if it were real estate which the decedent held in his lifetime.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 707.13. This section re-enacts Sec. 14 of Ch. LIV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13858;—CL 1929, 15667.

707.14 Recovery of real estate conveyed by deceased to defraud creditors by fiduciary; authorization.

Sec. 14. When there shall be a deficiency of assets in the hands of a fiduciary, and when the decedent or ward shall in his lifetime have conveyed any real estate, or any right or interest therein, with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid any right, debt or duty of any person, or shall have so conveyed such estate, or so caused the same to be conveyed, that the deeds of conveyance are void as against creditors or so that the grantee of such estate is in equity a trustee for the benefit of creditors, the fiduciary may and it shall be his duty to commence and prosecute to final judgment any proper action or suit at law or in chancery for the recovery of the same, and may recover for the benefit of the creditors all such real estate, and may also and it shall be his duty to sue in any proper action at law or in equity and recover for all goods, chattels, rights, credits or assets of any kind which may have been so fraudulently conveyed by the decedent or ward, whatever may have been the manner of such fraudulent conveyance or which may have been so conveyed or caused to be conveyed, that the conveyance is void as against creditors, or so conveyed or caused to be conveyed that in equity the grantee is a trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the decedent or ward.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 707.14. This section supersedes with additions Sec. 15 of Ch. LIV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13859;—CL 1929, 15668.

707.15 Recovery of real estate conveyed by deceased to defraud creditors by fiduciary; application of creditor; security for costs; suit for creditor in name of fiduciary; bond; expenses.

Sec. 15. No fiduciary shall be bound to sue for such estate as mentioned in the preceding section for the benefit of the creditors unless on application of a creditor or creditors of the decedent or ward, nor unless the creditor or creditors making the application shall pay such part of the costs or expenses, or give such security to the fiduciary therefor as the probate court shall deem just and equitable: Provided, That in case any fiduciary, after application of any creditor and an offer by such creditor to pay or secure to such fiduciary such portion of the costs or expenses as the probate court may deem reasonable, shall refuse or neglect to sue for such estate or to prosecute such suit, then such creditor upon filing a bond in such sum and with such sureties as shall be approved by the judge of probate, conditioned to save such fiduciary harmless from the whole of the costs and expenses of such proceedings in case of failure to recover, may sue and recover such estate in the name of such fiduciary, and for the benefit of the creditors of such estate: Provided further, That in case suit is brought by a creditor in the name of the fiduciary as well as when brought by the fiduciary individually, the court shall order the reasonable costs and expenses of the proceedings paid from the fund or estate recovered, if any, before any distribution of the same shall be made to creditors.

707.16 Recovery of real estate conveyed by deceased to defraud creditors by fiduciary; sale; proceeds.

Sec. 16. All real estate so recovered shall be sold, in the same manner as other real estate, upon obtaining a license therefor from the probate court, and the proceeds of all goods, chattels, rights and credits recovered, as aforesaid, shall be held in the same manner as other assets in the hands of the fiduciary.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 707.16. This section supersedes Sec. 17 of Ch. LIV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13861;—CL 1929, 15670.

707.17 Recovery of real estate conveyed by deceased to defraud creditors by fiduciary; disposition when deceased or ward held property for use of another.

Sec. 17. When the fiduciary of any decedent or ward who claimed only a special property in any goods, to hold them for the use and benefit of another, shall recover such goods, or the value thereof, or damages for the taking or detention thereof, or for any injury done to the same, the goods or money so recovered shall not be considered assets in his hands, but shall, after deducting the costs and expenses of the suit, be paid over and delivered to the person for whose use or benefit they were so claimed or held by the decedent or ward.

707.18 Property replevined from fiduciary; discharge of fiduciary.

Sec. 18. When judgment for a return, in an action of replevin, shall be rendered against a fiduciary, the goods returned by him shall not be considered assets in his hands; and if they shall have been included in the inventory, it shall be a sufficient discharge for the fiduciary, to show that they have been returned in pursuance of such judgment.

707.19 Death of vendor or purchaser under land contract; conveyance.

Sec. 19. In case a person shall have contracted, or shall contract to convey any land, or right interest, or claim in or to lands, and shall have died, or shall die, before he shall have executed, or shall execute, deeds or conveyances in pursuance of such contract, leaving such contract subsisting and in force, or if such contract shall have been assigned, or shall be assigned, then if the assignee of such contract, entitled to the benefit thereof, and grantee of such contracted premises subject to the contract, shall have died, or shall die, or if such person or the assignee of such contract shall have been adjudged, or shall be adjudged insane, incompetent, or a spendthrift, before deeds or conveyances shall have been executed of the contracted premises in pursuance of such contract, leaving such contract subsisting and in force, or if the owner of such vendor's interest is a minor, the fiduciary whether of the party contracting or his assignee, may demand and enforce payment of the moneys due or falling due on such contract, and in case a cause of forfeiture of such contract shall have accrued, or shall accrue, and shall not have been waived, may declare such contract forfeited; and when such contract shall have been performed so as to entitle the party thereto, or his assigns, to have a deed or conveyance to him executed under the terms of the contract of the premises thereby contracted, the fiduciary shall be authorized and empowered to execute, duly acknowledge, and deliver deeds or conveyances of the contracted premises in pursuance of the terms of the contract, to the party contracting to purchase, or his assigns, with like effect as if the party contracting to convey had himself executed and delivered such deed or conveyance: Provided, That every deed or conveyance to be executed as aforesaid shall contain a reference to the date and respective parties to the contract in pursuance of which it purports to have been made, and a copy of the original contract under which the grantee named in such deed or conveyance makes his claim, and of any assignment thereof under which he claims, shall be annexed to or embodied in every such deed or conveyance, and shall be deemed part and parcel thereof, and as such shall be recorded therewith; and whenever the person who contracted to purchase, or his assigns, shall have died, the deed or conveyance for the contracted premises, embodying the substance of the contract, or a copy of it, may be executed and issued to and in the name of such deceased person, and when so executed and issued shall have the same effect as though it had been executed and delivered during the lifetime of such person, or his assigns: And provided further, That when the contract for any lands, or any right, interest or claim in or to lands theretofore contracted to be sold, shall be forfeited, and shall have been duly declared to be forfeited, as aforesaid, or shall have been surrendered to the fiduciary in lieu of forfeiture or foreclosure, all such lands, and rights, interests and claims in or to such lands, shall, in all cases of a fiduciary of a decedent's estate, to all intents and purposes, be thenceforth deemed to be held, and shall be treated in the same manner and may be sold, as lands purchased at mortgage sales by executors or administrators under and in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter.

707.20 Property conveyed to estate or fiduciary; vesting of title, disposition.

Sec. 20. Any instrument by which property real or personal or any interest therein is conveyed, transferred or assigned and in which an estate or the fiduciary thereof is named as grantee, vendee or assignee shall be deemed to vest title thereto in such estate, and such property or interest therein shall be held and disposed of in like manner as provided by law for property constituting the assets of an estate.

708.1 Liability of estate for debts; secured claims; simultaneous death of husband and wife.

Sec. 1. Subject to the right of homestead, to the widow's right of dower when elected by her, and to all prior charges against the estate, a decedent's or ward's estate, both real and personal, is subject to the payment of his debts, but no debts except those which are secured by a lien upon the property of the decedent or ward shall be paid unless filed in the probate court and allowed by the court and secured claims not so proved shall be paid only when the probate court, upon hearing, shall determine that the property covered by such lien is worth more than the amount of the indebtedness so secured.

Where a husband and wife die and there is no sufficient evidence that they have died otherwise than simultaneously, the reasonable expenses of the wife's funeral and burial shall be chargeable against her estate as a first class claim and if insufficient assets therein preclude payment thereof in full, any unpaid balance of the expenses may be presented against the estate of the husband as a fifth class claim and allowed and paid therein in the same manner as other claims of the same class.

708.2 Hearing on claims; order; notice; service of copy of claim.

Sec. 2. When the court has approved the bond of the fiduciary in all estates of decedents and estates of incompetents, he shall immediately fix a date for the filing of claims and for the hearing on claims, which date for the hearing of claims shall be not less than 2 nor more than 4 months from the date of the first publication of the order therefor, and the court shall forthwith cause notice to prove claims and of the hearing thereon to be given by publication as provided in sections 32 to 35 of chapter 1 of this act. A copy of each claim shall be served upon fiduciaries by the claimant. The judge of probate may, upon his own motion, and shall upon the petition of a creditor of any minor past the age of 16 years of whose estate a guardian has been appointed, or any other interested party, setting forth grounds therefor, enter an order for a hearing on claims in such estate and proceed thereon as provided in this chapter.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 708.2. This section supersedes Sec. 5 of Ch. LV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13868;—CL 1929, 15678; also see Sec. 2 of Ch. LV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13865;—CL 1929, 15675; and Sec. 6 of Ch. LV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13869;—CL 1929, 15679.

708.3 Claims; hearing; referees, appointment, recommendations, objections, order of approval; further hearing; appeal.

Sec. 3. All claims in each estate shall be heard by the probate court unless such probate court shall appoint a referee or referees to hear contested claims, which referee or referees shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his or their duties and shall be authorized to administer oaths to parties or witnesses. If such referee is appointed by the probate court for the purpose of hearing said contested claims, it shall be the duty of such referee to examine all contested claims filed against such estate and any offsets in connection with any such contested claim or claims of the fiduciary of said estate. In the event that any claim or offset is contested or disputed, or subject to proofs, the probate judge or the referee, as the case may be, may adjourn the hearing on claims as originally fixed by order of the court until such time as the disputed matter can conveniently be heard, giving reasonable notice of such adjournment to the fiduciary and the claimant. A referee shall file with the probate court within 20 days following the close of the hearing on claims his report thereon, including a full statement of facts with respect to any disputed claims or offsets and his recommendations for the allowance or disallowance in whole or in part of all such claims or offsets and notice of the date of filing of such report by the referee shall be given to the fiduciary and the claimants affected, in the case of disputed and contested claims or offsets. Parties aggrieved by the recommendation of the referee may file objections to the report of the referee with the probate court within 10 days after the filing of such report.

tion set the matter for further hearing before the court not more than 20 days following the filing of the objections to the referee's report and reasonable notice of such hearing, if any, shall be given to the fiduciary and the interested claimant. After such hearing, the probate judge shall enter an order allowing or disallowing in whole or in part, such claims or offsets, so heard by him. If said judge does not order a further hearing on said claim and give notice thereof within 20 days following the filing of objections to the referee's report, if any, as herein provided, he shall then enter an order approving or disapproving, in whole or in part, the recommendations of the referee: Provided, however, the parties may stipulate that such hearing may be more than 20 days after the filing of such objections if the judge orders such hearing.

All orders of the court approving a referee's recommendations with reference to the allowance or disallowance in whole or in part of such claims and offsets and all orders of the probate court allowing or disallowing in whole or in part such claims or offsets shall be final orders and appealable: Provided, however, That any order allowing or disallowing any claim of less than $50.00 shall be final and not appealable. The order of the probate court following the filing of a referee's report setting the matter contained in such report for further hearing before the court, shall not be appealable: Provided further, however, That no referee or referees on claims shall be appointed except where it appears on the date set for the hearing of said claims that objections are made or filed to any claim or any claim appears to be contested.

See Sec. 1 of Ch. LV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13864;—CL 1929, 15674; Sec. 8 of Ch. LV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13871;—CL 1929, 15681; Sec. 10 of Ch. LV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13873;—CL 1929, 15683; Sec. 11 of Ch. LV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13874;—Am. 1921, p. 346, Act 166, Eff. Aug. 18;—CL 1929, 15684; Sec. 12 of Ch. LV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13875;—CL 1929, 15685; and Sec. 29 of Ch. LV1 of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13911;—CL 1929, 15722.

708.4 Claims; contest; costs allowed; attorney's fee.

Sec. 4. Costs in the discretion of the probate court may be allowed the prevailing party in connection with any contested claim, which costs, if so allowed by the court, shall include witness fees, except for the claimant and the fiduciary if they appear as witnesses, taxed at the same rate as in cases in circuit court, and the fees of the referee, if any shall be included, and the court in its discretion may allow the prevailing party an attorney fee of not exceeding $25.00 in connection with any 1 claim. The order of the court allowing or disallowing such claim shall specify whether costs are allowed, and, if so, shall fix the amount thereof in accordance with this section. In the event that costs are allowed against an estate, the fiduciary shall pay the same as a part of the expenses of administration.

708.5 Claims; security for costs; furnishing by claimants; procedure.

Sec. 5. On motion of the fiduciary, all claimants who are nonresidents of the state of Michigan shall be, and all other claimants, when it shall appear reasonable and proper to the court, may be required to furnish sufficient surety or sureties, to be approved by the court, and who shall justify in double the amount of security ordered, for all such costs as may be awarded to the fiduciary, and such sureties shall be liable for all costs awarded either in the court of original jurisdiction, or in any appellate court: Provided, That in case any claimant except a nonresident of the state shall show the court that he is unable to comply with such order, if the court shall be satisfied that the claimant states a meritorious claim, and that the claim is made in good faith, the claimant shall be allowed to proceed in such action without giving security for costs. A copy of the bond or other undertaking, by which such security is given, shall be forthwith served upon the fiduciary or his attorney. If any claimant, or any surety for costs, shall remove out of the state, or if any such surety be deemed by the court insufficient, such court may require the claimant to give new or additional security to the satisfaction of the court; and every person becoming such additional surety shall be liable for all costs from the filing of claim in like manner as if he had been the original surety.

708.6 Claims; referees serve at pleasure of appointing judge; fees.

Sec. 6. No referee so appointed shall receive any fee or perquisite other than as herein provided. Any referee, so appointed, shall serve at the pleasure of the probate judge making such appointment. He shall receive from each estate, the claims against which are assigned to him for hearing, such reasonable compensation as the judge of probate shall determine: Provided, however, That in any such county in which the board of supervisors may provide an annual or monthly salary for such referee or referees, no charge shall be made against any such estate for the services of such referee.

708.7 Claims; early hearing for burial expenses; time for payment of claims, extension.

Sec. 7. The court may in its discretion, upon petition, and 5 days' notice by personal service to such parties as the court may by its order direct, cause an earlier final hearing to be set as to a particular claim or as to particular claims in all cases where it deems it advisable, and the court shall set the hearing of the claims for the expenses of burial within 30 days after the appointment of the fiduciary. Upon such hearing, the court shall allow or disallow such claims in whole or in part and enter an order with reference to the payment thereof, which order shall provide for the immediate payment of such claims as allowed, providing that such payment can be made without injury or serious inconvenience to the estate. The order of the court, after the general hearing on claims, whether following reference of the same or otherwise, shall fix the time for the payment of such claims as shall have been allowed, which time, in the first instance, shall not exceed 1 year and 6 months from the date of hearing. The court may, in its discretion upon petition and notice, extend such time for an additional period of 1 year at a time for a total period not to exceed 10 years.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 708.7. New section, however, see Sec. 8 of Ch. LV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13871;—CL 1929, 15681.

708.8 Claims; form; bill of particulars; adjournment of hearing.

Sec. 8. All claims filed against an estate shall be in writing and under oath and shall contain sufficient detail reasonably to inform the fiduciary of the nature and amount of the claim. Any claim founded in whole or in part upon a written instrument shall have annexed thereto or endorsed thereon a true copy of such instrument.

The fiduciary in connection with any claim may demand a bill of particulars of claimant's demands, and the claimant shall furnish the same within 10 days after such demand. In case a copy of said claim has not been served upon the fiduciary, or his attorney, at least 20 days prior to the time set for hearing claims, the said claim shall not be heard for at least 10 days following the furnishing of such bill of particulars by the claimant. In case of setoff, claimant may demand a bill of particulars under like terms and conditions. In the event that either party considers the bill of particulars furnished insufficient, he may file motion in court for a more detailed bill of particulars. The practice on such motions, as to notice of hearing and the requiring of a more detailed statement, shall be the same as near as may be as the practice in circuit court.

708.9 Claims; setoffs; suits by fiduciaries and setoffs; limitations.

Sec. 9. When a creditor against whom the decedent or ward had claims shall present a claim against the estate, the fiduciary may file the claim of the decedent or ward in offset thereto and the court shall ascertain and allow the balance against or in favor of the estate as he shall find the same to be, but no claim barred by the statute of limitations shall be allowed in favor of or against the estate as a setoff or otherwise, except that such a claim shall be allowed in favor of the estate by way of setoff if the same was not barred at the time claimant's cause of action accrued. If the fiduciary does not file the claim of his decedent or ward in offset against the claim of such creditor, he may sue the same in any other court of competent jurisdiction. Except as in this section otherwise stated, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent a fiduciary, when he shall deem the same necessary, from commencing and prosecuting any action against any other persons, or from prosecuting any action commenced by the decedent in his lifetime or by the ward for the recovery of any debt or claim to final judgment, or from having execution on any judgment. In such case, the defendant may set off any claim he may have against the decedent or ward instead of presenting the same in probate court and all mutual claims may be set off in such action, and if final judgment shall be rendered by the court, the same shall be certified by the court rendering it to the probate court and the judgment shall be considered a true balance.

708.10 Claims; classes; priority; closing estate to claims.

Sec. 10. Claims allowed against an estate shall have the following classification and preference:

1. The necessary funeral expenses as determined by the judge of probate;
2. Debts due the United States;
3. Expenses of last sickness;
4. Debts due the state of Michigan other than those established through section 34a of Act No. 280 of the Public Acts of 1939, as added by Act No. 262 of the Public Acts of 1947, being section 400.34a of the Compiled Laws of 1948;
5. All other debts.

The order of the court allowing or disallowing claims following the general hearing thereon shall contain a provision closing the estate to claims.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 708.10;—Am. 1956, p. 235, Act 127, Imd. Eff. Apr. 13.

This section supersedes Sec. 6 of Ch. LVI of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13888;—Am. 1929, p. 81, Act 45, Eff. Aug. 28;—CL 1929, 15698.

708.11 Payment of claims by solvent estate.

Sec. 11. If, after the order of the probate court determining the claims against any estate, it shall appear that the fiduciary has in his possession sufficient assets to pay all the debts, he shall pay the same in full within the time limited or appointed for that purpose or within such extended time as the court may allow.

708.12 Payment of claims by insolvent estate; manner; priority; prorating.

Sec. 12. If there shall not be assets enough to pay all the debts of any 1 class, each creditor shall be paid a dividend in proportion to his claim; and no creditor of any 1 class shall receive any payment until all those of the preceding class shall be fully paid.

708.13 Payment of claims pending disposal of appeal upon claim.

Sec. 13. If an appeal shall have been taken from the order of the court allowing claims, and shall remain undetermined, the probate court may order payment of claims having preference over such disputed claim and may also in its discretion order distribution among the creditors whose claims are of the same class as the disputed claim and shall have been allowed, leaving in the hands of the fiduciary sufficient assets to pay the same proportion of the claim which may have been disputed and appealed if allowed.

708.14 Payment of claims pending disposal of appeal upon claim; determination of appeal, effect.

Sec. 14. When the disputed claims shall have been finally settled, the probate court shall order the same to be paid out of the assets retained, to the same extent, and in the same proportion as the claims of the other creditors in the same classification.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 708.14. This section re-enacts with addition of "in the same classification" Sec. 10 of Ch. LVI of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13892;—CL 1929, 15703.

708.15 Payment of claims pending disposal of appeal upon claim; further distributions, probate court order.

Sec. 15. If the whole of the debts shall not have been paid by the first distribution, and if the whole assets shall not have been distributed, or if other assets shall afterwards come to the hands of the fiduciary, the probate court may, from time to time, according to the circumstances of the case, make further decree for the distribution of assets.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 708.15. This section re-enacts except changes "executor or administrator" or "fiduciary" Sec. 11 of Ch. LVI of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13893;—CL 1929, 15704.

708.16 Payment of debts; notice to creditors of time limited.

Sec. 16. When the time for paying the debts shall be finally limited by order of the probate court, or by the expiration of the time allowed for that purpose, whether the estate shall be insolvent or not, the probate court may, on the application of the fiduciary, by an order for that purpose, cause notice to be given to the creditors, of the time appointed or limited for the payment of such debts; which notice shall be given by publication as provided in section 32 to 35 of chapter 1 of this act, or in such other manner as the court may direct.

708.17 Statute of limitations; adjudicated claims.

Sec. 17. After adjudication on claims, no statute of limitations shall run against claims so adjudicated, except that, if, after notice shall have been given as provided in the preceding section, any creditor shall neglect to demand from the fiduciary his debt, or the dividend thereon, within 2 years from the time so limited for the payment of the debts, or if the notice shall be given after such time, within 2 years from the last publication, the claim of such creditor shall be forever barred.

708.18 Tardy claims; filing; application; costs; notice to fiduciary.

Sec. 18. On the application of a creditor who has failed to present his claim, if made within 18 months following the time originally fixed by the court for the presentation of claims, and before such estate is closed, the judge of probate shall allow further time, not exceeding 1 month, for such creditor to present his claim, which claim may then be heard by the court or referred to a referee as hereinbefore provided: Provided, That all costs and charges resulting from said application and the proceedings thereon had in probate court, or before the referee shall be paid by the party making the application. After 18 months following the time for presentation of claims as originally fixed by the probate court, no claim against the estate shall be received and considered unless the probate court, upon prior notice to the fiduciary and after hearing, shall determine that the failure of such creditor to present his claim sooner was not due to any fault or neglect on the part of such creditor. Five days' notice by personal service of the time and place of the hearing on any tardy claim shall be given to the fiduciary.

708.19 Compromise of claims for or against estate of decedent or ward; order of court.

Sec. 19. Any fiduciary, under the order of the probate judge, after such notice as he may direct, or without notice in his discretion, may adjust, settle or compromise any claim for or against the estate of a decedent or ward.

708.20 Claims barred unless presented within six years after death.

Sec. 20. All debts and obligations of any person shall be barred after 6 years from the date of his death unless presented to the probate court as provided by law or unless sooner barred by law, notwithstanding that no proceedings shall have been taken to probate such estate: Provided, That in case any decedent died more than 6 years prior to the taking effect of this act or if said 6 year period shall expire within 3 months after this act takes effect, leaving any debt or obligation unsatisfied and not otherwise barred by law, the owner of the debt or obligation may present the same against the estate of such decedent in probate court within 6 months after this act shall take effect, and, unless such debt or obligation is so presented, the same shall be barred forever.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 708.20. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 348 of 1917, Am. 1923, p. 7, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 30, being CL 1929, 15724.

CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: The above section is cited in § 800.5852.

708.21 Payment of debts due at future date according to contract.

Sec. 21. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent any fiduciary from paying any debt which shall be payable at a future day, according to the terms, and at the time specified in the contract.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 708.21. This section supersedes Sec. 13 of Ch. LV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13876;—CL 1929, 15696.

708.22 Actions in circuit court against fiduciaries; notice in probate court; retention of funds; certification of judgments; contingent claims; writs.

Sec. 22. No action shall be commenced against the executor or administrator, except actions of ejectment, or other actions to recover the seizin or possession of real estate, and actions of replevin and trespass on the case and any other action in which the deceased might have been properly joined with others as a party defendant, nor shall any attachment or execution be issued against the estate of the deceased, until the expiration of the time limited by the court for the payment of debts: Provided, That such action shall be brought in the circuit court of any county having jurisdiction of the parties. Plaintiff may file in the probate court having jurisdiction of said estate a notice of suit pending. After the filing of such notice no assignment of property to heirs, nor payment of debts, or other distribution shall be made to creditors within the fifth class except said probate court may authorize such distribution in case the executor or administrator retains sufficient assets to secure said plaintiff payment of the judgment recovered including costs. The final judgment rendered in such action shall be certified to the probate court by the county clerk upon the same becoming final whereupon such judgment shall have the same effect as all other approved claims of the same class against said estate.

No person having any contingent or other lawful claim against a deceased person shall thereby be prevented from prosecuting the same against the executor, administrator, heirs, devisees or legatees, as provided by law, and in such case a claimant having a lien upon real or personal estate of the deceased, by attachment previous to his death may, on obtaining judgment, have execution against such real or personal estate.

In no other case, except such as are expressly provided for in this chapter, shall any action be commenced or prosecuted against an executor or administrator; nor shall any writ of attachment or execution issue against such executor or administrator, or against the estate of the deceased in his hands, during the time allowed him for the payment of debts, except in the case provided for in the preceding paragraph.

708.23 Actions pending against deceased person; prosecution by fiduciary; certification.

Sec. 23. All actions and suits which may be pending against a deceased person at the time of his death may, if the cause of action survives, be prosecuted to final judgment, and the executor or administrator may be admitted to defend the same, and if judgment shall be rendered against the executor or administrator, the court rendering it shall certify the same to the probate court, and the amount thereof shall be paid in the same manner as other claims duly allowed against the estate.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 708.23. This section re-enacts Sec. 16 of Ch. LV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13879;—CL 1929, 15689.

708.24 Joint indebtedness; estate liable for payment; contributions.

Sec. 24. When 2 or more persons shall be indebted on any joint contract, or upon a judgment founded on a joint contract, and either of them shall die, his estate shall be liable therefor, and it may be allowed by the court, as if the contract had been joint and several, or as if the judgment had been against him alone, and the other parties to such joint contract may be compelled to contribute or to pay the same, if they would have been liable to do so upon payment thereof by the deceased.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 708.24. This section re-enacts except changes "commissioners" to "court" Sec. 19 of Ch. LV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13882;—CL 1929, 15692.

CONTINGENT CLAIMS.

708.25 Presenting of contingent claims; proof; fiduciary authorized to compromise certain claims; purchase of property subject to lease.

Sec. 25. If any person shall be liable as security for the deceased or ward or have any other claim against his estate which cannot be proved as a debt, the same shall be presented with the proper proof to the probate court or a referee appointed by the court within the time limited for approving claims or otherwise be barred; and in case such claim shall be made against such estate by reason of any bond or agreement of any kind in writing, signed by the deceased or ward and binding him to pay any certain sum or sums for the support of the claimant for the lifetime of such claimant or another or for a term of years, or to perform certain work for another, for the nonperformance of which his estate is liable, or binding the deceased or ward to pay any sums as rental or royalty during a lease or license, the fiduciary of said estate, by and with the consent of such claimant and the approval of the judge of probate, may compromise and settle such claim in such manner as shall be just and shall be determined by said judge of probate, and the same so determined shall be paid as other debts of said deceased or ward, and the fiduciary in effecting such compromise is empowered, if necessary and if so ordered by the judge of probate, after such notice as he shall direct, to purchase the real estate or property covered by the lease or license, and in case of the purchase of real estate as above provided, the same shall be treated as personal property in the hands of the executor, administrator or guardian and disposed of and distributed as such.

708.26 Retention of part of estate to satisfy contingent claim.

Sec. 26. If the court shall be satisfied by the proof exhibited that claimant has a valid claim against the estate of a decedent although not yet absolute, said court may order the fiduciary to retain in his hands sufficient estate to pay such contingent claim when the same shall become absolute, or, if the estate shall be insolvent, sufficient to pay a proportion equal to the dividends of the other creditors and shall not permit the closing of said estate until said claim has become absolute and opportunity for the presentation and allowance thereof given as provided in section 29 hereof, or until any liability on the part of the estate upon said claim has been terminated, or until said claimant has been adequately protected by the giving of bond or otherwise.

708.27 Payment of contingent claim; distribution if not allowed.

Sec. 27. If such contingent claim shall be allowed, as mentioned in the preceding section, or established on appeal, the creditor shall be entitled to receive payment to the same extent as other creditors, if the estate retained by the executor or administrator shall be sufficient for that purpose; but if the claim shall not be finally established as provided in the preceding section, or if the assets retained in the hands of the fiduciary shall not be wholly exhausted in the payment of such claims, such assets, or the residue of them, shall be disposed of by order of the probate court, to the persons entitled to the same according to law.

708.28 Presenting claim after accrual; payment out of assets in hands of fiduciary.

Sec. 28. If a contingent claim presented as aforesaid shall accrue or become absolute, at any time after the time limited for creditors to present their claims, the person having such claim may present it to the probate court, and prove the same at any time within 60 days after it shall accrue or become absolute, and if established in the manner provided in this chapter, the fiduciary shall be required to pay it, if he shall have sufficient assets for that purpose, and shall be required to pay such part as he shall have assets to pay; and if real or personal estate shall afterwards come to his possession, he shall be required to pay such claim, or such part as he may have assets sufficient to pay, not exceeding the proportion of the other creditors, in such time as the probate court may prescribe.

708.29 Presenting claim after accrual; right to collect balance of claim from heirs, devisees and legatees.

Sec. 29. When such a claim shall be presented within 60 days from the time when it shall accrue or become absolute, and be established, as mentioned in the preceding section, and the fiduciary shall not have sufficient assets to pay the whole of such claim, the creditor shall have a right to recover such part of his claim as the fiduciary has not assets to pay, against the heirs, devisees or legatees, who shall have received sufficient real and personal property from the estate.

708.30 Plea of administration of assets by fiduciary to action upon contingent claim.

Sec. 30. If an action shall be commenced against an executor or administrator on such claim as is mentioned in section 29, and for the payment of which sufficient assets shall not have been retained, as before provided in this chapter, the executor or administrator may give notice under his plea to such action, that he has fully administered the estate which has come to his possession or knowledge.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 708.30. This section re-enacts except changes word and figures "nineteen (19)" to figures "29" Sec. 21 of Ch. LVI of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13903;—CL 1929, 15714.

708.31 Plea of administration of assets by fiduciary to action upon contingent claim; fiduciary liable for amount of assets in hand.

Sec. 31. If it shall appear on the trial of such action that the defendant had fully administered at the time the claim was presented, and had no assets which could be lawfully appropriated for that purpose, he shall be discharged, and shall have judgment for his costs; but if it shall be found that he had assets sufficient to pay only a part of such claim, judgment shall be rendered against him for such sum only as shall be equal to the amount of assets in his hands.

708.32 Contingent creditor; right of action against distributees.

Sec. 32. When the heirs, devisees or legatees shall have received real or personal estate, an unpaid creditor whose contingent claim has been established as hereinbefore provided may sue at law or in equity, and shall have a right to recover his claim against a part or all of such heirs, devisees or legatees, to the amount of the estate they may have respectively received, but no such action shall be maintained unless commenced within 1 year from the time the claim shall be allowed or established.

708.33 Contingent creditor action brought against part of distributees; interpleading of others.

Sec. 33. If all the persons liable for the payment of any such debt shall not be included in the action or suit as defendants, the suit or action shall not thereby be in any way dismissed or barred; but the court before which it shall be pending may order any other parties brought in, by any proper process, and may allow such amendments as may be necessary to make them defendants, on such terms as the court shall prescribe.

708.34 Contingent creditor; liability of respective distributees; chancery, determination of court; execution.

Sec. 34. If more than 1 person shall be liable as aforesaid, and the creditor shall bring a suit in chancery against all or a part of the persons so liable, and the persons liable shall dispute the debt or the amount claimed, the court of chancery shall ascertain and determine how much each is liable to pay and may award execution therefor.

708.35 Deceased distributee; estate liable for share.

Sec. 35. If any of the heirs, devisees or legatees shall die without having paid his just share of the debts, his estate shall be liable therefor, as for his own debt, to the extent to which he would have been liable if living.

708.36 Liability; order among heirs, devisees and legatees; contribution.

Sec. 36. The heirs, devisees and legatees shall be liable among themselves to any such creditor in accordance with the provisions of this act relative to the appropriation of personal and real estate for the payment of charges against an intestate estate and relative to the order of satisfaction of devises and legacies in a testate estate when the assets are insufficient to pay all charges against such estate, and any of the heirs, devisees or legatees who may be required to pay any such debt shall have the right to exoneration, reimbursement, or contribution, as the case may be, from any of the other heirs, devisees or legatees accordingly.

708.37 Creditors having received payment not liable to payment of contingent claim.

Sec. 37. Creditors of an estate who have in good faith received payment of their claims shall not be obliged to contribute to the payment of an unpaid claimant whose contingent claim has become absolute.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 708.37.

SMALL ESTATES.

708.38 Petition for appointment of administrator of intestate estate; filing inventory; filing bond for funeral expenses.

Sec. 38. When application shall be made to the judge of probate for the appointment of an administrator of an intestate estate, there may accompany the petition, the following:

1. A true and complete inventory of the estate of said deceased, appraised under oath by 1 or more competent and disinterested persons of the county at its true cash value;

2. A bond running to the judge of probate in the penal sum of not less than $300.00, with such surety or sureties as the judge of probate may approve, conditioned for the payment of the funeral expenses of said deceased, within 1 year from the date of death.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 707.38. This section supersedes Sec. 24 of Ch. LIII of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13842;—CL 1929, 15606.

708.39 Letters of administration for small estates; notice.

Sec. 39. Upon receiving and filing such petition, the judge of probate may make such investigation of the circumstances of the case and the facts set forth in such petition, as he deems proper and necessary, and if from such petition and such investigation it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the deceased left surviving him a widow, or surviving her a widower, or children under the age of 16 years, or both, that the deceased died seized of no real estate, and that the personal estate of such deceased, appraised at its true cash value, amounts to not more than the sum of $5,000.00, the court may thereupon grant administration of the estate to such petitioner or some other suitable person forthwith without further notice, and may issue letters of administration to such administrator without requiring further bonds.

708.41 Administration of estate of less than one thousand dollars.

Sec. 41. If the estate of a deceased person consists solely of a pay check or checks in the amount of less than $1,000.00, or other personal property of the value of less than $1,000.00, the probate judge may issue an order that such amount or such personal property be turned over to the widow or widower, if any, of such deceased person, or, upon the showing of evidence that funeral expenses have been paid, to the nearest of kin or the person who shall be shown to have paid such funeral expenses. Such order shall be made without the appointment of an administrator or the giving of a bond.

SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.

709.1 Sale of personal property; authority of fiduciary without order.

Sec. 1. The fiduciary of an estate may sell at private sale:

(1) All or any part of the personal property which has a market value which is definitely ascertainable from time to time because of quotations or transactions on any securities, produce, or commodity exchange or similar establishments at such market value; (2) all other kinds of personal property at not less than the inventory value thereof; without an order of the probate court: Provided, That an executor may not sell personal property specifically bequeathed by the will of the testator except after notice to the specific legatee and upon order of the probate court. Upon the filing of a sworn petition of the fiduciary setting forth that he has not been able, after diligent effort, to sell certain specified items of personal property of the kind having no definitely ascertainable market value, as defined in this section, the court may authorize the sale of such items of personal property at private sale at less than the inventory value thereof.

Upon application of the fiduciary, the probate court may authorize the sale of all or any part of the personal property in the estate at public auction, and in the order authorizing such sale the probate court shall direct the mode of giving notice of the time and place of such sale.

709.1a Sale of real estate of decedent; fiduciaries sale subject to land contract, mortgage; confirmation.

Sec. 1a. If the fee title to real estate, or a fractional interest therein, of a deceased person, of any person under guardianship or held in trust, is subject to an executory contract for the sale thereof, the probate court, by ex parte order, may direct the sale thereof subject to the contract for an amount not less than the remaining face value of the contract, or, in case of a fractional interest, for that portion of the remaining face value to which the estate is entitled. Any sale so directed shall be made by the fiduciary subject to all charges on the real estate, by mortgage or otherwise. If the estate in any way is liable for the amount secured by any mortgage, or for any charge, no order shall be entered until there has been compliance with the conditions required to be fulfilled by this chapter before confirmation of sale pursuant to license to sell real estate which is subject to a mortgage or other charge for which the estate in any way is liable.

SALE, MORTGAGE OR LEASE OF REAL ESTATE.

709.2 Sale of real estate of decedent; authorization.

Sec. 2. Real estate of a deceased person, or any interest therein, may be sold upon petition of the executor or administrator under license of the probate court in the following cases:

1. When it shall appear to the court that the personal estate of a deceased person in the hands of his executor or administrator is insufficient to pay the debts of the deceased and the charges of administering his estate, or whenever it shall appear to the court that it is for the best interest of all persons interested in the estate that his real estate or some part thereof be sold for such purpose in lieu of disposing of the personal estate;

2. When it shall appear to the court that sale of such real estate is necessary to preserve the estate or to prevent a sacrifice thereof, or to carry out the provisions of a will;

3. When a testator shall have given any legacy by will that is effectual to pass or charge real estate, and his personal property is insufficient to pay such legacy, together with his debts and charges of administration;

4. When a testator shall have given real estate to 2 or more persons, or when a person shall have died intestate, and it shall appear to the court that it is necessary or will be for the best interests of the persons interested in said real estate as such devisees, legatees or heirs, to sell the same for the purpose of distribution: Provided, That application under this subdivision shall be approved in writing by the persons owning a majority in interest of the real estate proposed to be sold, which approval may be given by the guardians of persons under guardianship. In the determination as to whether the persons owning a majority in interest of the real estate proposed to be sold have approved such sale, any inchoate right of dower or any other interest held by the wife of any person entitled to an interest in such real estate as heir or devisee, or assignee, of an interest or any heir or devisee except such interest as may be held by her by virtue of a deed or recorded contract, shall not be considered in computing such majority in interest but such computation shall be based upon the interests of those persons only who would be entitled to participate in the distribution of the real estate proposed to be sold if the same were personal property. In case of sale under any of the subdivisions of this section, the widow, if any, shall not be entitled to a greater interest in the estate than she would have received had such real estate been distributed instead of being sold: Provided further, That if it shall be made to appear to the probate court that persons owning a majority in interest of the real estate proposed to be sold are desirous of having such real estate sold for any of the purposes or reasons set forth in this section, and the executor or administrator neglects or refuses to petition for the sale as above provided, then and in such cases the court shall entertain a petition for such purpose from persons owning a majority in interest of such real estate and the court may license such sale and make such order in the same manner as if petitioned by the executor or administrator; and thereupon it shall be the duty of such executor or administrator to file a bond and make such sale in the same manner as if petition for such sale had been originally made by the executor or administrator, and the neglect or refusal of such executor or administrator to perform such order shall constitute sufficient cause for removal: Provided further, That if it shall be made to appear to the probate court that the heirs, or the majority in interest thereof or that the majority in interest of the parties that would be entitled to the real estate of a decedent, are residents of any nation or country other than the United States, the probate judge may, during the period of the state of war now existing between the United States and each of the various other nations or countries of the world with which this country is now at war or with which this country may be at war prior to the cessation of the present hosilities and for 1 year thereafter, in his sound discretion, issue license to sell real estate for any of the grounds appearing in this section: Provided, however, That he shall first appoint guardian ad litem for such persons, who shall make an investigation independent of any fiduciary or other parties in interest and shall report in writing to the court recommending that such license be granted.

709.3 Sale of real estate of ward; license; property held jointly or by entirety; common law.

Sec. 3. The real estate, or any interest therein, of any person under guardianship may be sold under license of the probate court in the following cases:

1. When the personal property of such person is insufficient to pay his just debts, together with the charges of managing his estate or whenever it shall appear to the court that it is for the best interest of the ward that his real estate or some part thereof be sold for such purpose in lieu of disposing of the personal estate;

2. When the personal property of such person is insufficient to pay the expenses incurred by any county or by the state in the care, support or maintenance of such person, together with the charges of managing his estate;

3. When the income of the estate of any person under guardianship is insufficient to maintain the ward and his family; or to educate the ward when a minor, or the children of such ward;

4. When it shall appear to the court that it would be for the benefit of the ward that his real estate or any part thereof be sold and the proceeds thereof reinvested;

5. When the interest of the ward is that of tenant by the entirety or is that of a joint tenant in either of which cases the guardian of the ward may then be licensed upon that ground alone to join in the sale with the other tenant, and for the purposes of such sale, the license to sell with respect thereto and the distribution of the proceeds thereof, the interest of the estate of the ward and the other tenant shall be deemed to be equal: Provided, That this sentence shall be declaratory of the common law in the state of Michigan.

ACQUISITION BY RAILROAD: Of real estate of person under guardianship, see Compilers' §§ 464.16 and 471.5.

709.4 Sale of real estate held in trust; order of court; disposition of proceeds.

Sec. 4. When the sale or conveyance or transfer of any real estate held in trust appears to be necessary or expedient, the probate court having jurisdiction of the trust estate, upon petition of a trustee or other interested party, may order, license and empower such sale and conveyance or transfer to be made, and the investment, reinvestment, and application of the proceeds of such sale in such manner as will best effect the objects of the trust. The proceedings under this section shall be the same as proceedings for the sale of similar property by other fiduciaries except that the petition therefor and order shall set forth as the grounds for such sale, conveyance or transfer, 1 or both of those specified in this section.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 709.4. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 12 of Ch. LXI of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14063;—CL 1929, 15874; and Sec. 13 of Ch. LXI of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14064;—CL 1929, 15875.

709.5 Lease or easement upon real estate of ward or decedent; limitations; license.

Sec. 5. A fiduciary may lease the land of the estate, or any interest therein, including oil, gas and mineral rights, from year to year or for a term of years when licensed so to do by the probate court, and such license may be granted when such lease appears to be necessary or expedient for the best interests of the estate: Provided, however, That no lease of the estate of a minor ward shall extend beyond the twenty-first birthday of said ward, unless ratified by said ward upon attaining his majority, except that in all estates the term of a lease of oil, gas and minerals, or any of them, shall not exceed 5 years, but may contain a provision that the lease may extend for such additional term as there shall be commercial production under the lease of oil, gas or minerals, as the case may be.

A fiduciary, when licensed so to do by the probate court, may also sell, transfer or convey any easement affecting real estate which is an asset of the estate, and such license may be granted when the sale, transfer or conveyance of such easement appears to be necessary or expedient or for the best interests of the estate. The term "sell, transfer or convey" shall include the grant of an easement by original creation.

709.6 Lease or easement upon real estate of ward or decedent; petition; notice of hearing.

Sec. 6. In order to obtain a license, the fiduciary or other interested party shall present a petition to the probate court, setting forth the facts upon which such application is based. The petition shall be verified by the oath of the party presenting it. If such facts appear by the petition as, if true, would justify the granting of the order applied for, the judge of probate shall thereupon make an order directing all persons interested in the estate to appear before him at a time and place therein to be specified, to show cause why a license should not be granted to the fiduciary to sell, transfer or convey such easement, or to sell, transfer, convey or lease such real estate or interest therein, or so much of such real estate or such interest therein as shall be necessary and proper for the purposes set forth in the petition.

709.7 Hearing; personal service; time; publication; consent of interested persons.

Sec. 7. If the order is so made by the court fixing a time of hearing, a copy of such order to show cause shall be served on all persons interested in the estate in the manner provided in sections 32 to 35 of chapter 1. If all persons interested in the estate shall signify in writing their assent to such sale, transfer, conveyance or lease, the notice may be dispensed with.

709.8 Persons interested in ward's estate.

Sec. 8. In guardianships, those who are next of kin, and heirs apparent or presumptive of the ward, and except in case of minors, the superintendents of the poor of the county of which the ward is an inhabitant, or in which he resides, shall be considered as interested in the estate, and may appear as such and answer to the petition of the guardian; and when personal notice of the time and place of hearing the petition is required to be given, they shall be notified as persons interested.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 709.8. This section supersedes Sec. 5 of Ch. LIX of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13991;—CL 1929, 15804.

709.9 Hearing; procedure; license without notice.

Sec. 9. (1) The judge of probate, at the time and place appointed in such order, or at such other time as the hearing shall be adjourned to, upon proof of the due service or publication of a copy of the order, or upon filing the consent in writing to such sale, transfer, conveyance or lease of all the persons interested, shall proceed to the hearing of such petition, and if such consent be not filed, shall hear and examine the allegations and proofs of the petitioner, and of all persons interested in the estate, who shall oppose the application.

(2) When on the filing of a petition for license to sell real estate, or any interest therein, belonging to any estate, it appears to the judge of probate that the real estate or interest is subject to a mortgage or vendor's interest which has been foreclosed, and that insufficient time remains in which to give notice of hearing on the petition before the equity of redemption period of the foreclosure expires, the judge may enter an order forthwith granting the license without notice.

709.11 Sale of entire estate when sale of part would be injurious.

Sec. 11. If it shall appear to the court that it is necessary to sell a part of the real estate, and that by a sale of such part the residue of the estate, or some specific part or piece thereof, would be greatly injured, said court may authorize the sale of the whole estate, or of such part thereof as may be judged necessary, and for the best interest of all concerned.

709.12 License must specify grounds or purpose.

Sec. 12. In all cases, the order of the court granting a license for the sale, transfer or conveyance of any easement, or for the sale, transfer, conveyance or lease of real estate or interest in real estate shall specify therein the purpose or reason for which it is authorized.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 709.12. This section supersedes with additions Sec. 9 of Ch. LIX of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13995;—CL 1929, 15808.

709.13 Posting bond for debts and expenses in lieu of sale.

Sec. 13. No license to sell real estate of a deceased person, except for the purpose of distribution, shall be granted, if any of the persons interested in the estate shall give bond to the judge of probate, in such sum and with such sureties as he shall direct and approve, with condition to pay all the debts, and the expenses of administration, so far as the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the deceased shall be insufficient therefor, within such time as the judge of probate shall direct.

709.14 Posting bond for debts and expenses in lieu of sale; prosecution of bond for use of creditors or fiduciary.

Sec. 14. The bond mentioned in the preceding section shall be for the security, and may be prosecuted for the benefit of the creditors, as well as the executor or administrator.

709.15 License for conveyance of real estate; issuance.

Sec. 15. If the judge of probate shall be satisfied, after a full hearing upon the petition, and an examination of the proofs and allegations of the parties interested, that a sale, transfer, conveyance or lease of the whole or some portion of the real estate, interest therein, or easement, described in the petition is necessary or proper for the purposes or reasons set forth in such petition, or if such sale, transfer, conveyance or lease be assented to by all persons interested, he shall thereupon make an order of sale, authorizing the fiduciary to sell, transfer, convey or lease the whole, or so much and such part of the real estate, interest therein, or easement, described in the petition as he shall judge necessary or beneficial.

709.16 License for conveyance of real estate; issuance; order to specify property to be sold, transferred, conveyed or leased.

Sec. 16. The order shall specify the property to be sold, transferred, conveyed or leased. In the case of a sale, the judge of probate may therein direct the order in which several tracts, lots or parcels, shall be sold; and if it appear that any part of such real estate has been devised, and not charged in such devise with the payment of debts, the judge of probate shall order that part descended to heirs to be sold before that so devised; and if it appear that any lands devised or descended have been sold by the heirs or devisees, then the lands in their hands remaining unsold shall be ordered to be first sold.

709.17 Bond on license; liability of surety; cancellation.

Sec. 17. In all cases where license is granted for the sale, transfer or conveyance of real estate, or any interest therein, or easement, the judge of probate shall require a further bond from the fiduciary with sufficient sureties, conditioned to account for all the proceeds of the sale, transfer or conveyance of such property; all of such proceeds shall be deemed assets in the hands of the fiduciary in like manner as if the same had been originally part of the goods and chattels of the deceased, or ward, or beneficiary, and the sureties on his fiduciary bond shall be accountable and chargeable therefor, as well as the sureties on such additional bond. A bond on sale of real estate, where the sale is not consummated, shall be considered automatically cancelled upon the lapse of the period of time covered by the license to sell.

709.18 License authorizes sale within one year and six months.

Sec. 18. Upon the making of such order, and the filing with the judge of probate of such bond as is required by the provisions of this chapter in cases other than leases, a certified copy of the order licensing the fiduciary to sell, transfer, convey or lease shall be delivered by the judge of probate to the fiduciary, who shall thereupon be authorized, in the case of a sale, transfer or conveyance, to sell the real estate, interest therein, or easement, as therein directed, within 1 year and 6 months after the making of the order.

709.19 Reversion of widow's dower; authorized sale.

Sec. 19. License to sell real estate, as provided in this chapter, may extend to the reversion of the dower of the widow of a deceased person, and if such reversion be not sold with the other real estate, it may be sold after the expiration of the widow's term.

709.20 Public sale; posting and publication of notice.

Sec. 20. When a sale is ordered, unless such order specifies that the land may be sold at private sale, notice of the time and place of holding the same shall be posted up in 3 of the most public places in the township or ward in which the land is situated, at least 6 weeks before the sale, and shall be published once in each week for 6 weeks successively next before such sale in a newspaper printed and circulated in the same county if there be one, and if there be none, then in such newspaper as the court may direct, in which notice the lands and tenements to be sold shall be described with common certainty.

Private sale of land held by fiduciary; notice; appraisal, determination of value; confirmation, terms.

In any case where license to sell real estate, any interest therein, or easement, is applied for, the judge of probate may, in his discretion, after due notice to all persons interested as required by this chapter grant a license to the fiduciary to dispose of the real estate, interest therein or easement, at private sale at the highest price obtainable but not less than the appraised value thereof. If for any reason the judge of probate feels the appraised value does not represent the then value of the real estate, any interest therein or easement, or if the inventory and appraisal has not been filed, or if license to sell is not granted within 18 months after the death of the deceased or the appointment of a fiduciary for the ward, the judge may, after taking, or causing to be taken, the testimony as to the value of such real estate, interest therein, or easement, of 2 or more competent and disinterested persons under oath in writing administered by the judge of probate or probate register of either the county where the petition is filed or the county in which the real estate is situated, grant a license to the fiduciary to dispose of said real estate, interest therein, or easement, at private sale, at the highest price obtainable, not less than the value thereof, as determined by said judge of probate. If any fiduciary shall make diligent effort to sell the property so licensed to be sold at private sale as above provided and is unable to obtain for any parcel or parcels or any interest therein, or any easement, the value as established by the inventory and appraisal or as determined by the probate court as hereinbefore provided, he may petition the probate court for a license to sell such parcel or parcels, or interest therein, or easement, for a less amount. Upon the filing of such petition, the judge of probate shall direct that notice be given to all parties interested as provided in sections 32 to 35 of chapter 1 of this act, and if upon the day of hearing it shall appear that a notice has been given to all parties interested as directed by the court and from the testimony of the petitioner and that the value as previously determined by the court is more than the parcel or parcels, or interest therein, or easement, are reasonably worth, then such judge may redetermine the value of such property and grant a new license to sell such property at the highest price obtainable not less than the value thereof as so redetermined by said judge of probate. In his discretion the judge of probate may require the testimony of 2 or more competent and disinterested persons as to the value of such property before making such redetermination. Any such sale shall be confirmed and approved by said judge of probate before any deed passing the title to said property so sold at private sale shall be valid and effectual. The disinterested persons shall be well known to the judge or probate register taking such testimony to be credible witnesses and when taken by a judge or the probate register of a court not having the estate in charge the testimony shall be paid for and transmitted the same as depositions in other courts, and in either case such testimony shall be filed and kept with other papers relating to the sale of said property. All other provisions of this chapter, except where plainly inapplicable, shall be applicable to private sales under this section, except that if any guardian or testamentary trustee shall file in said court a petition setting forth that after continued and diligent effort he has been unable to dispose of any real estate for cash, or on such length of credit, and on such terms as provided in section 28 of this chapter, and such petition shall set forth the best terms upon which he is able to make sale of such real estate, the court, after due notice to the parties interested, and after the taking or causing to be taken of testimony of competent and disinterested persons, as hereinbefore provided, may grant a license to such guardian or testamentary trustee to dispose of said real estate, upon such terms as the court shall find to be for the best interest of the ward or beneficiary.

709.23 Notice of sale; proof of posting and publication by affidavit; evidence.

Sec. 23. An affidavit of the fiduciary, or of some other person having knowledge of the fact that notice of any such sale was given as provided in this chapter, made before the judge of probate, or some other officer authorized to administer oaths, and filed and recorded in the probate court, together with a copy of the notice, shall be admitted as evidence of the time, place and manner of giving the notice.

709.24 Order confirming sale; vacating, failure to pay price.

Sec. 24. If it shall appear to the judge of probate that the sale was legally made and fairly conducted, and that the sum bid whether at public or private sale was not disproportionate to the value of the property sold, or if disproportionate, that a greater sum as above specified cannot be obtained, he shall make an order confirming such sale, and directing conveyances to be executed, but if the purchaser shall for a period of 20 days thereafter neglect to pay or cause to be paid the sum bid at such sale, the court may, in its discretion, revoke such confirming order, and vacate such sale upon the application of the fiduciary making such sale, and after such notice to the purchaser as the probate court may direct, and shall thereupon direct another sale to be had, of which notice shall be given, if a sale at public auction, and the sale shall in all respects be conducted as if no previous sale had taken place.

709.25 Order confirming sale; not to be entered for eight days unless waived or delay injurious; objections.

Sec. 25. No order for the confirmation of any report of sale of real estate or interest therein or easement by a fiduciary shall be made until at least 8 days after filing such report, unless all parties interested in the estate shall in person, by attorney or guardian, consent in writing to such confirmation, or unless, in the opinion of the court, such delay shall be clearly injurious to the estate. Any person interested therein desiring to object to such confirmation may file objections in writing setting forth the reasons therefor.

709.28 Terms of sale; cash, mortgage or land contract; requirements.

Sec. 28. Such fiduciary, upon compliance with all of the provisions of this chapter, may sell such property upon the following terms and conditions:

(1) For cash, or

(3) By executory contract with a down payment of at least 20 per cent of the purchase price, such contract to run for a period not exceeding 5 years: Provided, however, That such contract may contain a provision that if 50 per cent of said purchase price is paid within said period of 5 years, the fiduciary shall convey the land to the purchaser, his heirs, or assigns, and take back a mortgage for the remainder of such purchase price, such mortgage to run for a period not exceeding 5 years from its date and to carry interest at such rate as may be agreed upon between the fiduciary and the purchaser, all the terms and conditions of said executory contract to be subject to the approval of the probate court: Provided, That the probate court may subsequently, by ex-parte order, direct the sale of the fee subject to the contract for an amount not less than the remaining face value of the contract: Provided further, That, in cases where it is desired to subsequently sell the fee subject to the contract for an amount less than the remaining face value of the contract, the probate court may then direct the sale of the fee subject to the contract for an amount not less than the fair market value of the vendor's interest in said contract upon compliance with all the provisions of this chapter as in the case of the original sale of such property by executory contract.

All interest upon mortgages or executory contracts, as provided in this section, shall be payable at least as often as annually.

There shall be no modification of the terms and conditions of sale as set forth in this section except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

This section supersedes Sec. 26 of Ch. LIX of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14012;—CL 1929, 15825;—Am. 1933, p. 113, Act 90, Imd. Eff. May 25;—Am. 1937, p. 63, Act 49, Imd. Eff. May 21.

709.29 Report of sale; reasons for vacating sale and holding another; copy of deed, mortgage, filed with report of sale.

Sec. 29. The fiduciary making any sale shall immediately make a report of his proceedings, upon receipt of the license to sell in pursuance of which it is made, to the judge of probate granting the same, who shall examine the proceedings, and may also examine such fiduciary, or any other person on oath, touching the same; and if he shall be of the opinion that the proceedings were unfair, or that the sum bid is disproportionate to the value, or that a sum exceeding such bid by at least 10 per cent exclusive of the expenses of a new sale, may be obtained, and in the last mentioned case, if a deposit of at least 10 per cent of said sum has been made with the fiduciary, he shall vacate such sale and direct another to be had; of which notice shall be given, if a sale at public auction, and the sale shall be in all respects conducted as if no previous sale had taken place, or the said court may in its discretion receive a report in writing from the fiduciary of a subsequent bid: Provided, however, That if after a period of 8 days no further bid is received, said court may confirm sale of the property to said subsequent bidder. Said 8 day period may be waived as provided in section 25 of this chapter.

The report of the proposed sale shall have attached thereto a true copy of the executory contract or deed, or deed, mortgage and note to be used in consummating the sale.

709.30 Sale of vendee's interest under land contract.

Sec. 30. If a deceased person at the time of his death, or a person under guardianship at the time of the appointment of his guardian, was possessed of a contract for the purchase of land, his interest in such land and under such contract may be sold on the application of his fiduciary in the same cases and in the same manner as if he had died seized of such land, or as if he had been seized thereof in fee at the time of the appointment of such guardian; and the same proceedings may be had for that purpose, as are prescribed in this chapter in such cases, except as hereinafter provided.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 709.30. This section re-enacts except changes "executor, administrator or guardian" to "fiduciary" Sec. 28 of Ch. LIX of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14014;—CL 1929, 15827.

709.31 Sale of vendee's interest under land contract; subject to subsequent payment, bond to secure.

Sec. 31. Such sale shall be made subject to all payments that may thereafter become due on such contract; and if there be any such payments thereafter to become due, such sale shall not be confirmed by the judge of probate until the purchaser shall execute a bond to the fiduciary for his benefit and indemnity and for the benefit and indemnity of the persons entitled to the interest of the deceased or the ward in the lands so contracted for, in double the whole amount of payments thereafter to become due on such contract, with such sureties as the judge of probate shall approve.

709.32 Bond; conditions, exception.

Sec. 32. Such bond shall be conditioned that such purchaser will make all payments for such land that shall become due after the date of such sale, and will fully indemnify the fiduciary and the persons so entitled, against all demands, costs, charges and expenses, by reason of any covenant or agreement contained in such contract; but if there be no payment thereafter to become due on such contract or if the estate or trust shall have been discharged from any liability for all such payments, then no bond shall be required of the purchaser.

709.33 Assignment of contract; effect.

Sec. 33. Upon the confirmation of such sale, the fiduciary shall execute to the purchaser an assignment of such contract, which assignment shall vest in such purchaser, his heirs and assigns, all the rights, remedies, interest and title of the original vendee, or his heirs or assigns in said contract, and the lands so sold.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 709.33. This section re-enacts except changes "executor, administrator or guardian" to "fiduciary" Sec. 31 of Ch. LIX of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14017;—CL 1929, 15830.

709.34 Proceeds of sale; disposition.

Sec. 34. The proceeds of every such sale shall be disposed of in all respects in the same manner as the proceeds of the sale of lands in other cases.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 709.34. This section re-enacts Sec. 32 of Ch. LIX of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14018;—CL 1929, 15831.

709.35 Conveyances of land subject to lien; bond to secure payment; release of estate from liability; confirmation of sale without bond; condition.

Sec. 35. (1) All sales and conveyances of land made by fiduciaries pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall be subject to all charges thereon, by mortgage or otherwise; and in case the estate shall be in any way liable for the amount secured by any such mortgage, or for any such charge, such sale shall not be confirmed by the judge of probate until the purchaser shall execute a bond to the fiduciary, as required in this chapter in the case of a sale of a contract for the purchase of land, on which payments are to become due. The mortgagee may release the estate from liability without releasing the lien and the judge may confirm the sale and any lien on the premises prior to the time of release shall remain in full force and effect until discharged without the necessity of bond.

(2) In all cases where the estate is liable on a mortgage or a contract for the purchase of land, a judge of probate may confirm the sale of the decedent's or ward's interest in the mortgaged land or the contract for the purchase of land and in the land without the filing of a purchaser's bond or the obtaining of a discharge of the estate's liability where, all the parties interested in the estate, individually or by their guardians ad litem, consent in writing to a confirmation without the purchaser's bond or discharge of estate's liability; or where cash is to be received for the land equal to or exceeding the total of the value of the estate's interest therein as theretofore determined by the judge and the balance owing on the contract or mortgage.

709.36 Balance of proceeds; distribution of real estate.

Sec. 36. In all cases of a sale by a fiduciary, of part or the whole of the real estate of his testator, intestate or ward, under a license granted by any probate court, by virtue of the provisions of this chapter, the surplus of the proceeds of the sale, remaining on the final settlement of the accounts, shall be considered as real estate, and disposed of among the persons, and in the same proportions, as the real estate would have been disposed of by the laws of this state, if it had not been sold.

709.37 Costs upon hearing on license to sell; award to prevailing party.

Sec. 37. If any person shall appear and object to the granting of any license prayed for under the provisions of this chapter, by a fiduciary, and if it shall appear to the court, either that the petition, or the objection thereto, is unreasonable, the court may, in its discretion, award costs to the party prevailing, and may enforce the payment thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 709.37. This section re-enacts except changes "an executor, administrator or guardian" to "a fiduciary" Sec. 37 of Ch. LIX of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14023;—CL 1929, 15836.

709.38 Contest of validity of sale; not voided when requirements complied with; deed prima facie evidence after ten years.

Sec. 38. In case of an action relating to any real estate, or interest therein, or easement, sold by a fiduciary, in which an heir or other person claiming under the deceased, or in which the ward or any person claiming under him, shall contest the validity of the sale, it shall not be avoided on account of any irregularity in the proceedings, provided it shall appear:

1. That the fiduciary was licensed to make the sale by the probate court having jurisdiction;
2. That he gave a bond which was approved by the judge of probate, in case a bond was required upon granting a license;

3. That he gave notice of the time and place of sale, if at public vendue, as in this chapter prescribed; and

4. That the property was sold accordingly, and the sale confirmed by the court, and that they are held by one who purchased them in good faith: Provided, That in all cases where any person, or those under whom he holds, has been in actual possession of any lands or premises for the period of 10 years, holding and claiming under and by virtue of a deed executed by a fiduciary, such deed shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of all the proceedings from and including the application to sell such lands, or interest therein, or easement, to the date and execution of the deed, inclusive.

709.39 Contest of validity of sale; not voided if deed executed by licensed fiduciary.

Sec. 39. If the validity of a sale made by a fiduciary shall be drawn in question by any person claiming adversely to the title of the deceased testator, or intestate, or of the ward, or claiming under any title that is not derived from or through the deceased person or the ward, the sale shall not be held void on account of any irregularity in the proceedings: Provided, That it shall appear that the fiduciary was licensed to make the sale by a probate court having jurisdiction, and that he did accordingly execute and acknowledge, in legal form, a deed conveyance or assignment, as the case may be, of the property sold.

709.40 Fiduciary liable on bond for neglect or misconduct.

Sec. 40. If there shall be any neglect or misconduct in the proceedings of the fiduciary in relation to such sale, by which any person interested in the estate shall suffer damages, such aggrieved party may recover the same in a suit on the general bond of the fiduciary, or otherwise, as the case may require.

709.41 Fraudulent sale; fiduciary liable in double value of land.

Sec. 41. Any fiduciary who shall fraudulently sell any real estate of his testator, intestate or ward, contrary to the provisions of this chapter, shall be liable in double the value of the land sold, as damages to be recovered in an action on the case by the person having an estate of inheritance therein.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 709.41. This section re-enacts except changes "executor, administrator or guardian" to "fiduciary" Sec. 41 of Ch. LIX of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14027;—CL 1929, 15840.

709.42 Estate of ward; investment and use of proceeds.

Sec. 42. If the estate of a ward is sold for a purpose mentioned in the first 3 subdivisions of section 3 of this chapter, the guardian shall apply the proceeds of the sale to such purpose, so far as necessary, and shall put out the residue, if any, on interest, or invest it in the best manner in his judgment until the capital shall be wanted for the maintenance of the ward and his family, or for the education of the ward when a minor, or the children of such insane person or spendthrift, in which case the capital may be used for that purpose, as far as may be necessary, in like manner as if it had been personal estate of the ward.

709.43 Estate of ward; sale for purpose of investment.

Sec. 43. If the estate is sold for the purpose of investing the proceeds, as provided in the fourth subdivision of section 3 of this chapter, the guardian shall make the investment according to his best judgment, or in pursuance of any order that may be made by the probate court.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 709.43. This section supersedes Sec. 44 of Ch. LIX of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14030;—CL 1929, 15843.

MORTGAGING ESTATES OF DECEASED PERSONS AND PERSONS UNDER GUARDIANSHIP.709.44 Mortgaging or pledging of estates; license, grounds; homestead.

Sec. 44. The several judges of probate may by order license and empower any fiduciary of estates within their jurisdiction, for the purpose of paying the debts of any deceased person or ward or against the estate of any deceased person or ward, or paying the legacies provided in the last will of any deceased person, or supporting any ward, or making necessary repairs to buildings belonging to such estate or ward, or for the purpose of completing the erection of buildings begun by such deceased person or ward or by some person in his behalf or for his benefit, to borrow money by mortgaging or otherwise pledging the estate of such deceased person or ward, or any part thereof, and if the interest of the ward is that of tenant by the entirety or that of a joint tenant, the court may license the guardian, under the provisions of this section, to join in a mortgage with the other tenant: Provided, That the authority herein given to mortgage or pledge estate for the payment of debts and legacies shall extend to such estate only as might be sold for such purpose, unless a mortgage or other lien exists against the homestead of such deceased person or ward, in which case the fiduciary may be authorized to mortgage such homestead for sufficient to pay such mortgage or other lien and the necessary expenses connected with such proceedings.

709.45 Mortgaging or pledging of estates; petition, contents; order, contents.

Sec. 45. Such order shall be obtained by a petition to the proper judge of probate, which petition shall contain the like statements as are required in a petition for license to sell such estate by a fiduciary, of which petition the same notice shall be given, with the same effect as is required in the case of an order to sell the estate of deceased persons or wards; and such order shall specify the amount to be secured by such mortgage or other security, the rate of interest shall be given, and also the description of the property to be mortgaged or otherwise pledged, which mortgage or other security the said fiduciary shall execute with all the formalities required by law for such securities.

709.46 Mortgaging or pledging of estates; bond, confirmation and procedure.

Sec. 46. Before executing such order, such fiduciary shall give bond in like manner and form, as near as may be, as is required from him by law, in case of the sale of such estate, to faithfully execute the trust, and apply and account for moneys thereby received, and said proceedings of the said fiduciary, in mortgaging or otherwise pledging such estate, shall be reported to the judge of probate, and by him be subject to be confirmed or vacated, and new proceedings to be had to the same extent and in the same manner as near as may be, as provided by law in the case of the sale of such estate.

709.47 Mortgaging or pledging of estates; filing copy of mortgage with report.

Sec. 47. The report of the fiduciary to the probate court in connection with the mortgage of real property shall contain a copy of the mortgage to be used.

709.48 Mortgaging or pledging of estates; property held in trust; license; grounds.

Sec. 48. The judge of probate may, subject to the limitations and restrictions contained in the will or other instrument creating the trust, by order, license and empower any trustee to mortgage or otherwise pledge any real or personal estate held by him in trust, for the purpose of paying taxes or assessments levied or assessed on the trust estate, or the expenses of the management of such estate; for the purpose of paying the expense of erecting, altering, completing, repairing or improving a building on such estate; for the purpose of paying an existing lien or mortgage on such trust estate, or on a part thereof, or any debt chargeable against the trust estate or for which it is liable; to raise money for any purpose in order to carry out the provisions of the will or other instrument creating the trust; or the trustee may be authorized to make an agreement for the extension or renewal of any existing mortgage. The proceedings to obtain such order shall be governed by the 3 next preceding sections.

709.48a Married minor; purchase of home; appointment of guardian.

Sec. 48a. A married minor, who has no guardian and who desires to purchase real estate for a home, may petition the probate court of the county in which he resides for appointment of a guardian to execute a mortgage in connection with the purchase. On receipt of the petition, the judge may appoint a guardian without notice or bond and grant him authority to execute the mortgage immediately without the giving of notice, posting of bond or confirmation of the mortgage. The petition shall set forth its purpose, the legal description of the real estate to be mortgaged, the name of the mortgagee and the terms of the mortgage. The powers of the guardian appointed under this section shall be limited to such mortgage and the purchase of the real estate covered by it. If it appears to the judge of probate that execution of the mortgage has been accomplished or plans for the purchase of real estate abandoned, he may discharge the guardian without further proceedings.

HISTORY: Rep. 1941, p. 267, Act 176, Eff. Jan. 10, 1942. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 2 of Ch. LX of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14039;—CL 1929, 15853.

This section provided for hearing and notice, now covered by Sec. 49.

709.51 Specific performance of land contracts; hearing; proof of service of notice.

Sec. 51. At the time and place appointed for such hearing, or at such other time as the same may be adjourned to, upon proof by affidavit of service of the notice directed by the judge of probate, the court shall proceed to a hearing, and all persons interested in the estate may appear before the probate court, and defend against such petition; and the court may examine, on oath, the petitioner and all others who may be produced before him for that purpose.

709.52 Specific performance of land contracts; order directing fiduciary to execute conveyance.

Sec. 52. After a full hearing upon such petition, and examination of the facts and circumstances of such claim, if the judge of probate shall be satisfied that the grantee in such contract is entitled to a conveyance of the real estate described in such petition, according to the provisions of this chapter, he shall thereupon make an order authorizing and directing the fiduciary to make and execute a conveyance thereof to such grantee.

709.53 Specific performance of land contracts; appeal; performance of order and recording.

Sec. 53. Any person interested may appeal from such order to the circuit court for the same county, as in other cases; but if no appeal be taken from such order within the time limited therefor by law, or if such order be affirmed on appeal, it shall be the duty of the fiduciary to execute the conveyance according to the direction contained in such order, and a certified copy of the order shall be recorded with the deed, in the office of the register of deeds in the county where the lands lie, and shall be evidence of the correctness of the proceedings, and of the authority of the fiduciary to make the conveyance.

709.54 Specific performance of land contracts; jurisdiction of probate court concurrent.

Sec. 54. The jurisdiction herein conferred upon the probate court shall not be deemed to be exclusive of the jurisdiction of the circuit court in chancery, but any person entitled to such specific performance, may at his election, file his bill in equity therefor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 709.54. This section re-enacts Sec. 6 of Ch. LX of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14043;—CL 1929, 15857.

709.55 Conveyance made in pursuance of court order; effect to transfer estate.

Sec. 55. Every conveyance made in pursuance of an order of the probate court, as provided in this chapter, shall be effectual to pass the estate contracted for, as fully as if the contracting party, if a decedent, were still living, or, if a ward, were still competent, and had executed the conveyance.

709.56 Copy of order or decree without deed entitles party to land.

Sec. 56. A copy of the order for a conveyance made by the probate court, and duly certified and recorded in the office of the register of deeds in the county where the lands lie, or a copy of the decree of a court of chancery for that purpose, duly certified by the clerk of said court and recorded as aforesaid, shall give the person entitled to such conveyance a right to the possession of the lands contracted for, and to hold the same according to the terms of the intended conveyance, in like manner as if they had been conveyed in pursuance of the order.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 709.56. This section supersedes Sec. 8 of Ch. LX of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14045;—CL 1929, 15859.

709.57 Enforcement of order by court; unaffected by recording.

Sec. 57. The recording of any order, as provided in the preceding section, shall not prevent the court making such order from enforcing the same by any proper process, according to the course of proceedings therein.

709.58 Death of vendee; heir completes conveyance.

Sec. 58. If the person to whom the conveyance was to be made shall die before the commencement of proceedings according to the provisions of this chapter, or before the conveyance is completed, any person who would have been entitled to the estate under him as heir, devisee or otherwise, in case the conveyance had been made according to the terms of the contract, or the fiduciary of such deceased person, for the benefit of the person so entitled, may commence such proceedings, or may prosecute the same if already commenced; and the conveyance shall thereupon be so made as to vest the estate in the same persons who would have been so entitled to it, or in the fiduciary for their benefit.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 709.58. This section supersedes Sec. 10 of Ch. LX of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14047;—CL 1929, 15861.

SALE OF HOMESTEADS FOR PAYMENT OF DEBTS, AND EXPENSES OF ADMINISTERING ESTATES.709.59 Homestead of deceased or ward; determination, sale.

Sec. 59. Whenever petition shall be made to a probate court for an order to sell the real estate of a deceased person or a person under guardianship for the purpose of paying his debts or the expenses of administering his estate, it shall be the duty of the court to ascertain and determine, at the hearing of such petition, what, if any, of such real estate in fact constituted the homestead of the deceased at the time of his death, or of the ward at the time of the appointment of such guardian, and to fix, by its decree, the location and description thereof without reference to its value, but not exceeding in extent the quantity exempted by law from the payment of debts. If it shall appear at the hearing of such petition that there is real estate not included in the homestead as thus decreed that may be used for the payment of debts, the same shall be first sold and the proceeds thereof applied according to law. If it shall appear that there is no real estate other than that thus decreed to be the homestead, that may be used for the payment of debts, or, if the proceeds of the sale of the real estate, other than such homestead, shall, upon the report and approval of such sale, prove insufficient for the purposes thereof, the probate court may order the sale of the homestead, or a division of the same and the sale of a portion thereof, under the circumstances and in the manner hereinafter provided.

709.60 Homestead of deceased or ward; examination and appraisal; report to probate court.

Sec. 60. Before a sale or division of the homestead is ordered, it shall be examined and appraised by 2 disinterested persons, who shall be appointed by the probate judge and who shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of their trust. The persons so appointed shall, with reasonable diligence, examine the homestead and appraise the same at its fair cash value, and in case such value shall exceed $3,500.00, they shall determine whether or not the premises can be divided without material loss of injury, so that a homestead not exceeding in value $3,500.00 may be set apart for the benefit of the widow or family of the deceased, the person under guardianship, or his wife or family. Upon the completion of such examination and appraisal, they shall report under their hands to the probate court their appraisal of the fair cash value of the homestead, and if such value shall exceed $3,500.00, they shall also report whether or not the homestead as fixed by the decree of the probate court can be so divided that a homestead, of which they shall give the metes and bounds, and in which they shall include the dwelling house and its appurtenances, not exceeding in value $3,500.00, can be set apart for the benefit of the widow or family of the deceased, or the person under guardianship, or his wife or family.

This section as originally enacted re-enacted, except changes word and figure "three (3)" to "2", Sec. 46 of Ch. LIX of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14032;—CL 1929, 15645.

709.61 Report to probate court; confirmation; order to show cause; hearing, revision or order of new examination.

Sec. 61. At any time after the filing of such report and before the estate shall have been finally closed, the probate court, at the request of any person interested in the estate, shall order all parties interested therein to show cause why such report should not be confirmed. Notice of the time to show cause shall be given in accordance with the provisions of sections 32 to 35 of chapter 1 of this act. At the time appointed, or at some adjourned time, the probate court shall hear and consider all objections to the confirmation of the report, whether of law or fact, and in its discretion shall enter an order either confirming the report, or revising the report and confirming it as revised or disapproving the report and directing a new examination and appraisal. Whenever the court shall order a new examination and appraisal, it shall appoint 2 other competent and disinterested persons, who shall proceed as above provided in the case of the persons first appointed, subject to like review and action by the probate court.

NOTE: Secs. 32-35, Ch. 1, above referred to, are Compilers' §§ 701.32-701.35.

709.62 Report to probate court; confirmation; sale or division.

Sec. 62. Upon the confirmation of the report, the probate court shall proceed as follows:

not exceeding in value $3,500.00 can be set apart for the benefit of the ward, wife, widow or family, the probate court shall order the whole of such premises to be sold according to law. The fiduciary shall reserve and retain from the proceeds of such sale the sum of $3,500.00 for the benefit of the ward, wife, widow or family and shall apply the remainder, so far as the same shall extend, or so far as the same shall be necessary, in payment of the debts and expenses of administering his estate. The sum so reserved and retained by the fiduciary shall be invested by the fiduciary with the approval of the probate judge, either in the purchase of a new homestead, or in proper securities for the benefit of the ward, wife, widow or family, as may seem best, and the same, or the property or securities in which it shall be invested, shall remain exempt from the payment of debts and the expenses of administering his estate in like manner as a legal homestead would have remained exempt, and shall finally go to the persons, who, upon termination of such exemption, would have been entitled to the homestead if it had not been sold.

710.1 Adoption petition; order of adoption, validation of prior proceedings.

Sec. 1. Whenever any person shall desire to adopt any minor child, and to bestow upon said child his family name, or to adopt any minor child without a change of name, with intent to make said child his heir, said person, together with his wife or her husband, if married, shall file a petition with the probate court of the county wherein petitioner resides.

Any order of adoption issued after the effective date of amendatory Act No. 324 of the Public Acts of 1945, with respect to adoption proceedings commenced prior thereto, issued by any probate court of this state, if issued in conformity with the law prior to the effective date of said amendatory act, is hereby validated, and the same shall have the same effect as if said amendatory act had not been passed.

HISTORY: Am. 1945, p. 573, Act 324, Eff. Sept. 8;—Am. 1947, p. 50, Act 43, Eff. Oct. 11;—CL 1948, 710.1. This section as originally enacted, re-enacted Sec. 1 of Ch. LXIV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14138;—CL 1929, 15651.

MICHIGAN CHILDREN'S INSTITUTE: See Compilers' §§ 400.209-400.210.

710.2 Adoption petition; verification, contents.

Sec. 2. The petition for adoption shall be verified by each petitioner. It shall contain:

- (a) The name, date and place of birth, and place of residence of each petitioner, including the maiden name of the adopting mother;
- (b) The name, date and place of birth, and place of residence if known of the child sought to be adopted;
- (c) The relationship, if any, of the child to the petitioner;
- (d) The full name by which said child shall be known after adoption;
- (e) The full description of the property, if any, of the child;
- (f) The names of the parents of the child, and the address of each living parent if known: Provided, That if the rights of the natural parents have been terminated by a court of competent jurisdiction, the names and addresses of parents if known may be omitted;
- (g) The name and address of the guardian of the person or estate of the child if any has been appointed;

(h) Any further facts deemed necessary or desirable by the court.

HISTORY: Am. 1945, p. 573, Act 324, Eff. Sept. 6;—CL 1948, 710.2. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 2 of Ch. LXIV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14139;—Am. 1923, p. 94, Act 70, Eff. Aug. 30;—Am. 1925, p. 141, Act 103, Eff. Aug. 27;—Am. 1927, p. 99, Act 75, Eff. Sept. 5;—CL 1929, 15952;—Am. 1931, p. 49, Act 34, Eff. Sept. 18.

710.3 Adoption petition; consent, filing, acknowledgment.

Sec. 3. Consent to such adoption shall be filed:

a. By the parents or the survivor or, in the case of a child born out of wedlock, the mother,

(1) Unless their rights have been terminated by a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(2) Unless the child has been released for the purpose of adoption by the parents or surviving parent, or by the mother if the child is born out of wedlock, to a licensed child placement agency; said release shall be evidenced by a writing duly executed and acknowledged before any probate judge or in counties having a population of 150,000 or more, as determined by the last federal decennial census or by any federal decennial census hereafter taken, before either the judge or the referee of the juvenile court, after said judge or referee has fully explained to the parents their legal rights and the fact that they thereby voluntarily terminate permanently their rights to said child and, after such investigation as to the court may seem proper, or, if executed in any other state or country, in accordance with the laws thereof: Provided, That if the parent is a minor, the natural parent or guardian of said minor parent shall join in the execution of the release and consent, except that, in the case of an illegitimate child, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem for the minor parent who may be a natural parent or guardian, who shall join in the execution of the release and consent;

b. By the individual, or by the duly authorized representative of a placement agency licensed by the state to whom the child shall have been committed by an order of the juvenile division of the probate court having permanent custody of said child, if said child has been so committed: Provided, That such consent shall not be required where the juvenile division of the probate court having permanent custody of the child shall enter an order consenting to said adoption, in which case such order shall constitute the consent to adoption herein required;

c. By the duly authorized representative of the Michigan children's institute, or a placement agency licensed by the state to whom the child has been released, if said child has been so released;

d. By the guardian of the person of said child if one has been appointed;

e. By the superintendent of the Michigan children's institute in case said child has been committed thereto;

f. By said child if over the age of 10 years;

g. By the authorized representative of any child placement agency of any other state which has authority so to do and which consent may be executed and acknowledged before the judge of any court of record of such state. Such consent shall be by a separate instrument acknowledged before the judge of the probate court having jurisdiction or, at the court's direction, before any judge of a court of record in this state or elsewhere: Provided, That when the party to the consent is in any of the armed services, or the child is legally a ward of the Michigan children's institute or of any state licensed child placement agency of this or another state, such consent may be acknowledged before any person authorized by law to administer oaths; and in counties of 250,000 population or more, as determined by the last federal decennial census or by any federal decennial census hereafter taken, such acknowledgment may also be taken before the referee of the probate or juvenile court, after said judge or referee has fully explained to the parents their legal rights and the fact they thereby voluntarily terminate permanently their rights to said child and, after such investigation, as to the court may seem proper: And provided, That proof of such termination, release, authorization, appointment or commitment shall be filed therewith. The execution of the consent hereinbefore mentioned for the purpose of adoption shall terminate the jurisdiction of the circuit court in chancery in any divorce or separate maintenance action over said child.

This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 3 of Ch. LXIV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14140;—CL 1929, 15953.

710.4 Adoption petition; birth certificate, filing.

Sec. 4. Said child's birth certificate or other satisfactory proof of date and place of birth, if obtainable, shall be filed in said cause.

HISTORY: Am. 1945, p. 574, Act 324, Eff. Sept. 6;—CL 1948, 710.4. This section as originally enacted re-enacted Sec. 4 of Ch. LXIV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14141;—Am. 1923, p. 96, Act 70, Eff. Aug. 30;—CL 1929, 15954.

710.5 Adoption petition; investigation; written report, filing within six months.

Sec. 5. The court shall thereupon direct a full investigation by the county agent or probation officer or by a placement agency licensed by the state or by the Michigan children's institute or the state department of social welfare. There shall be considered in such investigation the following:

- (a) The physical and mental health, emotional stability and personal integrity of the petitioner and the ability of the petitioner to promote the welfare of the child;
- (b) The physical and mental condition of the child;
- (c) The child's family background, including names and identifying data regarding the parents, if obtainable;
- (d) Reasons for the child's placement away from his parents, and their attitude toward the proposed adoption;
- (e) The suitability of the adoption of this child by this petitioner, taking into account the child's own attitude toward the adoption in any case in which the child's age makes this feasible.

A written report of the investigation shall be filed in the cause within 6 months.

(f) If the child has reached the age of 7 years or older and has been living under a certain environmental religious doctrine previous to the contemplated placement, such background shall be considered as a factor in the investigative report unless the child has been waiting for six months or more for an adoptive home.

710.6 Adoption petition; child deemed ward of court, termination rights of parents; consent not withdrawn.

Sec. 6. If, upon examination of this report, the judge of probate shall satisfy himself as to:

- (a) The genuineness of consent to such adoption and the legal authority of the person or persons signing such consent.

(b) The good moral character, ability to support and educate such child, and the suitability of the home of the person or persons adopting such child for said child.

(c) The mental and physical condition of the child as a proper subject for adoption in said home, and

(d) That the best interests of such child will be served by said adoption.

He shall forthwith cause to be entered an order which shall terminate the rights of the child's natural parents or the persons in loco parentis except a natural parent who is also a petitioner in said cause, and the child shall thereupon be deemed a ward of said court. Consent to adoption may not thereafter be withdrawn.

710.7 Adoption petition; order of adoption.

Sec. 7. One year after the entry of said order, unless circumstances have arisen that, in the opinion of the court, make adoption undesirable, the court may enter an order of adoption: Provided, however, That if the best interests of the child shall be served thereby, the court may waive the 1 year period, except where such waiver may be objected to in writing by the adopting parents.

710.7a Adoption petition; order of adoption, certified copies.

Sec. 7a. Whenever the court enters an order of adoption, certified copies shall be given to the adopting parents and in case the consent to the adoption was given by a duly authorized representative of a state licensed child placement agency of this or another state or by the Michigan children's institute, then a certified copy of the order of adoption shall be furnished by the court to such licensed agency or the Michigan children's institute.

HISTORY: Add. 1947, p. 684, Act 358, Eff. Oct. 11;—CL 1948, 710.7a.

710.7b Adoption petition; order and record not to contain name of parents or name before adoption.

Sec. 7b. Where the natural parents have given their consent to an adoption and in the case of a child born out of wedlock where the mother has given her consent to an adoption and the adopting parents desire to change the name of the adopted child, the order of adoption and exemplification of record shall not contain the name of the child's parents or mother or the name bestowed upon the child before the adoption.

HISTORY: Add. 1906, p. 105, Act 80, Eff. Mar. 10, 1907.

710.8 Adoption petition; supervision of child before entry of order; supervision and reports made by one agency.

Sec. 8. During the period before entry of the order of adoption said child, in his foster home, shall be supervised at the direction of the court, by a county agent, or a placement agency licensed by the state, or the state department of social welfare, or the county social welfare board, or the Michigan children's institute, who shall make such reports regarding the adjustment of the child in said home as the court shall order. All such investigations shall be made under reasonable circumstances and at reasonable intervals. Not more than 1 agency shall so supervise or make such reports.

710.9 Order of adoption; duties and rights of foster parents; child as heir at law of adopting parents and of kindred of adopting parents; custody.

Sec. 9. Upon the entry of the order of adoption, such child shall, in case of a change of name, thereafter be known and called by said new name, and the person or persons so adopting said child shall thereupon stand in the place of a parent or parents to such child in law, in all respects as though the adopted child had been the natural child of the adopting parents, and be liable to all the duties and entitled to all the rights of parents thereto. Thereupon there shall be no distinction in any way between the rights and duties of natural children and adopted children, and such child shall thereupon become the heir at law of such adopting person or persons, as well as the heir at law of the lineal and collateral kindred of the adopting person or persons, and entitled to inherit property from such person or persons in accordance with the law of descent and distribution of this state: Provided, That nothing herein shall affect his right to inherit from or through his natural parents. On the death of the adopting parents, custody of the adopted child shall be determined as though the child was natural born of the adopting parents.

710.10 Order of adoption; denial; disposition of child.

Sec. 10. If the court shall deny an order of adoption, the court may return the child to the parents or original custodian and restore their rights, or make such disposition appropriate for the welfare of the ward as is authorized by section 18 of Act No. 54 of the Public Acts for 1944, First Extra Session, by an ex parte order entered in said probate court.

NOTE: Sec. 18, Act 54, 1944, 1st Ex. Ses., above referred to, is Compilers' § 712A.18.

710.11 Records of adoption proceedings in separate file; limited inspection; sworn petition; certificate of registration to adopting parents; birth certificate, form.

Sec. 11. (1) All records of proceedings in adoption cases and all papers and books relating to the proceedings shall be kept in separate locked files and shall not be open to inspection or copy except upon order of a court of record for good cause shown expressly permitting inspection or copy. The court after 90 days following entry of the final order of confirmation shall not permit copy or inspection of the adoption proceedings except upon a sworn petition setting forth the purpose of the inspection or copy. The court may order notice and hearing on the petition.

(2) No person in charge of adoption records shall disclose the names of the natural or adoptive parents of a child unless ordered to do so by a court of record, except to meet requirements of the director of public health for the purpose of creating a new certificate of birth in the adoptive name and sealing the original certificate of birth.

(3) The director of public health shall furnish to the adopting parents a certified copy of the new birth certificate which shall not disclose the adoption of the child. A birth certificate issued to an adopted child shall make no reference to adoption and shall conform as nearly as possible to the appearance of birth certificates issued in other cases.

Sec. 13. No person or persons shall offer, give or receive any money or other consideration, or thing of value in connection with the placing of any child for adoption, or in connection with the consent to adoption, or with the petition for adoption except such charges and fees as may be approved by the probate court.

HISTORY: Add. 1945, p. 575, Act 324, Eff. Sept. 6;—CL 1948, 710.13.

710.13a Subsidies to adopting parents; support, pre-existing mental or physical conditions; amount, continuation, termination, source.

Sec. 13a. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of this or any other act, when a petition has been filed to adopt a child who has been in foster care for not less than 4 months, a governmental unit or agency may pay either or both of the following subsidies to the adopting parents:

(a) For support of the child, a subsidy not to exceed $600.00 per year.

(b) For medical, surgical, hospital and related expenses due to a physical or mental condition of the child which existed before the adoption, a subsidy, which may be ordered at any time.

(2) The probate court shall enter an order fixing the amount of the subsidies and containing a finding by the court that after taking testimony from the social agency responsible for placing the child for adoption that efforts have been made to place the child and it has no notice of any other persons who are presently willing and qualified to adopt the child without subsidies.

(3) The subsidies shall continue until the child reaches 19 years of age, becomes emancipated or dies, or until the further order of the court, whichever occurs first. The subsidies shall continue although the adopting parents leave the state. As a condition for continuation of the subsidies, the court shall require the adopting parents to file a sworn report with the court at least once each year as to the location and other matters relating to the child as the court determines, but not including the financial condition of the parents. On the basis of such report or information received by the court at any time indicating changed conditions, other than financial conditions, the subsidies may be discontinued by order of the court. The subsidies shall not affect the legal status of the child, nor the rights and responsibilities of the adoptive parents as provided by law.

(4) The subsidies shall be paid from the same public funds and in the same manner as foster care payments as provided by section 18b of Act No. 280 of the Public Acts of 1939, as added by Act No. 113 of the Public Acts of 1955, being section 400.18b of the Compiled Laws of 1948.

CHAPTER XI.
CHANGE OF NAME OF ADULT OR MINOR

|--|---|
| 711.1 Change of name of adult or minor; procedure; consent, change of name of remainder of family. | 711.2 Change of name of adult or minor; petition, fee; copy of order. |

711.1 Change of name of adult or minor; procedure; consent, change of name of remainder of family.

Sec. 1. The probate court of any county of this state shall have power by an order to be entered on its journal to change the name of any person who has been 1 year a resident of such county and who may make a petition in writing to such court for that purpose showing a sufficient reason for such proposed change and that such change is not sought with any fraudulent or evil intent: Provided, That when such petition is filed, the court shall set time and place for hearing and order publication as provided in sections 32 to 35 of chapter 1 of this act, as amended. Upon the filing of a petition therefor said court may permit any person having the same name, or a similar name as that which such person proposes to assume, to intervene in said proceeding for the purpose of showing said fraudulent or evil intent. When such petitioner is a minor said petition shall be signed by the mother and father jointly, or by the surviving parent if one be deceased, or if both parents be deceased, by the guardian of the person of said minor: Provided, That if either parent shall have been declared to be mentally incompetent, the petition may be signed by the guardian for such parent: Provided, however, That the written consent to the change of name of any minor over the age of 16 years, signed by said minor in the presence of said court, shall be filed with the court before any order changing the name of said minor is entered.

When such petitioner is the husband or head of the family, in its order changing the name of such petitioner, the court shall include the name of the wife of such petitioner and may also in its discretion include the names of such minor children of the petitioner of whom the petitioner has legal custody: Provided, however, That the written consent to the change of name of any child over the age of 16 years signed by said child in the presence of the court shall be filed with the court before the court shall include such child in its order: Provided further, That the name of any minor under the age of 16 years may not be changed unless he or she is the natural or adopted child of petitioners whose names are also changed under the provisions of this act.

Sec. 1. While proceeding under this chapter, the probate court shall be termed the juvenile division of the probate court.

Proceedings under this chapter shall not be deemed to be criminal proceedings.

This chapter shall be liberally construed to the end that each child coming within the jurisdiction of the court shall receive such care, guidance and control, preferably in his own home, as will be conducive to the child's welfare and the best interest of the state and that when such child is removed from the control of his parents the court shall secure for him care as nearly as possible equivalent to the care which should have been given to him by them.

712A.2 Juvenile division of probate court; prior order of another court; transfer to county of residence; programs for prevention of delinquency.

Sec. 2. Except as provided herein, the juvenile division of the probate court shall have:

(a) Exclusive original jurisdiction superior to and regardless of the jurisdiction of any other court in proceedings concerning any child under 17 years of age found within the county

(1) Who has violated any municipal ordinance or law of the state or of the United States; or

(2) Who has deserted his home without sufficient cause or who is repeatedly disobedient to the reasonable and lawful commands of his parents, guardian or other custodian; or

(3) Who repeatedly associates with immoral persons, or who is leading an immoral life; or is found on premises occupied or used for illegal purposes; or

(4) Who, being required by law to attend school, wilfully and repeatedly absents himself therefrom, or repeatedly violates rules and regulations thereof; or

(5) Who habitually idles away his or her time; or

(6) Who repeatedly patronizes or frequents any tavern or place where the principal purpose of the business conducted is the sale of alcoholic liquors.

(b) Jurisdiction in proceedings concerning any child under 17 years of age found within the county

(1) Whose parent or other person legally responsible for the care and maintenance of such child, when able to do so, neglects or refuses to provide proper or necessary support, education as required by law, medical, surgical or other care necessary for his health, morals or well-being, or who is abandoned by his parents, guardian or other custodian, or who is otherwise without proper custody or guardianship; or

(2) Whose home or environment, by reason of neglect, cruelty, drunkenness, criminality or depravity on the part of a parent, guardian or other custodian, is an unfit place for such child to live in, or whose mother is unmarried and without adequate provision for care and support.

In the event a petition is filed in any probate court alleging that a child is within the provisions of subdivisions (b) (1) or (b) (2) of this section, and the custody of such child shall be subject to the prior or continuing order of another court of record of this state, the court in which such petition is filed shall forthwith cause notice of the filing of such petition to be served upon the prosecuting attorney for the county in which such other court is situated, personally or by registered mail. Immediately upon receiving such notice, the prosecuting attorney shall prepare and file such pleadings, petitions, notices or orders as may be necessary to bring the matter before such other court for hearing and such disposition, consistent with the powers of such court, as may be for the best interests of such child. Pending action by such other court in regard to the matter, the probate court with which such petition has been filed shall have jurisdiction to make any temporary orders pertaining to care or custody which may be deemed advisable or necessary for the protection of such child.

(c) Jurisdiction over children under 19 years of age, jurisdiction of whom shall have been waived to the juvenile division of the probate court by a court in chancery by provision to that effect in a temporary order for custody of children based upon a bill for divorce or upon a motion pursuant to such a bill for divorce by the prosecuting attorney, or in a decree of divorce dissolving a marriage between the parents of such minor children, or by an amended decree relative to the custody of such child in such a divorce.

(d) Concurrent jurisdiction in proceedings concerning any child between the ages of 17 and 19 found within the county

(1) Who is repeatedly addicted to the use of drugs or the intemperate use of alcoholic liquors; or

(2) Who repeatedly associates with criminal, dissolute or disorderly persons; or

(3) Who is found of his or her own free will and knowledge in a house of prostitution or assignation or ill-fame; or

(4) Who repeatedly associates with thieves, prostitutes, pimps or procurers; or

(5) Who is wilfully disobedient to the reasonable and lawful commands of his parents, guardian or other custodian and is in danger of becoming morally depraved; or

(6) Who habitually idles away his or her time.

If any child is brought before the juvenile division of the probate court in a county other than that in which said child resides, said court may enter an order prior to hearing transferring the jurisdiction of such matter to the court of the county of residence (which shall not be construed as settlement as defined in section 55(a-1) of Act No. 280 of the Public Acts of 1939, as amended, being section 400.55 of the Compiled Laws of 1948), with the consent of the judge of probate of said county of residence, which order, together with a certified copy of the proceedings theretofore had in the court of such county other than residence, shall be delivered to the court of the county of residence.

(e) Authority to establish or assist in the development of a program or programs within the county to prevent delinquency and provide services to act upon reports submitted to the court related to behavior of children who do not require formal court jurisdiction but otherwise fall within subdivision (a) of this section. Such services shall be voluntarily accepted by the child and his parents, guardian or custodian.

712A.2a Juvenile division of probate court; extent of jurisdiction.

Sec. 2a. Where the juvenile division of any probate court has exercised jurisdiction over any child under the provisions of section 2 of this chapter by virtue of any of the provisions under subdivision (a) or (b) jurisdiction shall continue until the child's nineteenth birthday, other than in criminal complaints occurring subsequent to the child's seventeenth birthday, unless released sooner by order of said court.

712A.2b Juvenile division of probate court; procedure of hearing.

Sec. 2b. When a child is accused of an act, the nature of which constitutes a violation of Act No. 300 of the Public Acts of 1949, as amended, being sections 257.1 to 257.923 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, or of a provision of an ordinance substantially corresponding to any provision of Act No. 300 of the Public Acts of 1949, as amended, the following procedure shall apply, any other provision of this chapter notwithstanding:

(a) No petition shall be required, but the probate court may act upon a copy of the written notice to appear given the accused child as required by section 728 of Act No.

300 of the Public Acts of 1949, as amended, being section 257.728 of the Compiled Laws of 1948.

(b) The parent or parents, guardian, or custodian of the child may be required to attend a hearing conducted in accordance with this section when notified by the probate court, without additional service of process or delay, however, the probate court may extend the time for such appearance.

(c) If, after hearing the case, the probate court finds the accusation to be true, the court may dispose of the case in accordance with section 18 of this chapter.

(d) Within 10 days after a hearing in which the probate court finds an accusation made in accordance with this section against a child to be true, the court shall prepare and forward an abstract of its finding in accordance with section 732 of Act No. 300 of the Public Acts of 1949, as amended, being section 257.732 of the Compiled Laws of 1948.

(e) This section shall not be construed as limiting the discretion of the probate court to restrict the driving privileges of a child as a term or condition of probation.

HISTORY: Add. 1965, p. 61, Act 42, Imd. Eff. May 25.

712A.3 Juvenile division of probate court; transfer of cases from other court of child under seventeen.

Sec. 3. If during the pendency of a criminal charge against any person in any other court, it is ascertained that the person was under the age of 17 years at the time of the commission of the offense, the court shall transfer such case without delay, together with all the papers, documents, and testimony connected therewith, to the juvenile division of the probate court of the county in which such other court is situated or in which the person resides.

The court making such transfer shall order the child to be taken forthwith to the place of detention designated by the juvenile division of the probate court or to that court itself, or release the child in the custody of some suitable person to appear before the probate court at a time designated. The juvenile division of the probate court shall thereupon proceed to hear and dispose of the case in the same manner as if it had been instituted in the probate court in the first instance.

712A.3a Prior order of another court affecting child's welfare; notice, filing, service, disclosure.

Sec. 3a. When any order affecting the welfare of a child is entered under this chapter by the judge of probate in any case where the child is subject to the prior or continuing order of any other court of this state, a notice thereof shall be filed in such other court and a copy of such notice shall be served personally or by registered mail upon the parents, guardian, or persons in loco parentis and upon the prosecuting attorney of the county wherein such other court is located. Such notices shall not disclose any allegations or findings of facts set forth in such petitions or orders, nor the actual person or institution to whom custody is changed. Such facts may be disclosed directly to such prosecuting attorney and shall be disclosed on request of the prosecuting attorney or by order of such other court, but shall be considered as confidential information, the disclosure of which will be subject to the same care as in all juvenile matters.

712A.4 Jurisdiction; waiver; trial in criminal court.

Sec. 4. In any case where a child over the age of 15 years is accused of any act the nature of which constitutes a felony, the judge of probate of the county wherein the offense is alleged to have been committed may, after investigation and examination, including notice to the prosecuting attorney, and parents or guardians if addresses are known, and upon the court's own motion or motion of the prosecuting attorney, waive jurisdiction; whereupon it shall be lawful to try such child in the court having general criminal jurisdiction of such offense.

HISTORY: Add. 1944, 1st Ex. Ses., p. 118, Act 54, Imd. Eff. March 6;—Am. 1946, 1st Ex. Ses., p. 44, Act 22, Imd. Eff. Feb. 26;—CL 1948, 712A.4;—Am. 1969, p. 287, Act 140, Eff. Mar. 20, 1970.

712A.5 Jurisdiction; child over nineteen years old; exception.

Sec. 5. No probate court shall have jurisdiction over any child under the juvenile division of the probate court after he or she shall have reached the age of 19 years, except as herein provided. No commitment of any child to a private or public institution or agency shall be valid after such child has reached the age of 19 years except that when a child shall have come within the jurisdiction of the probate court under the provisions of subsection "c" of section 2 and is committed to the Michigan corrections commission as provided in subsection "f" of section 18. Commitments to a private or incorporated institution or agency shall not divest the probate court of jurisdiction unless such child is adopted in a manner provided by law.

712A.6 Jurisdiction; adults.

Sec. 6. The juvenile division of the probate court shall have jurisdiction over adults as hereinafter provided and may make such orders affecting adults as in the opinion of the court are necessary for the physical, mental, or moral well-being of a particular child or children under its jurisdiction: Provided, That such orders shall be incidental to the jurisdiction of the court over such child or children.

712A.7 Juvenile division of probate court; register of probate; appointment, duties, salary.

Sec. 7. The judge of probate may appoint the register of probate, a deputy probate register, or clerk of his court as register of the juvenile division of the probate court. Such register of the juvenile division shall prepare all petitions for investigation, summons, writs and other necessary papers, and shall perform such duties as required by the judge of probate, and he shall exercise and be competent to do all acts required of the judge of probate, except judicial acts. Such register so appointed shall receive for his services under this chapter, in addition to his regular salary, such sum as the board of supervisors shall fix: Provided, however, That in counties having a population of 100,000, and not more than 350,000 inhabitants, according to the last federal census, the compensation shall be not less than $500.00 annually.

This section re-enacts Sec. 9 of Ch. XII of Act 288 of 1939, which superseded part of Sec. 5 of Act 6, Ex. Ses., 1907;—Am. 1909, p. 762, Act 310, Eff. Sept. 1;—Am. 1911, p. 268, Act 164, Eff. NOTE: Regular salary, see Compilers' § 701.12.

712A.8 County agent; creation of office; duties; assistants.

Sec. 8. The office of county agent is hereby created. The county agent shall be an officer of the juvenile division of the probate court and under the general supervision of the judges thereof and shall serve during their pleasure. The county agent shall organize, direct and develop the child welfare work of the court when so authorized by the judge. He shall, when requested by the superintendent or director, supervise children when released from public institutions or agencies and may perform such other child welfare work as requested and with the approval of the judge, including services to school-age children of the various school districts within the county, after consultation and agreement with the county school commissioner and the superintendents of schools in a county. The county agent or assistants shall, with the approval of the judge of probate, make such investigations and reports on children or families within the county as may be requested by the state department of social welfare or by the superintendent of any state institution relative to the welfare of any child. The state department of social welfare shall assist in the work of the county agents and assistants as provided in subdivision (c) of section 14 of Act No. 280 of the Public Acts of 1939. Assistant county agents shall perform such duties as may be assigned to them by the county agent.

712A.9 Probation officers; appointment, compensation, duties; notification to social welfare office.

Sec. 9. The judge of probate in each county may appoint 1 or more suitable persons of good character and qualified training or experience, other than the county agent or assistants, to act as probation officer, who shall receive such compensation as the board of supervisors may appropriate for that purpose, and who, at the discretion of the judge, may be authorized and empowered to perform county agent duties.

The judge of probate may also appoint other probation officers who shall receive no compensation from the county treasury for the duties performed under such appointment.

It shall be the duty of the judge of probate to notify the state department of social welfare of the appointment of all paid probation officers made by him under the provisions of this chapter. All probation officers shall hold office during the pleasure of the court and shall report to the said court upon all cases under their care.

712A.10 Probation officer; county agent as referee; oath.

Sec. 10. The judge of probate may designate a probation officer or county agent to act as referee in taking the testimony of witnesses and hearing the statements of parties upon the hearing of petitions alleging that a child is within the provisions of this chapter, where there is no objection by parties in interest. The probation officer or county agent so designated shall take and subscribe the oath of office provided by the constitution and shall have authority to administer oaths and examine witnesses, and shall in all cases so referred for hearing and taking of testimony make a written signed report to the judge of probate containing a summary of the testimony taken and a recommendation for the court's findings and disposition of such matters.

712A.11 Preliminary inquiry; petition.

Sec. 11. Whenever any person gives information to the juvenile division of the probate court that a child is within the provisions of this chapter, a preliminary inquiry may be made to determine whether the interests of the public or of the child require that further action be taken. If it appears that formal jurisdiction should be acquired, the court shall authorize a petition to be filed.

The petition shall be verified and may be upon information and belief. It shall set forth plainly the facts which bring said child within the provisions of this chapter, and shall state (1) the name, birth date, and residence of the child; the names and residence: (2) of the parents; (3) of his legal guardian, if there is one; (4) of the person or persons having custody or control of the child; and (5) of the nearest known relative if no parent or guardian can be found. If any of the facts herein required are not known to the petitioner, the petition shall so state. If the child attains his seventeenth birthday after the filing of the petition, the jurisdiction of the court shall continue beyond his seventeenth birthday and the court shall have authority to hear and dispose of the petition in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

Any petition or other court records may be amended at any stage of the proceedings, as the ends of justice may require.

If it appears that the services of the court can be utilized in the prevention of delinquency without formal jurisdiction, the court may offer the services of the court to children without a petition being authorized as provided in subdivision (e) of section 2 of this chapter.

712A.12 Examination of child; hearing; summons.

Sec. 12. After a petition shall have been filed and after such further investigation as the court may direct, in the course of which the court may order the child to be examined by a physician, dentist, psychologist or psychiatrist, the court may dismiss said petition or may issue a summons reciting briefly the substance of the petition, and requiring the person or persons who have the custody or control of the child, or with whom the child may be, to appear personally and bring the child before the court at a time and place stated: Provided, That the court in its discretion may excuse but not restrict children from attending the hearing. If the person so summoned shall be other than the parent or guardian of the child, then the parents or guardian, or both, shall also be notified of the petition and of the time and place appointed for the hearing thereon, by personal service before the hearing, except as hereinafter provided. Summons may be issued requiring the appearance of any other person whose presence, in the opinion of the judge, is necessary.

Any interested party who shall voluntarily appear in said proceedings, may, by writing, waive service of process or notice of hearing.

712A.13 Service of summons.

Sec. 13. Service of summons may be made anywhere in the state personally by the delivery of true copies thereof to the persons summoned: Provided, That if the judge is satisfied that it is impracticable to serve personally such summons or the notice provided for in the preceding section, he may order service by registered mail addressed to their last known addresses, or by publication thereof, or both, as he may direct. It shall be sufficient to confer jurisdiction if (1) personal service is effected at least 72 hours before the date of hearing; (2) registered mail is mailed at least 5 days before the date of hearing if within the state or 14 days if outside of the state; (3) publication is made once in some newspaper printed and circulated in the county in which said court is located at least 1 week before the time fixed in the summons or notice for the hearing.

Service of summons, notices or orders required by this chapter may be made by any peace officer or by any other suitable person designated by the judge. The judge may, in his discretion, authorize the payment of necessary traveling expenses incurred by any person summoned or otherwise required to appear at the time of hearing of any case coming within the provisions of this chapter, and such expenses and the expenses of making service as above provided, when approved by the judge, shall be paid by the county treasurer from the general fund of the county.

If any person so summoned, as herein provided, shall fail without reasonable cause to appear before said court, he may be proceeded against for contempt of court and punished accordingly.

712A.14 Child taken into custody; release to parents, guardian, or custodian; hearing; order of court; placement.

Sec. 14. Any municipal police officer, sheriff or deputy sheriff, state police officer, county agent or probation officer of any court of record may, without the order of the court, immediately take into custody any child who is found violating any law or ordinance, or whose surroundings are such as to endanger his health, morals or welfare. Whenever any such officer or county agent takes a child coming within the provisions of this chapter into custody, he shall forthwith notify the parent or parents, guardian or custodian, if they can be found within the county. While awaiting the arrival of the parent or parents, guardian or custodian, no child under the age of 17 years taken into custody under the provisions of this chapter shall be held in any detention facility unless such child be completely isolated so as to prevent any verbal, visual or physical contact with any adult prisoner. Unless the child requires immediate detention as hereinafter provided, the arresting officer shall accept the written promise of said parent or parents, guardian or custodian, to bring the child to the court at a time fixed therein. Thereupon such child shall be released to the custody of said parent or parents, guardian or custodian.

If not so released, such child and his parents, guardian or custodian, if they can be located, shall forthwith be brought before the court for a preliminary hearing on his status, and an order signed by a judge of probate or a referee authorizing the filing of a complaint shall be entered or the child shall be released to his parents, guardian or custodian.

In the event the complaint is authorized the order shall also direct the placement of the child, pending investigation and hearing, which placement may be in the home of parents, guardian or custodian, in the boarding care of a licensed child care agency, or in a suitable place of detention designated by the court.

712A.15 Child under nineteen years old; detention, limitation.

Sec. 15. In the case of any child under the age of 19 years concerning whom a complaint has been made as hereinbefore provided, or a petition or supplemental petition or petition for revocation of probation has been filed, the court may order said child, pending the hearing, detained in such place of detention as shall be designated: Provided, That nothing herein shall prevent the court from releasing the child, pending said hearing, in the custody of a parent, guardian, or custodian, to be brought before the court at the time designated.

Detention, pending hearing, shall be limited to the following children:

- (a) Those whose home conditions make immediate removal necessary;
- (b) Those who have run away from home;

- (c) Those whose offenses are so serious that release would endanger public safety;
- (d) Those detained for observation, study and treatment by qualified experts.

712A.16 Child under seventeen years old; confinement prohibited, exception.

Sec. 16. (1) In case a child under the age of 17 years is taken into custody or detained, such child shall not be confined in any police station, prison, jail, lock-up, or reformatory, or be transported with, or compelled or permitted to associate or mingle with, criminal or dissolute persons. However, a child 15 years of age or older whose habits or conduct are deemed such as to constitute a menace to other children, or who may not otherwise be safely detained, may, on order of the court, be placed in a jail or other place of detention for adults, but in a room or ward separate from adults, and for a period not to exceed 30 days, unless longer detention is necessary for the service of process.

Child care home, standards; use of jails.

(2) Provision may be made by the board of supervisors in each county or of counties contracting together for the diagnosis, treatment, care, training, and detention of children in a child care home to be conducted as an agency of the court or county, provided such home or facility meets licensing standards as established by the state department of social services. The court or a court approved agency may arrange for the boarding of such children in private homes, subject to the supervision of the court, or may arrange with an incorporated institution or agency approved by the state department of social services, to receive for care children within the jurisdiction of the court; or may use a room or ward, separate and apart from adult criminals, in the county jail in cases of children over 17 years of age and under 19 years of age within the jurisdiction of the court.

Detention home, superintendent, employees, compensation.

(3) In case a detention home is established as an agency of the court, the judge may appoint a superintendent or matron and other necessary employees for such home who shall receive such compensation as shall be provided by the board of supervisors of such county. Nothing in this section shall alter, or diminish, the legal responsibility of the state department of social services to receive juveniles committed by the probate courts.

Private homes, institutions or agencies, compensation.

(4) In case the court shall arrange for the board of children temporarily detained in private homes or in an institution or agency, a reasonable sum, to be fixed by the court, for the board of such children shall be paid by the county treasurer out of the general fund of the county.

Provided for joint regional facilities for diagnosis and custody of minors pending criminal proceedings.

712A.17 Hearings; jury; bond; counsel to represent child.

Sec. 17. The court may conduct hearings in an informal manner and may adjourn the hearing from time to time. Stenographic notes or other transcript of the hearing shall be taken only when requested by an attorney of record or when so ordered by the court. In the hearing of any case the general public may be excluded and only such persons admitted as have a direct interest in the case.

In all hearings under this chapter, any person interested therein may demand a jury of 6, or the judge of probate of his own motion, may order a jury of the same number to try the case. Such jury shall be summoned and impanelled in accordance with the law relating to juries in courts held by justices of the peace.

Any parent, guardian, or other custodian of any child held under this chapter shall have the right to give bond or other security for the appearance of the child at the hearing of such case; and in the event such child or his or her parents desire counsel and are unable to procure same, the court in its discretion may appoint counsel to represent the child. The attorney so appointed shall be entitled to receive from the county treasurer from the general fund of the county, on the certificate of the probate judge that such services have been duly rendered, such an amount as the probate judge shall, in his discretion, deem reasonable compensation for the services performed: Provided, That the prosecuting attorney shall appear for the people when requested by the court.

712A.18 Order of deposition of child.

Sec. 18. If the court shall find that a child, concerning whom a petition has been filed, is not within the provisions of this chapter, he shall enter an order dismissing said petition. If, however, the court shall find that a child is within the provisions of this chapter, he may enter an order of disposition which shall be appropriate for the welfare of said child and society in view of the facts so proven and ascertained, as follows:

Warning.

(a) Warn the child or the parents, guardian, or custodian and dismiss the petition;

Probation in own home.

(b) Place the child on probation, or under supervision in his own home, upon such terms and conditions (including reasonable rules for the conduct of the parents, guardian, or custodian, designed for the physical, mental or moral well-being and behavior of the child) as the court shall determine;

Placement in licensed boarding home.

(c) Place the child in a suitable boarding home, which if a home of persons not related to said child, shall be licensed as provided by law;

Placement in licensed private institution or agency.

(d) Place the child in or commit the child to a private institution or agency incorporated under the laws of this state and approved or licensed by the state department of social welfare for the care of children of similar age, sex and characteristics;

Commitment to public institution or county facility; religious affiliation; reimbursement of cost; notice to revenue department; special guardian.

(e) Commit the child to a public institution or county facility or institution operated as an agency of the court or county or agency authorized by law to receive children of similar age, sex and characteristics. In every placement under subsection (d), or every commitment under subsection (e), excepting to a state institution, the religious affiliation of the child shall be protected, by placement or commitment to a private child-placing or child-caring agency/institution, if available. In every commitment to a state or county institution or agency under this subsection, except when all parental rights are terminated, the order shall contain a provision requiring the parent or parents retaining parental rights to reimburse the state or county monthly for the cost of the care given the child to the extent such parent or parents are able so to do as shall be determined by the court. The amount of such reimbursement to be paid shall be included in the order of commitment of the child. It shall be the duty of the superintendent to notify the department of revenue of the date any child was received in the institution or agency when the order committing such child included an amount of reimbursement to be paid the state. The department of revenue shall collect the amounts so determined and credit them to the general fund of the state: Provided, That no collections shall be made after a child is released or discharged except delinquent accounts. The court in every order of commitment to a state institution or agency under this subsection shall name the superintendent of the institution to which the child is committed as a special guardian to receive any benefits due the child from the government of the United States, and such benefits are to be used to the extent necessary to pay for the portions of the cost of care in the institution which the parent or parents are found unable to pay;

Jail confinement for 17-19 year old children; parole; separate care.

(f) In the case of a child between 17 years of age and 19 years of age, commit for a period not to exceed 30 days to the county jail, or commit said child for such minimum term as the judge may determine to the Michigan corrections commission for correctional treatment and care. Parole shall be granted, rescinded, amended or revoked, or discharge granted, by said commission in the manner prescribed by chapter 3 of Act No. 232 of the Public Acts of 1953, being sections 791.231 to 791.245 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, and any child violating parole shall be treated in accordance with the provisions of said chapter 3 of Act No. 232 of the Public Acts of 1953 and the period of time between the date of commitment and the date on which said child reaches the age of 21 years shall be considered in the maximum term: Provided, however, That any child so committed shall be confined and cared for separate and apart from persons committed by courts of criminal jurisdiction, and shall not be confined or subject to probationary or parole orders beyond his twenty-first birthday;

Reimbursement by parent.

(g) Require that the parent or other adult legally responsible for the care of such child, unless said child is in the permanent custody of the court, provided such care, or reimburse the county or state for the cost of any care provided or to be provided by the county or state on order of the court, as shall to the court seem reasonable and within the ability of said parent or adult so to do, and such reimbursement shall be credited to the general fund of the county or state;

Health care.

(h) Provide the child with such medical, dental, surgical or other health care, in a local hospital if available or elsewhere, maintaining insofar as possible a local physician-patient relationship, and with clothing and such other incidental items, as to the court seems necessary;

Conduct of parents, guardian, or custodian.

(i) Order the parents, guardian or custodian or any other person to refrain from continuing conduct which, in the opinion of the court, has caused or tended to cause the child to come within, or to remain under, the provisions of this act.

Order; hearing, service of notice.

Any order directed to a parent, or any person other than the child, shall not be effectual and binding on said parent or other person unless opportunity for hearing has been given pursuant to issuance of summons or notice as provided in sections 12 and 13 of this chapter, and until a copy of such order, bearing the seal of said court, shall have been served on such parent or other person, (1) personally, or, (2) by registered mail to his last known address, as hereinbefore provided in section 13.

712A.18a Commitment of child to out-of-state institutions; validation of prior commitments.

Sec. 18a. Where desirable or necessary, the court may place the child in or commit the child to a private institution or agency incorporated under the laws of another state and approved or licensed by that state's department of social welfare, or the equivalent approving or licensing agency, for the care of children of similar age, sex and characteristics. Any order committing a child to such an out-of-state institution made prior to the effective date of this section which is otherwise valid is hereby validated from the date of its entry.

712A.18b Reimbursement order; failure to comply, contempt of court; assignment of wages.

Sec. 18b. Whenever the court under section 18 of this act enters a reimbursement order and the parent or other adult legally responsible for the care of the child fails or refuses to obey and perform the order, and has been found guilty of contempt of court for such failure or refusal, the court making the order may order an assignment to the county or state of the salary, wages or other income of the person responsible for the care of the child, which assignment shall continue until the support is paid in full. The order of assignment shall be effective 1 week after service upon the employer of a true copy of the order by personal service or by registered or certified mail. Thereafter the employer shall withhold from the earnings due the employee the amount specified in the order of assignment for transmittal to the county or state until notified by the court that the support arrearage is paid in full. An employer shall not use the assignment as a basis, in whole or in part, for the discharge of an employee or for any other disciplinary action against an employee. Compliance by an employer with the order of assignment operates as a discharge of the employer's liability to the employee as to that portion of the employee's earnings so affected.

712A.19 Supplemental order of disposition; foster care, rehearings, reports.

Sec. 19. Such cause may be terminated or such order may be amended or supplemented, within the authority granted to the court in the preceding section 18, at any time or from time to time, as to the court seems necessary and proper, as long as the child remains under the jurisdiction of the court, subject to the provisions of section 20, and such amended or supplemented order shall be referred to as a "supplemental order of disposition". In all cases in which the child is placed in foster care, the cause shall be reheard not more than 6 months after entry of the order of disposition, at which time the parents of the child shall appear and be required to show the efforts made by them to reestablish a home for the child. The showing shall be recorded stenographically at a hearing held by the judge or referee. If the child remains in foster care in the temporary custody of the court following such hearing, the cause shall be further reheard not more than 1 year after entry of the original order of disposition. At such hearing the parents shall appear and be required to show the further efforts made by them to reestablish a home for the child, and also to show why the child should not be placed in permanent custody of the court. If the child is not placed in permanent custody of the court, such cause shall be reheard not less frequently than annually in the same manner. The county juvenile agent shall submit reports at such hearings based on investigations conducted by his office or by a probation officer or on information submitted by a suitable public or private family service or child caring agency approved by the court, regarding the situation of the child's family and close relatives and the possibility of their reestablishing a home for the child.

712A.20 Temporary or permanent custody.

Sec. 20. The court in all cases involving custody shall state in the order for disposition or any supplemental order of disposition whether the child is placed in the temporary or permanent custody of the court. If the child is placed in the temporary custody of the court, no supplemental order of disposition providing permanent custody, or containing any other order of disposition shall be made except at a hearing pursuant to issuance of summons or notice as provided in sections 12 and 13 of this chapter or at a rehearing provided by section 19 of this chapter. If the child is placed in the permanent custody of the court, all parental rights are terminated, though such rights may be reinstated by a supplemental order of disposition after rehearing pursuant to section 21.

712A.21 Rehearing; petition; supplemental orders.

Sec. 21. Any interested person, at any time while the child is under the jurisdiction of the court, may file a petition, in writing and under oath, for a rehearing upon all matters coming within the provisions of this chapter, and upon the rehearing the court may affirm, modify or set aside any order so reviewed. If parental rights have been terminated by an order entered in the proceedings and custody of the child has been removed from the parents, guardian or other person, the petition for rehearing shall be filed within 3 months from the date of entry of the order terminating parental rights; and the petition shall set forth in detail the place, manner and all other information requested by the court in reference to the proposed future custody of the child. The rehearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this chapter relative to the conduct of original hearings. At any time the court may enter an order for supplemental disposition as long as the child remains under the jurisdiction of the court.

712A.22 Appeal to circuit court; procedure.

Sec. 22. Appeal may be taken to the circuit court by the prosecuting attorney or any person aggrieved by any order of the juvenile division of the probate court, in the same manner as from other orders or judgments of the probate court as provided by section 45a of chapter 1. The pendency of an appeal shall not suspend the order unless the circuit court shall specifically so order. An application for a delayed appeal from any order or judgment shall be filed within 6 months after entry thereof.

712A.23 Unlawful evidence in actions against child.

Sec. 23. A disposition of any child under this chapter, or any evidence given in such case, shall not in any civil, criminal or any other cause or proceeding whatever in any court, be lawful or proper evidence against such child for any purpose whatever, except in subsequent cases against the same child under this chapter.

712A.24 Placement in institutions; summary of information; conveyance of child; progress report.

Sec. 24. Whenever the court shall place a child in any public or private institution or agency, it shall transmit with the order of disposition or supplemental order of disposition a summary of its information concerning such child, and such child may be placed in the care of a county agent, probation officer, juvenile matron or some other reliable person designated by the court to be conveyed to the institution, and the same compensation shall be paid by the state for the transportation of said child as is paid to county agents in like cases.

Whenever the court shall place a child in a private or incorporated institution or agency, it shall require a progress report concerning said child which shall be made at least once every 6 months from the date of the order.

HISTORY: Add. 1944, 1st Ex. Ses., p. 124, Act 54, Imd. Eff. March 6;—Am. 1947, p. 451, Act 284, Eff. Oct. 11;—CL 1948, 712A.24. See Sec. 20 of Ch. XII of Act 288 of 1939, also CL 1929, 12838.

712A.25 Foster care of children; expenses, payment; rules; standards of care.

Sec. 25. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter, except as may otherwise be specifically provided by law, shall be paid upon the order of the judge of probate by the county treasurer from the general fund of the county: Provided, That the provisions of Act No. 283 of the Public Acts of 1939, as amended, being sections 722.301 to 722.325, inclusive, of the Compiled Laws of 1948, and Act No. 158 of the Public Acts of 1937, as amended, being sections 722.201 to 722.244, inclusive, of the Compiled Laws of 1948, shall remain in full force and effect: And provided further, That payments for the foster care of children may also be made from the child care fund of the county, established in section 73 of Act No. 280 of the Public Acts of 1939, as amended, being section 400.73 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, for receiving state funds for foster care if the children are in the care of a licensed child caring institution or placement agency; or, the children having been placed under the direct supervision of the court, payments may be made from the said child care fund of the county if the court certifies in its order to the treasurer that the care given the child meets administrative rules of the probate court for such care and service established as herein provided: Provided, That payments may be made without such certification during the 1-year period following the effective date of this act or until the rules are established, whichever period of time is shorter. Immediately following the effective date of this act, the presiding probate judge shall appoint a committee of probate judges on administrative rules for the care of children in foster care. The committee of probate judges shall confer with the director of the state social welfare department for the purpose of promulgating said rules.

Such rules shall include standards of (1) personnel engaged in placement and supervision of children; (2) record keeping for the planning for the child; (3) homes selected for foster care; (4) family foster homes used by the court shall be selected with consideration of the religious, racial and cultural background of the child to be placed.

AN ACT to make all debts for labor preferred claims against the estates of debtors becoming insolvent, and give the same precedence over all debts not a lien on such estates prior to the performance of such labor.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

720.1 Labor claims; preference against insolvent estates.

Sec. 1. All debts which shall be owing for labor by any person at the time he shall be found insolvent in any insolvency proceedings, voluntary or involuntary, shall be preferred claims against the estate of such insolvent debtor and have precedence in the payment thereof over all debts owing by such insolvent debtor at the time of becoming insolvent, which shall not have become a lien on such estate, or some portion thereof, prior to the performance of the labor for which such debt for labor shall be owing.

720.2 Receiver; appointment; marshaling and application of assets.

Sec. 2. Any person having a preferred claim hereunder, the amount whereof shall be $100.00 or more, or any 2 or more persons having such claims, the aggregate amount whereof shall be $100.00 or more, and who may join for the purpose, may proceed in chancery for the appointment of a receiver, and the marshaling of assets, and the application thereof to the payment of the claim or claims involved, pro rata or otherwise, in case of any fraud affecting such claim or claims, or the recovery, satisfaction or payment thereof, or if a common law or other assignment for the benefit of creditors shall have been made by the defendants or any of them.

720.3 Person; definition.

Act 144, 1963, p. 197; Eff. Sep. 6.

AN ACT to provide for the apportionment of federal estate taxes and additional Michigan inheritance taxes.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

720.11 Uniform estate tax apportionment act; definitions.

Sec. 1. As used in this act:

(a) "Estate" means the gross estate of a decedent as determined for the purpose of federal estate tax and the estate tax payable to this state.

(b) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, joint stock company, corporation, government, political subdivision, governmental agency, or local governmental agency.

(c) "Person interested in the estate" means any person entitled to receive, or who has received, from a decedent or by reason of the death of a decedent any property or interest therein included in the decedent's estate. It includes a personal representative, guardian, and trustee.

(d) "State" means any state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(e) "Tax" means the federal estate tax and the additional inheritance tax provided by section 2b of Act No. 188 of the Public Acts of 1899, being section 205.202b of the Compiled Laws of 1948 and interest and penalties imposed in addition to the tax.

(f) "Fiduciary" means executor, administrator of any description, or trustee.

720.12 Apportionment of estate tax; values; wills.

Sec. 2. Unless the will otherwise provides, the tax shall be apportioned among all persons interested in the estate. The apportionment shall be made in the proportion that the value of the interest of each person interested in the estate bears to the total value of the interests of all persons interested in the estate. The values used in determining the tax shall be used for that purpose. In the event the decedent's will directs a method of apportionment of tax different from the method described in this act, the method described in the will shall control.

720.13 Apportionment of estate tax; determination by probate court; interest, penalties.

Sec. 3. (a) The probate court having jurisdiction over the administration of the estate of a decedent shall determine the apportionment of the tax. If there are no probate proceedings, the probate court of the county wherein the decedent was domiciled at death upon the application of the person required to pay the tax shall determine the apportionment of the tax.

(b) If the probate court finds that it is inequitable to apportion interest and penalties in the manner provided in section 2, because of special circumstances, it may direct apportionment thereof in the manner it finds equitable.

(c) If the probate court finds that the assessment of penalties and interest assessed in relation to the tax is due to delay caused by the negligence of the fiduciary, the court may charge the fiduciary with the amount of the assessed penalties and interest.

(d) In any suit or judicial proceeding to recover from any person interested in the estate the amount of the tax apportioned to the person in accordance with this act, the determination of the probate court in respect thereto shall be prima facie correct.

720.14 Apportionment of estate tax; responsibility of fiduciary.

Sec. 4. (a) The fiduciary or other person in possession of the property of the decedent required to pay the tax may withhold from any property distributable to any person interested in the estate, upon its distribution to him, the amount of tax attributable to his interest. If the property in possession of the fiduciary or other person required to pay the tax and distributable to any person interested in the estate is insufficient to satisfy the proportionate amount of the tax determined to be due from the person, the fiduciary or other person required to pay the tax may recover the deficiency from the person interested in the estate. If the property is not in the possession of the fiduciary or other person required to pay the tax, the fiduciary or the other person required to pay the tax may recover from any person interested in the estate the amount of the tax apportioned to the person in accordance with this act.

(b) If property held by the fiduciary is distributed prior to final apportionment of the tax, the distributee shall provide a bond or other security for the apportionment liability in the form and amount prescribed by the fiduciary, with the approval of the probate court having jurisdiction of the administration of the estate.

720.15 Apportionment of estate tax; allowances for exemptions and deductions.

Sec. 5. (a) In making an apportionment, allowances shall be made for any exemptions granted, any classification made of persons interested in the estate and for any deductions and credits allowed by the law imposing the tax.

(b) Any exemption or deduction allowed by reason of the relationship of any person to the decedent or by reason of the purposes of the gift shall inure to the benefit of the person bearing such relationship or receiving the gift; except that when an interest is subject to a prior present interest which is not allowable as a deduction, the tax apportionable against the present interest shall be paid from principal.

(c) Any deduction for property previously taxed and any credit for gift taxes or death taxes of a foreign country paid by the decedent or his estate shall inure to the proportionate benefit of all persons liable to apportionment.

(d) Any credit for inheritance, succession or estate taxes or taxes in the nature thereof in respect to property or interests includable in the estate shall inure to the benefit of the persons or interests chargeable with the payment thereof to the extent that, or in proportion as the credit reduces the tax.

(e) To the extent that property passing to or in trust for a surviving spouse or any charitable, public, or similar gift or bequest does not constitute an allowable deduction for purposes of the tax solely by reason of an inheritance tax or other death tax imposed upon and deductible from the property, the property shall not be included in the computation provided for in section 2 hereof, and to that extent no apportionment shall be made against the property. The sentence immediately preceding shall not apply to any case where the result will be to deprive the estate of a deduction otherwise allowable under section 2053 (d) of the internal revenue code of 1954 of the United States, relating to deduction for state death taxes on transfers for public, charitable or religious uses.

720.16 Apportionment of estate tax; temporary interest in property or fund.

Sec. 6. No interest in income and no estate for years or for life or other temporary interest in any property or fund shall be subject to apportionment as between the temporary interest and the remainder. The tax on the temporary interest and the tax, if any, on the remainder shall be chargeable against the corpus of the property or funds subject to the temporary interest and remainder.

720.17 Apportionment of estate tax; collection of apportioned share by fiduciary.

Sec. 7. Neither the fiduciary nor other person required to pay the tax shall be under any duty to institute any suit or proceeding to recover from any person interested in the estate the amount of the tax apportioned to the person until the expiration of the 3 months next following final determination of the tax. A fiduciary or other person required to pay the tax who institutes the suit or proceeding within a reasonable time after the 3 months' period shall not be subject to any liability or surcharge because any portion of the tax apportioned to any person interested in the estate was collectable at a time following the death of the decedent but thereafter became uncollectable. If the fiduciary or other person required to pay the tax cannot collect from any person interested in the estate the amount of the tax apportioned to the person, the amount not recoverable shall be equitably apportioned among the other persons interested in the estate, who are subject to apportionment.

720.18 Apportionment of estate tax; collection of apportioned share by non-resident fiduciary.

Sec. 8. (a) Subject to the conditions in subsection (b) a fiduciary acting in another state or a person required to pay the tax domiciled in another state may institute an action in the courts of this state and may recover a proportionate amount of the federal estate tax, of an estate tax payable to another state or of a death duty due by a decedent's estate to another state, from a person interested in the estate who is either domiciled in this state or who owns property in this state subject to attachment or execution. For the purposes of the action the determination of apportionment by the court having jurisdiction of the administration of the decedent's estate in the other state shall be prima facie correct.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall apply only:

(1) If such other state affords a remedy substantially similar to that afforded in subsection (a); or

(2) With respect to federal estate tax, if apportionment thereof is authorized by congress.

Act 207, 1917, p. 458; Eff. Aug. 10.

AN ACT to authorize the settlement of the contest of the probate of any last will and testament containing a gift, grant, bequest or devise to religious, educational, charitable or benevolent uses, that does not name any person or corporation as donee.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

720.51 Settlement of contest of probate of certain wills; terms approval by circuit court.

Sec. 1. Whenever the probate of a last will and testament containing a gift, grant, bequest or devise to religious, educational, charitable or benevolent uses, without naming any person or corporation as donee thereof, is contested, the proponents of the last will and testament may settle such contest upon such terms as may be approved by the circuit court for the county wherein the last will and testament was offered for probate, upon petition as provided in section 2; but no settlement shall be approved against the objection of the attorney general, as representative of the people of the

720.52 Settlement of contest of probate of certain wills; petition, hearing; notice; service, publication.

Sec. 2. Upon petition filed by the proponents of the last will and testament in the circuit court, for the purpose of settlement and approval, the court shall fix a day for the hearing of the petition. Due notice thereof by personal service, by mail or by publication, in time, manner and form as the court may order, shall be given to all persons interested in the last will and testament or in the estate. Personal service or service by certified mail shall be given to the attorney general. The notice shall be published, if publication is ordered, once in each week for 3 successive weeks in some newspaper printed and circulating in the county wherein the court is held, and in case there is no such newspaper, then in some newspaper published in an adjoining county and circulating in the county.

AN ACT to provide for the rights of payees in non-transferable United States savings bonds.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

720.81 Rights of payees in non-transferable United States savings bonds.

Sec. 1. Where any United States savings bond, either heretofore or hereafter issued, is payable to a designated person, whether as owner, co-owner, or beneficiary, and such bond is not transferable, the right of such person to receive payment of such bond according to its terms, and the ownership of the money so received, shall not be defeated or impaired by any statute or rule of law governing the transfer of property by will or gift or an intestacy: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall limit Act No. 310 of the Public Acts of 1919.

AN ACT to provide for the delivery of certain intangible personal property to the domiciliary representative of persons not domiciled in Michigan at time of death.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

720.91 Nonresident decedent; delivery of intangible personalty to domiciliary representative.

Sec. 1. When a demand, savings or time deposit account, securities or other intangible personal property is held by a bank, trust company or trust department of a bank, other than in a safety deposit box, for a person domiciled in another state or country, the account, securities or other intangible personal property together with any additions thereto or earnings or dividends thereon, or any part thereof may be paid or delivered to the special or general administrator or executor appointed in the state or country where the account holder or securities owner or other intangible personal property owner was domiciled at the time of death, if the special or general administrator or executor has furnished the bank, trust company or trust department of a bank with authenticated copies of his letters and of the order of the court which issued the letters to him authorizing him to collect, receive and remove the personal estate, and an affidavit by the special or general administrator or executor that he is the domiciliary representative of the estate of the decedent, that no proceeding is pending in any state with respect to the question of domicile of the decedent, that to his knowledge no proceeding is pending in this state for the appointment of a fiduciary for the estate in this state, and that to the best of his knowledge and belief there are no creditors of the estate in this state. Upon payment or delivery to such representative after receipt of the affidavit and authenticated copies, the bank, trust company or trust department of a bank is released and discharged to the same extent as if the payment or delivery had been made to a legally qualified resident, special or general administrator or executor, and is not required to see to the application or disposition of the property.

AN ACT providing for the disposition of property where there is no sufficient evidence that persons have died otherwise than simultaneously; to make uniform the law with reference thereto, and to repeal inconsistent laws.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

720.101 Uniform simultaneous death act; insufficient evidence of priority of death; property, disposition.

Sec. 1. No sufficient evidence of survivorship. Where the title to property or the devolution thereof depends upon priority of death and there is no sufficient evidence that the persons have died otherwise than simultaneously, the property of each person shall be disposed of as if he had survived, except as provided otherwise in this act.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 720.101. This act was prepared under the supervision of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, and recommended by such commissioners for passage by the several states. It has been adopted by the legislatures of the following states: Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New York, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

720.102 Uniform simultaneous death act; beneficiaries of another person's disposition of property.

Sec. 2. Beneficiaries of another person's disposition of property. Where 2 or more beneficiaries are designated to take successively by reason of survivorship under another person's disposition of property and there is no sufficient evidence that these beneficiaries have died otherwise than simultaneously, the property thus disposed of shall be divided into as many equal portions as there are successive beneficiaries and these portions shall be distributed respectively to those who would have taken in the event that each designated beneficiary had survived.

720.103 Uniform simultaneous death act; joint tenants or tenants by the entirety.

Sec. 3. Joint tenants or tenants by the entirety. Where there is no sufficient evidence that 2 joint tenants or tenants by the entirety have died otherwise than simultaneously, the property so held shall be distributed 1/2 as if 1 had survived and 1/2 as if the other had survived. If there are more than 2 joint tenants and all of them have so died, the property thus distributed shall be in the proportion that 1 bears to the whole number of joint tenants.

Act 305, 1941, p. 528; Eff. Jan. 10, 1942.

AN ACT to provide for the continuance of the business of a decedent by the fiduciary of the decedent's estate; to provide for and define the rights and obligations of the decedent's creditors, surviving partner or partners, the fiduciary, the creditors of the continued business, the heirs, distributees, devisees, legatees and beneficiaries; and to repeal acts and parts of acts which are inconsistent and contrary to the provisions of this act.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

720.151 Fiduciary to continue business of decedent; definitions.

Sec. 1. Definitions.

As used in this act, unless the context or subject matter otherwise clearly requires:

(1) "Business of the decedent" means every trade, occupation, or business; mercantile, manufacturing, agricultural, or otherwise, or any interest therein, except a profession, which the decedent owned at the time of his death, either alone or together with any other person or persons in partnership or otherwise.

(2) "Fiduciary" means executor, administrator, special administrator, testamentary trustee, and all other duly appointed representatives of a decedent's estate.

(3) "Continue the business of the decedent" means to hold, manage, operate, or participate in the management of the business of the decedent as sole owner or proprietor thereof, or as a partner, including the participation of the fiduciary as a general partner in a new partnership.

(4) "Persons interested in the estate" means every fiduciary, and also every legatee, devisee, beneficiary, heir, distributee and creditor who shall have an actual interest in the decedent's estate.

(5) "Continuation agreement" means a contract between 2 or more partners, whether included in the partnership agreement or otherwise, which authorizes the continuance of the partnership enterprise after the death of a partner.

(6) "Notice" means the notice required generally in proceedings in probate court.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 720.151.

COMPILERS' NOTES: The catchlines following the act section numbers were incorporated as part of the act as enacted.

720.152 Fiduciary to continue business of decedent; authority under will.

Sec. 2. Authority or direction in will.

If by the provisions of the last will and testament of a decedent the fiduciary is either authorized or directed to continue the business of the decedent, the fiduciary may, if authorized, and shall, if directed, continue the business of the decedent for the period, in the manner, and with such assets, as may be provided by the last will and testament of the decedent: Provided, however, That the probate court in which the decedent's estate is being administered may, on the petition of any person interested in the estate and on notice to all persons interested therein, for good cause shown and with the consent of the fiduciary, nevertheless direct the fiduciary to discontinue or dispose of the business or the interest of the decedent's estate therein.

720.153 Partnership business; continuation agreement.

Sec. 3. Continuation agreement.

If a partnership business is to be continued after the death of a partner pursuant to the provisions of a continuation agreement, the fiduciary shall continue the business of the decedent in such partnership for the period, in the manner, and with such assets, as may be provided by such continuation agreement: Provided, however, That the fiduciary and the surviving partner or partners shall not be prohibited from discontinuing the partnership business prior to the time stipulated in the continuation agreement if they shall so mutually agree.

720.154 Discontinuance upon objection of creditor.

Sec. 4. Objections of creditors.

Notwithstanding the provisions hereinbefore made for the continuance of the business of the decedent, the probate court shall upon petition or objection of any creditor of the decedent, made at or prior to the allowance of such creditor's claim against the estate of the decedent, and on notice to the fiduciary, direct the fiduciary to discontinue the business of the decedent unless the creditor is paid within such reasonable time as may be fixed by order of the probate court.

720.155 Surviving partners; right to refuse to continue.

Sec. 5. Surviving partner or partners.

Nothing herein contained shall affect the right of a surviving partner, or partners, to refuse to continue the business of the decedent if such surviving partner, or partners, is or are, under no contract obligation to continue the business of the decedent.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 720.155.

720.156 Certificate of doing business; liability of fiduciary and estate.

Sec. 6. Certificate of doing business; liability of fiduciary and estate.

(1) Whenever a fiduciary continues the business of a decedent pursuant either to the provisions of the last will and testament of the decedent or the provisions of a continuation agreement, the fiduciary shall file a certificate of doing business under an assumed name or join in the filing of a partnership certificate, as the case may be, pursuant to the provisions of the statutes relative to the filing of assumed name or partnership certificates, as the case may be, which certificate shall set forth, in addition to the other matters required by law, that the fiduciary is conducting the business either alone or as a partner, as the case may be, showing the capacity in which the fiduciary of the decedent's estate is acting.

(2) Whenever a fiduciary continues the business of a decedent pursuant either to the provisions of the last will and testament of the decedent or the provisions of a continuation agreement, the fiduciary shall not be personally liable either as sole owner, holder, operator, manager, partner, or otherwise, for losses to any legatee, devisee, heir, distributee or beneficiary of the decedent or the decedent's estate, nor shall the fiduciary be liable to any creditors of the continued business of the decedent who become such after the filing of the certificate referred to in preceding subparagraph (1), for any claims, demands, or causes of action, either ex delictu or ex contractu, arising out of, or in connection with, the conduct or operation, or the act of any agent, employee, or copartner of such business, but persons who become creditors after the filing of said certificate shall, in so far as the fiduciary or the decedent's estate is concerned, be limited in the payment or satisfaction of their claims to the assets of the business: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall relieve the fiduciary from liability for the fiduciary's own willful fraud, gross negligence, or other willful misconduct, nor prevent the fiduciary from assuming personal contractual liability to creditors of the continued business of the decedent; but no fiduciary shall be charged with any such personal contractual liability except upon an express written undertaking signed by such fiduciary: And provided further, That nothing herein contained shall preclude a provision in a last will and testament or in a continuation agreement that all of the assets of the decedent's estate not engaged in the business, or some specified portion thereof, shall be also available for the payment or satisfaction of the claims of creditors of the continued business of the decedent.

720.157 Priority of business creditors over decedent's creditors.

Sec. 7. Rights of decedent's creditors and creditors of the continued business.

Whenever a fiduciary continues the business of a decedent pursuant either to the provisions of the last will and testament of the decedent or the provisions of a continuation agreement and the assets of the decedent's estate prove insufficient to pay all claims, then the claims of unpaid creditors of the decedent shall, in so far as assets engaged in the business are concerned, be postponed in payment to the claims of creditors of the continued business.

720.158 Heirs and next of kin; exemption from liability.

Sec. 8. Exclusion of personal liability of heirs, distributees, devisees, legatees and beneficiaries.

The heirs, distributees, devisees, legatees and beneficiaries of a decedent's estate shall not, by reason of such status, be personally liable for any obligations incurred in, or arising from, the continuation of the business of the decedent by the fiduciary.

720.159 Actions by business creditors; satisfaction of judgments.

Sec. 9. Actions or suits by creditors of the continued business of the decedent against fiduciary; judgments or decrees; and satisfaction thereof.

Actions or suits by creditors of the continued business of the decedent shall be brought against the fiduciary in his representative capacity only, and judgments or decrees against the fiduciary in such actions or suits shall be against the fiduciary in his representative capacity only, and satisfaction of such judgments or decrees shall be had only from such assets of the decedent's estate as are subject to the satisfaction thereof: Provided, however, That whenever a fiduciary has assumed personal liability for a claim, demand, or obligation, or is otherwise personally liable, as hereinbefore provided, then action or suit may be brought, and judgment or decree may be rendered, against the fiduciary personally, and satisfaction thereof may be had as in other cases of liability of the fiduciary in the fiduciary's nonrepresentative capacity.

720.160 Fiduciary; exoneration and reimbursement.

Sec. 10. Exoneration and reimbursement of fiduciary.

Nothing herein contained shall modify or affect the fiduciary's right of exoneration by or reimbursement from the decedent's estate whenever the fiduciary is entitled thereto.

720.161 Corporate fiduciary; right to continue business as partner.

Sec. 11. Corporate fiduciary.

The fact that the fiduciary is a corporation shall not disable such fiduciary from becoming a partner in the continuation of the business of a decedent, pursuant to the provisions of this act.

720.162 Act supplemental; repeal.

Sec. 12. Repeal of inconsistent and contrary acts or parts of acts. This act shall be construed as supplemental to section 36 of chapter 4 of Act No. 288 of the Public Acts of 1939 and not as a repeal thereof. All other acts inconsistent and contrary to the provisions hereof are hereby repealed.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 720.162.

720.164 Saving clause.

Sec. 14. Saving clause.

This act shall not impair or affect any act done or right accruing, accrued, or acquired, or liability incurred prior to the time this act takes effect, but the same may be enjoyed, asserted, and enforced in as fully and to the same extent as if this act had not been passed.

Act 194, 1947, p. 270; Imd. Eff. Jun. 12.

AN ACT to provide for the administration of the estates of deceased persons in certain cases; to provide for the appointment of a public administrator for the state; to provide for the appointment of county public administrators; to define and prescribe their powers and duties and to repeal Act No. 15 of the Public Acts of 1923.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

720.201 State public administrator; appointment, term, salary, expenses.

Sec. 1. There shall be a public administrator for the state of Michigan, to be known in this act as the "state public administrator." The governor shall appoint, upon the recommendation of the attorney general, 1 of the assistants attorney general to act and hold office during the pleasure of the governor as such state public administrator. Such assistant attorney general shall receive no other or further annual salary than that paid to him as an assistant attorney general for services performed while acting as state public administrator. His actual and necessary traveling expenses shall be allowed and paid in the same manner as other accounts of assistants attorney general of like nature are allowed and paid, and the attorney general shall provide him with stationery, supplies and equipment and such legal and clerical assistance as may be required in the maintenance and performance of the duties of his office.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 720.201.

720.202 State public administrator; appointment of county public administrator; term; compensation, fees and expenses.

Sec. 2. The state public administrator, whenever he shall deem it necessary because of the volume or nature of the duties of his office to engage assistance in the performance thereof, may appoint in any county of the state, as county public administrator thereof and therefor, any person suitable and competent to administer estates of deceased persons. Such county public administrator shall hold office during the pleasure of the state public administrator and shall be appointed to act as such county public administrator only in and of the county in which he maintains his legal residence. Such county public administrator shall not receive any salary or other emoluments of office but shall, when appointed fiduciary of any estate by virtue of the provisions of this act, be allowed all necessary expenses incurred in the administration thereof, together with such other fees, compensation and allowances as are authorized by statute and by order of the judge of probate to be paid such fiduciary out of such estate, all such expenses, fees, compensation and allowances to be paid out of the corpus of the estate administered: Provided, however, That in any county of the state in which there is no person both suitable and willing to act as county public administrator in and for said county, the state public administrator may in such case appoint the county public administrator of an adjoining county to act in such county.

720.203 State public administrator; administration of estates, conditions.

Sec. 3. The administration of the estate of a person dying intestate, leaving an estate to be administered in this state, shall be granted to the state public administrator in the following instances:

First, Whenever it appears that the decedent died leaving no known heirs.

Second, Whenever there is no widow, husband or next of kin entitled to a distributive share in the estate of the decedent, resident in this state, unless the widow, husband or next of kin be a resident of the United States or the Dominion of Canada, and shall request that administration be granted to some other person nominated in such request, in which event the judge of probate may appoint the person so nominated, if otherwise competent, suitable and willing to take out letters of administration on such estate.

720.204 State public administrator; filing copy of appointment of county public administrator, letters of administration.

Sec. 4. Whenever the state public administrator shall file with the probate court of any county a copy, certified by said state public administrator, of the appointment of a county public administrator to act in the county in which the certificate is so filed, then letters of administration may, instead of being issued and granted to the state public administrator, be granted and issued to such county public administrator, and he shall be entitled to receive the same at any time that his appointment as such remains in full force and effect.

720.205 State or county public administrator; petition for administration.

Sec. 5. Whenever it shall appear that the deceased died intestate, leaving no known heirs, or whenever it appears that there is no widow, husband or next of kin of said deceased residing within the United States or Dominion of Canada, or whenever it appears that the deceased left a widow, husband, or next of kin entitled to a distributive share in the estate of said deceased resident in the United States or Dominion of Canada, but who has failed or neglected to petition for administration within 30 days after the date of the death of said intestate, petition for the administration of said decedent's estate may be filed by the state public administrator or by a duly appointed and acting county public administrator.

720.206 State or county public administrator; powers and authority.

Sec. 6. The state public administrator and the duly appointed and acting county public administrators shall have all the powers and authority of a fiduciary now or hereafter conferred by law, and shall be subject to the same obligations and liabilities in the administering of estates coming under their control by reason of their appointment as fiduciary under the provisions of this act. It is the intent of this act that all estates coming within the supervision and control of the state public administrator and the control of the duly appointed and acting county public administrators shall be administered in like manner as other estates of decedents are or may be administered, except only as herein provided.

720.207 State or county public administrator; bonds.

Sec. 7. Instead of a separate bond for each estate, the state public administrator shall give a general bond running to the people of the state of Michigan, conditioned for the faithful administration of all estates on which letters of administration may be granted to him, which bond shall be in the penal sum of $10,000.00 with sufficient surety or sureties to be approved by the governor. Every county public administrator, before letters of administration shall be granted to him in connection with any estate in which he may be called upon to act as fiduciary under the provisions of this act, shall give a bond in each separate estate to the judge of probate with such surety or sureties and in such amount as he shall direct and approve, said bond to embrace and include the same conditions required of any other fiduciary appointed and acting under the general probate laws of this state.

720.208 State or county public administrator; appointment as special administrator.

Sec. 8. In any estate of any deceased person coming within the purview of this act, when by reason of delay in granting letters of administration, or whenever necessary for the preservation of the assets of such estate, or when for any other cause shown he shall deem it expedient, the judge of probate shall appoint the state public administrator, or a county public administrator, as special administrator of said estate, for the purpose of making any necessary burial arrangements and taking charge of, marshalling and conserving said estate, until an executor or administrator shall be appointed and qualified.

720.209 State public administrator; vacancy, filling; bond of predecessor fiduciary, continuation.

Sec. 9. In case of a vacancy occurring in the office of state public administrator from any cause, it shall be the duty of the governor and the attorney general to fill such vacancy forthwith in the manner as in this act provided for appointment of a state public administrator. Upon qualification for such office the succeeding state public administrator shall be the fiduciary of any unclosed estate to which his predecessor was appointed fiduciary under the provisions of this act, and he shall forthwith notify each probate court having jurisdiction of any such unclosed estate of such appointment, and such successor state public administrator shall be entitled to the possession of all the property, bank accounts, books, papers and records pertaining to any such estate, and shall, under the direction of said probate court, proceed to completion of administration of any such estate. The bond of such predecessor fiduciary may be continued as the bond of the new appointee, with the consent of the surety or sureties thereon, but in the event of a new bond being filed, the surety, if a corporation, shall refund the unearned premium on such cancelled bond.

720.210 County public administrator; vacancy, filling.

Sec. 10. In case of a vacancy occurring in the office of county public administrator in and for any county from any cause, the state public administrator may fill such vacancy forthwith and thereupon notify the probate court of the county in which such vacancy occurred of the fact of such vacancy and the name of the county public administrator so appointed to fill such vacancy.

720.211 County public administrator; termination of appointment; petition to resign trust and for discharge; final accounting.

Sec. 11. Whenever the appointment of any county public administrator shall terminate, other than by reason of death or incapacity, it shall be within the discretion of the state public administrator either to permit such county public administrator whose appointment has terminated to proceed with the administration of any estate in which he has been appointed fiduciary by virtue of the provisions of this act, or to make written request that such county public administrator present to the probate court, within a reasonable length of time, a petition in manner and form as is in the general probate laws of this state provided, praying that he be permitted to resign his trust, together with his final account, praying also that such final account may be judicially settled and that he be discharged in accordance with the provisions of the general probate laws. The said petition, when made pursuant to the written request of the state public administrator, acting for and in the interests of the people of the state of Michigan, shall constitute sufficient grounds for the entertaining thereof by the judge of probate having jurisdiction of any such estate, and for the granting of the prayer thereof: Provided, That where it appears from such final account that any such estate has been fully administered, upon the allowance thereof by the judge of probate, such fiduciary may be permitted to proceed to close out said estate, to distribute the residue thereof, and to receive his discharge according to law.

720.212 County public administrator; petition to remove on failure to render final account; proof of mailing; notice of hearing; release of sureties.

Sec. 12. Whenever the state public administrator shall request any county public administrator, whose appointment as such has terminated, to present within a reasonable length of time to the probate court the aforesaid petition, praying that he be permitted to resign his trust, together with his final account as in this act provided, and such former county public administrator has failed, neglected or refused to comply with such request, the attorney general or the state public administrator, may thereupon, on behalf of the people of the state of Michigan, petition the probate court for the removal of such former county public administrator as fiduciary of any estate in which he received such appointment by virtue of the provisions of this act. The said petition of the attorney general or the state public administrator shall have attached thereto a true copy of the aforesaid request, together with proof of mailing thereof to the former county public administrator at his last known place of business at least 10 days prior to the date of filing of said petition, and such petition shall thereupon constitute sufficient grounds for the granting of the prayer for the removal of said fiduciary and the entry of an order by the judge of probate directing said fiduciary to render his final account: Provided, That notice of hearing on said petition shall be in manner and form as provided in the general probate laws of this state: Provided further, That the sureties of such fiduciary shall not be released from liability until such fiduciary shall have fully settled and adjusted his accounts as by law required.

720.213 County public administrator; accounting and petition for compensation; proof of mailing; approval.

Sec. 13. Whenever a county public administrator whose appointment has terminated shall present to the probate court the final account as in this act provided, or whenever any county public administrator shall have rendered any account in any estate in which he has been appointed fiduciary under the provisions of this act, he shall, within 24 hours after same is regularly noticed for hearing, mail to the state public administrator a true copy of such account, together with any petition for extra compensation or allowance filed in conjunction with said account, and file proof of mailing thereof with the probate court. The state public administrator upon receipt thereof shall examine such account and may indicate his approval or disapproval thereof to the probate judge having jurisdiction thereof prior to the date of hearing thereon, and may appear in said probate court to contest any or all parts thereof and the attorney general may appear in like manner for the same purpose, and the said judge of probate shall not pass upon said account in the absence of the aforesaid proof of mailing.

720.214 County public administrator; termination of appointment as special administrator; final accounting, filing; general administrator.

Sec. 14. In all estates wherein the county public administrator whose appointment has terminated is acting as special administrator by virtue of the provisions of this act, he shall, upon the request of the state public administrator, forthwith prepare and file final accounts as such special administrator and notice the same on for hearing as provided in the general probate laws of this state, and shall within 24 hours thereafter transmit a true copy thereof to the state public administrator, filing proof of mailing thereof in the probate court. The state public administrator shall have the same powers and duties in respect to the said accounts of the special administrator as is in this act provided for general administration. In the event that there remains in such estates assets to be administered, the said state public administrator, or any county public administrator specifically designated by him, shall forthwith petition for the appointment of a county public administrator as general administrator of such estates, pursuant to the provisions of this act.

720.215 County public administrator; vacancy due to death or incapacity, filling.

Sec. 15. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of county public administrator because of the death or incapacity of such county public administrator, the state public administrator, or any county public administrator specifically designated by him, shall petition the probate court, pursuant to the provisions of this act, for appointment as special and/or successor general administrator in each estate in which such deceased or incapacitated county public administrator was appointed fiduciary by virtue of the provisions of this act.

720.216 County public administrator; appointment as successor fiduciary; allowance of fees.

Sec. 16. Whenever any county public administrator shall be appointed as a successor fiduciary of any estate pursuant to the provisions of this act, he shall be allowed only a ratable and proportionate fee for this service, the same to be as provided by the general probate laws of this state and as determined by the judge of probate, to the end that the corpus of no estate shall be unjustifiably diminished by reason of the change of fiduciary as herein provided.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 720.216.

720.217 County public administrator; report by fiduciary as to facts causing delay and preventing closing of estate.

Sec. 17. Whenever any county public administrator shall have been appointed fiduciary of any estate by virtue of the provisions of this act, and more than 1 year shall have elapsed since the date of issuance of letters of administration to such fiduciary, and said estate shall not have been closed, the said fiduciary shall in writing inform the state public administrator of the facts and circumstances preventing the closing of such estate.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 720.217.

720.218 State or county public administrator; property turned over to board of escheats.

Sec. 18. Whenever the state public administrator or any county public administrator shall have been appointed fiduciary of any estate, under the provisions of this act, and shall have completely administered such estate and the residue thereof shall have been assigned to the people of the state of Michigan as an escheated estate by the judge of probate having jurisdiction thereof, it shall become the duty of such fiduciary to deliver over all such assigned residue to the state board of escheats, together with a true copy of petition for appointment of administrator and certified copies of final account, order allowing final account and order assigning residue, and the state board of escheats, upon receipt thereof, shall furnish such fiduciary with official receipts for said residue, in duplicate, 1 to be filed with the probate court having jurisdiction of said estate, the other to be retained by said fiduciary. It shall be the further duty of said fiduciary to deliver over to the state board of escheats, together with such residue, any personal effects of the deceased, such as abstracts of title pertaining to real estate which has escheated to the state, unsurrendered insurance policies, receipts, documents, correspondence or other material having probative value, which shall have come into the possession of said fiduciary, and which would tend to prove or refute any future claim of ownership in or to said residue, the same to be safely preserved by the state board of escheats and made part of the records of such estate.

720.219 State or county public administrator; interest in estate property prohibited.

Sec. 19. No state public administrator or county public administrator, when appointed fiduciary of any estate by virtue of the provisions of this act, shall directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever, acquire any interest in, or bargain for, any property or any benefits incident to such property, which shall or may come into his possession or under his control as such fiduciary, nor shall he acquire any interest in, or bargain for, any property belonging to any other estate being administered by any county public administrator who has been appointed fiduciary thereof by virtue of the provisions of this act. Further, no such fiduciary shall commingle the funds and property of any such estate with his own or with any other property or funds: Provided, however, That such fiduciary may place on deposit in 1 or more bank accounts such funds as come into his possession as such fiduciary but any interest received on such accounts shall be prorated among each such estate contributing to such common bank account and shall not become the personal property of such fiduciary.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 720.219.

720.220 State or county public administrator; continuation after discovery of heir; expenses; receipts turned over to state treasurer.

Sec. 20. Whenever the state public administrator or a county public administrator shall be appointed fiduciary of any estate under the provisions of this act, and it shall subsequently appear or be discovered that the deceased left surviving a husband, wife, or next of kin entitled to a distributive share in such estate, and such heir or next of kin shall, under the provisions of the general probate laws of this state, be competent and willing to administer such estate, the state public administrator or such county public administrator shall nevertheless continue as fiduciary of such estate. When such fiduciary shall be the state public administrator, the judge of probate, before making the order assigning the residue in any such estate and wherein the residue is not assigned to the state of Michigan as an escheated estate, shall first allow and order paid to the said state public administrator out of the corpus of said estate, all of the expenses incurred by such fiduciary in administering said estate, together with such other fees, compensation and allowances as are authorized by the general probate laws of this state and by order of such probate judge to be paid to such fiduciary out of such estate. All monies so paid to the state public administrator shall be forthwith delivered by him to the state treasurer, who in turn, shall place such money to the credit of the general fund of the state.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 720.220.

720.221 State or county public administrator; access to property, papers and records.

Sec. 21. The state public administrator, or any person specifically designated by him to act in his behalf, shall at all times have access to and the right to inspect any and all property, books, papers and records, in the possession or under the control of any county public administrator or former county public administrator, pertaining to any and all estates on which letters of administration have been issued to said present or former county public administrator by virtue of the provisions of this act, and may require of any such present or former county public administrator a certified or exemplified copy of any petition, inventory, account, order or pleading, original of which has been filed in the probate court in any estate wherein said present or former county public administrator is or was acting as fiduciary, under the provisions of this act.

720.222 Retroactive construction of act.

Sec. 22. This act, in all of its provisions, is intended to be retroactive, and it shall be construed as applying retrospectively to all persons, property and estates coming within its purview.

720.223 Repeal; saving clause.

Sec. 23. Act No. 15 of the Public Acts of 1923, being sections 15611 to 15623, inclusive, of the Compiled Laws of 1929, is hereby repealed, except that all appointments made thereunder and all letters of administration issued to the state public administrator or to any county public administrator by virtue of said act, shall remain valid and such state public administrator or such county public administrator heretofore appointed as fiduciary of any such estate under the provisions of that act or pursuant to the general probate laws of this state, shall be subject to the provisions of this act. Nothing in this act shall be construed to repeal the provisions of Act. No. 288 of the Public Acts of 1939, and amendments thereto, and any parts of this act inconsistent therewith shall be deemed to modify that act only to that extent.

Act 229, 1911, p. 398; Eff. Aug. 1.

AN ACT declaring valid sales of real estate made by executors, administrators or guardians under license of the probate court pursuant to the provisions of chapter 243 of the Compiled Laws of 1897.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

720.251 Validation of real estate sales.

Sec. 1. All sales of real estate made by executors, administrators or guardians under license of the probate court pursuant to the provisions of chapter 243 of the Compiled Laws of 1897, are hereby declared to be valid.

HISTORY: CL 1915, 14617;—CL 1929, 15851;—CL 1948, 720.251.

NOTE: Ch. 243 of CL 1897, above referred to, was repealed by Act 314 of 1915 (Jud. Act), see Compilers' § 681.1, but substantially re-enacted in Ch. 59 of that act, being CL 1929, 15800 et seq., superseded by Act 288, 1939, Ch. 9, being Compilers' § 709.1 et seq.

Act 281, 1929, p. 689; Eff. Aug. 28.

AN ACT to prevent the procreation of feeble-minded and insane persons, moral degenerates and sexual perverts; and to authorize and provide for the sterilization of such persons and payment of the expenses thereof. Am. 1962, p. 96, Act 106, Eff. Mar. 28, 1963.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

720.301 Sterilization of mental defectives; statement of policy.

Sec. 1. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state to prevent the procreation and increase in number of feeble-minded and insane persons, idiots, imbeciles, moral degenerates and sexual perverts, likely to become a menace to society or wards of the state. The provisions of this act are to be liberally construed to accomplish this purpose.

FORMER ACT: Act 285 of 1923. Sec 2 of this act was amended by Act 71 of 1925.

720.302 Sterilization of mental defectives; definitions.

Sec. 2. The words “mentally defective person” or “defective person” in this act shall include all feeble-minded and insane persons, idiots, imbeciles, moral degenerates and sexual perverts. Where such persons are referred to in this act as of the masculine gender, the same shall be deemed to include persons of the feminine gender as well.

720.303 Sterilization of mentally defective persons; jurisdiction of probate courts.

Sec. 3. The several probate courts within the state of Michigan shall have power to receive petitions, hold hearings and make orders for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act and perform all necessary acts in connection therewith. For that purpose the general provisions of law applicable to the jurisdiction of probate courts and particularly the laws and procedure governing the holding of hearings and making orders of admission of mentally diseased persons to the several hospitals of the state, shall be construed as a part of this act insofar as the same are not inconsistent herewith.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 6647;—CL 1948, 720.303.

PROBATE COURTS: See Compilers' § 701.1 et seq. For procedure relating to admission of mentally diseased persons to state hospital, see Compilers' § 330.18 et seq.

720.304 Sterilization of mentally defective persons; inmates of state institutions; examinations; record; proceedings in probate court; consent.

Sec. 4. Whenever the medical superintendent, warden, or principal officer of the Kalamazoo state hospital for the insane, the Pontiac state hospital for the insane, the Traverse City state hospital for the insane, the Newberry state hospital for the insane and feeble-minded, the Ypsilanti state hospital for the insane, the Ionia state hospital for the criminal insane, the Lapeer state home and training school for feeble-minded, the Coldwater state home and training school for feeble-minded, the Caro state hospital for epileptics, the Neuropsychiatric hospital at Ann Arbor, the state prison of southern Michigan at Jackson, the state house of correction and branch prison at Marquette, the Michigan reformatory at Ionia, or any other hospital, training school, farm colony, prison or public institution maintained and supported in whole or in part by the state of Michigan, shall be of the opinion that any inmate or person under the custodial care of such institution is a mentally defective person who would be likely to procreate children unless closely confined or rendered incapable of procreation; that such children would have a tendency to mental defectiveness and that there is no probability that the condition of said defective person will improve and that it is for the best interest of such person and of society that such mentally defective person should be sexually sterilized, it shall be the duty of such medical superintendent, warden, or principal officer to bring to the attention of the governing board or body of such institution the facts, records, family history, traits, and mental and physical condition of such person so far as the same can be ascertained. It shall be the duty of the governing board or body of such institution to cause an investigation, and examination to be made to determine whether such mentally defective person would be likely, if allowed to mingle in society, to procreate children having an inherited tendency to feeble-mindedness, insanity, idiocy, imbecility, epilepsy, or sexual degeneracy, and who would be likely to become a social menace or a ward of the state, and whether there is no probability that the condition of such person would improve to such an extent as to avoid such consequences. It shall be the duty of such governing board or body to keep a record with reference to each such person embodying its findings and conclusions in said respects, and either to obtain the consent hereinafter referred to or to file or cause to be filed a petition in the probate court of the county in which such mentally defective person was a resident at the time of commitment or admission, or in the probate court of the county in which such institution may be situated, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, and to procure an order directing the sterilization of such defective person. Nothing in this act contained shall be considered to require a court order when consent is given as hereinafter referred to. Whenever the defective person is of the age of 16 years or more and not otherwise incapable of giving consent, such operation or treatment may be performed upon obtaining a consent thereto in writing, signed by such defective person, together with a similar consent in writing signed by his or her legal guardian, if any, and also by 1 or more of the following persons, in the order named; husband, wife, father, mother, brother, sister, child or next of kin. If such defective person is in the custodial care of a state institution said written consent shall be filed and kept as a part of the records of such institution; otherwise, the same shall be obtained and kept by the surgeon performing such operation. Upon complying with the foregoing provisions, it shall thereupon be lawful to perform such operation.

720.305 Sterilization of mentally defective persons; petitioners; hearing, notices.

Sec. 5. The father, mother, husband, wife, brother, sister, child, or guardian of a mentally defective person, the medical superintendent, director or principal officer of any state institution, the state welfare commission, any sheriff or superintendent of the poor, or supervisor of any township, may petition the probate court of any county in which a mentally defective person resides or in which may be located any state institution having the custodial care of a mentally defective person, for an order directing such treatment or operation of vasectomy, salpingectomy, or other operation or treatment as may be least dangerous to life, to effectively render said defective person incapable of procreation. Upon receiving such petition the court shall fix a day for hearing thereof, which shall be not less than 14 days after the date of filing such petition. Notice of such hearing shall be personally served at least 10 days before the date thereof as follows: (1) Upon such defective person, if above the age of 10 years; (2) Upon the father, mother, husband, wife, brother, sister, child or next of kin who may be of full age, of such defective person, other than the petitioner, if there be any such known to be residing within the county; (3) If such defective person has no father, mother, husband, wife, brother, sister, child or other next of kin who may be of full age, known to be residing within the county, such service shall be made either personally or by registered mail on 1 or more of said relatives who may be residing outside of the county, and within this state, if there be any such known to the petitioner or to said court; (4) Upon the legal guardian of such defective person if a legal guardian has been appointed; if not, the court shall at the time of receiving such petition appoint a guardian ad litem upon whom such notice shall be served and who shall represent said defective person at the hearing; (5) If such defective person shall be residing with or in the custodial care of some person or institution other than the petitioner, such notice shall also be personally served upon the person, or principal officer of the institution, having the custodial care of such defective person, if within the county of jurisdiction; if without said county, said service shall be made either personally or by registered mail; (6) Upon the prosecuting attorney of the county in which such hearing is to be held; (7) Upon such other persons, if any, as the court may, in its discretion, determine to be proper persons who should have notice of such hearing. Due proof of such service shall be filed with the court at or before such hearing.

720.306 Sterilization of mentally defective persons; examinations, certificate; testimony; court determination.

Sec. 6. The court shall appoint 2 reputable physicians who shall make an investigation and examination of the mental and physical condition, and personal and family history of such defective and report the same to the court with the opinion of said physicians as to whether said person is a defective person within the meaning and intent of this act who should be rendered incapable of procreation. The certificates of said physicians shall be filed with said court before an order shall be made for such operation or treatment. The court shall at such hearing take testimony in writing as to the mental and physical condition of such defective person and the history of his case and shall, if no jury is required, determine whether he is a mentally defective person subject to be rendered incapable of procreation in order to prevent the production of children who may be mentally defective or a menace to society or become wards of the state.

720.307 Sterilization of mentally defective persons; jury trial; counsel.

Sec. 7. If the court shall deem it necessary or if such defective person or any relative or the legal guardian or guardian ad litem of such person shall so demand, a jury shall be summoned in accordance with the rules and practice of summoning juries in probate court to determine the question of fact as to whether such person is a mentally defective person and should be rendered incapable of procreation under the provisions of this act. Such defective person shall have the right to be represented by counsel at such hearing and to be present in person unless it shall be made to appear to the court by certificate of 2 reputable physicians that his condition is such as to render his removal for that purpose or his appearing at such hearing improper and unsafe.

Whenever any such defective person shall be unable to procure counsel, and the probate judge shall appoint some attorney to represent such defective person at the hearing, the attorney so appointed shall be entitled to receive from the county treasurer on certificate of the probate judge that such services have been duly rendered, such an amount, not in excess of $25.00, as the probate judge shall in his discretion deem reasonable compensation for the services performed. An attorney shall not, in such case, be compelled to follow a case on appeal, but if he does so, he may recover such additional compensation as shall be fixed by the circuit court to which an appeal is taken. Only 1 attorney in any 1 case shall receive the compensation above contemplated, nor shall he be entitled to this compensation until he files his affidavit in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such trial or proceedings may be had, that he has not, directly or indirectly, received any compensation for such services from any other source.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 6651;—Am. 1941, p. 119, Act. 97, Eff. Jan. 10, 1942;—CL 1948, 720.307.

The enrolled act (1941) was presented to the governor on May 6, 1941, at 9:40 a.m., and became a law without his approval upon the expiration of 10 days, Sundays excepted, after presentation.

720.308 Sterilization of mentally defective persons; order for admittance to hospital, expense of operation, payment.

Sec. 8. Whenever at such hearing it shall be found by the court or by a jury that such person is a mentally defective person and the court shall find that said defective person would be likely to procreate children unless he be closely confined or rendered incapable of procreation, that such children would have a tendency to mental defectiveness and that there is no probability that the condition of said defective person would improve, and the court shall find that such children might be a menace to society or might become wards of the state, the court shall make an order requiring and specifying that such defective person shall be treated or operated upon by X-rays or by the operation of vasectomy or salpingectomy or other treatment or operation best suited to the condition of such person, and most likely to produce the beneficial results intended by this act and which will effectively render such defective person incapable of procreation. The court may in said order direct that such defective person be admitted at the university hospital at Ann Arbor for such operation or treatment whenever the mental and physical condition of such person is such that he may be admitted and cared for in said hospital; or may direct that such operation or treatment be performed by a reputable surgeon whose duty it shall be to perform such operation or treatment in accordance with said order. The expense of such operation or treatment together with physician's fees and all other expenses incurred in connection with such proceeding shall be a proper charge against the state of Michigan: Provided, That such operations or treatment shall be performed or provided by the regular surgeon of the state institution whenever possible, without fees therefor, and when not so performed, the liability of the state for surgeon's fees shall in no 1 case exceed the sum of $50.00; that when such person be admitted to the university hospital at Ann Arbor the hospital care shall be paid for at the rates established by the board of regents for such care. The auditor general of the state of Michigan is hereby required to reimburse the county or other claimant for all said expenses upon receipt of a certified copy of such order and a proper certificate of the court that such expenses are reasonable and proper, accompanied by an itemized statement thereof from the treasurer of said county, or other claimant. If on investigation it shall appear that such defective person has means or property sufficient for the payment of such expense or if those persons legally liable for the care and support of such defective person as an indigent person under the laws of this state has sufficient means for that purpose, the court shall require that payment or reimbursement for such expense shall be made by him or them. The provisions of law regarding the care and maintenance of insane persons, as well as indigent persons, are hereby expressly made applicable to the provisions of this section so far as the same are not inconsistent with this act.

720.309 Sterilization of mentally defective persons; appeal from order; time for operation.

Sec. 9. Said mentally defective person or any one in his behalf shall have the same right of appeal from such order as is provided by statute for appeals from orders of probate court; and any such appeal may be taken in accordance with such statutes and the rules and practice of said court. It shall be unlawful to perform any such treatment or operation during the period of 5 days next following the date of such order unless the court in said order shall find that such operation or treatment is immediately necessary and imperative in order to protect the physical health and well-being of such defective person; nor shall any action be taken to carry out such order during the pendency of an appeal therefrom or until such appeal, if any, shall be determined or dismissed.

ACT REPEALED: Act 285 of 1923.

Act 206, 1935, p. 332; Imd. Eff. Jun. 6.

AN ACT to make all debts for milk and/or cream sold by a producer thereof preferred claims against the estates of debtors and to give the same precedence over all debts except for labor, as provided by law, debts due the United States, the state or any political subdivision thereof, and liens created prior to the effective date of this act.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

720.401 Milk and cream claims; definitions.

Sec. 1. Definitions as used in this act:

(a) "Person" includes any individual, copartnership or corporation.

(b) "Producer" means any person who produces milk and/or cream for sale in its raw state, or any co-operative association of milk producers organized under the laws of the state of Michigan, which association through contracts with its members has the milk and/or cream of its members consigned to it for sale.

(c) "Debtor" means any person who purchases milk and/or cream direct from a producer, as defined in this act, either for manufacturing purposes or for sale as fluid milk or for both.

720.402 Preferred claims against estates; debts to producer of milk and cream.

Sec. 2. Every producer who furnishes milk and/or cream for any debtor and every bona fide holder of any check, draft or order due for any such milk and/or cream shall have a preferred claim against the estate of such debtor, in the event of the following:

(a) That such debtor has been adjudicated a bankrupt.

(b) That a receiver in equity has been appointed for such debtor.

(c) That the debtor has given a trust mortgage for the benefit of his creditors.

(d) That such debtor, if a corporation or co-partnership, has filed a petition for the dissolution of such corporation or partnership.

Such preferred claim shall have precedence in the payment thereof over all debts owing by such debtor except claims for labor, debts owing the United States, the state, or any subdivision thereof, and liens created prior to the effective date of this act.

(c) "Emancipation" means termination of the rights of the parents to the custody, control, services and earnings of a minor.

722.2 Unemancipated minors; parental rights.

Sec. 2. Unless otherwise ordered by a court order, the parents of an unemancipated minor are equally entitled to the custody, control, services and earnings of the minor, but if 1 parent provides, to the exclusion of the other parent, for the maintenance and support of the minor, that parent has the paramount right to control the services and earnings of the minor.

HISTORY: New 1968, p. 497, Act 293, Eff. Nov. 15.

722.3 Obligation to support; enforcement.

Sec. 3. (1) The parents are jointly and severally obligated to support a minor unless a court of competent jurisdiction modifies or terminates the obligation; or the minor is emancipated by operation of law except as otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) The duty of support may be enforced by the minor, his guardian, any relative within the third degree or by an authorized government agency. An action for enforcement shall be brought in the circuit court and judgment shall be enforceable in like manner as a child support judgment in a divorce action.

HISTORY: New 1968, p. 496, Act 293, Eff. Nov. 15.

722.4 Emancipation; evidence; revocation; domicile of choice.

Sec. 4. (1) An emancipation occurs by operation of law:

(a) When a minor is validly married.

(b) When a person reaches the age of 21 years.

(c) During the period when the minor is on active duty with the armed forces of the United States.

(d) If a court of competent jurisdiction orders an emancipation in the best interests of the minor.

(2) An emancipation occurs by action of the parents when both parents or a surviving parent or a parent having exclusive rights of custody release their parental rights by written instrument or by conduct which clearly indicates intent to release their rights and such written instrument shall be filed with the county clerk in the county or counties where the parents reside.

(3) Abandonment by the parents is presumptive evidence of emancipation and relinquishment of parental rights.

(4) Emancipation by action of the parents does not occur if the minor is in fact dependent upon his parents for support.

(5) Emancipation by action of the parents or when minor is validly married may be revoked by agreement between the parents or surviving parent and the minor or by a resumption of family relations inconsistent with the prior emancipation.

(6) An emancipated minor may acquire a domicile of his choice.

722.5 Earnings of unemancipated minor.

Sec. 5. The earnings of an employed unemancipated minor may be paid directly to him unless his parents or his guardian give notice to the employer that future payments should be made to the parents or guardian.

HISTORY: New 1968, p. 498, Act 293, Eff. Nov. 15.

722.6 Obligation to support not affected.

Sec. 6. This act does not affect obligations of support imposed under other laws of this state.

Act 91, 1970, p. 266; Eff. Apr. 1, 1971.

AN ACT to declare the inherent rights of minor children; to establish rights and duties to their custody, support and visitation in disputed actions; to provide for certain procedure and appeals; and to repeal certain acts and parts of acts.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

722.21 Child custody act; short title.

Sec. 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "child custody act of 1970".

HISTORY: New 1970, p. 266, Act 91, Eff. Apr. 1, 1971.

722.22 Child custody act; definitions.

Sec. 2. As used in this act:

(a) "Child" means minor child and children.

(b) "Agency" means any legally authorized, public or private organization, or governmental unit or official, whether of this state or of another state or country, concerned in the welfare of minor children, including a licensed child placement agency.

(c) "Third person" means any individual other than a parent.

HISTORY: New 1970, p. 266, Act 91, Eff. Apr. 1, 1971.

722.23 Best interests of the child; definition.

Sec. 3. "Best interests of the child" means the sum total of the following factors to be considered, evaluated and determined by the court:

(a) The love, affection and other emotional ties existing between the competing parties and the child.

(b) The capacity and disposition of competing parties to give the child love, affection and guidance and continuation of the educating and raising of the child in its religion or creed, if any.

(c) The capacity and disposition of competing parties to provide the child with food, clothing, medical care or other remedial care recognized and permitted under the laws of this state in lieu of medical care, and other material needs.

(d) The length of time the child has lived in a stable, satisfactory environment and the desirability of maintaining continuity.

(e) The permanence, as a family unit, of the existing or proposed custodial home.

(f) The moral fitness of the competing parties.

(g) The mental and physical health of the competing parties.

(h) The home, school and community record of the child.

(i) The reasonable preference of the child, if the court deems the child to be of sufficient age to express preference.

(j) Any other factor considered by the court to be relevant to a particular child custody dispute.

722.24 Child custody disputes; powers of court.

Sec. 4. In all actions now pending or hereafter filed in a circuit court involving dispute of custody of a minor child, the court shall declare the inherent rights of the child and establish the rights and duties as to custody, support and visitation of the child in accordance with this act.

722.25 Child custody disputes; controlling interests, presumption.

Sec. 5. When the dispute is between the parents, between agencies or between third persons, the best interests of the child shall control. When the dispute is between the parent or parents and an agency or a third person, it is presumed that the best interests of the child are served by awarding custody to the parent or parents, unless the contrary is established by clear and convincing evidence.

HISTORY: New 1970, p. 267, Act 91, Eff. Apr. 1, 1971.

722.26 Liberal construction of act; application to all child custody disputes; precedence over other actions; venue; habeas corpus.

Sec. 6. The provisions of this act, being equitable in nature, shall be liberally construed and applied to establish promptly the rights of the child and the rights and duties of the parties involved. This act shall apply to all circuit court child custody disputes and actions, whether original or incidental to other actions. Such disputes and actions shall have precedence for hearing and assignment for trial over other civil actions. When there is no other action or proceeding pending for the resolution of the dispute, it shall be submitted to the circuit court of the county where the child resides or may be found by complaint or complaint and motion for order to show cause. An application for a writ of habeas corpus or for a warrant in its place to obtain custody of a child shall not be granted unless it appears that this act is inadequate and ineffective to resolve the particular child custody dispute.

722.27 Child custody disputes; disposition by court, options.

Sec. 7. If a child custody dispute has been submitted to a circuit court as an original action under this act or has arisen incidentally from other actions therein or orders or judgments thereof, for the best interests of the child the court may:

(b) Provide for reasonable visitation of the child by the parties involved or by others, by general or specific terms and conditions.

(c) Modify or amend its previous judgments or orders for proper cause shown or because of change of circumstances until the child reaches the age of 18 years or in exceptional circumstances, until the child reaches majority. The court shall not modify or amend its previous judgments or orders or issue a new order so as to change the established custodial environment of a child unless there is presented clear and convincing evidence that it is in the best interest of the child. The custodial environment of a child is established if over an appreciable time the child naturally looks to the custodian in such environment for guidance, discipline, the necessities of life and parental comfort. The age of the child, the physical environment and the inclination of the custodian and the child as to permanency of the relationship shall also be considered.

(d) Utilize the community resources in behavioral sciences and other professions in the investigation and study of custody disputes and consider their recommendations for the resolution of the disputes.

(e) Appoint a guardian ad litem or counsel for the child and assess the costs and reasonable fees against any or all parties involved, totally or partially.

(f) Take any other action considered to be necessary in a particular child custody dispute.

HISTORY: New 1970, p. 267, Act 91, Eff. Apr. 1, 1971.

722.28 Child custody disputes; appeal, grounds.

Sec. 8. To expedite the resolution of a child custody dispute by prompt and final adjudication, all orders and judgments of the circuit court shall be affirmed on appeal unless the trial judge made findings of fact against the great weight of evidence or committed a palpable abuse of discretion or a clear legal error on a major issue.

722.29 Repeal.

Sec. 9. Act No. 192 of the Public Acts of 1873, being section 722.541 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, is repealed.

HISTORY: New 1970, p. 268, Act 91, Eff. Apr. 1, 1971.

Act 47, 1944 (1st Ex. Ses.), p. 89; Imd. Eff. Mar. 4.

AN ACT to provide for the licensing of child welfare agencies and for the regulation and supervision of the care and placement of minor children in the private homes of persons unrelated to them; and to provide penalties for the violations of the provisions of this act. Am. 1961, p. 258, Act 183, Eff. Sep. 8.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

722.101 Child welfare agencies; definitions.

Sec. 1. Any agency or institution not a governmental unit having as 1 of its functions:

(1) To receive minor children for care, maintenance, training or supervision, and notwithstanding the fact that the care includes educational instruction, but excluding boarding schools which are deemed agencies or institutions accepting for board, care and instruction of 5 or more children under the age of 16 years; or

(2) To receive minor children for placement in a family home with a view toward adoption or for other foster home care; or

(3) To care for unmarried mothers and their children; shall be deemed to be a child welfare agency.

Any private home in which 1 or more minor children are given care and supervision, including a home where the child or children work whether or not such child or children receive a consideration for such work, for periods of 4 or more hours a day for 4 or more days a week for 2 or more consecutive weeks, unattended by a parent or legal guardian, except children related to an adult member of the household by blood or marriage, shall be deemed to be a foster home.

"Minor children" for the purposes of this act shall mean children under the age of 17 years.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.101;—Am. 1951, p. 129, Act 97, Eff. Sep. 28;—Am. 1961, p. 256, Act 183, Eff. Sep. 8;—Am. 1965, p. 281, Act 179, Imd. Eff. Jul. 15.

CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: Sections 722.101 to 722.106 are cited in §§ 205.93a and 331.404.

722.102 Child welfare agencies; standards of child care; rules; fire inspection; enforcement.

Sec. 2. (1) The department of social services, hereinafter referred to as the department, shall be responsible for the development of adequate standards of child care, and after consultation with the department of public health and the department of education shall make, prescribe and publish such rules governing child welfare agencies and foster homes, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, as shall be deemed necessary or advisable to effect such standards, to protect the best interests of minor children, and to carry out the purpose of this act. Every agency or institution, other than a foster home, coming within the provisions of this act, whose building or buildings house minor children shall be inspected relative to their fire safety by the state fire marshal when requested by the department of social services. However, if a municipal fire department provides to the department of social services a statement that it has a municipal code or ordinance which provides for fire safety inspections and fire safety measures which are administered and enforced by a fire prevention and safety department, division or bureau maintained by the municipality and an annual certificate of inspection attesting to the fire safety of the agency or institution, then this shall be considered as complying with the fire safety inspection provision of this act. Any reasonable order of the department fixing minimum standards of care and supervision, personnel, food, sanitation and fire protection, may be enforced through injunction in the circuit court of the county where such a home or agency is located, through proper proceedings instituted by the attorney general on behalf of the department.

Educational programs, requirements.

(2) Such rules as to child welfare agencies or foster homes providing educational programs shall include requirements as prescribed by the superintendent of public instruction with regard to the educational program, qualifications of teachers, conditions under which teachers are employed, and necessary equipment and special services.

Cooperation with other agencies.

(3) In order to improve standards of child care the department shall also cooperate with the governing bodies of child welfare agencies and assist the staffs thereof through advice on progressive methods and procedures and suggestions for the improvement of services.

722.103 Licenses; application, form; issuance; provisional licenses.

Sec. 3. No person, firm, corporation, association or organization may establish or maintain a child welfare agency or foster home unless licensed to do so by the department. Applications for such license shall be made on forms provided by the department and in the manner prescribed. Before issuing such license, the department shall investigate the activities and standards of care of the applicant and if satisfied as to the need for the agency or foster home, its financial stability, the good character and intent of the applicant, and that the equipment of the agency or foster home and its services are conducive to the welfare of children, a license shall be issued. A provisional license may be issued to any agency or foster home whose services are needed but which is temporarily unable to conform to all the rules and regulations of the department as provided in section 2 hereof. All licenses shall be in force for 1 year from the date of issuance unless revoked as authorized by section 5 of this act and shall be reissued annually on application, except that a provisional issuance may be in force for not more than 3 years. Each license shall specify in general terms the kind of child welfare work the licensee is authorized to undertake, the number of children that can be received or maintained and their ages and sex, and whether authorized to place and supervise children in family boarding or adoptive homes.

722.104 Examination; inspection of buildings; records; reports; children not placed by court or agency; notice of termination of care; records confidential.

Sec. 4. The department shall have authority at any time to investigate and examine into the conditions of any home or other place in which a licensee hereunder receives and maintains or places out children, and shall have authority at any time to examine and investigate the books and records of any licensee hereunder; and it shall be the duty of the licensee to admit the members of the department and to furnish all reasonable facilities for thorough examination of its books, records and reports. The department of health may visit any licensee to advise on matters affecting the health of children and to inspect the sanitation of the buildings used for their care. Each licensee shall keep records regarding each child in its control and care as the department may prescribe and shall report to the department, whenever called for, such facts as it may require with reference to the children upon blanks furnished by the department. Foster parents shall inform the department whenever they receive a child not related to them and not placed by the probate court or a licensed child-placing agency and give its name, sex, age, the names and addresses of the parents and the name and address of the person who placed the child in care. They shall also notify the department whenever they terminate care of the child and give the name and address of the person who received the child. All records regarding children and all facts learned about children and their parents or relatives shall be deemed confidential and disclosure of this information shall be properly safeguarded by the agency and the department.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.104;—Am. 1951, p. 129, Act 97, Eff. Sep. 28;—Am. 1961, p. 260, Act 183, Eff. Sep. 8.

722.105 Revocation or denial of renewal of license; notice, hearing.

Sec. 5. The department may revoke or refuse to renew any license of a child welfare agency or foster home in case the licensee shall have wilfully and substantially violated any provision of this act or the rules and regulations of the department as provided in section 2 hereof. No license shall be revoked or renewal refused, and no application for a license denied, unless the licensee or applicant shall have been given notice in writing of the grounds of such proposed revocation, denial or refusal. If the revocation, denial or refusal is protested within 30 days of receipt of the notice by a writing addressed to the Michigan social welfare commission, the commission or someone designated by it shall conduct a hearing at which an opportunity is given to the licensee or applicant to present testimony and confront witnesses. Notice of the hearing shall be given to the licensee or applicant by personal service or by delivery to the proper address by certified mail, at least 2 weeks prior to the date thereof. The decision of the commission shall be made at the meeting following the month in which the hearing was held, or sooner, and forwarded to the protesting party by certified mail within 5 days. If notice of the proposed revocation, denial or refusal is not so protested, the license may thereupon be revoked or the application therefor or the renewal thereof refused.

722.106 Appeal; transcript, stay of action.

Sec. 6. Any person aggrieved by the decision of the commission following a hearing under section 3 or section 5 of this act may, within 10 days after its receipt, take an appeal or certiorari to the circuit court of the county in which he resides by filing with the clerk of the court an affidavit, setting forth the substance of the proceedings had before the department and the errors of law or questions of fact upon which he relies, and serving any member of the department with a copy thereof.

The department shall, within 10 days of the service of the copy, file with the clerk of the court a transcript of the proceedings had before it. The circuit court shall thereupon be vested with jurisdiction to hear and determine the questions of law and fact involved, as in certiorari from justices of the peace. If the department prevails, the judgment of the circuit court shall be that the decision of the department be affirmed, and if the licensee or applicant prevails, the judgment of the court shall be that the revocation be set aside or the license issued or renewed, as the case may be. Pending the hearing of the certiorari the action of the department revoking or refusing renewal of a license shall be stayed.

722.107 Placement of children in family homes.

Sec. 7. Placement of children in family homes. No person other than the parent or guardian of the person of a child or one related by blood or marriage, and no firm, corporation, association or organization, or agency thereof, other than a licensed child welfare agency or a governmental unit may place any child in the control and care of any person or place such child for adoption.

722.108 Violation of act; penalty.

Sec. 8. Penalty. Any person, or agent, representative or officer of any firm, corporation, association, or organization, who violates any of the provisions of this act shall upon conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and shall be fined not less than $25.00 nor more than $100.00 or imprisoned in the county jail not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days, or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court. Whenever any agent, representative, or officer of any firm, corporation, association, or organization shall be convicted under authority of this act, such conviction shall be sufficient ground for the revocation of the license of any such firm, corporation, association, or organization, and the person so convicted shall not be granted a license or be permitted to be connected directly or indirectly with any licensee for a period of 10 years thereafter.

AN ACT to declare the policy of the state of Michigan with reference to crippled children; to provide for the appointment of, and to prescribe the powers and duties of the Michigan crippled children commission; to provide for the registration, examination, diagnosis, treatment, follow-up supervision, convalescent and custodial care and education of crippled children; to provide for the establishment, maintenance and conduct of hospital schools for convalescent crippled children; to prescribe the duties of the superintendent of public instruction with reference to the education of convalescent crippled children; and to provide for, and regulate the making of appropriations to carry out the purposes of this act; and to repeal all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act. Am. 1945, p. 256, Act 187, Imd. Eff. May 16.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

TITLE I. POLICY OF STATE.

722.201 Policy of state as to crippled children.

Sec. 1. Policy of state. It is hereby declared to be the public policy of the state to develop, extend, and improve, especially in rural areas, services for locating children who are suffering from conditions which lead to crippling and for providing medical, surgical, corrective, and other services and care, including after care and custodial care when necessary, and facilities for diagnosis, hospitalization, and special education for crippled children as herein provided; and to prevent, insofar as possible, such crippling conditions. Such policy being based not only on humanitarian but on economic considerations, it shall be carried out not only for the purpose of providing medical and physical care for crippled children, but for the purpose of making them self-sustaining in whole or in part, rather than charges on the public for support.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.201.

TITLE III. MICHIGAN CRIPPLED CHILDREN COMMISSION.

722.203 Michigan crippled children commission; members, appointment, vacancies, oath, compensation and expenses; body corporate, powers.

Sec. 3. Appointment, vacancies. There shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, a commission composed of 5 members, to be known as the Michigan crippled children commission, hereinafter referred to as the commission. Two of such members shall be appointed to serve for a period of 1 year, 2 for 2 years and 1 for a period of 3 years, and each year thereafter there shall be appointed 2 members or 1 member, as the case may be, to serve for the full term of 3 years or until their successors are appointed and qualified. All vacancies shall be filled by appointment by the governor. Each member of the commission shall take and subscribe to the oath of office required by law. Such members shall serve without compensation, but shall be entitled to their actual traveling expenses. Such commission shall be a body corporate and may contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, and do all things necessary to perform the duties required and to execute the powers vested in the commission by law.

722.204 Crippled children commission; powers and duties.

Sec. 4. Specific powers and duties. The commission shall have power (1) to administer a program of services for children who are crippled or who are suffering from conditions which lead to crippling, and to supervise the administration of those services included in the program which are not administered directly by it; (2) to make rules governing its procedure; (3) to select a chairman and a vice-chairman who shall serve without compensation, for the term of 1 year, and to employ a director who shall be a regularly qualified and licensed physician of the state of Michigan, a secretary and any other personnel necessary for the carrying out of the provisions of this act, and other necessary and properly qualified office and field employees, who shall serve during the pleasure of the commission, and receive necessary traveling expenses and salaries to be fixed by the commission; and (4) to make and enforce rules and regulations concerning employees serving the commission, the approval of hospitals, convalescent homes and orthopedic centers, the conduct of clinics, the handling of cases, the providing of hospital schools, and in cooperation with the auditor general the fixing of fees and institutional rates, the payment of bills, and the carrying out of all of the provisions of this act imposing duties upon it.

722.206 Crippled children commission; plans; cooperation with federal government.

Sec. 6. Plan or plans; cooperation with federal government. The commission is hereby authorized:

(a) To formulate and administer a detailed plan or plans for purposes specified in section 5, and make such rules and regulations as may be necessary or desirable for the administration of such plans and the provisions of this act. Any such plan shall include provisions for

- (1) Financial participation by the state;
- (2) Administration of the plan or plans by the commission, and supervision by the commission of the administration of those services included in the plan or plans which are not administered directly by it;
- (3) Such methods of administration as are necessary for efficient operation of the plan or plans;

- (4) Maintenance of records and preparation of reports of services rendered;
 - (5) Cooperation with medical, health, nursing, and welfare groups and organizations, and with any agency of the state charged with the administration of laws providing for vocational rehabilitation and special education of physically handicapped children;
 - (6) Carrying out the purposes specified in section 5.
- (b) To expend in accordance with such plan or plans all funds made available to the state by the federal government for such purposes.
- (c) To cooperate with the federal government, under part 2, title 5 of the federal social security act, through its appropriate agency or instrumentality, in developing, extending, and improving such services, and in the administration of such plan or plans.

722.210 Duties of census enumerators.

Sec. 10. Duties of census enumerators. Each school census enumerator shall register in the space and on the blanks prescribed by section 9 every crippled child as herein defined within his school district or subdivision thereof, and make report thereof to the superintendent of public instruction.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.210.

722.211 Duty of superintendent of public instruction.

Sec. 11. Duty of superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent of public instruction shall forthwith forward to the secretary of the commission the supplementary reports as herein required.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.211.

722.212 Investigation and report.

Sec. 12. Investigation and report. It shall be the duty of the commission, upon receipt of the completed supplementary school census reports, to cause to be investigated in collaboration with local authorities the needs of such children and to arrange for their proper care and education, as provided for in this act.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.212.

TITLE V. EXAMINATION AND DIAGNOSIS.

722.213 Examination and diagnosis; holding of clinics.

Sec. 13. Holding of clinics. It shall be the duty of the commission to hold diagnostic clinics for crippled children in such places and at such times as circumstances and conditions may warrant. Preparations for, and the organization and administration of, such clinics shall be under the direction of the commission, which shall make suitable rules for their conduct.

722.214 Surgeons and specialists; reports.

Sec. 14. Surgeons and specialists; reports. The orthopedic surgeons and other necessary medical specialists who are to examine children at clinics shall be chosen by the commission in cooperation with the local county medical societies. It shall take detailed stenographic reports of the examining specialists at the clinics, including their recommendations, and prepare special blanks upon which such reports are to be recorded. Copies of such reports shall be furnished to properly interested persons and agencies in the counties where the respective children have their residences, including parents who are able to pay any part of the costs of the treatment recommended.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.214.

TITLE VI. TREATMENT.

722.215 Treatment; investigation; financial and medical reports.

Sec. 15. Whenever there is found in any county a crippled child, whose condition can be remedied and whose parents or spouse are unable to provide proper care and treatment, application shall be made to the representative of the commission, or such person or agency as shall be designated by the commission who shall make a financial investigation and secure a certificate showing the physical and mental condition of such child. A copy of the report of such financial investigation and of the report of a duly licensed practitioner of medicine with reference to such child shall be forwarded to the commission.

722.216 Order of commission; responsibility.

Sec. 16. Upon the receipt of the medical and financial reports, the commission shall promptly consider the matter and make a determination with reference thereto. If found eligible, the commission shall issue an authorization that such child be conveyed to a hospital in the state which has been approved and designated by the commission for the care of such children. The commission shall be charged with the responsibility for the proper handling of the case, and may transfer such child to some other hospital for treatment better adapted to its needs, or because of lack of room or facilities, or for other adequate reason, the intent of this provision being that it shall be the duty of the commission to secure for each child such care and treatment as the particular necessities of the case may require.

722.217 Designation of hospitals.

Sec. 17. Designation of hospitals. Any hospital approved by the American college of surgeons may be approved by the commission, if it maintains orthopedic equipment and convalescent and educational facilities including qualified instructional service and an attending orthopedic surgeon and other specialists approved by the commission.

722.218 Hospital reports; progress reports; convalescent rates.

Sec. 18. Approved hospitals receiving patients under the provisions of this act shall report within 14 days to the commission, on blanks to be provided by the commission for that purpose, the dates of admission to and discharge from such hospital, the name of the approved physician or the surgeon who operated, and such other information as the commission may require, and a copy of such report shall be sent by the commission to any other properly interested person or agency of the county from which such patient was sent. A discharge report giving the date of discharge and such other information as the commission may require must be filed within 30 days from date of discharge. Each approved hospital shall report progress to the commission on the treatment of all crippled children remaining in such hospital in excess of 15 days in the manner required by the commission, but when the progress report submitted by the hospital does not indicate the need for further acute care, the convalescent rates established by the commission shall prevail.

722.219 Hospital care and treatment.

Sec. 19. Hospital care and treatment. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of such hospital to provide a bed in the hospital to which such child shall be assigned for operation or treatment or both of the deformity or malady in the particular case and the care and treatment of such child. The physician or surgeon approved by the commission shall proceed as promptly as necessary to perform such operation or to bestow such treatment upon such child as in his judgment shall be proper. No compensation shall be charged or allowed to the admitting physician nor to the physician or surgeon at the hospital of the university of Michigan who shall treat such child other than is provided for in this act.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.219.

TITLE VII. EDUCATION.

722.220 Education; hospital schools for convalescent crippled children, provision.

Sec. 20. Hospital schools. Hospital schools for educational training for convalescent crippled children shall be provided by the hospital authorities in approved hospitals of the state receiving crippled children for treatment as may in the judgment of the superintendent of public instruction be deemed advisable.

HISTORY: Am. 1945, p. 256, Act 187, Imd. Eff. May 16;—CL 1948, 722.220.

722.221 Hospital schools for convalescent crippled children; requirements.

Sec. 21. Requirements. All courses of study, attendance record systems, the adequacy of methods of instruction, the qualifications of teachers, the conditions under which teachers are employed and the purchase of necessary equipment for the instruction of such children in hospital schools shall comply with the requirements prescribed by the state superintendent of public instruction.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.221.

722.222 Hospital schools for convalescent crippled children; records and reports.

Sec. 22. Records; reports. Hospital schools shall keep daily records on the regular child accounting forms used in the public schools in the state, showing all children actually receiving instruction. Said hospital schools shall transmit such reports to the superintendent of public instruction as he shall request.

HISTORY: Am. 1945, p. 257, Act 187, Imd. Eff. May 16;—CL 1948, 722.222.

TITLE VIII. ORTHOPEDIC CENTERS.

722.223 Orthopedic centers; minor orthopedic cases; out-patient and convalescent; follow-up supervision.

Sec. 23. Minor orthopedic cases; out-patient and convalescent department; follow-up supervision. The commission may from time to time establish treatment and educational centers in various districts of the state, where, in the opinion of the commission it is necessary to give clinical examination, treatment of minor orthopedic conditions, out-patient treatment and education and follow-up supervision, including convalescent periods for patients from approved and designated hospitals provided for in section 17 of this act. For this purpose the commission may designate and approve local hospitals and surgeons and convalescent schools for the care and education of such convalescent patients, and those suffering from minor orthopedic maladies, and fix their compensation therefor.

722.224 Commitment; responsibility.

Sec. 24. The commission may authorize the conveying of any such children to any such center, and shall be charged with the responsibility for and the care and treatment of such children to the same extent as provided in section 16.

TITLE IX. CUSTODIAL CASES.

722.225 Custodial case; definition.

Sec. 225. Definition. A custodial case shall be deemed to be that of a person, under 21 years of age, who, because of his or her physical handicap, can improve very little or not at all by orthopedic treatment; who needs dependent care, either total or partial; who, under normal conditions, cannot be profitably educated, vocationally trained or placed in remunerative employment; but who may, under proper conditions especially provided, be enabled to contribute to his or her own partial support or well-being.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.225.

722.226 Custodial cases; care and education.

Sec. 26. Care and education. The commission shall have power and it shall be its duty to arrange for the care and education of crippled children requiring custodial care, for whom no other provision is made: Provided, That such persons committed before attaining the age of 21, shall continue thereafter to receive such care and education if considered by the commission necessary and proper. Custodial care shall be given by the commission on the order of the probate court in family homes or private or public institutions which are suitable and licensed by the state under Act No. 136 of the Public Acts of 1919 and Act No. 300 of the Public Acts of 1913, as amended, respectively.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.226.

NOTE: The acts above referred to were repealed and superseded by Act 47, 1st Ex. Ses., 1944, being Compilers' § 722.101 et seq.

TITLE X. FINANCE.

722.227 Finance; expenses of commission.

Sec. 27. Expenses of commission. The expenses of the commission in carrying out the provisions of this act shall be paid pursuant to appropriations made from time to time out of the general fund: Provided, however, That if any funds are made available to the commission by gift or grant, they shall be expended in accordance with the provisions of such gift or grant.

722.228 Expense of clinic.

Sec. 28. Expense of clinics. The per diem compensation of orthopedic surgeons and medical specialists in diagnostic clinics shall be fixed by the commission in cooperation with the auditor general and paid in addition to necessary traveling expenses. The commission may also incur and pay any other incidental expense for service in connection with the holding of such clinics.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.228.

722.229 Cost of investigation and reports.

Sec. 29. Cost of investigations and reports. The costs of the investigational and medical reports required by section 15 of this act shall be paid by the state according to such schedule of fees and expenses as shall be adopted by the commission.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.229.

722.230 Hospital accounting; ward cost; professional fees; charging for services; schedule of fees and rates.

Sec. 30. The superintendent of the approved hospital shall keep a correct account of all hospital, boarding or convalescent homes services, including all ordinary care and such other necessities furnished to said child in accordance with the hospital, convalescent or boarding home rates as fixed by the commission.

The hospitals' financial records shall be open to audit by any person designated by the commission. The commission shall pay for the day of admission but not for the day of discharge.

Each hospital shall be paid not in excess of $25.00 or 90% whichever is greater of their adjusted ward cost for each day of acute care rendered under this act. The commission shall use the adjusted ward cost as determined for the previous fiscal year in accordance with the principles of the official accounting and statistics handbook of the American hospital association. No hospital shall be paid more per patient day than is charged private patients for ward care. No hospital shall be paid more for patient day than is charged for the ward care of patients whose care is paid for out of county funds. Effective July 1, 1964, professional fees shall not exceed 80% of "The Michigan uniform fee schedule for governmental welfare agencies, effective July 1, 1959". Said superintendent and physician shall make and file with the commission affidavits containing itemized statements of such services rendered. No compensation shall be charged or allowed to the admitting physician of any hospital; or to any physician, surgeon or nurse who shall attend or treat any such child at the hospital of the university of Michigan, other than the salary or compensation paid to such person by that hospital. The university hospital may charge for the service of its resident staff if such child has medical or surgical insurance coverage, said charge to be against the medical service or insurance company providing that service. Any physician or surgeon except residents treating any such child at any hospital other than the hospital of the university of Michigan shall bill the commission for compensation as fixed by the commission and be paid by a separate warrant drawn to his order and forwarded to him at his professional address. This affidavit and statement shall in all instances be furnished not later than 45 days after the release or discharge of a child from the hospital. The commission shall fix schedules of compensation to be paid to any hospital, physician or surgeon for the clinical examination, treatment and outpatient care of a crippled child. The schedules of fees and rates herein provided for shall be established and published by the commission at such times as the commission may deem necessary.

722.231 Hospital expense, doctor fees and transportation; audit and payment.

Sec. 31. Upon filing the affidavit with the commission, it shall audit the same according to the rates fixed by section 30 and transmit to the department of administration the affidavit which shall be audited in accordance with the general accounting laws of the state and forwarded to the state treasurer for payment. All expenses incurred in conveying crippled children to and from any such hospital, when fully itemized, audited and approved by the commission, shall be paid out of the general fund of the state. The expense of sending such children home may be paid by the hospital, and, when fully itemized as traveling expense, charged in the regular bill for maintenance with the approval of the commission. The compensation as fixed by the commission in accordance with section 30 shall be paid to the approved physician or surgeon performing services hereunder, by a separate warrant drawn to his order, except at the hospital of the university of Michigan. The warrant of the state treasurer shall be made payable to the particular hospital or physician rendering services hereunder and delivered to it or him in payment of such services.

722.232 Payment by parent or spouse; adjustment of agreement.

Sec. 32. Such portion of the charges for the care and treatment of the children whose parents or spouses are of sufficient ability to pay shall be paid to the state commissioner of revenue by such persons, in such amount, and at a rate to be determined by agreement with the commission. Upon admission to an institution of such a child, the commission shall furnish the commissioner of revenue such information as may be required to keep a correct account of all moneys due the state from such parent or spouse. Payment of these costs by the parent or spouse shall be made to the commissioner of revenue in accordance with the agreement, and the commissioner of revenue shall duly credit the account and forward the moneys received to the state treasurer, who shall credit these payments to the fund for the cost of the care of crippled children under this act. The state shall be subrogated to the rights of recovery which a parent, husband or guardian may have for the cost of hospitalization, or surgical or medical treatment of a minor child to the extent that the state has expended funds for such care and treatment of the child. The parent, husband or guardian shall execute and deliver an assignment of claim or other papers as necessary to secure the rights to the state. The commissioner of revenue with the written recommendation of the attorney general's department, and, when deemed for the best interests of the state, because of undue hardship to liable persons or other meritorious reason, may adjust any amount due under any agreement to reimburse the state, accept and receipt for any adjusted amount which will be in lieu of actual expenditure incurred on the part of the commission.

722.233 Educational program; funds in budget; reimbursement by state.

Sec. 33. The hospital authorities conducting educational programs approved by the superintendent of public instruction shall include in their budgets a sufficient fund to provide the instructional program. To reimburse the hospital for such expenditures as are approved, the state treasurer is hereby authorized to pay to the treasurer of the proper hospital, out of the general fund of the state, on or before the following December fifteenth of each year, upon the warrant of the auditor general, the actual expense incurred for reimbursable items for such educational programs which shall have been conducted in accordance with the regulations of the superintendent of public instruction: Provided, That no hospital may be reimbursed under this act for which financial aid is paid under any other state or federal act: Provided further, That should the legislative appropriation for this purpose be less than the approved claims, the superintendent of public instruction shall make an equal percentage cut in reimbursement to each hospital.

722.234 Treatment and educational centers; payment of costs.

Sec. 34. The accounting of the costs incurred under authorizations pursuant to section 24 and the payment thereof from the general fund through the department of administration, including conveyance costs as provided by law contracted for by the commission, shall be made in the same manner as in the case of authorizations to hospitals under this act.

722.235 Custodial care; payment of costs.

Sec. 35. Payments for necessary transportation and for custodial care shall be made in the same manner, and subject to the same limitations, as for other crippled children cared for under this act. Fifty per cent of the costs of care in each case shall be recharged by the state to the county in which the custodial crippled child is domiciled, upon the presentation of bills for such care approved by the commission.

722.236 Payment by state not pauper aid.

Sec. 36. Payment by state not pauper aid. Such charges as are paid by the state shall not be deemed to have been paid as state or pauper aid, and no person shall be deemed a pauper in consequence of his inability to pay for the care, treatment and education of a child in said hospital or in an approved hospital school.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.236.

722.237 Appropriations; allocations; emergencies, epidemics.

Sec. 37. The cost of carrying out the provisions of this act shall be paid from money appropriated for that purpose by the legislature. Appropriations under this act made for the uses of the commission and to reimburse the general fund for expenditures hereunder shall be separate and apart from the appropriations under any other act. The appropriations for the crippled children commission shall be allotted in accordance with a schedule to be submitted by the commission and recommended for approval by the state budget director to the state administrative board on or before the beginning of each fiscal year. Said schedule shall be based upon the equitable allocation to counties of the appropriations provided herein for the treatment of crippled children, which allocations shall be based solely upon the resources and needs of the respective counties, any other provision to the contrary notwithstanding. Nothing in this section shall prevent a revision of such schedule during the fiscal year when necessary to meet emergency conditions. It is the purpose of this section to so limit the liability of the state that the state will not be required to spend funds beyond the amount of each such appropriation. This section shall be so construed as to effect this purpose and it shall be absolutely binding upon every official or body concerned in the administration of the aforesaid appropriations. In administering the budget the commission shall have the power to surcharge the county for excessive hospitalization of any case, and in its discretion shall return to the county responsible therefor, bills for such excessive hospitalization, who shall order such sums paid from the general funds of the county, but no county shall be liable for excessive hospitalization in such events as epidemics or emergencies requiring use of the provisions of this act.

722.238 Disposition of income.

Sec. 38. Disposition of income. All sums paid to the commission for the training of crippled children shall be paid promptly by the commission into the state treasury to be credited to the hospital bedside education fund to be disbursed for the benefit of pupils in approved hospital schools. All money, securities or like personal property received by said commission by gift, devise, or bequest, shall be paid promptly into the state treasury to be credited to the fund of the state of Michigan, designated by the donor or the commission. The income from all notes, stocks, bonds or other securities shall likewise be paid promptly into the state treasury to be also credited to the fund so designated and to be likewise disbursed. The treasurer of the commission shall give a bond to the state of Michigan in such amount as shall be by the governor from time to time prescribed.

TITLE XI. MISCELLANEOUS.

722.240 Provisions of act not compulsory.

Sec. 40. Provisions of act not compulsory. No official or agent, or representative, in carrying out the provisions of this act, shall enter any home or take charge of any child over the objection of the parents, or either of them or the person standing in loco parentis or having other custody of such child, and nothing in this act shall be construed as limiting the power of a parent or guardian or person standing in loco parentis to determine what treatment or correction shall be provided for a child or the agency or agencies to be employed for such purpose.

this act, and also attempt to force any parent, relative or guardian of such patient to pay an additional sum for such care, and who shall be found guilty thereof, shall be punished in the same manner.

Act 283, 1939, p. 545; Imd. Eff. Jun. 16.

AN ACT to declare the policy of the state of Michigan with reference to afflicted children; to provide for the medical and surgical treatment of children who are afflicted with a curable malady or are pregnant, and whose parents or guardians are unable to provide proper treatment; to prescribe the function of the probate court and the Michigan crippled children commission in such cases; to provide for, and regulate the making of appropriations to carry out the purposes of this act; and to repeal all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

722.301 Policy of state as to afflicted children; commission.

Sec. 1. Policy of state. It is hereby declared to be the public policy of the state to provide medical and surgical treatment for afflicted children as hereafter defined. The authority for the administration of this act is hereby vested in the Michigan crippled children commission, hereinafter known as the commission.

HISTORY: Am. 1943, p. 365, Act 225, Imd. Eff. April 20;—CL 1948, 722.301.

COMPILERS' NOTE: The catchlines following the act section numbers were incorporated as part of the act as enacted.

722.302 Afflicted child; definition.

Sec. 2. Definition. For the purposes of this act, an afflicted child is hereby defined to be any child under 21 years of age, married or unmarried, whose parents or guardians have resided in this state for 1 year, who is afflicted with a physical defect or illness which can be remedied, including acute fracture, or who is pregnant.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.302.

722.303 Michigan crippled children commission; powers and duties; director and employees.

Sec. 3. Commission; specific powers and duties. The commission shall have power here conferred (1) to administer this act, as hereinafter provided and to this end may employ a director who shall be a regularly qualified and licensed physician of the state of Michigan, a secretary and any other personnel necessary for the carrying out of the provisions of this act; (2) to adopt, alter, amend and rescind rules and regulations to carry out its provisions; (3) to administer a program of services for the afflicted child as defined in section 2 of this act; (4) to make and enforce rules and regulations concerning employees serving the commission, the approval of hospitals and of treatment and the handling of cases; the approval of convalescent homes, boarding homes, caring for afflicted children as herein defined; (5) the fixing of fees and institutional rates and the approval of bills. The said commission may in its discretion accept from private agencies, groups, associations, or individuals, funds or subscriptions to provide through its appropriate agency or instrumentality in developing, extending, and improving services for afflicted children and the administration thereof.

722.304 Michigan crippled children commission; books and accounts; report to governor.

Sec. 4. Books and accounts; report. The commission shall keep such books and accounts as it deems necessary to adequately record and control its transactions and furnish data necessary for policy determination. The commission shall make a biennial report to the governor and the state administrative board showing the amount of money received and expended and a detailed statement of its activities for said period, and a copy of such report shall be furnished each member of the legislature at its first session following the filing of such report with the governor.

722.305 Application for treatment, investigation and report; wards of court.

Sec. 5. Whenever there is found in any county an afflicted child whose conditions can be remedied and whose parents or spouse are unable to provide proper care and treatment in whole or in part, application for treatment shall be made to the representative of the commission or such person or agency as shall be designated by the commission who shall make an investigation into the financial condition of the family. The report of such investigation together with the written certificate of the physician or surgeon showing the physical and mental condition with reference to the child shall be forwarded to the commission. The commission shall approve or reject the application, and if approved, issue an authorization that the child be conveyed by a person approved by the commission to a hospital in the state selected by the attending physician, and which has been approved and designated by the commission for the care of afflicted children. Application for admitting an afflicted child to an approved hospital as a state charge shall be made not later than 10 days from date of admission. The order shall carry the date of application, and the effective date of the order which in no case shall be earlier than 10 days prior to date of the application. Application may be made by the father, mother, guardian, next of kin, husband or wife, any peace officer, custodian, health officer or publicly employed physician or surgeon, or anyone else whom the commission in its discretion approves. Children who are permanent wards of the juvenile division of the probate court or have been committed to the state department of social welfare, the rights of whose parents have been terminated, shall be eligible for care under this act without further financial investigation.

722.306 Order of commission; responsibility.

Sec. 6. Upon the issuance of the authorization the commission shall become charged with the responsibility for the proper handling of the case. The commission may transfer the child to some other hospital for treatment better adapted to its needs, or if the condition of the child becomes such that it classifies as a crippled child, the commission shall transfer the child to a hospital approved for the care of crippled children under the crippled children's act, the intent of this act being that the commission shall secure for each child such care and treatment as the particular necessities of the case, in the opinion of the commission, may require.

722.307 Approval of hospitals.

Sec. 7. Designation of hospitals. Any hospital which fulfills the requirements as set forth in the rules and regulations of the Michigan crippled children commission in force pursuant to the provisions of this act may be approved for the care of the afflicted child as herein defined: Provided, however, That the neuropsychiatric institute shall not receive compensation for patients admitted under this act: And provided further, That approval of a hospital under this act shall not include performance of operations for sterilization of mental defectives as provided by Act 281 of the Public Acts of 1929.

HISTORY: Am. 1943, p. 367, Act 225, Imd. Eff. April 20;—Am. 1945, p. 289, Act 218, Imd. Eff. May 18;—CL 1948, 722.307.

722.308 Admittance to hospital; reports; convalescent rates.

Sec. 8. Approved hospitals receiving patients under the provisions of this act shall promptly report to the commission on blanks to be provided by the commission for that purpose, the date and hour of admission to and discharge from such hospital, the name of the physician and/or the surgeon who is in attendance, and such other information as the commission may require. Notification of the admittance of an afflicted child shall be made to the commission by the superintendent of the hospital within 14 days. A discharge report, giving the date of the discharge, and such other information as the commission may require, must be filed within 30 days from date of discharge. No bill for the care of a child shall be approved unless an entrance and discharge report has been filed with the commission. Each approved hospital shall report progress to the commission on the treatment of all afflicted children remaining in such hospital in excess of 15 days in the manner required by the commission: Provided, That when the progress report submitted by the hospital does not indicate the need for further acute care, the convalescent rates established by the commission shall prevail.

722.309 Hospital care and treatment; transfer of patients.

Sec. 9. Hospital care and treatment. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of said hospital, upon receiving such child, to provide such child with proper hospital service, either in the in-patient or out-patient service of the hospital. The staff of the hospital shall be responsible for the prompt and proper medical or surgical treatment of the child except where such child is under the care of a private physician or surgeon. No child shall be sent to or received into said hospital unless there is a reasonable chance for him to be benefited by the proposed medical or surgical treatment, and as an aid to the diagnosis, prognosis and treatment of such case, a complete history of each case shall be furnished to the hospital and the commission by the examining physician upon request. Any child who shall be diagnosed after admission as a crippled child as defined by the crippled children's act, or as suffering at admission only from acute pulmonary tuberculosis, or only from any other communicable disease, or only from an incurable mental illness or defect shall be retained in the hospital under this act only for such period as may be necessary to discharge him to his home or to the jurisdiction of some other state act for the care of afflicted children. Appropriate rules and regulations may be adopted to effectuate the transfer of patients pursuant to this section.

722.310 Boarding homes; convalescent and out-patient service.

Sec. 10. Boarding homes; convalescent and out-patient service. An afflicted child who has been assigned to an approved hospital whose treatment can be rendered through the out-patient department of that hospital, may be assigned by the commission to a boarding or convalescent home approved by the state department of public welfare, and supervised by that department, or any other agency approved by the commission, the cost of such convalescent or boarding care and treatment to be billed to the state as provided for in the rules and regulations and in accordance with the rates and fees set by the commission.

722.311 Expenses of commission and treatment; appropriations.

Sec. 11. Expenses of commission. Expenses of the commission in carrying out the provisions of this act shall be paid pursuant to appropriations made by the legislature from time to time out of the general fund of the state. Appropriations for the purposes of this act made to pay the cost of investigations and treatment and for the use of the commission shall be made to the commission and shall be separate and apart from appropriations to make effective the provisions of any other act.

722.312 Cost of investigation; claims.

Sec. 12. Cost of investigation and report. The cost of the economic and medical investigation by this act shall be paid by the state according to such schedule of fees and expenses as shall be adopted by the commission: Provided, That no person in the employ of the state or any county shall be allowed any compensation or traveling expense other than that provided by law. All claims for compensation shall be itemized for each child and rendered monthly under oath to the commission. When such claims are found to be correct and approved, they shall be paid out of the general fund of the state, appropriated for that purpose.

722.313 Hospital accounting; ward cost; professional fees; schedule of fees and rates.

Sec. 13. The superintendent of the approved hospital shall keep a correct account of all hospital boarding or convalescent home services, including all ordinary care and such other necessities furnished to said child, in accordance with the hospital, convalescent or boarding homes' rates as fixed by the commission.

The hospitals' financial records shall be open to audit by any person designated by the commission. The commission shall pay for the day of admission but not for the day of discharge.

Each hospital shall be paid not in excess of $25.00 or 90% whichever is greater of their adjusted ward cost for each day of acute care rendered under this act. The commission shall use the adjusted ward cost as determined for the previous fiscal year in accordance with the principles of the official accounting and statistics handbook of the American hospital association. No hospital shall be paid more per patient day than is charged private patients for ward care. No hospital shall be paid more per patient day than is charged for the ward care of patients whose care is paid for out of county funds. Effective July 1, 1964, professional fees shall not exceed 80% of "The Michigan uniform fee schedule for governmental welfare agencies, effective July 1, 1959". Said superintendent and physician shall make and file with the commission affidavits containing itemized statements of such services rendered. No compensation shall be charged or allowed to the admitting physician of any hospital; or to any physician, surgeon or nurse who shall attend or treat any such child at the hospital of the university of Michigan, other than the salary or compensation paid to such person by that hospital. The university hospital may charge for the service of its resident staff if such child has medical or surgical insurance coverage, said charge to be against the medical service or insurance company providing that service. Any physician or surgeon, except residents treating any such child at any hospital other than the hospital of the university of Michigan, shall bill the commission for compensation as fixed by the commission, and paid by a separate warrant drawn to his order. The commission shall fix schedules of compensation to be paid to any hospital, physician or surgeon for the clinical examination, treatment and outpatient care of an afflicted child. The schedules of fees and rates herein provided for shall be established and published by the commission at such time as the commission may deem necessary.

722.314 Hospital expenses and doctor fees; audit and payment; billing within 45 days.

Sec. 14. Upon filing the affidavit with the commission, and following the approval by the commission, it shall be transmitted to the department of administration to be audited in accordance with the general accounting laws of the state and forwarded to the state treasurer for payment. The compensation as provided in section 13 and approved by the commission shall be paid to the physician or surgeon performing the services hereunder by a separate warrant drawn to his order and forwarded to him at his professional address, except at the hospital of the university of Michigan. The warrant of the state treasurer for hospital services shall be made payable to the particular hospital rendering services hereunder and delivered to it in payment of such services. No crippled child as defined by the crippled children's act, or any other child exempted by this act, shall be entitled to care to be paid for by the state under this act. Payment shall be refused on any billing rendered more than 45 days after discharge of the patient from the hospital.

722.315 Communicable diseases; expense recharged to county.

Sec. 15. Communicable diseases. All costs of care for communicable diseases of afflicted children while in approved hospitals under this act shall be paid by the state and recharged to the county from which the child was committed as provided in the laws dealing with the treatment of communicable diseases.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.315.

722.316 Transportation costs; payment by county.

Sec. 16. The cost of transportation of the child to and from the hospital shall be paid by the county treasurer of the county in which the child resides out of the general fund of the county upon receipt of the proper certificate of approval thereof from the commission.

HISTORY: Am. 1945, p. 382, Act 228, Imd. Eff. May 24;—CL 1948, 722.316;—Am. 1963, p. 141, Act 106, Eff. Sep. 6.

722.317 Commitment; agreement to pay by parent or spouse; adjustment.

Sec. 17. No child shall be sent to any hospital for medical or surgical treatment under this act until the parents or spouse of the child have entered into an agreement with the state that they will repay, if they have been determined by the commission to be financially able to do so, the state for the actual cost of the medical or surgical treatment on such terms as shall meet the approval of the commission. Upon admission to an institution of a child, the commission shall furnish the state commissioner of revenue such information as may be required to keep a correct account of all moneys due the state from the parents or spouse. Payment of the costs by the parents or spouse shall be made to the commissioner of revenue, in accordance with the agreement, and the commissioner of revenue shall duly credit the account, forward the moneys received to the state treasurer, who shall credit these payments to the fund for the cost of the care of afflicted children under this act. The state shall be subrogated to the rights of recovery which a parent, husband or guardian may have for the cost of hospitalization, or surgical or medical treatment of a minor child to the extent that the state has expended funds for such care and treatment of the child. The parent, husband or guardian shall execute and deliver an assignment of claim or other papers as necessary to secure the rights to the state. The commissioner of revenue with the written recommendation of the attorney general's department and, when deemed for the best interests of the state, because of undue hardship to liable persons or other meritorious reason, may adjust any amount due under any agreement to reimburse the state, accept and receipt for any adjusted amount which will be in lieu of actual expenditure incurred on the part of the commission. Where the child is found to be emancipated, the signature of the child may be accepted in lieu and stead of the parent or spouse.

722.318 Payment by state not pauper aid.

Sec. 18. Payment by the state not pauper aid. Such charges as are paid by the state shall not be deemed to have been paid as state or pauper aid, and no person shall be deemed a pauper in consequence of his inability to pay for the care and treatment of a child in an approved hospital under this act.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 722.318.

722.319 Appropriation; reimbursement of general fund.

Sec. 19. Appropriation. The cost of carrying out the provisions of this act shall be paid from money appropriated to the commission for that purpose by the legislature. Appropriations under this act made for the use of the commission and to reimburse the general fund for expenditures hereunder shall be separate and apart from appropriations under any other act.

722.319a Appropriation; allocations; emergencies; construction of section; excessive hospitalization.

Sec. 19a. 1. The appropriations made for any fiscal year for medical treatment of afflicted children or for any other service furnished under this act, shall be allotted in accordance with a schedule to be submitted by the commission and recommended for approval by the state budget director to the state administrative board on or before the beginning of each fiscal year. The schedule shall be based upon the equitable allocation to counties of the appropriation provided for the treatment of afflicted children which allocation shall be based solely upon the resources and needs of the respective counties as determined by the commission. Nothing in this section shall prevent a revision of such schedule during the fiscal year when necessary to meet emergency conditions. It is the purpose of this section to so limit the liability of the state that the state will not be required to spend funds beyond the amount of each appropriation. This section shall be so construed as to effect this purpose and it shall be absolutely binding upon each official or body concerned in the administration of the aforesaid appropriations.

Excessive hospitalization, surcharge of county.

2. In the administration of the afflicted children's act the commission may charge back to the county and to return to each county bills for excessive or unnecessary hospitalization due to neglect of county authorities as in the discretion of the commission shall seem just and shall have authority to surcharge any county which has in the opinion of the commission unnecessarily used an amount in excess of its fair allocation of funds.

722.321 Act not compulsory upon parents.

Sec. 21. Provisions of act not compulsory. No official or agent, or representative, in carrying out the provisions of this act, shall enter any home or take charge of any child over the objection of the parents, or either of them or the person standing in loco parentis or having other custody of such child, and nothing in this act shall be construed as limiting the power of a parent or guardian or person standing in loco parentis to determine what treatment or correction shall be provided for a child or the agency or agencies to be employed for such purpose except by judicial order.

722.322 Acts prohibited; penalty.

Sec. 22. Any parent or guardian, official of hospital, physician, employe of county or state or any other person found guilty of wilfully making a false statement or of wilfully giving, accepting, or concealing false information for the purpose of securing aid under this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500.00 or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 90 days. Any official of any hospital or any physician who shall bill the state under the provisions of this act for the care of a patient and also attempt to force any parent, relative, or guardian of such patient or the patient to pay an additional sum for such care, and who shall be found guilty thereof, shall be punished in the same manner.

Act 271, 1925, p. 386; Eff. Aug. 27.

AN ACT to provide for the commitment to state institutions of certain children placed with, released to, or committed to persons, societies, organizations, associations or corporations licensed and approved by the state department of social welfare; to provide for the protection of the rights of children over whom jurisdiction is in doubt because of some question of residence, and providing for the payment of the expense thereof. Am. 1955, p. 280, Act 186, Imd. Eff. Jun. 14.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

722.531 Children incapable of adoption; commitment to state institution, expenses of commitment, maintenance.

Sec. 1. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the probate court that any child heretofore or hereafter placed with, committed to, or released to any person, society, organization, association or corporation licensed and approved by the state department of social welfare to receive, maintain or place out for adoption minor children or to obtain homes for dependent and neglected children, is, by reason of mental or physical disability or for any other reason, incapable of adoption, such child may be committed to a proper state institution. Such commitment may be made by the probate court for the county in which the home of such person, or the principal office of such society, organization, association or corporation is located, or for the county in which the child was placed with, released to, or committed to such person, society, organization, association or corporation, or for the county in which such child may be, upon application of the person or the principal officer of the society, organization, association or corporation to which such child has been committed or released. The expense of committing such child to a state institution and any expense chargeable to counties for maintenance in any such state institution, shall be paid by the county where such child was a resident at the time of its placement with, release to, or commitment to such person, society, organization, association or corporation.

722.532 Protection of children's rights; director of social welfare, duties.

Sec. 2. Whenever, after a careful investigation and report, it shall appear to the director of the state department of social welfare that any child in Michigan under 17 years of age has no guardian willing and able to take suitable action in behalf of the child or that it appears that such child is being deprived of some service or right generally available to children in Michigan because of the refusal or asserted inability of some administrative or judicial agency or agencies of the state or its political subdivisions to provide or order such service or enforce such right, and it further appears that such refusal or asserted inability exists for the reason of no jurisdiction or power because of some question of residence of the child, it shall be the duty of said director, acting as the agent of the state, to take such action as may be necessary to obtain a final legal determination as to which administrative or judicial agency has the duty of furnishing or ordering the service to or protecting the rights of such child.

722.533 Protection of children's rights; prosecuting attorney.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of the county, in some court of or for which the director, with the advice of the attorney general, determines to begin his action to discharge this service for the state including appeals whenever such may be necessary to reach a final determination.

HISTORY: Add. 1955, p. 281, Act 186, Imd. Eff. Jun. 14.

722.534 Protection of children's rights; question of jurisdiction, residence, costs.

Sec. 4. As it is the intent of the legislature that this duty shall be for the general purpose of clarifying the laws for the protection of children, when a question of jurisdiction based on residence is concerned, all cases arising under this act shall be deemed public cases without assessment of costs against any party.

These sections provided penalties with respect to obscene or criminal literature. For present law, see Compilers' §§ 750.142-750.143.

722.557 Apprenticing or disposal of minor; application, examination of home, report, fee.

Sec. 7. That any person desiring to have a minor child apprenticed, indentured or otherwise disposed of, to him or her, by any person, asylum, corporation or other institution incorporated under the laws of this state for minor children, or by any private asylum or institution in this state, if any there be, by the officers of such asylum or institution, shall apply in writing to the county agent of the state board of corrections and charities of the county in which the applicant resides, and in case there shall be no such agent in said county, then such application shall be made to 1 of the superintendents of the poor of such county, requesting the officer to whom such application is made to examine and report in writing to the asylum or institution having the custody and control of said child, on the suitability of the home of said applicant for said child. And thereupon it shall be the duty of such agent or superintendent of the poor to make such examinations and report, and cause such report to be filed in the office of the asylum or institution having control of the child, and a copy thereof with the judge of probate of said county, on the payment, by said applicant, to said agent or superintendent of the poor, the sum of 3 dollars for his services under this act. And in no case shall any child be indentured, apprenticed or otherwise disposed of, to any applicant, by any such asylum or institution, unless there be such examination and report which shall show that the applicant is a person of good moral character, that he is able to support and educate the child, and that his home is a suitable one for the child.

BOARD OF CORRECTIONS AND CHARITIES: Abolished; powers and duties transferred to the state social welfare department, see Compilers' § 400.19.

722.558 Apprenticing or disposal of minor; contract, subsequent procedure.

Sec. 8. That on filing said application and certificate approving said applicant, in the office of such asylum or institution and a copy of such certificate with the judge of probate as herein provided, a contract in writing shall be entered into by and between said applicant and the principal officer of such asylum or institution or such officer or agent of such asylum or institution, as the board of trustees thereof shall authorize, in which it shall be mutually agreed that said child shall remain with said applicant until it is 18 or 21 years of age, as may be agreed upon by the contracting parties; which shall provide that the applicant shall support said child, shall treat it as a member of his or her family, that he or she will keep such child in the public schools, or in some equally good private school, for at least 4 months in each year, and that he or she will have such child taught some useful trade or occupation. Whenever any child shall be placed in any family the proper officer of such asylum or institution shall at once notify the county agent of the state board of corrections and charities, in counties where there is such agent, and where there is none, the superintendents of the poor, with whom and where such child is placed. Such agent or superintendents of the poor shall at least once in each year visit such child and carefully investigate its conditions and surroundings and report the same to the officer of the asylum or institution from which such child was received, and also send a duplicate copy of such report to the secretary of the state board of corrections and charities. (Such county agent shall receive as compensation under this act, his proper official expenses together with 3 dollars in full for his services for each case visited, investigated and reported by him, but not exceeding 3 dollars for any 1 day's service, which shall be audited by the board of state auditors on the approval of the secretary of the state board of corrections and charities, and paid from the general fund: Provided, That the sum so allowed for the services of such agent in any county except the county of Wayne shall not in any 1 year exceed the sum of 25 dollars, and that in the county of Wayne the sum so allowed for such services shall not in any 1 year exceed the sum of 50 dollars.) And should the county agent or superintendent of the poor, in counties where there is no county agent, at any time deem that the interests of the child require it he may, with the approval of the judge of probate of the county where the child resides, after due notice of the hearing before said judge, given to the superintendent or other officer of said asylum or institution, cancel the contract of indenture, take possession of the child and return it to the said asylum or institution, or proceed according to law for its admission to the state public school at Coldwater, as may be ordered by said judge. (And in case such proceedings are taken a petition therefor signed by such county agent alone shall be sufficient.)

STATE PUBLIC SCHOOL: Abolished and superseded by the Michigan children's institute, see Compilers' § 400.201 et seq.

722.559 Apprenticing or disposal of minor; methods; inapplicability to certain state institutions.

Sec. 9. It shall be unlawful for any person, or any private or incorporated asylum or institution for minor children, to indenture, apprentice, place by adoption or otherwise dispose of any minor child to any person, except by 1 of the following methods:

First, By officers of state institutions acting under the provisions of law authorizing them to place children in families by indenture, adoption or otherwise;

Second, In accordance with the laws of this state relative to the adoption and change of names of minors, and making them heirs at law of the person or persons adopting them;

Third, In accordance with the laws of this state, relative to masters, apprentices and servants, so far as such law does not conflict with the provisions of this act;

Fourth, By the officers of incorporated asylums or institutions authorized by the laws of this state to receive, care for and dispose of minor children in such manner as may be provided;

Fifth, By the father and mother residing in this state, and if either be dead or of legal incapacity, or has abandoned the child, then by the other, and in case the child be illegitimate, then by its mother, and in case there be no father or mother of legal capacity, then by the guardian of the child, resident of this state and duly appointed under the laws thereof.

In no case shall any minor child be indentured, apprenticed, adopted or otherwise disposed of by any person, by either of the methods herein named, or under any law of the state, except on the written approval of the person or persons taking such child by the county agent of the state board of corrections and charities of the county in which the person applying for the child resides, or by a superintendent of the poor of the county where there is no such agent, in form and manner required by this act, except where such indenture is under the fifth subdivision of this section: Provided, That the provisions of this act shall not apply to any state institution authorized by the laws of this state to indenture, or otherwise place in homes minor children.

722.562 Ill-treated child; definition.

Sec. 12. An ill-treated child is hereby declared to be:

First, One whose father, mother, or guardian shall habitually violate or permit such child to violate the provisions of sections 1, 2, 5 and 6 of this act;

Second, One whose father, mother, or guardian habitually causes or permits the health of such child to be injured or his life to be endangered by exposure, want, or other injury to his person, or causes or permits him to engage in any occupation that will be likely to endanger his health or life or deprave his morals;

Third, One whose father, mother, or guardian is an habitual drunkard or a person of notorious and scandalous conduct, or a reputed thief or a prostitute or one who habitually permits him to frequent public places for the purpose of begging or receiving alms, or to frequent the company of or consort with reputed thieves or prostitutes, with or without such father, mother, or guardian, or by any other act, example, or by vicious training depraves the morals of such child.

722.563 Ill-treated child; complaint, examination, writ.

Sec. 13. Upon complaint made to the judge of probate of the proper county that any child has been ill-treated in either manner stated in this act he shall examine the complainant on oath and shall reduce the complaint to writing and cause the same to be subscribed by the complainant, and if it shall appear that such offense has been committed, the judge of probate shall issue a writ reciting the substance of the complaint and require the officer to whom it is directed to forthwith bring the child so alleged to have been ill-treated and the parent or guardian charged with such ill-treatment, before such judge of probate, to be dealt with according to law; and in the same writ he may require the officer to summon such witnesses as shall be named therein to appear and give evidence on trial.

722.564 Ill-treated child; hearing, jury, forfeiture, disposition of child.

Sec. 14. That on the return of such writ with said child and the accused, the judge of probate shall proceed to hear and determine the cause. If it shall appear by the returns of the officer that the accused cannot be found in the county, the hearing shall proceed without him. If the child shall be without counsel, it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney on the request of the judge of probate, to appear in his behalf. If the accused or counsel for the child shall so request, the judge of probate shall order a jury to be summoned to find the facts in the case and the judge of probate may in his discretion order a jury on his own motion. The jury so ordered shall be a jury of 6 persons and shall be summoned and empaneled in accordance with the law relating to juries in courts held by justices of the peace. If on the hearing the judge of probate shall find, or the verdict of the jury shall determine that the allegations in the complaint are true, the judge of probate shall make and enter an order that the accused has forfeited his right to the custody of the child during minority and that the child be disposed of, in the discretion of the judge of probate, by 1 of the following methods:

Appointment of guardian.

First, By the appointment of a respectable and suitable person of sufficient means as guardian of the custody and education of the child, who shall not be required to give bonds as such guardian, unless it shall appear that such child has personal or real property, who shall execute a written agreement in form approved by said judge of probate, and filed in said court, which shall provide for the treatment of the child as a member of the family, and for his proper support and education in the public schools. On complaint thereafter made to the judge of probate that said guardian does not faithfully execute the terms of said contract, the said judge of probate shall cite said guardian to appear before him, and if it is then found that the allegations in the complaint are true, the said judge of probate may cancel the contract and make a new order for the disposition of the child as herein provided;

Sending to state public school.

Second, By sending such child, if over 2 and under 12 years of age and sound in mind and body, to the state public school at Coldwater, to be there received and to be subject to such disposition as the laws regulating that institution provide;

Indenturing by superintendent of poor.

Third, By delivering such child to the superintendents of the poor, if he is under 2 or over 12 years of age, or is not sound in mind and body, to be by them indentured to some suitable person, according to the provisions of sections 8 and 9 of this act, or to provide for him by the county as for other poor persons.

STATE PUBLIC SCHOOL: Abolished and superseded by the Michigan children's institute, see Compilers' § 400.201 et seq.

SUPPORT OF THE POOR: General provisions, see Compilers' §§ 400.1 et seq. and 401.1 et seq.

SUPERINTENDENT OF POOR: Abolished, powers and duties transferred to county departments of social welfare, see Compilers' § 400.85.

722.565 Custody of child to prevent ill-treatment; order, contract, appeal.

Sec. 15. In all suits or proceedings in chancery and in all habeas corpus proceedings where the custody of any child under 16 years of age is in controversy, if the court or judge shall be satisfied from the evidence that either party to such proceedings would ill-treat such child, within the meaning of this act if placed in his custody, or otherwise would be unsuitable to have such custody, the said judge or court may order that the other party to such proceedings shall have the custody of such child during minority, if it shall appear to the satisfaction of such judge or court that such other party would be a suitable one to have such custody and would not ill-treat such child within the meaning of this act. And if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the judge or court that neither party to such proceedings is a suitable one to have such custody, the judge or court shall order that the parties to such proceedings have forfeited any rights that they may have had to the custody of said child, during minority, and the custody of such child during minority shall, in the discretion of such judge or court, be disposed of by such judge or court by either of the methods provided in section 14 of this act. The contract when made and approved by said judge or court shall be filed in the probate court, and the judge of probate of the probate court where the contract is filed shall have the same authority to cancel such contract and dispose of the child again as provided in said section 14 as in other cases: Provided, That in all cases arising under the provisions of this act, appeal shall be allowed as in other cases triable before said court.

Act 98, 1964, p. 96; Eff. Aug. 28.

AN ACT to require the reporting of certain injuries to certain minors; to provide immunity for certain persons making such reports; to provide rules of evidence in certain cases and to provide a penalty for violation of this act.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

722.571 Intentionally injured children; physicians report; detention.

Sec. 1. (1) Any licensed physician who provides medical treatment or who makes a medical examination of any child under 17 years of age who has physical injuries which were, or may have been intentionally inflicted upon him by any person responsible for his care, or a registered nurse, social worker or school principal, assistant principal or counselor or any law enforcement officer having reasonable cause to believe that a child under 17 years of age brought to him or coming before him has physical injuries which were, or may have been intentionally inflicted upon him by any person responsible for his care, shall have the child examined by a physician after which he shall immediately cause a report to be made as required by this act. When the attending or examining physician, registered nurse, social worker or school principal, assistant principal or counselor or any law enforcement officer is a member of a hospital, agency or school staff he shall notify the person in charge thereof of his finding and the person in charge shall cause the report to be made.

722.572 Report; copies to prosecuting attorney, probate court, county social welfare department and state social services department; reports from other counties; contents.

Sec. 2. One copy each of the report required by section 1 shall be mailed to the prosecuting attorney, to the probate court, and to the department of social welfare of the county where the physician, nurse, social worker, school administrator or any law enforcement officer believes the injury may have been inflicted. One copy shall be mailed to the Lansing office of the state department of social services, which shall maintain a central filing system in such a manner as will carry out the intent of this act. Upon request from the probate court or the prosecuting attorney of any county, the state department shall furnish copies of reports which originated in other counties of the state. The report shall contain the names and addresses of the child, his parents, his guardian or the person with whom he resides, the child's age and a description of his injuries. The report shall also contain any other information available to the reporting person which might establish the cause of the injuries and the manner in which they were inflicted.

722.572a Investigation; reference to enforcement agencies.

Sec. 2a. The state department of social services shall promptly, in cooperation with the county prosecuting attorney and the probate court, investigate all such reports in an effort to determine if there was intentionally inflicted injury. If the state department finds that there may have been intentionally inflicted injuries by any other person responsible for the care of a child within this state, it shall forthwith refer the cases to the proper law enforcement agencies for such action as may be appropriate under the laws of this state.

722.573 Investigation; immunity from liability, presumption of good faith.

Sec. 3. Any person acting in good faith who makes a report, or, in good faith assists in any other requirement of this act including taking a child to an appropriate medical facility or resource for a physical examination pursuant to the provisions of this act shall be immune from civil or criminal liability which might otherwise be incurred thereby. Any person making or assisting in the making of the report shall be presumed to have acted in good faith. This immunity from civil or criminal liability extends only to acts done pursuant to the provision of this act and does not extend to negligent acts which cause personal injury or death or to malpractice of a physician which results in personal injury or death.

HISTORY: New 1964, p. 96, Act 98, Eff. Aug. 28;—Am. 1967, p. 316, Act 219, Imd. Eff. Jul. 10.

AN ACT to confer upon circuit courts jurisdiction over proceedings to compel and provide support of children born out of wedlock; to prescribe the procedure for determination of such liability; to authorize agreements providing for furnishing of such support and to provide for the enforcement thereof; and to prescribe penalties for the violation of certain provisions of this act.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

722.711 Paternity act; definitions.

Sec. 1. (a) A child born out of wedlock is a child begotten and born to any woman who was unmarried from the conception to the date of birth of the child.

(b) When the word "child" is used in this act it shall refer to a child so born out of wedlock.

(c) When the word "mother" is used in this act it shall refer to the mother of a child so born out of wedlock.

(d) When the word "court" is used in this act it shall refer to the circuit court.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 408, Act 205, Eff. Aug. 11.

CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: Sections 722.711 to 722.730 are cited in § 750.199a.

722.712 Child born out of wedlock; liability of parents.

Sec. 2. (a) The parents of a child so born out of wedlock are liable for the necessary support and education of the child. They are also liable for the child's funeral expenses. The father is liable to pay the expenses of the mother's confinement, and is also liable to pay such expenses in connection with her pregnancy as the court in its discretion may deem proper.

(b) If the father dies, an order of filiation or a judicially approved settlement made prior to his death shall be enforceable against his estate in the same manner and way as a divorce decree.

722.713 Father's agreement for support and education.

Sec. 3. (a) An agreement or compromise made by the mother or child or by some authorized person on their behalf with the father concerning the support and education of the child shall be binding upon the mother and the child only when the court having jurisdiction to compel support and education of the child shall have determined that adequate provision is reasonably secured by payment or otherwise and has approved the agreement or compromise.

(b) The performance of the agreement or compromise, when so approved, shall bar other remedies of the mother or child for the support and education of the child.

722.714 Paternity proceedings.

Sec. 4. (a) A proceeding in accordance with this act shall be brought by the mother, or the father as provided hereafter. Complaints shall be made in the county where the mother and child reside or one of them reside. If both the mother and child reside outside this state, then the complaint shall be made in the county where the putative father resides or is found. The fact that the child was conceived or born outside of the state of Michigan shall not be a bar to entering a complaint against the putative father.

Same; commencement, statute of limitations.

(b) Proceedings in pursuance of this act may be instituted during the pregnancy of the mother or after the birth of the child, but shall not be brought after the lapse of more than 6 years from the birth of the child, unless paternity has been acknowledged by the father in writing in accordance with statutory provisions. If any payment is made for support of the child in the 6-year period, the proceedings may be commenced any time within 6 years from the last of any such payment. If the defendant is outside the state of Michigan during the 6-year period, the time he is so absent shall not be included in the 6-year period.

Same; jurisdiction of circuit court; attorney for complainant; power of circuit court commissioner.

(c) The complaint shall be made to, and for the purpose of this act jurisdiction is conferred upon the circuit court; it shall be reduced to writing and the proceedings shall be conducted by an attorney employed by the complainant. If the bureau of social aid of the county wherein the complainant resides first determines her to be eligible for public assistance or to be without means to employ an attorney, then the prosecuting attorney shall represent her in initiating and conducting the proceedings under this act. The complaint shall be verified by oath or affirmation of complainant. If no circuit judge for the county wherein the complaint is made is present within the county at the time of the filing of the complaint, then any circuit court commissioner within the county shall have authority to issue a warrant or summons, to fix the amount of bond or cash deposit in lieu of bond, to approve sureties, to order commitment to the county jail, and to take written acknowledgments or denials of paternity as in this act provided.

Same; charge.

(d) The complainant shall charge the person named as defendant with being the father of the child and state the time and place, as near as possible, where the complainant was begotten with child.

Same; issuance of warrant, trial, recognizance; friend of the court; summons, warrant.

(e) Upon the filing of the complaint the court shall issue a warrant against the alleged father directed to any peace officer in the state which may be executed in any part of this state. Upon the alleged father being brought before the court by virtue of the warrant, the court thereupon, or as soon thereafter as may be, shall proceed with the trial of the case. If the court shall not then proceed with the trial, it shall require the defendant to enter into a recognizance with 1 or more sufficient sureties satisfactory to the court or deposit cash with the county clerk in lieu of bond in an amount to be determined by the court, upon condition that the defendant appear for trial and answer the complaint in the circuit court and to abide the order of the court thereon, and said court may order said alleged father to be committed to the county jail until he shall furnish such recognizance, and in the event of recognizance being furnished and it is thereafter forfeited, the proceeds collected on said bonds shall be paid to the county social welfare department to be used for the use and benefit of the child born out of wedlock. In counties having a friend of the court, such friend of the court shall exercise those powers and perform those duties imposed by this act upon the county social welfare department. When a warrant is issued under this act, the alleged father shall not be fingerprinted, photographed, or have his name listed on any criminal record. However, a summons instead of a warrant may be issued in the discretion of the court. The summons shall be in such form as the court may determine and shall be personally served as directed by the court; but if the alleged father cannot be personally served with a summons or does not appear for trial after being served with summons, a warrant shall be issued.

Same; order of filiation, complaint of father.

(f) The father or putative father of a child so born out of wedlock under this act may file the complaint in the circuit court of the county in which such child or mother resides or is found, praying for the entry of the order of filiation as provided for in section 7 (a) of this act. The other parent of the child shall be made a party defendant and notified of the hearing on the complaint by summons which shall be in such form as the court shall determine and shall be personally served as directed by the court. The court, following the hearing, shall enter the order of filiation which shall have the same effect, be subject to the same provisions and enforced in the same manner as an order of filiation would be if entered under the provisions of this act on complaint of the mother.

Same; minor, guardian ad litem.

(g) It shall be unnecessary in any proceedings under this act commenced by or against a minor to have a next friend or guardian ad litem appointed for such minor unless the circuit judge shall require it; and such minor shall be entitled to prosecute or defend any proceedings in the same manner and with the same effect as if he or she were of legal age.

722.715 Competency of mother and alleged father; jury demand; exclusion of public; continuance until child is born.

Sec. 5. (a) Both the mother and the alleged father shall be competent to testify, but the alleged father shall not be compelled to testify, and if either gives evidence he or she shall be subject to cross examination. Either party may demand a trial by jury. The court may exclude the general public from the room where proceedings are had, pursuant to this act, admitting only persons directly interested in the case, including the officers of the court, officers or public welfare agents presenting the case, and witnesses.

(b) If the child is not born at the time set for trial, the case, unless the alleged father consents to trial, shall be continued until the child is born, and the alleged father shall remain bound or held until trial.

722.716 Blood tests; admission as evidence.

Sec. 6. (a) In any proceeding under this act before trial, the court, upon application made by or on behalf of the alleged father, shall order that the mother, child and alleged father submit to 1 or more blood tests to determine whether or not the defendant can be excluded as the father of the child. No blood test of any child shall be taken before the child reaches the age of 6 months. Whenever the court orders any blood test to be taken and the mother refuses to submit either herself or the child to the test, such fact shall be disclosed upon the trial unless good cause is shown for not doing so.

(b) Any test shall be made by an expert qualified as an examiner of blood types, who shall be appointed by the court.

(c) The court shall fix the compensation of any expert at a reasonable amount, and may direct the same to be paid by the county, or any other party to the case, or by both in such proportions and at such times as the court prescribes. Prior to the making of the test, the court may order any part or all of the compensation paid in advance.

(d) The result of the tests shall be receivable in evidence in the trial of the case but only in cases where definite exclusion is established. If more than 1 expert is appointed by the court, and if they disagree in their findings or conclusions, neither the findings, conclusions or the results of these tests shall be admissible [sic] as evidence of the paternity or non-paternity of the alleged father.

722.717 Order of filiation, contents, notice to state commissioner of health.

Sec. 7. (a) If the finding of the court or verdict be against the defendant, or if the defendant acknowledges paternity orally to the court or by the filing in the case of his written acknowledgment of paternity, or if he is served with summons or a warrant and a default is duly taken against him, the court shall make an order of filiation declaring paternity and for the support and education of the child.

(b) The order of filiation shall specify the sum to be paid weekly or otherwise, until the child reaches the age of 18. In addition to providing for the support and education, the order shall also provide for the payment of the necessary expenses incurred by or for the mother in connection with her confinement; for the funeral expenses if the child has died; for the support of the child prior to the making of the order of filiation; and such expenses in connection with the pregnancy of the mother or of the proceedings as the court deems proper.

(c) When an order of filiation has been made, the clerk of the court shall forthwith transmit to the state commissioner of health on a form prescribed by him a written notification as to the order, together with such other facts as may assist in identifying the birth record of the person whose paternity was in issue. If the order is abrogated by a later judgment or order of the same or a higher court, that fact shall be immediately communicated in writing to the state commissioner of health on a form prescribed by him by the clerk of the court which entered the order.

722.718 Payments to friend of court or clerk; disbursement.

Sec. 8. The court shall require the payment of any sums to be made to the friend of the court or to the clerk of the court, which sums shall be disbursed in accordance with the order of the court.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 411, Act 205, Eff. Aug. 11.

722.719 Bond; conditions, sureties, default, contempt; lien on real estate; receivers.

Sec. 9. (a) The person so adjudged to be the father of such child may be required to give bond with 1 or more sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the court, to perform such order and also to indemnify the county, which might be chargeable with the confinement expenses and with the maintenance of the child; the bond shall be filed with the friend of the court or the clerk of the court. If on the trial he shall be adjudged not the father of such child, the court shall dismiss the complaint; and the judgment of the court shall be final.

(c) The judge, in case of default in the payment, when due, of any installment or any part thereof or in the condition of the bond, may adjudge the reputed father guilty of contempt of court, by reason of the default, and may order him committed to the county jail or other penal institutions in the state of Michigan, where his earnings or a portion thereof, shall be applied to the support of the child, or confinement expenses, but for a period not exceeding 1 year or until the amount of the installment so due, shall be fully paid, but the commitment of the reputed father shall not operate to stay or defeat the obtaining of judgment and the collection thereof by execution. The rendition and the enforcement of decree or judgment shall not be construed to bar or hinder the taking of similar proceedings for subsequent defaults.

(d) If the judge deems it necessary in order to secure the payment or enforcement of such judgment, the same shall be made a lien upon such of the real estate of the defendant as the court shall direct, and a certified copy of the judgment shall be made by the clerk of said court, and filed and recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county wherein such real estate is located, whereupon the same shall be a lien on said real estate. Execution and other process may also issue for the enforcement of the judgment as in case of other judgments in the court, and the provisions of this section, as far as applicable.

(e) In order to make effective the purpose and intention of the bonds, the court in its discretion may appoint a receiver of the real and personal property belonging to the judgment debtors with such powers not exceeding those customarily exercised by receivers appointed by courts of equity.

722.720 Continuing jurisdiction; custody, support of child.

Sec. 10. Until the judgment of the court has been completely satisfied, the court shall have continuing jurisdiction over proceedings brought under this act to increase or decrease the amount fixed by the order of filiation and to change the custody of the child.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 412, Act 205, Eff. Aug. 11.

722.721 Mother's support of child.

Sec. 11. (a) If a mother of a child born out of wedlock possesses property and fails to support and educate her child, the court having jurisdiction, on application of the guardian or next friend of the child, may examine into the matter and after a hearing may make an order charging the mother with the payment of money weekly or otherwise for the support and education of the child.

(b) The court may require the mother to give security, by bond, with sufficient sureties approved by the court for the payment as directed by the order. In case of default under such bond, the same shall be enforced in like manner as is provided in section 9 of this act.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to relieve the father from liability for support and education of the child in accordance with the provisions of this act.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 412, Act 205, Eff. Aug. 11.

722.722 False complaint; penalty.

Sec. 12. Any person making a false complaint under this act as to identity of the father, or the aiding or abetting therein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 412, Act 205, Eff. Aug. 11.

722.723 Violation of act; sentence, probation; assignment of wages or income.

Sec. 13. Upon violation of any of the terms imposed in accordance with this act, the court may find the violator guilty of contempt of court and may proceed to impose the sentence provided for in section 9, paragraph (c), or place the violator on probation. The court may also order an assignment to the friend of the court of the salary, wages or other income of the person responsible for the payment of support and maintenance, which assignment shall continue until further order of the court. The order of assignment shall be effective 1 week after service upon the employer of a true copy of the order by personal service or by certified mail. Thereafter, the employer shall withhold from the earnings due the employee the amount specified in the order of assignment for transmittal to the friend of the court until further order of the court. The person ordered to pay the support and maintenance shall inform the friend of the court immediately of any change which would affect the assignment or the disbursement thereof. An employer shall not use the assignment as a basis, in whole or in part, for the discharge of an employee or for any other disciplinary action against an employee. Compliance by an employer with the order of assignment operates as a discharge of the employer's liability to the employee as to that portion of the employee's earnings so affected. The term employer as used in this section includes the state and any political subdivision thereof.

722.729 Friend of court or county clerk; fees.

Sec. 19. To reimburse the county for the cost of handling support payments under this act, the court shall order the payment of $1.50 per month, payable semiannually on January 2 and July 2 thereafter, to the friend of the court or county clerk. The fees shall be paid by the person ordered to pay any support money for a child. The fee shall be computed from the beginning date of the support order and shall continue while the order is operative. The service charge shall be paid 6 months in advance on each of the due dates, except for the first payment, which shall be paid at the same time the support order is filed, and shall cover the period of time from that month until the next calendar due date. Every order or judgment for the payment of support money shall provide for the payment of such fees. Any order or judgment for the payment of support money, entered before the effective date of this 1967 amendatory act, may be amended by the court, upon its own motion, to provide for the payment of the fees, upon proper notice to the person ordered to pay the alimony or support money. All fees paid to the friend of the court or county clerk shall be turned over to the county treasurer and credited to the general fund.

Act 369, 1919, p. 646; Eff. Aug. 14.

AN ACT to supplement existing laws providing for the establishment and maintenance of municipal courts of record and defining the jurisdiction of such courts; to fix the number of judges thereof; to provide a presiding judge; to define the privileges of such presiding judge; to modify the procedure in and extend the jurisdiction of said courts in certain respects, and to confer upon said courts jurisdiction in certain civil causes, and to provide for the exercise thereof, to provide for a referendum, and to provide for the abolishing of any police courts or other courts not of record having exclusive criminal jurisdiction existing in any city in which the provisions of this act become operative, and to provide for a system of civil service in the traffic and ordinance division of said courts. Am. 1933, p. 21, Act 24, Imd. Eff. Mar. 2;—Am. 1945, p. 318, Act 226, Imd. Eff. May 18.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

725.1 Municipal courts of record; judges, number, qualifications, nominations and election.

Sec. 1. Subject to the provisions hereof, any municipal court of record now existing in any city of the state shall continue in accordance with the laws pertaining thereto. The number of judges of any such court shall be determined on the basis of 1 judge for each 130,000 population or majority fraction thereof, according to the federal census for the year 1960, which number shall be in addition to those provided for in section 8. No person shall be eligible to the office of judge of any such court, who does not possess the qualifications now prescribed by a law for holding such office. Candidates for election for the office of judge of such court shall be nominated and elected in the manner now provided by law therefor. If additional judges are required in any such court by reason of this 1965 amendment, when it becomes effective, candidates for election to the additional judgeships shall be nominated at the first general or special election held in the city in which the court is located, following the adoption of this

725.2 Presiding judge; selection, term, powers, assignment of business, temporary vacancy.

Sec. 2. In any such court of record having more than 2 judges, 1 of such judges shall be presiding judge. Such presiding judge shall be chosen by the members of the court at such time and for such term as the members of said court shall determine. No member of the court who has served as presiding judge thereof shall be again eligible to said office until each of the other members have likewise served in that capacity. The presiding judge shall exercise all the powers and privileges possessed by other members of the court and in addition thereto shall be charged with the general supervision and superintendence of the work of the court. He shall preside at all meetings of the judges and shall assign the members of the court to the different divisions thereof and to particular kinds of work in such divisions in accordance with the rules and regulations of the court. It shall be the duty of each member of the court to perform all such duties as may be thus assigned, and neglect or refusal so to do shall be deemed to be misconduct in office. At the time of the selection of the presiding judge, a presiding judge pro tempore shall also be designated who shall act in case of the disability of the presiding judge.

*Amendatory Act 278 of 1923 had a Sec. 2 which read as follows: "This act shall not become operative in any municipality of the state unless and until it is submitted to a vote of the qualified electors voting thereon. It shall be so submitted in accordance with section 7 of said Act No. 369 of the Public Acts of 1919, as aforesaid."

In view of the fact that this amendment has not been adopted in Detroit, the only city in the state in which the original act has been adopted, the section above set forth reads as enacted in the original act. In the 1929 compilation the language of the original section is set forth in the footnote matter. This section as amended by Act 278 of 1923 reads as follows:

"In any such court of record having more than 2 judges, 1 of such judges shall be presiding judge. Such presiding judge, on the adoption of this act, shall be chosen by the members of the court for a period of not less than 1 month, or for 3 months and no longer, as the members of the court may determine. The presiding judge shall not be chosen to succeed himself, but shall be chosen alternately from the members of the court for the period of time for which they may have designated as the term of the presiding judge. The presiding judge shall exercise all the powers and privileges possessed by other members of the court and in addition thereto shall be charged with the general supervision and superintendence of the work of the court. He shall preside at all meetings of the judges and shall assign the members of the court to the different divisions thereof and to particular kinds of work in such divisions in accordance with the rules and regulations of the court. It shall be the duty of each member of the court to perform all such duties as may be thus assigned, and neglect or refusal so to do shall be deemed to be misconduct in office. At the time of the selection of the presiding judge, a presiding judge pro tempore shall also be designated who shall act in case of the disability of the presiding judge."

ASSIGNMENT OF BUSINESS: See Compilers' § 726.2.

725.3 Court may classify work; psychopathic department; expenditures.

Sec. 3. In order to facilitate the work of the court the business thereof shall be classified; and the members of the court or a majority thereof may establish and maintain specialized branches or divisions thereof, as may be deemed expedient and proper. Insofar as possible, [.] the business of the court shall be so arranged that minors shall be kept separate and apart from other offenders. The court shall also have power to make provision for a psychopathic department of the court and have medical and psychopathic investigations and examinations and treatment of persons coming before said court: Provided, however, That no money shall be expended for such purpose in excess of the sums that may be appropriated therefor by the legislative body of the city in which the court is situated.

725.4 Clerk, deputy, assistants; appointment, compensation; fees; classified service.

Sec. 4. The court, or a majority of the judges thereof may appoint, subject to the provisions hereof, a clerk and deputy clerk, and such other clerical and stenographic assistants as may be necessary and fix the compensation thereof; but the total amount so expended by the city for the compensation of the clerk, deputy clerk and other assistants shall not exceed the sums appropriated therefor by the legislative body of the city. The board of supervisors of the county may fix an additional and supplemental salary for the clerk, and such additional salary when so fixed shall be in lieu of all fees and commissions payable to or collectible by the clerk for the discharge of any duties of his office and more particularly for the discharge of those duties imposed upon him by virtue of section 18 of chapter 9 of Act No. 175 of the Public Acts of 1927, being section 769.18 of the Compiled Laws of 1948; but all fees or commissions made payable to or that may be charged by him shall be received by him for and on account of the county. All judicial clerks and deputy clerks, excepting the chief clerk, the chief deputy clerk and the employees of the psychiatric clinic, appointed by the court shall immediately after the adoption of this 1965 amendatory act, by any municipality, as provided in section 7, be in the classified service of the municipality and subject to all provisions relative to civil service contained in the charter of the municipality. All employees, excepting the chief clerk, the chief deputy clerk and the employees of the psychiatric clinic, appointed by any such municipal court serving at the time this 1965 amendment becomes effective in any municipality shall be entitled to retain their positions but subject to all appropriate provisions of the charter of the municipality.

CLERK AND ASSISTANTS: See also Compilers' § 726.7.

725.5 Hours of court; attendance by members; judge not to practice law.

Sec. 5. Sessions of the said court shall be held each secular day from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., and from 2 to 4 p.m., and at such other hours as may be fixed by the court. It shall be the duty of members of the court to be in attendance thereat unless excused for cause by the presiding judge; and persistent or repeated absence therefrom without such permission shall be deemed to constitute malfeasance in office. No judge of said court shall engage in private practice; nor shall he be in any way connected with any attorney or firm of attorneys engaged in such practice.

725.6 Cash or securities in lieu of bail; disposition, forfeiture, discharge, garnishment.

Sec. 6. Any judge or the chief clerk or deputy clerk of any such court may allow cash bail in cases in which such court has jurisdiction wherein a bond is required to be given by any person. It shall be lawful for the parties from whom any such bond is required, in lieu thereof, to deposit with the clerk of the court, cash, or a certified check on any national or state bank of this country payable to the order of the clerk of the court, or the bonds of any municipality in the United States or securities issued by any state or by the United States government, which bonds or securities are negotiable by delivery. Such money or securities shall be taken and accepted by the said judge, or clerk, and shall be deposited with the chief clerk, who shall give the person so depositing a receipt setting forth the amount of money or the character of the securities and the purpose for which the deposit is made. The clerk shall within 48 hours deposit such cash or other security with the county treasurer and said treasurer shall hold the same in special fund or in a special place of deposit subject to the further order of the court or the judge accepting such security. Any such security so accepted shall be forfeited or discharged in the same manner as bonds are forfeited or discharged. In case of discharge, an order to that effect shall be entered on the records of the court together with a statement of the amount to be returned to the person, or that the securities deposited by him are to be returned. Upon presentation to him of a copy of such order certified by the clerk of the court, the county treasurer shall pay to the person named in such order or to the order of such person, the amount specified, or shall turn over the securities deposited as the case may be. In case of forfeiture, an order to that effect shall be entered in the records of the court and on presentation to him of a copy of such order duly certified by the chief clerk of such court the said treasurer shall deal with said cash deposit or security in the same manner as the proceeds of a forfeited bond in said court are or may be required by law to be dealt with. In case such cash or security is still in the hands of said clerk at the time the same is declared discharged or forfeited by the court, the clerk shall make the same disposition of such security as the county treasurer would be required to make in similar circumstances. Money or securities deposited hereunder shall not be subject to garnishment.

BAIL: See Compilers' § 600.6063. As to cash or securities in lieu of bail, in civil cases, see Compilers' § 600.2631; in criminal cases, see Compilers' § 765.12 et seq.

725.7 Referendum; procedure; submission.

Sec. 7. This act, or any amendment thereto, other than this section shall not become operative in any municipality of this state unless and until it is submitted to a vote of the qualified electors thereof and ratified by a majority of the electors voting thereon. The legislative body of any city now having a municipal court of record, by a majority vote thereof, shall submit to the qualified electors the question of adopting this act, or any amendment thereto, or the questions may be submitted by initiatory petition in the same manner and with like effect as is or may be provided by law for the proposal and submission of amendments to the charter of such city. All proceedings with reference to the submission of the question shall conform as nearly as may be to the requirements of the state law governing the submission of charter amendments. In any municipality where in the act of which the act is amendatory is now operative, this act shall be submitted to the qualified electors thereof at the next regular or special election held in the municipality. If for any reason this act is not submitted at said election, it may be submitted at any regular or special municipal or primary election held thereafter. If the provisions of this act shall be ratified by a majority of the electors voting thereon, as shown by the certification of the returns by the proper election officials of said city, then the provisions of this act shall become effective immediately following such certification of said returns.

REFERENDUM: Detroit (recorder's court) has adopted the original provisions of this act and the amendments contained in Acts 3 and 344 of 1925, Act 99 of 1927, Act 278 of 1929, Act 227, 1931, Act 24, 1933, and Act 226, 1945, but not those contained in Act 364 of 1921 and Act 278 of 1923.

For referendum provisions contained in some of the amendatory acts, see notes under sections of this act. For such provision in the amendatory act of 1929, see Compilers' § 725.17.

725.8 Traffic and ordinance division; judges, number; appointment, nomination, election, term.

Sec. 8. If in any city wherein the provisions of this act, or any amendment thereto, may be or may have been adopted by referendum, there shall be set up a separate traffic and ordinance division. The number of traffic and ordinance division judges in the division shall be determined on the basis of 1 judge for each 550,600 or majority fraction thereof of population according to the latest decennial federal census. If 1 or more additional judges shall be required in any such court by reason of this amendment, when it shall become effective, candidates for election to such additional judgeships shall be nominated at the first general or special primary, and elected at the first general or special election held in such city following the adoption of this amendment by referendum by said city as provided in section 7 of this act. The nominations and elections shall be made in the same manner as is or may be provided by law for the election of additional judges of the municipal court as provided in section 1 of this act, but under separate ballot designation as candidates, for the offices of judges of said municipal court, traffic and ordinance division. The additional judges of the traffic and ordinance division, after election, shall take office as soon as qualified and shall serve for a term equal to the balance of the remaining term of the judges already sitting in said traffic and ordinance division. After such first term, the term of all judges of such division shall be for 6 years or until their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified.

725.9 Effect of act on existing courts.

Sec. 9. Nothing in this act shall diminish the powers, duties or jurisdiction of any municipal court of record now existing, or of the members of said court, nor as altering the practice or procedure thereof except as herein otherwise provided, it being the intention that said court shall continue the same except as to the changes herein named.

725.10 Police courts; abolition, transfer of powers, duties and jurisdiction.

Sec. 10. Any police court or other court of exclusive criminal jurisdiction and not of record existing in any city by virtue of any local or special acts shall immediately after this act becomes operative in any such city by virtue of the action of its legislative body, as herein provided, be abolished and discontinued, and all the powers, duties and jurisdiction thereof, including the holding of examinations and trials and the taking of bail, shall be exercised and performed by such municipal court of record under the provisions of this act.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 16527;—CL 1948, 725.10.

JURISDICTION: See also Compilers' § 726.11.

DETROIT POLICE COURT: Act 6, 1913, being CL 1929, 16391-16399;—Rep. 1945, p. 412, Act 267, Imd. Eff. May 25.

Sec. 10 of Act 161 of 1885 creating this court provided for its jurisdiction as follows: "The police court shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all criminal cases wherein the crime, misdemeanor or offense charged shall have been committed within the corporate limits of the city of Detroit or upon any lands, tenements or hereditaments owned or occupied by, or under the authority of the city of Detroit, within the county of Wayne, and which crime, misdemeanor or offense would be, now or hereafter, cognizable by a justice of the peace if the same had been committed in any other part of this State; to entertain, conduct and dispose of all preliminary examinations into crimes, misdemeanors and offenses which shall have been committed within the corporate limits of the city of Detroit, and which may, now or hereafter, be cognizable by the recorder's court of said city; to hear, try and determine or otherwise lawfully entertain, conduct and dispose of all cases and proceedings arising within the corporate limits of the city of Detroit under the laws of this State relative to disorderly persons, illegitimate children, fugitives from justice from other States and foreign countries, the preservation of the public peace and the prevention of crime: Provided, however, That this act shall not be in any wise construed to interfere with or affect any of the powers of or the authority conferred by law upon the grand jury of the county of Wayne. The police court shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the recorder's court of the city of Detroit to hear, try and determine cases arising under the ordinances of the common council relative to common prostitutes, vagrants, mendicants, street leggars, drunken persons, disorderly persons, disturbances and breaches of the peace, indecent exposure of the person, indecent conduct, indecent exhibitions, and other disorderly conduct, and any person arrested for a breach of any of the ordinances aforesaid, shall be discharged from custody upon entering into a recognizance in a sum not exceeding the penalty provided for the violation of the same, and with sureties satisfactory to the officer taking said recognizance, conditioned for the appearance of such person to answer to any complaint that may be preferred against him or her. Either of said police justices, the clerk of the public court and the clerk of the recorder's court of the city of Detroit shall have power to take said recognizances, and it shall be the duty of the officer having such person in custody to produce him before any of said officers for the purpose of giving such bail when required so to do. All recognizances taken as hereby provided shall be filed as soon as practicable in the office of the clerk of the court before whom such person is brought for trial and said courts shall have full jurisdiction and authority to control and enforce the same."

Sec. 11 provided among other things that the court should "have power to issue all lawful writs and process, and to do all lawful acts which may be necessary and proper to execute and carry into complete effect the powers and jurisdiction given by this act, and especially to issue all writs and process, and to do all acts which justices of the peace, within their respective jurisdictions, may issue and do by the laws of the State, and shall, as far as applicable, be governed by the provisions of law regulating criminal cases and proceedings, before justices of the peace".

GRAND RAPIDS POLICE COURT: Inasmuch as Grand Rapids has not yet adopted the provisions of this act this court still continues. See Act 76 of 1879, being Compilers' § 729.1 et seq.

725.11 Police courts; transfer of undetermined proceedings and records.

Sec. 11. All cases, matters and proceedings pending and undetermined in any such police court or other court of exclusive criminal jurisdiction, not of record, and which is so abolished and discontinued, shall, upon the abolishment of such court as herein provided, stand transferred to the municipal court of record now existing in such city, and to which the provisions of this act apply, and shall therein be heard, tried and determined, or otherwise lawfully disposed of as though originally commenced in such municipal court of record, and as near as may be according to the law and practice thereof; all records, books, files, bonds, recognizances, and other papers belonging to said court in the office of the clerk, shall be by such clerk promptly delivered to the clerk of such municipal court of record and shall be kept and filed in the office of such court, or where they shall have the same force and effect and be used for the same purpose as though originally filed in said office.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 16528;—CL 1948, 725.11.

725.12 Motion for new trial; time of filing, stay of proceedings; release of defendant, procedure.

Sec. 12. The procedure in all cases where motion is made for a new trial shall be the same as is provided for under the general laws of this state for circuit courts. In cases cognizable by justices of the peace under the state law, motions for new trial shall be filed within 15 days from rendition of judgment and shall be determined within 10 days after said motion shall have been filed. Upon the filing of a motion for new trial in such cases all further proceedings shall be stayed, and the court may order the release of the defendant upon his filing a bond in such amount and in such form as may be fixed and approved by the court. In cases cognizable by justices of the peace under the state law, motions for new trial shall be heard by the presiding judge or shall be assigned by him to some judge other than the one who sat in the trial of such cause. In such cases the defendant shall file with his motion for new trial before the date set for the hearing thereof a complete transcript of the testimony taken upon the original trial of said cause. Motions for new trial in such cases shall not be granted as a matter of right but shall be granted only for good cause shown in the same manner as is provided by law in cases not cognizable by justices of the peace. If the court deny any motion for new trial in such cases he shall forthwith issue a writ of mittimus for the purpose of apprehending said defendant and subjecting him to the original sentence of the court in such case.

HISTORY: Am. 1927, p. 138, Act 99, Imd. Eff. April 30;—CL 1929, 16529;—CL 1948, 725.12.

REFERENDUM: Amending Act 99 of 1927 had a Sec. 2 which read as follows: "This act shall not become operative in any municipality of the state unless and until it is submitted to a vote of the qualified electors thereof and ratified by a majority of the electors voting thereon in accordance with section seven [7] of act number three hundred hundred sixty-nine [369] of the public acts of nineteen hundred nineteen [1919]." This amendatory act has been adopted in Detroit.

SUPREME COURT: Removal of causes to this court, see Compilers' § 726.24.

725.13 Salary of judge.

Sec. 13. Each judge of said court, including the presiding judge, shall receive an annual salary from the county in which said court is located in the same amount as that paid by the state to circuit judges, and in the same manner as salaries are paid to county officers, and such additional salary as shall be fixed by the common council or other legislative body of the city in which said court shall exist, which salary shall be paid semi-monthly by the treasurer of the city in the same manner as the salaries of city officials in said city are paid.

HISTORY: Am. 1923, p. 447, Act 278, Eff. Aug. 30;—CL 1929, 16530;—CL 1948, 725.13. This section probably supersedes Compilers' § 726.6.

*Amendatory Act 278 of 1923 had a Sec. 2 which read as follows: "This act shall not become operative in any municipality of the state unless and until it is submitted to a vote of the qualified electors voting thereon. It shall be so submitted in accordance with section 7 of said Act 369 of the Public Acts of 1919, as aforesaid."

In 1948 this amendment had not been adopted in Detroit. Thus the law in force there would be the provisions of the original section, which read as follows: "Each judge of said court, including the presiding judge, shall receive an annual salary from the city in which said court is located in the same amount as that paid by the state to circuit judges, and in the same manner as salaries are paid to city officers, and such additional salary as shall be fixed by the common council or other legislative body of the city in which said court shall exist, which salary shall be paid semi-monthly by the treasurer of the city in the same manner as the salaries of city officials in said city are paid."

SALARY: As to amount, see Compilers' § 600.582.

For minimum limit on additional salary, see note on Detroit charter to Compilers' § 726.1.

725.14 Judge may refuse to accept surety.

Sec. 14. Any judge of said court shall have authority in his discretion to refuse to accept as surety upon a bond any person who shall at the time of so offering himself be acting as surety on any other bond pending in said court.

HISTORY: Add. 1921, p. 659, Act 364, Eff. Aug. 18;—CL 1929, 16531;—CL 1948, 725.14.

REFERENDUM: In 1929 this section had not been adopted in Detroit. Since the original act of 1919 is local in character, the amendatory act of 1921 is also a local act requiring a referendum under the constitution, and where no referendum was had it is invalid. *Atty. 725.16 Powers of clerk or deputy.

Sec. 16. Any clerk, or deputy clerk of any municipal court of record in any city of the state may, in his own name as clerk or deputy clerk of such court, in any cause cognizable by such court and only when authorized by the court or any judge thereof by an order duly entered in said particular cause, administer to complainants the oath required thereof, attest the administering of said oath on any such complaint, sign and issue warrants based on any such complaints and administer oaths and take and accept sureties upon recognizances in any case where the penal amount thereof shall have been fixed by the court or any judge thereof upon the arraignment of any person upon a warrant or information.

725.18 Traffic and ordinance division; judges; jurisdiction, quorum, assignment of business; assignment of municipal court judges.

Sec. 18. The judges of the municipal court—traffic and ordinance division hereinbefore constituted shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction of all prosecutions and proceedings in behalf of the people of this state for all crimes, felonies, misdemeanors and offenses committed within the corporate limits of any municipality adopting this act and arising under the Michigan motor vehicle law and all other state laws relating to traffic on the public highways of this state, including the crime of negligent homicide and the crimes of manslaughter and involuntary manslaughter committed in the operation of any motor vehicle, except in cases cognizable by justices of the peace and as to all such cases their said jurisdiction shall be concurrent. The judges of the municipal court—traffic and ordinance division shall also have original and exclusive jurisdiction of all complaints and proceedings in behalf of the people of any municipality adopting this act for violations of all city and village ordinances, rules or regulations of such municipality; and shall have power to issue all lawful writs and process and to do all lawful acts which may be necessary and proper to carry into complete effect the powers and jurisdiction given by this act. Each judge of said court shall have equal and coordinate powers and duties with respect to the business of said court. One judge shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of said business. Said judges shall have the power and duty to apportion the business of said court between themselves. In the event of their failure so to do, the deputy clerk of said municipal court—traffic and ordinance division, hereinafter provided for, shall have the duty and power to distribute the work of said court between the judges thereof, assigning thereto the cases ready for trial. Except as herein specified, all constitutional, statutory and charter provisions relating to the duties and powers of the municipal court and the judges thereof shall apply to the municipal court—traffic and ordinance division and the judges thereof, with respect to the business of said court. Said judges shall not participate in the organization or operation of the other division of the municipal court or branches thereof; and shall have no other jurisdiction than that provided herein. Upon the filing by the deputy clerk of the municipal court, traffic and ordinance division, with the chief clerk of the municipal court of his certificate of the absence or disability of all of the judges of the said municipal court, traffic and ordinance division, the presiding judge of the municipal court may assign 1 or more judges of the municipal court to duty in the said municipal court, traffic and ordinance division, during the period of the absence or disability of said judges of the municipal court, traffic and ordinance division; said judge or judges of the municipal court so assigned shall have and exercise all the jurisdiction and powers of a judge of the municipal court, traffic and ordinance division, during the period of their service in said municipal court, traffic and ordinance division.

ORDINANCE CASES: As to jurisdiction of court, see also Compilers' § 726.22.

725.19 Traffic and ordinance division; chief clerk, deputy clerk, referees; appointment, terms, powers and duties, compensation, bonds; employees in classified service.

Sec. 19. The chief clerk of the municipal court shall ex officio be the chief clerk of the municipal court—traffic and ordinance division and be charged with all duties and powers with reference thereto as are given to him by law with reference to the municipal court except as hereinafter stated. The judges of the municipal court—traffic and ordinance division shall have authority to appoint a deputy clerk therefor and to fix his compensation and require bond thereof in such amount as they may deem advisable. Such deputy clerk of the municipal court—traffic and ordinance division shall be charged with the duty and power of keeping proper records of said court separate and distinct from the other division of the municipal court or branches thereof. He shall also be charged with the duty and power of keeping up to date the docket of the said municipal court—traffic and ordinance division and of distributing the work thereof between the judges thereof, assigning to them such cases as are ready for trial, with the approval and consent of said judges except as hereinbefore stated. Such deputy clerk of the municipal court—traffic and ordinance division shall also be charged with such other duties and powers as may be delegated to him by the chief clerk thereof with reference to the business of said court or by the judges of same with reference thereto. All duties and powers so given to such deputy clerk shall be exclusively exercised by him and his assistants hereinafter provided for. The judges of the municipal court—traffic and ordinance division shall have authority to appoint 1 or more referees from the top 4 qualified persons on civil service registers, who shall have authority to administer oaths, examine witnesses and make reports and recommendations to the judges of such municipal court—traffic and ordinance division in such misdemeanor cases under state laws or municipal ordinances as may be referred to them by the judges of said division of said court. The amount of bond required to such referee or referees shall be fixed by the judges of said division of said court. The compensation so expended for such referee or referees, the deputy clerk, other clerks, clerical and stenographic assistants or other employees shall not exceed the sums appropriated therefor by the legislative body of the municipality wherein such court is constituted. All employees of the municipal court—traffic and ordinance division, except judges and 1 deputy clerk per judge, shall immediately after the adoption of this 1963 amendatory act, by any municipality, as provided in section 7 of this act, be in the classified service of such municipality and subject to all provisions relative to civil service contained in the charter of such municipality. All such employees who shall have served in their positions consecutively for a period of 6 months prior to the adoption of this 1963 amendatory act shall be entitled to retain their positions but subject to all appropriate provisions of the charter of such municipality.

725.20 Traffic and ordinance division; transfer of pending cases.

Sec. 20. All cases, matters and proceedings relating to traffic violations pending and undetermined in the municipal court of any municipality adopting this act, shall upon the establishment of a municipal court—traffic and ordinance division therein, stand transferred to same and shall be heard, tried and determined or otherwise lawfully disposed of by said court, as though originally commenced therein; all records, books, files, bonds, recognizances and other papers in the hands of the clerk of the municipal court relating to traffic violations shall be thereafter held by him as the chief clerk of the municipal court—traffic and ordinance division and shall be kept by the deputy clerk thereof, as hereinbefore provided, in files in the office of the said chief clerk and shall have the same force and effect and be used for the same purpose as though originally filed in the said municipal court—traffic and ordinance division.

725.21 Traffic and ordinance division; violation bureau, establishment.

Sec. 21. The judges of the municipal court—traffic and ordinance division shall have authority to establish a violation bureau for the purpose of assisting said court in the disposition of complaints of violation and traffic ordinances, rules and regulations of the municipality in which said court is constituted, and shall have authority to adopt rules and regulations for the operation of said bureau. The director and deputy director of the violation bureau shall be required to post bond in such amounts as said judges may deem advisable.

725.22 Traffic and ordinance division; reports.

Sec. 22. The judges of the municipal court—traffic and ordinance division, shall, on or before the thirty-first day of July and the thirty-first day of January of each year, submit to the mayor of the municipality a written report of the work of the court and the violation bureau for the preceding 6 months' period ending June thirtieth and December thirty-first, respectively.

725.23 Civil jurisdiction; extent.

Sec. 23. In addition to the jurisdiction already conferred on municipal courts of record existing under the provisions of this act, as amended, such municipal courts of record including the traffic and ordinance division thereof are hereby authorized and empowered to exercise the jurisdiction that is now or may be hereafter granted by law to circuit courts in the trial of all civil transitory actions in which any plaintiff or defendant is a resident of the city wherein such municipal court of record is situated, and in the trial of all civil local actions where the cause of action arises within such city.

This provision shall extend both to law and equity. The civil jurisdiction herein conferred shall be exercised only to the extent and in the manner provided in the following sections of this act.

725.24 Civil jurisdiction; designation of judges; orders, judgments, process.

Sec. 24. In order to carry into effect the provisions of the foregoing section, the judges of such municipal court of record, including the judges of the traffic and ordinance division thereof, each division acting separately, may designate from time to time 1 or more of their number to act thereunder. Such designation shall be subject to the approval of the state presiding circuit judge. The judge or judges so designated and approved shall exercise the jurisdiction conferred under the provisions of section 23 hereof as to such causes as may be transferred to such municipal court of record for trial from the circuit court of the county in which such municipal court is located, in accordance with the rules of said circuit court and in accordance with the provisions of law relating to the trial of such causes in the circuit courts of the state, except as otherwise provided in this act. All orders, judgments, and decrees rendered hereunder shall be treated as the acts of the circuit court and shall be recorded and enforced as such. All process shall issue out of the office of the clerk of the circuit court. Such orders, judgments and decrees shall be reviewed as all other orders, decrees and judgments of the circuit court are reviewed.

725.25 Civil jurisdiction; place of holding court, officers, juries.

Sec. 25. Such judges of municipal courts of record, including the judges of the traffic and ordinance division thereof, when acting with the powers herein conferred, may sit in their respective court rooms, and may be attended by their respective peace officers, jurors, clerks, and stenographers. The regular jury panel of such municipal courts of record shall be qualified to serve with said judges when so acting with the powers herein conferred. It shall be the duty of the county clerk of the county in which such municipal court of record is located, to appoint and deputize a clerk to act in the court room of each municipal court judge when so acting with the powers herein conferred.

Act 83, 1923, p. 109; Eff. Aug. 30.

AN ACT to supplement existing laws relating to the establishment and maintenance of municipal courts of record and to provide a system or method for the selection of juries for the trial of causes therein.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

725.101 Short title; municipal court jury code.

Sec. 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Municipal Court Jury Code".

HISTORY: Am. 1925, p. 478, Act 315, Imd. Eff. May 26;—CL 1929, 16541,—Am. 1931, p. 757, Act 330, Imd. Eff. June 16;—CL 1948, 725.101.

This act was adopted in Detroit on referendum and became effective there on November 15, 1923. Amendatory Act 330 of 1931 was adopted in Detroit on referendum and became effective there on November 10, 1931.

Section 2 of Act 326, 1968, p. 594 (Approved July 3), Eff. Nov. 15, repealed Act No. 83 of the Public Acts of 1923, as amended, being sections 725.101 to 725.162 of the Compiled Laws of 1948. However, section 2 of Act 354, 1968, p. 686 (Approved Aug. 27), provided that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of Act 326 of the Public Acts of 1968, Act No. 83 of the Public Acts of 1923, as amended, being sections 725.101 to 725.162 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, is not repealed."

This section probably supersedes parts of Compilers' §§ 691.443 and 691.446.

CONSTITUTION: For form of oath, see Const. XI, 1.

725.102 Board of jury commissioners for municipal courts of record; number, appointment, quorum, term, vacancies, oath, assistants, compensation.

Sec. 2. A board of jury commissioners is hereby created for each city in this state having a municipal court of record. Said board shall consist of 3 qualified electors of the city wherein said court is located, who shall be appointed by the governor of the state. Two members of said board shall be a quorum thereof. Each of said commissioners shall hold office for a period of 3 years from and after the date of his appointment and until his successor shall be appointed and assume the duties of his office. Appointments to fill vacancies that may occur shall be made by the governor for the unexpired term. Said commissioners before entering upon the discharge of their duties shall take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution and file the same in the office of the city clerk. Said board shall meet at the office of the board provided for it by the legislative body of the city and may adopt such rules of procedure not inconsistent with the provisions of this act as may be deemed necessary and expedient for the proper conduct of its work: Provided, however, That in cities having a population of 300,000 or more, according to the latest or each succeeding federal decennial census, said board shall elect 1 of its members, president, and shall appoint a stenographer and a secretary and any other necessary help who shall keep a record of its proceedings. Each commissioner, the secretary and stenographer shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the legislative body of the city. Such compensation so fixed shall be paid by the city in such manner as may be provided by the charter thereof for the payment of salaries of city officials.

Referendum; form of ballot.

Section 2. The provisions of this amendatory act shall not become operative in any city of this state to which it may apply unless and until it is submitted to a vote of the qualified electors thereof and ratified by a majority of said electors voting thereon. The legislative body of such city may, by a majority vote thereof, submit the question of adopting the provisions of this act at any general or special municipal election hereafter held in such city; or the question may be submitted by initiatory petition in the same manner and with like effect as it is or may be provided by law for the proposal and submission of amendments of the charter of such city. All proceedings with reference to the submission of the question shall conform as nearly as may be to the requirements of the state law governing the submission of charter amendments; and votes cast on the question shall be counted, canvassed and returned and the result declared in the same manner. Such question shall be submitted in substantially the following form:

“Shall the provisions of Act No. of the Public Acts of 1949 amending Act No. 83 of the Public Acts of 1923, as amended, and providing for a method of selection of juries for municipal courts of record of this city be adopted by this city?

Yes ()

No ().”

CHARTER AMENDMENTS: See Compilers' § 117.21 et seq.

725.103 List of electors; board to secure, expenses.

Sec. 3. On or before the last day of December, 1931, and biennially thereafter, or oftener if deemed necessary by the board, said board shall secure from the city officers having custody of the registration books or cards, a list containing the names and addresses of all electors of the city shown on such registration books or cards or of such electors as the use of a key number hereinafter provided for may designate. All expenses incurred under this section shall be charged to the account of the board but city officers shall cooperate with the board to allow it to compile the necessary lists.

725.104 Jurors; estimate of number needed, order.

Sec. 4. On or before January 1, 1932, and semi-annually thereafter the judges of each municipal court of record subject to the provisions of this act shall estimate the number of jurors that will be needed in their court for a 6 months period beginning 6 months thereafter. An order shall be entered on the journal of such court and a copy thereof shall be certified by the clerk of such court and delivered to the board. In making such estimate and order the court shall give consideration to the number of slips then in the jury box deposited under the provisions of this act and which may be available for the period for which such order is being made.

725.105 Key number for determination of number of jurors.

Sec. 5. The board shall add the respective number of jurors estimated to be needed and then shall multiply such total by the whole number 3 or such other number as experience may show to be necessary in order to leave the required number of jurors after the preliminary examination, and other methods for eliminating unfit persons hereinafter provided for, have been followed. It shall then divide the total number of names on the registration lists by such result, and the nearest integral quotient obtained therefrom shall be designated as the key number for such period for which jurors are to be selected.

725.106 Jurors in circuit court; list, time period.

Sec. 6. The board shall secure from the clerk of the circuit court of the county and preserve, and it shall be the duty of such clerk to provide, a list of all persons who have served as jurors in such court for the preceding 3 years.

725.107 First jury list; compilation, application of key number.

Sec. 7. The board shall apply the key number uniformly to the names on the registration lists or books in his hands or in the offices of the city officers having custody of such lists or books and compile a list or card index, to be known as the first jury list, which shall include every name and only such names as the application of the key number has designated. In compiling such list the board shall not place thereon the name of any person whom its records show to have served under this or any other act on a panel of jurors in the municipal court of record or circuit court of the county at any time within the preceding 3 years, and when the application of the key number strikes the name of such a person the next following person on such list eligible to serve shall be selected.

725.108 Questionnaires to persons on first jury list.

Sec. 8. The board shall mail a questionnaire, containing blanks for such information as the board deems advisable and touching on the qualifications of such persons for, and their exemptions from, jury service, to all persons whose names appear on the first jury list. In the case of a claim of exemption the board may require such documentary or other evidence as it deems necessary for the proof of such exemption.

725.109 Excusal of persons from service.

Sec. 9. On the basis of answers to such questionnaires the board may then excuse from service all persons on such list who claim exemption and give satisfactory proof of such right or of their unfitness or unsuitability for jury service.

HISTORY: Add. 1931, p. 759, Act 330, Imd. Eff. June 16; effective in Detroit Nov. 10, 1931;—CL 1948, 725.109.

725.110 Examination of prospective jurors; notice to attend.

Sec. 10. On all other persons on such list, including those from whom replies have not been received, the board shall serve personally or by mail, a notice requiring them to attend before the board at a specified time, not less than 7 days after service of the notice, for the purpose of testifying under oath or affirmation concerning their own qualification or liability, or those of any other persons, to serve as jurors.

725.111 Examination of prospective jurors; evening sessions.

Sec. 11. The board shall hold such evening sessions as may be necessary for the examination of prospective jurors who are unable to attend at other times.

725.112 Examination of prospective jurors; procedure.

Sec. 12. A person notified to attend before the board shall attend and testify accordingly and the board shall examine such person as to his qualifications for jury service: Provided, That the board may, in its discretion, dispense with the personal attendance of a person so notified when another person cognizant of the facts is produced and testifies in his stead.

725.113 Examination of prospective jurors; oath administered by board.

Sec. 13. The board may administer an oath or affirmation in relation to such examination or any matter embraced within the provisions of this act.

HISTORY: Add. 1931, p. 759, Act 330, Imd. Eff. June 16; effective in Detroit Nov. 10, 1931;—CL 1948, 725.113.

725.114 Examination of prospective jurors; record.

Sec. 14. The board shall keep a record of each person examined which record shall show the qualifications of such person to serve as a juror and whether or not he is a freeholder.

725.115 Selection of jurors; qualifications.

Sec. 15. The board shall, after such examination, select persons for jury service who are electors in the city in which they reside, who are of good character, of approved integrity, of sound judgment, well informed, conversant with the English language, in possession of their natural faculties, not infirm or decrepit and otherwise free from all legal exceptions; who are judicious and discreet; who shall not have made an application or request of any member or employe of the board that their names be placed on any of the jury lists or on whose behalf any other person shall not have made such application or request; and who have not served on a panel of petit or grand jurors, in any court of record in the county, selected under the provisions of this or any other law during the preceding 3 years. No person shall be so selected who shall not, in the judgment of the board, be competent in every respect to serve as a juror.

725.116 Report of attempt to influence board.

Sec. 16. It shall be the duty of the board to report to the prosecuting attorney and the municipal court of record the names of any and all persons who in any manner seek by request, hint or suggestion to influence it or its members in the selection of any juror or jurors.

725.117 Exemption from jury service; certificate.

Sec. 17. All persons shall be exempt from service as jurors, and shall be excused by the board, if such exemption be claimed, who would be exempt under the general law from service as jurors in the circuit courts of this state. Said board, upon request, shall issue to a person entitled to any exemption a certificate of that fact, which shall exempt the person to whom it is granted from jury duty under this act.

HISTORY: Add. 1931, p. 759, Act 330, Imd. Eff. June 16; effective in Detroit Nov. 10, 1931;—CL 1948, 725.117.

725.118 Excusal from or postponement of jury service.

Sec. 18. All persons may be excused from service as jurors or have their time of service postponed, in the discretion of the board, for such grounds provided by the general law for excuses from service as jurors in the circuit courts of this state.

HISTORY: Add. 1931, p. 759, Act 330, Imd. Eff. June 16; effective in Detroit Nov. 10, 1931;—CL 1948, 725.118.

725.119 Postponement of jury service; card placed in jury box.

Sec. 19. When the time to which such service has been postponed arrives a slip for such juror shall be put into the jury box as hereinafter provided for.

HISTORY: Add. 1931, p. 760, Act 330, Imd. Eff. June 16; effective in Detroit Nov. 10, 1931;—CL 1948, 725.119.

725.120 Review of decision on qualifications and exemptions; record of exemptions, excusals and postponements.

Sec. 20. The board shall decide upon the qualifications and exemptions of prospective jurors except as otherwise expressly provided in this act; but the court shall have power to review and decide upon their qualifications and exemptions upon a written application and satisfactory legal proof at any time after they are notified and attend such court. Said board shall keep a record of all persons exempted or excused or to whom postponed service is granted, and the time and reasons for such action.

725.121 Neglect of duty by prospective juror; contempt; enforcement of act.

Sec. 21. Any person who shall fail or refuse upon the request of the board to make written answers to all questions pertaining to his qualifications as a juror, or shall fail or refuse to appear before the board at the time and place appointed after he shall have been notified to appear, for any cause except physical disability, or shall refuse to take an oath or affirmation or to answer legal and pertinent questions pertaining to his qualifications to serve as a juror, shall be deemed guilty of contempt and may be punished therefor by the municipal court of record subject to this act. The facts in any such case shall be reported by the board to such municipal court of record. Such court shall have jurisdiction and power to enforce all the provisions of this act including the infliction of penalties for any infraction.

725.122 Second jury list; compilation, preparation and deposit of slips in jury box.

Sec. 22. The names of those persons on the first jury list whom the board accepts as persons fit for jury service shall be compiled into a list or card index which shall be known as the second jury list. The board shall write the names and addresses of the persons thus selected, and the fact that such persons are freeholders if such be the fact shown by the records of the board, on separate slips of paper of the same size and appearance, as nearly as may be, shall fold up each of such slips of paper in the same manner so as to conceal the name thereon, and shall deposit at the times hereinafter provided and preserve the same in a box, to be called and labeled the "Jury Box". The form and construction of such jury box shall be approved by the municipal court of record subject to this act, and may from time to time be changed with the approval of such court. The first deposit of slips shall take place on the first Monday in June, 1932, and subsequent deposits shall be made when the supply of slips in the jury box shall become exhausted. The persons whose names are thus deposited in such jury box shall be liable to be drawn for service as jurors until another set of names shall be selected and deposited in such jury box in the manner aforesaid.

725.123 Drawing of jurors; time, number of slips for first four weeks.

Sec. 23. Not less than 21 days before the opening of any term of court at which jury cases will be tried, or before the time at which a jury will be needed, the presiding judge of each court subject to the provisions of this act shall order the board to draw a sufficient number of jurors for jury service for the first 4 weeks of such term of court. If the number has not been fixed by the court at the time of the drawing, the board shall draw such number of slips from the jury box as it deems necessary for the business of the court for such term, or part thereof, for which jurors are to be drawn.

725.124 Drawing of jurors; notice of jurors required for subsequent periods.

Sec. 24. Every 4 weeks thereafter, or oftener if provided by court rules, and as long as the need for jurors exists the court shall notify the board of the number of jurors required for a period of service beginning 21 days thereafter.

725.125 Drawing of jurors; notice; officers absense, penalty; adjournment.

Sec. 25. Two days' notice of the drawing of jurors shall be given the presiding judge and the clerk of the court and at the time appointed such presiding judge, or some other judge of the court designated by him, and such clerk shall attend at the office of the board to witness and assist in the drawing of jurors. If all of said officers be not present at the appointed time the board may adjourn such drawing to some certain hour on another day, of which adjournment it shall forthwith give written notice to said officers, and the officer failing to attend upon the adjourned day himself or by his deputy, as prescribed in this act, shall forfeit the sum of 100 dollars to the state, and the prosecuting attorney is charged with the collection of the same by civil action. In case of the absence of such officers upon the adjourned day, the prosecuting attorney, or 1 of his assistants shall attend the drawing in their stead.

725.126 Drawing of jurors; holding in public, time.

Sec. 26. All drawings of jurors shall be public on a day designated by the board, not less than 14 days before the day at which jurors who are drawn shall be liable to appear for service.

725.127 Drawing of jurors; procedure, minutes.

Sec. 27. The board shall proceed in such drawing as follows: It shall direct an employe of the board to shake the jury box so as to fairly mix the slips of paper deposited therein without exposing them, and said employe shall then, without seeing the names on the slips, draw from such box publicly and in the presence of the officer or officers attending, as many slips of paper, 1 at a time, containing the names of jurors written thereon, as may equal the number of jurors that have been ordered by such court, and 1 of the attending officers shall keep a minute of such drawing, in which he shall enter the name on every slip of paper drawn before any other slip be drawn. If, after drawing the whole number required, the name of any person shall appear to have been drawn who according to the provisions of this act is incompetent or incapable of serving as a juror to the knowledge of any member of the board, an entry of such fact shall be made on the minute of the drawing, the slip of paper containing his name shall be destroyed and another name shall then be drawn in the place of that destroyed, and entered on the minute of the drawing, and like proceedings shall be had as often as necessary, until the whole number of jurors shall be drawn. The minutes of such drawing, and a certificate that the requirements of this act were complied with, shall then be signed by the board and the attending officers and filed in the office of the board.

725.128 Drawing of jurors; closing and sealing of jury box, delivery of slips to clerk of court.

Sec. 28. When the drawing is finished, the jury box shall be closed and sealed in the presence of the officers. All slips so drawn out of the jury box shall be delivered to the clerk of the court for which jurors are drawn for use during the term of court.

725.129 Jury box; custody, opening.

Sec. 29. The jury box shall be in the custody of the board at all times, and shall not be opened nor the seal be broken until another drawing, except in pursuance of law.

725.130 Venires to sheriff and notices to jurors.

Sec. 30. The board shall deliver to the sheriff venires containing the names and addresses of the jurors drawn, and specifying when and where the jurors shall appear and commanding the sheriff or any of his deputies to summon the persons named therein to appear in the municipal court of record for which they were drawn. The sheriff shall notify each juror named therein to attend the term or part thereof for which he was drawn, by serving upon him, at least 6 days before the commencement thereof, a notice addressed to him stating that he has been drawn as a juror for, and is required to attend the term, or part thereof, specified in the notice. Such notice may be served personally or by mail, or by leaving it at the juror's residence or his usual place of business with some person of proper age. Before the commencement of a term, or part thereof, the sheriff shall return the venires for that term or part thereof with his return of service thereon, which shall specify the manner in which each person was notified, and such return and service shall be presumptive evidence of the fact of such service.

725.131 Deputy sheriff to assist board; mailing of notice.

Sec. 31. The sheriff of the county shall assign a deputy sheriff to the office of the board. Said deputy sheriff may mail notices on the sheriff's stationery to persons to appear for jury service.

HISTORY: Add. 1931, p. 762, Act 330, Imd. Eff. June 16; effective in Detroit Nov. 10, 1931;—CL 1948, 725.131.

725.132 Exemption, excusal or postponement of service of juror for grounds arising after completion of jury list.

Sec. 32. At any time when a new panel of jurors appears at the municipal court of record for service during a regular term of court for the trial of jury cases, any legal grounds for exemptions or excuses from service or reasons for postponing the time of jury service which have arisen since the names of such persons have been placed on the second jury list may be presented to a member of the board who shall attend court for the purpose of hearing and allowing such applications as are deemed advisable. A record of all action by said member hereunder shall be kept as provided in section 20 hereof.

HISTORY: Add. 1931, p. 762, Act 330, Imd. Eff. June 16; effective in Detroit Nov. 10, 1931.—CL 1948, 725.132.

725.133 Excusal or postponement of service of juror for grounds arising after juror attends court; record.

Sec. 33. A person who attends as a juror may make application to be excused or have his term of service postponed on any ground provided for in this act which has arisen since such juror began to attend court, in open court to the court; or, if he cannot personally attend, he shall make such application by a person capable of making the necessary proof in relation to his claim, and the court may excuse such juror. The court may, in its discretion, postpone the whole or a part of the time of service of a juror only to a later day during the same or a subsequent term of the same jury year or may excuse a juror from such service at that term for not more than 3 days at a time when the exigencies of his business require his temporary excuse. An entry of the action of the court under this section and of the reason therefor shall be made on the records of the court.

725.134 Postponement of service; person deemed drawn.

Sec. 34. The slip containing the name of any person whose time of service is postponed under the provisions of the 2 preceding sections shall not be returned to the jury box but such person shall be deemed to have been drawn for the period of service to which his time of service shall have been postponed.

725.135 Excusal of unqualified juror in court.

Sec. 35. It shall be the duty of each of the judges of courts subject to this act, whenever, he shall find that any person in attendance upon said court as a juror is not possessed of the qualifications prescribed in section 15 hereof, forthwith to excuse such juror from further attendance and service as such juror.

725.136 Term of service of juror.

Sec. 36. The term of service of jurors shall be 4 weeks, unless at the end of such period a juror is serving in connection with an unfinished case, in which case he shall serve only until the case in which he is serving shall have been finished. Once commenced, the term of service shall be continuous except as provided in sections 32, 33, and 40 hereof.

725.137 Additional jurors; summoning, procedure.

Sec. 37. At any time during a term of court, when a sufficient number of jurors shall not have been drawn or summoned or a sufficient number of qualified jurors shall fail to appear, the court may order an additional number of jurors to be drawn by the board for the term, or part thereof, at which the order is made, or for immediate service in the particular case. The order shall specify the number to be drawn, and the time of drawing. The drawing shall be made in the ordinary manner prescribed in this act, except that notice of the drawing need not be given, provided that the required officers are present. The sheriff shall forthwith notify the jurors so drawn, in the same manner as other jurors are notified, to attend the term, or part thereof, at the time specified in the order, and make due and proper return of the venires with his service thereon. Such return shall be presumptive evidence of the fact of such service.

725.138 Talesmen; summoning.

Sec. 38. Where there shall not be jurors enough present to form a panel in any case said court may direct the officer in attendance on said court to summon a sufficient number of persons having the qualifications of jurors to complete the panel from among the bystanders or the neighboring citizens, and such officer shall immediately summon the number so ordered and return their names to said court.

HISTORY: Add. 1931, p. 763, Act 330, Imd. Eff. June 16; effective in Detroit Nov. 10, 1931;—CL 1948, 725.138.

725.139 Talesmen; not exempt from further duty.

Sec. 39. A talesman called to serve as a juror in a municipal court of record shall not be thereby exempted from further jury duty as provided for by this act.

725.140 Excessive jurors; discharge or excusal, compensation.

Sec. 40. At any time during a term of court it shall be the duty of the court to order the panel or any part thereof discharged for the balance of its term or excused until a day certain therein if the court deems that an excessive number of jurors is in attendance. Any juror discharged (not excused) under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to have served his 4 weeks' term of service but shall receive compensation only for the time of his actual service on the panel.

725.141 Postponed service; attendance, record.

Sec. 41. Each juror excused temporarily from service or whose time of service is postponed until a day certain, shall attend at the opening of court on that day, and thereafter until he is discharged, without further notice. If he fails so to attend after such postponed service he is liable to the same punishment, and the same proceedings shall be taken as if he had failed to attend at the time fixed in the original notice given him. The clerk of the court shall enter in a book kept for that purpose, the name of each juror who is so excused or discharged or whose time of service is changed.

725.142 Postponed service; report by court to board, drawing of jurors.

Sec. 42. The court shall report the names of all jurors excused to a subsequent time to the board and each such name shall be placed upon the list of jurors drawn for such time, as herein provided, and he shall be made 1 of the total number directed to be drawn for that term, and no more names shall be drawn from the jury box than shall be sufficient to make up the number ordered by adding the names of the jurors so excused to the names then drawn.

725.143 Jurors excused, discharged, not attending, fined; report by clerk to board.

Sec. 43. The clerk of the court shall, within 10 days after the close of each term for which jurors have been drawn, deliver to the board therewith, his certificate specifying distinctly and in detail, as follows:

1. The name and residence of each juror who was excused or discharged by the court, with the reason therefor;
2. The name and residence of each person notified, who did not attend or serve;

3. The name and residence of each person fined and the date and amount of his fine, unless the fine has been remitted.

HISTORY: Add. 1931, p. 763, Act 330, Imd. Eff. June 16; effective in Detroit Nov. 10, 1931;—CL 1948, 725.143.

725.144 Service in other courts; temporary excusal.

Sec. 44. A person serving as a juror in a court not of record, shall be excused from jury duty in a municipal court of record only during the time of his actual service elsewhere.

725.145 Jurors; mileage, compensation; increase.

Sec. 45. Jurors shall be paid mileage at the rate of 10 cents per mile for their traveling expenses from their residence to the place of holding court and for returning thereto, and for each day or half day of actual attendance at sessions of the court at the rate of $8.00 and $4.00, respectively.

725.145a Jury service; relationship to employment.

Sec. 45a. Any employer or his agent, who threatens to discharge or who discharges or causes to be discharged from employment any person by reason of his being summoned for jury duty, serving on a jury, or for having served on a jury under this act, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: Add. 1961, p. 107, Act 100, Sep. 8.

725.146 Non-attendance of jurors; fines, remission; record.

Sec. 46. When a person, duly drawn and notified to attend a term or part of a term of a court as a juror, fails to attend at the time specified in the notice, or from day to day, the court may, in its discretion, fine him not less than 25 dollars or more than 250 dollars. A fine thus imposed may be wholly or partly remitted by direction of the court in open court, before the end of the same term and upon good cause shown; otherwise it shall not be remitted. Each remission so made by the court, with the reason therefor, shall be entered on the journal of the court.

725.147 Contempt for non-attendance of juror.

Sec. 47. When a person duly drawn and notified, fails to attend and serve at a term of court, as required by law, without having been excused, the court, besides imposing a fine as prescribed in the last preceding section, may direct the sheriff to arrest him and bring him before the court; and when he has been so brought in, it may, in its discretion, compel him to serve, or it may punish him as for contempt of court.

HISTORY: Add. 1931, p. 764, Act 330, Imd. Eff. June 16; effective in Detroit Nov. 10, 1931;—CL 1948, 725.147.

725.148 Contempts of public officers or private persons.

Sec. 48. Any public officer or private person who

1. Gives a false certificate, or makes a false representation or refuses or neglects to give information which he can give, affecting the liability or qualification of any person other than himself to serve as a juror; or

2. Offers, promises, pays or gives money or anything of value to, or who takes money or anything of value from, any person, firm or corporation for the purpose of enabling himself or any other person to evade service or to be discharged, exempted or excused from service as a juror; or

3. Tampers unlawfully in any manner with any jury list, or with the jury box, or with the slips; or

4. Wilfully does or omits to do any act with the design to subvert the purposes of this act, shall be deemed guilty of contempt and may be punished therefor by the municipal court of record subject to this act.

HISTORY: Add. 1931, p. 764, Act 330, Imd. Eff. June 16; effective in Detroit Nov. 10, 1931;—CL 1948, 725.148.

725.149 Contempts of members or employes of board of jury commissioners.

Sec. 49. Any member or employe of the board, who

1. Wilfully omits to put on the jury list the name of any person qualified and liable for jury duty; or

2. Wilfully omits to prepare or file a list or a slip as prescribed in this act; or

3. Does or omits to do any act with the design to prevent the name of any person qualified and liable to serve as a juror from being placed in the jury box, or from being drawn from service as a juror; or

4. Wilfully places the name of any person upon any list, or prepares a slip with the name of any person thereon or places a slip in the jury box with the name of a person thereon, who is not qualified as a juror; or

5. Tampers unlawfully in any manner with any jury list, or with the jury box, or with the slips; or

6. Wilfully does or omits to do any act with the design to subvert the purposes of this act, shall be deemed guilty of contempt and may be punished therefor by any municipal court of record subject to this act.

725.150 Issuance of false certificate of attendance of juror; contempt of clerk.

Sec. 50. Any clerk or deputy clerk of the court who shall wilfully issue any certificate of attendance of a juror, and on which said juror shall receive pay, excepting as provided by this act, shall be deemed guilty of contempt and may be punished therefor by the municipal court of record subject to this act.

HISTORY: Add. 1931, p. 764, Act 330, Imd. Eff. June 16; effective in Detroit Nov. 10, 1931;—CL 1948, 725.150.

725.151 Perjury.

Sec. 51. Any person who swears falsely in an affidavit, or testifies falsely upon an examination made or prescribed in this act shall be deemed guilty of perjury and punished in the same manner as perjury is punished.

HISTORY: Add. 1931, p. 764, Act 330, Imd. Eff. June 16; effective in Detroit Nov. 10, 1931;—CL 1948, 725.151.

725.152 Condemnation cases; freeholder jurors.

Sec. 52. The names of persons to serve as jurors in condemnation cases in municipal courts of record subject to this act shall be drawn from the jury box in the manner prescribed in this act for the drawing of jurors, but in such case any slip drawn which does not show that the person is a freeholder shall be returned to the jury box.

725.153 Condemnation cases; number of jurors; other regulations.

Sec. 53. The number of jurors to be drawn for such purposes shall be provided for by rules of the municipal courts of record. Such jurors may be excused from service for the same reasons as other jurors under this act, and not otherwise; they shall be subject to the same fines and penalties for non-attendance and otherwise as prescribed in this act for other jurors. The duties and the powers of the courts and clerks of courts, and of the board in regard to such jurors, shall in all respects be the same as in regard to other jurors.

725.154 New supply of slips in jury box.

Sec. 54. The slips placed in the jury box by the board in June, 1932, and at any time thereafter shall be exhausted before a new supply prepared by the board shall be placed therein, without regard to the time required to exhaust said slips.

HISTORY: Add. 1931, p. 765, Act 330, Imd. Eff. June 16; effective in Detroit Nov. 10, 1931;—CL 1948, 725.154.

725.155 Rules and regulations; commencement of four week terms of service.

Sec. 55. The judges of any court subject to the provisions of this act shall have the power to establish all rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, necessary to carry out the provisions of this act and to insure the proper conduct of the work of the commissioner. The judges of any court subject to the provisions of this act shall have the power to provide by rule that the 4 week terms of jury service provided by this act need not commence at the same time for all members of a panel but that half or a quarter of the number of jurors required may be called for a 4 week term every 2 weeks or 1 week, respectively.

725.156 Jury commissioners; jurors and jury lists under prior acts.

Sec. 56. Jury commissioners holding office when this act becomes effective shall continue to act as provided by present law until July 1, 1932, and the jury lists then on file and in use in such city shall continue to be valid and to be used until such time as the board shall have deposited in the jury box the slips provided for by this act, and jurors for municipal courts of record shall continue to be drawn and summoned, and shall serve as now prescribed by law until jurors drawn under the provisions of this act shall be serving in municipal courts of record, and thereafter all jurors shall be drawn and notified, and shall serve as prescribed in this act: Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed to affect the terms of office of jury commissioners now holding office.

725.157 Slips in jury boxes; destruction date.

Sec. 57. On July 1, 1932, all slips in jury boxes used by courts subject to this act and placed therein under the provisions of other acts shall be destroyed as the judges of such courts may direct.

725.159 Repeal.

Sec. 59. Sections 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44 and 45 of chapter 12 of Act No. 326 of the Local Acts of 1883, being sections 16322 to 16334, inclusive, of the Compiled Laws of 1929, and section 15 of Act No. 369 of the Public Acts of 1919, being section 16532 of the Compiled Laws of 1929, are hereby repealed when the city of Detroit shall have adopted the provisions of this act and the board shall, as herein provided, have deposited slips in the jury box and such slips shall have been drawn and jurors shall be serving in courts subject to the provisions of this act.

725.160 Effective date of repeal.

Sec. 60. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed when any city shall have adopted the provisions of this act and the board herein provided for shall have deposited slips in the jury box and such slips shall have been drawn and jurors shall be serving in courts subject to the provisions of this act.

725.161 Referendum; form.

Sec. 61. The provisions of this act or any amendment thereto shall not become operative in any city of this state to which it may apply unless and until it is submitted to a vote of the qualified electors thereof and ratified by a majority of said electors voting thereon. The legislative body of such city may, by a majority vote thereof, submit the question of adopting the provisions of this act or any amendment thereto at any general or special municipal election hereafter held in such city; or the question may be submitted by initiatory petition in the same manner and with like effect as it is or may be provided by law for the proposal and submission of amendments of the charter of such city. All proceedings with reference to the submission of the question shall conform as nearly as may be to the requirements of the state law governing the submission of charter amendments; and votes cast on the question shall be counted, canvassed and returned and the result declared in the same manner.

Such question shall be submitted in substantially the following form:

"Shall the provisions of Act No. (here insert number of act) of the Public Acts of amending Act No. 83 of the Public Acts of 1923 be adopted by this city?

Yes ()

No ()."

Section 2. This amendatory act shall not take effect until approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon in any city of the state to which it may apply, at the next regular city election to be held in such city. The question of its approval shall be submitted in substantially the following form:

"Shall Act No. (here insert number of this act) of the Public Acts of 1949, entitled 'An act to amend sections 45 and 61 of Act No. 83 of the Public Acts of 1923, entitled "Municipal court jury code," as added by Act No. 330 of the Public Acts of 1931, being sections 725.145 and 725.161, respectively, of the Compiled Laws of 1948,' be approved and take effect?

Yes ()

No ()."

The result of said vote shall be certified to the secretary of state. If a majority of the electors voting thereon shall vote in favor of the adoption of this amendatory act, it shall be in full force and effect.

725.162 Adoption of act after 1931.

Sec. 62. If any city should adopt the provisions of this act later than 1931 or establish a municipal court of record and become eligible to adopt this act after such year, the board shall be appointed as soon as practical after the adoption of this act and shall proceed to select jurors for service in the municipal courts of record, and in such case the dates mentioned in this act shall not be deemed mandatory.

AN ACT to fix the compensation of stenographers who are officers of courts of record, other than circuit courts, having general criminal jurisdiction.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

725.201 Stenographers of courts of record other than circuit courts; compensation.

Sec. 1. Stenographers who are officers of courts of record, having general criminal jurisdiction, other than circuit courts, shall receive the same compensation received by circuit court stenographers in the circuits wherein such courts of record are located. Such compensation shall be audited and paid in the same manner and by the same authority as in the case of the compensation now received by such stenographers.

This section dealt with jurors in courts of record in Wayne County. For present law see part of Compilers' § 725.101.

725.252 Jurors in justice or police court or coroner's inquest in Wayne county; former service as disqualification or cause of challenge.

Sec. 2. No person shall be qualified to sit as a juror in any justice or police court of Wayne county or on an inquest before any coroner who has already sat as a juror in said justice or police court or on an inquest before said coroner more than 3 times during the calendar year next preceding the time when he is summoned or offered as a juror on said court or on said inquest. And it shall be the duty of justices of the peace and police justices and coroners to enforce and carry out the provisions of this law and to discharge any such juror. It shall be a good cause of challenge over and above all challenges otherwise allowed by law that any person summoned or offered as a juror shall have acted as juror in the same tribunal or court more than 3 times during the prior calendar year.

725.254 Juror in justice or police court; former service as cause of challenge.

Sec. 4. It shall be a good cause of challenge to any juror in any justice or police court in any city, township or village in this state, in addition to the other causes of challenge allowed by law, that such person has served as a juror in any justice or police court in any such city, township or village in this state 2 times within 1 year previous to such challenge.

This section is superseded, as to civil cases in justice courts, by Compilers' repealed § 670.20 (see § 600.7039), and as to criminal cases, by Compilers' § 774.16, and thus would only seem to be of present value as applied to municipal courts.

AN ACT to authorize municipal judges in cities to establish violations bureaus for traffic offenses.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

725.301 Violations bureau for traffic offenses; establishment, personnel, rules and regulations, bonds; appearance before judges, notice.

Sec. 1. The judges of the municipal courts of the state in counties now or hereafter having a population of 100,000 or more according to the latest or each succeeding federal decennial census, shall have authority to establish violations bureaus from the personnel of the court for the purpose of assisting said courts in the disposition of complaints of violations of the traffic ordinances, rules and regulations of the municipalities in which said courts are constituted, and shall have authority to adopt rules and regulations for the operation of said bureaus. The personnel of the court violations bureaus shall be required to post bond in such amount as said judges may deem advisable.

The said municipal judges who hear traffic cases shall designate the specified offenses under the traffic ordinances of their city and the state traffic laws in respect to which forfeitable bonds may be accepted by the traffic violations bureau in satisfaction thereof, and shall specify by suitable schedules the amount of such bonds for first, second, and subsequent offenses, provided such bonds are within the limits of the respective fines declared by such law or ordinance, and shall further specify what number of such offenses shall require appearance before the said municipal judges. In all such cases all notices and papers used in relation thereto shall advise all alleged violators of their right to a trial by jury.

Act 326 (Local Acts), 1883, p. 637; Eff. Jul. 1.

AN ACT to provide a charter for the city of Detroit, and to repeal all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

CHAPTER XII.

RECORDER'S COURT.

726.1 Office of recorder and recorder's court of Detroit; continuation.

Sec. 1. The office of recorder and the recorder's court of the city of Detroit shall continue as heretofore created and established, except as herein otherwise provided. The present recorder and associate judge of said court shall respectively continue in office until January ninth, 1894.

HISTORY: Am. 1893, p. 1310, Local Act 408, Imd. Eff. May 27;—CL 1897, 569;—CL 1915, 14633;—CL 1929, 16290;—CL 1948, 726.1. This amendatory act has a section 51 added to Chapter 12, repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with, or contravening the provisions of this act. Because of the importance of the Recorder's Court of the city of Detroit this chapter has been included in this compilation. It was included for the first time in a compilation of the general laws of the state, in the Compiled Laws of 1897. As to the fund provided for the maintenance of the Recorder's Court, see Local Act 362 of 1899.

COURTS OF RECORD: General provisions, see Compilers' §§ 600.1416 and 600.1455.

DETROIT CHARTER OF 1918: In 1948, this was the latest charter of the city of Detroit. It superseded and expressly repealed the prior charter, Local Act 326 of 1883, of which Compilers' Ch. 726 is a part. However, under the terms of Compilers' § 117.28, a section of the Home Rule Act (279 of 1909) under which the 1918 charter was adopted, "all laws creating municipal courts and the proceedings thereof  shall remain in full force and effect, except as to the time and manner of nomination and elections of judges, justices and court officers." Thus chapter 12 of the former charter would not seem to be repealed as a whole, so it appears in the present compilation.

Provisions of the charter of 1918 relative to the Recorder's Court may be found in title 5, chapter 1, as follows:

"Section 1. The offices of recorder and judge of the recorder's court, police justices and justices of the peace shall continue as heretofore created and established, except that there shall be 6 justices of the peace as herein provided. Such recorder, judges of the recorder's court, police justices and justices of the peace shall have such qualifications, jurisdiction, term of office, powers, duties and compensation as are authorized and required by the laws of this state, but the time and manner of the respective nominations and elections thereof shall be as in this charter provided.

"Sec. 2. At the biennial spring election in 1923, a recorder and a judge of the recorder's court shall be elected for the term of 6 years beginning on the ninth day of January following their election, and thereafter at every third biennial spring election there shall be elected a recorder and a judge of the recorder's court for the term of 6 years from and after the ninth day of January succeeding their election.

"Sec. 3. The compensation of the recorder and the judges of the recorder's court may be fixed by the common council, to be paid by the city treasurer in a sum not less than 3,500 dollars per annum."

Sec. 1 of Title X of the charter in effect June 27, 1918, purports to repeal Local Act 328 of 1883. But quære whether an act of the legislature may be repealed by the electorate of a municipality?

SUPPLEMENTAL ACTS: See Act 369 of 1919, being Compilers' § 725.1 et seq. which undoubtedly supersedes some of the sections of this act. But see Compilers' § 725.9. This act has been adopted in Detroit under the provisions of Compilers' § 725.7.

See also Act 83 of 1923, being Compilers' § 725.101 and 725.102.

TRAFFIC AND ORDINANCE DIVISION: See Compilers' § 725.18 et seq.

COMMON PLEAS COURT: See Act 280 of 1929, being Compilers' § 728.1 et seq.

726.2 Judges; number, election, apportionment of business.

Sec. 2. On and after January ninth, 1894, there shall be 2 judges of said court, 1 of whom shall be the recorder elected at the election held April third, 1893, who shall have equal and co-ordinate powers and duties. One of said judges shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. They shall have the power and it shall be their duty to apportion between themselves the business of the court: Provided, however, That all business pending in said court on the ninth day of January, 1894, shall be apportioned by said judges so that said business shall, as near as may be, be equally divided between them. The said assignment and apportionment of causes and business shall not afterwards be changed except by the order of said judges upon motion made, or for good cause shown: Provided, further, That said judges may sit in place of each other whenever it may be deemed best. Whenever any cause, matter, or proceeding, or any motion, application or other business shall be assigned to either of said judges, a journal entry thereof shall be made by the clerk of the court, and the said judge shall proceed to hear, try and dispose of the business so assigned to him, with the same force and effect as if he were the only judge of said court, and subject to and with the power and authority conferred by all the rules of practice and of law applicable to said court. And thereupon said judge may proceed with the trial or hearing, or other business so assigned to him, in the principal court room, or in a separate room, attended by the clerk or 1 of his deputies, and by 1 or more members of the metropolitan police of said city, by a stenographer, and by jurymen not engaged in the trial of other causes, if it be a cause to be tried by jury, and such judge while so sitting for the transaction of business, shall have the same powers and authority as if he were the only judge of said court, and the proceedings shall be regarded as proceedings of said court had in open court and at a session thereof. No stay of proceedings shall be directed or ordered by either of said judges in any cause or proceeding, except when the order or decree under which the proceedings are sought to be stayed shall have been made by such judge, unless the order staying proceedings be entered in open court when both judges are present; and no order, except orders made in chambers, and then only by the judge making the same, shall be set aside or vacated except in open court; and no judge of said court shall review or revise any order, judgment, sentence or act of any other judge of said court, involving the personal discretion, judgment or opinion of such other judge.

JUDGES: See also Compilers' § 725.1. As to presiding judge, see Compilers' § 725.2.

ELECTION: As to the election of recorders and their term of office, see also Local Act 437 of 1901.

726.3 Record of proceedings.

Sec. 3. A record of the proceedings before each of the judges shall be entered in the journal in the usual manner, the same as though the judges were sitting together, a brief memorandum being entered before or opposite each entry of the particular judge before whom the business is transacted, and the said record shall be verified by the signature of the recorder, or in his absence by the judge present at the reading and correction thereof; and it shall be the duty of both judges to attend at the reading and correction of said record. Whenever the signature of a judge of the court shall be required to any bill of exceptions, case made, order, decree, or other evidence of proceeding, or for the approval or verification of any act, the signature of the judge or judges before whom the proceedings were had shall be deemed sufficient.

726.4 Recorder to be judge of court; additional judge; election, term.

Sec. 4. The recorder elected on April third, A.D. 1893, shall be 1 of the judges of the recorder's court of the city of Detroit, and shall hold said office of recorder for the term of 6 years, from and after January ninth, 1894, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. The additional judge provided for by this act shall be elected at the election which shall be held in said city, on the seventh day of November, A.D. 1893, and the person so elected shall take his office on the ninth day of January, 1894, and shall hold the same for the term of 6 years from and after January ninth, 1894, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Notice of the election of the recorder and additional judge shall be given by the clerk of said city in the manner prescribed by law in the case of the election of city officers, and the provisions of law relative to holding elections of city officers in said city, canvassing the votes and making the returns thereof, so far as applicable, shall apply to such election. One of the judges of the circuit court for the county of Wayne, and 1 of the justices of the supreme court of this state, may act as judge of said recorder's court when requested to do so by said judges, or 1 of them, or when the offices of both judges shall be vacant. On the first Monday in April next preceding the expiration of the terms of office of said recorder and judge, their successors shall be elected in the same manner as that herein prescribed for the election of said judges.

SALARY: This section is probably superseded by Compilers' §§ 600.555 and 725.13.

For minimum limit on additional salary, see note on Detroit charter to Compilers' § 726.1.

726.7 Clerk and deputies; appointment, term, compensation, assistants, removal, vacancy.

Sec. 7. There shall be a clerk and 2 deputy clerks of said court, who shall be appointed by the recorder, and a memorandum of such appointments shall be entered upon the records of said court. Such clerk and deputy clerks shall hold their respective offices for the term of 6 years from and after January sixteenth, 1894, and until their successors are duly appointed and qualified. The common council of said city shall have the power, and it shall be their duty whenever the business of the court so requires, to provide by ordinance for additional deputy clerks and assistants. They shall prescribe in said ordinance the terms of office, compensation and amount of bond required of such additional deputy clerks and assistants. The recorder shall appoint the additional clerks and assistants authorized by said ordinance in the same manner as is provided for the appointment of the clerk. The recorder shall have power at any time to remove such clerk, deputy clerks, and assistants for incompetence or serious neglect in the performance of their duties; and in case of such removal, or of a vacancy in the said office by the death of said clerk, deputy clerks or assistants, or otherwise, the said recorder shall fill the unexpired term by a new appointment.

CLERK AND ASSISTANTS: See also Compilers' § 725.4.

726.8 Clerk and deputies; bonds.

Sec. 8. The clerk and deputy clerks of said court, each, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give a bond to the people of the state of Michigan, to be approved by the recorder, for the faithful discharge of the duties of said office. The clerk shall give a bond in the sum of 10,000 dollars; deputy clerks each, in the sum of 5,000 dollars. The condition of such bond shall be in substance as follows:

Whereas, The above bounden is the of the recorder's court of the city of Detroit; now, therefore, the condition of the said obligation is such, that if said shall faithfully, truly, and impartially enter and record all orders, decrees, judgments and proceedings of the said court, and faithfully and impartially perform all other duties of his said office, and pay over all moneys that may come into his hands as such, and shall deliver to his successor in office all the books, records, papers, seals and other things belonging to the said office, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full effect.

BOND: Of clerk under watercraft lien law, see Compilers' § 570.449.

726.9 Clerk; powers and duties; files and papers, period to be kept.

Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of said clerk to keep a true record of the proceedings of said court, in the proper books, to be provided therefor; to enter and record all orders, decrees and judgments, and file and safely keep all books and papers belonging to or pertaining to said court: Provided, That files and papers relating to prosecutions for offenses arising under the charter, or any ordinance or regulation of the common council, other than the books of journal entries, need not be filed and safely kept for a longer period than 6 years from the date of the filing of the complaints thereunder, unless otherwise ordered by the court. He shall sign and seal all writs and process issuing from said court, and shall have power generally to administer oaths and take affidavits and acknowledgments, and to do all acts authorized by law to be done by clerks of circuit courts of this state, so far as the same shall be applicable. He shall receive all fines and costs imposed by said court, and within a reasonable time pay the same to the county treasurer of Wayne county and take a receipt therefor, except such fines and costs as may be imposed for violations of the city ordinances, which shall be received by the city attorney and by him paid to the city treasurer.

726.47 Stenographers; appointment, duties, salaries, fees.

Sec. 47. There shall be 2 stenographers of said recorder's court, who shall be appointed by the recorder, and the persons so appointed shall be deemed officers of the court, and it shall be their duty to attend each session thereof, and to take full stenographic notes of the testimony and of the charge of the court in all cases tried in said court, unless otherwise ordered by the judges thereof. And in case a judge shall so order, they shall make without extra compensation a legible transcript of their notes, which shall be filed by the clerk and preserved as part of the files in the cause, subject to the inspection of all parties interested. They shall each receive an annual salary of 2,500 dollars which shall be paid in monthly installments out of the county treasury. Said stenographers shall be entitled, except as herein otherwise provided, to the same fees for making a transcript of the testimony and charge of the court in any case as shall be allowed by law to the stenographer of the circuit court for the county of Wayne for like service.

NOTE: Act 479 of 1871, above referred to, appears in the local acts volume of the laws of 1871, and does not appear in the present compilation.

Sec. 13 of the act as amended by Local Act 416 of 1901 provides in part: "The members of such police force shall also serve and execute all process and subpoenas issued in the recorder's court." Sec. 35 provides in part: "The members of the metropolitan police force shall have the exclusive power, and it shall be their duty, to serve all process within the city of Detroit, issuing from the recorder's court  whether directed to constables, the sheriff, or otherwise, and shall be detailed by the proper officer to attend, instead of deputy sheriffs or constables, all courts of criminal jurisdiction of said city." However, these sections would seem to be superseded by Sec. 27 of Ch. 21 of Title IV of the Detroit Charter of 1918 which provides in part: "The members of the force shall serve all process within the city issuing from the recorder's court and the police court. Police officers shall be detailed by the proper officers of police to attend all courts of criminal jurisdiction of the city."

Act 260, 1929, p. 622; Eff. Aug. 28.

AN ACT to consolidate into 1 court the courts of justices of the peace in any city having or which may hereafter have, over 250,000 inhabitants; to prescribe the title and define the jurisdiction of and practice in such consolidated court; to provide that said court shall be a court of record and have a seal; to fix the number, the time and mode of election and compensation, and to define the powers and duties of the judges thereof; to provide for the designation of a presiding judge of such court and to prescribe his powers and duties; to authorize such court to make and enforce rules governing the practice and procedure therein; to provide for a clerk of such court and to prescribe his compensation, powers and duties; to provide for a review of judgments rendered by such court and the taking and filing of transcripts of such judgments; to provide for the service of process issued from such courts and to provide for the designation of the bailiffs of the city in which said court is situated; to prescribe their qualifications, duties, powers and compensation; to provide for their regulation, suspension or removal for misconduct; to provide for summary relief against seizure of exempt property; to provide for the setting aside of default judgments in cases where lack of personal service of process is claimed; to provide for the issuance of orders staying garnishment on judgment pending hearing on motion for leave to make partial payments and for barring the taking of transcripts of judgments pending such hearing or thereafter during compliance with terms of stay orders; and to repeal all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith. Am. 1935, p. 438, Act 254, Imd. Eff. Jun. 8;—Am. 1939, p. 310, Act 158, Imd. Eff. Jun. 1;—Am. 1941, p. 166, Act 129, Imd. Eff. May 26.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

728.1 Common pleas court; creation; court of record; jurisdiction.

Sec. 1. In any city which has a population of over 250,000 inhabitants the several courts of the justices of the peace of such city, as established and operated under the provisions of any general statute, local or special act, or the provisions of the charter of any such city, are consolidated into 1 court, which shall be known as the common pleas court of such city, and shall be a court of record with a seal, and which shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all suits and proceedings, both civil and criminal, to the same extent as was had and exercised by the justices of the peace of such city immediately prior to the consolidation of the courts pursuant to the provisions of this act. The common pleas court shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit court of the county in which the common pleas court is located in all civil actions, including actions of libel and slander, now cognizable in the circuit court wherein the debt or damages do not exceed $10,000.00, except actions against municipal corporations, and where the value as set forth in the affidavit for a writ of replevin or in the affidavit for the writ of attachment does not exceed $10,000.00. The common pleas court of such city shall also have and exercise jurisdiction in all suits and proceedings against life insurance companies, cooperative and mutual benefit associations, fraternal beneficiary societies, and municipal corporations, where, by their charter, it is provided that in the operation of a public utility same shall be operated as if privately owned, wherein the debt or damages do not exceed $10,000.00. The common pleas court shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all civil actions, including libel and slander, wherein it shall otherwise have jurisdiction and wherein the debt or damages do not exceed $5,000.00. Whenever any city attains a population of over 250,000 inhabitants, the secretary of state shall certify that fact, at the request of any inhabitant of such city, and after the lapse of 90 days from the date of any such certificate, the provisions of this act shall become applicable to the courts of justices of the peace in any such city.

728.1a Jurisdiction of defendant.

Sec. 1a. A common pleas court established under this act shall have exclusive jurisdiction except for concurrent jurisdiction of courts of record in all civil causes or proceedings where the defendant is a resident of the city where the court is located at the time of the commencement of the action, unless the cause or proceeding is brought in a municipal court of the same county in a city in which one of the parties resides or in a court of competent jurisdiction at the place where the cause of action arose.

728.2 Judges; number, appointment, nomination, designation on ballot, election, term; vacancies.

Sec. 2. The number of judges of any such court shall be determined on the basis of 1 judge for each 100,000 population or major fraction thereof of such city according to the most recent decennial federal census at the time Act No. 260 of the Public Acts of 1929 took effect, or shall hereafter take effect, in such city: Provided, however, That the number of judges shall in no case exceed 9. All justices of the peace whose courts shall be consolidated under the provisions of this act are hereby constituted judges of the common pleas court of the city wherein they were severally justices of the peace immediately prior to the taking effect of this act and shall hold office for the remainder of the respective terms for which they were elected justices of the peace. If in any city affected by this act the number of justices of the peace of such city is less than the number of judges herein provided for such common pleas court, and if in any city affected by this act the number of common pleas judges of such city is less than the number of judges herein provided for such common pleas court, the governor shall appoint such additional number of judges of such common pleas court as will provide 1 judge of such common pleas court for each 100,000 population or major fraction thereof of such city, as hereinbefore provided. Each judge so appointed shall assume office immediately following his appointment and shall hold the same until his successor is elected and has qualified. Successors to the judges so appointed by the governor shall be nominated and elected at the next biennial spring primary and election held in such city following such appointment, and the judges so elected shall take office immediately following their election and shall hold office for a term of 6 years from and after the fourth day of July next succeeding their election. At the biennial spring primary and election held in such city next preceding the expiration of the term of offices of such judges, their successors shall be nominated and elected in the same manner as is provided by law for the election of justices of the peace in such city, and the judges so elected shall take office the fourth day of July following their election and shall hold office for a term of 6 years thereafter and until their successors are elected and have qualified: Provided, That an incumbent who is a candidate may, upon his request in writing have printed below his name the designation, "common pleas judge". Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of any judge of said court by death, resignation, removal from office or from any other cause, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the governor. Each judge so appointed shall assume office immediately following his appointment and shall hold the same until his successor has been elected and has qualified. Successors to any judge or judges so appointed by the governor shall be nominated and elected at the next biennial spring election held in such city following such appointment and such successors shall hold office until the expiration of the term to which such judge or judges shall have been elected.

728.3 Judges; election, compensation, jurisdiction; practice and procedure; law applicable; term; qualification.

Sec. 3. The qualifications, time and manner of election, compensation, jurisdiction, powers and duties of the judges of the common pleas court of each city, which shall or may hereafter be affected by the provisions of this act, and the practice and procedure in such common pleas court, shall be governed by the provisions of existing laws relating to justices of the peace in such cities, and to the practice and procedure in the courts of such justices of the peace, except so far as the same, or any part thereof, are expressly repealed by, or are inconsistent with, any of the provisions of this act. Each judge of the court of common pleas, whose term of office under the existing law would expire on the fourth day of July, 1933, shall hold office until the fourth day of July, 1935; and each judge of said court, whose term of office under the existing law would expire on the fourth day of July, 1935, shall hold office until the fourth day of July, 1937. At the biennial spring primary and election held in such city next preceding the expiration of the term of offices of said judges, their successors shall be nominated and elected in the same manner as provided by law for the election of justices of the peace in such city, prior to this act, and the judges so elected shall take office the fourth day of July following their election, and shall hold office for a term of 6 years thereafter and until their successors are elected and have qualified.

Except as hereinbefore otherwise provided, the terms of office of all common pleas judges hereafter elected shall be 6 years. All judges of any common pleas court shall be attorneys at law with at least 4 years' experience in the practice of law within the state of Michigan: Provided, however, That no judge of any common pleas court shall engage in the practice of law while he is such judge.

728.4 Procedure to review judgment; appeal bond.

Sec. 4. In all cases in which any of the parties to the litigation feel themselves aggrieved by the judgment, or final order of the common pleas court, appeal or certiorari shall lie within 20 days of the date of the judgment or order, to the circuit court of the county for review, but not for trial de novo, where the case shall be reviewed in the same manner as near as may be as cases appealed from the circuit court are now reviewed in the supreme court and the aggrieved party may further appeal the cause to the supreme court for review under the same terms and conditions as under existing law and under such rules for circuit court review as may be prescribed by the supreme court. If the appellant desires a stay of proceedings, he shall give bond with sufficient surety, to be approved by a judge of the common pleas court or the circuit court, to the appellee with condition that the appellant shall prosecute his appeal or certiorari to effect, and shall pay and satisfy such judgment as shall be rendered against him thereon. The penalty of such bonds shall be not less than double the amount of the judgment upon which the review is brought, if such judgment is against the appellant, nor in any case less than $100.00. No municipal corporation, subject to this act shall be required to furnish or place a bond for review of such decision.

Transcript of judgments, filing.

Transcripts of judgments rendered by the common pleas court may be taken and filed in the same manner and within the same time and with like force and effect as is provided by law.

Stenographers, appointment, oath, compensation, fee.

A reporter or stenographer may be employed in any case upon demand of either party to the case, or on order of the court. There shall be employed in the court such number of permanent court reporters as shall be provided for by the board of supervisors of the county. Every reporter shall be appointed by the governor upon the recommendation of the judges of the common pleas court and shall be deemed an officer of the court. He shall be eligible for membership in and benefits of the retirement or the social security plan adopted by the county. Before entering upon the duties of his office, the reporter shall take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office to be administered by the presiding judge of the court, which oath of office shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. The reporters of the common pleas court shall receive as compensation for their services the same salary and fees as the circuit court stenographers of the county in which the court is located. In counties where the provisions of Act No. 370 of the Public Acts of 1941, as amended, being sections 38.401 to 38.428 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, are in force, the reporters after appointment, shall be subject to such rules as now apply or may later be adopted respecting the hours and conditions of employment, vacations and sick leave of classified employees. There may also be employed on a per diem basis by order of the trial judge such additional reporters as may be temporarily required for the proper operation of the court. If either party demands a reporter he shall pay upon demand to the clerk of the court the sum of $3.00 for the reporter. The sum may be taxed as costs.

728.5 Clerk of court.

Sec. 5. The clerk of the courts of the justices of the peace in each city which shall, or may hereafter be affected by the provisions of this act, shall be the clerk of the common pleas court of such city, and his qualifications, method of appointment or election, term of office, powers, duties and compensation shall be governed by the provisions of existing laws relating to clerks of the justices of the peace of such city, except so far as the same, or any part thereof, are expressly repealed by, or are inconsistent with, any of the provisions of this act.

728.6 Files and dockets; judges as successors to justices of the peace.

Sec. 6. All files, records and dockets belonging or appertaining to the offices of the justices of the peace in office in each city, which shall, or may hereafter be affected by the provisions of this act, shall be filed and safely kept in the office of the clerk of the common pleas court of such city, and such files, records and dockets shall in all respects and for all purposes constitute records of the common pleas court of such city provided for by this act.

The judges of such common pleas court shall in all respects be considered the successors in office of the several justices of the peace whose courts are consolidated by this act, and shall have and exercise the same powers and authority in respect of judgments rendered and matters pending before such justices of the peace as is by law conferred upon successors in office of justices of the peace in such city.

728.7 Presiding judge; selection, term.

Sec. 7. When this act becomes effective in any such city, the governor shall immediately designate 1 of the judges of the common pleas court of such city as presiding judge of such court, and the presiding judge so designated shall continue as such until the first week in the second January after this act becomes effective in such city, or until his successor shall have been elected by a majority of all the judges. During the first week in the second January after this act takes effect in any such city, the judges of such common pleas court shall by a majority vote elect 1 of their number presiding judge, who shall continue as such until the first week in July of that year or until his successor shall have been elected by a majority of all the judges of such court, and thereafter a presiding judge shall be elected by a majority of all the judges of such court during the first week in July of that year, and thereafter, semi-annually during the first week in January and the first week in July of each year, and from time to time as vacancies occur in the office of presiding judge, who shall continue as such until his successor shall have been elected by a majority of all the judges: Provided, however, That if during the first week of any January or July the judges shall neglect, or fail to elect 1 of their number as presiding judge as herein provided, the then presiding judge shall continue as such for an additional semi-annual term.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 16375;—CL 1948, 728.7.

728.8 Presiding judge; powers and duties.

Sec. 8. The presiding judge of such common pleas court shall, in addition to having and exercising all powers and duties appertaining to his office as a judge of such common pleas court, have general superintendence of the business, both civil and criminal, of the court, and shall classify and distribute it among the judges of such court.

The presiding judge of such common pleas court shall have the power to assign and reassign for trial, or other necessary disposition, at such time and in such manner as such presiding judge shall determine, to any of the judges of such court, any suit, proceeding, or matter of business instituted or pending in such court. In all suits and proceedings, both civil and criminal, hereafter instituted or pending in such common pleas court, the presiding judge thereof and such other judge as he may designate, shall have power to hear and determine all motions made therein, to approve all bonds required by law to be approved, to enter and set aside defaults and default judgments, and in general to dispose of any interlocutory and miscellaneous matter arising in any such suit or proceeding: Provided, however, That motions for a new trial filed in any suit or proceeding pending in said court shall be heard by the judge of such court before whom such suit or proceeding was heard, in the same manner as motions for a new trial are heard and determined by justices of the peace. Such presiding judge shall have such other powers and duties not inconsistent with the provisions of this act as the judges of such court may by rule provide.

728.8a Marriage; authority to perform, fee.

Sec. 8a. The judges of the common pleas court shall have authority to perform marriages and shall charge a fee not to exceed $10.00, which fee, if the marriage is performed in the courtroom facilities of the common pleas court, shall be collected and deposited by the clerk of the county in the treasury of the county at the end of each month. No judge of the common pleas court shall charge, collect or accept any other fee or any gratuity for solemnizing marriages.

728.9 Presiding judge; annual report to mayor.

Sec. 9. The presiding judge of such court shall in January of each year file with the mayor of the city wherein said court is located, a report covering the preceding calendar year, which report shall set forth the business pending in, and transacted by the court and each of the judges thereof; the number of days and hours that each of the judges of said court was in attendance, and such other data as the mayor of said city may require.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 16377;—CL 1948, 728.9.

728.10 Meetings of judges; monthly report.

Sec. 10. The judges of such court shall meet at least once in each month, and at such times as the presiding judge of such court may require. Each of such judges shall at least once in each month make a report in writing to the presiding judge, in such manner and form as the presiding judge of such court may require.

728.11 Acting presiding judge.

Sec. 11. The judges of such court shall select 1 of their number to act as presiding judge of such court in the absence or inability to act of the regularly designated presiding judge or pending the designation of a presiding judge by the governor, as is hereinbefore required.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 16379;—CL 1948, 728.11.

728.12 Actions before court; writs and process.

Sec. 12. All suits and proceedings instituted in such court shall be deemed to be pending in such court and not before a particular judge thereof and shall be numbered consecutively in the order in which the same are instituted. All writs of summons and other writs and process issuing out of said court shall be entitled in the common pleas court of such city and shall be signed by or in the name of the clerk of the common pleas court.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 16380;—Am. 1937, p. 172, Act 106, Imd. Eff. June 24;—CL 1948, 728.12.

728.13 Declaration; service of summons, return date; pleading, filing, service, copies, filed with clerk of court; non-service; filing; alias summons; failure to plead; default, entry; judgment; trial; stipulation; adjournments.

Sec. 13. In every action in assumpsit or trespass on the case instituted in such court by writ of summons, the plaintiff or his duly authorized agent or attorney shall, at the time of instituting such action, file with the clerk of the court a declaration in writing, in such form as shall be prescribed by rule of court and which shall include an itemized statement of the damages claimed. At the same time plaintiff or his agent or attorney shall provide a copy thereof for each defendant named in said suit, 1 of which copies shall be served on each defendant with the summons issued in such case.

All writs of summons, in assumpsit or trespass on the case, shall be made returnable within 90 days from the date of issuance thereof. In all other suits the writ of summons shall be made returnable within the same number of days from the date of issuance thereof as is provided by existing laws relating to writs of summons in such suits commenced before a justice of the peace in such city.

In every assumpsit or trespass on the case action commenced by writ of summons in such court within 15 days after service of the writ of summons on the defendant, and in every other action commenced by writ of summons in such court, except in garnishment proceedings, after service of the writ of summons on such defendant, and on or before the return day named in such writ of summons, each defendant in such action shall be required to file or cause to be filed in the office of the clerk of the court a pleading in writing in such manner and form as the judges may by rule provide. A copy of such pleading shall be served on the plaintiff or his attorney within such time and in such manner as the judges may by rule provide: Provided, however, That the judges may provide by rule that copies of such pleadings be filed with the clerk of the court and by such clerk served on the plaintiff or his attorney by mail or otherwise.

In assumpsit and trespass on the case actions service of such writ of summons shall be made on or before the return day thereof and proof of service on each defendant shall be filed in the office of the clerk of said court not more than 5 days after such service. A return of non-service, if such is the case, shall be filed not less than 1 day before the return day of said writ of summons. Service of all other writs of summons shall be made not less than 3 days before the return day thereof and the return or proof of service thereof shall be filed in the office of the clerk of said court not less than 1 day before the return day thereof.

When it shall appear that service of such writ of summons was not had upon all defendants, the clerk shall, upon application to him not more than 15 days after the return day of such summons, issue an alias summons, which in proceedings in assumpsit and trespass on the case shall be made returnable within 90 days. The judges may by rule provide for the issuance of alias summons and for the expeditious handling by the clerk of such alias summons.

If any defendant, having been duly served with process in an assumpsit or trespass on the case action, shall fail to plead on or before 15 days from the time of service of such writ of summons upon him, except as otherwise provided by law, and if any defendant in any other action having been duly served with process shall fail to plead on or before the return day of such writ of summons, as hereinbefore required, or within such further time as the court may allow, the clerk shall forthwith enter the default of such defendant and the plaintiff may at any time within 14 days after the entry of such default prove his claim before the presiding judge of such court, in an amount not exceeding that set forth in the copy of the itemized statement served upon such defendant: Provided, however, That when any other defendant in such suit shall have duly pleaded, judgment may be entered against the defendant in default upon the trial of the issue as to the remaining defendants.

In actions of assumpsit and trespass on the case where the defendant is in default as hereinbefore set forth, the clerk of the court shall forthwith by mail notify the plaintiff or his attorney of such defendant's default.

A cause pending in such court shall be deemed at issue when all defendants shall have appeared generally and pleaded or when the default of any defendant who has failed to plead has been duly entered and all other defendants shall have appeared generally, and pleaded and a day certain for the trial of such cause shall thereupon be fixed by the clerk who shall forthwith notify all parties or their attorneys of the place and date of trial. Such notice shall be given by mail or in such other manner as the judges of such court shall by rule provide: Provided, however, That the date so set for trial shall be not less than 7 or more than 15 days after such cause is placed at issue as to all the parties: And provided further, That the parties to such cause or their attorneys may by written stipulation, approved by the presiding judge and filed in the office of the clerk of the court, fix an earlier trial date, and may stipulate in writing for not to exceed 2 adjournments of such cause, such stipulation to be filed in the office of the clerk of the court. No further or other adjournments shall be granted except upon motion and after cause shown under oath before the presiding judge or some other judge of the court as shall be designated by the presiding judge to hear and determine such motions.

728.14 Actions in replevin, attachment and garnishment; disclosure fee.

Sec. 14. The time and manner of issuance, service and return of process, and the practice and procedure in actions of replevin, suits commenced by writ of attachment, and garnishment proceedings, shall be governed by the provisions of existing laws relating to such actions and proceedings before justices of the peace in such city, except as herein otherwise provided. All writs and process issued in and by such court in actions of replevin and in garnishment proceedings and in suits commenced by writs of attachment shall be returnable before the presiding judge of such court or some other judge designated by the presiding judge. In actions of replevin where goods or chattels are not seized under the original writ, successive or alias writs may be issued by said court for the purpose of seizing said goods or chattels or service in the same manner as original writs. The judges may by rule provide that all proceedings and process relating to garnishments ancillary to the principal case shall be filed and entered in such principal case as part of the proceedings thereof, and that all garnishment answers and disclosures shall be in writing. A garnishee defendant shall be paid 50 cents only for the purpose of filing a disclosure with the court, any other law to the contrary notwithstanding.

728.15 Motions in writing; filing, service, notice.

Sec. 15. The judges of such court may require all motions made in such court to be in writing. All written motions shall be filed with the clerk of such court who shall set a date for hearing thereon before the presiding judge, or some other judge to whom the presiding judge may assign the hearing and disposition of such matters, in accordance with the rules and practice of such court. The moving party shall cause to be served upon the opposite party or parties or their attorneys copies of such motions and notices of hearing thereof within the time and in the manner fixed by the rules and practices of such court.

728.16 Notice to litigants.

Sec. 16. The judges shall by rule make provision for giving notice to litigants, or their attorneys of such matters in connection with pending proceedings as may require notice, and may provide that such notices be given by mail, and may further provide for the designation of an official newspaper and the publication therein of notice of all matters pending in such court, and may further provide for the posting of such notices in suitable places.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 16384;—CL 1948, 728.16.

728.17 Docketing causes; filing pleadings; records; form of process; power to make certain rules.

Sec. 17. The judges of such court shall have power to establish a system for docketing causes, for recording the proceedings in each case, and for filing pleadings and other matters, and shall designate the mode of keeping, filing and authenticating the records of proceedings had in such court. They may by rule provide that the clerk of such court, or any of his deputies, may sign dockets and executions. Such judges shall prescribe the form of all summons, writs and other process to be issued by such court and may adopt rules not inconsistent with the other provisions of this act governing the time and manner of filing and serving pleadings and the form thereof, the dismissal and adjournment of causes, the entry and setting aside of defaults and default judgments, the extension of time for pleading, and all other matters of pleading, practice, and procedure not inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

728.18a Orders for payment of judgments in installments and stay of garnishments.

Sec. 18a. After any judgment has been rendered, in any such court and the time to appeal therefrom has elapsed, the judge rendering said judgment, or the presiding judge of said court, or the judge to whom the hearing of the motion may be assigned by the presiding judge, may upon written consent of the parties, or upon written motion by a defendant or cross-defendant against whom said judgment has been rendered, after due notice thereof to the opposite party or his attorney, and after a full hearing of said motion, at which hearing the opposite party shall have an opportunity to cross-examine the moving party as to the facts set forth in said motion, enter an order requiring said defendant or cross-defendant to pay to the clerk of said court a certain sum of money weekly, bi-weekly, or monthly, to apply upon said judgment, and said order shall further stay the issuance of any writ of garnishment during the period that said defendant or cross-defendant complies with said order: Provided, however, For cause shown, in the discretion of such judge and upon such terms as he shall deem proper, he may grant a stay of garnishment on such judgment pending hearing upon such motion or until the further order of such court. Said motion of said defendant or cross-defendant shall be supported by the affidavit of the moving party, setting forth his inability to pay said judgment with funds other than those earned by him as wages, and setting forth the name and address of his employer, the amount of said wages, and the date of payment thereof. The clerk shall keep a record upon the file and docket of each cause of all payments to and disbursements by him. Upon the failure of said defendant or cross-defendant to comply with said order, the clerk of said court shall make an entry upon the docket and file of said cause of the non-compliance of said defendant or cross-defendant, with said order, and declaring said order of the court ordering payment and staying said writs of garnishment, null and void, and thereupon said prior order of the court shall immediately and without any further act by any party or the court, automatically be null and void. Every proceeding instituted by a judgment debtor pursuant to this section shall appear upon and as part of the record of such judgment in such court and no transcript of such judgment shall issue out of such court pending the hearing upon any motion instituted hereunder or, in the event a stay order has issued before or after the hearing on such motion, during the time such stay order shall be in effect; and every affidavit for a transcript of any judgment rendered by such court shall contain an averment by the affiant, if such be the fact, either that no proceeding hereunder has been instituted upon such judgment or, in the event such proceeding has been instituted, that a stay order was finally denied after a hearing pursuant to the provisions hereof, or, in the event a proceeding has been instituted hereunder and a stay order has issued, after hearing on such motion, that such order became automatically null and void by reason of non-compliance on the part of the defendant or cross-defendant with the terms of such order under the provisions hereof.

728.19a Common pleas court; entry fee; disposition.

Sec. 19a. (1) Before any civil action or proceeding, including proceedings in garnishment before and after judgment, shall be commenced, there shall be paid to the clerk of the court by the party bringing the action, the sum of $4.50 and the fees of the officer for service of the writ or process by which such action is commenced, and no additional fee shall be charged up to and including the entry of judgment.

(2) The clerk shall pay the sum of $2.75 weekly out of such entry fee to the treasurer of the county, and the clerk shall pay the sum of 75 cents weekly out of such entry fee to the executive secretary of the retirement system to be credited to the judges' retirement system and $1.00 to the Wayne county retirement system to be credited to the common pleas courts' bailiffs' retirement fund. The fees paid to the clerk for service of the writ or process by which action is commenced shall be retained by the clerk until the writ or process has been returned duly served or the cause is brought to issue. The fees shall then be paid by the clerk to the officer making the service, taking his receipt and placing it in the file of the cause of action. If it appears by the file that no service has been had for 3 months after the date of the writ, the officer's fees which were paid into the court shall be returned by the clerk to the plaintiff in the suit.

Sec. 22. This act shall be known and may be cited as "The Common Pleas Court Act".

728.23 Bailiffs; appointment, vacancy, number, successors, qualifications, oath, bond, badge, card, bearing arms.

Sec. 23. All constables in any city having or which may hereafter have over 250,000 inhabitants who shall have been duly elected or appointed in any ward in the city and who have qualified on the effective date of this act shall forthwith be appointed bailiffs, by said judges. Each bailiff shall hold such office until resignation or removal from office for any of the causes and in the manner hereinafter provided. In the case of a vacancy of a bailiff, the judges of said court shall have the power to fill any and all such vacancies. There shall be not more than 36 bailiffs serving out of such court at any one time, except that bailiffs serving upon the effective date of this 1961 amendatory act shall continue to serve, but no vacancies shall be filled until the number of bailiffs is reduced below 36. All successors to fill any such vacancies shall have been a duly and qualified resident and elector of this state and county in which such court is located for at least 5 years immediately preceding such appointment. No appointee shall have been previously removed from such office for any reason. Such appointment and any revocations thereof shall be in writing attested by the presiding judge and filed with the clerk of such court as a part of the records thereof. Before entering upon his duties, each bailiff shall take and subscribe an appropriate oath of office in form to be prescribed by the presiding judge and shall make, and file, together with said oath, with the city clerk of such city a surety bond in the amount of not less than $2,000.00 with a surety company. The premium thereon shall be paid by the bailiffs. Such bond and oath shall be filed with the city clerk prior to the issuance of the card evidencing the appointment of such bailiff. The bailiffs shall possess only the powers necessary in the service of process issued by the court established under the provisions of this act. The bailiff shall have suitable and adequate accommodations supplied by the county auditors including all furniture, supplies, stationery, appropriate printed blanks, secretary, office help and equipment. The bailiffs shall be authorized to wear an appropriate badge of office furnished at the expense of the city. Such badge shall at all times remain the property of the city and shall be surrendered to the city clerk only upon being found guilty of misfeasance or malfeasance in office. The clerk of the common pleas court shall issue to each bailiff a card signed by and under seal of said court stating that such person has been duly appointed and is vested with all powers conferred upon him by law, upon which card there shall appear also a clear photograph of such person to be furnished by himself. Each bailiff shall, while in office and in the exercise of his duties as such, be authorized to bear arms.

Service of process; rotation; substituted service.

All process directed to the common pleas court by any litigant shall be rotated among the bailiffs of said court, except writs of replevin, writs of execution and writs of attachment. Such bailiffs of the city in which the court is located shall promptly serve or cause to be served and execute all process, writs or orders delivered to them as herein provided, and in actions of assumpsit and trespass on the case after inquiry on the part of the said bailiff to make personal service, said bailiff may then and there leave a true copy at the defendant's abode with a person at least 21 years of age and suitable discretion to whom he shall read the contents of same. This shall be construed as adequate service and the court shall have jurisdiction over the litigants and judgment may be rendered by the judges of the common pleas court either by the appearance of said defendant or in his default. In each case the clerk of the common pleas court shall mail a proper notice of default judgment to the defendant who had been served by substitute service and inform said defendant that he must appear in said case within 10 days.

728.24 Fees of bailiffs; schedule of fees not fixed by law, changes.

Sec. 24. Said bailiffs shall be paid by the clerk of the common pleas court fees provided as follows: $3.50 for service of garnishments; $4.00 for service of all other summonses; $3.00 for writs of executions; $8.00 for writs of replevin; $4.00 for arrest warrants; $4.00 for arrest fees; $1.00 apiece for posting 3 notices and a $3.00 charge for levy fee on executions, excepting in the case of collection and paying money on executions in which case the fee shall be 6% of the amount collected on the judgment up to and including $1,000.00 and 4% on all sums in excess thereof. All other fees not mentioned herein shall be the same as those provided by existing law for constables. At any time after this act takes effect a majority of all the judges of such court may by court rule adopt a schedule fixing appraisal fees and such other fees not now fixed by law for bailiffs as such judges shall deem expedient and file the same with the clerk of such court, and thereupon such schedule of fees shall become the legal fees for bailiffs serving out of such court for the services specified in such schedule and such clerk shall post and keep posted 1 or more copies thereof, as the presiding judge shall direct, in 1 or more conspicuous places in the clerk's office accessible to the public, and shall indorse on the original approved schedule the date of posting. Changes in such fees shall be posted by the clerk immediately after the order therefor signed by a majority of the judges of such court has been filed and shall take effect 30 days after such posting when a complete schedule embracing the changes shall be posted in place of the superseded schedule. The clerk shall indorse on every original order for changes in such fees the date of posting the same and on every posted copy the date it takes effect.

728.25 Fees of bailiffs; payment; authority of clerk of court.

Sec. 25. Every bailiff collecting moneys from court orders issued out of the common pleas court, other than the clerk of the court out of which he serves process, by virtue of any process, writ or order issued out of said court, shall immediately turn all of the same without any deduction over to the clerk of said court who shall pay the bailiff his proper fees upon the filing of proper returns covering the same. The clerk shall have power, in his discretion, to require proof in addition to the return that any fee claimed by any bailiff has been duly earned before paying the same. Any dispute pertaining to payment of fees fixed as herein provided shall be referred by the clerk to and shall be disposed of by the presiding judge of such court or such other judge thereof as shall be assigned to hear such matter.

NOTE: Amendatory Act 129, 1941, contained a section 2 and a section 4 reading as follows:

"Sec. 2. This amendatory act shall be liberally construed to effectuate the object thereof. Each section and provision of this amendatory act shall be construed separately, and the invalidity of any section or provision thereof shall not affect the validity of the remaining sections or provisions."

"Sec. 4. All constables in cities affected by this act shall on or before the effective date hereof make and file with the clerk of the court due and proper return of all writs, summonses and other process in this hands."

728.26 Fees of bailiffs; extraordinary expenses; reimbursement.

Sec. 26. All fees, charges and disbursements, other than fees fixed by law or specified in said posted schedules, necessarily incurred by any bailiff in the seizure, removal, safekeeping and/or sale of property or otherwise in connection with the service or execution of any process, writ or order issued out of any such court, shall before allowance thereof, be by said bailiffs itemized and if no objections are filed with the clerk, and the clerk has no reason to question such fees, charges and/or disbursements on his own initiative, the same shall be paid to him at the expiration of said 4 days. In the event, however, objections are filed with the clerk in writing by any party to the suit or any interested person, or in the event the clerk, on his own initiative, has reason to question such fees, charges and/or disbursements the clerk shall forthwith notice same for hearing and notify the bailiff and the objecting party or parties, if any, of the time and place of such hearing. The matter shall be heard and disposed of by the presiding judge or such other judge of said court as shall be assigned to hear the same.

"Sec. 4. All constables in cities affected by this act shall on or before the effective date hereof make and file with the clerk of the court due and proper return of all writs, summonses and other process in their hands."

728.27 Fees of bailiffs; exempt property, seizure; procedure for release.

Sec. 27. On complaint in writing under oath to the presiding judge or other judge of such court assigned to receive such complaint, by or on behalf of any judgment debtor that any property of such debtor, taken by a bailiff under a writ of execution issued out of such court, is exempt from execution under any law of this state, and provided such complaint be filed before a lawful sale of such property under such execution to a bona fide purchaser for value, such judge shall issue an order directed to such bailiff, the plaintiff in execution and/or any other person or persons having such property in custody, requiring them to appear before such court, at a time and place fixed in the order and show cause why such property should not be forthwith released to such judgment debtor or otherwise dealt with as the court shall order. The judge receiving or hearing such complaint may, in his discretion, before issuing the order, require the complainant to give security for the costs of such proceeding, in such form and amount and with such surety or sureties as the judge shall approve. The judge, at such hearing, may without subpoena require such bailiff and/or any other person to whom the order is directed to appear and give evidence under oath, disclose the whereabouts of such property, produce any papers or records which the judge may deem necessary, and may continue the hearing from time to time as the judge shall see fit, and shall admit thereat such competent proofs bearing upon the issue before the court as the complainant, the bailiff or the plaintiff in execution shall offer; and in the event the judge determines that the property in question was exempt when taken, he shall order summarily its immediate release without payment of any fees or charges to the bailiff or any other person claiming fees or charges in connection with its seizure, removal, safekeeping or otherwise; and, whether the decision be for or against the complainant, such judge shall award damages sustained and the costs of such proceeding to be paid by the complainant or the bailiff against whom the decision shall be in the premises, and shall render judgment for such damages and costs against such party and his sureties for which execution and/or garnishment may issue on a judgment recovered at law. Pending the hearing and final disposition of said complaint, the presiding judge or the judge assigned to hear and dispose of such matter, may by written order restrain the sale or removal of such property and control its safekeeping, and/or, upon the filing of a bond in an amount equal to twice the value of such property as determined by such judge, and in form and with surety or sureties to be approved by such judge, may order such property to be immediately returned to complainant. Wilful failure, neglect or refusal by such bailiff or any other person having custody or control of such property to obey any lawful order of such court made hereunder shall be punishable summarily as a contempt of such court by the presiding judge thereof or any other judge thereof assigned to hear such matter. It shall also constitute misconduct in office on the part of such bailiff and render him subject to disciplinary action by such court under section 28 of this amendatory act. This section shall be deemed not to supersede but to supplement any other remedy which such complainant might have against such bailiff or any other person under existing law: Provided, however, That a judgment of any such court rendered hereunder on the issue as to whether such property was exempt when taken and as to the damages sustained shall be res adjudicata in any subsequent suit or proceeding between complainant and such bailiff between complainant and such execution plaintiff and between the bailiff of the city in which the court is situated and such execution plaintiff.

NOTE: Amendatory Act 129, 1941, contained a section 2 and a section 4 reading as follows:

"Sec. 2. This amendatory act shall be liberally construed to effectuate the object thereof. Each section and provision of this amendatory act shall be construed separately, and the invalidity of any section or provision thereof shall not affect the validity of the remaining sections or provisions."

"Sec. 4. All constables in cities affected by this act shall on or before the effective date hereof make and file with the clerk of the court due and proper return of all writs, summonses and other process in their hands."

728.28 Fees of bailiffs; answerable to court; inquiry into conduct; penalty.

Sec. 28. Every bailiff of the city in which the court is situated serving process out of any such court shall be answerable thereto for all his conduct in the line of duty; and it shall be the duty of every such court to compel bailiffs serving process out of such court to perform their duties, to examine into complaints against them, to determine their guilt or innocence of misfeasance and/or malfeasance in office and to discipline any offending bailiffs in manner as herein provided. Inquiry into the conduct of any bailiffs serving process out of any such court shall be instituted on complaint by the clerk thereof or by any person conceiving himself aggrieved, in manner as hereinafter provided, and may be instituted by such court on its own motion whenever the presiding judge or whenever any judge or judges thereof assigned to deal with such matters consider it expedient to do so. Where the inquiry is instituted on the court's own motion the procedure shall be as prescribed by court rule adopted by a majority of the judges of such court. On complaint in writing by the clerk of any such court or in writing under oath by or on behalf of any person conceiving himself aggrieved, to the presiding judge or such other judge or judges thereof assigned to receive such complaint, stating allegations of fact from which it appears to the examining judge that any bailiff serving process out of such court is guilty of any misconduct in office, such judge shall issue an order in writing directed to such bailiff requiring him to appear before the presiding judge or any judge or judges of said court assigned to hear such complaint, at a time fixed in such order, and show cause why said court should not take disciplinary action against such bailiff. A copy of said complaint and order shall be served on such bailiff prior to the date of hearing, the time and manner of service to be fixed in the order. No complaint, after the filing thereof as aforesaid, may be withdrawn nor shall the same or any proceeding thereon be dismissed or discontinued except by written order of the court for good cause shown, the reasons therefor to be stated in the order. The judge or judges hearing said complaint may permit or, on the court's own motion, order the filing of amendments thereto, may continue the hearing thereon from time to time, as the ends of justice may require, and, at any time prior to the final disposition of such matter, may require the prosecuting attorney of the county where such court is situated to prosecute said complaint, and the county where such court is situated shall pay the fees for such witnesses, depositions, if any, and such other evidence adduced by such prosecutors as the judge or judges in charge of said proceedings shall approve or certify to the board of county auditors. No fees shall be allowed or paid to such prosecutors for their services. In the event such bailiff shall be found guilty of any misfeasance and/or malfeasance in office as herein defined, the trial judges shall have power, in their discretion, as follows: (a) permanent removal from office of such officer; (b) suspension from office for a definite period; (c) a finding of contempt of court and the imposition of a penalty therefor as provided by law. The punishment, provided in clause (c) hereof, may be imposed concurrently with the provision in cause (a) or (b) hereof. All findings of guilt and all orders of punishment may be confirmed by a majority of the judges of the court. The findings of fact made by such judges shall be based upon a record stenographically reported: Provided, however, That an appeal from the order of such judges shall lie to the circuit court of the county in which such court is located on all questions of law and facts and upon said record, and a further appeal to the supreme court of the state of Michigan.

NOTE: Amendatory Act 129, 1941, contained a section 2 and a section 4 reading as follows:

"Sec. 2. This amendatory act shall be liberally construed to effectuate the object thereof. Each section and provision of this amendatory act shall be construed separately, and the invalidity of any section or provision thereof shall not affect the validity of the remaining sections or provisions."

"Sec. 4. All constables in cities affected by this act shall on or before the effective date hereof make and file with the clerk of the court due and proper return of all writs, summonses and other process in their hands."

728.29 Courts' authority to set aside default judgment; basis; hearing, motion.

Sec. 29. In any case where default judgment shall have been rendered by any such court against any defendant and the regular time for appeal, motion to set aside such default or for a new trial has expired, the judge who rendered such judgment or his successor in office, shall have power to set aside such judgment and grant a new trial on special motion therefor supported by affidavit based upon the personal knowledge of the affiant, setting forth, in substance, the following facts: (a) that such motion is based upon lack of personal service of process upon the judgment debtor; (b) that no delayed appeal from or transcript of such judgment has been taken and no other proceeding, seeking relief therefrom, has been instituted in any other court; (c) that said defaulted party has a good and meritorious defense to the action; and (d) that such motion is filed within 10 days after such judgment debtor had notice or actual knowledge of the existence of such judgment or, where any property of such judgment debtor has been seized by execution upon such judgment, within 4 days after such seizure, or, if there has been no such seizure but any indebtedness or property of such judgment debtor has been attached by garnishment upon such judgment, then within 10 days after such attachment. At the hearing on said motion the opposite party shall have an opportunity to cross-examine the moving party on the question of personal service, and the judge hearing the same shall admit such competent proofs bearing on said question as either party shall offer, and no relief shall be granted on such motion unless the judge hearing the same be satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence that there has been a lack of personal service of process upon the judgment debtor, and then only upon such terms and conditions as such judge shall deem proper. The judges of every such court may by court rule prescribe the form of notice of such motion, the time and manner of serving the same on the opposite party or parties or their attorneys and/or any other requirement which the judges of such court may deem proper to impose as a condition to the hearing of such motion; and until so prescribed, the procedure shall be according to the rules and practice governing motions in the circuit courts, as near as may be.

728.30 Attorney fees; taxable as costs.

Sec. 30. In all cases where a contested trial takes place, the prevailing party, if he be the plaintiff and was represented by a regularly licensed attorney and counselor, shall be entitled to tax as an attorney fee the sum of $15.00 in case of rendition of a judgment of $500.00 or under, $25.00 in the case of rendition of a judgment of over $500.00 but not more than $1,000.00, and $35.00 in case of rendition of a judgment of over $1,000.00; and, in all cases where a contested trial takes place, if the defendant was the prevailing party, and if he was represented by a regularly licensed attorney

Act 76, 1879, p. 66; Imd. Eff. May 13.

AN ACT to establish and organize a municipal court in the city of Grand Rapids to be known and called "The police court of Grand Rapids," and to repeal an act entitled "An act to establish and organize a police court in the city of Grand Rapids," approved April thirtieth, 1873, and all amendments thereto, and all acts and parts of acts in any wise contravening the provisions of this act.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

729.1 Police court of Grand Rapids; establishment; judge; election, oath, qualifications.

Sec. 1. That there shall be established and organized a municipal court, in and for the city of Grand Rapids, to be known as and called "The police court of Grand Rapids," and there shall be elected a judge and a clerk of said court, as hereinafter provided. The police justice of the city of Grand Rapids now officiating, shall continue and hold his office, and exercise the powers and duties herein conferred, under the title of "police judge," until the expiration of the time for which he was elected. At the annual charter election of said city to be held in 1882, and at every fourth annual charter election thereafter, a police judge shall be elected in and for said city, by the electors thereof in the manner provided by law for the election of mayor of said city, and the person so elected shall hold said office for the term of 4 years from and after the first Monday in May next after his election, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. Before entering upon the duties of his office, he shall take, subscribe and file in duplicate, with the clerk of said city, and with the clerk of the county of Kent, respectively, the constitutional oath of office. He shall be an attorney and counsellor at law, entitled to practice in all the courts of this state, and a resident in, and qualified elector of said city.

This act did not appear in the compilations of 1897 and 1915.

FORMER ACT: Act 396 of 1873.

CONSTITUTION: For form of oath, see Const. XI, 1.

JUSTICE COURT: Of Grand Rapids, see Act 299 of 1911, being Compilers' § 730.1 et seq.

729.2 Clerk of court; election, term, qualifications.

Sec. 2. At the first annual charter election, to be held in said city next after the passage and approval of this act, and at every second annual charter election thereafter, there shall be elected a clerk of the police court, in the manner provided by law for the election of the judge of the said court. He shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of his office on the first Monday in May next after his election, and hold the same for the term of 2 years thereafter, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. He shall be a resident of and a qualified elector of said city. Immediately after the passage of this act, and before said first election of such clerk, the common council shall appoint a suitable and qualified person to exercise the duties of said office until a clerk shall be elected and qualified under this act.

729.3 Clerk of court; oath of office, bond; vacancy in office of judge or clerk.

Sec. 3. Before entering upon the duties of his office, the clerk of police court shall take, subscribe and file with the clerk of said city, the constitutional oath of office, and give a bond to the city of Grand Rapids, and a bond to the treasurer of the county of Kent, each in the sum of 2,000 dollars, with 2 sufficient sureties, to be approved by the mayor of said city, and by the treasurer of said county, respectively, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and to account for and pay over to the proper treasurers, in the manner and at the times hereinafter provided, all moneys which shall come into his hands by virtue of his said office. The bond to the city shall be filed with the city clerk and the bond to the treasurer of said county shall be filed with said treasurer, and if from any cause a vacancy shall occur in the office of judge or clerk of said police court, either or both, the common council of said city may order a special election to be held for the election of a judge or clerk of said court as the case may be, for the remainder of the term of said judge or clerk, as the case may be, which said election, if ordered, shall be conducted in the same manner as the annual city election, and the same notice thereof given, as is required by law to be given for the annual city election.

HISTORY: How. 6591c8;—CL 1929, 16401;—CL 1948, 729.3.

CONSTITUTION: For form of oath, see Const. XI, 1.

VACANCY: Filling by justice of the peace, see Compilers' § 730.12.

729.4 Prosecuting and city attorneys; duties in court.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of the county of Kent, or his authorized deputy or assistant, to attend all sessions of said police court, and prosecute all state criminal cases therein; and it shall be the duty of the city attorney, or any assistant authorized by the common council, to attend all sessions of said court, to prosecute all violations of the charter, by-laws or ordinances therein.

729.5 Place for holding court; power of court; peremptory challenges.

Sec. 5. The police judge shall hold a court in said city, at a suitable place, to be provided by the common council thereof, to be styled the police court, and which shall not be a court of record. Said police judge shall have power and authority to take complaints, issue all processes necessary in said court, to be signed by or attested in the name of said judge, and the court shall have the same power to punish contempts and preserve order, to compel the attendance of witnesses, parties and jurors, and determine as to the qualifications of jurors, and such further powers incident to a circuit court, and the judge thereof, as may be convenient in the exercise of the jurisdiction and powers herein conferred upon him as such court; he shall also have all the powers and authority of a justice of the peace, except in the trial of civil cases. And in every trial in said court by jury, the city or the people, as the case may be, shall be entitled to but 2 peremptory challenges, and the accused to but 2 peremptory challenges.

729.6 Jurisdiction; entries as evidence; arrest without process.

Sec. 6. Said police court shall have exclusive original jurisdiction to issue process for, hear, try and determine all cases against persons charged with violations of the provisions of the charter of said city, or of any act of the legislature relating to the government thereof, and of the by-laws and ordinances of the common council thereof, already enacted, or that may hereafter be enacted, anything in any other law of this state or the charter of said city or any ordinance of said city contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; and all the provisions of law relative to complaints against offenders for violations of the provisions of the charter of said city or any by-law or ordinance of the common council of said city or of the acts aforesaid and relative to process, proceedings and judgments therein, and relative to executions upon such judgments and proceedings therein shall apply to said police court. Said police court shall also have exclusive original jurisdiction to issue process for, hear, try and determine all cases of misdemeanor, and of a quasi criminal nature, committed within the corporate limits of said city heretofore or hereafter within the jurisdiction of justices courts, anything otherwise herein or in any other law of this state contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. Said police court shall also have exclusive original jurisdiction to issue process for, hear, try and examine, and to hold to bail or discharge all persons charged therein with the commission of felonies within the corporate limits of said city. Said police court shall have authority to sentence any person convicted therein of the commission of a misdemeanor and triable in justice courts of this state, the same as justices of the peace may by law do. It shall not be necessary to file a record of any conviction had in said court, but the dockets or journal entries and file shall be prima facie evidence of all proceedings had in said court. And in all cases of the violation of the provisions of the charter, by-laws or ordinances of said city, each member of the police force may make arrest without process when committed in his presence, in which case complaint and arraignment [arraignment] shall be made without delay, so that no injustice shall be done.

HISTORY: Am. 1885, p. 125, Act 127, Imd. Eff. May 28;—Am. 1889, p. 119, Act 109, Imd. Eff. May 23;—How. 6591d1;—CL 1929, 16404;—CL 1948, 729.6.

729.7 Practice; process; service, record.

Sec. 7. The practice in said court may be the same as practice in courts of justices of the peace in criminal cases, and the laws of this state relative to such practice, and the procedure before justices of the peace in criminal cases shall, except where herein otherwise provided, extend to said police court, so far as is consistent with the practice of said court. All process issued out of said court shall be directed to the chief of police, or any member of the police force of said city, or to the sheriff of Kent county, but no such process shall be served or executed by the chief of police or any member of said police force outside of the corporate limits of said city, unless in case of immediate pursuit in view of such officer, in which case he or they may pursue and arrest the same as the sheriff of the county might in like case do. It shall be the duty of the sheriff to keep a record of all process required to be served and executed outside of said city, which record shall show the date of the process, name of the accused, a summary of the proceedings had therein and the amount of fees and charges of the officers who shall execute the same.

HISTORY: Am. 1885, p. 126, Act 127, Imd. Eff. May 28;—How. 6591d2;—CL 1929, 16405;—CL 1948, 729.7.

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE: In justices' courts, see Ch. XIV of Act 175 of 1927 (Code of Criminal Procedure), being 'Compilers' § 774.1 et seq.

729.8 Fees and salary of judge, clerk and police.

Sec. 8. The police judge and clerk shall receive no fees or perquisites for their services performed under this act, but in lieu thereof the police judge shall receive an annual salary of 1,800 dollars, 1/2 of which shall be paid by the city of Grand Rapids monthly in the manner provided by law for the salary of the judge of the superior court of Grand Rapids, and 1/2 of which shall be paid by the treasurer of the county of Kent, out of the treasury of said county, in the manner provided by law for the payment of the salary of the prosecuting attorney. The clerk of said police court shall receive an annual salary, to be paid in the manner herein provided for the payment of the salary of the police judge, of 1,200 dollars, 1/2 of which shall be paid by said city and 1/2 thereof by the treasurer of the county of Kent, out of the treasury of said county. Neither the chief of police nor any member of the police force of said city shall be entitled to receive for his own use any fees for services performed under this act, but in lieu thereof the chief of police and members of the police force of said city shall receive such annual salary as shall be fixed by the board of police and fire commissioners of the city of Grand Rapids.

HISTORY: Am. 1885, p. 126, Act 127, Imd. Eff. May 28;—Am. 1889, p. 119, Act 109, Imd. Eff. May 23;—How. 6591d3;—CL 1929, 16406;—CL 1948, 729.8.

As to salary of the judge and clerk this section has probably been superseded by Compilers' §§ 729.101 and 729.103 respectively.

729.9 Office and supplies for judge and clerk.

Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of the common council of said city to provide a suitable office for the judge and clerk of said court adjacent to the court room thereof, as near as may be, and such necessary furniture, light, fuel, records, blanks, stationery and other articles as may be required for the judge, court, clerk, jury and other officers of said court; the office of said judge not to be with that of the clerk.

729.10 Court open at all times; adjournments; bailiff, appointment, powers, removal, salary, vacancy in office of judge or clerk.

Sec. 10. The police court shall always be open for business, but may adjourn its sittings from day to day and from time to time as may be convenient and not inconsistent with the dispatch of business therein. Cases and examinations pending in said court may be adjourned from time to time, not exceeding 3 months from the arraignment of the accused therein, unless the court shall be satisfied by proper evidence that the attainment of justice requires a further continuance, and then only for such further time as the exigency of the case for the attainment of the object aforesaid shall require. One member at least of the police force of said city shall attend each session of said court to assist the bailiff. The judge of said court shall appoint a good and competent elector of said city "bailiff" of said court, which appointment shall be in writing signed by said judge and filed with the clerk of said court as the files or record thereof; thereupon said clerk shall make a duly certified copy of such appointment to and file the same with the board of police and fire commissioners of the city of Grand Rapids, which said board shall at that time or at its first session thereafter, by a proper resolution, duly clothe such person with police powers, and who shall thereupon be a policeman of said city, vested with all the powers, rights and liabilities of such officer and of police constables, but not to receive pay as such policeman. The person thus appointed may be removed at the pleasure of such judge; such bailiff shall receive a salary at the rate of 800 dollars per year, to be paid in the same manner as the salary of the judge of said court is paid; and upon a vacancy occurring in said office by removal or otherwise, the same shall be immediately filled as above provided. In case of the removal from the city of the judge of said police court, his death, resignation or removal from office, his office shall be deemed vacant, and such vacancy filled in the manner hereinbefore provided. The same causes shall be deemed to constitute a vacancy in the office of clerk of said police court, and such vacancy shall be filled as hereinafter provided.

As to bailiff, this section is probably superseded by Compilers' § 729.104.

729.11 Judge to instruct jury; appeals; juries.

Sec. 11. It shall be the duty of the judge of said court to instruct the jury as to the laws applicable to the case, which instruction shall be received by the jury as the law of the case. Such defendant shall have the right of appeal, provided such appeal shall be taken and perfected within 24 hours from the time of the court pronouncing its judgment or sentence, and certiorari from final judgment of said court, as provided by law for appeals and certiorari from final judgments of justices of the peace in criminal cases, such appeals being taken and perfected as hereinbefore in this section provided. In State criminal cases appeals and writs of certiorari shall when taken be taken to the circuit court for the county of Kent. Juries shall be obtained and appeals and writs of certiorari, both in city and State cases, shall be taken, perfected, and returned in the manner provided by law for like acts before justices of the peace in criminal cases, except as herein otherwise provided.

This section is probably superseded by Compilers' §§ 729.105 and 729.106.

APPEALS: Superseded by Compilers' § 774.34 et seq.

DRAWING OF JURY: See Compilers' § 774.12 et seq.

729.12 Assistant police judge.

Sec. 12. At the first annual meeting of the common council of said city in each year, or within 20 days thereafter, said council shall select upon the nomination of the mayor, from among the justices of the peace of said city, a suitable and qualified person as assistant police judge, who shall possess the same qualifications as are required of the police judge, and exercise the power, authority and jurisdiction herein conferred upon said police judge, in case of the absence, inability, or disability of the police judge to perform the duties of his office. He shall receive compensation for the time he shall officiate at the rate of 3 dollars per day, to be paid in the same manner as the police judge except that his claim for such salary shall be allowed as other claims against said city and county.

729.14 Fees and costs.

Sec. 14. The fees and costs in each case in the said court whether under the laws of this state or under the charter, by-laws or ordinances of said city, shall be the same as are or may be provided by law for like cases before justices of the peace, in criminal cases, and shall be taxed by the said clerk. The fees of witnesses, jurors, sheriffs and constables, other than police officers of said city shall when collected be paid to them by said clerk, to their own use, and in city cases commenced before said police court for the recovery of fines, penalties or forfeitures, and in all cases of offenses against the criminal laws of this state, within the jurisdiction of said court to try and determine. If the defendant shall plead guilty to the offense charged, or shall be found guilty thereof on trial by said judge, judgment for costs accruing in the case shall be rendered against and paid by said defendant, in addition to the fine, penalty, or forfeiture imposed.

HISTORY: Am. 1885, p. 128, Act 127, Imd. Eff. May 28;—How. 6591d9;—CL 1929, 16412;—CL 1948, 729.14.

JUROR'S FEES: See also Compilers' § 729.103.

729.15 Security for costs; judgment for costs against sureties.

Sec. 15. The said police judge or clerk shall have authority in all cases, either state or city, at his discretion, either before or after issuing of process, to require of the complaining witness security for costs to the satisfaction of said judge or clerk, and the person becoming such surety shall sign a memorandum in writing to that effect, which said clerk shall keep as a part of the record in the case. If the defendant or accused be discharged on examination or acquitted on trial, the said police court shall enter a judgment for costs against the surety and the complaining witness, either or both of them which shall be of like force, and effect, and shall be collected as upon judgments rendered by a justice of the peace in actions commenced by warrant, and of like form with such executions as near as may be: Provided, however, Before rendering such judgment said court shall cause to be certified on the record that such payment of costs by such complainant is just and equitable.

729.17 Clerk; duties, deputy, vacancy, power as to writs and process, administration of oaths, other powers.

Sec. 17. The clerk of the police court shall keep the records of said court, and do all the necessary clerical work of said court, except as hereinafter provided, and be the custodian of the records and files and property of said court. He shall provide the court and its officers with necessary stationery, records, blanks and other articles, to be furnished by said city on requisition on the common council thereof. The journal or docket entries of said court shall be signed by the judge thereof. Said clerk shall receive and account for all moneys collected in said court. He shall annually nominate a suitable person as deputy, to be elected by the common council of said city. Such deputy shall, before acting, take and file the oath of office, and make and file the like bonds as are required of the clerk. The said deputy clerk shall perform the duties of said clerk when so required by said judge, and during absence of said clerk, for which he shall receive compensation for the time he shall officiate at the rate of 3 dollars per day, to be paid in the manner hereinbefore provided for the payment of the salary of the judge of said court, which said amount so paid to said deputy clerk shall, when paid, be deducted from the salary of the clerk of said court. In case the office of said clerk shall become vacant by resignation or as hereinbefore provided, said deputy clerk shall become the clerk of said court until the next charter election of said city of Grand Rapids, and thereupon it shall become his duty to file bonds as clerk of said court and appoint a deputy as hereinbefore provided. The clerk of said court shall file and preserve all the records and files of said court, and he shall not be concerned as counsel in any case therein. Said clerk may sign and seal either with a scroll or device, and if with a device, such device as may be ordered by such police judge, which order, if made, shall be filed and recorded by said clerk as a part of the records of said court, all writs and processes issuing from said court, as provided in section 5 of this act, and shall have power generally to administer oaths and affidavits, take recognizance or bail, swear witnesses and jurors, and to do all acts usual and proper to do by the clerk of the superior court of Grand Rapids, within the jurisdiction of said police court.

Act 353, 1913, p. 666; Eff. Aug. 14.

AN ACT to fix the term of office and compensation of the judge, clerk, bailiff and stenographer; to prescribe the duties and powers of such officers; to prescribe the manner and limit the time for appeals of police courts in cities of this state of a population not less than 125,000 and not more than 200,000 inhabitants, and to provide for the appointment of a deputy clerk. Am. 1927, p. 190, Act 132, Eff. Sep. 5;—Am. 1947, p. 260, Act 181, Imd. Eff. Jun. 11.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

729.101 Police judge; salary; fees of judge and clerk.

Sec. 1. In all cities of this state having a population of not less than 125,000 inhabitants nor more than 200,000 inhabitants, the police judge and clerk shall receive no fees for their services, but in lieu thereof the police judge shall receive an annual salary of $6,500.00, and such additional sums as the city commission or other legislative body of the city or board of supervisors of the county wherein said court is located may by resolution provide, which salary shall be paid 3/5 by the city in which said court is held, monthly, and in the manner provided by law for the payment of salaries of city officers, and 2/5 of which shall be paid by the treasurer of the county in which said city is located, out of the treasury of said county in the manner provided by law for the payment of the salary of the prosecuting attorney thereof.

This section probably supersedes part of Compilers' § 729.8.

729.102 Police judge; election, term, oath, qualifications.

Sec. 2. The police judge of said court existing under the law at the time this act takes effect, and now officiating in said court, shall continue to hold his office and exercise his powers and duties herein conferred under the title of police judge, until the expiration of the time for which he was elected. At the charter election in said city or cities, coming under this act, held in April, 1914, a police judge of said court shall be elected to hold his office for the term of 6 years from and after the first Monday in May next after his election, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. Before entering upon the duties of his office he shall take, subscribe and file in duplicate with the clerk of said city and with the clerk of said county, respectively, the constitutional oath of office. He shall be an attorney and counselor of law, entitled to practice in all the courts of this state, and a resident and a qualified elector in the said city.

HISTORY: CL 1915, 14721;—CL 1929, 16423;—CL 1948, 729.102. This section probably supersedes Compilers' § 729.1.

729.103 Clerk; salary, appointment, term, qualifications.

Sec. 3. The clerk of said police court shall receive an annual salary of $4,000.00, and such additional sums as the city commission or other legislative body of the city or board of supervisors of the county wherein said court is located may by resolution provide, which salary shall be paid in the same manner as that of police judge, 3/5 of which shall be paid by said city, and 2/5 thereof by the county in which said city may be located, out of the treasury of said county. Notwithstanding any charter provisions or other statutes to the contrary, the clerk of said court shall be appointed by the judge thereof, and a memorandum of such appointment shall be filed with the clerk of said city. Such clerk shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court. The first appointment under this section shall not take effect until the first Monday in May, 1956. He shall be a resident in and a qualified elector of the said city.

JUROR'S FEES: See also Compilers' § 729.14.

729.104 Bailiff; appointment, powers, rights and liabilities, salary, vacancy, oath, bonds, deputy clerk.

Sec. 4. The judge of said court shall appoint a good and competent elector of said city, bailiff of said court, which appointment shall be in writing signed by said judge and filed with said clerk of said court as a part of the records thereof, and thereupon, said clerk shall make a duly certified copy of such appointment and file with the director of public safety of said city, who shall duly clothe such person with police power, and he shall thereupon be a policeman of said city, vested with all the powers, rights and liabilities of such officers and of police constables but not to receive pay as such policeman. The person thus appointed may be removed at the pleasure of such judge. Said bailiff shall receive an annual salary of $3,000.00 per year and such additional sums as the city commission or other legislative body of the city or board of supervisors of the county wherein said court is located may by resolution provide, which salary shall be paid in the same manner as the salary of the judge of the said court is paid, and upon a vacancy occurring in the said office by removal or otherwise, the same shall be immediately filled as above provided. The said bailiff shall by virtue of his office be the deputy clerk of said court. Such deputy shall before acting take and file the oath of office, and make and file the like bonds as are required of the clerk. The said deputy clerk shall perform the duties of said clerk when so required by said judge, and during the absence of said clerk.

729.104a Court stenographer; appointment, duties, compensation, removal.

Sec. 4a. The police judge, by and with the advice and consent of the justices of the peace of the city in which said court is located, shall appoint a competent court stenographer for said court, whose duty it shall be to take down in shorthand the testimony in examinations of offenders by the police court or the justices courts in the county in which said court is located, for offenses committed against the criminal laws of his state when said police court or justice courts have jurisdiction to examine and hold to bail only. The stenographer so appointed shall receive as compensation a salary of $4,000.00 per annum and such additional sums as the city commission or other legislative body of the city or board of supervisors of the county wherein said court is located may by resolution provide, which salary shall be paid 2/5 by the city in which said court is held, monthly, and in the manner provided by law for the payment of salaries of city officers, and 3/5 of which shall be paid by the treasurer of the county in which said city is located, out of the treasury of said county in the manner provided by law for the payment of the salary of the prosecuting attorney thereof. Said stenographer shall furnish a copy of the transcript of the testimony whenever desired and shall receive from the party so receiving it, the sum of 10 cents per folio. Said stenographer shall be provided suitable office facilities and stationery for the work. Said stenographer may be removed from office for misconduct or incompetency.

Act 17, 1953, p. 16; Imd. Eff. Apr. 3.

AN ACT to provide an optional method of drawing juries in police courts, or other courts having criminal jurisdiction in cities.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

729.201 Adoption of act by certain cities; rescission.

Sec. 1. Any city located in a county having a population of less than 500,000 having a court known as a police court, or otherwise, and having the jurisdiction in criminal cases of justices of the peace, or the jurisdiction to try and determine cases against persons charged with the violation of the charter or ordinances of the city, or both such jurisdictions, may adopt the provisions of this act by ordinance passed in accordance with the provisions of the charter of said city. Such adoption of this act may likewise be rescinded by ordinance.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 16, Act 17, Imd. Eff. Apr. 3.

729.202 Board of jury commissioners; membership.

Sec. 2. A board of jury commissioners is hereby created for each city adopting the provisions hereof, which shall consist of the city treasurer, the city clerk and the city assessor. If there be more than 1 city assessor, the city legislative body shall designate the assessor to act as a member of said board.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 16, Act 17, Imd. Eff. Apr. 3.

729.203 Board of jury commissioners; list of persons to serve as jurors, computation; additional names; lists in duplicate.

Sec. 3. The said board shall within 15 days after the adoption of this act in any city make a list of persons to serve as jurors in said court for the remainder of the then calendar year, and shall during the month of November of each year thereafter make a list of persons to serve as jurors of said court for the next succeeding calendar year: Provided, That the failure to complete said list during the period specified shall not affect the validity of the list thereafter made by said board. Each of said lists shall be of jurors equal in number to 1 for each 500 inhabitants in the city, computed according to the last preceding census: Provided, That in no case shall it be necessary to make a list of more than 300 persons. If before the end of said calendar year the judge of a police court shall determine that additional names are necessary, he shall order said board to make another list of persons in such number as he shall determine to serve as additional jurors for the remainder of such calendar year, and it shall be the duty of said board to make such list.

Said board shall make such lists in duplicate and file 1 in the office of the city clerk and 1 in the office of said court.

729.204 Board of jury commissioners; qualifications of persons selected.

Sec. 4. The said board in making such list shall select only the names of persons who are qualified electors, in possession of their natural faculties, not infirm or decrepit, of good character, integrity and sound judgment, well informed in and conversant with the English language, free from all legal exceptions and not exempt from serving on juries.

729.205 Board of jury commissioners; exemptions; excused from serving.

Sec. 5. Any person shall be exempt from serving on a jury drawn in accordance with the provisions of this act if he is exempt from serving on juries in the circuit courts of this state. Any person more than 70 years of age shall be excused upon his request, and any person entitled to be excused from serving on a jury in the circuit courts of the state shall be entitled to be excused from serving on a jury in said court.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 17, Act 17, Imd. Eff. Apr. 3.

729.206 Duty of clerk of court.

Sec. 6. The clerk of said court shall write the name and address of each person named on such lists on a separate slip of paper. Each slip shall then be placed in a separate receptacle so designed as to conceal the information contained on the slip, and all the receptacles containing the slips shall then be placed in a box to be kept for that purpose, which shall be kept locked when not being used to draw a panel of jurors. The clerk of the court shall be the custodian of the slips, receptacles, box, lock and key.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 17, Act 17, Imd. Eff. Apr. 3.

729.207 Date of trial; drawing of panel, time; number of jurors.

Sec. 7. When a jury trial shall have been demanded by any person to be tried in said court, the judge of said court shall fix a time for such trial and shall fix a time for the drawing of a panel of jurors for such trial. Such latter time shall be at least 5 days prior to the date set for trial unless otherwise ordered by the judge on request of such defendant. The judge shall designate the number of jurors to be drawn as such panel, which number shall not be less than 16.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 17, Act 17, Imd. Eff. Apr. 3.

729.208 Drawing; conduct.

Sec. 8. Such drawing shall be conducted at the place of the holding of said court at the time so fixed by the judge, or at such adjourned time as he may order. Such drawing shall be conducted by the clerk in the presence of the judge, shall be public, and the defendant and his attorney, and the prosecuting attorney in state cases, and the city attorney in city cases, shall be entitled to be present.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 17, Act 17, Imd. Eff. Apr. 3.

729.209 Clerk to draw names; record; signature.

Sec. 9. Upon such drawing of the panel the clerk shall draw from said box such names, 1 at a time, as may be needed to complete said panel, in the number ordered by the court. He shall publicly announce the name of each juror drawn and make a record thereof. If to the knowledge of the judge or the clerk of said court, it appears that any person whose name is drawn shall be dead, insane or permanently removed from the city, an entry of such fact shall be made in the minutes of the drawing and the slip of paper containing such name be destroyed. Another name shall then be drawn from the box and the same proceeding had until the whole number of jurors required for such panel shall have been drawn.

The clerk shall then sign the record of such drawing, which shall include the names of the persons drawn as the members of such panel and file the same in his office as a public record.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 17, Act 17, Imd. Eff. Apr. 3.

729.210 Slips drawn; replacement.

Sec. 10. All slips drawn, except those destroyed as hereinbefore provided, shall be replaced in the receptacle and returned to the box after the drawing of a jury panel has been completed and used with the names already in the box in the drawing of subsequent jury panels.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 18, Act 17, Imd. Eff. Apr. 3.

729.211 Summoning of jurors; service.

Sec. 11. The clerk of said court shall issue under his hand and deliver to the bailiff of said court, or to a police officer of said city, a subpoena or venire for each juror who is a member of said panel, summoning him to appear for said trial. Said officer shall serve the same upon said persons either personally or by mailing the same by United States registered mail at least 3 days prior to the date set for said trial.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 18, Act 17, Imd. Eff. Apr. 3.

729.212 Failure to attend; penalty.

Sec. 12. Any person so summoned as a juror, who shall fail to attend and to continue in attendance at said trial, unless excused by the judge of the police court, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $100.00, or imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding 90 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court trying the offender.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 18, Act 17, Imd. Eff. Apr. 3.

729.213 Jury panel placed in separate receptacle; drawing; additional names, drawing; summoning.

Sec. 13. The clerk shall write the name of each person so selected as a member of such jury panel on a separate slip of paper and place the same in a separate receptacle, so designed as to conceal the name, and place all such receptacles in a box to be kept for that purpose. Juries in all cases drawn in accordance with the provisions of this act shall consist of 6 persons, or less, if agreed to by both parties. At the opening of the trial, the clerk shall draw from said box 6 names and if any so drawn shall not be present or shall be excused, additional names shall be drawn until a jury is secured. If the panel shall be exhausted before the jury is secured the judge shall order such additional names as he may deem necessary drawn from the box provided for in section 6 hereof, in accordance with the procedure set forth in section 9 hereof, and the persons whose names are so drawn shall forthwith be summoned to appear, and the drawing of a jury continued in accordance with the provisions of this section until a jury is secured.

729.214 Challenges.

Sec. 14. Any person drawn as a juror may be challenged for cause for the same reasons he could have been challenged for cause if drawn as a juror in a trial in the circuit court. The respondent and the prosecuting attorney in state cases, and the city attorney in city cases, shall each be entitled to 5 peremptory challenges, and no more.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 18, Act 17, Imd. Eff. Apr. 3.

729.215 Instructions to jury.

Sec. 15. It shall be the duty of said judge of a police court to instruct the jury in all cases as to the law applicable to the case being tried by it, which instruction shall be received by the jury as the law of the case.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 18, Act 17, Imd. Eff. Apr. 3.

729.216 Jury service; limitation.

Act 299, 1911, p. 522; Imd. Eff. May 3.

AN ACT to provide for justice courts in all cities of not less than 80,000 population, whose justice court or courts are not provided for in their present charters or by other general or local acts, and to repeal all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act. Am. 1939, p. 794, Act 322, Imd. Eff. Jun. 22;—Am. 1945, p. 18, Act 21, Eff. Sep. 6.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

730.1 Justice courts in certain cities; number, qualifications, election.

Sec. 1. In all cities of not less than 80,000 population as determined by the last federal decennial census or by any federal decennial census hereafter taken, whose justice court or courts are not provided for in their present charters or by other general or local acts, there shall be 2 justices of the peace in and for said city, who shall be electors of said city and residents therein and shall be known as judges of said court. None but attorneys at law of 4 years standing shall be eligible to be elected or appointed to the office of justice of the peace under the provisions of this act. No justice of the peace for said city shall during his term of office act as attorney in any court in the county wherein his court is located. Each of said justices shall be nominated and elected in the same manner that public officials of the city wherein said court is located shall be hereafter nominated and elected. The justices of the peace now holding office in said cities shall continue to hold the same until the expiration of their respective terms and until their successors are elected and qualified. The files, records and dockets appertaining to the offices of the former justices of the peace in said cities shall be kept in the office of the clerk herein provided for. Either of the present or future justices authorized by this act is empowered to issue an execution according to law upon the judgments entered upon such dockets, as if such judgments had been rendered by him.

BONDS OR FUNDS DEPOSITED WITH CLERK OF COURT TO SECURE PAYMENT OF JUDGMENT, COSTS, ETC.

730.10 Security for payment of judgment and costs.

Sec. 10. In all cases where a party is required or allowed by law to give a bond as a condition of commencing or prosecuting any suit, action or proceeding in such justices' courts, such party may execute and file such bond, or he may in the discretion of the court deposit with the clerk thereof the amount of the bond required in legal tender of the United States; and in garnishment proceedings the principal defendant may have any money or effects released which have been garnished by filing with the justice before whom the case is pending a bond approved by said justice in double the amount of plaintiff's claim stated in his affidavit, and not less than 50 dollars, or deposit with the clerk of the court an amount equal to such a bond in money, which money shall remain with said clerk until disposed of by the court according to law. A certificate of such deposit setting forth the case in which, the amount thereof, the person by whom, the purpose for which, and the time when deposited, shall be given to the party depositing the same with the clerk of said court. Upon the final disposition of the case, action or proceeding in which such deposit was made, in case the party making such deposit shall be adjudged liable to pay the costs of such suit or proceedings or to pay any other sum to secure the payment for which said deposit was made, then such funds so deposited shall under the direction of the court be applied in payment and satisfaction of the same. Should any surplus remain after satisfying such order of the court the same shall be returned to the party depositing it.

FINES, ETC., FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT.

730.11 Rules of practices; contempts; alias and pluries summons; rules.

Sec. 11. The justices of the peace mentioned herein shall have the power to make and adopt such rules of practice and decorum in their courts as to them may be deemed advisable for the purpose of facilitating the business of said courts, and any party violating any rule relating to decorum in said courts shall be guilty of contempt and may be so adjudged by the member of said court where such rule shall have been violated, and for such violation the said justice may fine the offender in a sum not to exceed 50 dollars, or commit said offender to the common jail of the county wherein said court is located, for a period not exceeding 30 days. If only a fine be imposed in default of the payment thereof, said offender may be committed to said common jail until said fine is paid for a term not exceeding 30 days. Whenever the issuance of an alias or pluries summons is authorized by the general law, said summons shall be made returnable not more than 21 days from the date of issuance thereof. When it appears by the return of the constable that personal service of said summons was not obtained by the constable, alias or pluries summons may be issued by the clerk or any of his deputies, upon application to the clerk of said court by the plaintiff or his attorneys on or before the return day thereof. Any such alias or pluries summons shall be served at any time prior to 3 days before the return day of said alias or pluries summons. Constables shall file their returns with the clerk of said court at least 24 hours prior to the time mentioned for the appearance of any defendant in any process or summons. Rules may be adopted by the justices of said courts for the expeditious handling of the business of the court and especially all alias and pluries process by the clerk so as to relieve litigants and attorneys where legally possible of the routine and clerical work connected with the same. No new rules of practice shall hereafter be adopted by such justices and the same shall not be effective until they have been printed and placed in the hands of the clerk for distribution at least 10 days before the same come into effect. Copies of such rules with all amendments thereto, shall be furnished by the clerk to all applicants, to be paid for by the city in the same manner blanks and other supplies for said courts are furnished.

WHEN JUSTICES MAY ACT AS POLICE JUDGE—COMPENSATION FOR SAME.

730.12 Justice as police judge; powers and jurisdiction; compensation.

Sec. 12. It shall be part of the duties of each of said justices of the peace to act as judge of the police court of the city wherein said justices' court is located, whenever, from any cause, the said judge of police court shall be unable to perform the duties of his office, and whenever there shall be a vacancy in said police court by reason of the death of the judge thereof, or otherwise, and for such service the said justice of the peace so serving shall receive as compensation the sum of $3.00 per day in addition to his regular salary as such justice of the peace, 1/2 of which salary shall be paid by the county and 1/2 by the city wherein said court is located in like manner as the salary of said police judge is paid. The justices of the peace shall exercise all the powers, authority and jurisdiction of said police judge, as aforesaid, while acting in his place: Provided, however, That in cities having no police court, it shall be part of the duties of each of said justices of the peace to act as judge of the police court of the city wherein said justice court is located without additional salary or compensation. The justices of the peace shall exercise all powers, authority, and jurisdiction in all cases of offenses against the criminal laws of this state or against the charter, or ordinances of the city, and if the defendant shall plead guilty to the offense charged, or shall be found guilty thereof on trial by the justice or jury, judgment for costs accruing in the case may be rendered against said defendant in addition to the fine, penalty or forfeiture imposed.

CLERK OF JUSTICE COURT—HIS NOMINATION AND APPOINTMENT.

730.19 Clerk of justice court; qualifications, appointment, term, salary, deputy bonds, removal.

Sec. 19. There shall be 1 clerk of said justices, who shall be known as "the clerk of the justices' court of" (the city wherein said court is located.) He shall be an elector of said city wherein said court is located and shall be appointed by the mayor of said city, forthwith, upon the making and filing with him of the written recommendation of the justices of the peace provided for in this act holding office, on or before the first Monday of May in each alternate year. If, for any reason, such recommendation be not made and filed by the said date, then the said mayor shall make such appointment on his own motion. The term of said clerk shall be 2 years commencing on the first Monday of May of each alternate year. The clerk now in office shall hold said office until his successor is elected or appointed and qualified. Said clerk shall receive from the treasurer of the county wherein said court is located and from the treasurer of the city wherein said court is located an annual salary of not less than 2,500 dollars and such other amounts as the city commission or other legislative body of said city or board of supervisors of said county wherein said court is located may provide, to be paid him in monthly installments, as the other officers of said city and county are paid, such salary to be paid by said city and county wherein said court is located in equal portions. He shall have power to appoint a deputy or deputies and revoke any such appointments at pleasure; the compensation of such deputy or deputies shall be fixed by the city commission or other legislative body of such city wherein said court is located, and such deputy or deputies shall be paid in the same manner as other city employes are paid. Any deputies so appointed shall have the power to perform all of the duties of said clerk, and the said clerk shall be responsible for the acts of such deputy or deputies. Said clerk may require such bond or other security from such deputy or deputies as he may deem proper. The said clerk of said courts shall file in the office of the city clerk of said city wherein said court is located, a bond approved by the city commission or other legislative body of said city, in the penal sum of 3,000 dollars, with 2 or more sufficient sureties, conditioned that he shall well and truly perform his duties as clerk of said courts and account for and pay over all moneys which shall be received by him or his deputy to the person or persons lawfully entitled to receive the same.

The city commission or other legislative body of said city shall have power to remove said clerk at any time for inefficiency or unfaithful performance of his duties, or for any official misconduct, on written charges preferred by the justices of said court or any 3 electors of said city wherein said court is located.

CLERK OF JUSTICE COURTS—OFFICE HOURS, DUTIES, ETC.

730.20 Office hours of clerk; powers and duties, fees.

Sec. 20. The office of said clerk shall be open and he or his deputy be in attendance therein from 8 o'clock in the forenoon until noon and from 1 o'clock to 5 o'clock in the afternoon on all days when court is in session. It shall be the duty of said clerk to assist said justices in the preparation of process and to keep full and complete dockets of the proceedings before each of said justices in the manner provided by law. Said clerk shall file and safely keep all books and papers belonging to said offices. The said clerk and his deputy or deputies shall, by virtue of their offices, be empowered to administer oaths, and take disclosures in garnishment and other cases. The said clerk shall receive all fees, costs, fines and dues of every description that shall become due and payable on account of proceedings in said courts before said justices, except fees for the performance of marriage ceremonies, for taking acknowledgments and for administering oaths in matters not connected with suits or proceedings pending in said justice court, and shall keep an account of the same and pay over all such fees, costs, fines, penalties, forfeitures and dues (except such as are by law required to be paid to the clerk of the circuit court for the county wherein said court is located upon the removal of causes from such justices' courts to said circuit court and such as are required by law to be paid to the county treasurer of said county) to the treasurer of the city wherein said justice courts may be located, for the benefit of said city, such payments to be made at least weekly. Said clerk shall also receive all other moneys paid into such courts for or on account of proceedings therein and shall pay over all such moneys to the person or persons lawfully entitled thereto, or to his or their duly authorized agent or attorney.

FEEES TO BE PAID CLERK OF COURT.

730.21 Fees; entry, judgment, execution, adjournment.

Sec. 21. Before any civil action or proceedings shall be commenced in any of said justice courts there shall be paid to the clerk of said court by the party commencing the same, an entry fee of 1 dollar, and before the trial of any such case or proceedings shall be commenced, there shall be paid by the same party a judgment fee of 1 dollar, but in case of non-suit before the commencement of such trial, no judgment fee shall be required. Proceedings in garnishment shall be treated as an auxiliary action and no entry fee shall be paid to the clerk of said court by the party commencing the same, but when an issue of fact shall be joined in respect to the liability of the garnishee or garnishees, in such case a judgment fee of 1 dollar shall be paid before such trial shall commence. Upon the issuing of an execution upon any judgment rendered in said court there shall be paid to the clerk of said court the sum of 50 cents, which said sum together with other costs, shall be taxed in favor of the prevailing party in the suit. For all services and proceedings subsequent to the issuing of the execution or for the purpose of staying proceedings or removing causes to an appellate court, there shall be paid to the said clerk the fees provided by law. Upon the adjournment of any cause there shall be paid to the clerk of said court the sum of 25 cents, except in cases herein provided.

730.22 Process; absence of justice; assignment of cases; docket.

Sec. 22. The process issued from said justice courts shall be signed by the justice before whom the causes in which it was issued was commenced or is pending, and said clerk shall assign said causes begun in said courts to the justices respectively, in regular rotation as nearly as practicable. If upon the return day or adjourn day of any cause the justice by whom the process was issued shall be absent at the time or is engaged in the trial of another cause pending in said court, the other justice thereof, if present, shall proceed therein as though it had been originally commenced before him. On the return day of any process before the justice of the peace before whom the cause had been assigned by the clerk, any party to said cause may have a new assignment of the same by presenting to such justice an affidavit therein made by himself, his agent or attorney, stating that the person making such affidavit has good reason to believe and does believe that said justice to whom said cause has been assigned is interested therein or is biased or prejudiced against the party in whose behalf the affidavit is made. Said justice shall thereupon transfer said cause to the other justice of said court who shall proceed therein as if the same had originally been commenced before him. In all cases where causes are transferred from 1 justice to the other, the docket entries therein shall be made in the docket of the justice by whom the original process shall have been issued. Docket entries of proceedings had before each of said justices shall be made by the clerk of said court and signed by the justice before whom such suit or proceedings were had.

730.23 Jurors; qualifications; challenges; jury fee.

Sec. 23. Juries in said justices' courts shall be composed of 6 persons, who shall be residents of the city wherein said court is located, and shall severally possess the lawful qualifications of jurors in circuit courts, and any challenges which are valid in said circuit court shall be valid and sufficient if made in the said justices' courts: Provided, however, That, but 2 peremptory challenges shall be allowed to the plaintiff and the like number to the defendant in all trials in said justices' courts. If any party demands a jury in any action in said justices' courts, he shall advance to the clerk the sum of $5.00 as a jury fee, and the same shall belong to the county wherein said court is located, and shall be turned over by the clerk to the treasurer of said county: Provided, That in all cases where the amount involved does not exceed $50.00, the jury fee shall be $3.00: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to cities having no board of jury commissioners as created by Act No. 505 of the Local Acts of 1903, said act being amended by Act No. 347 of the Local Acts of 1905.

730.24 Jurors; selection, summoning, attendance, fee.

Sec. 24. The board of jury commissioners, as created by Act No. 505 of the Local Acts of 1903, said act being amended by Act No. 347 of the Local Acts of 1905, shall annually, or whenever required by the clerk of said justices' courts, in accordance with the method prescribed by said acts, select persons who shall be residents of the city wherein said court is located, to serve as jurors for the trial of causes, matters and proceedings in said justices' courts, and shall file a list of the persons so selected with the clerk of said justices' courts. Said lists shall not be public records and all other provisions of said Act No. 505 of the Local Acts of 1903, as amended by Act No. 347 of the Local Acts of 1905, shall apply to the practice in said justices' courts wherever applicable. The number of names of said citizens to be selected by said jury commissioners on the fourth Monday in January of each year as provided by said acts shall be 250. After the filing of such list with the clerk of such justices' courts, the proceedings for selection, summoning and compelling the attendance of jurors and talesmen shall be, as far as practicable, the same as provided by law for like purposes in the circuit court for the county where said justices' court is located, except that the attendance of the sheriff shall not be required. Jurors shall be summoned for a term of 1 month, which shall be the calendar month next succeeding the drawing. Not less than 18 nor more than 32 jurors shall be drawn and summoned for a term, unless for a special reason the justices of said court or either of them shall in writing direct that a greater number be drawn and summoned. The persons so drawn shall be notified in writing of their liability to jury duty in the justices' courts for the calendar month to be specified, which notice shall be served personally if practicable upon each person so drawn by the sheriff of the county wherein said court is located, in the manner now provided by law for such service of notices to jurors, and a return in writing of the time and manner of such service shall be made and filed with the clerk of said justices' courts. Said jurors shall report for service to the clerk of said justices' courts. The actual attendance of the person so duly notified for jury service may be required and enforced according to law by the said justices or either of them in the same manner as jurors' attendance is enforced in the circuit courts. The persons so serving as jurors shall be entitled to receive from the county wherein such court is located, the sum of $4.00 each for each day's actual attendance and on and after January 1, 1960, jurors shall be entitled to receive from the county, wherein such court is located, the sum of $4.00 each for each half day's and $8.00 each for each full day's actual attendance, which sum shall be paid by the county treasurer on certificate of the clerk of said justices' courts, and in the same manner as other jurors' fees are paid by the said county. Whenever by law a judge of the circuit court is required or directed to be present at and participate in any part of the proceedings to select jurors for that court, the clerk of said justices' courts shall perform like duty in like proceedings to select jurors for said justices' courts. Cities having no board of jury commissioners as created by Act No. 505 of the Local Acts of 1903, said act being amended by Act No. 347 of the Local Acts of 1905, upon demand for trial by jury, a jury shall be summoned in the same manner as is provided by the general laws of the state for the trial of civil and criminal cases before justices of the peace; but no jury shall be demanded except upon payment by the party demanding a jury of the fees provided by law for payment of the jury and for the summoning of the jury.

FEES OF CONSTABLES AND COURT OFFICERS.

730.27 Constables, election, term, bond, duties, fees.

Sec. 27. There shall be elected biennially from the various wards of the city wherein said court is located, 2 constables from each ward. They shall hold office for the term of 2 years from the 1st Monday in May next succeeding their election and shall give bond as now required by law for the faithful performance of their duties. Constables now in office shall continue to hold office until their successors are elected and qualified. Said constables shall be nominated and elected at the charter elections in their respective cities in the same manner now provided by the charter of said city, or that may be hereafter provided by the charter of said city for the nomination and election of public officials. Said constables shall keep order in said courts under the direction of said justices. It shall be the duty of any constable authorized by the justices or justice for that purpose to summon persons drawn as jurors on any jury in said courts, to have charge of said jurors or juries. Constables shall receive $2.00 for summoning a jury and $3.00 per half day and $6.00 per day for attendance on the same to be paid by the county wherein said court is located, on the certificate of the clerk of the justices' courts in the same manner sheriffs and deputy sheriffs of said county are now paid: Provided, however, That in all cities having 1 ward, the council or legislative body of such city shall have power and it shall be their duty on the recommendation of the justices, to appoint 2 or more constables, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the council and shall be subject to the provisions of this section except as to election.

730.28 Action for work and labor, commence without payment of costs.

Sec. 28. If any person shall satisfy 1 of said justices by affidavit that he has a good and meritorious cause of action for personal work and labor against another within the jurisdiction of said court, and that he has made personal demand for payment thereof of the debtor, and that such payment has been refused, and that he is financially unable to pay the court costs, and shall also state the name and residence of the debtor, and the amount also due over and above all legal set-offs, the justice to whom the affidavit is presented, may, in his discretion, endorse on such affidavit direction to the said clerk to cause to be issued the writ in the cause returnable before the other justice, without charge for court fees, for the commencement of trial of said cause. If the plaintiff in such case recover judgment, he shall be entitled to recover his costs therein. Said courts [court] fees, however, shall be taxed in favor of the city wherein said court is located and when collected shall be paid to the treasurer of said city. If the defendant obtain judgment in said cause, the said court fees shall in like manner and for the like purpose be taxed against the plaintiff. Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent the circuit court on appeal of any such cause to require the appellant to give security in said court for costs as in other cases.

Act 269, 1933, p. 471; Eff. Oct. 17.

AN ACT to provide for a municipal court in any city having more than 1 justice of the peace paid a salary in lieu of fees, and a clerk; to prescribe the title and define the jurisdiction of and practice in such courts; to provide for a conciliation division of such courts; to define the powers and duties of the judges thereof; to authorize such courts to make and enforce rules governing the practice and procedure therein; to provide for a review of judgments rendered by such courts and the taking and filing of transcripts of such judgments; to provide for the issuance and service of process issued from such courts and the pleading and practice therein; to provide for the appointment of process server to serve process issued by such courts; and to repeal all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith. Am. 1937, p. 89, Act 68, Eff. Oct. 29.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

730.101 Municipal courts of certain cities; consolidation of courts, jurisdiction.

Sec. 1. * [In] any city having more than 1 justice of the peace paid a salary in lieu of fees, and a clerk, may by its charter provide for a court, which shall be known as the municipal court of such city, and which shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all suits and proceedings, both civil and criminal, to the same extent as was had and exercised by the justices of the peace of such city immediately prior to the consolidation of the courts of said justices of the peace pursuant to the provisions of this act, except as is herein otherwise provided. All courts heretofore created under the terms of this act shall nevertheless continue to be in full force and effect unless and until changed by law.

HISTORY: Am. 1937, p. 89, Act 68, Eff. Oct. 29;—CL 1948, 730.101.

*The word "in" is in brackets in the act signed by the governor.

NOTE: This act applies to the cities of Dearborn, Flint and Highland Park.

The catchlines following the act section numbers were incorporated as part of the act as enacted.

730.102 Judges; continuance of justices, vacancies; election.

Sec. 2. All justices of the peace whose courts are consolidated under the provisions of this act are hereby constituted judges of the municipal court of the city wherein they were severally justices of the peace immediately prior to the taking effect of this act and shall hold office for the remainder of the respective terms for which they were elected justices of the peace. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of any judge of any such court by death, resignation, removal from office or from any other cause, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the legislative body of such city. Each judge so appointed shall assume office immediately following his appointment, and shall hold the same until his successor has been elected and has qualified. Successors to any judge or judges so appointed shall be nominated and elected at the next spring election held in such city following such appointment, and such successor or successors shall hold office until the expiration of the term to which such judge or judges removed from office by death, resignation, or otherwise, was elected.

Additional judges; election; spring or general November election.

The municipal court of any city organized under the provisions of this act, which has a population of not less than 160,000 and not more than 225,000 inhabitants, shall have 4 municipal judges, unless the charter of such a city specifies a different number of judges. When additional judges are required by this act, they shall be elected at the spring election next following the effective date of this act, or at the spring election next following a federal census, the result of which would require an additional judge or judges.

The legislative body of a city subject to this act may provide for the election of the judges at general November elections or regular municipal elections for terms commencing on January 1 or July 4 after the election. In such case the terms of office of judges in office when such action is effective may be lengthened to adjust to the changed date for commencement of terms of office.

730.102a Judges; leaves of absence, judge in armed service; appointment of person to serve until termination of leave.

Sec. 2a. Whenever a leave of absence has been granted to a judge of said court because of service in the United States military, naval, marine or aviation service, or in any other service of the United States government, the legislative body of said city may appoint a duly qualified person to serve as a judge of said court until such leave of absence has terminated, or the office vacated, but not to extend beyond the expiration of the term to which such judge was originally elected or appointed. Such person so appointed shall have the same powers and duties as were had by such judge granted a leave of absence.

This section shall expire 6 months after the termination of the state of war now existing between the United States and each of the various other nations or countries of the world with which this country is now at war or with which this country may be at war prior to the cessation of the present hostilities.

730.104 Judges; term, oath of office.

Sec. 4. Each municipal judge hereafter elected under the provisions of this act shall be elected for a term of 6 years commencing on July 4 next after his election, except as otherwise provided pursuant to section 2. Each municipal judge so elected shall take and subscribe his oath of office before some officer authorized to administer oaths and file the same with the county clerk of the county in which such city is located, on or before the commencement of his term of office. Each municipal judge appointed as herein provided, or elected for a term less than 6 years, shall take, subscribe and file his oath of office as herein provided, within 10 days after notice of his appointment or election.

730.105 Judges; bonds.

Sec. 5. Each municipal judge, before he enters upon the duties of his office and within the time limited for filing his official oath, shall execute, with 1 or more sufficient sureties to be approved by the county clerk of the county, a bond in the penal sum of 1,000 dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, and file the same with the county clerk. Such bond shall be in lieu of any bond or instrument in writing now required by law to be executed by justices of the peace and filed with the county clerk, as provided by section 1026 of the Compiled Laws of Michigan of 1929.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.105.

730.106 Review of judgments; transcripts.

Sec. 6. Judgments rendered in the municipal court of any city affected by the provisions of this act, may be reviewed by appeal or certiorari within the same time and in the same manner in all respects as is provided by law for the review by appeal or certiorari of judgments rendered by justices of the peace, except as is herein otherwise provided. Transcripts of judgments rendered by the municipal court of any such city may be taken and filed in the same manner and within the same time and with like force and effect as is provided by law with respect to transcripts of judgments rendered by justices of the peace in such city: Provided, however, That transcripts of judgments issued by any such court may be signed by the clerk of the court instead of by the judge before whom such judgment was taken.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.106.

730.107 Clerk of court; qualifications, residence, term, appointment.

Sec. 7. There shall be 1 clerk of the municipal court of any city affected by the provisions of this act. He shall be an elector of and shall have resided in such city for a period of not less than 3 years immediately preceding his appointment: Provided, however, That any city affected by the provisions of this act may by its charter provide that such clerk need not be an elector of or resident of such city. His term of office shall be 2 years commencing August 1, 1933, and August first of every second year thereafter. On or before July 25, 1933, and on or before July twenty-fifth of every second year thereafter, the legislative body of any such city shall appoint such clerk on the nomination of all of the full time municipal judges of such city acting jointly. Any clerk so appointed shall serve for a period of 2 years and until his successor has been appointed and has qualified.

730.108 Clerk of court; oath and bond.

Sec. 8. Before any clerk appointed in pursuance of the provisions of this act shall enter upon the duties of his office he shall take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office before the city clerk of such city and furnish the city with a bond with such penalty as shall be fixed by the legislative body of such city, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties and for paying over and accounting for all moneys received by him as clerk, which bond after its approval shall be filed with the city clerk.

730.109 Clerk of court; deputies; removal.

Sec. 9. The clerk of any such municipal court shall have sole power to appoint 1 or more deputy clerks, and may revoke any such appointment at pleasure. Any deputy clerk of any such municipal court so appointed shall have the power to perform all of the duties of said clerk, and the said clerk shall be responsible for the acts of such deputy or deputies. Said clerk may require such bond or other security from such deputies as he may deem proper. The legislative body of such city shall have the power to remove said clerk at any time for cause on written charges preferred by any municipal judge of such city.

730.110 Clerk of court; collection and disposition of fees and fines; audit.

Sec. 10. All fees in civil causes and all fines imposed in criminal causes and all moneys paid into court for security for costs, bail, or otherwise, shall be paid to and collected by such clerk, and he shall enter the record of the same in books kept by him for that purpose, and pay the same over to the authorities of the city or county or other persons entitled to the same, as directed by the proper authorities or by law, and the legislative body of such city shall cause the books of such clerks to be audited at least once each year to ascertain that such books are correctly kept and all moneys received have been properly accounted for.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.110.

730.111 Clerk of court; powers and duties; control.

Sec. 11. Each clerk and deputy clerk shall be empowered to take complaints and administer oaths to complainants in criminal cases cognizable by a municipal judge or justice of the peace and for violations of city ordinances; to administer oaths to persons making affidavits for writs in civil causes, and for transcripts of judgment, and to issue and sign all civil process; to approve bonds in civil causes subject to the rules of the court; to take disclosures in garnishment cases, and to perform such other duties as shall be prescribed by ordinance. The clerk and all deputy clerks shall after their appointment be under the direction and control of the municipal judges of the city and subject to their orders. The clerk shall file and safely keep all files, records and dockets belonging to or appertaining to the municipal court of such city, and shall be the custodian thereof.

730.112 Clerks of court; compensation, continuation of justices' clerks in office.

Sec. 12. The said clerk and deputy clerks shall be paid such salary as shall be fixed by the legislative body of the city. The clerk or clerks, and the deputy clerk or clerks, of the courts of justices of the peace in any city affected by the provisions of this act, shall be the clerk or clerks, and the deputy clerk or clerks of the municipal court of such city until a clerk is appointed as provided by this act.

730.113 Files, records and dockets of justices.

Sec. 13. All files, records and dockets belonging to or appertaining to the office of the justices of the peace in office in any city affected by the provisions of this act, shall be filed and safely kept in the office of the clerk of the municipal court of such city, and such files, records, and dockets shall in all respects and for all purposes constitute records of the municipal court of such city.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.113.

730.114 Judges as successors to justices; powers.

Sec. 14. The judges of any such municipal court shall in all respects be considered the successors in office of the several justices of the peace whose courts are consolidated by this act, and shall have and exercise the same powers and authority in respect of all judgments rendered and matters pending before such justices of the peace as is by law conferred upon successors in office of justices of the peace in such city.

730.115 Civil proceedings; status in court; writs and process.

Sec. 15. All civil suits and proceedings instituted in any such court shall be deemed to be pending in such court and not before a particular judge thereof and shall be numbered consecutively in the order in which the same are instituted. All writs of summons and other civil writs and process issuing out of any such court shall be entitled in the municipal court of such city and may be signed by the clerk of the court.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.115.

730.116 Writs of summons, attachments and replevin; form, contents, return day.

Writs of attachment and writs of replevin shall in addition contain appropriate commands regarding the seizure or custody of property. The day mentioned in such writs as the last day upon which the defendant may enter his appearance and plead shall be not less than 6 nor more than 30 days after the date of the issuance of the writ, except as herein otherwise provided, and shall be known as the return day: Provided, however, That the judges of such court may by rule provide that the return day of such writs shall be not more than 6 months after the date of the issuance thereof, and that service of such writs may be made up to and including the return date thereof. Except as herein otherwise provided, service of such writs shall be made at least 6 days before the return day thereof. All writs of garnishment shall be returnable in not more than 6 days from the date thereof and shall be served at least 2 days before the time for appearance stated therein: Provided, however, That the judges of such court may by rule provide that service of such writs may be made up to and including the return day thereof. In case a writ of garnishment against any person for money owing a principal defendant on account of labor performed by him is issued at the time of the issuance of the original summons against such principal defendant or at or prior to the time of the issuance of an alias or pluries summons against such principal defendant the return day of such summons issued against the principal defendant shall not be more than 6 days after the date of issuance of such summons, and such summons shall be served at least 2 days before the return day mentioned therein: Provided, however, That the judges of such court may by rule provide that service of such writs may be made up to and including the return day thereof. The return day, time and method of service of process, and all proceedings in cases in summary proceedings to recover the possession of land and premises shall be governed by the general law pertaining thereto. Return or proof of service shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court at least 1 day before the last day for appearance of the defendant.

730.117 Writs of summons; alias and pluries; cases in which issued.

Sec. 17. Alias and pluries writs of summons, of attachment, of replevin, and of garnishment, may be issued by the clerk of any such court, upon the request of the plaintiff or his agent or attorney, at any time after the last day on which personal service may be made upon defendant and until the expiration of 7 days after the return day: Provided, That no alias or pluries writs shall be issued until the last writ already issued, with the return of the officer thereon is filed with the clerk of such court. In addition to the original writ not more than 5 such writs shall be issued: Provided, however, That the judges of such court may by rule provide that no alias or pluries summons or writs shall be issued except in the following cases: Writs of garnishment, the principal case started at the time of issuing a writ of garnishment for money owing a principal defendant on account of labor performed by him; summary proceedings to recover the possession of land and premises; and actions of replevin as provided in section 40 of this act, and that such alias or pluries summons or writs may be issued by the clerk of such court at the request of the plaintiff or his agent or attorney at any time after the return day and until the expiration of 7 days thereafter. Alias and pluries writs shall be returnable within the same time, service shall be made thereon in the same manner and time, and return of the officer or proof of service shall be made in the same manner and time, as is herein provided for in the case of the issuance, service and return of original writs.

730.118 Declaration and itemized statements; trial date; garnishment cases.

Sec. 18. In every civil action commenced in any such court, the plaintiff or his duly authorized agent or attorney shall, at the time of instituting such action, file with the clerk of such court a declaration, in such form and manner as shall be prescribed by rule of court and which shall include an itemized statement of the damages claimed. At the same time plaintiff or his agent or attorney shall provide a copy of such itemized statement for each defendant named in such suit, 1 of which copies shall be served on each defendant with the summons or writ issued. If such action be instituted by an attorney at law, the clerk shall make a note of the name and business address of such attorney. At the same time the clerk of such court shall fix a day for the trial of such cause, not less than 7 nor more than 15 days after the return day, except as herein otherwise provided. Where a writ of garnishment against any person for money owing a principal defendant on account of labor performed by him is issued prior to the return day of the principal summons, such case shall be set for trial upon the merits on the return day thereof and the date of trial shall not be less than 3 nor more than 7 days after such return day: Provided, however, That the judges of such court may by rule provide for the fixing of trial dates at the time of entry of appearance of the defendant, said dates to be not less than 7 nor more than 15 days after the date of such entry of appearance, except where a writ of garnishment against any person for money owing a principal defendant on account of labor performed by him is issued at the time of issuing the principal summons, such rules may provide that such principal case shall be set for trial upon the merits at the time of entry of appearance by the principal defendant not less than 3 nor more than 7 days after such entry of appearance.

730.119 Pleadings of defendant; pleading filed with court; service on plaintiff; cross claims; written disclosure in garnishment actions.

Sec. 19. In every civil action commenced in such court, except garnishment proceedings, and summary proceedings to recover the possession of land and premises, each defendant in such action shall be required, after service upon him of summons or writ and on or before the return day thereof, to file or cause to be filed in the office of the clerk of the court a pleading, in such form and manner as the judges may by rule prescribe: Provided, however, That the judges of such court may by rule provide that in every civil action commenced in such court, except garnishment proceedings and summary proceedings to recover the possession of land and premises, each defendant in such action shall be required, within 15 days after the service of summons or writ upon him, to file or cause to be filed in the office of the clerk of the court a pleading, in such form and manner as the judges may by rule prescribe. A copy of such appearance, together with a copy of all pleadings filed, shall be served on the plaintiff's attorney if plaintiff is represented by an attorney, or on the plaintiff if he is not so represented, either in person or by mail, within 4 days after filing with the clerk of the court, and at least 3 days before the trial date.

If such defendant pleads set-off or recoupment, or files a cross declaration, an itemized statement of such set-off, recoupment or cross claim shall be filed with the clerk of such court within 4 days after pleading, and at least 1 day before the trial date. A copy of such itemized statement shall be served on the plaintiff or his attorney as above provided for service of general appearance and plea.

The judges may by rule provide that in actions of garnishment the garnishee defendant shall be required to file a written disclosure in the office of the clerk of such court within 5 days after the service of the garnishment writ upon him.

730.120 Defaults; proof of claim; new date for trial.

Sec. 20. If any defendant, having been duly served with process, shall fail to plead within the time allowed, as herein required, or within such further time as the presiding judge may allow, the clerk shall forthwith enter the default of such defendant and the plaintiff may at any time until and including the date set for trial as herein provided, prove his claim before the presiding judge of such court, in an amount not exceeding that set forth in the copy of the itemized statement served upon such defendant: Provided, however, That the judges of such court may by rule provide that the plaintiff may at any time within 15 days after the last day allowed for the appearance of the defendant, prove his claim before the presiding judge as above provided. When any other defendant in such suit shall have duly pleaded, judgment may be entered against the defendant in default upon the trial of the issue as to the remaining defendants. Further time to plead shall be granted only upon motion to be heard by the presiding judge and may be granted upon such terms as the judge may deem just. If such motion is granted, the judge granting same shall thereupon fix a new date for trial not less than 7 nor more than 15 days from the last day allowed for pleading.

730.121 Process servers; bond, fees, salary, badge; service outside county.

Sec. 21. The legislative body of any city affected by the provisions of this act shall appoint, upon the nomination of the municipal judges acting jointly, a sufficient number of qualified persons to serve and execute civil process issued by the municipal court of said city not exceeding 1 for each 10,000 population or major fraction thereof, for the term of 2 years. Any duly elected constable in any such city shall be a process server under this act until the expiration of the term for which he was elected constable. Any person so appointed shall before he enters upon the duties of his office, make and file with the city clerk a bond in the sum of $2,000.00 with 1 or more sufficient sureties to be approved by the city clerk, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. Such person so appointed and no others shall have authority to serve or execute civil process issued by any such municipal court, except as herein otherwise provided, and may summon and attend juries for the trial of civil and criminal cases in said court, and in summoning and attending such juries, and in the service and execution of such civil process shall possess all the powers of a constable or deputy sheriff and shall be entitled to the same fees for similar services. The legislative body of any city may provide a salary for the process servers in addition to fees. The bond shall be paid for by the person appointed as process server. Any process server may be removed at any time by the legislative body of the city upon the request of any 1 or more of the municipal judges, or by all of the municipal judges of such city acting jointly, without the action of the legislative body. The presiding judge may appoint any disinterested person of suitable age and discretion to serve civil process not requiring the seizure of property or the body of the defendant, on the request of the plaintiff, issued by any such municipal court. Any such person shall be entitled to receive the legal fees for such services and costs therefor may be taxed. Process servers shall be authorized to wear a badge of office with the words "Authorized Process Server, Municipal Court, City of, Michigan" thereon, and the city clerk shall furnish to each process server a badge and a card signed and authenticated by the city clerk, stating that such person is authorized to serve and execute civil process issued by such municipal court, and giving the date of expiration of his term of office. Such badge shall remain the property of the city in which he was appointed and shall be surrendered to the city clerk upon his removal by death, resignation, or removal for cause. Process issued by any such municipal court may be served outside of the county in which such court is located, in the same manner and under the same circumstances as is provided by law for the service of process issued by a justice of the peace.

Sec. 23. Selection of juries. In addition to any other method of selection of a jury for the trial of a civil or criminal case in the municipal court of any city affected by the provisions of this act, a jury may be selected and drawn in any manner which may be agreed upon between the parties in open court.

730.124 Adjournments by motions and stipulations.

Sec. 24. Adjournments. All civil cases shall be tried on the date set for trial unless adjourned for cause upon motion before 1 of the judges of such court: Provided, That the parties to the cause or their attorneys may stipulate in writing for not to exceed 2 adjournments of such cause, such stipulation to be filed with the clerk of the court. No further or other adjournments shall be granted except upon motion and after cause shown under oath. The judge granting an adjournment may in his discretion require the payment by 1 party to any adverse party of all costs and losses sustained by reason of such adjournment, whether witness fees, loss of wages, or otherwise, and including a motion fee of 5 dollars if the party allowed such costs is represented by an attorney at law, as in his opinion is just, and may in his discretion require that such costs be paid forthwith as a condition of adjournment: Provided, That any case may be adjourned upon the motion of the court from day to day or from time to time if on account of other trials or business it cannot be tried on the date set.

730.125 Rule making power of judges.

Sec. 25. Rules. In any city affected by the provisions of this act, the judges of the municipal court of such city shall have the right, and it shall be their duty, to adopt rules governing the form of all summons, writs and other process issued by such court, the time and manner of filing and serving pleadings and the forms thereof, the dismissal and adjournment of causes, the entry and setting aside of defaults and default judgments, the extension of time for pleading, the method of selecting the presiding judge and the period of time he shall act as such, and all other matters of pleading, practice and procedure not inconsistent with the provisions of this act or of the law. They may by rule provide that the clerk of such court or any of his deputies, may sign dockets and executions, and may approve any bond required in any civil action.

730.125a Joint action of judges.

Sec. 25a. Wherever in the provisions of this act, joint action is required of the municipal judges in the making of court rules, nominations of process servers, appointments and recommendations in the administration of the municipal courts, such joint action shall be only by all of the full-time municipal judges or a majority thereof.

HISTORY: Add. 1959, p. 122, Act 120, Eff. Mar. 19, 1960.

730.126 Presiding judge; appointment, absence.

Sec. 26. Presiding judge, appointment of. When this act becomes effective in any city, the judges of the municipal court of such city shall designate 1 of their number to act as presiding judge for such time as may be fixed by rule. In any city which has 2 municipal judges, they shall alternate as presiding judge, for such periods of time as may be fixed by rule, and in the absence or inability of the presiding judge, the other shall act as such: Provided, however, That in any such city having 2 municipal judges, 1 of whom is an associate elected on a part-time basis, the 1 elected on a full-time basis shall be the presiding judge of said court. In any city which has more than 2 municipal judges, they shall be designated in such manner, and serve for such periods of time, as shall be fixed by rule. The presiding judge may designate some other judge of such court to act as such during his absence.

730.127 Presiding judge; powers and duties.

Sec. 27. Presiding judge, powers and duties. The presiding judge of any such municipal court shall, in addition to having and exercising all powers and duties appertaining to his office as judge of such court, have general superintendence of the civil business of the court. He shall have the power to assign and reassign for trial, or other necessary disposition, at such time and in such manner as he shall determine, to any of the judges of such court any civil suit, motion, proceeding, or matter of business instituted or pending in such court. In all civil suits and proceedings hereafter instituted or pending in any such municipal court, the presiding judge thereof or such other judge as he may designate, shall have power to hear and determine all motions made therein, to approve all bonds required by law to be approved by a justice of the peace, to enter and set aside defaults and default judgments upon such terms and conditions as he may deem just, and in general to dispose of any interlocutory and miscellaneous matter arising in any such suit. Such presiding judge shall also have such other powers and duties not inconsistent with the provisions of this act as the judges of such court may by rule provide.

730.128 Motions; filing; service of copy and notice of hearing on opposite party.

Sec. 28. Motions. The judges of such court may by rule require that all motions made in such court shall be in writing. All written motions shall be filed with the clerk of the court who shall set a date for hearing thereon before the presiding judge, or some other judge to whom the presiding judge may assign the hearing and disposition of such matters, in accordance with the rules and practice of such court. The moving party shall cause to be served upon the opposite parties or their attorneys copies of such motions and notices of hearing thereof within the time and in the manner fixed by the rules and practice of such court.

730.129 New trials in civil or criminal causes; procedure.

Sec. 29. In any city affected by the provisions of this act, the judge before whom any civil or criminal cause was tried, shall have the same power to set aside a verdict or judgment and grant a new trial thereon, upon legal cause therefor, as circuit courts of the state possess: Provided, That a motion therefor be made in writing and filed with the clerk of the court within 5 days after rendition of the verdict or judgment in said cause, setting forth plainly and briefly the reasons upon which it is made. Affidavits setting forth the facts relied upon shall be filed with said motion. A copy of such motion with the supporting affidavits shall be served upon the adverse party or his attorney at least 2 days before the hearing thereof. Such motion shall be submitted and heard within 1 week after the date of filing, and shall be determined within 2 days after it shall have been submitted and heard. The time for taking an appeal from the judgment or verdict, in case such motion be not granted, shall begin to run from the day such motion is over-ruled. In no case shall the pendency of such motion stay the issuing and levy of an execution, but in case of a levy under execution pending such motion, no sale of the property so levied upon shall be advertised or made until the final determination of such motion. If such motion be granted, any property levied upon shall be returned forthwith to the adverse party. In case of the absence of the judge before whom such case was tried, the presiding judge or any other judge designated by the presiding judge, shall have the authority to hear and determine any such motion.

730.130 Instructions to jury; requests.

Sec. 30. Instructions to jury. In any city affected by the provisions of this act, it shall be the duty of the judge presiding in all jury trials, to instruct the jury as to the law applicable to the case, which instructions shall be received by the jury as the law of such case. Either party may present written requests to charge to the judge, who shall present all of such requests to the jury as he shall deem to correctly state the law applicable to the case.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.130.

730.131 Directed verdicts.

Sec. 31. Directed verdicts. In any city affected by the provisions of this act, the judge presiding in any jury trial shall have the same power to direct a verdict for either party as is or may be possessed by judges of the circuit courts of the state.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.131.

730.132 Reserved decision; judgment notwithstanding verdict.

Sec. 32. Judgment notwithstanding verdict. In any city affected by the provisions of this act, in all civil jury trials in such municipal court, if either party shall at the close of the testimony, and before the case is submitted to the jury, request a directed verdict in his favor, the judge presiding may reserve his decision thereon, and submit the case to the jury under proper instructions as to the law applicable to such case. After the case is thus submitted to the jury, and after receiving and recording the verdict of the jury and before judgment is entered in said cause, the judge may hear arguments of counsel for and against said request, but in all cases he shall receive and record the verdict of the jury as rendered. If the judge shall then decide as a matter of law that the party requesting the directed verdict was entitled thereto, and if the verdict of the jury is adverse to the party making such request, the judge shall enter his decision and give judgment in accordance with such decision notwithstanding the verdict entered.

730.133 Judgment in case of disagreement of jury.

Sec. 33. Entering judgment after disagreement of jury. In any city affected by the provisions of this act, in all civil jury trials in which the jury disagrees and is discharged by the judge, either party may on motion and notice to the opposite party request the entry of judgment upon the evidence and proofs taken, within 7 days after the discharge of such jury, and if the judge before whom such case was tried shall decide as a matter of law that a verdict should have been directed for either party, he shall enter judgment accordingly.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.133.

730.134 Civil process; service anywhere in county.

Sec. 34. Where process may be served. In any city affected by the provisions of this act, any civil process issued out of the municipal court of such city may be served in any part of the county in which such city is located.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.134.

730.135 Original and concurrent civil jurisdiction; increase.

Sec. 35. The municipal court of any city affected by the provisions of this act shall have original jurisdiction in all civil actions wherein the debt or damages claimed does not exceed the sum of $100.00, and concurrent jurisdiction in all civil actions wherein the debt or damages claimed does not exceed the sum of $500.00, and shall have original jurisdiction in all actions of replevin wherein the value of the property involved does not exceed the sum of $100.00 and concurrent jurisdiction in all such actions wherein the value of the property involved does not exceed the sum of $500.00: Provided, however, That any city affected by the provisions of this act may by its charter provide that such court shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all civil actions wherein the debt or damages claimed does not exceed the sum of $1,000.00 and concurrent jurisdiction in all actions of replevin wherein the value of the property involved does not exceed the sum of $1,000.00.

730.137 Attachment; affidavit, bond, dissolution.

Sec. 37. Attachments. The plaintiff in an attachment case shall file the affidavit and bond required by law with the clerk of such municipal court, and the clerk may be authorized by rule of court to approve such bond and any bonds required or authorized by law in attachment cases, and to sign writs of attachment. It shall be lawful for the defendant or any other person not a party to the suit whose property has been attached by virtue of a writ of attachment, to apply to the presiding municipal judge of such city for a dissolution of such attachment, and the proceedings thereon and thereafter shall be the same as is now or may hereafter be provided by law for the dissolution of attachments in justice courts, and said judge shall have the same power to dissolve attachments as is possessed by circuit court commissioners and circuit judges.

730.138 Civil warrants; affidavit, signature, procedure.

Sec. 38. Civil warrants. The plaintiff in any case who is entitled to and desires a civil warrant shall make and file the affidavit required by law with the clerk of such municipal court, and any municipal judge of such court may sign any such civil warrant, and the procedure thereafter shall be the same as is provided by law in such cases.

730.139 Replevin; affidavit, procedure.

Sec. 39. Replevin. Except as is herein otherwise provided, the practice and procedure in replevin cases brought in any such municipal court shall be governed by the provisions of law applicable to actions of replevin brought in the circuit courts of this state: Provided, That the affidavit shall in addition to other requirements state the value of the property mentioned therein, and shall also state whether or not the defendant is an officer having possession of such property by virtue of an execution or writ of replevin.

730.140 Replevin; bond, property in possession of officer.

Sec. 40. Replevin. If the value of the property sought to be replevined does not exceed the sum of 100 dollars the presiding judge may in his discretion authorize a writ of replevin commanding the officer serving the same to take and retain possession of such property subject to the further order of the court, without the giving of any bond by plaintiff. If the defendant is an officer in possession of such property by virtue of an execution or writ of replevin, the writ issued shall command the defendant officer to retain such property in his possession pending the further order of the court, and in such case no bond need be given by plaintiff.

730.141 Replevin; storage charges.

Sec. 41. Replevin. In the cases mentioned in the preceding section, the presiding judge may from time to time order the plaintiff to deposit with the clerk of such court such sum or sums of money as may be necessary to pay storage on the property in the possession of the officer pending disposition of the case. Upon failure of plaintiff to deposit any such sum or sums within 48 hours or within such further time as may be allowed, the case may be dismissed. Any money so deposited may be paid to the person entitled thereto, upon an order issued by the presiding judge or the judge hearing the case, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to plaintiff. If the plaintiff prevails, any such storage charges necessarily incurred may be taxed in his favor, in addition to other costs.

730.142 Writs of replevin; return day.

Sec. 42. In the cases mentioned in section 40 of this act, the return day of the writ issued shall be not less than 3 nor more than 14 days after the date of issue, and shall be served at least 2 days before the return day, and the clerk shall fix the date for trial not less than 3 nor more than 7 days after the return day: Provided, however, That the judges of such court may by rule provide that the return day of such writs shall be not more than 1 month after the date of issue, and the trial day to be fixed by the clerk of the court at the time of entry of appearance by the defendant shall be not less than 3 nor more than 7 days after such appearance. The procedure thereafter shall be the same as in other replevin cases.

730.144 Matters returnable before presiding judge.

Sec. 44. All writs, summons, proceedings, or matters of any kind, which by law are made returnable before a justice of the peace and are not herein otherwise provided for, shall be returnable before the presiding judge of the municipal court of any city affected by the provisions of this act.

730.145 Conduct of trial by litigants or attorneys; contempt for violation.

Sec. 45. Individual litigants may conduct the trial of their own causes in the municipal court of any city affected by the provisions of this act, but it shall be unlawful for any one excepting an attorney and counselor at law to conduct the trial of other than their own individual suits in any such court. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of contempt of court and may be punished therefor by any judge of the municipal court or any circuit judge of the county in which such city is located, by a fine of not more than 50 dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail of such county for a period of not more than 30 days or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

730.146 Bail; recognizances and examinations in criminal cases.

Sec. 46. When a warrant has been issued by a judge of the municipal court of any city affected by the provisions of this act, for a criminal offense not cognizable by a justice of the peace, the person charged with such offense may be brought before any judge of such municipal court, who may fix the amount of bail or let such person to bail or both, and set a date for the examination as provided by law. If the person charged with such offense shall waive examination, he may fix the amount of bail or let him to bail or both, and bind him to appear before the circuit court of the county or any court having jurisdiction of said cause, for trial: Provided, That the offense is one for which a justice of the peace has power to let to bail. When a warrant has been issued by any such municipal judge for an offense against the laws of the state of Michigan cognizable by a justice of the peace, and the person charged has been arraigned and the amount of bail has been set, a recognizance for the appearance of the person charged to answer for such offense may be taken and entered into by any clerk or deputy clerk of such court.

730.149 Appearances by attorneys; parties and agents.

Sec. 49. No party shall be represented by an attorney, and parties shall in all cases appear in person, excepting where a corporation is a party in which case such corporation may appear by personal representative and excepting also that any person who has written authority to settle or compromise the controversy may appear as agent for such party to effect settlement, in which case such written authority shall be filed with the conciliator.

730.150 Defaults; hearings, adjournments.

Sec. 50. If the defendant consents, the hearing may be had within 3 days. If the defendant does not appear at the date and time set, no judgment shall be taken unless service was had upon him by summons, and the case may be adjourned and summons issued and served as above provided. If the defendant has been served with summons as herein provided, and does not appear at the date and time set, the clerk shall forthwith enter his default, and the plaintiff may at any time within 5 days thereafter prove his claim before the presiding judge of such court. Hearings shall be informal and may be private. The person acting as conciliator may suspend rules of evidence and may dispense with the swearing of witnesses. There shall be no adjournments without the consent of both parties, or unless in the opinion of the conciliator an adjournment is necessary to prevent a miscarriage of justice.

730.151 Judgments and settlements.

Sec. 51. Any judgment rendered in such conciliation division may provide for its satisfaction by payment to the clerk of the court of either a lump sum or installments in such amounts and at such times as the conciliator may deem just and reasonable under the circumstances. The parties may at the hearing make a settlement upon such terms as they may agree upon, in which case it shall be reduced to writing and signed by the parties, and such settlement shall in all respects be considered as a judgment rendered by such conciliator. The conciliator hearing the case or in his absence the presiding municipal judge, may for good cause shown alter the amount of installments and times of payments of any such judgment, or may order any such installments payable forthwith, and authorize execution or garnishment to issue thereon, but no execution or garnishment shall be issued on any judgment rendered in the conciliation division of any such municipal court unless authorized as provided.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.151.

730.152 Demand and fees for jury trial; transfer of cases to regular division.

Sec. 52. Any plaintiff having a claim within the jurisdiction of the conciliation division of any such court and desiring a jury trial, shall at the time suit is instituted, make such demand and pay forthwith to the clerk of the court the legal jury fees for 1 day's attendance and the legal officers' fees for 1 day's attendance. If the defendant wishes a jury trial he shall make the demand and pay to the clerk of the court the fees above mentioned, before proceeding to a hearing or before any adjournment. Unless such demand is made and the fees paid in the time and manner above set forth, the right to a jury trial shall be deemed to have been waived. If the above conditions are complied with by plaintiff the case shall be commenced in the regular divisions, and if complied with by defendant it shall be transferred to the regular division, and the procedure thereafter shall be the same as in cases not within the jurisdiction of the conciliation division, except as otherwise provided herein. Any case which in the opinion of the conciliator should be transferred to the regular division may be so transferred and the procedure thereafter shall be the same as in cases commenced in the regular division, except as otherwise provided herein.

730.153 Dockets.

Sec. 53. The clerk of any such municipal court shall keep a separate docket for cases commenced in the conciliation division, and cases shall be numbered consecutively. When a case is transferred to the regular division it shall be redocketed in the docket of such division.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.153.

730.154 Summons; form, contents and service of summons.

Sec. 54. Summons issued in causes commenced in the conciliation division of any such court may be in substantially the following form:

AN ACT to provide for clerks for justice courts in cities of over 25,000 and under 100,000 inhabitants, where the justices of the peace are paid a salary.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

730.201 Clerks for justice courts in certain cities; appointment.

Sec. 1. In any city of this state of over 25,000 and under 100,000 inhabitants, where the justices of the peace are paid a salary the legislative body thereof may provide a clerk for each of the justices of the peace therein. Such clerks shall be appointed by the legislative body of the city, on the nomination of all of the justices of the peace of the city acting jointly, and after their appointment they shall be under the control and direction of said justices of the peace and subject to their orders.

730.202 Clerks; oath, bond, salary.

Sec. 2. Before any clerk appointed in pursuance of the provisions of the preceding section shall enter upon the duties of his office, he shall take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office and furnish to the city a bond with such penalty as shall be fixed by the legislative body of that city, with sufficient sureties to be approved by such legislative body, conditioned on the faithful performance of his duties and for the paying over and accounting for all moneys received by him as such clerk, which bond after its approval shall be filed with the city clerk. Each clerk so appointed shall receive such salary as shall be fixed by the legislative body appointing him.

Act 288, 1929, p. 748; Eff. Aug. 28.

AN ACT to provide for terms for the trial of jury cases in justice courts in cities; to provide for the selection of jurors to try such cases; and to provide for the rights, powers and duties of justices of the peace in such cases.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

730.251 Terms for trial of jury cases; adoption of law.

Sec. 1. Any city may by charter or ordinance establish terms for the trial of jury cases in the justice court of such city, and may provide that jury cases may be set for trial upon 1 or more certain days of each month or as soon thereafter as such trial can be reached. Any city so providing for terms for the trial of jury cases and having a justice court clerk who acts as clerk for all of the justices of the peace in such city, may by an ordinance passed by a 3/4 vote of the legislative body of said city, adopt the provisions of this act as the method of the selection of jurors for the trial of jury cases. In such ordinance it shall not be necessary to embody the terms of this act but the same may be adopted by reference only. After this act has once been adopted, such adoption may be rescinded by an ordinance passed by a 3/4 vote of the legislative body of such city.

730.252 Board of jury commissioners; members.

Sec. 2. A board of jury commissioners is hereby created for each city adopting the provisions hereof, which shall consist of the city treasurer, the city clerk and the city assessor, or if more than 1 city assessor then such one as shall be designated by a majority of the assessors.

730.253 Jury lists; duty of commissioners; qualification and term of jurors.

Sec. 3. The said board shall within 15 days after the adoption of this act in any city and during the month of November of every year thereafter, make and file with the clerk of the justice court a list of persons to serve for the succeeding calendar year as justice court jurors equal to 1 for each 200 inhabitants of the city, computed according to the last preceding census: Provided, That in no case shall it be necessary to file a list of more than 400 electors. If the names on such list shall be exhausted prior to the end of such calendar year, the justices of the peace shall order said board to make and file an additional list of persons to serve as jurors for the remainder of such year and it shall be the duty of said board to make and file such list. All persons selected for jury service by said board shall be qualified electors of the city and shall be drawn from the city at large and shall not be required to serve in any 1 year for a period of more than 1 jury term.

730.254 Jury lists; qualifications of persons chosen.

Sec. 4. The said board in making such selection shall file the names of such only as are not exempt from serving on juries, who are in possession of their natural faculties, not infirm or decrepit, of good character, of approved integrity, of sound judgment, and well informed and conversant with the English language, and free from all legal exceptions, and who have not made, and in whose behalf there has not been made to the members of said board, any application to be selected and returned as jurors.

730.255 Jury lists; persons not to be chosen.

Sec. 5. In making such selection said board shall avoid, as far as practicable, selecting any of the persons who were actually drawn and who served as jurors on any regular justice court panel during the preceding year.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 16501;—CL 1948, 730.255.

730.256 Jury lists; duplicates, filing; duty of clerk of justice court.

Sec. 6. Such list of jurors shall be made in duplicate and 1 copy filed in the office of the city clerk and the other copy filed in the office of the clerk of the justice court.

Upon receiving and filing such list, the clerk of the justice court shall write down the names contained therein on separate pieces of paper, of the same size and appearance as nearly as may be, and shall fold up each of said pieces of paper so as to conceal the names thereon.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 16502;—CL 1948, 730.256.

730.257 Jurors; term of service.

Sec. 7. The persons whose names shall be returned as jurors shall serve as jurors for 1 year and until other lists shall be returned and filed.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 16503;—CL 1948, 730.257.

730.258 Drawing of jurors; time, number.

Sec. 8. At least 10 days and not more than 20 days before the holding of any term for the trial of jury cases in the justice court in any such city, the clerk of the justice court shall draw the names of 10 persons and any additional number that may be ordered by the justices of the peace of the city. Additional jurors may be drawn from time to time to fill vacancies in the jury panel for any term of court upon the order of the justices of the peace.

730.259 Drawing of jurors; justice and chief of police to be present; adjournment.

Sec. 9. Such drawing shall be made in the presence of at least 1 of the justices of the peace and the chief of police, or in the event of his absence or inability to attend, then in the presence of the officer at the time being in command of the police department of the city. The clerk of the justice court shall notify the justices of the peace of said city and the chief of police, personally or by registered mail, of the time and place of making such drawing by depositing such notice in the United States mails at least 3 days prior to such drawing, enclosed in an envelope addressed to such persons at their respective addresses. If the persons required to be present at such drawing do not appear the clerk of the justice court may adjourn such drawing from time to time. It is hereby made the duty of the justices of the peace and the chief of police, or in his absence or inability, the commanding officer of the police department, to attend such drawing.

730.260 Drawing of jurors; procedure, record.

Sec. 10. The clerk of the justice court shall conduct such drawing as follows:

(a) He shall place in a box prepared for that purpose all of the names contained in the list of jurors returned by the board of jury commissioners, except the names of those persons who have been previously drawn on a jury panel during the current year, each name appearing upon a separate slip of paper as above provided. He shall then shake the box so as to mix the slips of paper upon which names were written, as much as possible.

(b) He shall publicly draw out of such box 1 slip of paper and hand the same to 1 of the attending justices of the peace, whose duty it shall be to keep a minute of the names drawn. When such justice shall have made a minute of the names so drawn, the clerk of the justice court shall proceed in the same manner to draw other names from said box until the required number of jurors has been selected.

(c) A minute of the drawing shall be kept by such attending justice of the peace in which shall be entered the name contained on every slip of paper so drawn before any other slip shall be drawn.

(d) If after drawing the required number of justice court jurors, the name of any person shall appear to have been drawn who is dead, insane, or who has permanently removed from the city, to the knowledge of the clerk of the justice court or any other attending officer, an entry of such fact shall be made in the minutes of the drawing and the slip of paper containing such name shall be destroyed. Another name shall then be drawn from the box in the manner above provided and entered in the minutes of the drawing. The same proceeding shall be had as often as may be necessary until the whole number of jurors required shall have been drawn.

(e) The minutes of the drawing shall then be signed by the clerk of the justice court and the attending justice of the peace and filed in the office of the clerk of the justice court.

730.261 Venire delivered to constable; notice to jurors, return.

Sec. 11. The clerk of the justice court shall deliver to 1 of the constables, or in their absence, to a deputy sheriff, a venire containing the names and places of residence of the several jurors and specify for what term of court said jurors were drawn. The constable or deputy sheriff to whom such venire shall have been delivered, shall serve a personal notice upon each of the persons whose names are contained in such venire by making out a written notice to each such person and enclosing the same in a sealed envelope addressed to such person at his last known place of residence, which written notice enclosed in said envelope and addressed to the person summoned, shall be sent to his last known place of residence by registered mail at least 5 days before the first day of the term of court for which he is to serve, with a demand in writing on said envelope for a return registry receipt. Said constable or deputy sheriff shall make and file a return with the clerk of the justice court at the opening of the term for which said jurors have been summoned, specifying to whom said notice has been sent and attaching to his said return the returned registry receipts demanded and received from the persons so summoned.

730.262 Exemptions and excuses from jury service.

Sec. 12. All persons who are exempt from service on juries in the circuit courts of this state shall be exempt from service on juries in justice courts of cities adopting this act. Likewise all persons who are entitled to be excused from service on juries in circuit courts in this state shall be entitled to be excused from service as jurors in justice courts in cities adopting this act. In such cases the same proceedings shall be taken as in circuit courts.

EXEMPTIONS AND EXCUSES: See Compilers' §§ 600.1218 and 600.1219.

730.263 Compensation of jurors and constables.

Sec. 13. Each justice court juror shall be entitled to receive $6.00 for each day's attendance, and $3.00 for each half day's attendance upon any term of justice court, to be paid out of the city treasury of the city on the certificate or order of the clerk of the justice court: Provided, There shall be deducted therefrom the amount of any certificate issued to such juror on account of services performed as a juror in a case brought for a violation of the criminal laws of the state. The constable, or deputy sheriff, summoning said jurors, shall be entitled to receive the sum of 50 cents for each summons so served, and the constable shall be entitled to $4.00 per day for each day's attendance and $2.00 for each half day's attendance upon the jury at any such jury term, to be paid out of the city treasury on the certificate or order of the clerk of the justice court. Any city may by ordinance increase the compensation of jurors and constables to a sum not exceeding $6.00 for each day's attendance and $3.00 for each half day's attendance.

730.264 Demand for jury trial.

Sec. 14. When any cause shall become at issue, any party thereto shall be entitled to a jury trial by filing with the justice of the peace a demand for a jury, and in case said cause be a civil action, by depositing with the clerk of the justice court the sum of 12 dollars, which sum shall be taxed as costs if the party depositing the same shall prevail on the trial of said cause; and said sum will be returned to the person depositing the same if said cause shall be disposed of without a trial thereof by a jury.

730.265 Trial of jury cases; discharge of jurors.

Sec. 15. At each jury term all jury cases set for trial at said term shall be tried in the order in which they become at issue unless for good cause shown a continuance shall be granted until the next term of court or until a subsequent date during the same term. The jurors impaneled for such term shall be discharged from further attendance as jurors when all cases ready for trial shall have been disposed of, and all cases not ready for trial shall stand adjourned until the next succeeding jury term of court unless otherwise disposed of.

730.266 Justice may order jury impaneled.

Sec. 16. Nothing in this act contained shall prevent any justice of the peace, when no jury is in attendance, in his discretion and in order to avoid hardship, from delay, from ordering a jury impaneled in accordance with the method provided by law to secure a jury in trials before justices of the peace in townships.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 16512;—CL 1948, 730.266.

JURY: Order for impaneling in townships, see Compilers' § 800.7025 et seq.

730.267 Drawing of jury; challenges.

Sec. 17. As the cases shall be called for trial during each jury term, each jury shall consist of 6 persons and shall be drawn from the list of jurors impaneled for the term in the manner provided by the general laws of the state for drawing juries in the circuit court, as near as may be, and no person so drawn shall be excused from serving except for causes recognized in the trial of cases in the circuit court; except that the plaintiff and defendant in each civil action may respectively challenge peremptorily not more than 2 jurors, and in each criminal action and action for violation of ordinances, the attorney representing the people may challenge peremptorily not more than 2 jurors and the defendant may challenge peremptorily not more than 4 jurors. No jurors shall be disqualified by reason of having sat as juror on any number of cases during any 1 term for the trial of jury cases.

730.268 Failure to attend as juror; penalty.

Sec. 18. Any person who shall fail to attend and continue in attendance at the justice court room in the city as a juror for the term for which he shall have been selected and duly summoned, as herein provided, without the consent of the justice presiding on that particular day or that particular term, shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding 100 dollars, or by imprisonment in the Detroit house of correction or in the county jail of the county for a period not exceeding 90 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court trying the offender.

730.269 Presiding justice.

Sec. 19. If in any city adopting this act there is more than 1 justice of the peace, such city may by charter or ordinance provide for the selection of a presiding justice by the justices of the peace of such city, and in such case the action of the presiding justice as to any matter herein required shall be deemed the action of the justices of the peace of such city.

730.270 Instructions to jury.

Sec. 20. It shall be the duty of said justices to instruct the jury in all cases as to the law applicable to the case, which instruction shall be received by the jury as the law of such case. Either party may present written requests to charge to the justice, who shall present the same to the jury as requested if he shall deem the same to correctly state the law applicable to such case.

Act 41, 1947, p. 48; Imd. Eff. Apr. 16.

AN ACT to authorize justices of the peace and municipal judges to act in the place of and for justices of the peace or other judicial officers having the jurisdiction of justices of the peace, in cities, under certain conditions; and to authorize cities to fix by ordinance the compensation to be paid such justices, and the procedure to be followed in authorizing them to act in such cities and in paying them for services.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

730.301 Justice of the peace or municipal judge; absence, disability or disqualification; substitute.

Sec. 1. In case of the absence, disability, or disqualification of any justice of the peace, municipal judge, or other judicial officer having the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, in a city, or having jurisdiction to hear and determine violations of the ordinances of such city, or both, any other justice of the peace or municipal judge of the county in which such city is located shall be qualified to act in the place of and for such judicial officer in the performance of any of the duties imposed upon him by law in all matters civil and criminal and in all matters pertaining to violations of the ordinances of such city, under the conditions and in the manner hereinafter set forth; and shall, when called upon in the manner and under the conditions hereinafter set forth, so act.

730.302 Compensation; city ordinance.

Sec. 2. Any city may by ordinance fix the compensation to be paid justices for such services, the procedure to be followed in calling upon them so to act and the time and manner of payment of compensation, and, unless a city shall so provide by ordinance and shall authorize a justice to act in accordance with the provisions of such ordinance, no such justice shall so act or be entitled to compensation therefor.

Act 109, 1947, p. 146; Eff. Oct. 11.

AN ACT to grant to any city having a justice or municipal court, or any court in which the justice or judge, or justices or judges, as the case may be, have jurisdiction equal to or greater than that of justices of the peace, or have jurisdiction to hear and determine violations of the ordinances of the city, or both, and in which the justices or judges are paid a salary in lieu of fees, the power to provide by charter or by ordinance for the election of 1 or more associate justices or associate judges of such court; to determine the compensation to be paid such associate justices or judges, the time they shall be required to devote to the duties of the office, and the procedure to be followed in calling upon them to serve.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

730.321 Associate municipal judge or justice; charter or ordinance.

Sec. 1. Any city having a justice or municipal court, or any court in which the justice or judge, or justices or judges, as the case may be, have jurisdiction equal to or greater than that of justices of the peace, or have jurisdiction to hear and determine violations of the ordinances of the city, or both, and in which the justices or judges are paid a salary in lieu of fees, may, by charter or by ordinance provide for the election of 1 or more associate justices or associate judges of such court.

730.323 Associate and judge; definitions.

Sec. 3. When used in this act the word "associate" shall be construed to mean "associate justice" or "associate judge," as the case may be; when the word "judge" is used it shall be construed to mean a full time justice or judge; and the singular shall include the plural, and vice versa.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.323.

730.324 Associate judge; qualifications, term, jurisdiction, oath, bond.

Sec. 4. An associate shall possess all the qualifications of, and shall be elected in the same manner, for the same term, and shall have the same jurisdiction and powers as a judge in such city; and shall take the same oath of office and file the same bond or bonds.

730.325 Associate judge; election.

Sec. 5. In any city having 1 judge, or having more than 1 judge all of whom are elected at the same time, associates shall be elected at the same time as the judge or judges. In any city having more than 1 judge not all of whom are elected at 1 time, associates shall first be elected at the first general election held in such city more than 60 days after the election at which the charter was amended or an ordinance was adopted to provide for the election of an associate or associates.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.325.

730.326 Associate judge; compensation.

Sec. 6. The compensation of associate judges, the time and manner of payment of same, the funds from which same shall be paid and the time or times they shall be required to devote to the duties of the office, may be determined either by charter or ordinance.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.326.

730.327 Associate judge; appointment, vacancies.

Sec. 7. The legislative body of any city whose charter is amended to provide for the election of 1 or more associate judges as provided for in this act or which shall by ordinance provide therefor shall appoint an associate judge or judges to serve until such are elected. Vacancies in the office caused by death, resignation or otherwise shall be filled by appointment by the legislative body of such city, and the appointee shall serve until the next general election, held not less than 60 days after the vacancy occurs, when a successor shall be elected to serve the remainder of the unexpired term.

Act 103, 1947, p. 136; Eff. Oct. 11.

AN ACT to authorize the commission or governing bodies of certain cities to change the name of justice court to municipal court; and to prescribe the powers, duties and functions of such courts.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

730.351 Justice courts in certain cities; change of name to municipal court; resolution of governing body; laws not affected.

Sec. 1. In all cities of not less than 80,000 population, as determined by the last census or by any federal census hereafter taken, whose justice courts are not provided for in their present charter, except a provision for the election of said officials, the city commission or governing body of said city may by majority vote of said commission or governing body change the name of their present justice court to municipal court. Said change when so made shall in no way affect or change the present laws and statutes of the state, especially Act No. 229 of the Public Acts of 1911 and Act No. 322 of the Public Acts of 1939, except that after said change has been made the word "municipal" shall replace "justice" with full force and effect and with like intent whenever or wherever said word "justice" appears in said acts of general or special laws of the state or municipal charter of said city with reference to justice courts or justices of the peace.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.351.

COMPILERS' NOTE: The reference to Act No. 229 of the Public Acts of 1911 should have been to Act No. 299 of the Public Acts of 1911, being Compilers' 730.1 et seq.

730.352 Resolution; adoption, filing.

Sec. 2. Said resolution when passed shall be filed with the clerk of said city who, within 10 days of said filing, shall file a certified copy of said resolution with the clerk of the justice court now functioning or operating in said city.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 730.352.

730.353 Duties of clerk; notice, publication; name of court judges; entitling writs and process; pending litigation.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the clerk of said justice court to set a date for the court to start using the new designation "municipal" not more than 90 days from the date said notice is so received and said clerk shall give public notice of said changes and the date thereof. Said notice shall be given by public notice printed in some newspaper of general circulation in said city. After said date said court shall be designated and known as the municipal court of the city passing such resolution. The judges of said court shall bear the title and be known as municipal judges of said court, and all process, writs and other papers and documents shall be entitled in said municipal court to the same effect and purpose as though the title or term justice were in continued use. Nothing contained herein shall in any way affect pending litigation, past records or dockets, except future process, executions, writs and documents necessary to the proper functioning of said court shall be in the new name of the court, viz. the municipal court of the city adopting said resolution.

730.354 Justice of the peace; change of name, resolution.

Sec. 4. In all cities whose charter provides for the election of justice or justices of the peace for said city, said resolution shall provide for the change of name from justice or justices to municipal and they shall henceforth be so designated on all ballots and matter pertaining to their election and qualification for that office.

Act 179, 1951, p. 226; Eff. Sep. 28.

AN ACT to provide an optional method of drawing juries in justice courts or in any court having the civil and criminal jurisdiction of a justice court, in civil and criminal cases, in cities, and in which a court clerk is provided for by law.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

730.401 Juries in justice courts; impaneling and drawing.

Sec. 1. Juries in civil and criminal cases in justice courts or in any court having the civil and criminal jurisdiction of justices of the peace, in cities, and having a clerk, may be impaneled and drawn in the manner prescribed in this act.

730.402 Juries; duties of city clerk and assessing officer.

Sec. 2. The city clerk and city assessor or other assessing officer shall, on or before October first of each year, prepare a list in duplicate of the names and addresses of not less than 1 resident of the county for each 1,000 inhabitants of such county, according to the last federal census taken previous to the preparation of any such list, and in no case shall less than 100 names be placed on such list. The above named officials shall then sign each copy and shall certify thereon that every person whose name and address appears thereon is to the best of his knowledge legally qualified and that such list is a true list of the names and addresses of the persons selected. The said officials shall then, on or before October first, file 1 copy with the city clerk and 1 copy with the clerk of the court; and juries may be drawn during the ensuing calendar year from the said list in the manner and under the conditions hereinafter set forth.

730.403 Juries; additional list of names and addresses, disposition.

Sec. 3. At any time the judge or justice, or judges or justices, as the case may be, shall so request of the city clerk in writing, the aforesaid officials shall prepare and file an additional list of names and addresses of persons having the qualifications prescribed by this act, within such time and containing the number of names specified in such request; and the names of persons listed therein shall be placed by the clerk of the court in the box hereinafter provided for in receptacles as herein provided for, and with the names already in such box, used in the drawing of juries during the balance of the calendar year.

730.404 Juries; qualifications; persons over 70 years of age.

Sec. 4. The officials preparing jury lists shall select only residents of and qualified and registered electors of the county in which such city is situated; and in making such selection they shall take the names of such only as are not exempt from serving on juries, by the provisions of this act, who are in possession of their natural faculties, and are not infirm or decrepit, of good character, of approved integrity, of sound judgment, and well informed in and conversant with the English language, and free from all legal exceptions: Provided, That the name of any person more than 70 years of age who is otherwise eligible may be placed on a list, but such a person if drawn as a juror shall be excused upon his request, and the fact that such person is more than 70 years of age shall not be ground for challenge for cause.

730.405 Juries; exemption from serving.

Sec. 5. Any person shall be exempt from serving on a jury drawn in accordance with the provisions of this act if such person is exempt from serving on juries in the circuit courts of the state, except as is otherwise provided by this act.

HISTORY: New 1951, p. 227, Act 179, Eff. Sep. 28.

730.406 Juries; reasons for exemption.

Sec. 6. Any person shall be entitled to be excused from serving on a jury drawn in accordance with the provisions of this act for the same reasons he would be entitled to be excused from serving as a juror in the circuit courts of the state, except as is herein otherwise provided.

HISTORY: New 1951, p. 227, Act 179, Eff. Sep. 28.

730.407 Juries; slips, receptacles; custody.

Sec. 7. The clerk of the court shall write the name and address of each person named on any list, on a separate slip of paper, together with such other information as may aid in communicating with such person. Each slip shall then be placed in a separate receptacle so designed as to conceal the information contained on the slip, and all the receptacles containing the slips shall then be placed in a box to be kept for that purpose, which shall be kept locked when not being used to draw a jury. The clerk of the court shall be the custodian of the slips, receptacles, box, lock, and key.

730.408 Juries; drawing, method; compelling appearance.

Sec. 8. When a jury is to be drawn, the clerk of the court shall bring said box into open court, and draw therefrom such names, one at a time, as may be needed to impanel the jury, and the parties or their attorneys may be present. Any person whose name is drawn may be compelled to appear by subpoena, or the justice or judge may in his discretion communicate with such person by telephone or in any other manner, or cause such person to be so communicated with. If in the discretion of the judge or justice before whom such trial is held, any person whose name is drawn cannot be reached or brought into court with sufficient promptness or within a reasonable time, he may order such name passed and another drawn: Provided, however, That no person shall be adjudged guilty of contempt of court for failure or refusal to appear as a juror under the provisions of this act unless he has been duly served with a subpoena to appear signed by the judge or justice.

730.409 Juries; slips, replacing.

Sec. 9. All slips drawn shall be replaced in the receptacle and returned to the box, after the drawing of a jury has been completed, whether or not any or all of the persons named on said slips served on such jury, and used with the names already in the box in the drawing of subsequent juries.

HISTORY: New 1951, p. 227, Act 179, Eff. Sep. 28.

730.410 Juries; alphabetical list kept.

Sec. 10. The clerk of the court shall keep an alphabetical list of the names and addresses of all persons who have served on juries drawn under this act, together with the date such persons served, and whether a civil or criminal trial; if a criminal trial the name of the respondent; if a civil trial the file number and the names of plaintiff and defendant.

HISTORY: New 1951, p. 228, Act 179, Eff. Sep. 28.

730.411 Deputy clerk; authority.

Sec. 11. Any deputy clerk of any court affected by the provisions of this act is hereby authorized to perform all duties and is granted all powers, so far as the duties imposed and powers granted by this act are concerned, which the clerk is herein authorized and enjoined to perform.

HISTORY: New 1951, p. 228, Act 179, Eff. Sep. 28.

730.412 Number of jurors.

Sec. 12. Juries in all cases drawn in accordance with the provisions of this act shall consist of 6 persons, or less if agreed to by both parties.

HISTORY: New 1951, p. 228, Act 179, Eff. Sep. 28.

730.413 Charge of jury.

Sec. 13. Any deputy sheriff of the county or police officer of the city in which a court drawing a jury by virtue of the provisions of this act is situated, or any duly authorized process server of such court, may be authorized by the justice or judge conducting the trial to have charge of the jury. Before entering upon such duty, the justice or judge shall administer to such officer the same oath that a person having charge of a jury in a jury trial in justice court in this state is or may by law be required to take.

730.414 Excusing from service; challenge.

Sec. 14. No person shall be required to serve as a juror more than twice within 1 year. Any person who has served in said court as a juror 4 or more times within a year shall be excused by the court upon his request, and may be challenged for cause by any party to a cause.

HISTORY: New 1951, p. 228, Act 179, Eff. Sep. 28.

730.415 Challenging; time.

Sec. 15. Any person drawn as a juror by virtue of the provisions of this act may be challenged either at the time of drawing or at the time of trial for cause for the same reasons he could be challenged for cause if drawn as a juror on a jury drawn in accordance with the statutes providing for jury trials in justice courts in townships, in addition to the grounds for challenge for cause provided for in this act, unless inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

HISTORY: New 1951, p. 228, Act 179, Eff. Sep. 28.

730.416 Peremptory challenges.

Sec. 16. In a criminal trial the people and the respondent shall each be entitled to 4 peremptory challenges and no more. In a civil trial the plaintiff and the defendant shall each be entitled to 2 peremptory challenges and no more.

HISTORY: New 1951, p. 228, Act 179, Eff. Sep. 28.

730.417 Laws governing.

Sec. 17. The provisions of existing laws relative to civil and criminal juries and jury trials in justice courts in townships shall govern in jury trials in which the jury is drawn in accordance with the provisions of this act, unless contrary to the provisions of this act or to the provisions of other laws or charter provisions to which such court is subject: Provided, That the only qualifications necessary to being placed on a jury list and serving as a juror are those stated in section 4 of this act.

730.418 Optional method of drawing juries.

Sec. 18. This act shall not be construed to repeal the provisions of any other law in effect in a particular city providing a method of drawing juries, but the justice or judge conducting a trial may in any case order a jury drawn according to the provisions of this act or in any other way permitted by law, and this act shall be an optional method of drawing juries.

730.419 List filed before act effective.

Sec. 19. This act shall not go into effect in any city to which it applies unless the judge or judges, or justice or justices, notify the city clerk and city assessor or assessing officer in writing to prepare and file lists of names as is provided for herein. The first list shall be filed as soon as it is prepared and may be used to draw juries at the expiration of 2 months from the date of filing and until the first regular annual list provided for herein goes into effect.

Act 5, 1956, p. 6; Eff. Aug. 11.

AN ACT to establish and promote a uniform system of municipal courts in cities; to consolidate justice courts in cities into a system of municipal courts; to change the name of existing justice courts and justices of the peace in cities to municipal courts and municipal judges; to promote uniformity in practice and procedure in such courts; to prescribe the powers, duties and functions of such courts; and to provide for substitute municipal judges in cities in cases of death, absence, disability or removal of the regularly elected or appointed municipal judges and in cases where temporary judicial assistance is needed in such courts. Am. 1957, p. 210, Act 179, Eff. Sep. 27.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

730.501 Municipal courts; salaried judges, designation.

Sec. 1. (1) In any city in this state now or hereafter having a population of 15,000 or more, according to the latest or each succeeding federal decennial census, having a justice court with 1 or more justices of the peace who are paid a salary in lieu of fees, whether said justices and justice courts are provided for by city charters or by any statutes of this state, such courts shall hereafter be designated as municipal courts and the justices thereof as municipal judges; said change shall in no way affect or change the present laws and statutes of this state, except that the word "municipal" shall replace "justice" with full force and effect and with like intent whenever and wherever the said word "justice" appears in said acts or general or special laws of the state or the municipal charter of any such city with reference to justice courts or justices of the peace.

Adoption of act by ordinance.

(2) Any city having a population of less than 15,000 and a justice of the peace who is paid a salary in lieu of fees and required to be an attorney may adopt by ordinance the provisions of this act and such court shall be deemed a municipal court under this act for all purposes while said ordinance is in effect.

Adoption of act by charter provision.

(3) Any city may provide in its charter, whether in the first instance or by amendment or revision, for a municipal court under the provisions of this act. If any city provides in its charter for a municipal court to come into being at the end of the term or terms of its incumbent justices of the peace, it shall provide that each municipal judge, including the first incumbent, shall be an attorney at law as required in section 8 of this act.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 6, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11;—Am. 1957, p. 211, Act 179, Eff. Sep. 27;—Am. 1959, p. 310, Act 209, Imd. Eff. Jul. 30.

730.501a Uniform municipal court act; definitions.

Sec. 1a. The term "municipal court" or "municipal judge" whenever used in this act shall be deemed to include all municipal courts and judges heretofore or hereafter established or authorized under the provisions of Act No. 279 of the Public Acts of 1909, as amended, being sections 117.1 to 117.38 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, and Act No. 269 of the Public Acts of 1933, as amended, being sections 730.101 to 730.159 of the Compiled Laws of 1948; and all of the provisions of this act shall be deemed to apply to such courts, in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions of the statutes and charters under which such courts have been or may hereafter be organized.

730.502 Name of court; title of judges, entitlement of papers.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the clerk or judge of each of said justice courts to start using the new designation "municipal court" and "municipal judge" upon the effective date of this act, and said clerk or judge shall give public notice of said changes by public notice printed in some newspaper of general circulation in said city at least 10 days prior to the effective date hereof. Said court shall hereafter be designated and known as the municipal court of said city, and the judge or judges thereof shall bear the title and be designated as municipal judges of said court; and all process, writs and other papers and documents shall be entitled in said municipal court to the same effect and purpose as though the title or term "justice" were in continued use. Nothing herein contained shall in any way affect pending litigation, past records or dockets, except future process, executions and documents necessary to the proper functioning of said court shall be in the name of the municipal court of said city.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 6, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.503 Candidates; designation; incumbency designation.

Sec. 3. In all cities affected by this act, candidates for election to such courts shall henceforth be designated as candidates for the office of municipal judge. An incumbent who is a candidate, upon his request in writing, may have printed below his name on the ballot the designation "municipal judge".

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 7, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11;—Am. 1959, p. 310, Act 209, Imd. Eff. Jul. 30.

730.504 Incumbent judges or justices; nonapplication of act.

Sec. 4. This act shall in no way affect the term of office of any municipal judge or justice of the peace now holding office under the provisions of any city charter or any of the statutes of this state.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 7, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.505 Incumbent judges or justices; continuation, vacancies.

Sec. 5. All justices of the peace whose courts are affected by this act are hereby constituted judges of the municipal court of the city wherein they were severally justices of the peace immediately prior to the taking effect of this act and shall hold office for the remainder of the respective terms for which they were elected justices of the peace. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of any judge of such court by death, resignation, removal from office or from any other cause, such vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as heretofore under the provisions of the respective city charters or the general laws of this state.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 7, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.506 Substitute judges; assistance of other judges.

Sec. 6. In case of the absence, disability or disqualification of any municipal judge in any court affected by this act, or in any other court organized under any other municipal court act of this state, in which the judge is paid a salary in lieu of fees and is required to be an attorney at law, and having the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, in a city, or having jurisdiction to hear and determine violations of the ordinances of said city, or both, any other municipal judge of any city in this state, under this act or any other municipal court act of this state, who is paid a salary in lieu of fees and who is an attorney at law, shall be qualified to act in the place of and for such municipal judge in the performance of any of the duties imposed upon him by law in all matters civil and criminal and in all matters pertaining to violations of the ordinances of such city, under the conditions and in the manner hereinafter set forth; and such substitute judge shall, when called upon in the manner and under the conditions set forth, so act: Provided, That in case any municipal judge of any of the foregoing courts shall be unable to hear and determine cases pending in his court without unreasonable delay, because of the volume of cases awaiting determination, he may request and obtain the assistance of any other municipal judge of any city in this state, as above defined, to assist him in the trial of cases and the performance of the duties imposed upon him by law in all matters criminal and civil and in all matters pertaining to violations of the ordinances of such city, under the conditions and in the manner hereinafter set forth.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 7, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.507 Substitute judges; compensation.

Sec. 7. Any city may by ordinance fix the compensation to be paid substitute municipal judges for such services, the procedure to be followed in calling upon them to act, and the time and manner of compensation: Provided, however, That the legislative body of any city may provide in its budget an appropriation for the payment of substitute judges, and when such appropriation is provided, the municipal judge of such city may engage the services of such substitute judges as may be necessary to carry out the duties of the court, and upon presentation of a voucher for such services, approved by the municipal judge requesting such services, such substitute judge shall be compensated from the appropriation so made: Provided further, That unless a city shall provide by ordinance for the compensation of substitute judges, or make an appropriation in its budget for such substitute judicial services, no such substitute judge shall be entitled to compensation from such city.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 7, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.508 Judges; qualifications, terms, election; compensation, jurisdiction, practice and procedure.

Sec. 8. The qualifications, term of office, time and manner of election, compensation, jurisdiction, powers and duties of the judges of the municipal court of any city affected by the provisions of this act, and the practice and procedure in such municipal courts, shall be governed by the provisions of existing laws relating to justices of the peace in such cities, and to the practice and procedure in the courts of such justices of the peace, except so far as the same or any part thereof are expressly repealed by or are inconsistent with any of the provisions of this act: Provided, however, That no person shall be eligible to qualify for judge of any such court who is not a regularly licensed attorney and counselor at law licensed to practice in the state of Michigan: Provided further, That any incumbent justice at the effective date of this act who is not an attorney at law shall be eligible for reelection as municipal judge of such court: Provided further, That no municipal judge, associate municipal judge or any partner of such judge or associate judge shall practice law in the court to which he was elected or appointed.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 8, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.509 Files, records and dockets.

Sec. 9. All files, records and dockets belonging to or appertaining to the office of the justices of the peace in office in any city affected by the provisions of this act shall be filed and safely kept in the office of the clerk of the municipal court of such city, and such files, records and dockets shall in all respects and for all purposes constitute records of the municipal court of such city.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 8, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.510 Jurisdiction of successor judges.

Sec. 10. The judges of any such municipal court shall in all respects be considered the successors in office of the several justices of the peace whose courts are consolidated by this act, and shall have and exercise the same powers and authority in respect to all judgments rendered and matters pending before such justices of the peace as is by law conferred upon successors in office of justices of the peace in such city.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 8, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.511 Set time for trial; hearing or action.

Sec. 11. When any cause or matter shall be set for trial, hearing, or the taking of any action, at a certain time, it shall not be necessary to wait any length of time after said set time before proceeding to trial, hearing, or the taking of action, in such cause or matter.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 8, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.512 Judges; rule making power.

Sec. 12. In any city affected by the provisions of this act, the judges of the municipal court of such city shall have the right to adopt rules governing the form of all summons, writs and other process issued by such court, the time and manner of filing and serving pleadings and the forms thereof, the dismissal and adjournment of causes, the entry and setting aside of defaults and default judgments, the extension of time for pleading, the method of selecting the presiding judge and the period of time he shall act as such, and all other matters of pleading, practice and procedure not inconsistent with the provisions of this act or of the law. They may by rule provide that the clerk of such court or any of his deputies, may sign dockets and executions, and may approve any bond required in any civil action.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 8, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.513 Presiding judge; designation, term, absence.

Sec. 13. When this act becomes effective in any city, the judges of the municipal court of such city shall designate 1 of their number to act as presiding judge for such time as may be fixed by rule. In any city which has 2 municipal judges, they shall alternate as presiding judge, for such periods of time as may be fixed by rule, and in the absence or inability of the presiding judge, the other shall act as such. In any city which has more than 2 municipal judges, they shall be designated in such manner, and serve for such periods of time, as shall be fixed by rule, and in the absence or inability of the presiding judge, another shall act as such: Provided, however, That in any such city having 2 municipal judges, 1 of whom is an associate elected on a part-time basis, the one elected on a full-time basis shall be the presiding judge of said court. In any city which has more than 2 municipal judges, they shall be designated in such manner and serve for such periods of time as shall be fixed by rule. The presiding judge may designate some other judge of such court to act as such during his absence.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 8, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.514 Presiding judge; powers and duties, motions, bonds, defaults, rule powers.

Sec. 14. The presiding judge of any such municipal court shall, in addition to having and exercising all powers and duties appertaining to his office as judge of such court, have general superintendence of the civil business of the court. He shall have the power to assign and reassign for trial, or other necessary disposition, at such time and in such manner as he shall determine, to any of the judges of such court any civil suit, motion, proceeding or matter of business instituted or pending in such court. In all civil suits and proceedings hereafter instituted or pending in any such municipal court, the presiding judge thereof, or such other judge as he may designate, shall have power to hear and determine all motions made therein, to approve all bonds required by law to be approved by a justice of the peace, to enter and set aside defaults and default judgments upon such terms and conditions as he may deem just, and in general to dispose of any interlocutory and miscellaneous matter arising in any such suit. Such presiding judge shall also have such other powers and duties not inconsistent with the provisions of this act as the judges of such court may by rule provide.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 9, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.515 Motions; form, filing, hearing, notices.

Sec. 15. The judges of such court may by rule require that all motions made in such court shall be in writing. All written motions shall be filed with the clerk of the court who shall set a date for hearing thereon before the presiding judge, or some other judge to whom the presiding judge may assign the hearing and disposition of such matters, in accordance with the rules and practice of such court. The moving party shall cause to be served upon the opposite parties or their attorneys copies of such motions and notices of hearing thereof within the time and in the manner fixed by the rules and practice of such court.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 9, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.516 Setting aside verdict or judgment; new trial; procedure.

Sec. 16. In any city affected by the provisions of this act, the judge before whom any civil or criminal cause was tried shall have the same power to set aside a verdict or judgment and grant a new trial thereon, upon legal cause therefor, as circuit courts of the state possess: Provided, That a motion therefor be made in writing and filed with the clerk of the court within 5 days after rendition of the verdict or judgment in said cause, setting forth plainly and briefly the reasons upon which it is made. Affidavits setting forth the facts relied upon shall be filed with said motion. A copy of such motion with the supporting affidavits shall be served upon the adverse party or his attorney at least 2 days before the hearing thereof. Such motion shall be submitted and heard within 1 week after the date of filing, and shall be determined within 2 days after it shall have been submitted and heard. The time for taking an appeal from the judgment or verdict, in case such motion be not granted, shall begin to run from the day such motion is overruled. In no case shall the pendency of such motion stay the issuing and levy of an execution, but in case of a levy under execution pending such motion, no sale of the property so levied upon shall be advertised or made until the final determination of such motion. If such motion be granted, any property levied upon shall be returned forthwith to the adverse party. In case of the absence of the judge before whom such case was tried, the presiding judge or any other judge designated by the presiding judge shall have the authority to hear and determine any such motion.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 9, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.517 Instructions to jury; requests to charge.

Sec. 17. In any city affected by the provisions of this act, it shall be the duty of the judge presiding in all jury trials to instruct the jury as to the law applicable to the case, which instructions shall be received by the jury as the law of such case. Either party may present written requests to charge to the judge, who shall present all of such requests to the jury as he shall deem to correctly state the law applicable to the case.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 9, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.518 Directed verdicts; condition.

Sec. 18. In any city affected by the provisions of this act the judge presiding in any jury trial shall have the same power to direct a verdict for either party as is or may be possessed by judges of the circuit courts of the state.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 10, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.519 Directed verdicts; reserved decision in civil cases, judgment notwithstanding verdict.

Sec. 19. In any city affected by the provisions of this act, in all civil jury trials in such municipal court, if either party shall at the close of the testimony, and before the case is submitted to the jury, request a directed verdict in his favor, the judge presiding may reserve his decision thereon, and submit the case to the jury under proper instructions as to the law applicable to such case. After the case is thus submitted to the jury, and after receiving and recording the verdict of the jury and before judgment is entered in said cause, the judge may hear arguments of counsel for and against said request, but in all cases he shall receive and record the verdict of the jury as rendered. If the judge shall then decide as a matter of law that the party requesting the directed verdict was entitled thereto, and if the verdict of the jury is adverse to the party making such request, the judge shall enter his decision and give judgment in accordance with such decision notwithstanding the verdict entered.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 10, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.520 Judgment in case of disagreement of jury.

Sec. 20. In any city affected by the provisions of this act, in all civil jury trials in which the jury disagrees and is discharged by the judge, either party may on motion and notice to the opposite party request the entry of judgment upon the evidence and proofs taken, within 7 days after the discharge of such jury, and if the judge before whom such case was tried shall decide as a matter of law that a verdict should have been directed for either party, he shall enter judgment accordingly.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 10, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.521 Civil process; service anywhere in county.

Sec. 21. In any city affected by the provisions of this act, any civil process issued out of the municipal court of such city may be served in any part of the county in which such city is located.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 10, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.522 Concurrent jurisdiction; replevin.

Sec. 22. In addition to all the general jurisdiction of justices of the peace, every municipal court affected by the provisions of this act shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all civil actions wherein the debt or damages claimed does not exceed $1,500.00, and in all actions of replevin wherein the value of the property involved does not exceed $1,500.00. This section shall apply notwithstanding any jurisdictional limitations contained in any charter or statute under which any such municipal courts heretofore have been created and established.

730.524 Attorney fees taxable.

Sec. 24. In all cases of contested trials, where an appearance has been entered by an attorney in behalf of the opposite party, the prevailing party, if he be the plaintiff and was represented by a regularly licensed attorney, shall be entitled to tax the sum of $10.00 in case of rendition of a judgment of $300.00 or under, $15.00 in the case of rendition of a judgment of over $300.00 but not more than $500.00, and $25.00 in case of rendition of a judgment of over $500.00; and if the defendant is the prevailing party, he shall be entitled to tax the sum of $10.00 in case the plaintiff sought in his pleadings to recover a judgment of $300.00 or less, $15.00 in case the plaintiff sought in his pleadings to recover a judgment of over $300.00 but not more than $500.00, and $25.00 if the plaintiff in his pleadings sought to recover a judgment of over $500.00, as an attorney fee.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 11, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.525 Matters returnable before presiding judge.

Sec. 25. All writs, summons, proceedings or matters of any kind, which by law are made returnable before a justice of the peace and are not herein otherwise provided for, shall be returnable before the presiding judge of the municipal court of any city affected by the provisions of this act.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 11, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.526 Conduct of trial by litigants or attorneys; contempt for violation.

Sec. 26. Individual litigants may conduct the trial of their own causes in the municipal court of any city affected by the provisions of this act, but it shall be unlawful for any one excepting an attorney at law to conduct the trial of other than their own individual suits in any such court. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of contempt of court and may be punished therefor by any judge of the municipal court or any circuit judge of the county in which such city is located, by a fine of not more than $50.00 or by imprisonment in the county jail of such county for a period of not more than 30 days or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

730.528 Application of statutes and charters; fees.

Sec. 28. All the provisions of general statutes, local or special acts, or charter provisions, relating to justices of the peace and to justice courts in any such city, shall apply to the municipal judges and to the municipal court of any city affected by the provisions of this act. The legislative body of any city may provide for a fixed fee not exceeding $5.00, in all civil cases in lieu of the fees for justices which are provided by statute. Nothing herein shall be deemed to change the fees for jurors, witness fees and mileage, attorney fees or constable's fees and mileage which are provided by statute.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 11, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11;—Am. 1957, p. 86, Act 79, Eff. Sep. 27.

730.529 Judgments; signing by judges.

Sec. 29. Judgments rendered in any such municipal court shall be signed by the judge by or before whom such cause was tried.

HISTORY: New 1956, p. 11, Act 5, Eff. Aug. 11.

730.530 Conciliation division; judges, clerks.

Sec. 30. Any municipal court affected by the provisions of this act may provide for a conciliation division of such court in which civil actions wherein the debt or damages claimed do not exceed the sum of $100.00, excepting replevin suits, suits commenced by writ of attachment and suits commenced by civil warrant, except as hereinafter provided, shall be brought and settled in an informal manner. The judges of the court are hereby constituted conciliators of the conciliation division, and shall act as such as part of their official duties. Any municipal judge may authorize any clerk or deputy clerk of the court to act as conciliator in any case.

HISTORY: Add. 1957, p. 121, Act 101, Eff. Sep. 27.

730.531 Conciliation division; summons, default, hearings, adjournment.

Sec. 31. Any person having a claim within the jurisdiction of the conciliation division of any such court may appear before the clerk or any deputy clerk of such court and state his claim without formality or written pleadings. The clerk shall thereupon issue a summons in substantially the following form:

STATE OF MICHIGAN

The municipal court for the City of To

You are notified that (name of plaintiff) has commenced suit against you for (state nature of claim and amount).

Be in the above court on the day of, 19...., at o'clock in the.....

noon, or judgment will be taken against you. Bring witnesses and papers if any. Be prepared for trial at that time.

..... Clerk

By Deputy Clerk.

The summons shall notify the defendant to appear for trial at a certain time and place not less than 6 nor more than 14 days from the date of issue, and shall be served at least 2 days before the date set therein for trial. The clerk or deputy clerk, on request of the plaintiff, may notify the defendant by telephone or by mail, in which case the clerk's fee for such service shall be 25 cents, for the use of the city. If the defendant does not appear at the date and time set, no judgment shall be taken unless service was had upon him by summons, and the case may be adjourned and summons issued and served personally upon the defendant. If the defendant does not appear at the date and time set, after personal service of the summons upon him, the clerk shall forthwith enter his default, and the plaintiff may thereupon or at any time within 15 days thereafter prove his claim before a conciliator of the court. Hearings shall be informal and may be private. The conciliator may suspend rules of evidence and may dispense with the swearing of witnesses. There shall be no adjournments unless in the opinion of the conciliator an adjournment is necessary to prevent a miscarriage of justice.

HISTORY: Add. 1957, p. 121, Act 101, Eff. Sep. 27.

730.532 Conciliation division; settlement; judgment, payment.

Sec. 32. The parties prior to or at the hearing may make a settlement upon such terms as they may agree upon, in which case it shall be reduced to writing and signed by the parties, and the settlement shall be filed in the cause and in all respects shall be considered as a judgment rendered by the conciliator. Any judgment rendered in such conciliation division may provide for its satisfaction by payment to the clerk of the court or to the plaintiff of either a lump sum, or by installments in such amounts and at such times as the conciliator may deem just and reasonable under the circumstances. The presiding municipal judge or the conciliator in the cause thereafter for good cause shown may alter the amount of installment payments and the time of payment of such judgments, and authorize execution or garnishment to issue thereon where it appears that the defendant has not paid according to the terms of the agreement or order.

Act 328, 1931, p. 624; Eff. Sep. 18.

AN ACT to revise, consolidate, codify and add to the statutes relating to crimes; to define crimes and prescribe the penalties therefor; to provide for the competency of evidence at the trial of persons accused of crime; to provide immunity from prosecution for certain witnesses appearing at such trials; and to repeal certain acts and parts of acts inconsistent with or contravening any of the provisions of this act.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

750.1 Michigan penal code; short title.

Sec. 1. Short title—This act shall be known and may be cited as “The Michigan Penal Code”.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.1.

FORMER ACTS: See acts listed under section 567 of this act. Also in running down the former acts of any particular section, reference should be made to the citation, including notes, set forth in the antecedent history of the section.

NOTE: Code of criminal procedure, see Compilers' § 760.1 et seq.

The catchlines following the act section numbers were incorporated as part of the act as enacted.

750.2 Rule of construction.

Sec. 2. Rule of construction—The rule that a penal statute is to be strictly construed shall not apply to this act or any of the provisions thereof. All provisions of this act shall be construed according to the fair import of their terms, to promote justice and to effect the objects of the law.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.2.

CONSTRUCTION OF STATUTES: See Compilers' § 8.3.

750.3 Civil rights or remedies not affected.

Sec. 3. Civil rights or remedies not affected—The provisions of this act are not to be deemed to affect any civil rights or remedies existing at the time when this act takes effect, by virtue of the common law or of any provision of statute.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.3.

750.4 Civil remedies preserved.

Sec. 4. Civil remedies preserved—The omission to specify or affirm in this act any liability to damages, penalty, forfeiture or other remedy, imposed by law, and allowed to be recovered, or enforced in any civil action or proceeding, for any act or omission declared punishable herein does not affect any right to recover or enforce the same.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.4.

CHAPTER I

DEFINITIONS

750.5 Crime; definition.

Sec. 5. Crime—A “crime” is an act or omission forbidden by law, and punishable upon conviction by any 1 or more of the following:

1. Death;
2. Imprisonment;

CHAPTER VII

AIRCRAFT AND AERONAUTICS

750.43 Aircraft and aeronautics; definitions.

Sec. 43. Definitions—Whenever the word “aircraft” is used in this chapter it shall mean any contrivance now known or hereafter invented, used or designed for navigation of or flight in the air except a parachute or other contrivance designed and used primarily for safety equipment. “Passenger” means any person not the pilot or member of the crew of any aircraft. “Aeronaut” includes aviator, pilot, balloonist, and every other person having any part in the operation of aircraft while in flight.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.43. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 224 of 1923, being CL 1929, 4811.

NOTE: Penalties under aeronautics code, see Compilers' § 259.176 et seq.

750.44 Trick or acrobatic flying.

Sec. 44. Trick or acrobatic flying—Any aeronaut or passenger who, while in flight over a thickly inhabited area or over a public gathering, within this state, shall engage in trick or acrobatic flying, or in any acrobatic feat, or shall, except while in landing or taking off, fly at such a low level as to endanger the persons on the surface beneath, or drop or release any object or thing which may endanger life or injure property except when necessary to the personal safety of the aeronaut or passenger, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: Am. 1937, p. 88, Act 67, Eff. Oct. 29;—CL 1948, 750.44. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 9 of Act 224 of 1923, being CL 1929, 4819.

AERONAUTICS CODE: See Compilers' § 259.180.

750.45 Open air assemblies; flying over, altitude.

Sec. 45. Open air assemblies, flying over—Any person who shall operate any aircraft over open air assemblies of people at a height of less than 1,500 feet from the ground, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by fine of not more than 500 dollars: Provided, That this section shall not apply to groups assembled for the purpose of witnessing aerial exhibitions and stunt flying, nor to groups assembled at a flying field.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.45. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 9 of 1926, Ex. Ses., being CL 1929, 4822, and Sec. 2 of Act 9 of 1926, Ex. Ses., being CL 1929, 4823.

CHAPTER VIII

ANARCHY AND CRIMINAL SYNDICALISM

750.46 Anarchy and criminal syndicalism; definition.

Sec. 46. Criminal syndicalism defined—Criminal syndicalism is hereby defined as the doctrine which advocates crime, sabotage, violence or other unlawful methods of terrorism as a means of accomplishing industrial or political reform. The advocacy of such doctrine, whether by word of mouth or writing, is a felony punishable as provided in this chapter.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.46. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 255 of 1919, being CL 1929, 16559.

CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: The above section is cited in § 28.56.

750.47 Advocacy of criminal syndicalism; penalty.

Sec. 47. Any person who by word of mouth or writing, advocates or teaches the duty, necessity or propriety of crime, sabotage, violence or other unlawful methods of terrorism as a means of accomplishing industrial or political reform; or prints, publishes, edits, issues or knowingly circulates, sells, distributes or publicly displays any book, paper, document, or written matter in any form, containing or advocating, advising, or teaching the doctrine that industrial or political reform should be brought about by crime, sabotage, violence or other unlawful methods of terrorism; or openly, wilfully and deliberately justifies by word of mouth or writing, the commission or the attempt to commit crime, sabotage, violence or other unlawful methods of terrorism with intent to exemplify, spread or advocate the propriety of the doctrines of criminal syndicalism; or organizes or helps to organize, or becomes a member of or voluntarily assembles with any society, group or assemblage of persons formed to teach or advocate the doctrines of criminal syndicalism, or who commits or attempts to commit crime, sabotage, violence or other unlawful methods of terrorism for the purpose of accomplishing industrial or political reform, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 10 years or by a fine of not more than $5,000.00.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.47.—Am. 1950, 1st Ex. Ses., p. 126, Act 41, Eff. Sep. 8.

This section supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 255 of 1919, being CL 1929, 16560.

750.48 Red flag; display.

Sec. 48. Display of red flag—Any person who shall display a red flag in any public assembly, parade or demonstration in this state is guilty of a felony.

The use of such a flag at any such assembly, parade or demonstration shall be considered as prima facie evidence of its use as an emblem of anarchy.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.48. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 104 of 1919, being CL 1929, 16561; and Sec. 2 of Act 104 of 1919, being CL 1929, 16562.

CHAPTER IX

ANIMALS

750.49 Animals; fighting, baiting or shooting.

Sec. 49. Keeping or using animals for fighting, etc.—Any person who shall keep or use any bull, bear, dog, cock, or other animal or fowl or bird, except English sparrows and pigeons, for the purpose of fighting, baiting or as a target to be shot at, as a test of skill in marksmanship; and any person who shall be a party to or be present as a spectator at any such fighting, baiting or shooting of any bear, dog, cock or other animal, or fowl or bird, except English sparrows and pigeons, and any person who shall rent any building, shed, room, yard, ground or premises, for the purpose of fighting, baiting or shooting any animal, fowl or bird, except English sparrows and pigeons, as aforesaid, or shall knowingly suffer or permit the use of any building, shed, room, yard, ground or premises belonging to him or under his control, for either or any of the purposes aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, That no bounty shall be paid for any English sparrow that may be killed when used as a target or to be shot at as a test of skill in marksmanship: Provided further, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to engage in the propagation of English sparrows for the purpose allowed in this section, or for any other purpose.

750.50 Animals; cruelly working, transporting, abandoning.

Sec. 50. Cruelly working, transporting and abandoning animals—Every owner, possessor or person having the charge or custody of any animal, who cruelly drives or works the same when unfit for labor, or who shall carry or cause to be carried on or upon any vehicle or otherwise any live animal having the feet or legs tied together, or in any other cruel and inhuman manner, or shall carry or cause to be carried any live animal in or upon any vehicle or otherwise without providing suitable racks, cars, crates or cages, in which such animal may stand or lie down during transportation, and while awaiting slaughter, or who shall abandon any diseased, maimed, hopelessly sick, infirm or disabled animal, in any place, or who shall wilfully or negligently permit and allow any aged, diseased, maimed, hopelessly sick or disabled animal to suffer unnecessary torture or pain, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.50. This section supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 70 of 1877, being How. 9393;—CL 1897, 11741;—Am. 1913, p. 605, Act 321, Eff. Aug. 14;—CL 1915, 15537;—CL 1929, 17068.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS: See also Compilers' § 752.21.

750.51 Animals; confining on railroad cars.

Sec. 51. Confining animals on railroad cars—No railroad company, in the carrying or transportation of animals, shall permit the same to be confined in cars for a longer period than 36 consecutive hours without unloading the same for rest, water, and feeding, for a period of at least 5 consecutive hours, unless prevented from so unloading by storm, or other accidental causes. In estimating such confinement, the time during which the animals have been confined without rest, on connecting roads from which they are received shall be included, it being the intention to prevent their continuous confinement beyond the period of 36 hours, except on contingencies hereinbefore stated. Animals so unloaded shall be properly fed, watered, and sheltered during such rest, by the owner or person having the custody thereof, or, in case of his default in so doing, then the railroad company transporting the same, at the expense of said owner or person in custody thereof; and said company shall in such case have a lien upon such animals for food, care and custody furnished, and shall not be liable for any detention of such animals.

Any company, owner or custodian of such animals, who shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section, shall, for each and every such offense, be liable for, and forfeit, and pay a penalty of not less than 100 dollars nor more than 500 dollars: Provided, however, That when animals shall be carried in cars in which they can and do have proper food, water, space and opportunity for rest, the foregoing provisions in regard to their being unloaded shall not apply.

750.52 Duty of public officers.

Sec. 52. Duty of public officers—It shall also be the duty of all sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, constables, policemen and public officers, to arrest and prosecute all persons of whose violation of the provisions of the preceding sections of this chapter they may have knowledge or reasonable notice, and for each neglect of such duty, the officer so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.52. This section is similar to Compilers' § 752.28.

750.53 Arrest of persons; seizure of animals.

Sec. 53. Arrest of persons and seizure of animals—Persons found violating any of the provisions of the preceding sections of this chapter may be arrested and held without warrant, in like manner as in the case of persons found breaking the peace, and it shall be the duty of the person making the arrest to seize all animals and fowls found in the keeping or custody of the person arrested, and which are then being used, or held for use in violation of any of the provisions of the preceding sections of this chapter, and the person making such seizure shall cause such animals or fowls to be at once delivered to a poundmaster of the city, village or township in which the same may be, and it shall be the duty of such poundmaster to receive such animals or fowls, and to hold the same and proceed in regard to them in all respects as provided by law in other cases of animals impounded.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.53. This section is similar to Compilers' § 752.25.

750.54 Search warrants.

Sec. 54. Search warrant—When complaint is made, on oath or affirmation, to any magistrate authorized to issue warrants in criminal cases, that the complainant believes that any of the provisions of the preceding sections of this chapter are being, or are about to be violated in any particular building or place, such magistrate, if satisfied that there is reasonable cause for such belief, shall issue and deliver a search warrant to any sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable or public officer, authorizing him to search such building or place and to arrest any person or persons engaged in violating any of the provisions of the preceding sections of this chapter, as well as any person or persons there present, and aiding or abetting therein, and to bring such person or persons before some magistrate of competent jurisdiction, to be dealt with according to law. Such officer shall, at the same time, seize and bring to said magistrate every article or instrument found in said building or place especially designed or adapted to torture or inflict wounds upon any animal or to aid in the fighting or baiting of any animal; and unless within 10 days after the trial of the person or persons so arrested, the owner of said article or instrument shall show, to the satisfaction of said magistrate, that the same is not designed or adapted to the wounding or torture of animals, or if so designed or adapted, is not intended to be used or employed for such purpose, the magistrate shall destroy such article or instrument.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.54. This section is similar to Compilers' § 752.26.

750.55 Incorporated society; representative deputy sheriff.

Sec. 55. Any society incorporated in this state for the purpose of preventing cruelty to animals may designate 1 or more persons in each county of the state to discover and prosecute all cases of the violation of the provisions of this chapter; and the sheriff of such county may appoint each person so designated a deputy sheriff, provided such person shall be of good moral character, and each person so appointed by the sheriff shall possess all the powers of a sheriff of the county in the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter. The sheriff shall not be responsible for any of the acts of such person or persons, but the society, if incorporated, and if not, then the officers and members of the society, on the request of which such person was appointed, shall be liable in the degree of a principal for the acts of an agent.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.55;—Am. 1968, p. 159, Act 105, Imd. Eff. Jun. 7.

This section is similar to Compilers' Sec. 752.27.

750.56 Definitions.

Sec. 56. Definitions—In the preceding sections of this chapter the word “animal” or “animals” shall be held to include all brute creatures, and the words “owner”, “person”, and “whoever” shall be held to include corporations as well as individuals, and the knowledge and acts of agents of any persons employed by corporations in regard to animals transported, owned, or employed by, or in the custody of such corporations, shall be held to be the acts and knowledge of such corporations.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.56. This section is similar to Compilers' § 752.30.

750.57 Burial of dead animals.

Sec. 57. Burial of dead animals—Any person or persons who shall put any dead animal or part of the carcass of any dead animal, into any lake, river, creek, pond, road, street, alley, lane, lot, field, meadow or common, or in any place within 1 mile of the residence of any person or persons, except the same and every part thereof be buried at least 4 feet under ground, and the owner or owners thereof who shall knowingly permit the same to remain in any of the aforesaid places, to the injury of the health, or to the annoyance of the citizens of this state, or any of them, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and every 24 hours said owner may permit the same to remain after such conviction, shall be deemed an additional offense against the provisions of this section, a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than 50 dollars nor more than 100 dollars, or by imprisonment of not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.57. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 70 of 1867, being CL 1871, 7734;—How. 9323;—CL 1897, 11432;—CL 1915, 15150;—CL 1929, 5306.

750.58 Horses; unhitching and driving away.

Sec. 58. Unhitching and driving away horses without authority—Any person who shall wilfully and maliciously or wantonly, and without authority unhitch any horse or team belonging to another, and lawfully hitched or standing in any street, alley or other place, or who in like manner shall ride or drive such horse or team away shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.58. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 97 of 1885, being How. 9199a;—CL 1897, 11602;—CL 1915, 15360;—CL 1929, 16968.

750.59 Animals unfit for work; disposition and use.

Sec. 59. Disposition and use of animals permanently unfit for work—Any person who shall offer for sale or sell or trade any horse or mule which by reason of debility, disease, lameness, injury or for any other cause is permanently unfit for work, except to a person or corporation operating a horse hospital, animal retreat farm or other institution or place designed or maintained for the humane keeping, treatment or killing of horses, mules or other live stock, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Any person who shall lead, drive or ride any horse or mule, which by reason of debility, disease, lameness or injury, or for other causes is permanently unfit for work, on any public way for any purpose, except that of conveying such animal to a proper place for its humane keeping, or killing or for medical or surgical treatment shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.59. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 354 of 1913, Am. 1915, p. 215, Act 129, Eff. Aug. 24, being CL 1915, 15546;—CL 1929, 17077; and Sec. 2 of Act 354 of 1913, being CL 1915, 15547;—CL 1929, 17078; and Sec. 3 of Act 354 of 1913, being CL 1915, 15548;—CL 1929, 17079.

750.60 Horses' tails; docking.

Sec. 60. Docking horses tails—Any person who shall cut the bone of the tail of any horse for the purpose of docking the tail, or any person who shall cause or knowingly permit it to be done upon the premises of which he is the owner, lessee, proprietor or user, or any person who shall assist in or be present at such cutting, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail of not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars: Provided, That such cutting of the bone of the tail of any horse for the purpose of docking the tail shall be lawful when a certificate of a regularly qualified veterinary surgeon shall first be obtained certifying that such cutting is necessary for the health or safety of such horse.

If a horse shall be found with its tail so cut and with the wound resulting from such cutting unhealed, upon the premises of any person, such facts shall be prima facie evidence that the person occupying or using the premises on which such horse is so found has committed the offense described in this section.

If a horse shall be found with its tail so cut and with the wound resulting therefrom unhealed, in the charge or custody of any person, such fact shall be prima facie evidence that the person having the charge or custody of such horse has committed the offense charged in this section.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.60. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 45 of 1901, Am. 1905, p. 499, Act 322, Imd. Eff. June 20, being CL 1915, 15549;—CL 1929, 17080; and re-enacts Sec. 2 of Act 45 of 1901, being CL 1915, 15550;—CL 1929, 17081; and Sec. 3 of Act 45 of 1901, being CL 1915, 15551;—CL 1929, 17082.

750.61 Docked horses; registration, bringing into state.

Sec. 61. Importation, etc., of unregistered docked horses—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to import or bring into this state any docked horse or horses, or to drive, work, use, race or deal in any docked horse or horses within this state, unless the same shall be registered as provided for in the succeeding section of this chapter.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.61. This section re-enacts, except changing word "act" to "chapter", Sec. 4 of Act 45 of 1901, being CL 1915, 15552;—CL 1929, 17083.

750.62 Docked horses; registration.

Sec. 62. Registration of docked horses—Within 90 days after this act shall take effect, every owner or user of any docked horse within this state shall register such docked horse or horses by filing in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such docked horse or horses may be kept, a certificate which shall contain the name or names of the owner or owners, together with his or their post office address, together with a full description of the color, age, size and the use made of such docked horse or horses, which certificate shall be signed by the owner or the owners, or his or their agent. The county clerk shall number such certificates consecutively and shall record the same in a book kept for that purpose, and shall receive as a fee for the recording of such certificate the sum of 50 cents: Provided, This section shall not apply to or make necessary the re-registration of docked horses which have been registered pursuant to Act No. 45 of the Public Acts of 1901, as amended, being sections 17080 to 17086 inclusive of the Compiled Laws of 1929.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.62. This section re-enacts without proviso, Sec. 5 of Act 45 of 1901, being CL 1915, 15553;—CL 1929, 17084.

NOTE: Act 45, 1901, above referred to, is superseded by this section.

750.63 Docked horses; unlawful docking, evidence.

Sec. 63. Prima facie evidence of unlawful docking—The driving, working, keeping, racing or using of any unregistered docked horse or horses subsequent to 90 days after this act shall take effect shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the fact that the party driving, working, keeping, racing or using such unregistered docked horse or horses, unlawfully docked the tail of such horse or horses.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.63. This section supersedes Sec. 6 of Act 45 of 1901, being CL 1915, 15554;—CL 1929, 17085.

750.64 Docked horses; failure to register.

750.74 Burning of personal property.

Sec. 74. Burning of personal property—Any person who wilfully and maliciously burns any personal property, other than that specified in the preceding sections, owned by himself or another shall, if the value of the personal property burned or intended to be so burned be $50.00 or less, be guilty of a misdemeanor. If the value of the personal property burned or intended to be so burned be more than $50.00, such person shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: Am. 1945, p. 375, Act 260, Eff. Sept. 6;—CL 1948, 750.74. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 4 of Act 38 of 1927, Am. 1929, p. 671, Act 272, Eff. Aug. 28, being CL 1929, 16936.

750.75 Burning of insured property.

Sec. 75. Burning of insured property—Any person who shall wilfully burn any building or personal property which shall be at the time insured against loss or damage by fire with intent to injure and defraud the insurer, whether such person be the owner of the property or not, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 10 years.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.75. This section supersedes Sec. 5 of Act 38 of 1927, being CL 1929, 16937.

750.76 Applicability of preceding sections.

Sec. 76. Applicability of preceding sections—The preceding sections of this chapter shall apply to a married woman who may commit any of the offenses herein described although the property burnt may belong partly or wholly to her husband; and said preceding sections shall also apply to a married man although the property burnt may belong partly or wholly to his wife; and although said property may be occupied by such married man or married woman, or by such married man and wife as a residence.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.76. This section supersedes with additions Sec. 6 of Act 38 of 1927, being CL 1929, 16939.

750.77 Wilfully and maliciously setting fire.

Sec. 77. Preparation to burn—Any person who shall in any manner use, arrange, place, devise or distribute any inflammable, combustible or explosive material, liquid or substance, or any device in or about any building or property mentioned in the foregoing sections of this chapter, with intent to wilfully and maliciously set fire to or burn the same, or who aids, counsels, induces, persuades or procures another to do such act or acts, shall, if the property intended to be so burned be personal property of the value of $50.00 or less, be guilty of a misdemeanor. If such property be personal property of the value of more than $50.00, or real property of any value, he shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: Am. 1945, p. 375, Act 260, Eff. Sept. 6;—CL 1948, 750.77.

750.78 Wilfully or negligently setting fire to woods, prairies or grounds.

Sec. 78. Wilfully setting fire to woods, etc.—Any person who shall wilfully or negligently set fire to any woods, prairies or grounds, not his property, or shall wilfully permit any fire to pass from his own woods, prairies or grounds, to the injury or destruction of the property of any other person, shall be guilty of a felony.

Sec. 95. Issuing or circulating spurious bank notes—Any person who shall, with intent to defraud, sign, issue or put in circulation any note or bill, purporting to be a bill or note of any bank, when no such bank exists, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 10 years or by fine of not more than 5,000 dollars.

750.96 Bank property; fraudulent disposal.

Sec. 96. Fraudulent disposal of property of bank by officers, etc.—Any officer or agent of any bank, knowing such bank to be insolvent, or, in contemplation of the insolvency of such bank, or any assignee of the property and effects of any insolvent bank who shall sell, or in any way dispose of or remove, any of the money, property or effects of such bank, with intent to defraud, delay or hinder any creditor thereof in the collection of any claim or demand against such bank, every such officer or agent, and all persons who shall knowingly aid or assist in any such disposition or removal, shall be guilty of a felony.

750.97 Financial condition of bank; derogatory statement.

Sec. 97. Derogatory statement regarding financial condition of bank—Any person who shall wilfully and maliciously make, circulate or transmit to another or others any statement, rumor or suggestion, written, printed or by word of mouth, which is directly or by inference derogatory to the financial condition or affects the solvency or financial standing of any incorporated bank, savings banks, banking institution or trust company doing business in this state, or who shall counsel, aid, procure or induce another to start, transmit or circulate any such statement or rumor, shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.97. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 273 of 1909, being CL 1915, 8043;—CL 1929, 12060.

750.98 Private banks.

Sec. 98. Private banks—On and after the effective date of this act, it shall be unlawful for any individual person, or unincorporated association of individual persons, to engage in the business of banking, as defined in Act No. 66 of the Public Acts of 1929, being sections 11898 to 11970 inclusive of the Compiled Laws of 1929, and other laws of this state relating to banks and banking: Provided, That this section shall not apply to any individual person or unincorporated association of individual persons engaged in the business of banking at the time of the passage of this act.

From and after the passage of this act, no person or association of persons, not incorporated under the banking laws of this state and not now engaged in the private banking business, shall open up or attempt to operate any private bank, and any such operation or attempt shall be a violation of this section, and the persons so operating or attempting to operate shall be guilty of a felony: Provided, That nothing in this section contained shall be construed to prohibit the surviving partner or partners of a co-partnership from continuing the operation of any private bank operated by such co-partnership at the time this act shall take effect.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.98. This section supersedes, with additions, Sec. 1 of Act 284 of 1925, being CL 1929, 12048; and Sec. 2 of Act 254 of 1925, being CL 1929, 12049.

NOTE: Act 66, 1929, above referred to, has been repealed and superseded by Act 341, 1937, being Compilers' § 487.1 et seq., which has also been repealed. See § 487.301 et seq.

750.99 Certifying checks; insufficient funds.

Sec. 99. Certifying checks without amount thereof actually standing to credit of drawer—It shall not be lawful for any officer, clerk, agent or employee of a bank to certify a check unless the amount thereof actually stands to the credit of the drawer upon the books of the bank, or to resort to any device, or receive any fictitious obligations, direct or collateral, in order to evade the provisions of this prohibition; and any officer, clerk, agent or employee who shall attempt any such evasion shall be guilty of a felony.

750.100 Bank insolvency; receiving deposits, conduct business.

Sec. 100. Receiving deposits, etc., when bank is insolvent—The directors and officers of any commercial and/or savings bank, industrial bank or trust company who shall fraudulently and with intent to cheat and defraud any person, receive any deposit, money, or property or issue any certificate of investment and receive payment therefor, knowing, or having good reason to believe that such bank or company is insolvent, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 5 years or by fine of not more than 2,500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.100. This section supersedes, with addition, Sec. 36 of Act 66 of 1929, being CL 1929, 11933; and supersedes and merges Sec. 14 of Act 296 of 1917, being CL 1929, 11966.

750.101 Financial institutions act; violation.

Sec. 101. Any officer, clerk, agent or employee of a bank, industrial bank, trust company, safe and collateral deposit company, or any other financial institution governed by the provisions of the Michigan financial institutions act, who shall knowingly aid or assist in a violation of any of the provisions of "the Michigan financial institutions act," or acts and parts of acts amendatory thereof, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 5 years or by a fine of not more than 2,500 dollars.

HISTORY: Am. 1937, p. 267, Act 172, Imd. Eff. July 9;—CL 1948, 750.101. This section as originally enacted, superseded and merged with additions Sec. 50 of Act 66 of 1929, being CL 1929, 11947; and Sec. 19 of Act 296 of 1917, being CL 1929, 11991.

750.123 Officer omitting duty for reward.

Sec. 123. Officer omitting duty for reward—Any sheriff, coroner, constable, peace officer, or any other officer authorized to serve process or arrest or apprehend offenders against criminal law who shall receive from a defendant or from any other person any money or other valuable thing or any service or promise to pay or give money or to perform or omit to perform any act as a consideration, reward or inducement, for omitting or delaying to arrest any defendant, or to carry him before a magistrate, or for delaying to take any person to prison, or for postponing the sale of any property under an execution, or for omitting or delaying to perform any duty pertaining to his office, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 6 months or by fine of not more than 250 dollars: Provided, That if such defendant shall be charged with an offense against the criminal laws of the state of Michigan, any officer convicted under the provisions of this section, may, in the discretion of the court, be punished by any fine or by any term of imprisonment or both such fine and imprisonment, within the limits fixed by the statute which such defendant is charged with having violated.

750.124 Bribery of athlete.

Sec. 124. Any person who corruptly gives, offers or promises to any person engaged in amateur or professional baseball, boxing, wrestling or other competitive athletic pursuits, any gift, gratuity or valuable thing whatever, with intent to influence him to lose or try to lose, or to affect the result in any way of, any contest in which he is participating or expects to participate; or any person engaged in amateur or professional baseball, boxing, wrestling or other competitive athletic pursuits, who corruptly solicits or accepts a gift, gratuity or valuable thing, or a promise to make a gift or to do an act beneficial to himself, under an agreement or with the understanding that he shall lose or try to lose, or to affect the result in any way of, any contest in which he is participating or expects to participate, shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: Am. 1945, p. 225, Act 180, Imd. Eff. May 16;—CL 1948, 750.124;—Am. 1951, p. 120, Act 91, Eff. Sep. 28.

This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 1 of Act 238 of 1921, being CL 1929, 17101.

750.125 Bribery of agents, servants and employees.

Sec. 125. Bribery of agents, servants, etc., and deception of their principals, etc.—It shall be unlawful for any person to give, offer or promise to an agent, employee or servant of another or any other person, any commission, gift or gratuity whatever, or to do an act beneficial to such agent, employee or servant or another with intent to influence the action of such agent, employee or servant in relation to his principal's, employer's or master's business; or for an agent, employee or servant to request or accept for himself or another any commission, gift or gratuity or promise to make any commission, gift, or gratuity to himself or another or the doing of an act beneficial to himself or another, according to any agreement or understanding between him and any other person to the effect that he shall act in any particular manner in relation to his principal's, employer's or master's business. It shall be unlawful for any person to use or to give to an agent, employee or servant or another, or for any agent, employee or servant, to use, approve or certify, with intent to deceive the principal, employer or master, any receipt, account, invoice or other document in respect of which the principal, employer or master is interested, which contains any statement which is false, erroneous or defective in any material particular or which omits to state fully the fact of any commission, money, property or other valuable thing having been given or agreed to be given to such agent, employee or servant.

Evidence shall not be admissible in any proceeding or prosecution under this section to show that a gift or acceptance of any commission, money, property, or other valuable thing as is mentioned in this section is customary in any business, trade or calling, nor shall the customary nature of such transaction be any defense in any such proceeding or prosecution.

In any proceeding or prosecution under this section no person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing documentary evidence in obedience to the subpoena of the court on the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to criminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture. But no natural person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may testify when compelled to do so over his objection, or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, in obedience to the subpoena: Provided, That no natural person so testifying shall be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

The first person committing an offense within the purview of this section who shall report the facts, under oath, to the prosecuting attorney of the county where the offense is triable and who shall give evidence tending to the conviction of any other person charged with an offense under this section shall be granted full immunity from prosecution under this section with respect to the offense reported.

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.125. This section re-enacts and merges Sec. 1 of Act 210 of 1905, being CL 1915, 15590;—Am. 1923, p. 212, Act 146, Eff. CHAPTER XVIII

BUCKET SHOPS

750.126 Intent of chapter.

Sec. 126. Intent of chapter—It is the intention of this chapter to prevent, punish and prohibit within this state, the business now engaged in and conducted in places commonly known and designated as bucket shops, and also to include the practice now commonly known as bucket shopping by any person or persons, agents, corporations, associations or copartnerships who or which ostensibly carry on the business or occupation of commission merchants or brokers in grain, provisions, cotton, coffee, petroleum, stocks, bonds or other commodities whatsoever.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.126. This section re-enacts parts of Sec. 1 of Act 336 of 1907, being CL 1915, 7805;—CL 1929, 9133, changing word "act" to "chapter".

750.127 Bucket shop; definition.

Sec. 127. Bucket shops defined—A bucket shop, within the meaning of this chapter, is defined to be an office, store or other place wherein the proprietor or keeper thereof, or other person or agent, either in his or its own behalf, or as the agent or correspondent of any other person, corporation, association or copartnership within or without the state conducts the business of making or offering to make contracts, agreements, trades or transactions respecting the purchase or sale, or purchase and sale of any stocks, grains, provisions or other commodity or personal property wherein both parties thereto, or said proprietor or keeper contemplated or intended that the contracts, agreements, trades or transactions shall be, or may be closed, adjusted or settled according to or upon the basis of the market quotations or price made on any board of trade or exchange, upon which the commodities or securities referred to in such contracts, agreements, trades or transactions are dealt in, and without a bona fide transaction on such board of trade or exchange, or wherein both parties or such keeper or proprietor shall contemplate or intend that such contracts, agreements, trades or transactions shall be or may be deemed closed or terminated, when the market quotations of prices made on such board of trade or exchange for the articles or securities named in such contracts, agreements, trades or transactions shall reach a certain figure, and also any office, store or other place where the keeper, person or agent or proprietor thereof, either in his or its own behalf, or as an agent as aforesaid therein, makes or offers to make, with others, contracts, trades or transactions for the purchase or sale of any such commodity, wherein the parties thereto do not contemplate the actual or bona fide receipt or delivery of such property, but do contemplate a settlement thereof based upon differences in the price at which said property is or is claimed to be bought and sold. The said crime shall be complete against any proprietor, person, agent or keeper thus offering to make any such contracts, trades or transactions, whether such offer is accepted or not.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.127. This section re-enacts part of Sec. 1 of Act 336 of 1907, being CL 1915, 7805;—CL 1929, 9133.

750.128 Maintenance of bucket shop; punishment.

Sec. 128. Punishment—Any corporation, association, copartnership, person or persons, or agent, who shall keep or cause to be kept within this state, any bucket shop, and any corporation, person or persons, or agents whether acting individually or as a member or as an officer, agent or employe or any corporation, association or copartnership, who shall keep, maintain or assist in the keeping and maintaining, of any such bucket shop within this state, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 2 years or by a fine of not less than 500 dollars or more than 1,000 dollars.

The continuance of such establishment after the first conviction shall be deemed a second offense and if the offender be a corporation, it shall be liable to forfeiture of all its rights and privileges as such.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.128. This section supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 336 of 1907, being CL 1915, 7808;—CL 1929, 9134.

750.129 Accessories.

Sec. 129. Accessories—Any corporation, association or copartnership, person or persons or his agent or agents who shall communicate, receive, exhibit or display in any manner, any statements of quotations of the prices of any property mentioned in the second section of the chapter with a view to any transaction or transactions in this chapter prohibited, shall be deemed an accessory, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined and punished the same as the principal, as provided in the next preceding section of this chapter.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.129. This section substantially re-enacts Sec. 3 of Act 336 of 1907, being CL 1915, 7807;—CL 1929, 9135.

750.130 Commission merchant; furnishing written statement upon demand.

Sec. 130. Commission merchant to furnish written statement upon demand—It shall be the duty of every commission merchant, copartnership, association, corporation, person or persons, or agent or broker in this state, engaged in the business of buying or selling of or buying and selling stocks, bonds, grain, provisions or other commodities or personal property for any person, principal, customer or purchaser, to furnish, upon demand, to any customer or principal for whom such merchant, broker, copartnership, corporation, association, person or persons, or agent or agents has executed any order for the actual purchase or sale of the commodities hereinbefore mentioned, either for immediate or future delivery, a written statement containing the names of the parties from whom the property was bought, or to whom it shall have been sold, as the case may be, the time when, the place where, and the price at which the same was either bought or sold, and in case such commission merchant, broker, person or persons, or agent or agents, copartnership, corporation or association shall refuse promptly to furnish the statement upon reasonable demand, the fact of such refusal shall be prima facie evidence that such property was not sold or bought in a legitimate manner, but was bought in violation thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.130. This section re-enacts Sec. 4 of Act 336 of 1907, being CL 1915, 7808;—CL 1929, 9136.

CHAPTER XIX

CHECKS WITHOUT SUFFICIENT FUNDS

750.131 Drawing on insufficient funds; punishment.

Sec. 131. Any person who, with intent to defraud, shall make or draw or utter or deliver any check, draft or order for the payment of money, to apply on account or otherwise, upon any bank or other depository, knowing at the time of such making, drawing, uttering or delivering, that the maker, or drawer, has not sufficient funds in or credit with such bank or other depository, for the payment of such check, draft, or order, in full, upon its presentation, or any person who, with the intent to defraud, shall make, draw, utter or deliver any check, draft or order for the payment of money to apply on account or otherwise, upon any bank or other depository and who shall not have sufficient funds for the payment for same when presentation for payment is made to the drawee, except where such lack of funds is due to garnishment, attachment, levy, or other lawful cause, and such fact was not known to the person who made, drew, uttered or delivered the instrument at the time of so doing, shall, if the amount payable in the check exceeds $50.00, be guilty of felony, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than $500.00. If the amount payable in the check is $50.00 or less, such person shall for the first offense be guilty of a misdemeanor; and for the second offense, the same being charged as a second offense, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 6 months or by a fine of not more than $250.00; and for a third and subsequent offense, the same being charged as a third or subsequent offense, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than $500.00.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.131;—Am. 1982, p. 53, Act 65, Eff. Mar. 28, 1983.

This section supersedes, with additions, Sec. 1 of Act 271 of 1919, Am. 1923, p. 204, Act 142, Eff. Aug. 30, being CL 1929, 12064.

750.131a Drawing checks upon bank without any bank account.

Sec. 131a. Any person who with intention to defraud shall make or draw or utter any check, draft or order for the payment of money to apply on an account or otherwise upon any bank or other depository who at the time of making, drawing, uttering or delivering such check, draft or order has no account in or credit with such bank or other depository for the payment of such check, draft or order upon presentation shall be guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than 2 years or by a fine of not more than $500.

Any person who with the intent to defraud shall make, draw or utter or deliver within a period of not to exceed 10 days 3 or more checks, drafts or orders for the payment of money to apply on account or otherwise upon any bank or other depository knowing at the time of making, drawing, uttering or delivering each of such checks, drafts or orders that the maker or drawer has not sufficient funds or credit with such bank or other depository for the payment of such check, draft or order in full upon its presentation shall be guilty of a felony punishable as above in this section provided.

750.132 Evidence of intent.

Sec. 132. Evidence of intent to defraud, etc.—As against the maker or drawer thereof, the making, drawing, uttering or delivering of a check, draft or order, payment of which is refused by the drawee, when presented in the usual course of business, shall be prima facie evidence of intent to defraud and of knowledge of insufficient funds in or credit with such bank or other depository, provided such maker or drawer shall not have paid the drawee thereof the amount due thereon, together with all costs and protest fees, within 5 days after receiving notice that such check, draft or order has not been paid by the drawee.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.132. This section re-enacts Sec. 2 of Act 271 of 1919, being CL 1929, 12065.

750.133 Evidence of intent; notice of protest.

Sec. 133. Notice of protest as evidence of intent to defraud, etc.—Where such check, draft or order is protested, on the ground of insufficiency of funds or credit, the notice of protest thereof shall be admissible as proof of presentation, non-payment and protest, and shall be prima facie evidence of intent to defraud, and of knowledge of insufficient funds or credit with such bank or other depository.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.133.

750.134 Checks without sufficient funds; credit construed.

Sec. 134. Credit construed—The word “credit” as used herein, shall be construed to mean an arrangement or understanding with the bank or depository, for the payment of such check, draft or order, in full, upon the presentation thereof for payment.

HISTORY: Am. 1939, p. 785, Act 314, Eff. Sept. 29;—CL 1948, 750.134. This section as originally enacted, re-enacted Sec. 3 of Act 271 of 1919, being CL 1929, 12066.

CHAPTER XX

CHILDREN

750.135 Children; exposing with intent to injure or abandon.

Sec. 135. Exposing child with intent to injure or abandon—Any father or mother of a child under the age of 6 years, or any other person who shall expose such child in any street, field, house or other place, with intent to injure or wholly to abandon it, shall be guilty of felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 10 years.

750.136 Cruelty to children; bond, suspension of sentence; search warrant.

Sec. 136. Any parent or guardian or person under whose protection any child may be, who cruelly or unlawfully punishes, or wilfully, unlawfully or negligently deprives of necessary food, clothing or shelter, or who wilfully abandons a child under 16 years of age, or who habitually causes or permits the health of such child to be injured, his or her life endangered by exposure, want or other injury to his or her person, or causes or permits him or her to engage in any occupation that will be likely to endanger his or her health, or deprave his or her morals or who habitually permits him or her to frequent public places for the purpose of begging or receiving alms, or to frequent the company of or consort with reputed thieves or prostitutes, or by vicious training depraves the morals of such child, shall, upon conviction, be deemed guilty of a felony: Provided, however, If, after such conviction and before sentence, in case the child has not been deformed or maimed, he or she shall appear before the clerk of the court in which said conviction shall have taken place, and with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by said clerk enter into bond to the people of the state of Michigan in the penal sum of $1,000.00 conditioned that he or she will furnish such child or children with necessary and proper home, care, food, shelter, protection and clothing, the said court may suspend sentence therein. When complaint is made on oath or affirmation to a magistrate or court having jurisdiction in such cases that the complainant believes that any of the provisions of law relating to or affecting children are being or are about to be violated in any particular building or place, such magistrate or court being satisfied that there is reasonable ground for such belief shall issue a warrant directed to the proper sheriff, constable, police officer or agent of such association, authorizing him to enter and search such building or place, and to arrest any person there present violating or attempting to violate any such law, and to bring such person before some court or magistrate of competent jurisdiction, together with the child or children concerning whom such offense has been committed, to be dealt with according to the law; and such attempt shall be held to be a violation of such law, and shall subject the person charged therewith, if found guilty, to the penalties provided for such violation.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.136;—Am. 1958, p. 106, Act 97, Eff. Sep. 13.

This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 156 of 1893, Am. 1897, p. 269, Act 213, Eff. Aug. 30;—CL 1897, 11507;—CL 1915, 15230;—CL 1929, 12820.

750.136a Torturing of children; penalty.

Sec. 136a. Any parent or guardian or person under whose protection or control any child may be, who tortures such child, shall be guilty of a felony and may be punished by imprisonment for not more than 10 years.

HISTORY: Add. 1958, p. 107, Act 97, Eff. Sep. 13.

750.137 Purchase of goods from minors under 18.

Sec. 137. Purchase of goods from minors under 18 years by dealers in second-hand goods, etc.—Any dealer in second-hand goods, junk shop keeper, peddler, rag or paper buyer, pawnbroker or hawker, who shall purchase, either directly or indirectly, or by his agent or clerk, any goods, thing, article or articles from any minor under the age of 18 years, without the written consent of the parent or guardian of such minor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.137. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 52 of 1889, being How. 9354i;—CL 1897, 11376;—CL 1915, 15094;—CL 1929, 9830.

750.138 Children; legal custody, interference.

Sec. 138. Interfering with legal custody of dependent, neglected and delinquent children—Any person who shall in any manner interfere or attempt to interfere with the custody of any dependent, neglected or delinquent child who has been adjudged to be such pursuant to Act No. 6 of the Public Acts of 1907, Extra Session, as amended, being sections 12834 to 12849, inclusive, of the Compiled Laws of 1929, subsequently to the making of an order of commitment to a state institution or otherwise, in accordance with said act and pending the actual admission and reception of such child as an inmate of the institution, school or home to which commitment is made; and any person who shall entice such neglected, dependent or delinquent child from and out of the custody of the person or persons entitled thereto under the order of the court or who shall in any way interfere or attempt to interfere with such custody; and any person who shall entice or procure any such child committed as aforesaid to leave and depart from any hospital or other place where such child may have been placed pursuant to the order of the court for the purpose of receiving medical treatment pending admission into the state institution, school, home or other institution or place to which commitment may have been made, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year, or by fine of not more than 500 dollars.

NOTE: Act 6, 1907, Ex. Ses., above referred to, was repealed and superseded by Act 288, 1939. See Compilers' § 712A.1 et seq.

750.139 Children under 16, confinement and trial.

Sec. 139. Confinement and trial of minors under 16 years of age—No child under 16 years of age while under arrest, confinement, or conviction for any crime, shall be placed in any apartment or cell of any prison or place of confinement with any adult who shall be under arrest, confinement, or conviction for any crime, or be permitted to remain in any court room during the trial of adults, or be transported in any vehicle of transportation in company with adults charged with or convicted of crime.

All cases involving the commitment or trial of children under 16 years of age for any crime or misdemeanor, before any magistrate or justice of the peace, or in any court, shall be heard and determined by such court at a suitable time, to be designated therefor by it, separate and apart from the trial of other criminal cases.

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.139. This section re-enacts, except first word "that", Sec. 1 of Act 110 of 1901, being CL 1915, 7240;—CL 1929, 12816; and re-enacts Sec. 2 of Act 110 of 1901, being CL 1915, 7241, CL 1929, 12817; and supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 110 of 1901, being CL 1915, 7242;—CL 1929, 12818.

NOTE: See also Compilers' §§ 712A.16 and 722.553.

750.140 Children; exhibition, employ, apprentice.

Sec. 140. Exhibition, etc., of children in certain cases—Any person having the care, custody, or control of any child under 16 years of age, who shall exhibit, use or employ, or who shall apprentice, give away, let out or otherwise dispose of any such child to any person in or for the vocation, service or occupation of rope or wire walking, gymnast, contortionist, rider, or acrobat, dancing, or begging in any place whatsoever, or for any obscene, indecent or immoral purpose, exhibition or practice whatsoever, or for any exhibition injurious to the health or dangerous to the life or limb of such child, or who shall cause, procure, or encourage such child to engage therein, and any person who shall take, receive, hire, employ, use, exhibit or have in custody any such child for any of the purposes mentioned in this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.140. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 260 of 1881, being How. 1998;—CL 1897, 5553;—CL 1915, 7222;—CL 1929, 12798.

750.141 Children in places where liquor is sold; local ordinances.

Sec. 141. No minor child under 17 years of age shall be permitted to remain in any dance hall, saloon, barroom or any place where any spirituous or intoxicating liquor, or any wine or beer, or any beverage, liquor or liquors containing any spirituous or intoxicating liquor, beer or malt liquor is sold, given away or furnished for a beverage, unless such minor is accompanied by parent or guardian. Any proprietor, keeper or manager of any such place who shall permit such minor child to remain in any such place, and any person who shall encourage or induce in any way such minor child to enter such place or to remain therein shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. This section shall not prevent any township, village or city from establishing, by ordinance, regulations more stringent than the provisions of this act relative to the attendance of any minor under the age of 21 years at theaters, movie houses, bowling or billiard halls and dance halls. This section shall not prevent any township, village or city from establishing, by ordinance, regulations permitting the attendance of minor children at dances where no spirituous or intoxicating liquor, beer or malt liquor is sold, given away or consumed in the dance area.

750.141a Children; furnishing liquor without prescription; penalty.

Sec. 141a. Any person, who knowingly gives or furnishes any alcoholic beverage to a minor except upon authority of and pursuant to a prescription of a duly licensed physician, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and if the furnishing involved any consideration, the person shall be imprisoned for not more than 1 year or fined not more than $1,000.00 or both.

HISTORY: Add. 1943, p. 334, Act 205, Eff. Jul. 30;—CL 1948, 750.141a;—Am. 1963, p. 225, Act 162, Eff. Sep. 6.

750.141b Repealed. 1963, p. 226, Act 162, Eff. Sep. 6.

Section provided for form issuance and use of liquor purchase identification cards by persons between ages of 21 and 25; imposed penalty for misuse or falsification.

750.141c Minors; false representation as to age for buying alcoholic liquor.

Sec. 141c. Any person under the age of 21 years who shall falsely represent himself to be 21 years of age or over, for the purpose of purchasing or attempting to purchase any alcoholic liquor, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: Add. 1947, p. 93, Act 86, Eff. Oct. 11;—CL 1948, 750.141c;—Am. 1955, p. 261, Act 171, Eff. Oct. 14;—Am. 1964, p. 117, Act 121, Eff. Aug. 28.

750.141d Minors; false information by others as to age of minor for buying alcoholic liquor.

Sec. 141d. Any person who gives false information regarding the age of another person under 21 years of age for the purpose of procuring the sale of intoxicating liquor to him or who furnishes false documentary evidence to a person under 21 years of age who uses the evidence to purchase intoxicating liquor is guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: Add. 1964, p. 118, Act 121, Eff. Aug. 28.

750.142 Minors; furnishing obscene books.

Sec. 142. Furnishing obscene books to children—Any person who shall sell, give away or in any way furnish to any minor child any book, pamphlet, or other printed paper or other thing, containing obscene language, or obscene prints, pictures, figures or descriptions tending to the corruption of the morals of youth, or any newspapers, pamphlets or other printed paper devoted to the publication of criminal news, police reports, or criminal deeds, and any person who shall in any manner hire, use or employ such child to sell, give away, or in any manner distribute such books, pamphlets or printed papers, and any person having the care, custody or control of any such child, who shall permit him or her to engage in any such employment, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.142. This section re-enacts, except words "on conviction thereof be deemed", Sec. 5 of Act 260 of 1881, being How. 2002;—CL 1897, 5557;—CL 1915, 7228;—CL 1929, 12802.

750.143 Children; exhibition of obscene matter.

Sec. 143. Exhibition of obscene matter within view of children—Any person who shall exhibit upon any public street or highway, or in any other place within the view of children passing on any public street or highway, any book, pamphlet or other printed paper or thing containing obscene language or obscene prints, figures, or descriptions, tending to the corruption of the morals of youth, or any newspapers, pamphlets, or other printed paper or thing devoted to the publication of criminal news, police reports or criminal deeds, shall on conviction thereof be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.143. This section re-enacts except changes first word "every" to "any", and leaves out "deemed", Sec. 6 of Act 260 of 1881, being How. 2003;—CL 1897, 5558;—CL 1915, 7227;—CL 1929, 12803.

750.144 Minor; boarding houses, licensing.

Sec. 144. Licensed boarding homes for children—Any person who maintains a boarding home for children, unless licensed therefor by the state welfare commission, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Any person who has in his custody or control for a longer period than 30 days, 1 or more children under the age of 15 years unattended by a parent or guardian, except children related to him by blood or marriage, for the purpose of providing such child or children with care, food and lodging, shall be deemed to maintain a boarding home for children: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to the legal guardian of the child.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.144. This section supersedes, with additions, Sec. 6 of Act 136 of 1919, being CL 1929, 12874.
BOARDING HOMES: See Compilers' § 722.101 et seq. and in particular Compilers' § 722.108.

750.145 Minor; contributing to neglect or delinquency.

Sec. 145. Contributing to neglect or delinquency of children—Any person who shall by any act, or by any word, encourage, contribute toward, cause or tend to cause any minor child under the age of 17 years to become neglected or delinquent so as to come or tend to come under the jurisdiction of the juvenile division of the probate court, as defined in section 2 of chapter 12a of Act No. 288 of the Public Acts of 1939, as added by Act No. 54 of the Public Acts of the First Extra Session of 1944, and any amendments thereto, whether or not such child shall in fact be adjudicated a ward of the probate court, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: Am. 1939, p. 148, Act 88, Eff. Sept. 29;—Am. 1945, p. 82, Act 85, Eff. Sept. 6;—CL 1948, 750.145. This section as originally enacted, superseded and merged Sec. 2 of Ch. XXX of Pt. II of Act 319 of 1927, being CL 1929, 7630; and Sec. 13 of Ch. XXXVI of Pt. II of Act 319 of 1927, being CL 1929, 7696.

750.145a Accosting, enticing or soliciting child for immoral purposes.

Sec. 145a. Accosting, enticing or soliciting child. Any person who shall accost, entice, or solicit a child under the age of 16 years with intent to induce or force said child to commit an immoral act, or to submit to an act of sexual intercourse, or an act of gross indecency, or any other act of depravity or delinquency, or shall suggest to such child any of the aforementioned acts, shall on conviction thereof be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 1 year.

HISTORY: Add. 1935, p. 276, Act 174, Eff. Sept. 21;—Am. 1939, p. 149, Act 88, Eff. Sept. 29;—CL 1948, 750.145a.

750.145b Accosting, enticing or soliciting child for immoral purpose; second offense, penalty.

Sec. 145b. Any person who shall be adjudged guilty a second or any subsequent time of a violation of the preceding section of this act, the offense being charged as a second or subsequent offense, shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: Add. 1935, p. 276, Act 174, Eff. Sept. 21;—Am. 1939, p. 149, Act 88, Eff. Sept. 29;—CL 1948, 750.145b.

CHAPTER XXI

CIVIL RIGHTS

750.146 Civil rights; equal public accommodation.

Sec. 146. All persons within the jurisdiction of this state shall be entitled to full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges of inns, hotels, motels, government housing, restaurants, eating houses, barber shops, billiard parlors, stores, public conveyances on land and water, theatres, motion picture houses, public educational institutions, in elevators, on escalators, in all methods of air transportation and all other places of public accommodation, amusement, and recreation, subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law and applicable alike to all citizens and to all citizens alike, with uniform prices.

HISTORY: Am. 1937, p. 185, Act 117, Eff. Oct. 29;—CL 1948, 750.146;—Am. 1952, p. 113, Act 101, Eff. Sep. 18;—Am. 1956, p. 337, Act 182, Eff. Aug. 11.

This section, as originally enacted, re-enacted Sec. 1 of Act 130 of 1885, being How. 9074a;—CL 1897, 11759;—CL 1915, 15570;—Am. 1919, p. 657, Act 375, Eff. Aug. 14;—CL 1929, 16809.

750.147 Civil rights; penalty; suspension or revocation of license.

Sec. 147. Any person being an owner, lessee, proprietor, manager, superintendent, agent or employee of any such place who shall directly or indirectly refuse, withhold from or deny to any person any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges thereof or directly or indirectly publish, circulate, issue, display, post or mail any written or printed communications, notice or advertisement to the effect that any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges of any such places shall be refused, withheld from or denied to any person on account of race, creed or color or that any particular race, creed or color is not welcome, objectionable or not acceptable, not desired or solicited, shall for every such offense be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $100.00 or imprisoned for not less than 15 days or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court; and every person being an owner, lessee, proprietor, manager, superintendent, agent or employee of any such place, and who violates any of the provisions of this section, shall be liable to the injured party, in treble damages sustained, to be recovered in a civil action: Provided, however, That any right of action under this section shall be unassignable. In the event that any person violating this section is operating by virtue of a license issued by the state, or any municipal authority, the court, in addition to the penalty prescribed above, may suspend or revoke such license.

HISTORY: Am. 1937, p. 186, Act 117, Eff. Oct. 29;—CL 1948, 750.147;—Am. 1956, p. 338, Act 182, Eff. Aug. 11.

This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 2 of Act 130 of 1885, being How. 9074b;—CL 1897, 11760;—CL 1915, 15571;—Am. 1919, p. 657, Act 375, Eff. Aug. 14;—CL 1929, 16810.

750.148 Civil rights; race or color not to disqualify for jury service.

Sec. 148. Race or color not to disqualify for jury service. No citizen of the state of Michigan, possessing all other qualifications which are or may be prescribed by law, shall be disqualified to serve as grand or petit juror in any court of said state on account of race, creed or color, and any officer or other person charged with any duty in the drawing, summoning, and selection of persons who shall exclude from, fail, neglect and/or refuse, by words, trick and/or artifice, to draw the name of, summon and/or select any citizen for jury service because of his or her race, creed and/or color, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than 50 dollars or shall be imprisoned for a period of not less than 30 days, or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

HISTORY: Am. 1937, p. 186, Act 117, Eff. Oct. 29;—CL 1948, 750.148. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 3 of Act 130 of 1885, being How. 9074c;—CL 1897, 11781;—CL 1915, 15572;—CL 1929, 16811.

CHAPTER XXII

COMPOUNDING OFFENSES

750.149 Compounding or concealing offense; penalty.

Sec. 149. Punishment—Any person having knowledge of the commission of any offense punishable with death, or by imprisonment in the state prison, who shall take any money, or any gratuity or reward, or any engagement therefor, upon an agreement or understanding, express or implied, to compound or conceal such offense, or not to prosecute therefor, or not to give evidence thereof, shall, when such offense of which he has knowledge was punishable with death, or imprisonment in the state prison for life, be guilty of a felony; and where the offense, of which he so had knowledge, was punishable in any other manner, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year, or by fine of not more than 500 dollars.

CHAPTER XXIII

CONCEALING DEATH OF INFANT CHILD

750.150 Illegitimate issue; concealment of death by mother.

Sec. 150. If any unmarried woman shall conceal the death of any issue of her body, so that it may not be known whether such issue was born alive or not, or whether it was not murdered, she shall be punished by fine not exceeding 100 dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year.

CHAPTER XXIV

CONSPIRACY

750.151 Conspiracy; definition; penalty.

Sec. 151. Definition and punishment—All contracts, agreements, understandings and combinations made, entered into, or knowingly assented to, by and between any parties capable of making a contract or agreement which would be valid at law or in equity, the purpose or object or intent of which shall be to limit, control, or in any manner to restrict or regulate the amount of production or the quantity of any article or commodity to be raised, or produced by mining, manufacture, agriculture or any other branch of business or labor, or to enhance, control or regulate the market price thereof, or in any manner to prevent or restrict free competition in the production or sale of any such article or commodity, shall be illegal and void, and every such contract, agreement, understanding and combination shall constitute a criminal conspiracy. And every person who, for himself personally, or as a member, or in the name of a partnership, or as a member, agent or officer of the corporation, or of any association for business purposes of any kind, who shall enter into or knowingly consent to any such void and illegal contract, agreement, understanding or combination, shall be deemed a party to such conspiracy.

All parties so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 6 months or by a fine of not more than 250 dollars. And the prosecution for offenses under this section may be instituted and the trial had in any county where any of the conspirators become parties to such conspiracy, or in which any one of the conspirators shall reside: Provided, however, That this section shall in no manner invalidate or affect contracts for what is known and recognized as common law and in equity as contracts for the "good will of a trade or business"; but all such contracts shall be left to stand upon the same terms and within the same limitations recognized at common law and in equity.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.151. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 225 of 1889, being How. 9354j;—CL 1897, 11377;—CL 1915, 15095;—CL 1929, 16674.

750.152 Illegal contracts.

Sec. 152. Certain contracts illegal wherever made—Every contract, agreement, understanding, and combination declared void and illegal by the first section of this chapter shall be equally void and illegal within this state, whether made and entered into within or without the state.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.152. This section re-enacts except changing word "act" to "chapter", Sec. 2 of Act 225 of 1889, being How. 9354k;—CL 1897, 11378;—CL 1915, 15096;—CL 1929, 16675.

750.153 Illegal contracts; carrying into effects.

Sec. 153. Carrying into effect such unlawful contracts—The carrying into effect, in whole or in part, of any such illegal contract, agreement, understanding or combination as mentioned in the first section of this chapter and every act which shall be done for that purpose by any of the parties or through their agency or the agency of any one of them, shall constitute a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year, or by fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.153. This section supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 225 of 1889, being How. 9354-l;—CL 1897, 11379;—CL 1915, 15097;—CL 1929, 16676.

750.154 Violation by corporation forfeits charter.

Sec. 154. Violation by corporation forfeits charter—Any corporation now or hereafter organized under the laws of this state, which shall enter into any contract, agreement, understanding or combination declared illegal and criminal by the first section of this chapter, or shall do any act towards or for the purpose of carrying the same into effect in whole or in part, and which shall not within 30 days from the time when this chapter shall take effect, withdraw its assent thereto and repudiate the same and file in the office of the secretary of state such refusal and repudiation under its corporate seal, shall forfeit its charter and all its rights and franchises thereunder.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.154. This section re-enacts except changing word "act" to "chapter", in 2 places, and the word "who" to "which", Sec. 4 of Act 225 of 1889, being How. 9354m;—CL 1897, 11380;—CL 1915, 15098;—CL 1929, 16677.

750.155 Violation by corporation forfeits charter; quo warranto.

Sec. 155. Quo warranto against offending corporations—It shall be the duty of the attorney general upon his own relation, or upon the relation of any private person, whenever he shall have good reasons to believe that the same can be established by proof, to file an information in the nature of a quo warranto against any corporation offending against any of the provisions of this chapter; and thereupon the same proceedings shall be had as provided by chapter 38 of Act No. 314 of the Public Acts of 1915, being sections 15271 to 15300 inclusive of the Compiled Laws of 1929, relating to proceedings by information in the nature of quo warranto, against corporations offending against any of the provisions of the act or acts creating, altering or renewing such corporations, and in other cases.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.155. This section supersedes Sec. 5 of Act 225 of 1889, being How. 9354n;—CL 1897, 11381;—CL 1915, 15099;—CL 1929, 16678.

NOTE: Ch. 38, Act 314, 1915, above referred to, is Compilers' repealed § 638.1 et seq. See § 600.4501 et seq.; GCR 715.

750.156 Exemptions to chapter.

Sec. 156. Exemptions—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to agricultural products or live stock while in the hands of the producer or raiser, nor to the services of laborers or artisans who are formed into societies or organizations for the benefit and protection of their members.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.156. This section re-enacts except changing word "act" to "chapter", Sec. 6 of Act 225 of 1889, being How. 9354o;—CL 1897, 11382;—CL 1915, 15100;—CL 1929, 16679.

750.157 Incriminating testimony; immunity of witnesses.

Sec. 157. Incriminating testimony and immunity of witness except for perjury—No person shall be excused from attending and testifying, or producing any books, papers or other documents before any court or magistrate, upon any investigation, proceeding or trial, for a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, upon the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to degrade or incriminate him; but no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him upon any criminal investigation, proceeding or trial: Provided, That no person so testifying shall be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.157.

750.157a Conspiracy to commit offense or legal act in illegal manner; penalty.

Sec. 157a. Any person who conspires together with 1 or more persons to commit an offense prohibited by law, or to commit a legal act in an illegal manner is guilty of the crime of conspiracy punishable as provided herein:

(a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) if commission of the offense prohibited by law is punishable by imprisonment for 1 year or more, the person convicted under this section shall be punished by a penalty equal to that which could be imposed if he had been convicted of committing the crime he conspired to commit and in the discretion of the court an additional penalty of a fine of $10,000.00 may be imposed.

(b) Any person convicted of conspiring to violate any provision of this act relative to illegal gambling or wagering or any other acts or ordinances relative to illegal gambling or wagering shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than 5 years or by a fine of not more than $10,000.00, or both such fine and imprisonment.

(c) If commission of the offense prohibited by law is punishable by imprisonment for less than 1 year, except as provided in paragraph (b), the person convicted under this section shall be imprisoned for not more than 1 year nor fined more than $1,000.00, or both such fine and imprisonment.

HISTORY: Add. 1986, p. 502, Act 296, Eff. Mar. 10, 1987.

750.157b Inciting, inducing or exhorting and aiding and abetting another to commit a crime; endangering the life of another.

Sec. 157b. Any person who incites, induces or exhorts any other person to unlawfully burn any property, to murder, to kill, to wound or to commit an aggravated or felonious assault on any person or to do any act which would constitute a felony or circuit court misdemeanor, that may endanger or be likely to endanger the life of any person, or who aids and abets in any such inciting, inducing or exhorting shall be punished in the same manner as if he had committed the offense, incited, induced or exhorted.

HISTORY: Add. 1968, p. 518, Act 308, Eff. Jul. 1.

CHAPTER XXIVA

CREDIT CARDS

750.157m Credit cards; definitions.

Sec. 157m. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Credit card" means any instrument or device which is sold, issued or otherwise distributed by a business organization or financial institution for the use of the person or organization identified thereon for obtaining goods, property, services or anything of value on credit.

(b) "Cardholder" means (1) the person or organization who requests a credit card and to whom or for whose benefit a credit card is subsequently issued; or (2) the person or organization to whom a credit card was issued and who uses a credit card, whether the issuance of the credit card was requested or not.

HISTORY: Add. 1967, p. 484, Act 255, Eff. Nov. 2, 1967.

750.157n Stealing, removing, retaining or secreting another's card without consent.

HISTORY: Add. 1967, p. 484, Act 255, Eff. Nov. 2.

750.157p Possession of another's card with intent to circulate or sell.

Sec. 157p. Any person who has in his possession, or under his control, or who receives from another person a credit card with the intent to circulate or sell the same, or to permit or cause or procure the same to be used, delivered, circulated or sold, knowing such possession, control or receipt to be without the consent of the cardholder, shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: Add. 1967, p. 484, Act 255, Eff. Nov. 2.

750.157q Delivery, circulation or sale of wrongly held or obtained card.

Sec. 157q. Any person who delivers, circulates or sells a credit card which was obtained or is held by such person under circumstances which would constitute an offense under sections 157n or 157p, or uses or permits or causes or procures the same to be used, delivered, circulated or sold, knowing the same to be obtained or held under circumstances which would constitute an offense under sections 157n or 157p, shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: Add. 1967, p. 484, Act 255, Eff. Nov. 2.

750.157r Fraud, forgery or material alteration; counterfeiting.

Sec. 157r. Any person who, with intent to defraud, forges, materially alters or counterfeits a credit card, shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: Add. 1967, p. 485, Act 255, Eff. Nov. 2.

750.157s Revoked or cancelled card; use with intent to defraud, notice.

Sec. 157s. Any person who, for the purpose of obtaining goods, property, services or anything of value, knowingly and with intent to defraud uses a credit card which has been revoked or canceled by the issuer thereof, as distinguished from expired, and notice of such revocation or cancellation has been received by such person through registered or certified mail or by personal service, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor if the aggregate value of the goods, property, services or anything of value is $100.00 or less, and shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000.00 or imprisoned not more than 1 year, or both, if the aggregate value of the goods, property, services or anything of value is more than $100.00.

CHAPTER XXVII

DESERTION AND NON-SUPPORT

750.161 Desertion and non-support; bond; conditions, forfeiture.

Sec. 161. Any man who deserts and abandons his wife or deserts and abandons his minor children under 17 years of age, without providing necessary and proper shelter, food, care and clothing for them and any man who being of sufficient ability shall fail, neglect or refuse to provide necessary and proper shelter, food, care and clothing for his wife or his minor children under the age of 17 years, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than 3 years, nor less than 1 year, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 1 year, and not less than 3 months: Provided, however, If at any time before sentence he shall enter into bond to the people of the state of Michigan in such penal sum for such term and with such surety or sureties as may be fixed by the court, conditioned that he will furnish his wife and children with necessary and proper shelter, food, care and clothing, or will pay to the clerk of the court, or other designated person, such sums of money at such times as the court shall order to be used to provide food, shelter, and clothing for his wife and children, or either of them, then the court may in its discretion make an order placing the defendant in charge of a probation officer and the court may require that said defendant shall from time to time report to said probation officer as in other cases provided by the laws of the state of Michigan, and said court may extend the period of probation from time to time or said court may defer sentence in said cause, but no term of any bond or any probation period shall exceed the maximum term of imprisonment as fixed in this section. Upon failure of such man to comply with any of the undertakings contained in said bond, the defendant may be ordered to appear before the court and show cause why sentence should not be imposed, whereupon the court may pass sentence, or for good cause shown may modify the order and make a new undertaking and further defer sentence as may be just and proper. Whenever the whereabouts of said defendant is unknown, the court may summarily issue a bench warrant for the arrest of such defendant. The court shall further, upon default by the defendant to comply with the conditions of said bond and the orders of the court, notify the prosecuting attorney of the county, who shall forthwith file a petition in the court wherein said cause is pending to declare said bond forfeited. A copy of such petition and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served upon the surety or sureties, if any, named in said bond at least 4 days before the hearing of said petition. Upon said hearing, the court may declare said bond forfeited. When so ordered, the prosecuting attorney shall forthwith institute the necessary action to collect the principal sum of said bond. When a cash bond shall have been filed, the same shall be declared forfeited by the court. All sums received from said bonds shall be paid to the clerk of the court, who shall hold and disburse said money for the use of those entitled to the same in accordance with the orders of the court for their necessary food, care, shelter and clothing: Provided, That the desertion, abandonment, refusal, or neglect to provide necessary and proper shelter, food, care and clothing as in this section provided shall be deemed to be a continuing offense and may be so set out in any complaint or information. Proof of the offense charged at any time during the period alleged in the complaint or information shall be deemed proof of a violation of this section.

HISTORY: Am. 1947, p. 194, Act 142, Eff. Oct. 11;—CL 1948, 750.161. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 1 of Act 144 of 1907, being CL 1915, 7789;—Am. 1921, p. 243, Act 114, Eff. Aug. 18;—Am. 1923, p. 384, Act 239, Eff. Aug. 30;—CL 1929, 12788.

750.179 Embezzlement of railroad passenger tickets; penalty.

Sec. 179. Embezzlement of railroad passenger tickets—Any officer, agent, clerk or employe of any incorporated railroad company who shall fraudulently embezzle, dispose of or convert to his own use any railroad passenger ticket or tickets, whether such tickets are fully prepared for use, or not so fully prepared, or use tickets which have been once used, and which have come to his hands or charge by virtue of his office or employment, shall be guilty of a felony.

In any prosecution under this section, it shall be lawful to include in a charge, as 1 offense, all acts constituting such offense committed between certain days set forth, and it shall be sufficient to set forth by general description the tickets alleged to have been unlawfully taken; and it shall be sufficient to maintain the charge if it shall be proved on trial that any such ticket or tickets were, within the period set forth, embezzled, disposed of, or converted by the defendant charged in said prosecution as alleged.

At the trial of any case arising under this section, it shall be sufficient prima facie proof of the existence of any railroad company named in the indictment to show that such company was doing business as a railroad company at the time named in the indictment.

The words "railroad passenger ticket or tickets" as used in this section shall be construed to embrace any ticket, card, pass, certificate or paper providing, or intended to provide, for the carriage or transportation of any person or persons upon any railroad, and shall include, not only tickets of any railroad company fully prepared for use, but those not fully prepared for use, and all others which have been once used.

Sept. 10;—How. 9209;—CL 1897, 11632;—CL 1915, 15397;—CL 1929, 17033.

750.180 Embezzlement in bank, deposit, trust company, or credit union; penalty.

Sec. 180. Any president, director, secretary, cashier, treasurer or other officer, teller, clerk, agent, receiver or conservator, or agent or employee of such receiver or conservator of any bank, trust company, credit union or safe or safety and collateral deposit company, who embezzles, abstracts or wilfully misapplies any of the moneys, funds, credits or property of the bank, trust company, credit union or safe or safety and collateral deposit company, whether owned by it or held in trust, or who, without authority of the directors or proper officers, issues or puts forth any certificate of deposit, draws any order or bill of exchange, makes any acceptance, assigns any note, bond, draft, bill of exchange, mortgage, judgment or decree, or who makes any false entry in any book, report or statement of the bank, trust company, credit union or safe or safety and collateral deposit company with intent in either case to injure or defraud the bank, trust company, credit union or safe or safety and collateral deposit company or any company, corporation or person or to deceive any officer of the bank, trust company, credit union or safe or safety and collateral deposit company, or any agent, receiver or conservator, or agent or employee of such receiver or conservator appointed to examine the affairs of such bank, trust company, credit union or safe or safety and collateral deposit company; and any person who with like intent aids or abets any officer, clerk, agent, receiver or conservator, or agent or employee of such receiver or conservator, in violation of this section or who shall issue or cause to be issued or put in circulation, any bill, note or other evidence of debt to circulate as money, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 20 years.

HISTORY: Am. 1937, p. 259, Act 164, Imd. Eff. Jul. 9;—CL 1948, 750.180;—Am. 1960, p. 27, Act 31, Eff. Aug. 17.

This section as originally enacted superseded and merged Sec. 66 of Act 66 of 1929, being CL 1929, 11963; and Sec. 41 of Act 67 of 1929, being CL 1929, 12037.

750.181 Embezzlement of property belonging to himself and another; penalty.

Sec. 181. Any agent, servant, employee, trustee, bailee, custodian, attorney-at-law, collector or other person, who, in any manner receives or collects money or any other personal property which is partly the property of another and partly the property of such agent, servant, employee, trustee, bailee, custodian, attorney-at-law, collector or other person, and who shall embezzle or fraudulently dispose of or convert to his own use, or take or secrete with intent to embezzle or convert to his own use, such money or personal property, without the consent of the part owner of such money or personal property, shall, if the money or personal property so embezzled is of the value of $100.00 or under, be guilty of a misdemeanor; if the money or personal property so embezzled is of the value of more than $100.00, he shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 10 years or by a fine of not more than $5,000.00.

In any prosecution for such crime it shall be no defense that such agent, servant, employee, trustee, bailee, custodian, attorney-at-law, collector or other person was entitled to a compensation out of such money or personal property as compensation for collecting or receiving the same for and on behalf of the owner thereof, but it shall be no embezzlement on the part of such agent, servant, employee, trustee, bailee, custodian, attorney-at-law, collector or other person to retain his reasonable collection fee on the collection or any other valid interest he may have in such money or personal property.

In any prosecution under this section, the failure, neglect or refusal of such agent, servant, employee, trustee, bailee, custodian, attorney-at-law, collector or other person to pay, deliver or refund to the proper person such money or personal property entrusted to his care, upon demand, shall be prima facie proof of intent to embezzle.

750.188 Voluntarily suffering prisoner to escape.

Sec. 188. Voluntarily suffering prisoner to escape—Any jailor, or other officer who shall voluntarily suffer any prisoner in his custody, upon conviction, or upon any criminal charge, to escape, shall suffer the like punishment and penalties as the prisoner so suffered to escape was sentenced to, or would be liable to suffer upon conviction, for the crime or offense wherewith he stood charged.

750.189 Negligently suffering escape; refusing to receive prisoner.

Sec. 189. Negligently suffering escape and refusing to receive a prisoner—Any jailor or other officer who shall through negligence, suffer any prisoner in his custody upon conviction or upon any criminal charge, to escape, or who shall wilfully refuse to receive into his custody any prisoner lawfully committed thereto, on any criminal charge or conviction, or any lawful process whatever, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 2 years, or by fine of not more than 1,000 dollars.

750.190 Receiving reward for assisting an escape.

Sec. 190. Receiving reward for assisting an escape—Any sheriff or other officer, who shall demand or receive any reward, gratuity or valuable thing, to procure, assist, connive at or permit any escape of any prisoner in his custody, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 2 years, or by fine of not more than 1,000 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.190. This section supersedes Sec. 47 of Ch. XXV of Act 314 of 1915, being CL 1915, 13025;—CL 1929, 14754.

750.191 Refusing, omitting and delaying to arrest.

Sec. 191. Refusing, omitting and delaying to arrest—Any officer authorized to serve process, who shall wilfully and corruptly refuse to execute any lawful process to him directed, and requiring him to apprehend or confine any person convicted or charged with an offense, or who shall wilfully and corruptly omit or delay to execute such process, whereby such person shall escape and go at large, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year, or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

750.192 Aiding escape; prisoners of Wisconsin being transported.

Sec. 192. Aiding escape of prisoners of Wisconsin being transported through Michigan—It shall be lawful for any sheriff, coroner, constable or other officer of the state of Wisconsin or other person lawfully authorized under the laws of the state of Wisconsin to act as any such officer, having in his lawful custody any person or persons, arrested in the state of Wisconsin, under a criminal warrant or process, or under any writ, order or process in a civil action or proceeding, issued out of or by any court of said state of Wisconsin, or by any officer of said state of Wisconsin, authorized to issue such warrant, writ, process or order, to convey or transport any such prisoner through any portion of the state of Michigan, whenever it shall be necessary or convenient so to do in order to bring such prisoner before any such court or officer of the state of Wisconsin, or to deliver him to any jailor, or commit him to any prison of said state of Wisconsin, for any lawful purpose whatsoever. Any such officer of the state of Wisconsin shall, while in the state of Michigan with any prisoner or prisoners in his custody for the purposes aforesaid, have all the rights and powers in relation to such prisoner or prisoners as would a sheriff of this state.

It shall not be lawful for any officer of the state of Michigan to discharge any such prisoner from custody under writ of habeas corpus or other proceeding brought for that purpose, when it shall be made to appear that such prisoner is in custody as in the preceding paragraph stated. And it shall be a sufficient answer to said writ of habeas corpus or other proceeding, by the officer or person having such custody, that he holds such prisoner by virtue of a lawful warrant, writ, process or order as in the preceding paragraph stated, and he shall annex to such answer a copy of the warrant, writ, process, or order under which he claims custody of such prisoner.

Any person who shall in any manner aid or assist any such prisoner so being conveyed or transported through the state of Michigan, to escape from the officer or person having him so in lawful custody, or who shall resist any such officer or person, while engaged in conveying or transporting any such prisoner through this state, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year, or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.192. This section re-enacts except first word "That", Sec. 1 of Act 8 of 1881, being How. 9364;—CL 1897, 11393;—CL 1915, 15111;—CL 1929, 16591; and re-enacts except changing word "section" to "paragraph" in 2 places. Sec. 2 of Act 8 of 1881, being How. 9365;—CL 1897, 11394;—CL 1915, 15112;—CL 1929, 16592; and supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 8 of 1881, being How. 9366;—CL 1897, 11395;—CL 1915, 15113;—CL 1929, 16593.

750.193 Breaking prison; escape attempts; penalty, venue; prison, definition; release and parole violators.

Sec. 193. (1) Any person, being imprisoned in any prison of this state for any term, who shall break prison and escape, or break prison though no escape be actually made, or shall escape, or shall leave the prison without being discharged from the prison by due process of law, or shall attempt to break prison or escape therefrom, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by further imprisonment for not more than 5 years, such term of further imprisonment to be served after the termination, pursuant to law, of any sentence or sentences then being served. Such prisoner who shall break prison or escape or attempt to break prison or attempt to escape as aforesaid, shall be charged with that offense and tried in the courts of the county wherein are located the administrative offices of the prison or other penal facility to which the prisoner was committed or transferred, at the time of the breaking, escape, or attempt to break or escape.

(2) The word "prison" as used in this section shall include any Michigan state prison, penitentiary, reformatory, state house of correction, camp constructed and maintained under the provisions of Act No. 274 of the Public Acts of 1949, as amended, being section 798.351 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, or any penal camp, except probation camps or probation recovery camps, and shall further include the grounds, farms, shops, road camps or places of employment operated by such institution or under control of the officers thereof, or the department of corrections, or of any police officers of this state, or of other persons authorized by the department to have prison inmates under their care, custody or supervision, either in an institution or outside an institution, whether for the purpose of work or medical care or otherwise.

(3) Escaping from the lawful custody of any guard or prison official or employee while outside the confines of such prison shall be deemed to be a violation of this section. A person who is released from prison under a work pass program and who violates the terms of such release or who fails to return to his place of imprisonment within the time provided is guilty of a violation of this section. Any person violating the conditions of his parole shall not be deemed to be an escapee under the amendatory provisions of this act.

(f) Possession, transportation, sale or use of signal flares of a type approved by the director of state police, blank cartridges or blank cartridge pistols specifically for a show or theater, for the training or exhibiting of dogs, for signal purposes in athletic sports, for the use by military organizations, and all items in section 243a(1) used by railroads, trucks or vehicles for emergency signal purposes.

(g) The sale of any kind of fireworks provided they are to be shipped directly out of state in accordance with regulations of the United States interstate commerce commission covering the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles by motor, rail and water.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 694, Act 358, Eff. Jan. 1, 1969.

750.243b Permit for use of fireworks; application; purpose of use; age limitation.

Sec. 243b. (1) The council or commission of any city or village or the township board of any township, upon application in writing, on application forms provided by the director of the department of state police, may grant a permit for the use of fireworks otherwise prohibited by section 243a, within their political jurisdiction, manufactured for outdoor pest control or agricultural purposes, or for public display by municipalities, fair associations, amusement parks, or other organizations or groups of individuals approved by such city, village or township authorities, if the applicable provisions of this act are complied with. The permits shall be on forms provided by the director of the department of state police. After a permit has been granted, sales, possession or transportation of fireworks for such purposes only may be made. No permit shall be transferable, nor shall a permit be issued to any person under the age of 21 years.

(2) The council or commission of any city or village or the township board of any township, upon application in writing, may grant a permit, on forms provided by the director of the department of state police, to any resident wholesale dealer or jobber to have in his possession within the political jurisdiction, fireworks otherwise prohibited by section 243a, for sale only to holders of permits as provided for in subsection (1). No permit is transferable, nor shall a permit be issued to any person under the age of 21 years.

(3) Before any permit for a pyrotechnic display is issued, the person, firm or corporation making application therefor shall furnish proof of financial responsibility by a bond or insurance in an amount deemed necessary by the local governing authority, to satisfy claims for damages to property or personal injuries arising out of any act or omission on the part of such person, firm or corporation or any agent or employee thereof, in such amount, character and form as the municipal authority determines to be necessary for the protection of the public.

(4) No permit shall be issued under the provisions of this act to a nonresident person, firm or corporation for conduct of a pyrotechnic display in this state until such person, firm or corporation shall have appointed in writing a member of the bar of this state and residing therein or a resident agent to be his legal representative upon whom all process in any action or proceeding against him may be served.

(5) The local governing authority shall rule on the competency and qualifications of operators of pyrotechnic displays, as the operator has furnished in his application form and on the time, place and safety aspects of the displays before granting permits.

HISTORY: Add. 1968, p. 695, Act 358, Eff. Jan. 1, 1969.

750.243c Transportation of fireworks intrastate; permit.

Sec. 243c. Transportation of fireworks intrastate shall be made only with the permits provided for in this act and as follows:

(a) In accordance with interstate commerce commission regulations for transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles by motor, rail and water, including specifications for shipping containers.

(b) In nonpassenger carrying vehicles, in charge of a competent driver at least 21 years of age, vehicles equipped with a 15 pound carbon dioxide, or a 10 pound dry chemical fire extinguisher; and in or near which smoking shall be prohibited while loading, unloading and transporting fireworks.

HISTORY: Add. 1968, p. 695, Act 358, Eff. Jan. 1, 1969.

750.243d Storage of fireworks; wholesalers, dealers and jobbers.

Sec. 243d. Storage of fireworks at the sites of wholesalers, dealers and jobbers shall be as follows:

(a) In 1 story, without basement, noncombustible or fire resistive building; weather resistant; well ventilated and equipped with a strong door kept securely locked except when open for business.

(b) The location of the storage building shall be approved by the municipal governing authority having jurisdiction, and in any case shall be located in relation to inhabited buildings, passenger railroads and public highways, no less than distances specified in the standard table of distances for explosives in the Michigan administrative code regulations for storage and handling of explosives.

(c) Smoking, matches, open flames, spark producing devices and firearms shall be prohibited inside of or within 50 feet of any warehouse used for the storage of fireworks. Combustible materials shall not be stored within 50 feet of warehouses used for the storage of fireworks.

(d) The interior of warehouses used for the storage of fireworks shall be kept clean and free from debris and empty containers. Warehouses shall not be used for the storage of any metal tools nor any commodity other than fireworks.

(e) Warehouses shall not be provided with heat or lights, except that if lights are necessary an electric safety flashlight or safety lantern shall be used.

(f) Warehouses shall bear lettering on each side and top in letters not less than 4 inches high, the words "explosives—keep fire away".

(g) Every warehouse used for the storage of fireworks shall be under the supervision of a competent person who shall be not less than 21 years of age.

HISTORY: Add. 1968, p. 696, Act 358, Eff. Jan. 1, 1969.

750.243e Violation of section; penalty; misdemeanor.

Sec. 243e. Any person, firm, copartnership or corporation, who violates any of the provisions of sections 243a to 243d, or who violates the terms of any permit issued thereunder, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: Add. 1968, p. 696, Act 358, Eff. Jan. 1, 1969.

CHAPTER XL

FLAG AND COAT-OF-ARMS

750.244 Flag and coat of arms; definitions.

Sec. 244. Definitions—The words “flag”, “standard”, “color”, “ensign”, “coat-of-arms” or “shield”, as used in this chapter, shall include any flag, standard, color, ensign, coat-of-arms or shield, or copy, picture or representation thereof, made of any substance or represented or produced thereon, and of any size, evidently purporting to be such flag, standard, color, ensign, coat-of-arms or shield of the United States or of this state, or a copy, picture or representation thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.244. This section re-enacts except changing “act” to “chapter” and adds “coat-of-arms” in 3 places, Sec. 1 of Act 222 of 1923, being CL 1929, 17087.

750.245 Exhibition and display.

Sec. 245. Exhibition and display of flag, etc.—Any person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor who shall, in any manner, for exhibition or display:

(a) Place or cause to be placed any word, figure, mark, picture, design, drawing or advertisement of any nature upon any flag, standard, color, ensign, coat-of-arms or shield of the United States or of this state, or authorized by any law of the United States or of this state; or

(b) Expose to public view any such flag, standard, color, ensign, coat-of-arms or shield upon which shall have been printed, painted or otherwise produced, or to which shall have been attached, appended, affixed or annexed any such word, figure, mark, picture, design, drawing or advertisement; or

(c) Expose to public view for sale, manufacture, or otherwise, or to sell, give or have in possession for sale, for gift or for use for any purpose, any substance, being an article of merchandise, or receptacle, or thing for holding or carrying merchandise, upon or to which shall have been produced or attached any such flag, standard, color, ensign, coat-of-arms or shield, in order to advertise, call attention to, decorate, mark or distinguish such article or substance.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.245. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 2 of Act 222 of 1923, being CL 1929, 17088; and part of Sec. 5 of Act 222 of 1923, being CL 1929, 17091.

DISPLAY: See also Compilers' § 2.27.

750.246 Mutilation.

Sec. 246. Mutilation of flag, etc.—Any person who shall publicly mutilate, deface, defile, defy, trample upon or by word or act cast contempt upon any such flag, standard, color, ensign, coat-of-arms or shield, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.246. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 3 of Act 222 of 1923, being CL 1929, 17089; and part of Sec. 5 of Act 222 of 1923, being CL 1929, 17091.

750.247 Exceptions to chapter.

Sec. 247. Exceptions—This chapter shall not apply to any act permitted by the statutes of the United States or of this state, or by the United States army and navy regulations, nor shall it apply to any printed or written document or production, stationery, ornament, picture or jewelry whereon shall be depicted said flag, standard, color, ensign, coat-of-arms or shield with no design or words thereon and disconnected with any advertisement.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.247. This section re-enacts except changes “statute” to “chapter” and adds “coat-of-arms”, Sec. 4 of Act 222 of 1923, being CL 1929, 17090.

CHAPTER XLI

FORGERY AND COUNTERFEITING

750.248 Forgery of records and other instruments; venue.

Sec. 248. (1) Any person who shall falsely make, alter, forge or counterfeit any public record, or any certificate, return or attestation of any clerk of a court, public register, notary public, justice of the peace, township clerk, or any other public officer, in relation to any matter wherein such certificate, return or attestation may be received as legal proof, or any charter, deed, will, testament, bond or writing obligatory, letter of attorney, policy of insurance, bill of lading, bill of exchange, promissory note, or any order, acquittance of discharge for money or other property, or any waiver, release, claim or demand, or any acceptance of a bill of exchange, or indorsement, or assignment of a bill of exchange or promissory note for the payment of money, or any accountable receipt for money, goods or other property, with intent to injure or defraud any person, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 14 years.

(2) The venue in a prosecution under this section may be either in the county in which the forgery was performed, or in a county in which any false, forged, altered or counterfeit record, deed, instrument or other writing is uttered and published with intent to injure or defraud.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.248;—Am. 1964, p. 100, Act 101, Eff. Aug. 28;—Am. 1967, p. 84, Act 64, Eff. Nov. 2.

750.249 Forgery of records and other instruments; uttering and publishing.

Sec. 249. Uttering and publishing forged instruments—Any person who shall utter and publish as true, any false, forged, altered or counterfeit record, deed, instrument or other writing mentioned in the preceding section, knowing the same to be false, altered, forged or counterfeit, with intent to injure or defraud as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 14 years.

750.255 Tools and implements for counterfeiting bills or notes.

Sec. 255. Tools and implements for counterfeiting notes—Any person who shall engrave, make or mend, or begin to engrave, make or mend, any plate, block, press or other tool, instrument or implement, or shall make or provide any paper or other material, adapted or designed for the forging and making any false or counterfeit note, certificate or other bill of credit in the similitude of the notes, certificates, bills of credit issued by lawful authority for any debt of this state, or any of its political subdivisions or municipalities, or any false or counterfeit note or bill in the similitude of the notes or bills issued by any bank or banking company established in this state, or within the United States, or in any of the British provinces in North America, or in any foreign state or country; and any person who shall have in his possession any such plate or block, engraved in whole or in part, or any press or other tool, instrument or implement, or any paper or other material, adapted and designed as aforesaid, with intent to use the same, or to cause or permit the same to be used in forging or making any such false or counterfeit certificates, bills or notes, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 10 years or by fine of not more than 5,000 dollars.

HISTORY: Am. 1934, 1st Ex. Ses., p. 89, Act 16, Imd. Eff. March 28;—CL 1948, 750.255. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 9 of Ch. 155 of the R.S. 1846, being CL 1857, 5810;—CL 1871, 7639;—How. 9221;—CL 1897, 11667;—CL 1915, 15440;—CL 1929, 17056.

750.256 Testimony of president and cashier of bank.

Sec. 256. Testimony of president and cashier of bank—In all prosecutions for forging or counterfeiting any notes or bills of the bank before mentioned, or for altering, publishing or tendering in payment as true, any forged or counterfeit bank bills or notes, or for being possessed thereof, with intent to alter and pass the same as true, the testimony of the president and cashier of such bank may be dispensed with, if their place of residence shall be out of this state, or more than 40 miles from the place of trial; and the testimony of any person acquainted with the signature of the president or cashier of such banks, or who has knowledge of the difference in appearance of the true and counterfeit bills or notes thereof, may be admitted to prove that any such bills or notes are counterfeit; and the lawful existence of any bank out of this state shall be presumed upon evidence that such bank is actually engaged in the business of a bank.

750.257 Sworn certificate; evidence.

Sec. 257. Sworn certificate made evidence—In all prosecutions for forging or counterfeiting any note, certificate, bills of credit or other security issued in behalf of the United States, or in behalf of any state or territory, or for uttering, publishing or tendering in payment as true, any such forged or counterfeit note, certificate, bill of credit, or security, or for being possessed thereof with intent to utter or pass the same as true, the certificate under oath of the secretary of the treasury, or of the treasurer of the United States, or of the secretary or treasurer of any state or territory on whose behalf such note, certificate, bill of credit or security, purports to have been issued, shall be admitted as evidence for the purpose of proving the same to be forged or counterfeit.

750.258 Connecting parts of instruments.

Sec. 258. Connecting parts of instruments—If any person shall connect together different parts of several bank notes or other genuine instruments in such a manner as to produce an additional note or instrument, with intent to pass all of them as genuine, the same shall be deemed a forgery, in like manner as if each of them had been falsely made or forged.

750.259 Affixing fictitious signature.

Sec. 259. Affixing fictitious signature—If any fictitious or pretended signature, purporting to be the signature of an officer or agent of any corporation, shall be fraudulently affixed to any instrument or writing, purporting to be a note, draft or other evidence of debt, issued by said corporation, with intent to pass the same as true, it shall be deemed a forgery, though no such person may ever have been an officer or agent of such corporation, nor ever have existed.

750.265 Selling goods bearing forged labels; intent to defraud.

Sec. 265. Selling goods bearing forged labels, brands, etc., with intent to defraud—Any person who shall vend any goods, wares or merchandise, having thereon any forged or counterfeit stamps, labels or brands, imitating, resembling or purporting to be the stamps, or labels of any mechanic, manufacturer, druggist or apothecary, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, and resembling or purporting to be imitations of the stamps, labels or marks of such manufacturer or mechanic, with intent to defraud, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail of not more than 1 year, or by fine of not more than 500 dollars.

750.265a Union label; counterfeiting, imitation, unauthorized use.

Sec. 265a. Any person who counterfeits or imitates any union label, or who uses any union label without authority of the particular labor organization or association of working-men whose union label is being so used, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. A union label for the purposes of this section is defined as a trademark, term, design, symbol or device of a labor organization or association of working-men adopted by them to distinguish their craft, trade or work or membership in or indicating work done by such labor organization or association of working-men.

HISTORY: Add. 1957, p. 67, Act 62, Eff. Sep. 27.

750.266 Forged railroad passenger tickets.

Sec. 266. Forgery and selling, etc., of forged railroad passenger tickets—Any person who shall falsely make, forge, or counterfeit any railroad passenger ticket, purporting to be made or issued by any railroad company or companies doing business within or without this state, with intent to injure or defraud, or who shall with like intent, alter any railroad passenger ticket made or issued by any such railroad company or companies, shall be guilty of a felony.

Any change of any such ticket made or issued by any railroad company or companies, if made with intent to injure or defraud, whether made by writing, printing, stamping, punching, obliteration, or otherwise, shall be deemed an alteration within the meaning of this section.

Any person who shall sell, or offer to sell or who shall have in his possession with intent to sell, any such false, forged, altered or counterfeit railroad passenger ticket knowing the same to be false, forged, altered or counterfeit, shall be guilty of a felony.

The words "railroad passenger ticket or tickets", as used in this section, shall be construed to embrace any ticket, card, pass, certificate or paper providing, or intended to provide for the carriage or transportation of any person or persons upon any railroad, and shall include not only tickets of any railroad company fully prepared for use, but those not fully prepared for use, and all others which have been once used. At the trial of any case arising under this section, it shall be sufficient prima facie proof of the existence of any railroad company named in the information or indictment to show that such company was doing business as a railroad company at the time named in the information or indictment.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.266. This section supersedes Sec. 8 of Act 164 of 1869, Add. 1881, p. 138, Act 146, Eff. Sept. 10;—How. 9207;—CL 1897, 11630;—CL 1915, 15395;—CL 1929, 17031; and Sec. 9 of Act 164 of 1869, Add. 1881, p. 138, Act 146, Eff. Sept. 10;—How. 9208;—CL 1897, 11631;—CL 1915, 15396;—CL 1929, 17032; and re-enacts except changes "in the preceding sections" to "this section", Sec. 10 of Act 164 of 1869, Add. 1881, p. 139, Act 146, Eff. Sept. 10;—How. 9209;—CL 1897, 11632;—CL 1915, 15397;—CL 1929, 17033.

CHAPTER XLII
FORTUNE TELLING750.267 Fortune telling for gain; by cards, etc.

Sec. 267. Fortune telling by cards, etc., for gain—Any person who shall pretend for money or gain, to predict future events by cards, tokens, trances, the inspection of the hands or the conformation of the skull of any person, mind reading so-called, or by consulting the movements of the heavenly bodies, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.267. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 38 of 1913, being CL 1915, 15065;—CL 1929, 16634.

750.268 Fortune telling for gain; by other means.

Sec. 268. Fortune telling by other means for gain—Any person who shall pretend for money or gain to tell fortunes or foretell future events by other means than those mentioned in the next preceding section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.268. This section supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 38 of 1913, being CL 1915, 15066;—CL 1929, 16635.

750.269 Pretending to enable one to recover lost property.

Sec. 269. Pretending by palmistry, etc., to enable one to recover lost property, etc.—Any person who shall pretend by or through means of palmistry, phrenology, clairvoyancy, astrology or fortune telling by cards or other devices for money or gain, to enable any one to get or recover lost or stolen property, or to give success in business, enterprise, speculation or games of chance, or to make 1 person dispose of property, business or valuable thing in favor of another, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.269. This section supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 38 of 1913, being CL 1915, 15067;—CL 1929, 16636.

750.270 Evidence; exemptions.

Sec. 270. Evidence; exemptions—If any person shall publish by card, circular, sign, newspaper or any other means whatsoever, that he or she shall or will predict future events, the said publication may be given in evidence to sustain an indictment under this chapter. Any person whose fortune may have been told as aforesaid, shall be a competent witness against all persons charged with any violation of this chapter. Nothing contained in sections 267, 268 or 269 of this act shall be deemed to apply to services conducted by a duly ordained minister of any spiritualist church incorporated under the laws of the state of Michigan.

HISTORY: Am. 1939, p. 472, Act 256, Eff. Sept. 29;—CL 1948, 750.270. This section as originally enacted, re-enacted except "or persons", Sec. 4 of Act 38 of 1913, being CL 1915, 15068;—CL 1929, 16637.

CHAPTER XLIII
FRAUDS AND CHEATS750.271 Domestic corporations; securities, fraudulent issue and sale.

Sec. 271. Fraudulent issue and sale of securities of domestic corporations—Any person or persons who shall fraudulently issue or cause to be issued, any stock, scrip, or evidence of debt, of any bank, insurance, mining or other incorporated company of this state, or who shall sell or offer for sale, hypothecate, or otherwise dispose of any such stock, scrip or other evidence of debt, knowing the same to be so fraudulently issued, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 10 years.

750.272 Foreign corporations; stock, fraudulently issued, sale.

Sec. 272. Knowingly selling fraudulently issued stock of foreign corporations—Any person or persons who shall sell or offer for sale any stock fraudulently issued, and purporting to be the stock, scrip or evidence of debt of any corporation located out of the state of Michigan, knowing the same to be so fraudulently issued, or shall hypothecate, or in any manner dispose of the same for value, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 10 years.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.272. This section supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 128 of 1855, being CL 1857, 5909;—CL 1871, 7754;—How. 9350;—CL 1897, 11363;—CL 1915, 15061;—CL 1929, 9905.

750.273 Signature; fraudulently obtaining.

Sec. 273. Fraudulently obtaining signature to note, etc.—Any person who shall, by representing that he is the agent of any person, company, firm or corporation, or by any other means, fraudulently obtain the signature of any person with the intent to cheat and defraud such person, to any promissory note, bill of exchange, due bill, order, contract or any paper writing whatever, shall be guilty of felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 10 years or by fine of not more than 5,000 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.273. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 228 of 1879, being How. 9353;—CL 1897, 11366;—CL 1915, 15064;—CL 1929, 16994.

750.274 Note; fraudulent signature; knowingly purchasing, collection.

Sec. 274. Purchasing and attempting to collect a note, knowing signature was fraudulently obtained—Any person who shall receive into his possession for collection or sale or who shall purchase any promissory note, bill of exchange, due bill, order, contract, or paper writing whatever, obtained in the manner mentioned in the preceding section of this chapter, knowing the same to have been obtained with the intent to cheat and defraud, and any person who shall take any steps to collect any promissory note, bill of exchange, due bill, order, contract, paper or writing whatever, knowing the signature to have been obtained by fraud, with intent to cheat and defraud, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 10 years, or by fine of not more than 5,000 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.274. This section supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 228 of 1879, being How. 9354;—CL 1897, 11367;—CL 1915, 15085;—CL 1929, 16995.

750.275 Warranty deed or similar words; use.

Sec. 275. Use of words “warranty deed” or similar words—Any person who shall print, sell or keep for sale any blank forms of deeds containing the words “warranty deed”, or “warranty-deed-covenant-own-acts”, or any similar words printed or written thereon, unless such deed is in fact an absolute warranty deed, and any person who shall knowingly use any such deed for the purpose of conveying title unless the same is an absolute warranty deed, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.275. This section supersedes part of and merges Sec. 1 of Act 177 of 1885, being How. 9354a;—CL 1897, 11368;—CL 1915, 15096;—CL 1929, 13325; and Sec. 2 of Act 177 of 1885, being How. 9354b;—CL 1897, 11369;—CL 1915, 15067;—CL 1929, 13326.

750.276 Promise to vendee of grain to sell at fictitious price; signature to note.

Sec. 276. Procuring signature to note, etc., as consideration for promise to vendee of grain to sell same at fictitious price—Any person who, either for his own benefit, or as the agent of any corporation, company, association or person, procures the signature of any person or maker, indorser, guarantor or surety thereon, to any bond, bill, receipt, promissory note, draft, check or any other evidence of indebtedness as the whole or part consideration for any bond, contract, agreement or promise given to the vendee of any grain, seed or other cereals, binding the vendor or any other person, corporation, company or association, or the agent thereof, to sell for such vendee any grain, seed, or cereals at a fictitious price, or at a price equal to or more than twice the market price of such grain, seed or cereals, shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.276. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 20 of 1887, being How. 9354c;—CL 1897, 11370;—CL 1915, 15098;—CL 1929, 16631; and Sec. 3 of Act 20 of 1887, being How. 9354e;—CL 1897, 11372;—CL 1915, 15090;—CL 1929, 16633.

750.277 Promise to vendee of grain to sell at fictitious price; sale and transfer.

Sec. 277. Sale and transfer of note, etc., signature to which was procured as consideration for promise to vendee of grain to sell at fictitious price—Any person who shall sell, barter or dispose of, either for his own benefit or as the agent of any corporation, company, association or person, any bond, bill receipt, promissory note, draft, check or other evidence of indebtedness, knowing the same to have been obtained as the whole or part consideration for any bond, contract, agreement, or promise given to the vendee of any grain, seed or cereals, binding the vendor or any other person, corporation, company or association, or agent thereof, to sell for such vendee any grain, seed or cereals, at a fictitious price, or at a price equal to or more than twice the market price of such grain, seed, or cereals, shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.277. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 2 of Act 20 of 1887, being How. 9354d;—CL 1897, 11371.—CL 1915, 15089;—CL 1929, 16632; and Sec. 3 of Act 20 of 1887, being How. 9354e;—CL 1897, 11372.—CL 1915, 15090;—CL 1929, 16633.

750.278 Fraudulent warehouse receipts; executing and delivering.

Sec. 278. Knowingly executing and delivering fraudulent warehouse receipts—Any warehouseman or forwarding merchant or any other person, or the agent or servant of any warehouseman or forwarding merchant or other person, who shall knowingly execute and deliver to any person a receipt or certificate purporting to be for flour, wheat, pot or pearl ashes, or any grain, produce or thing of value, as being at the time of executing and delivering such receipt in possession of such warehouseman or forwarding merchant, or other person, or in store for the person or persons, copartnership, or firm named in any such receipt or certificate, without being at the time of executing and delivering such receipt in the actual possession of such flour, wheat, pot or pearl ashes, or any grain, produce or thing of value, as expressed in such certificate or receipt, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 5 years or by fine of not more than 2,500 dollars.

The sending or forwarding to a person who shall be duly entitled or authorized to receive the same, by the public mails, or through the government postoffice, or by the hands of any person, of any such receipt or certificate as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be a good and lawful delivery thereof, within the meaning of this section.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.278. This section supersedes Sec. 35 of Ch. 154 of the R.S. 1846, being CL 1857, 5779;—CL 1871, 7596;—Am. 1881, p. 381, Act 270, Eff. Sept. 10;—How. 9157;—CL 1897, 11571;—CL 1915, 15316;—CL 1929, 16912.

WAREHOUSEMEN: In general, see Compilers' § 443.1 et seq.; in particular for provisions similar to this section, see Compilers' § 440.7201 et seq.

750.279 Personal property; fraudulent disposition.

Sec. 279. Fraudulent disposition of personal property—Whenever money, or any goods, wares or merchandise or other personal property, shall be delivered, committed or entrusted to, or put in charge of any person as agent with written instructions, or upon any written agreement signed by the party so instructed as agent, or such written instructions shall be delivered or such written agreement shall be made, at any time after delivery to such agent, of any money or goods, wares, merchandise, or other personal property, which instructions or agreements shall express the appropriation, purpose, or use to which such money shall be applied, or the terms, mode or manner of the application or employment of such money, or which shall express or direct the disposition or use to be made by such agent, of any goods, wares, merchandise or other personal property, so delivered or entrusted to such agent; if the person to whom any such money or goods, wares, merchandise or other personal property shall be so delivered, committed or entrusted, shall purposely and intentionally apply, appropriate, dispose of, or use any such money or goods, wares, merchandise or other personal property in any other way or manner, or for any other purpose, use or intent, than such as shall be expressed in such written instrument or agreement touching the same, the person or persons so doing, shall be guilty of felony.

750.280 Gross frauds and cheats at common law.

Sec. 280. Gross frauds and cheats at common law—Any person who shall be convicted of any gross fraud or cheat at common law, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 10 years or by a fine of not more than 5,000 dollars.

750.281 Livery stable keepers; defrauding.

Sec. 281. Defrauding livery stable keepers—Any person who, directly or indirectly, hires from the owner or keeper of any livery stable any horse, mare, stallion, filly, gelding, pony, mule, hack, carriage, buggy, surrey, wagon, sleigh or sled, with intent to defraud such owner or keeper, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Proof that such person refused to pay for such horse, mare, stallion, filly, gelding, pony, mule, hack, carriage, buggy, surrey, wagon, sleigh or sled, or that he absconded without paying or offering to pay for the same, shall be prima facie evidence of such fraudulent intent.

It shall be the duty of the owner or keeper of every livery stable within this state to keep a copy of this section, printed in large plain English type, posted in a prominent place in the barn or stable where his business is carried on, and no conviction shall be had under this section until it be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that the provisions of this section have been complied with by the person making the complaint.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.281. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 269 of 1905, being CL 1915, 15357;—CL 1929, 16965; and Sec. 2 of Act 269 of 1905, being CL 1915, 15358;—CL 1929, 16966; and re-enacts except changes "act" to "section", Sec. 3 of Act 269 of 1905, being CL 1915, 15359;—CL 1929, 16967.

750.282 Public utility service; injury, interference, use.

Sec. 282. Fraudulent connecting, using, etc., of water, steam, electric or gas service and supply—Any person who wilfully or fraudulently injures, or suffers to be injured, any motor, wire, line, pipe or appliance belonging to any water, steam, electric or gas company, or prevents any water, steam, electric or gas meter belonging to such company from duly registering the quantity of water, steam, electric current or gas measured through the same, or in any way hinders or interferes with its proper action or just registration, or attaches any line, wire or pipe to any line, wire, pipe or main belonging to such water, steam, electric or gas company, or otherwise uses or burns or causes to be burned or used any water, steam, electric current or gas supplied by such company, without the written consent of such company, or its duly authorized agent or officer, unless the same passes through a meter or is measured by a motor set by said company, or fraudulently uses its water, steam, electric current or gas, or wastes the same, shall, for every such offense, if such water, steam, electric current, gas or damage so caused shall be of the value of 50 dollars or less, be guilty of a misdemeanor. If such water, steam, electric current, gas or damage so caused, shall exceed in value the sum of 50 dollars, such person shall be guilty of a felony: Provided, That such criminal prosecution shall not in any way impair the right of such company to a full compensation in damages by civil suit.

The provisions of this section shall extend and apply to all offenses against all water, steam, electric or gas companies and boards or municipalities owning or operating plants for producing, manufacturing, furnishing, transmitting or conducting water, steam, electricity or gas, either natural or artificial.

In all prosecutions under this section it shall be prima facie evidence on the part of the people of the violation of the provisions of this section to show that the defendant other than a lessor had control of or occupied the premises where the offense was committed, or received the benefit of such water, steam, electric current or gas so used or consumed.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.282. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 277 of 1911, being CL 1915, 15361;—CL 1929, 17042, and Sec. 3 of Act 277 of 1911, being CL 1915, 15363;—CL 1929, 17044; and re-enacts except changes "act" to "section" Sec. 2 of Act 277 of 1911, being CL 1915, 15362;—CL 1929, 17043.

750.283 Fruits and vegetables sold in closed package; fraud prevention.

Sec. 283. Preventing fraud in sale of fruits and vegetables. In this section, unless the contents otherwise require, the term "closed package" shall be construed to mean a barrel, box, basket, carrier or crate, of which all the contents cannot readily be seen or inspected when such package is prepared for market. Fresh fruits or vegetables in baskets or boxes, packed in closed or open crates, and packages covered with burlap, tarlatan or slat covers shall come within the meaning of the term "closed package."

Every person who, by himself, his agent or employee, packs or repacks fresh fruits or vegetables in closed packages intended for sale in the open market, shall cause the same to be marked in a plain and indelible manner, as follows:

First, With his full name and address, including the name of the state where such fresh fruits and vegetables are packed, before such fresh fruits or vegetables are removed from the premises of the packer or dealer;

Second, The name and address of such packer or dealer shall be printed or stamped on said closed packages in letters not less than 1/4 inch in height.

No person shall sell, offer, expose or have in his possession for sale, in the open market, any fresh fruits or vegetables packed in a closed package and intended for sale, unless such package is marked as is required by this section.

No person shall sell, offer, expose or have in his possession for sale, any fresh fruits or vegetables packed in a closed or open package, upon which package is marked any designation which represents such fruit as "number one", "finest", "best", "extra good", "fancy", "selected", "prime", "standard", or other superior grade or quality, unless such fruit or vegetables consist of well grown specimens, sound, of nearly uniform size, normal shape and good color, for the variety, and not less than 90 per cent free from injurious or disfiguring bruises, diseases, insect injuries or other defects, natural deterioration and decay in transit or storage excepted.

No person shall sell, offer, expose or have in his possession for sale any fresh fruits or vegetables packed in any package in which the faced or shown surface gives a false representation of the contents of such package, and it shall be considered a false representation when more than 20 per cent of such fresh fruits or vegetables are substantially smaller in size than or inferior in grade to, or different in variety from, the faced or shown surface of such package, natural deterioration and decay in transit or storage excepted.

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. The commissioner of agriculture is hereby charged with the enforcement of this section and is given power unto himself and his inspectors to enter into and upon any premises where fruits and vegetables are graded or packed or stored to inspect the same as to grade, pack and condition.

HISTORY: Am. 1937, p. 184, Act 116, Imd. Eff. June 25;—CL 1948, 750.283. 750.287 Sterling or sterling silver marked articles; fraud in sale.

Sec. 287. Fraud in sale of articles marked “sterling” or “sterling silver”—Any person who knowingly makes or sells, or offers to sell or dispose of, or has in his possession with intent to sell or dispose of, any article of merchandise marked, stamped or branded with the words “sterling” or “sterling silver”, or encased or enclosed in any box, package, cover or wrapper, or other thing in or by which the said article is packed, enclosed or otherwise prepared for sale or disposition, having thereon any engraving or printed label, stamp, imprint, mark or trade-mark, indicating or denoting by such marking, stamping, branding, engraving or printing, that such article is silver, sterling silver or solid silver, unless 925/1000 of the component parts of the metal of which the said article is manufactured are pure silver, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

750.288 Coin or coin silver; fraud in sale of articles marked.

Sec. 288. Fraud in sale of articles marked “coin” or “coin silver”—Any person who knowingly makes or sells, or offers to sell or dispose of, or has in his possession with intent to sell or dispose of, any article of merchandise marked, stamped or branded with the words “coin”, or “coin silver”, or encased or enclosed in any box, package, cover or wrapper, or other thing in or by which the said article is packed, inclosed or otherwise prepared for sale or disposition, having thereon any engraving or printed label, stamp, imprint, mark or trade-mark, indicating or denoting by such marking, stamping, branding, engraving or printing, that such article is coin or coin silver, unless 900/1000 of the component parts of the metal of which the said article is manufactured are pure silver, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail of not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

750.289 Common carrier; false billing of goods.

Sec. 289. False billing of goods to common carrier—Any person offering goods, property or effects to any common carrier within this state for the purpose of transportation shall furnish to such carrier a true description of the goods, property or effects so offered, and any person who shall knowingly offer any goods, property or effects to any common carrier for transportation within this state with a false description of the same, or who shall offer any such goods, property or effects under a false billing, false classification or false weight and thereby procure or attempt to procure the transportation of any such goods, property or effects at a less cost than would be due under a true description, true billing, true classification or true weight, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.289. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 253 of 1911, being CL 1915, 8230;—CL 1929, 11572; and Sec. 2 of Act 253 of 1911, being CL 1915, 8231;—CL 1929, 11573.

DESCRIPTION: See Compilers' § 440.7301 et seq.

750.290 Imitation leather; boots and shoes.

Sec. 290. Boots and shoes composed of imitation leather—The term “imitation leather” as used herein shall, for the purposes of this section, be defined to be all leather composed in whole or in part of paper, scraps and portions of hides of animals, used in the manufacture of boots or shoes, which being pressed together with an adhesive substance to keep such component parts intact, is used in place of solid leather in the making of such foot gear.

Every person within this state, who is engaged in the manufacture, sale, exchange, or offers for sale, or has in possession with intent to sell, boots or shoes in the construction of which any imitation leather is used, shall cause to be stamped upon such boots or shoes the words “imitation leather” in a distinct and legible manner: Provided, however, That the letters in the words “imitation leather” shall not be less than 1/8 of an inch in length.

When such imitation leather shall be used either as soles, in-soles, heels or counters of such boots or shoes, the words “imitation leather” shall be stamped upon the outside of the soles near the heel of such boots or shoes; and when such imitation leather shall be used in the making of any other part or parts of such boots or shoes, the words “imitation leather” shall be stamped thereon, in a conspicuous place: Provided, however, Excepting the soles of such boots or shoes the words “imitation leather” need not be stamped upon the outside thereof.

The possession of any boots or shoes which are composed in whole or in part of any imitation leather and which are not stamped as herein required, shall be prima facie evidence of intent to sell the same.

Any person who shall knowingly violate any of the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.290. This section re-enacts except changes “act” to “section”, Sec. 1 of Act 264 of 1897, being CL 1897, 5474;—CL 1929, 8950; and supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 264 of 1897, being CL 1897, 5475;—CL 1915, 7193;—CL 1929, 8951; and Sec. 3 of Act 264 of 1897, being CL 1897, 5476;—CL 1915, 7194;—CL 1929, 8952; and Sec. 4 of Act 264 of 1897, being CL 1897, 5477;—CL 1915, 7195;—CL 1929, 8953; and Sec. 5 of Act 264 of 1897, being CL 1897, 5478;—CL 1915, 7196;—CL 1929, 8954.

750.291 Boarding house keepers; defrauding.

Sec. 291. Defrauding boarding house keepers—Any person who shall stop, put up, board or lodge at any boarding house as a guest or boarder by the day, week or month, or shall procure any food, entertainment or accommodation without paying therefor, unless there is a distinct and express agreement made by such person with the owner, proprietor or keeper of such boarding house for credit, with intent to defraud such owner, proprietor or keeper out of the pay for such board, lodging, food, entertainment or accommodation, or any person who, with intent so to defraud, shall obtain credit at any boarding house for such board, lodging, food, entertainment or accommodation, by means of any false show of baggage or effects brought thereto, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, That no conviction shall be had under the provisions of this section unless complaint shall be made within 10 days of the time of the violation hereof.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.291. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 81 of 1907, Am. 1915, p. 153, Act 87, Eff. Aug. 24;—CL 1915, 6964;—CL 1929, 8801.

750.292 Hotel, motel, inn restaurant, cafe; defrauding; limitation on proceedings.

Sec. 292. Any person who shall put up at any hotel, motel, inn, restaurant or cafe as a guest and shall procure any food, entertainment or accommodation without paying therefor, except when credit is given therefor by express agreement, with intent to defraud such keeper thereof out of the pay for the same, or, who, with intent to defraud such keeper out of the pay therefor, shall obtain credit at any hotel, motel, inn, restaurant or cafe for such food, entertainment or accommodation, by means of any false show of baggage or effects brought thereto, is guilty of a misdemeanor. No conviction shall be had under the provisions of this section unless complaint is made within 60 days of the time of the violation hereof.

HISTORY: Am. 1939, p. 765, Act 314, Eff. Sep. 29;—CL 1948, 750.292;—Am. 1962, p. 16, Act 19, Eff. Mar. 28, 1963.

This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 1 of Act 133 of 1907, being CL 1915, 6966;—CL 1929, 8798.

750.293 Hotel, motel, inn, restaurant, cafe; prima facie evidence.

Sec. 293. Prima facie evidence—Obtaining such food, lodging or accommodation by false pretense, or by false or fictitious show of baggage or other property, or refusal or neglect to pay therefor on demand, or payment thereof with check, draft or order upon a bank or other depository on which payment was refused, or absconding without paying or offering to pay therefore, or surreptitiously removing or attempting to remove baggage, shall be prima facie evidence of such intent to defraud mentioned in the 2 next preceding sections of this chapter.

HISTORY: Am. 1939, p. 765, Act 314, Eff. Sept. 29;—CL 1948, 750.293. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 2 of Act 133 of 1907, being CL 1915, 6967;—CL 1929, 8799; and Sec. 2 of Act 81 of 1907, being CL 1915, 6965;—CL 1929, 8802.

750.294 Animals; fraudulent registration as pure-bred.

Sec. 294. Fraudulent registration of animals as pure-bred—Any person who shall by fraud or misrepresentation obtain, or attempt to obtain, the registration of animals as pure-bred upon the herd books of any of the recognized registry associations, when such animals are not entitled to such registration, or who shall by fraud or misrepresentation obtain, or attempt to obtain, any false record of the transfer of ownership of any such registered animals, or who shall designedly make any false statements in reference to the breeding ownership, color, markings or registration of animals or in reference to any application for the registration or transfer of animals, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.294. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 216 of 1921, being CL 1929, 5289.

750.295 Milk and butter fat production; fraudulent practices.

Sec. 295. Fraudulent practices in recording milk and butter fat production of cows—Any person who shall connive at, commit or attempt to commit any fraudulent or dishonest practice in connection with the making of official or semi-official records of milk and butter fat production of cows, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.295. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 221 of 1921, being CL 1929, 5323.

750.296 Condensed milk; marking, sale.

Sec. 296. Sale and marking of condensed milk—Every container of evaporated, concentrated or condensed whole milk, and every container of evaporated, concentrated or condensed skimmed milk, sold or offered for sale or had in possession or custody with intent to sell by any person within this state, shall have plainly printed thereon in the English language, or attached thereto on some firmly affixed tag or label, a formula for extending the said evaporated, concentrated or condensed milk and said evaporated, concentrated or condensed skimmed milk, respectively, with water. The formula for the extension of said evaporated, concentrated or condensed whole milk shall be such that the resulting milk product shall not be below the Michigan standard of milk solids or fat for whole milk, and shall be in the following form: By adding parts of water to 1 part of the contents of this can a resulting milk product will be obtained which will not be below the legal standard for whole milk. The formula for the extension of said evaporated, concentrated or condensed skimmed milk shall be such that the resulting milk product shall not be below the Michigan standard of milk solids for skimmed milk, and shall be in the following form: By adding parts of water to 1 part of the contents of this can a resulting milk product will be obtained which will not be below the legal standard for skimmed milk.

Any person and the servant or agent of any person, who sells, exchanges or delivers, or has in his custody or possession with intent to sell, exchange or deliver any container of evaporated, concentrated or condensed milk, within this state, not marked or labeled in compliance with the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.296. This section re-enacts except "firm or corporation", Sec. 1 of Act 176 of 1913, being CL 1915, 6423;—CL 1929, 5355; and supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 176 of 1913, being CL 1915, 6424;—CL 1929, 5356.

750.297-750.297d Repealed. 1966, p. 103, Act 78, Imd. Eff. Jun. 10.

Sections related to fraudulent sales and identification of kosher meat products.

750.297e Kosher food products; definition; sale and marketing; investigation; penalty.

Sec. 297e. (1) As used in this section, "kosher" means prepared or processed in accordance with orthodox Hebrew religious requirements sanctioned by a recognized orthodox rabbinical council.

Kosher food products; representations and labels; illegal acts; presumptive evidence of fraud.

(2) A person who, with intent to defraud, sells or exposes for sale any meat or meat preparations, article of food or food products, and falsely represents the same to be kosher, whether such meat or meat preparations, article of food or food products are raw or prepared for human consumption, either by direct statement orally, or in writing, which might reasonably be calculated to deceive or lead a reasonable man to believe that a representation is being made that such food is kosher or falsely represents any food products or the contents of any package or container to be so constituted and prepared, by having or permitting to be inscribed thereon the word "kosher" in any language; or sells or exposes for sale in the same place of business both kosher and nonkosher meat or meat preparations, or both kosher and nonkosher food or food products, either raw or prepared for human consumption, and who fails to indicate on his window signs and all display advertising, in block letters at least 4 inches in height, "kosher and nonkosher meat sold here" or "kosher and nonkosher food sold here"; or who exposes for sale in any show window or place of business both kosher and nonkosher meat or meat preparations, or kosher and nonkosher food or food products, either raw or prepared for human consumption, and who fails to display over each kind of meat or meat preparation so exposed a sign in block letters at least 4 inches in height reading "kosher meat" or "nonkosher meat", or "kosher food" or "nonkosher food", or who displays on his window, door or in his place of business, or in handbills or other printed matter distributed in or outside of his place of business, words or letters in Hebraic characters other than the word "kosher", or any sign, emblem, insignia, 6-pointed star, symbol or mark in simulation of same, without displaying in conjunction therewith in English letters of at least the same size as such characters, signs, emblems, insignia, symbols or marks, the words "we sell kosher meat and food only" or "we sell nonkosher meat and food only", or "we sell both kosher and nonkosher meat and food" is guilty of a misdemeanor. Possession of nonkosher meat and food, in any place of business advertising the sale of kosher meat and food only, is presumptive evidence that the person in possession exposes the same for sale with intent to defraud, in violation of the provisions of this section.

Kosher food products; fraudulent sale in hotels or restaurants; presumptive evidence of fraud.

(3) A person who, with intent to defraud, sells or exposes for sale in any hotel, restaurant or other place where food products are sold for consumption on or off the premises, any meat or meat preparations, article of food or food products, and falsely represents the same to be kosher, whether such meat or meat preparations, article of food or food products be raw or prepared for human consumption, either by direct statement orally, or in writing, which might reasonably be calculated to deceive or lead a reasonable man to believe that a representation is being made that such food is kosher or falsely represents any food product or the contents of any package or container to be so constituted and prepared, by having or permitting to be inscribed thereon the word "kosher" in any language; or sells or exposes for sale in the same place of business both kosher and nonkosher meat or meat preparations, or both kosher and nonkosher food or food products, either raw or prepared for human consumption, and who fails to indicate on his window signs and all display advertising, in block letters at least 4 inches in height, "kosher and nonkosher food sold here", or who exposes for sale in any show window or place of business both kosher and nonkosher food or food products, either raw or prepared for human consumption, and who fails to display over each kind of food or food preparation so exposed a sign in block letters at least 4 inches in height reading "kosher food" or "nonkosher food", or who displays on his window, door or in his place of business, or in handbills or other printed matter distributed in or outside of his place of business, words or letters in Hebraic characters other than the word "kosher", or any sign, emblem, insignia, 6-pointed star, symbol or mark in simulation of same, without displaying in conjunction therewith in English letters of at least the same size as such characters, signs, emblems, insignia, symbols or marks the words "we sell kosher food only" or "we sell nonkosher food only", or "we sell both kosher and nonkosher food", is guilty of a misdemeanor. Possession of nonkosher food, in any place of business advertising the sale of kosher food only, is presumptive evidence that the person in possession exposes the same for sale with intent to defraud, in violation of the provisions of this section.

Fraudulent labeling or identification prohibited.

(4) No person shall:

(a) Wilfully mark, stamp, tag, brand, label or in any other way or by any other means of identification represent or cause to be marked, stamped, tagged, branded, labeled or represented as kosher food or food products not kosher or not so prepared.

(b) Wilfully remove, deface, obliterate, cover, alter or destroy, or cause to be removed, defaced, obliterated, covered, altered or destroyed the original slaughterhouse plumba or any other mark, stamp, tag, brand, label or any other means of identification affixed to foods or food products to indicate that such foods or food products are kosher.

(c) Knowingly sell, dispose of or have in his possession, for the purpose of resale to any person as kosher, any food or food products not having affixed thereto the original slaughterhouse plumba or any other mark, stamp, tag, brand, label or other means of identification employed to indicate that such food or food products are kosher or any food or food products to which such plumba, mark, stamp, tag, brand, label or other means of identification has or have been fraudulently affixed.

Inspection and supervision of sale of meat products; rules and regulations.

(5) The department of agriculture shall investigate, inspect and supervise the sale of meat and meat preparations and enforce the provisions of this act. The department may promulgate rules and regulations for the enforcement and administration of this act in accordance with the provisions of Act No. 88 of the Public Acts of 1943, as amended, being sections 24.71 to 24.80 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, and subject to Act No. 197 of the Public Acts of 1952, as amended, being sections 24.101 to 24.110 of the Compiled Laws of 1948.

Violations; penalty.

(6) Any person who violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 101, Act 78, Imd. Eff. Jun. 10.

750.298 Medicine; practicing under false or assumed name.

Sec. 298. Practicing medicine under false or assumed name—Any person who shall practice medicine or advertise to practice medicine under a false or assumed name, or under a name other than his own, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.298. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 291 of 1929, being CL 1929, 6756.

750.298a Representation of service as under supervision of physician; product or appliance approved by medical profession.

Sec. 298a. If any person, partnership, corporation or enterprise shall offer to furnish any service, product or appliance designed or represented to affect human health, well-being or appearance, and shall advertise, state or represent in any offer, inducement or contract that the rendering of such service will be under the guidance or supervision of a physician, or that such product or appliance has been indorsed or approved by the medical profession, it shall be unlawful for such person, partnership, corporation or enterprise to render such service or cause or permit the same to be rendered except by or under the direct, continuing personal supervision of a physician licensed to practice in Michigan, or to furnish such product or appliance unless the same had, in fact, been indorsed or approved in writing by a bona fide organization of licensed physicians. Any person violating any provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $1000.00 or imprisonment for not more than 1 year, or both.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 512, Act 302, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

750.299 Agricultural seeds; false statement.

Sec. 299. False statements regarding agricultural seeds—Any person or his agent or employe, who, in writing or in a newspaper, circular or other publication published in this state, makes or disseminates any statement or assertion of fact concerning the superior qualifications, quality, value or locality where grown of any agricultural seeds sold or offered for sale in this state, or the possession of rewards, prizes or distinctions conferred on account of such seeds, or the motive or purpose of such sale, intended to give the appearance of an offer advantageous to the purchaser, or as an inducement for the planting of such seeds, which is untrue or calculated to mislead and to induce a person to purchase such seeds, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

750.300 Insurance company; killing or injuring animals to defraud.

Sec. 300. Killing or injuring animals with intent to defraud insurance company—Any person who shall injure or kill any horse, mule or other live stock which shall be insured by any insurance company authorized to do business in this state, when such killing or injury shall be with the wilful intent on the part of such person to defraud such insurance company, whether such person shall be the owner of such insured property or not shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment for not more than 2 years or by a fine of not more than 1,000 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.300. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 165 of 1893, being CL 1897, 11597;—CL 1915, 15352;—CL 1929, 17001.

CHAPTER XLIV

GAMBLING

750.301 Accepting money or valuable thing contingent on uncertain event.

Sec. 301. Accepting money or valuable thing contingent upon result of contest or happening of uncertain event—Any person or his agent or employe who shall, directly or indirectly take, receive or accept from any person any money or valuable thing with the agreement, understanding or allegation that any money or valuable thing will be paid or delivered to any person where such payment or delivery is alleged to be or will be contingent upon the result of any race, contest or game or upon the happening of any event not known by the parties to be certain, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.301. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 176 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9121; and Sec. 11 of Act 176 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9131.

750.302 Gambling; building, keeping and occupying house.

Sec. 302. Keeping and occupying building for gaming, etc.—Any person, or his agent or employe who shall, directly or indirectly, keep or occupy or assist in keeping or occupying any common gambling house or any building or place where gaming is permitted or suffered or who shall suffer or permit on any premises owned, occupied or controlled by him any apparatus used for gaming or gambling or who shall use such apparatus for gaming or gambling in any place within the state of Michigan, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.302. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 2 of Act 176 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9122; and Sec. 11 of Act 176 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9131.

750.303 Gaming room or table; keeping for hire, gain or reward.

Sec. 303. Keeping gaming room, etc., for hire, gain or reward—Any person who shall for hire, gain or reward, keep or maintain a gaming room, or a gaming table, or any game of skill or chance, or partly of skill and partly of chance, used for gaming, or who shall knowingly suffer a gaming room, or gaming table, or any such game to be kept, maintained or played on any premises occupied or controlled by him, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 2 years, or by a fine of not more than 1,000 dollars; and any person aiding, assisting or abetting in the keeping or maintaining of any such gaming room, gaming table, or game, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 2 years or by a fine of not more than 1,000 dollars.

750.304 Selling pools and registering bets.

Sec. 304. Selling pools and registering bets—Any person or his agent or employe, who shall, directly or indirectly keep, maintain, operate or occupy any building or room or any part thereof or any place with apparatus, books or any device for registering bets or buying or selling pools upon the result of a trial or contest of skill, speed or endurance or upon the result of a game, competition, political nomination, appointment or election or any purported event of like character or who shall register bets or buy or sell pools, or who shall be concerned in buying or selling pools or who shall knowingly permit any grounds or premises, owned, occupied or controlled by him to be used for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.304. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 3 of Act 176 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9123; and Sec. 11 of Act 176 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9131.

750.305 Publication or distribution of betting odds; penalty.

Sec. 305. Any person, or his agent or employee, who shall, directly or indirectly, by means of any newspaper, periodical, poster, notice or other mode of publication or reproduction, write, print, publish, advertise, deliver or distribute or offer to deliver or distribute to the public or to any part thereof or to any person, any statement or information concerning the making or laying of wagers or bets or the selling of pools or evidences of betting odds on any contest or game or on the happening of any event not known by the parties to be certain, or any purported event of like character, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than $500.00.

The acts herein prohibited may be deemed violations hereof when committed before any game, contest or event; and the possession of evidence for the publication of any statement or information concerning the making or laying of wagers or bets or the selling of pools or betting odds, shall in the same manner be deemed a violation, when possessed for publication before the act evidenced thereby.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.305;—Am. 1959, p. 333, Act 229, Eff. Mar. 19, 1960.

This section supersedes and merges Sec. 4 of Act 176 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9124; and Sec. 11 of Act 176 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9131.

750.305a Racing results; unlawful use of teletype ticker, exceptions; prima facie evidence; penalties.

Sec. 305a. It shall be unlawful for any corporation, association, firm, co-partnership or person, either directly, or indirectly, or by or through any agent or employee, to lease, loan, sell, assign or in any way cause to be furnished any machine, device or instrumentality, excluding the telephone, and including but not limited to the device commonly referred to as a teletype ticker, registering or recording by any words, figures, signs, characters or hieroglyphics information concerning and the results of racing as defined in section 331 of Act No. 328 of the Public Acts of 1931, being section 750.331 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, or any statement or information concerning the making or laying of wagers, or bets, or the selling of pools or evidences of betting odds on any such race, to any person, firm, association, co-partnership or corporation, directly, indirectly or otherwise, or to their agents or employees within this state; and it shall likewise be unlawful for any corporation, association, firm, co-partnership or person, either directly or indirectly, or by or through any agent or employee, to transmit, convey or otherwise cause to be transmitted or conveyed through facilities owned, operated, leased by, serviced by, or otherwise under the control of such corporation, association, firm, co-partnership or person, such information to a teletype ticker or other device or instrumentality recording the same within this state; and it shall likewise be unlawful for any corporation, association, firm, co-partnership or person to string wires or other means of transmitting such information to such device or instrumentality within this state, used for recording such information, or to maintain, service, repair, lease, rent or install such communication lines and such recording devices or instrumentalities to, in and upon any premises in this state: Provided, however, That the provisions hereof shall not apply to the transmission and recording of such information to bona fide newspapers, having a general circulation and carrying principally local, sports, or national news of general interest and shall not apply to duly licensed radio and television stations or to press associations for distribution to such newspapers, radio or television stations nor to the use of totalizers and mechanical devices legally used, under the provisions of section 13, Act No. 199, Public Acts of 1933 as amended, being section 431.13 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, it being the intention of this section to make unlawful the transmission of such information and the furnishing and maintenance of facilities for the receipt and recordation of such information to so-called hand-books, bookies, pool rooms and to any and all other agencies within this state for illegal gambling purposes. The presence of a so-called teletype ticker machine or other device or instrumentality for recording such information and the presence of wires installed for the transmitting of such information in, upon and to any premises within this state other than hereinbefore excepted is hereby declared to be prima facie evidence of the criminal intent of the person, firm, association, co-partnership or corporation and its agents and employees, lending, leasing, renting, conveying, supplying, servicing or otherwise maintaining said wires, devices or instrumentalities: Provided, however, That said presumption of criminal intent shall be rebutted if the corporation, association, firm, co-partnership, person, agent, or employee, furnishing, maintaining, servicing, or installing such device or facilities or transmitting such information, prior to the issuance of a warrant for the violation of this section, shall have notified the prosecuting attorney of the county where the violation is alleged to have occurred in writing that such device and facilities may be used for unlawful and illegal purposes. Any person, co-partnership, firm, association or corporation and any agent and employee thereof who shall, directly or indirectly, do or cause to be done any act or acts hereinbefore declared to be unlawful shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than 2 years or by a fine of $5,000.00, or both fine and imprisonment: Provided, however, That no public utility corporation engaged in the distribution and selling of electrical energy shall be deemed to be in violation of this act by reason of its sale of electrical energy to a telephone or telegraph company, or by reason of its permitting its poles or conduits to be occupied by the wires and cables of a telephone or telegraph company.

750.306 Pool tickets; declaration as nuisance.

Sec. 306. Pool tickets, etc., declared nuisance—All policy or pool tickets, slips or checks, memoranda of any combination or other bet, manifold or other policy or pool books or sheets, are hereby declared a common nuisance and the possession thereof a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

The possession of any such articles, or of any other implements, apparatus or materials of any other form of gaming, shall be prima facie evidence of their use, by the person having them in possession, in the form of gaming in which like articles are commonly used. And such article found upon the person of one lawfully arrested for violation of any law relative to lotteries, policy lotteries or policy, the buying or selling of pools or registering of bets or other form of gaming shall be competent evidence upon the trial of an indictment to which it may be relevant.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.306. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 5 of Act 176 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9125; and Sec. 11 of Act 176 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9131.

750.307 Gambling; prima facie evidence.

Sec. 307. Prima facie evidence—In a prosecution or proceeding relative to lotteries, policy lotteries or policy, buying and selling pools or registering bets, any words, figures or characters, written, printed or exposed upon a blackboard, placard or otherwise in a place alleged to be used or occupied for such business, purporting or appearing to be a name of a horse or jockey, or a description of or reference to a trial or contest of skill, speed or endurance of man, beast, bird or machine, or game, competition, political nomination, appointment or election, or other act or event, or any odds, bet, combination bet or other stake or wager, or any code, cipher or substitute therefor, shall be prima facie evidence of the existence of the race, game, contest or other act or event so purporting or appearing to be referred to, and that such place is kept or occupied for gaming; and in all cases a copy or oral description thereof shall be competent evidence of the same.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.307. This section re-enacts Sec. 6 of Act 176 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9126.

750.308 Gambling house; search warrant; seizure of apparatus; arrest.

Sec. 308. If a person makes oath before justice of the peace or committing magistrate that he has probable cause to believe and does believe that a house or other building, room or place is used as and for a common gaming house, for gaming for money or other property, or is occupied, used or kept for promoting a lottery, or for the sale of lottery tickets, or for promoting the game known as a policy lottery or policy, or for the buying or selling of pools or registering of bets upon any race, game, contest, act or event, and that persons resort thereto for any such purpose, such magistrate or trial justice, whether the names of the persons last mentioned are known to the complainant or not, shall, if he be satisfied there is reasonable cause for such belief, issue a warrant commanding the sheriff or his deputy or any constable or police officer to enter and search such house, building, room or place, and if any lottery, policy or pool tickets, slips, checks, manifold books or sheets, memoranda of any bet, or other implements, apparatus or material of any form of gaming be found in said place, to take into his custody all the implements, apparatus or material of gaming as aforesaid, including any articles, equipment, furniture, loud speakers and amplifying apparatus, adding machines, calculators, money changers and boxes and money found therein or in or on gambling apparatus, or material used in connection with or the promotion of gambling or a gambling place; and upon the finding of such apparatus and material of any form of gaming as aforesaid, the officers shall be authorized to arrest the keepers of such place, all persons in any way assisting in keeping the same, whether as capper, tout, guard, doorkeep, lookout, or otherwise, and all persons who are there found, and to keep said persons, implements, apparatus or material of gaming, including any punch board prizes, articles, equipment, furniture, loud speakers and amplifying apparatus, adding machines, calculators, money changers and boxes, and money found therein or in or on gambling apparatus, or material used in connection with or the promotion of gambling or a gambling place, so that they may be forthcoming before some court or magistrate to be dealt with according to law. The provisions of law relative to destroying or other disposition of gaming articles shall apply to all articles and property seized as herein provided for.

HISTORY: Am. 1941, p. 23, Act 25, Eff. Jan. 10, 1942;—CL 1948, 750.308;—Am. 1953, p. 59, Act 64, Eff. Oct. 2.

This section as originally enacted re-enacted Sec. 7 of Act 176 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9127.

750.308a Disposition of articles or property seized.

Sec. 308a. On application of a sheriff, chief of police of a police department, commissioner of the Michigan state police, or other peace officer, a court or magistrate of competent jurisdiction may upon due notice and hearing turn over to said sheriff, chief of a police department, commissioner of the Michigan state police, or peace officer, any articles or property listed under the provisions of section 308 of this chapter lawfully seized by any such peace officer for such disposition as the court or magistrate shall prescribe, or said court or magistrate may provide for the destruction or other disposition of said articles or property.

Any funds derived from the disposition of any such articles or property shall be turned over to the treasurer of the city, township or county whose law enforcement officer made application for the disposition of such articles or property, or to the state treasurer if such application is made by the commissioner of the Michigan state police.

HISTORY: Add. 1953, p. 59, Act 64, Eff. Oct. 2.

750.309 Frequenting or attending gaming places.

Sec. 309. Frequenting or attending gaming places—Any person who shall attend or frequent any place where gaming or gambling is suffered or permitted, or any place operated or occupied as a common gaming or gambling house or room, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.309. This section supersedes Sec. 10 of Act 176 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9129.

750.310 Exceptions.

Sec. 310. Exceptions—The preceding sections of this chapter shall not be construed to prohibit or make unlawful the giving or payment of purses, prizes or premiums to players in any games or participants in any contest or to the owner, driver, manager or trainer of animals or the drivers, mechanics or operators of any machine or the giving or payment of entry fees or the payment of expenses or reward for services or labor in connection with any race, contest or game but it shall apply to the selling of pools or to any transaction whereby any money or valuable thing shall be paid as a gain or speculation on the result of any contest, race, game or event not known to the parties to be certain and concerning which the parties to the transaction render no service directly related to the holding of such contest, race or game or the bringing about of such event.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.310. This section re-enacts except changes "this act" to "The preceding sections of this chapter", Sec. 8 of Act 176 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9128.

750.311 Gambling in stocks, bonds, grain or produce.

Sec. 311. Gambling in stocks, bonds, grain, etc.—It shall be unlawful for any corporation, association, firm, copartnership or person to keep or cause to be kept by any agent or employe within this state, any office, store or other place, wherein is conducted or permitted the pretended buying or selling of the shares of stocks or bonds of any corporation, or petroleum, cotton, grain, provisions or other produce, either on margins or otherwise, without any intention of receiving and paying for the property so bought or of delivering the property so sold; or wherein is conducted or permitted the pretended buying or selling of such property on margins, when the party selling the same or offering to sell the same does not have the property on hand to deliver upon such sale; or when the party buying any of such property, or offering to buy the same, does not intend actually to receive the same if purchased or to deliver the same if sold; all such acts and all purchases and sales, or contracts and agreements for the purchase and sale of any of the property aforesaid in manner aforesaid, and all offers to sell the same or to purchase the same in manner aforesaid, as well as all transactions in stocks, bonds, petroleum, cotton, grains or provisions in the manner as aforesaid, on margins for future or optional delivery, are hereby declared gambling and criminal acts, whether the person buying or selling or offering to buy or sell acts for himself or as an agent, employe or broker for any firm, copartnership, company, corporation, association or broker's office.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.311. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 199 of 1887, being How. 9354f.;—CL 1897, 11373;—CL 1915, 15091;—CL 1929, 16618, and supersedes and merges part of Sec. 1 of Act 336 of 1907, being CL 1915, 7805;—CL 1929, 9133; and Sec. 2 of Act 336 of 1907, being CL 1915, 7806;—CL 1929, 9134.

750.312 Commission merchants, statements on demand.

Sec. 312. Commission merchants, etc., to furnish written statement, etc., on demand—It shall be the duty of every commission merchant, firm, copartnership, association, corporation or broker doing business as such, to furnish upon demand, to any customer or principal for whom such commission merchant, broker, firm, copartnership, corporation or association has executed any order for the actual purchase or sale of any of the commodities mentioned in the next preceding section of this chapter either for immediate or future delivery, a written statement containing the names of the parties from whom any such property was bought or to whom it shall have been sold, as the case may be, the time when, the place where and the price at which the same was either bought or sold; and in case such commission merchant, broker, firm, co-partnership, corporation or association shall refuse promptly to furnish such statement upon reasonable demand, the fact of such refusal shall be prima facie evidence that such property was not sold or bought in legitimate manner upon the open market.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.312. This section supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 199 of 1887, being How. 9354g;—CL 1897, 11374;—CL 1915, 15092;—CL 1929, 16619; and Sec. 4 of Act 336 of 1907, being CL 1915, 7808;—CL 1929, 9136.

750.313 Gambling in stocks, bonds, grain or produce; penalty.

Sec. 313. Penalty for gambling and using property for gambling in stocks, bonds, grain, etc.—Any person who shall knowingly permit any of the acts set forth in the eleventh section of this chapter in his building, house or in any out-house, booth, arbor or erection of which he has the title, care or possession, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 2 years or by a fine of not less than 500 dollars or more than 1,000 dollars, and any penalty so adjudged shall be a lien upon the premises on or in which such unlawful acts are carried on or permitted, and any person whether acting for himself, or as a broker, agent or employe of any person, or as an officer, broker, agent or employe of any corporation, association, firm or co-partnership, who shall violate any of the provisions of the eleventh section of this chapter, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 2 years, or by fine of not less than 500 dollars nor more than 1,000 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.313. This section supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 199 of 1887, being How. 9354h;—CL 1897, 11375;—CL 1915, 15093;—CL 1929, 16620.

750.314 Winning at gambling.

Sec. 314. Winning at gambling—Any person who by playing at cards, dice, or any other game, or by betting or putting up money on cards, or by any other means or device in the nature of betting on cards, or betting of any kind, shall win or obtain any sum of money or any goods, or any article of value whatever shall, if the money, goods, or articles so won or obtained be of the value of 50 dollars or less, be guilty of a misdemeanor. If the money, goods, or articles so won or obtained be of the value of more than 50 dollars such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 1 year, or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

750.315 Losing at gambling.

Sec. 315. Losing at gambling—Any person who shall lose any sum of money, or any goods, article or thing of value, by playing or betting on cards, dice or by any other device in the nature of such playing or betting, and shall pay or deliver the same or any part thereof to the winner, and shall not, within 3 months after such loss, without collusion, prosecute with effect for such money or goods, the winner to whom such money or goods shall have been so paid or delivered, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding 3 times the value of such money or goods. Such loser may sue for and recover such money in an action for money had and received to the use of the plaintiff; and such goods, article or valuable thing in an action of replevin, or the value thereof in an action on the case.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.315. 750.317 Second degree murder; penalty.

Sec. 317. Second degree murder—All other kinds of murder shall be murder of the second degree, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life, or any term of years, in the discretion of the court trying the same.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.317. This section re-enacts except "deemed", Sec. 2 of Ch. 153 of the R.S. 1846, being CL 1857, 5712;—CL 1871, 7511;—How. 9076;—CL 1897, 11471;—CL 1915, 15193;—CL 1929, 16709.

750.318 Degree of murder; determination; testimony, open court, transcript.

Sec. 318. The jury before whom any person indicted for murder shall be tried shall, if they find such person guilty thereof, ascertain in their verdict, whether it be murder of the first or second degree; but, if such person shall be convicted by confession, the court shall proceed by examination of witnesses to determine the degree of the crime, and shall render judgment accordingly. All testimony taken at such examination shall be taken in open court and a typewritten transcript or copy thereof, certified by the court reporter taking the same, shall be placed in the file of the case in the office of the county clerk.

HISTORY: Am. 1947, p. 466, Act 295, Eff. Oct. 11;—CL 1948, 750.318. This section as originally enacted re-enacted Sec. 3 of Ch. 153 of the R.S. 1846, being CL 1857, 5713;—CL 1871, 7512;—How. 9077;—CL 1897, 11472;—CL 1915, 15194;—CL 1929, 16710.

750.319 Death as result of fighting duel.

Sec. 319. Death as result of fighting a duel—Any person, being an inhabitant or resident of this state, who shall, by previous appointment or engagement made within the same, fight a duel without the jurisdiction of this state, or who shall fight a duel within this state, and in so doing shall inflict a mortal wound upon any person, whereof the person so injured shall afterwards die within this state, shall be guilty of murder of the first degree within this state, and may be indicted, tried and convicted in the county where such death shall happen.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.319. This section re-enacts except changes "every" to "any" and leaves out "deemed", Sec. 4 of Ch. 153 of the R.S. 1846, being CL 1857, 5714;—CL 1871, 7513;—How. 9078;—CL 1897, 11473;—CL 1915, 15195;—CL 1929, 16711.

750.320 Seconds in duels resulting in death.

Sec. 320. Seconds in duels resulting in death—Any person, being an inhabitant or resident of this state, who shall be the second of either party in such duel as is mentioned in the next preceding section, and shall be present as a second when such mortal wound is inflicted, whereof death shall ensue within this state, shall be deemed to be an accessory before the fact to the crime of murder in this state, and may be indicted, tried and convicted in the county where the death shall happen, or in which such wound shall have been inflicted.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.320. This section re-enacts except changes "every" to "any" and inserts "next", Sec. 5 of Ch. 153 of the R.S. 1846, being CL 1857, 5715;—CL 1871, 7514;—How. 9079;—CL 1897, 11474;—CL 1915, 15196;—CL 1929, 16712.

750.321 Manslaughter.

Sec. 321. Manslaughter—Any person who shall commit the crime of manslaughter shall be guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, not more than 15 years or by fine of not more than 7,500 dollars, or both, at the discretion of the court.

750.322 Manslaughter; wilful killing of unborn quick child.

Sec. 322. Wilful killing of unborn quick child—The wilful killing of an unborn quick child by any injury to the mother of such child, which would be murder if it resulted in the death of such mother, shall be deemed manslaughter.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.322. This section re-enacts Sec. 32 of Ch. 153 of the R.S. 1846, being CL 1857, 5742;—CL 1871, 7541;—How. 9106;—CL 1897, 11501;—CL 1915, 15223;—CL 1929, 16739.

750.323 Manslaughter; death of quick child or mother from use of medicine or instrument.

Sec. 323. Death of quick child or mother from use of medicine, etc., with intent to destroy such child—Any person who shall administer to any woman pregnant with a quick child any medicine, drug or substance whatever, or shall use or employ any instrument or other means, with intent thereby to destroy such child, unless the same shall have been necessary to preserve the life of such mother, shall, in case the death of such child or of such mother be thereby produced, be guilty of manslaughter.

In any prosecution under this section, it shall not be necessary for the prosecution to prove that no such necessity existed.

Sec. 349. Confining person against will, etc.—Any person who wilfully, maliciously and without lawful authority shall forcibly or secretly confine or imprison any other person within this state against his will, or shall forcibly carry or send such person out of this state, or shall forcibly seize or confine, or shall inveigle or kidnap any other person with intent to extort money or other valuable thing thereby or with intent either to cause such person to be secretly confined or imprisoned in this state against his will, or in any way held to service against his will, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for life or for any term of years.

so seized, taken, inveigled, kidnaped or whose services shall be sold or transferred, shall have been taken, confined, held, carried or brought; and upon the trial of any such offense, the consent thereto of the person, so taken, inveigled, kidnaped or confined, shall not be a defense, unless it shall be made satisfactorily to appear to the jury that such consent was not obtained by fraud nor extorted by duress or by threats.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.349. This section supersedes Sec. 25 of Ch. 153 of the R.S. 1846, being CL 1857, 5735.—Am. 1859, p. 526, Act 189, Eff. May 19.—CL 1871, 7534.—Am. 1875, p. 224, Act 191, Eff. CHAPTER LI

LABORERS, MECHANICS, EMPLOYEES AND WORKERS

750.351 Consideration for employment.

Sec. 351. Receiving remuneration, etc., from employe in consideration of employment—Any employer or agent or representative of an employer or other person having authority from his employer to hire, employ, or direct the services of other persons in the employment of said employer, who shall demand or receive directly or indirectly from any person when in the employment of said employer, any fee, gift or other remuneration or consideration, or any part or portion of any tips or gratuities received by such employe while in the employment of said employer, in consideration or as a condition of such employment or hiring or employing any person to perform such services for such employer or of permitting said person to continue in such employment is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to apply to employment agencies or employment agents licensed and operating under the laws of this state.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.351. Title of Ch. LI Am. 1947, p. 467, Act 297, Eff. Oct. 11. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 322 of 1919, being CL 1929, 8520; and re-enacts except changes "act" to "section", Sec. 2 of Act 322 of 1919, being CL 1929, 8521.

750.352 Molesting and disturbing persons in pursuit of occupation, vocation or avocation.

Sec. 352. Any person or persons who shall, by threats, intimidations, or otherwise, and without authority of law, interfere with, or in any way molest, or attempt to interfere with, or in any way molest or disturb, without such authority, any person, in the quiet and peaceable pursuit of his lawful occupation, vocation or avocation, or on the way to and from such occupation, vocation or avocation, or who shall aid or abet in any such unlawful acts, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: Am. 1947, p. 467, Act 297, Eff. Oct. 11.—CL 1948, 750.352. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 1 of Act 163 of 1867, being CL 1871, 7660.—How. 9273.—CL 1897, 11343.—CL 1915, 15010.—CL 1929, 8612.

750.353 Contributions to charitable purposes, deduction from wages.

Sec. 353. Contributions by laborers, etc., to charitable purposes and deductions from wages—Any employer of labor, who, by himself, his agent, clerk or servant, shall require any employe, or person seeking employment, as a condition of such employment or continuance therein, to make and enter into any contract, oral or written, whereby such employe or applicant for employment shall agree to contribute directly or indirectly to any fund for charitable, social or beneficial purpose or purposes, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Any such employer, who, by himself, his agent, clerk or servant, shall deduct from the wages of any employe, directly or indirectly, any part thereof without the full and free consent of such employe, obtained without intimidation or fear of discharge for refusal to permit such deduction, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

If the employer be a firm or corporation, each and every member of said firm, and each and every managing officer of the corporation, shall be liable to punishment under this section; and any clerk, servant or agent of any such employer who shall do or attempt to do any act forbidden by this section, shall be equally liable with his employer or employers as principal, for any such violation of this section.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.353. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 192 of 1893, being CL 1897, 11400;—CL 1915, 15118;—CL 1929, 8513; and Sec. 2 of Act 192 of 1893, being CL 1897, 11401;—CL 1915, 15119;—CL 1929, 8514; and Sec. 3 of Act 192 of 1893, being CL 1897, 11402;—CL 1915, 15120;—CL 1929, 8515; and Sec. 4 of Act 192 of 1893, being CL 1897, 11403;—CL 1915, 15121;—CL 1929, 8516.

750.353a Employee welfare plan, failure of employer to contribute as promised.

Sec. 353a. Any employer who promises in writing to make payments to an employee welfare plan, vacation plan, health plan, dental plan, insurance plan, supplemental unemployment benefit plan, profit sharing plan, pension plan or any employee welfare plan, either by contract with an individual employee, by a collective bargaining agreement or by agreement with such employee plan, and who fails to make such payments within 3 weeks after they become due and payable, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. This section shall not apply where the failure to make payments is prevented by act of God, proceedings in bankruptcy, orders or processes of any court of competent jurisdiction or circumstances over which the employer has no control. Conviction for violation of this section does not relieve the employer of liability for moneys under such agreement or contract.

HISTORY: Add. 1980, p. 14, Act 15, Eff. Aug. 17;—Am. 1988, p. 89, Act 45, Eff. Mar. 10, 1987.

750.354 Insurance with particular company, requirement.

Sec. 354. Unlawful for employers to require employes to insure with any particular company—It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person doing business in this state or for any of the agents of such person to require any of the employes of such person to take out or obtain a life, accident or life and accident policy in favor of such employe or other person in any particular or designated life, accident or life and accident company or association.

All contracts hereinafter made between any such person and any employe of said person requiring or stipulating that the employe so contracting shall procure, obtain or have a policy of insurance in any particular or designated company or association shall be void: Provided, That nothing in the foregoing provisions of this section is intended to prohibit, or shall be construed as prohibiting the employers of labor and the persons employed from voluntarily making agreements with each other for contributions of money by the latter to any fund to be accumulated in their behalf and for their benefit in common with others, and in such case from further agreeing that the employer may deduct from their wages, from time to time, the sums due from them under such agreement.

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and where such person is a company or corporation it shall be punished by a fine of not more than 200 dollars for each and every offense, and any shareholder, officer or agent of any such company or corporation violating the provisions of this section, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 90 days, or by a fine of not more than 100 dollars for each offense.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.354. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 209 of 1895, being CL 1897, 8584;—CL 1915, 11357;—CL 1929, 8517; and Sec. 2 of Act 209 of 1895, being CL 1897, 8585;—CL 1915, 11358;—CL 1929, 8518; and Sec. 3 of Act 209 of 1895, being CL 1897, 8586;—CL 1915, 11359;—CL 1929, 8519.

750.354a Unlawful to compel certain employees to pay cost of medical examination, photographing or fingerprinting; penalty.

Sec. 354a. It shall be unlawful for any employer in the state of Michigan to compel newly hired employees or employees reporting back to work after a furlough or leave of absence to pay the cost of a medical examination or to pay for being photographed and finger printed, when requested by the employer.

Any employer operating in the state of Michigan violating the provisions of this act shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $100.00 for each and every violation. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of labor to enforce this act.

HISTORY: Add. 1947, p. 277, Act 198, Eff. Oct. 11;—CL 1948, 750.354a;—Am. 1949, p. 13, Act 13, Eff. Sep. 23.

750.355 Temporary water closets.

Sec. 355. Temporary waterclosets for workmen in buildings in course of construction—Any architect who shall refuse, fail or neglect to insert a clause in the specifications for all buildings providing for suitable temporary water closets for the use of workmen employed on such buildings while in the course of erection, unless closets are already maintained on such premises; and any contractor or person erecting such building who shall refuse, fail or neglect to erect such closet within the first week after commencing work thereon, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.355. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 205 of 1890, being CL 1915, 5578;—CL 1929, 6677; and Sec. 2 of Act 205 of 1899, being CL 1915, 5579;—CL 1929, 6678.

750.355a Consideration for employing or not discharging.

Sec. 355a. Any person who is in the employment of any other person and whose duties in whole or in part consist of the engaging of the services of persons for employment by his employer and/or who has authority to discharge persons in the employment of his employer and who accepts from such person or any other person, any money, gift or anything of value as a part of the consideration for securing such employment or who shall make the purchase of any article of value from any person obligatory on the part of such person seeking employment, or forces an employee to purchase or contract for the purchase of goods, wares or merchandise from any person, as a whole or part consideration for not ordering the discharge of such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

750.358 Larceny at a fire.

Sec. 358. Larceny at a fire—Any person who shall commit the offense of larceny by stealing in any building that is on fire, or by stealing any property removed in consequence of alarm caused by fire, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 5 years or by a fine of not more than 2,500 dollars.

750.359 Larceny from vacant dwelling.

Sec. 359. Larceny, etc., from vacant building—Any person or persons who shall steal or unlawfully remove or in any manner damage any fixture, attachment or other property belonging to, connected with or used in the construction of any vacant structure or building, whether built or in the process of construction or who shall break into any vacant structure or building with the intention of unlawfully removing, taking therefrom or in any manner damaging any fixture, attachment or other property belonging to, connected with or used in the construction of such vacant structure or building whether built or in the process of construction, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail of not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.359. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 99 of 1929, being CL 1929, 16956.

750.360 Larceny; places of abode, work, storage, conveyance, worship and other places.

Sec. 360. Any person who shall commit the crime of larceny by stealing in any dwelling house, house trailer, office, store, gasoline service station, shop, warehouse, mill, factory, hotel, school, barn, granary, ship, boat, vessel, church, house of worship, locker room or any building used by the public shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: Am. 1947, p. 287, Act 190, Eff. Oct. 11;—CL 1948, 750.360. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 1 of Act 179 of 1929, being CL 1929, 16959.

750.361 Larceny; or maliciously removal journal bearings or brasses.

Sec. 361. Larceny or maliciously removing journal bearings or brasses—Any person who shall steal or maliciously remove, take, change, add to, take from or in any manner interfere with any journal bearings or brasses or any parts or attachments of any locomotive, tender or car, or any fixture or attachment belonging to, connecting with or used by any railway, railroad or transportation company in this state shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than 1 year nor more than 2 years: Provided, That if the stealing or removal of such journal bearings or brasses, or any parts or attachments of any locomotive, tender or car, or any fixture or attachment belonging to, connected with, or used on any locomotive, tender or car as aforesaid shall be the cause of wrecking any train, locomotive or other car in this state, whereby the life of any person or persons shall be lost as a result of the felonious or malicious stealing, nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing prosecution for such crime.

Possession of any journal bearings or brasses or any parts or attachments of any locomotive, tender or car, or any fixture or attachment belonging to, connected with, or used in operating any locomotive, tender or car owned, leased or used by any railroad, railway or transportation company in this state, without the authority of the railroad company owning or leasing the same, shall be prima facie evidence that the same has been stolen or maliciously taken or removed by the person in whose possession the same is found or proved to have been.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.361. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 333 of 1917, being CL 1929, 17039; and re-enacts Sec. 2 of Act 333 of 1917, being CL 1929, 17040.

750.362 Larceny; by conversion.

Sec. 362. Larceny by conversion, etc.—Any person to whom any money, goods or other property, which may be the subject of larceny, shall have been delivered, who shall embezzle or fraudulently convert to his own use, or shall secrete with the intent to embezzle, or fraudulently use such goods, money or other property, or any part thereof, shall be deemed by so doing to have committed the crime of larceny and shall be punished as provided in the first section of this chapter.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.362. This section supersedes Sec. 34 of Ch. 154 of the R.S. 1846, being CL 1857, 5778;—CL 1871, 7585;—Am. 1875, p. 195, Act 168, Eff. Aug. 3;—How. 9156;—CL 1897, 11570;—CL 1915, 15315;—CL 1929, 16911.

750.362a Larceny; rented motor vehicle, trailer or other tangible property; penalty.

Sec. 362a. Any person to whom a motor vehicle, trailer or other tangible property is delivered on a rental or lease basis under any agreement in writing providing for its return to a particular place at a particular time who refuses or wilfully neglects to return such vehicle, trailer or other tangible property, after the expiration of the time stated in a notice in writing proved to have been duly mailed by registered or certified mail addressed to the last known address of the person who rented or leased the motor vehicle, trailer or other tangible property, and with intent to defraud the lessor, is guilty of larceny. If the vehicle, trailer or other tangible property exceeds the value of $100.00 he shall be guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment for not more than 2 years or by a fine of not more than $1,000.00, or both. If the vehicle, trailer or other tangible property is of the value of $100.00 or less, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

750.363 Larceny; by false personation.

Sec. 363. Larceny by false personation—Any person who shall falsely personate or represent another, and in such assumed character shall receive any money, or other property whatever, intended to be delivered to the party so personated, with intent to convert the same to his own use, shall be deemed by so doing, to have committed the crime of larceny, and shall be punished as provided in the first section of this chapter.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.363. This section supersedes Sec. 38 of Ch. 154 of the R.S. 1846, being CL 1857, 5782;—CL 1871, 7569;—How. 9160;—CL 1897, 11574;—CL 1915, 15319;—CL 1929, 16915.

750.364 Larceny; from libraries.

Sec. 364. Larceny from libraries—Any person who shall procure, or take in any way from any public library or the library of any literary, scientific, historical or library society or association, whether incorporated or unincorporated, any book, pamphlet, map, chart, painting, picture, photograph, periodical, newspaper, magazine, manuscript or exhibit or any part thereof, with intent to convert the same to his own use, or with intent to defraud the owner thereof, or who having procured or taken any such book, pamphlet, map, chart, painting, picture, photograph, periodical, newspaper, magazine, manuscript or exhibit or any part thereof, shall thereafter convert the same to his own use or fraudulently deprive the owner thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.364. This section supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 3 of 1881, being How. 9211;—CL 1897, 11641;—Am. 1911, p. 74, Act 58, Eff. Aug. 1;—CL 1915, 15407;—CL 1929, 17020.

750.365 Larceny; from car or persons detained or injured by accident.

Sec. 365. Larceny from car or persons detained or injured by accident—Any person who shall steal from any car, while detained by accident or injury to any railroad, locomotive, tender or car, or who shall steal the property of, or rob any person detained, injured or killed by reason of any accident or injury to any such railroad, locomotive, tender or car, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than 20 years or by a fine of not more than 10,000 dollars.

At the trial of any case arising under this section, it shall be sufficient prima facie proof of the existence of any railroad company named in the indictment to show that such company was doing business as a railroad company at the time named in the indictment.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.365. This section supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 164 of 1869, being CL 1871, 7620;—How. 9201;—CL 1897, 11624;—CL 1915, 15389;—CL 1929, 17025; and supersedes part of Sec. 10 of Act 164 of 1869, Add. 1881, p. 139, Act 146, Eff. Sept. 10;—How. 9209;—CL 1897, 11632;—CL 1915, 15397;—CL 1929, 17033.

750.366 Larceny; railroad passenger tickets.

Sec. 366. Larceny of railroad passenger tickets—Any person who shall feloniously or fraudulently take and carry away any railroad passenger ticket or tickets belonging to any railroad company or companies, shall be guilty of a felony.

The words “railroad passenger ticket or tickets” as used in this section shall be construed to embrace any ticket, card, pass, certificate or paper providing, or intended to provide, for the carriage or transportation of any person or persons upon any railroad, and shall include, not only tickets of any railroad company fully prepared for use, but those not fully prepared for use, and all others which have been once used. At the trial of any case arising under this section, it shall be sufficient prima facie proof of the existence of any railroad company named in the indictment to show that such company was doing business as a railroad company at the time named in the indictment.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.366. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 7 of Act 164 of 1869, Add. 1881, p. 138, Act 146, Eff. CHAPTER LV LOTTERIES750.372 Lotteries and gift enterprises.

Sec. 372. Lotteries and gift enterprises—Any person who shall set up or promote within this state any lottery or gift enterprise for money, or shall dispose of any property, real or personal, goods, chattels or merchandise or valuable thing, by the way of lottery or gift enterprise, and any person who shall aid, either by printing or writing, or shall in any way be concerned in the setting up, managing or drawing of any such lottery or gift enterprise, or who shall in any house, shop or building owned or occupied by him or under his control, knowingly permit the setting up, managing or drawing of any such lottery or gift enterprise, or the sale of any lottery ticket or share of a ticket, or any other writing, certificate, bill, goods, chattels or merchandise, token or other device purporting or intended to entitle the holder or bearer or other person to any prize or gift, or to any share of or interest in any prize or gift to be drawn in any such lottery or gift enterprise, or who shall knowingly suffer money or other property to be raffled for in such house, shop or building, or to be there won by throwing or using dice, or by any other game or course of chance, shall for every such offense be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 2 years or by a fine of not more than 1,000 dollars.

SEARCH WARRANTS: See Compilers' § 780.651 et seq.

750.372a Game promotion; defined; force or coercion to purchase, presumption; predetermining identity of one entitled to prize; disclosing description, amount, number of prizes; penalty, misdemeanor.

Sec. 372a. (a) For purposes of this section, the term game promotion shall mean any game or contest in which the elements of chance and prize are present but in which the element of consideration is not present.

(b) No person shall force or coerce his lessee, agent or franchise dealer to purchase game promotions. For the purposes of this subsection, coercion or force may be presumed in those circumstances in which a course of business conduct extending over a period of 1 year or longer between a lessor and lessee or a principal and agent or an owner and franchise dealer is materially changed coincident with a failure or refusal of a lessee, agent or franchise dealer to purchase game promotions.

(c) No person who shall conduct a game promotion within this state shall, in connection with such promotion, predetermine the identity of any individual entitled to receive a prize in such game promotion.

(d) Any person who shall conduct a game promotion within this state shall disclose to participants as to such game promotion, on a prominent poster in case such game promotion is conducted by a retail outlet, or on any card, game piece, entry blank or any other paraphernalia required for participation in a game promotion in case such game promotion is not conducted in a retail outlet, the geographic area or number of outlets in which the game promotion is proposed to be conducted, an accurate description of each type of prize to be made available, the minimum number and minimum amount of cash prizes to be made available and the minimum number of each other type of prize to be made available.

(e) Any person guilty of a violation of this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: Add. 1968, p. 673, Act 348, Eff. Nov. 15.

750.373 Game promotion; tickets; selling, possession, exchange.

Sec. 373. Selling, etc., lottery or gift enterprise tickets—Any person who shall sell either for himself or for any other person, or shall offer for sale, or shall have in his possession with intent to sell or offer for sale, or to exchange or negotiate, or shall in any wise aid or assist in the selling, negotiating or disposing of a ticket in any such lottery or gift enterprise, or a share of a ticket, or any such writing, certificate, bill, goods or merchandise, token or other device as mentioned in the next preceding section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 2 years or by a fine of not more than 1,000 dollars.

750.374 Game promotion; second offense.

Sec. 374. Second offense—If any person shall, after being convicted of any offense mentioned in either of the 2 next preceding sections, commit the like offense, or any other of the offenses therein mentioned, he shall be guilty of a felony.

750.375 Game promotion; advertising, printing, publishing tickets.

Sec. 375. Advertising, printing, etc., lottery tickets or gift enterprises—Any person who shall advertise, print or publish any lottery ticket or gift enterprise, or any share in any such ticket, for sale either by himself or by another person, or who shall set up or exhibit, or shall devise and make for the purpose of being set up and exhibited, any sign, symbol or any emblematic or other representation of a lottery or gift enterprise, or of the drawing thereof, in any way indicating where a lottery ticket or a share thereof, or any such writing, certificate, bill, goods, merchandise or chattels, token or other device, before mentioned, may be purchased or obtained, or shall in any way invite or entice, or attempt to entice, any other person to purchase or receive the same, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

MISCELLANEOUS

750.409 Convict or jail or prison inmate, taunting, accusing.

Sec. 409. Taunting and accusing one of having been a convict or inmate of a jail, etc.—Any person who shall taunt or otherwise accuse another of having been a convict or an inmate of any jail, prison or reformatory shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.409. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 249 of 1907, being CL 1915, 15279;—CL 1929, 16615; and Sec. 2 of Act 249 of 1907, being CL 1915, 15280;—CL 1929, 16616.

750.410 Soliciting personal injury claims; exceptions.

Sec. 410. Any person, firm, copartnership, association or organization of any kind, either incorporated or unincorporated, or any of the officers, agents, servants, employees, or members of any such person, firm, copartnership, association or organization of any kind, either incorporated or unincorporated, or of any division, bureau or committee of such association or organization, either incorporated or unincorporated, who shall directly or indirectly, individually or by agent, servant, employee, or member, solicit any person injured as the result of an accident, his administrator, executor, heirs or assigns, his guardian, or members of the family of the injured person, for the purpose of representing such person in making claim for damages or prosecuting any action or causes of action arising out of any personal injury claim against any other person, firm or corporation, or to employ counsel for the purpose of such solicitation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall upon conviction thereof, if a natural person, be punished by a fine not to exceed $500.00, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed 6 months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. The same penalties shall apply upon conviction to a member of a copartnership, or any officer or agent of any corporation, association or other organization, or any officer or agent, who shall consent to, participate in, or aid or abet any violation of this section upon the part of the copartnership of which he is a member, or of the corporation, association or organization of which he is such an officer or agent. Any contract entered into as a result of such solicitation shall be void: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall affect an unsolicited contract entered into by any person, firm or corporation with an attorney duly admitted to practice law in this state.

HISTORY: Am. 1947, p. 164, Act 123, Eff. Oct. 11;—CL 1948, 750.410. This section as originally enacted superseded and merged Sec. 1 of Act 280 of 1925, being CL 1929, 13807; and Sec. 2 of Act 280 of 1925, being CL 1929, 13808.

750.410a Conspiring to commit person to institution for mental incompetents deemed felony.

Sec. 410a. Any person who shall conspire with another person or persons to commit any person to an institution for mental incompetents without just and reasonable grounds therefor shall be deemed guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: Add. 1949, p. 112, Act 108, Eff. Sep. 23.

750.411 Reporting injuries by hospitals, pharmacies, physicians.

Sec. 411. Reporting personal injuries by hospitals, pharmacies and physicians—It shall be the duty of every person, firm or corporation conducting any hospital or pharmacy in this state, or the person managing or in charge of such hospital or pharmacy, or in charge of any ward or part of such hospital, to which any person or persons suffering from any wound or other injury inflicted by means of a knife, gun, pistol or other deadly weapon, or by other means of violence shall come or be brought, to report the same immediately, both by telephone and in writing, to the chief of police or other head of the police force of the village or city in which such hospital or pharmacy is located, or to the sheriff of the county, if such hospital or pharmacy is located outside the incorporated limits of a village or city. Such report shall state the name and residence of such person, if known, his whereabouts and the character and extent of such injuries. It shall also be the duty of every physician, or surgeon, who has under his charge or care any person suffering from any wound or injury, inflicted in the manner above mentioned, to make a like report to the appropriate officers hereinabove named.

Any person, firm or corporation violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

History: CL 1948, 750.411.

750.411a Fictitious crimes, report to police officers, bomb scares.

Sec. 411a. Any person who shall wilfully and knowingly make to any member of the Michigan state police, any sheriff or deputy sheriff, or any police officer of any city or village, or any other peace officer of this state, a fictitious report of the commission of any crime knowing the same to be false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 90 days or by a fine of not more than $100.00. If the report of fictitious crime relates to a bombing, an attempted bombing, or threat to bomb and said report shall be wilfully and knowingly communicated to any of the aforementioned peace officers, or to any other person, then the person making such fictitious report shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: Add. 1941, p. 22, Act 24, Eff. Jan. 10, 1942;—CL 1948, 750.411a;—Am. 1958, p. 62, Act 58, Eff. Sep. 13.

750.411b Excess fees to members of legislature, for services.

Sec. 411b. It shall be unlawful for any person after he has been elected or while he is a member of the state legislature to be employed by any person, firm, association or corporation who shall pay or agree to pay for the services rendered or to be rendered any moneys or other valuable consideration in excess of the reasonable value of such service if the same was performed by a person not a member of the legislature when such person, firm, association or corporation will directly or indirectly benefit from the passage of any bill or law or the defeat of any bill or law by the state legislature whether the subject matter of the employment is related to proposed legislation or not. It shall be unlawful for any person who is a member of the legislature to accept payment for any services which he shall perform exclusively in connection with the passage or defeat of any bill, act or amendment thereto.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: Add. 1945, p. 206, Act 146, Eff. Sept. 6;—CL 1948, 750.411b.

750.411c Asphyxia or death from submersion in water, reports, investigations, penalty.

Sec. 411c. (1) Every physician or surgeon, having under his care a person who suffers from asphyxia or dies due to submersion in water, shall report same to any peace officer, the nearest state police post or the sheriff of the county in which the injury or death occurred. Every coroner or medical examiner who completes a death certificate attributing death to drowning shall make a like report to the appropriate officers hereinabove named.

(2) The officer receiving the report shall investigate the circumstances surrounding the injury or death and shall submit a complete report to the director of state police on forms prescribed by him. The department of natural resources shall receive from the director of state police a copy of the officer's report where the asphyxia or death occurred in waters under the jurisdiction of that department.

(3) Any person violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: Add. 1982, p. 167, Act 164, Eff. Mar. 28, 1983;—Am. 1989, p. 383, Act 201, Eff. Mar. 20, 1970.

CHAPTER LXI

MOTOR VEHICLES

750.412 Definition.

Sec. 412. Definition—The term “motor vehicle” as used in this chapter shall include all vehicles impelled on the public highways of this state by mechanical power, except traction engines, road rollers and such vehicles as run only upon rails or tracks.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.412.

750.413 Motor vehicle; taking possession and driving away.

Sec. 413. Taking possession of and driving away a motor vehicle—Any person who shall, wilfully and without authority, take possession of and drive or take away, and any person who shall assist in or be a party to such taking possession, driving or taking away of any motor vehicle, belonging to another, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than 5 years.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.413. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 44 of 1907, being CL 1915, 15430;—Am. 1917, p. 472, Act 220, Eff. Aug. 10;—Am. 1919, p. 551, Act 313, Eff. Aug. 14;—Am. 1927, p. 62, Act 50, Imd. Eff. April 18;—CL 1929, 16969.

750.414 Motor vehicle; use without authority but without intent to steal.

Sec. 414. Use of motor vehicle without authority but without intent to steal—Any person who takes or uses without authority any motor vehicle without intent to steal the same, or who shall be a party to such unauthorized taking or using, shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than 2 years or by a fine or [of] not more than 1,000 dollars: Provided, That in case of first offense the court may in its discretion reduce the punishment to imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not more than 3 months or a fine of not more than 100 dollars: Provided further, That the provisions of this section shall be construed to apply to any person or persons employed by the owner of said motor vehicle or any one else, who, by the nature of his employment, shall have the charge of or the authority to drive said motor vehicle if said motor vehicle is driven or used without the owner's knowledge or consent.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.414. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 33 of 1909, being CL 1915, 15431;—CL 1929, 16970.

STOLEN VEHICLE: Report, see Compilers' § 257.252.

750.414a Unlawful possession of motor vehicle master key; definition; exceptions; penalty.

Sec. 414a. (a) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, no person shall have a motor vehicle master key in his possession.

(b) As used in this section, “motor vehicle master key” means a key which is designed to open locks on more than one motor vehicle but excludes keys supplied with the motor vehicle by the manufacturer or dealer or the exact duplicate of such keys, and excludes keys supplied with replacement locks or the exact duplicate of such keys.

(c) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply to the following:

(1) Keys in the possession of garage mechanics, parking lot attendants or others engaged in the business of repairing or storing motor vehicles.

(2) Keys in the possession of law enforcement officers.

(3) Keys in the possession of locksmiths, key makers or other persons engaged in the business of making, altering, duplicating or repairing locks or keys.

(d) Violation of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 394, Act 272, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

750.415 Motor vehicle; concealing and misrepresenting identity.

Sec. 415. Concealing and misrepresenting identity of motor vehicle by removing serial number, etc.—Any person who shall conceal or misrepresent the identity of a motor vehicle or of any mechanical device, by removing or defacing the manufacturer's serial number or the engine or motor number on such motor vehicle, or by replacing any part of such motor vehicle or mechanical device bearing the serial number or engine or motor number thereof if any, with a new part, upon which the proper serial number or engine or motor number has not been stamped, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

In all prosecutions under this section, possession by any person of any motor vehicle, or of any mechanical device with the manufacturer's serial number or the engine or motor number removed, defaced, destroyed or altered or with a part bearing such number or numbers replaced by one on which the proper number does not appear, shall be prima facie evidence of violation of the provisions of this section.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.415. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 182 of 1917, Am. 1919, p. 205, Act 115, Eff. Aug. 14;—Am. 1929, p. 296, Act 129, Eff. 750.416 Motor vehicle; damaging, tampering or meddling with.

Sec. 416. Damaging or unauthorized tampering or meddling with motor vehicle—Any person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, who shall:

Intentionally and without authority from the owner, start or cause to be started the motor of any motor vehicle, or maliciously shift or change the starting device or gears of a standing motor vehicle to a position other than that in which it was left by the owner or driver of said motor vehicle; or

Intentionally cut, mark, scratch or damage the chassis, running gear, body, sides, top, covering or upholstery of any motor vehicle, the property of another, or intentionally cut, mash, mark, destroy or damage such motor vehicle, or any of the accessories, equipment, appurtenances or attachments thereof, or any spare or extra parts thereon being or thereto attached, without the permission of the owner thereof; or

Intentionally release the brake upon any standing motor vehicle, with intent to injure said machine or cause the same to be removed without the consent of the owner: Provided, That this section shall not apply in case of moving or starting of motor vehicles by the police under authority of local ordinance or by members of fire departments in case of emergency in the vicinity of a fire.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.416. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 219 of 1917, being CL 1929, 16971.

750.417 Motor vehicle; removal out of state, consent of mortgagee.

Sec. 417. Removal of and remaining out of state of motor vehicle, under mortgage, without consent of mortgagee—Any person who shall have made or executed any mortgage or instrument in writing intended to operate as a mortgage of any motor vehicle and who shall remove such motor vehicle so mortgaged from the state, without fully paying and satisfying said mortgage, and who shall cause or permit the motor vehicle so mortgaged and removed from the state, to remain outside of the state for a period of 30 days or more, without the consent of mortgagee named in said mortgage, shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.417. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 233 of 1925, being CL 1929, 16975.

750.418 Motor vehicle; removal out of state, consent of vendor.

Sec. 418. Removal of and remaining out of state of motor vehicle, under a conditional sales contract, without consent of vendor—Any person who shall have acquired possession of a motor vehicle under a conditional sales contract or under a property note, in which said conditional sales contract or property note the title is reserved in the vendor, and who shall remove such motor vehicle so acquired from the state without fully paying for said motor vehicle, and who shall cause or permit said motor vehicle so acquired and removed from the said state, to remain out of the state for a period of 30 days or more, without the consent of the vendor named in said conditional sales contract or property note, shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.418. This section supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 233 of 1925, being CL 1929, 16976.

750.419 Operating bicycle and motor vehicle on sidewalks.

Sec. 419. Operating bicycle and motor vehicle on sidewalks—Any person who shall operate or ride a bicycle, motor cycle or other motor vehicle upon that part of the street or highway where sidewalks have been regularly laid out and constructed for the use of pedestrians, not including cross walks, in any unincorporated village, or plat or plats, not in any incorporated village or city, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.419. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 38 of 1917, being CL 1929, 4221; and Sec. 2 of Act 38 of 1917, being CL 1929, 4222.

750.420 Motor vehicle; equipment with smoke or gas producing devices.

Sec. 420. Motor vehicles equipped with smoke or gas producing devices—Any person who shall own, operate or have in his possession any motor vehicle equipped with a device for producing excessive smoke or gas, or so equipped as to permit oil or any other chemical to flow into or upon the exhaust pipe or muffler of such vehicle or in any other way to produce or emit smoke or dangerous or annoying gases from any portion of such vehicle other than the ordinary gases emitted by the exhaust of an internal combustion engine under normal operation, shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.420. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 58 of 1929, being CL 1929, 4778.

750.421 Motor vehicles; trailer designed for defense or attack.

Sec. 421. Motor vehicle or trailer designed for purpose of defense or attack—Any person who shall construct, reconstruct, devise, manufacture, purchase, sell, possess or operate any motor vehicle or other vehicle capable of being drawn by a motor vehicle, designed for the use or purpose of defense or attack, from or by explosives, projectiles, ammunition, gases, fumes or other missiles, weapons and firearms, without first obtaining a license therefor from the commissioner of the department of public safety, or his duly authorized deputy, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 5 years or by a fine not more than 2,500 dollars: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to any person constructing, reconstructing, devising, manufacturing, purchasing, selling, possessing or operating such vehicles by virtue of any contract with any department of the government of the United States, or with any foreign government, state, municipality or any subdivision thereof.

Applications for said license shall be upon forms provided by said commissioner of public safety. The applicant shall possess the same qualifications and said license shall be issued and revoked in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as are prescribed by law for the issuing and revoking of licenses for carrying concealed weapons, insofar as the same are applicable. The said commissioner may prescribe such other rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out the purpose of this section.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.421.

750.421a Motor vehicle; assignment of title upon trade-in.

Sec. 421a. Whenever a licensed motor vehicle dealer, his agent or representative, shall give a credit allowance to the owner of a motor vehicle as consideration or part consideration of the purchase price of another motor vehicle sold by said dealer, he shall demand from such owner, and such owner shall furnish to such dealer, a properly assigned certificate of title thereof in the dealer's name. Any licensed motor vehicle dealer, his agent or representative, or the owner of such motor vehicle, who shall assign, or shall permit, aid, counsel or assist in any way in assigning the certificate of title of said motor vehicle to a person other than such dealer, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

The term "licensed motor vehicle dealer" as used in this section shall be construed to mean a dealer licensed under the provisions of section 14 of Act No. 46 of the Public Acts of 1921, being section 4671 of the Compiled Laws of 1929, as amended.

HISTORY: Add. 1939, p. 901, Act 345, Imd. Eff. July 5;—CL 1948, 750.421a.

750.458 Detaining female in house of prostitution for debt.

Sec. 458. Detaining female in house of prostitution for debt contracted while there—Any person who attempts to detain any female person in a disorderly house or house of prostitution because of any debt or debts she has contracted, or is said to have contracted while living in said house, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than 2 nor more than 20 years.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.458. This section supersedes Sec. 4 of Act 63 of 1911, being CL 1915, 15497;—CL 1929, 16865.

750.459 Transporting female for prostitution; felony.

Sec. 459. Transporting female for prostitution—Any person who shall knowingly transport or cause to be transported, or aid or assist in obtaining transportation for, by any means of conveyance, into, through or across this state, any female person for the purpose of prostitution or with the intent and purpose to induce, entice or compel such female person to become a prostitute shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than 20 years; any person who may commit the crime in this section mentioned may be prosecuted, indicted, tried and convicted in any county or city in or through which he shall so transport or attempt to transport any female person as aforesaid.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.459. This section supersedes Sec. 5 of Act 63 of 1911, being CL 1915, 15496;—CL 1929, 16866.

750.460 Acts committed outside state.

Sec. 460. Acts committed outside state—It shall not be a defense to a prosecution for any of the acts prohibited in the next 5 preceding sections of this chapter that any part of such act or acts shall have been committed outside this state, and the offense shall in such case be deemed and alleged to have been committed and the offender tried and punished in any county in which the prostitution was intended to be practiced or in which the offense was consummated, or any overt act in furtherance of the offense shall have been committed.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.460. This section supersedes Sec. 6 of Act 63 of 1911, being CL 1915, 15499;—CL 1929, 16867.

750.461 Competency of female as witness though wife of accused.

Sec. 461. Competency of female as witness though wife of accused—Any such female person referred to in the 6 preceding sections shall be a competent witness in any prosecution under this chapter to testify for or against the accused as to any transaction or as to any conversation with the accused or by him with another person or persons in her presence, notwithstanding her having married the accused before or after the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, whether called as a witness during the existence of the marriage or after its dissolution. No complaint shall be entertained or warrant issued against any female giving testimony in any proceeding under this chapter by reason of or arising from any testimony so given by such female witness, nor shall any such testimony or any part thereof be used in any way in connection with or as a basis for a criminal prosecution against said witness. No such female witness shall be permitted to refuse to answer any question involving a violation of the provisions of this chapter on the ground that such answer might tend to incriminate or degrade said witness: Provided, That no person so testifying shall be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.461. This section supersedes Sec. 7 of Act 63 of 1911, being CL 1915, 15500;—Am. 1925, p. 500, Act 330, Eff. Aug. 27;—Am. 1927, p. 49, Act 37, Imd. Eff. CHAPTER LXVIII

PUBLIC EXHIBITIONS AND ENTERTAINMENT

750.463 Unpublished and undedicated plays and compositions; consent of owner.

Sec. 463. Public presentation for profit of unpublished or undedicated plays and compositions without consent of owner—No unpublished, uncopyrighted or undedicated dramatic play and no unpublished or undedicated musical composition shall be publicly performed or represented for profit, without consent of the owner or proprietor thereof.

Any person who shall cause to be publicly performed or represented for profit any unpublished, uncopyrighted or undedicated dramatic composition, or unpublished or undedicated musical composition, without the consent of the owner or proprietor or who, knowing that such dramatic or musical composition is unpublished or undedicated, and, without the consent of its owner or proprietor, permits, aids or takes part in such a performance or representation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.463. This section re-enacts Sec. 1 of Act 268 of 1905, being CL 1915, 3476;—CL 1929, 17022; and supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 268 of 1905, being CL 1915, 3477;—CL 1929, 17023.

750.464 Sale of seats in places of public entertainment.

Sec. 464. Sale of seats in places of public entertainment—It shall not be lawful for the proprietor, lessee or manager of any theatre, concert or lecture hall, or other place of public entertainment, to mark, or cause to be marked, any seat or seats in any theatre, concert or lecture hall, or other place of public entertainment, as sold, reserved or taken, unless the seat or seats so marked or designated shall have been actually sold or reserved, at least 1 hour prior to the time of beginning each performance, or entertainment in said theatre, concert or lecture hall, or place of public entertainment, and the purchase of reserved seats for the purpose of selling them is hereby prohibited. Any proprietor, lessee or manager, or other person who shall violate the provisions of this section, shall on conviction thereof, be fined not less than 1 dollar, and not more than 5 dollars, for every seat so marked, designated or purchased.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.464. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 12 of 1877, being How. 2089;—CL 1897, 5466;—CL 1915, 7150;—CL 1929, 8892; and Sec. 2 of Act 12 of 1877, being How. 2090;—CL 1897, 5467;—CL 1915, 7151;—CL 1929, 8893.

750.464a Consuming intoxicating liquor in unlicensed places; liability.

Sec. 464a. It shall be unlawful for any person to consume, or any person, persons, co-partnership or corporation engaged in the business of operating any public dance hall to knowingly allow, permit or suffer to be consumed any intoxicating liquor, wine, or beer, in any public dance hall, in any toilet, cloak room or appendage to any such dance hall, or in any other room directly connected therewith unless said premises are duly licensed by the Michigan liquor control commission.

Any person engaged in the business of operating any public dance hall whether as owner, proprietor, manager, or employee, shall be held liable for knowingly permitting the violation of the provisions of this section, and any such owner or proprietor shall be held criminally liable for knowingly permitting the acts of his manager, servant, agent or employee in violation of the provisions of this section. The violation of any of the provisions of this section is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor.

750.465 Ticket scalping; duty.

Sec. 465. Ticket scalping—It shall be the duty of owners, lessees and managers of every theatre, circus, athletic grounds used for athletic games, places of public entertainment or amusement to have printed on all tickets issued for admission thereto or for seats of such theatre, circus, athletic grounds, place of public entertainment or amusement, in conspicuous type, the price of such ticket, and the number on the seat, when such seats are numbered.

Any person owning, occupying, managing or controlling any building, room, park or enclosure for the sale of tickets for theatres, circuses, athletic games or places of public entertainment or amusement, who shall ask, demand or receive from any person for the sale of such ticket or tickets to a theatre, circus, athletic grounds or place of public entertainment, or amusement, a price in excess of the general admission advertised or charged for the same privilege, or any person, who by himself or his agent or employe, offers for sale upon any public place or thoroughfare, any such ticket or tickets to a theatre, circus, athletic grounds, or place of public entertainment or amusement, for admission thereto, or for a seat or other privilege therein, at a price in excess of that demanded or received from the general public for the same privilege, or in excess of the advertised or printed rate therefor, shall be punished as herein provided.

It shall be unlawful for any person to establish an agency or suboffice for the sale of seat tickets of admission to a theatre, circus, athletic grounds or place of public entertainment or amusement, at a price greater than the sale of seats at the box office of such theatre, circus, athletic grounds, place of public entertainment or amusement, or in excess of the advertised price therefor.

The owner, lessee or occupant of any building, room, enclosure or other place open to the public, who permits any person to sell or exhibit for sale in said building, room or enclosure, or other place open to the public, any ticket or tickets for theatre, circuses, athletic grounds, or place of public entertainment or amusement, for more than the price printed thereon, shall be equally liable and guilty as principal.

Where the owners, lessees or managers of any circus, theatre, athletic grounds or place of public entertainment or amusement have sold tickets or admission thereto to specific persons, under restrictive conditions and at a less rate than the general admission charged, and whose names appear on the face of such tickets or are registered in the office of such owners, lessees or managers as the holder of such tickets and where it is printed on the face of such tickets that they are non-transferable and sold only to the persons whose names appear on the face of such tickets or are registered, it shall be declared unlawful for the holders of such specific tickets to sell them to other persons, and any person selling such tickets shall be punished as herein provided.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.465. This section re-enacts Sec. 1 of Act 138 of 1907, being CL 1915, 7152;—CL 1929, 8894; and supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 138 of 1907, being CL 1915, 7153;—CL 1929, 8895; and Sec. 3 of Act 138 of 1907, being CL 1915, 7154;—CL 1929, 8896; and Sec. 4 of Act 138 of 1907, being CL 1915, 7155;—CL 1929, 8897; and Sec. 5 of Act 138 of 1907, being CL 1915, 7156;—CL 1929, 8898; and Sec. 6 of Act 138 of 1907, being CL 1915, 7157;—CL 1929, 8899.

CHAPTER LXIX

PUBLIC HEALTH

750.466 Selling diseased or unwholesome provisions without notice.

Sec. 466. Selling diseased or unwholesome provisions without notice—Any person who shall knowingly sell any kind of diseased, corrupted or unwholesome provisions, whether for meat or drink, without making the same fully known to the buyer, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

750.467 Feeding animals or fowls putrid or unwholesome food.

Sec. 467. Feeding animals or fowls putrid or unwholesome food—Any person who shall feed to animals or fowls the flesh of an animal which has become sick, or which has died from such cause, or offal or flesh that is putrid or unwholesome, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.467. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 179 of 1913, being CL 1915, 15156;—Am. 1919, p. 14, Act 8, Eff. Aug. 14;—CL 1929, 5242; and Sec. 2 of Act 179 of 1913, being CL 1915, 15157;—CL 1929, 5243.

750.468 Baked goods and pastries; sanitary and dust proof containers.

Sec. 468. Shipment of baked goods and pastries in sanitary and dust proof containers—It shall be unlawful for any person engaged in the manufacture of baked goods and pastries, by himself or his agent or employe to convey, ship or transport any baked goods or pastries from the place where such goods are manufactured to any place in this state where such baked goods and pastries are to be consumed or offered for sale, without first placing such baked goods and pastries in a clean and sanitary container or package sufficiently tight and compact to exclude all dust and dirt and other contamination. None of such containers or packages containing baked goods or pastries shall be opened or exposed to the dust or dirt or other contamination from the place where manufactured until they arrive in the place where such baked goods and pastries are to be consumed or exposed for sale.

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.468. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 320 of 1925, being CL 1929, 5479; and Sec. 2 of Act 320 of 1925, being CL 1929, 5480.

750.469 Clinical thermometers.

Sec. 469. Selling clinical thermometers—Any person, dealer, agent or employe of any corporation, who shall directly or indirectly use, sell or offer for sale, give away or offer to give away, any clinical thermometer that does not comply with the definition stated in this section for a standard clinical thermometer, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

A standard clinical thermometer is a certified thermometer and is one that registers accurately at every reading and is standardized by the United States bureau of standards for thermometers. These thermometers must not have a variance of over 2/10 of a degree. All clinical thermometers that are used or sold must comply with the United States bureau of standards. If there is a correction there must be a correction slip on the certificate that goes with the thermometer, showing either minus or plus to the amount of the correction but the variance must not exceed 2/10 of a degree.

The board of pharmacy shall make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of this section. It shall be the duty of said board of pharmacy to investigate all complaints under this section and take all steps necessary to its enforcement: Provided, That no person, dealer, or employe of any corporation shall be prosecuted under the provisions of this section when he can establish a guarantee, signed by a wholesaler, jobber, manufacturer or other parties residing in this state, from whom such thermometer or thermometers were purchased, to the effect that the said clinical thermometer or thermometers so purchased were certified to comply with the next preceding paragraph of this section.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.469. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 106 of 1927, being CL 1929, 6863; and Sec. 3 of Act 106 of 1927, being CL 1929, 6865; and Sec. 4 of Act 106 of 1927, being CL 1929, 6866; and re-enacts Sec. 2 of Act 106 of 1927, being CL 1929, 6864.

750.470 Cigar or food establishments; employes with disease; misdemeanor.

Sec. 470. Employment in cigar or food establishments of persons affected with venereal disease, etc.—No person who is affected with any infectious disease, or with any venereal disease in a communicable form, shall work, or be permitted to work in any place, where cigars are manufactured or where food or drink is prepared, cooked, mixed, baked, exposed, bottled, packed, handled, stored, manufactured, offered for sale or sold. Whenever required by any local health officer, any person employed in any such places shall submit to a physical examination by such officer, or by some physician designated by such health officer or by a physician regularly in the employ of the person or institution by whom the person to be examined is employed. If as a result of such examination, such person shall be found to be affected with any infectious disease, or with any venereal disease in a communicable form, such employment shall immediately cease and such person shall not be permitted to work in any such place.

Any person, knowingly affected with any infectious disease, or with any venereal disease in a communicable form, who shall work in any place mentioned in this section, and any person knowingly employing or permitting such person to work in such place, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.470. This section supersedes with additions, Sec. 1 of Act 25 of 1919, being CL 1929, 6635; and Sec. 2 of Act 25 of 1919, being CL 1929, 6636.

750.471 Transportation of dressed calves, sheep, hogs, and beeves; violation of act, misdemeanor.

Sec. 471. Transportation of dressed calves, sheep, hogs and beeves—All dressed calves, sheep, hogs and beeves, or any portion of the same, when being shipped or transported by freight or express, shall be kept in a clean and sanitary manner. Any carcass, or any portion thereof, which shall be transported in any car, shall when practicable be hung in such car during such transportation. Such carcass, when tendered for shipment, shall be covered with clean covers of cloth of such texture as to exclude all dirt and dust: Provided, This shall not apply to carcasses shipped with the hides left on.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.471. This section re-enacts except first word "hereafter", Sec. 1 of Act 90 of 1917, being CL 1929, 5461; and supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 90 of 1917, being CL 1929, 5462.

750.472 Treating eyes of newly born infants; manner; noncompliance with provision, misdemeanor.

Sec. 472. Treating the eyes of newly born infants—It shall be the duty of the state health commissioner to officially name and approve a prophylaxis to be used in treating the eyes of newly born infants, and it shall be the duty of the commissioner to publish instructions for using the same.

It shall be the duty of any physician, nurse or midwife who shall assist or be in charge at the birth of any infant, or have care of the same after birth, to treat the eyes of the infant with a prophylaxis approved by the state health commissioner; and such treatment shall be given within 1 hour after the birth of the infant if a physician, nurse or midwife is then present, or as soon thereafter as a physician, nurse or midwife is present; and if any redness, swelling, inflammation or gathering of pus shall appear in the eyes of such infant or upon the lids or about the eyes, within 2 weeks after birth, then any nurse, midwife or other person having care of the infant shall report the same to some competent practicing physician within 6 hours of its discovery.

Any person who shall fail to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.472. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 123 of 1913, being CL 1915, 5037;—CL 1929, 6618; and Sec. 2 of Act 123 of 1913, being CL 1915, 5038;—CL 1929, 6619; and Sec. 3 of Act 123 of 1913, being CL 1915, 5039;—CL 1929, 6620.

750.473 Transporting persons or articles infected with disease; noncompliance with provision, misdemeanor.

Sec. 473. Transportation of persons or articles infected with communicable diseases dangerous to the public health—No person sick with cholera, smallpox, diphtheria, scarlet fever or any other communicable disease, dangerous to the public health, and no article which has been infected or is liable to propagate or convey any such disease, shall come or be brought into any township, city or village in Michigan, without the special permit of the board of health or the health officer of said township, city or village, and then only under the supervision of the health officer of said township, city or village: Provided, however, That any county may construct and maintain hospitals, sanatoria, or other institutions for the treatment of persons suffering from contagious or infectious diseases in any township in said county and may transport persons and property to and from such hospitals, sanatoria, or other institutions by and under the supervision of the regularly constituted county health department or county health officer, or other public authority having control thereof, without the consent or special permit of the board of health or the health officer of any township within said county.

Any person who shall violate the provisions of this section, or the order of the health officer made in pursuance thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.473. This section re-enacts Sec. 1 of Act 45 of 1895, being CL 1897, 4471;—Am. 1909, p. 426, Act 243, Eff. Sept. 1;—CL 1915, 5142;—Am. 1929, p. 26, Act 10, Imd. Eff. March 19;—CL 1929, 6613; and supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 45 of 1895, being CL 1897, 4472;—CL 1915, 5143;—CL 1929, 6614.

750.474 Exposing others to communicable disease; misdemeanor.

Sec. 474. Exposing others to communicable diseases, dangerous to the public health—Any person affected with smallpox, diphtheria or scarlet fever, or any other communicable disease, dangerous to the public health, who shall wilfully enter a public place or a public conveyance, or shall in any way wilfully subject another person to danger of contracting such disease; and any person who shall knowingly and wilfully take, aid in taking or cause to be taken a child or other irresponsible person, while affected with any of the aforesaid diseases into a public place or public conveyance, or in any way knowingly and wilfully subject another person to danger of contracting any 1 of the aforesaid diseases from such child or irresponsible person; and any person who shall knowingly and wilfully subject another person to danger of contracting any of the aforesaid diseases from the body of a person deceased therefrom; and any person who shall in any way knowingly and wilfully expose, aid in exposing or cause to be exposed a child or other irresponsible person to danger of contracting any 1 of the aforesaid diseases, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, That this section shall not apply to necessary transportation of patients suffering from such diseases in proper vehicles provided for such purposes.

750.483 Neglecting or refusing to aid sheriff, coroner or constable; misdemeanor.

Sec. 483. Neglecting or refusing to aid sheriff, etc.—Any person who being required by any sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner or constable, shall neglect or refuse to assist him in the execution of his office, in any criminal case or in the preservation of the peace, or the apprehending or securing of any person for a breach of the peace, or in any case of escape or rescue of persons arrested upon civil process, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

750.484 Refusal to apprehend when required by justice; misdemeanor.

Sec. 484. Refusing to apprehend on being required to do so by justice—Any justice of the peace, upon view of any breach of the peace, or any other offense proper for his cognizance, who shall require any person to apprehend and bring before him the offender, every person so required, who shall refuse to obey such justice, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.484. This section supersedes part of Sec. 17 of Ch. 156 of the R.S. 1846, being CL 1857, 5836;—CL 1871, 7669;—How. 9251;—CL 1897, 11321;—CL 1915, 14968;—CL 1929, 16579.

750.485 Accounting for county money; county and municipal officers.

Sec. 485. Accounting for county money by county and municipal officers—It shall be the duty of all county and municipal officers, who may receive or pay out any sum or sums of money belonging to the county in which said officers may reside, to keep an accurate and perfect account of all such moneys, by whom paid and for what purpose, as the board of supervisors of the several counties of this state, or by the board of auditors, wherever authorized to transact such county business, may direct. The several boards of supervisors and board of county auditors are hereby authorized and directed to prepare a system for the keeping of such accounts, and report to the county treasurer, as the several boards may deem proper and necessary in each of the several counties of this state.

Whenever the board of supervisors or board of county auditors may prescribe a system for the keeping of such accounts, as provided for by this section, said county and municipality shall comply with requirements of such system in all particulars, as directed to do by said boards of supervisors or boards of county auditors.

Any county or municipal officer who may be included under the provisions of this section, who shall neglect or refuse to comply with any of the provisions of this section, in the keeping of such accounts as may be prescribed by said county boards, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.485. This section re-enacts except changes "such" to "said", Sec. 1 of Act 237 of 1901, being CL 1915, 2517;—CL 1929, 2708; and re-enacts except changes "act" to "section", Sec. 2 of Act 237 of 1901, being CL 1915, 2518;—CL 1929, 2709; and supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 237 of 1901, being CL 1915, 2519;—CL 1929, 2710.

750.486 Appointment of unqualified under-sheriff or deputy sheriff.

Sec. 486. Any sheriff who shall knowingly appoint as undersheriff or deputy sheriff, any person who shall not have been a bona fide resident of the state for 1 year preceding the time of appointment or who appoints an undersheriff or deputy sheriff for the purpose of assisting or performing duties in the area of labor disputes who has not been a resident of the county in which the appointment is made for at least 3 months, is guilty of a misdemeanor. The 3-month residency requirement shall not apply where the person appointed undersheriff or deputy sheriff is a bona fide public law enforcement officer.

Sec. 487. Defense of persons charged with crime by law partner of prosecuting attorney—The law partner or partners of any prosecuting attorney who shall be directly or indirectly engaged or interested in the defense of any person or persons charged with any offense, when it is the duty of such prosecuting attorney in his official capacity to prosecute such person or persons, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.487. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 16 of Ch. XVI of Act 175 of 1927, being CL 1929, 17508; and Sec. 17 of Ch. XVI of Act 175 of 1927, being CL 1929, 17507.

750.488 Retention of fees by state officers and employees on salary.

Sec. 488. Retention of fees by state officers and employees on salary—Any officer or employe of the state government, having a salary fixed by law who shall retain any fees received for performance of his official duties, or who shall not promptly turn over to the state treasurer or credit to the proper funds such fees when collected, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 2 years or by a fine of not more than 1,000 dollars. Any one convicted under the provisions of this section shall be promptly removed from office.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.488.

750.489 False statement of public finances and transfer of same.

Sec. 489. False statement of public finances and transfer of same—Any officer, agent, servant or employe of the state of Michigan, or of any county, township, city, village or school district of this state, and any member, agent or employe of any board or commission of the state of Michigan or of any of the municipalities above named, who shall knowingly deliver, publish or give out for publication any false statement relating to the finances, funds, moneys or balances in any fund of said state, county, township, city, village or school district, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Any officer, agent, servant or employe of the state of Michigan, or of any county, township, city, village or school district of this state, and any member, agent or employe of any board or commission of the state of Michigan or of any of the municipalities above named, who shall transfer or juggle the funds of the state or other municipal division thereof, or issue false checks, drafts, warrants, vouchers or other evidences of credit, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.489. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 291 of 1927, being CL 1929, 381; and Sec. 2 of Act 291 of 1927, being CL 1929, 382; and Sec. 3 of Act 291 of 1927, being CL 1929, 383.

750.490 Safe keeping of public moneys.

Sec. 490. Safe keeping of public moneys—All moneys which shall come into the hands of any officer of the state, or of any officer of any county, or of any township, school district, highway district, city or village, or of any other municipal or public corporation within this state, pursuant to any provision of law authorizing such officer to receive the same, shall be denominated public moneys within the meaning of this section.

It shall be the duty of every officer charged with the receiving, keeping or disbursing of public moneys to keep the same separate and apart from his own money, and he shall not commingle the same with his own money, nor with the money of any other person, firm, or corporation.

No such officer shall, under any pretext, use, or allow to be used, any such moneys for any purpose other than in accordance with the provisions of law; nor shall he use the same for his own private use, nor loan the same to any person, firm or corporation without legal authority so to do.

In all cases where public moneys are authorized to be deposited in any bank, or to be loaned to any individual, firm or corporation, for interest, the interest accruing upon such public moneys shall belong to and constitute a general fund of the state, county or other public or municipal corporation, as the case may be.

In no case shall any such officer, directly or indirectly, receive any pecuniary or valuable consideration as an inducement for the deposit of any public moneys with any particular bank, person, firm or corporation.

The provisions of this section shall apply to all deputies of such officer or officers, and to all clerks, agents and servants of such officer or officers.

Any officer who shall wilfully or corruptly draw or issue any warrant, order or certificate for the payment of money in excess of the amount authorized by law, or for a purpose not authorized by law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable as provided in this section.

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 2 years or by a fine of not more than 1,000 dollars: Provided, That nothing in this section contained shall prevent a prosecution for embezzlement in cases where the facts warrant the same.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.490. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 131 of 1875, being How. 423;—CL 1897, 1197;—CL 1915, 298;—CL 1929, 358; and Sec. 7 of Act 131 of 1875, being How. 429;—CL 1897, 1203;—CL 1915, 304;—CL 1929, 364; and Sec. 8 of Act 131 of 1875, being How. 430;—CL 1897, 1204;—CL 1915, 305;—CL 1929, 365; and re-enacts Sec. 2 of Act 131 of 1875, being How. 424;—CL 1897, 1196;—CL 1915, 299;—CL 1929, 359; and Sec. 4 of Act 131 of 1875, being How. 426;—CL 1897, 1200;—CL 1915, 301;—CL 1929, 361; and Sec. 5 of Act 131 of 1875, being How. 427;—CL 1897, 1201;—CL 1915, 302;—CL 1929, 362; and re-enacts except changes "nor" to "or", Sec. 3 of Act 131 of 1875, being How. 425;—CL 1897, 1199;—CL 1915, 300;—CL 1929, 360; and re-enacts except changes "act" to "section", Sec. 6 of Act 131 of 1875, being How. 428;—CL 1897, 1202;—CL 1915, 303;—CL 1929, 363.

750.490a Purchase by employee upon public credit for private use.

Sec. 490a. No officer or employee of any governmental agency as defined in this section shall purchase or cause to be purchased any goods, wares, or merchandise of any description whatsoever in the name of or on the credit of such governmental agency for any purpose than for use or resale in the regular course of the official business of such governmental agency; or sell or offer for sale goods, wares or merchandise purchased in the name of or on the credit of such governmental agency, at any price other than the price at which such goods are offered generally to the public by such governmental agency.

For purposes of this section, "governmental agency" shall be defined to mean any and all branches or departments of the state government; any and all branches or departments of the government of any county, city, village, school district, township, or other municipal corporation in this state; and any commission, board, or other similar body organized to assist in the conduct of the governmental or proprietary functions of state or local government.

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 90 days or by a fine of not more than $100.00, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

HISTORY: Add. 1939, p. 751, Act 310, Eff. Sept. 29;—CL 1948, 750.490a.

CHAPTER LXXI

PUBLIC RECORDS

750.491 Public records; removal, mutilation or destruction; penalty.

Sec. 491. All official books, papers or records created by or received in any office or agency of the state of Michigan or its political subdivisions, are declared to be public property, belonging to the people of the state of Michigan. All books, papers or records shall be disposed of only as provided in section 13c of Act No. 51 of the Public Acts of the First Extra Session of 1948, as added, being section 18.13c of the Compiled Laws of 1948, section 5 of Act No. 271 of the Public Acts of 1913, as amended, being section 399.5 of the Compiled Laws of 1948 and sections 2137 and 2138 of Act No. 236 of the Public Acts of 1961, being sections 600.2137 and 600.2138 of the Compiled Laws of 1948.

Any person who shall wilfully carry away, mutilate or destroy any of such books, papers, records or any part of the same, and any person who shall retain and continue to hold the possession of any books, papers or records, or parts thereof, belonging to the aforesaid offices and shall refuse to deliver up such books, papers, records, or parts thereof to the proper officer having charge of the office to which such books, papers, or records belong, upon demand being made by such officer or, in cases of a defunct office, the Michigan historical commission, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 2 years or by a fine of not more than $1,000.00.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.491;—Am. 1852, p. 136, Act 119, Eff. Sep. 18;—Am. 1864, p. 140, Act 147, Eff. Aug. 28.

This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 1 of Act 6 of 1851, being CL 1857, 5606;—CL 1871, 7751;—Am. 1875, p. 237, Act 208, Eff. Aug. 3;—How. 9347;—CL 1897, 11361;—CL 1915, 15079;—CL 1929, 17018.

750.492 Public records; inspection, use, copying, removal.

Sec. 492. Any officer having the custody of any county, city or township records in this state who shall when requested fail or neglect to furnish proper and reasonable facilities for the inspection and examination of the records and files in his office and for making memoranda of transcripts therefrom during the usual business hours, which shall not be less than 4 hours per day, to any person having occasion to make examination of them for any lawful purpose shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year, or by a fine of not more than $500.00. The custodian of said records and files may make such reasonable rules with reference to the inspection and examination of them as shall be necessary for the protection of said records and files, and to prevent interference with the regular discharge of the duties of such officer. The officer shall prohibit the use of pen and ink in making copies or notes of records and files in his office. No books, records and files shall be removed from the office of the custodian thereof, except by the order of the judge of any court of competent jurisdiction, or in response to a subpoena duces tecum issued therefrom, or for audit purposes conducted pursuant to Act No. 71 of the Public Acts of 1919, as amended, being sections 21.41 to 21.53 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, Act No. 52 of the Public Acts of 1929, being sections 14.141 to 14.145 of the Compiled Laws of 1948 or Act No. 2 of the Public Acts of 1968, being sections 141.421 to 141.433 of the Compiled Laws of 1948 with the permission of the official having custody of the records if the official is given a receipt listing the records being removed.

750.497 Detouring traffic as public safety measure; notices, posting.

Sec. 497. Detouring traffic as public safety measure—Whenever in the opinion of the state highway commissioner a condition arises or is about to arise upon any of the highways of the state occasioned by the condition of said highway or by any approaching public gathering likely to bring unusual congestion of traffic thereon, and the public safety of persons using or about to use said highway is put in jeopardy, the state highway commissioner is hereby authorized by an appropriate order, to detour the traffic from or upon, provide the direction for any or all traffic, close to any or all traffic, or limit the traffic on said highway to certain classes of vehicles, under such conditions as he may in such order provide on any of the highways of the state of Michigan for such length of time as he may deem necessary.

Whenever the state highway commissioner shall make any order in any way regulating or closing traffic on any highways of this state under the authority of this section, he shall cause to be posted upon said highway in conspicuous places at each terminal of the restricted or closed highway, conspicuous notices of such regulations or closing order.

Any person violating any of the provisions of said order, or using said highway in any manner prohibited in said order after and during the time that notices of said order shall be properly posted as herein provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than 10 dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 10 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

HISTORY: Am. 1937, p. 351, Act 221, Eff. Oct. 29;—CL 1948, 750.497. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 1 of Act 302 of 1929, being CL 1929, 4629; and Sec. 3 of Act 302 of 1929, being CL 1929, 4631; and re-enacted except changed "act" to "section", Sec. 2 of Act 302 of 1929, being CL 1929, 4630.

750.498 Erection of traffic signals by township boards on trunk lines.

Sec. 498. Erection of traffic control signals by township boards on state trunk line highways—Upon request of any township board, county road commission, or the officials of any incorporated city or village, or upon their own initiative, the state highway commissioner and the commissioner of public safety, acting jointly may investigate or cause to be investigated the traffic conditions on any state trunk line highway within this state, and, if upon such investigation they shall find it in the interest of public safety and convenience, they may direct the said state highway commissioner, township board, county road commission, city or village officials, to erect and maintain, take down, regulate or control such parking, speed and traffic control signs, signals or devices as the said state highway commissioner and commissioner of public safety shall designate, and in default thereof, said state highway commissioner and commissioner of public safety shall be authorized to cause such designated signs, signals and devices to be erected and maintained, taken down, regulated or controlled, in the manner previously directed, and pay for same out of the highway fund designated. A public record of any and all such traffic signs, signals or devices so authorized shall be kept in the office of the state highway commissioner. Any person who shall, on any state trunk line highway in any township, city or village, fail to observe any parking, speed or traffic signs, signals or devices authorized as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than 100 dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 10 days or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

HISTORY: Am. 1937, p. 352, Act 221, Eff. Oct. 29;—CL 1948, 750.498. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 1 of Act 85 of 1929, being CL 1929, 4466.

750.535 Receiving or concealing stolen property.

Sec. 535. Any person who shall buy, receive or aid in the concealment of any stolen, embezzled or converted money, goods or property knowing the same to have been stolen, embezzled or converted, if the property purchased, received or concealed exceed the value of $100.00, shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 5 years or by a fine of not more than $2,500.00. If the property purchased, received or concealed shall be of the value of $100.00 or less, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. On a third or subsequent conviction under this section such person shall be guilty of a felony, punishable as herein provided, although the value of the property purchased, received or concealed did not exceed $100.00.

Rebuttable presumption on dealer's failure to make reasonable inquiry.

Any person being a dealer in or collector of any merchandise or personal property, or the agent, employee or representative of such dealer or collector who fails to make reasonable inquiry that the person selling or delivering any stolen, embezzled or converted property to him has a legal right to do so, shall be presumed to have bought or received such property knowing it to have been stolen, embezzled or converted. This presumption may, however, be rebutted by proof.

750.537 Copper and silver ore; bartering in.

Sec. 537. Bartering in stolen copper and silver ore, etc.—No person working in any copper or silver mine of this state, or any person in behalf of such person, shall sell, barter, transfer or ship any copper or silver ore, bullion, pig or copper or silver in the raw or unmanufactured state, and no person shall be a party to any barter, transfer or sale aforesaid, or aid or assist therein, unless a memorandum thereof be filed with the county clerk of the county where such barter, transfer or sale shall take place, giving the names of the parties making such barter, transfer, sale or shipment, the dates, consideration and the origin of the copper or silver so bartered, transferred, sold or shipped, and in all cases where the origin of said copper or silver is not known to the parties, no barter, transfer, sale or shipment, shall be made without a certificate being attached to such memorandum of sale duly signed by the county clerk or by a constable, deputy sheriff or 1 of the justices of the peace of said county, stating in substance that he has investigated the source of origin of the copper or silver so to be bartered, transferred, sold or shipped and that in his opinion the articles have not been stolen, and that the parties thereto have a right to transfer or sell the same. This section shall not apply to any person authorized to act in behalf of a person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of mining copper or silver as owner thereof. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.537. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 281 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9637; and Sec. 3 of Act 281 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9639.

750.538 Copper and silver ore; sales or shipments in county where copper and silver are mined.

Sec. 538. Sales or shipments of copper and silver ore in county where copper and silver are mined—Any sales, transfers or shipments of copper or silver ore, bullion, pig or copper or silver in the raw or unmanufactured state in any county of the state where copper and silver are mined, by any person not engaged in the business of mining or producing copper or silver ore, bullion, pig or copper or silver in the unmanufactured state, shall be unlawful unless and until a memorandum thereof shall be filed with the county clerk of the county where such sale or transfer shall take place, giving the names of the parties, the dates, consideration and origin of the copper or silver so sold, transferred or shipped or offered for sale, transfer or shipping; and in all cases where the origin of the copper or silver is not known, no sale, transfer or shipment shall be made without a certificate being attached to such memorandum of sale duly signed by the county clerk, constable, deputy sheriff or 1 of the justices of the peace of said county, stating in substance that he has investigated the source or origin of the copper or silver offered for sale, transfer or shipment, and that in his opinion the articles have not been stolen, and that the parties thereto have a right to sell, transfer and ship the same.

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.538. This section re-enacts Sec. 2 of Act 281 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9638; and supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 281 of 1925, being CL 1929, 9639.

CHAPTER LXXXII

TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE

750.539 Divulging contents of messages.

Sec. 539. Divulging contents of messages—Any person connected with a telegraph, telephone or messenger company, incorporated or unincorporated, operating a line of telegraph or telephone, or engaged in the business of receiving and delivering messages in this state, in any capacity, who wilfully divulges the contents or the nature of the contents of a communication entrusted to him for transmission or delivery, or who wilfully refuses or neglects to transmit or deliver the same, or who wilfully delays the transmission or delivery of the same, or who wilfully forges the name of the receiver to any receipt for any such message or communication or article of value entrusted to him by such company, with a view to injure, deceive or defraud the sender or intended receiver thereof, or any such telephone, telegraph or messenger company or to benefit himself or any other person, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.539. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 68 of 1853, being CL 1857, 5912;—CL 1871, 7768;—How. 9357;—CL 1897, 11386;—Am. 1901, p. 264, Act 187, Eff. Sept. 5;—CL 1915, 15104;—CL 1929, 17047.

750.539a Definitions.

Sec. 539a. As used in sections 539a to 539i:

(1) "Private place" means a place where one may reasonably expect to be safe from casual or hostile intrusion or surveillance but does not include a place to which the public or substantial group of the public has access.

(2) "Eavesdrop" or "eavesdropping" means to overhear, record, amplify or transmit any part of the private discourse of others without the permission of all persons engaged in the discourse. Neither this definition or any other provision of this act shall modify or affect any law or regulation concerning interception, divulgence or recording of messages transmitted by communications common carriers.

(3) "Surveillance" means to secretly observe the activities of another person for the purpose of spying upon and invading the privacy of the person observed.

(4) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation or association.

750.539c Eavesdropping upon private conversation.

Sec. 539c. Any person who is present or who is not present during a private conversation and who wilfully uses any device to eavesdrop upon the conversation without the consent of all parties thereto, or who knowingly aids, employs or procures another person to do the same in violation of this section, is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in a state prison for not more than 2 years or by a fine of not more than $2,000.00, or both.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 568, Act 319, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

750.539d Installation of device for observing, photographing or eavesdropping in private place.

Sec. 539d. Any person who installs in any private place, without the consent of the person or persons entitled to privacy there, any device for observing, photographing, or eavesdropping upon the sounds or events in such place, or uses any such unauthorized installation, is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in a state prison for not more than 2 years or by a fine of not more than $2,000.00, or both.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 569, Act 319, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

750.539e Use or divulgence of information unlawfully obtained.

Sec. 539e. Any person who uses or divulges any information which he knows or reasonably should know was obtained in violation of sections 539b, 539c or 539d is guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in a state prison not more than 2 years, or by a fine of not more than $2,000.00.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 569, Act 319, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

750.539f Unlawful manufacture, possession or transfer of eavesdropping devices.

Sec. 539f. Any person who manufactures, possesses or transfers to another any device, contrivance, machine or apparatus designed or commonly used for eavesdropping with the intent to unlawfully use or employ or allow the same to be so used or employed for eavesdropping, and knowing the same is intended to be so used, is guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in a state prison not more than 2 years, or by a fine of not more than $2,000.00, or both.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 569, Act 319, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

750.539g Exceptions.

Sec. 539g. This act shall not be construed to prohibit:

(a) Eavesdropping or surveillance not otherwise prohibited by law by a peace officer or his agent of this state or federal government while in the performance of his duties.

(b) Hearing any communication transmitted by common carrier facilities by an employee of any communications common carrier when acting in the course of his employment.

(c) The recording by any public utility of telephone communications to it requesting service or registering a complaint by a customer, when a record of the same is required for legitimate business purposes and the agents, servants and employees of such business firm are aware of such practice or surveillance by any employee safeguarding property owned by, or in custody of, his employer on his employer's property.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 569, Act 319, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

750.539h Civil remedies.

Sec. 539h. Any parties to any conversation upon which eavesdropping is practiced contrary to this act shall be entitled to the following civil remedies:

(a) An injunction by a court of record prohibiting further eavesdropping.

(b) All actual damages against the person who eavesdrops.

(c) Punitive damages as determined by the court or by a jury.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 569, Act 319, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

750.539i Proof of installation of device as prima facie evidence of violation.

Sec. 539i. In any criminal or civil action, proof of the installation in any private place of any device which may be used for the purposes of violating the provisions of this act shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of section 539d.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 569, Act 319, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

750.540 Cutting, breaking, tapping, connecting line, wire or cable.

Sec. 540. Cutting, tapping, using, etc., telephone or telegraph wires, etc.—Any person who shall wilfully and maliciously cut, break, tap or make any connection with, or read, or copy, by the use of telegraph or telephone instruments, or otherwise, in any unauthorized manner, any message, either social or business, sporting, commercial or other news reports, from any telegraph or telephone line, wire or cable so unlawfully cut or tapped in this state; or make unauthorized use of the same, or who shall wilfully and maliciously prevent, obstruct or delay by any means or contrivance whatsoever the sending, conveyance or delivery, in this state, of any authorized communication, sporting, commercial or other news reports, by or through any telegraph or telephone line, cable or wire under the control of any telegraph or telephone company doing business in this state, or who shall wilfully and maliciously aid, agree with, employ, or conspire with any other person or persons to do any of the aforementioned unlawful acts, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 2 years, or by a fine of not more than 1,000 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.540. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 113 of 1893, being CL 1897, 11637;—CL 1915, 15403;—CL 1929, 17046.

750.540a Party line, emergency, defined; refusal to yield or surrender use of line; pretext; penalty.

Sec. 540a. "Party line" as used in this section means a subscribers' line telephone circuit, consisting of 2 or more main telephone stations connected therewith, each station with a distinctive ring or telephone number. "Emergency" as used in this section means a situation in which property or human life are in jeopardy and the prompt summoning of aid is essential.

Any person who shall wilfully refuse to yield or surrender the use of a party line to another person for the purpose of permitting such other person to report a fire or summon police, medical or other aid in case of emergency, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Any person who shall ask for or request the use of a party line on pretext that an emergency exists, knowing that no emergency in fact exists, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: Add. 1952, p. 61, Act 56, Eff. Sep. 18.

750.540b Notice contained in telephone directory, printing; exception.

Sec. 540b. On and after the ninetieth day following the effective date of this amendment, every telephone directory thereafter distributed to the members of the general public in this state or in any portion thereof which lists the calling numbers of telephones of any telephone exchange located in this state shall contain a notice which explains the offense provided for in section 540a, such notice to be printed in type which is not smaller than any other type on the same page and to be preceded by the word "warning" printed in type at least as large as the largest type on the same page: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to those directories distributed solely for business advertising purposes, commonly known as classified directories, nor to any telephone directory first distributed to the general public prior to the date specified above. Any person, firm or corporation providing telephone service which distributes or causes to be distributed in this state 1 or more copies of a telephone directory which is subject to the provisions of this section and which does not contain the notice herein provided for shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: Add. 1952, p. 81, Act 56, Eff. Sep. 18.

750.540c Fraudulently avoiding charge for telecommunications service; use or sale of equipment; penalty.

Sec. 540c. Any individual, corporation or other person who (1) makes, possesses or uses or knowingly participates in the use of another of any instrument, apparatus, equipment or device designed, adapted or which can be used (a) to fraudulently avoid the lawful charge for any telecommunications service in violation of this section or (b) to conceal the existence or place of origin or destination of any telecommunications service or to interconnect to telephone lines so as to permit a person calling to one such line from or through a third telephone line to communicate with a person calling to the other such line from or through a fourth telephone line if such interconnection is not authorized by the supplier of the telephone service, or (2) sells, gives or otherwise transfers to another, or offers or advertises to sell, give or otherwise transfer any instrument, apparatus, equipment or device described in clause (1), or instructions or plans for making or assembling the same, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding $500.00 or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding 1 year, or both, if the person or corporation engages in such conduct under circumstances evidencing an intent to use or employ such instrument, apparatus, equipment or device, or to allow the same to be used or employed for a purpose described in clause (1) (a) or (1) (b) or knowing or having reason to believe that the same is intended to be so used, or that such plans or instructions are intended to be used for making or assembling such instrument, apparatus, equipment or device.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 99, Act 75, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

750.540d Seizure of equipment; destruction.

Sec. 540d. Any instrument, apparatus, equipment, device, plans or instruction described in the preceding section may be seized under warrant or incident to a lawful arrest. Upon conviction of a person for violation of the preceding section the instrument, apparatus, equipment, device, plans or instruction may be destroyed as contraband by the sheriff of the county in which such person was convicted or turned over to the person providing the telecommunications service involved in the territory in which the same was seized.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 99, Act 75, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

750.540e Malicious use of service provided by communications common carrier.

Sec. 540e. (1) Any person is guilty of a misdemeanor who maliciously uses any service provided by a communications common carrier with intent to terrorize, frighten, intimidate, threaten, harass, molest or annoy any other person, or to disturb the peace and quiet of any other person by any of the following:

(a) Threatening physical harm or damage to any person or property in the course of a telephone conversation.

(b) Falsely and deliberately reporting by telephone or telegraph message that any person has been injured, has suddenly taken ill, has suffered death, or has been the victim of a crime, or of an accident.

(c) Deliberately refusing or failing to disengage a connection between a telephone and another telephone or between a telephone and other equipment provided for the transmission of messages by telephone, thereby interfering with any communications service.

(d) Using any vulgar, indecent, obscene or offensive language or suggesting any lewd or lascivious act in the course of a telephone conversation.

(2) Any person violating this section may be imprisoned for not more than 6 months, or fined not more than $500.00, or by both. An offense shall be committed under this section if the message either originates or terminates or both originates and terminates in this state and may be prosecuted at the place of origination or termination.

750.551 Trespass; injuring and destroying medicinal plants.

Sec. 551. Trespass upon field, etc., and injuring or destroying ginseng, golden seal plants, etc.—Any person who shall without the permission of the owner, enter the field, yard, building, garden or other enclosure of another and wilfully break down, dig, destroy, take or carry away any ginseng or ginseng seed, golden seal plants, golden seal roots, golden seal seeds or any other medicinal plants, seeds or roots, there stored, growing, drying or being, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.551. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 74 of 1905, being CL 1915, 15411;—Am. 1917, p. 886, Act 360, Eff. Aug. 10;—CL 1929, 17014.

750.552 Trespass upon lands or premises of another; penalty.

Sec. 552. Any person who shall wilfully enter, upon the lands or premises of another without lawful authority, after having been forbidden so to do by the owner or occupant, agent or servant of the owner or occupant, or any person being upon the land or premises of another, upon being notified to depart therefrom by the owner or occupant, the agent or servant of either, who without lawful authority neglects or refuses to depart therefrom, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 30 days or by a fine of not more than $50.00, or both, in the discretion of the court.

HISTORY: Add. 1951, p. 133, Act 102, Imd. Eff. May 31.

Original section 552 of Act 328 of 1931, p. 624, provided for trespass on state lands, etc., and was repealed by Act 126 of 1939.

750.552a Filth, garbage or refuse; unlawful to dump, deposit or place on property of another.

Sec. 552a. Any person who shall dump, deposit or place any filth, garbage or refuse on the grounds or premises of another, without the specific permission of the owner thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: Add. 1954, p. 34, Act 27, Imd. Eff. Mar. 31.

CHAPTER LXXXVI

UNFAIR DISCRIMINATION, RESTRAINT OF TRADE AND TRUSTS

750.553 Purchase of poultry, eggs, milk, cream and butter fat.

Sec. 553. Unfair discrimination in the purchase of poultry, eggs, milk, cream and butter fat—Any person engaged in the business of buying poultry, eggs, milk, cream or butter fat for the purpose of manufacture, who shall with the intention of creating a monopoly or destroying the business of a competitor, discriminate between different sections, localities, communities or cities of this state by purchasing such commodity at a higher price or rate in 1 locality than is paid for the same commodity by said person in any other locality, after making due allowance for the difference, if any, in the actual cost of transportation from the locality of purchase to the locality of manufacture, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.553. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 103 of 1913, being CL 1915, 15040;—CL 1929, 16681.

750.554 Purchase of potatoes, grain or beans.

Sec. 554. Unfair discrimination in the purchase of potatoes, grain or beans—Any person engaged in the business of buying potatoes, grain or beans, for the purpose of re-sale, who shall with the intention of creating a monopoly or destroying the business of a competitor, discriminate between different sections, localities, communities or cities of this state, by purchasing such potatoes, grain or beans at a higher rate or price in 1 locality than is paid for potatoes, grain or beans of like grade and quality by said person in any other locality, after making due allowance for the difference, if any, in the actual cost of transportation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.554. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 208 of 1923, being CL 1929, 16682.

750.555 Sale of petroleum products.

Sec. 555. Unfair discrimination in sale of petroleum products—Any person doing business in the state, and engaged in the production, manufacture or distribution of any petroleum products, who shall intentionally, for the purpose of destroying the business of a competitor in any locality, discriminate between different sections, communities or cities of this state, by selling such commodity at a lower rate in 1 section, community or city, than is charged for said commodity by said party in another section, community or city, after making due allowance for the difference, if any, in the grade or quality and in the actual cost of transportation from the point of production, if a raw product, or from the point of manufacture, if a manufactured product, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.555. This section supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 135 of 1913, being CL 1915, 15042;—CL 1929, 16684.

NOTE: See also Compilers' § 445.791 et seq.

750.556 Discrimination between sexes in payment of wages.

Sec. 556. Any employer of labor in this state, employing both males and females, who shall discriminate in any way in the payment of wages as between sexes who are similarly employed, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. No female shall be assigned any task disproportionate to her strength, nor shall she be employed in any place detrimental to her morals, her health or her potential capacity for motherhood. Any difference in wage rates based upon a factor other than sex shall not violate this section.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.556;—Am. 1962, p. 33, Act 37, Eff. Mar. 28, 1963.

This section as originally enacted superseded and merged Sec. 1 of Act 239 of 1919, being CL 1929, 8497; and Sec. 2 of Act 239 of 1919, being CL 1929, 8498.

750.557 Contracts deemed illegal and in restraint of trade.

Sec. 557. Contracts deemed illegal and in restraint of trade—Any person making or entering into any contract, understanding or agreement made illegal by the terms of this section, or who shall do any act in pursuance of carrying the same into effect in whole or in part, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

All contracts, understandings and agreements, made or entered into by and between parties capable of making a valid contract, the purpose or intent of which is to prohibit, restrict, limit, control or regulate the sale of any article of machinery, tools, implements, vehicles, or appliances designed to be used in any branch of productive industry; or to enhance or control or regulate the price thereof; or in any manner to restrict, limit, regulate or destroy free and unlimited competition in the sale thereof, shall be deemed illegal and void as in restraint of trade: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to impair or invalidate agreements or contracts known to the common law and in equity as those relating to good will of trade.

Contracts, understandings and agreements of the following nature, whether written or oral, are hereby declared to be illegal and void under the provisions of this section:

First, Contracts compelling and requiring that any particular make or brand of any article of machinery, tools, implements, vehicles or appliances designed to be used in any branch of productive industry, shall be dealt in or sold, by either party to such contract, to the exclusion of all other makes or brands of such article or articles;

Second, Contracts providing for the exclusive sale of certain makes or brands of manufactured articles of machinery, tools, implements, vehicles or appliances designed to be used in any branch of productive industry, and stipulating certain sums to be paid as liquidated damages to either party for every article so sold of other than the specified make or brand.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.557. This section supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 229 of 1905, being CL 1915, 15029;—CL 1929, 16663.

NOTE: See also Compilers' § 445.731 et seq.

750.558 Trusts and conspiracies in restraint of trade.

Sec. 558. Trusts and conspiracies in restraint of trade—A trust is a combination of capital, skill or arts by 2 or more persons, firms, partnerships, corporations or associations of persons, or of any 2 or more of them, for either, any or all of the following purposes:

1. To create or carry out restrictions in trade or commerce;
2. To limit or reduce the production, or increase or reduce the price of, merchandise or any commodity;
3. To prevent competition in manufacturing, making, transportation, sale or purchase of merchandise, produce or any commodity;
4. To fix at any standard or figure, whereby its price to the public or consumer shall be in any manner controlled or established, any article or commodity of merchandise, produce or commerce intended for sale, barter, use or consumption in this state;
5. It shall hereafter be unlawful for 2 or more persons, firms, partnerships, corporations or associations of persons, or of any 2 or more of them to make or enter into or execute or carry out any contracts, obligations or agreements of any kind or description, by which they shall bind or have bound themselves not to sell, dispose of or transport any article or any commodity or any article of trade, use, merchandise, commerce or consumption below a common standard figure or fixed value, or by which they shall agree in any manner to keep the price of such article, commodity or transportation at a fixed or graduated figure, or by which they shall in any manner establish or settle the price of any article, commodity, or transportation between them or themselves and others, so as to directly or indirectly preclude a free and unrestricted competition among themselves, or any purchasers or consumers, in the sale or transportation of any such article or commodity, or by which they shall agree to pool, combine, or directly or indirectly unite any interests that they may have connected with the sale or transportation of any such article or commodity, that its price might in any manner be affected. Every such trust as is defined herein is declared to be unlawful, against public policy and void: Provided, however, That nothing contained in the provisions of this section shall be construed to forbid producers of farm or dairy products from co-operating or organizing corporations or associations not primarily for profit, for the purpose of insuring and providing a reasonably certain and stable market for, and distribution of, such products upon terms fair and reasonable to the public and to themselves, and bargaining with distributors of such products singly or collectively in relation thereto, nor shall such co-operative undertaking, corporations, associations or members thereof be held or construed to be illegal combinations or conspiracies in restraint of trade.

Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be and is hereby declared a conspiracy against trade, and any person who may become engaged in any such conspiracy or take part therein, or aid or advise in its commission, or who shall as principal, manager, director, agent, servant or employer, or in any other capacity, knowingly carry out any of the stipulations, purposes, prices, rates or furnish any information to assist in carrying out such purposes or orders thereunder or in pursuance thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not more than 2 years or by a fine of not more than 1,000 dollars. Each day's violation of this provision shall constitute a separate offense.

In any indictment for any offense named in this and the following section, it is sufficient to state the purpose or effects of the trust or combination, and that the accused is a member of, acted with or in pursuance of it, or aided or assisted in carrying out its purposes, without giving its name or description, or how, when and where it was created.

In prosecutions under this and the following section, it shall be sufficient to prove that a trust or combination, as defined herein, exists, and that the defendant belonged to it, or acted for or in connection with it, without proving all the members belonging to it, or proving or producing any article of agreement, or any written instrument on which it may have been based; or that it was evidenced by any written instrument at all. The character of the trust or combination alleged may be established by proof of its general reputation as such.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.558. This section supersedes Sec. 4 of Act 255, 1899, being CL 1915, 15016;—CL 1929, 16650;—and Sec. 5 of Act 255 of 1899, being CL 1915, 15017;—CL 1929, 16651.

NOTE: See also Compilers' § 445.701 et seq.

750.559 Trustee; unlawful to control production through.

Sec. 559. Unlawful to hold trust certificates or enter into agreement to control production through trustee—Any person, partnership, association or corporation, or any agent thereof, who shall issue or own trust certificates, or any person, partnership, association or corporation, agent, officer or employe, or the directors or stockholders of any corporation, who shall enter into any combination, contract or agreement with any person or persons, corporations or corporation, or with any stockholder or director thereof, the purpose and effect of which combination, contract or agreement shall be to place the management or control of such combination or combinations, or the manufactured product thereof, in the hands of any trustee or trustees with the intent to limit or fix the price or lessen the production and sale of any article of commerce, use or consumption, or prevent, restrict or diminish the manufacture or output of any such article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.559. This section supersedes Sec. 10 of Act 255 of 1899, being CL 1915, 15022;—CL 1929, 16656.

NOTE: See also Compilers' § 445.701 et seq.

750.560 Incriminating testimony and immunity of witnesses.

Sec. 560. Incriminating testimony and immunity of witness except for perjury—No person shall be excused from attending and testifying, or producing any books, papers or other documents before any court or magistrate, upon any investigation, proceeding or trial, for a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, upon the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to degrade or incriminate him; but no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him upon any criminal investigation, proceeding or trial: Provided, That immunity shall extend only to a natural person, who in obedience to a subpoena, gives testimony under oath or produces evidence, documentary or otherwise, under oath: Provided further, That no person so testifying shall be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.560. This section supersedes Sec. 11a of Act 255 of 1899, Add. 1911, p. 5, Act 2, Eff. Aug. 1;—CL 1915, 15024;—CL 1929, 16658.

NOTE: See note under preceding section.

CHAPTER LXXXVII

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES

750.561 False weights and measures.

Sec. 561. False weights and measures—Any person who shall offer or expose for sale, sell, or use or retain in his possession, a false weight or measure or weighing or measuring device or any weight or measure or weighing or measuring device in the buying or selling of any commodity or thing or for hire or reward; or who shall dispose of any condemned weight, measure or weighing or measuring device contrary to law or remove any tags placed thereon by the sealer of weights and measures; or any person who shall sell or offer or expose for sale less than the quantity he represents, or sell or offer or expose for sale any such commodity in any manner contrary to law, or any person who shall sell or offer for sale or have in his possession for the purpose of selling any device or instrument to be used to, or calculated to, falsify any weight or measure, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Upon a second or subsequent conviction he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not less than 100 dollars or more than 500 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.561. This section supersedes Sec. 7 of Act 168 of 1913, being CL 1915, 6240;—Am. 1923, p. 44, Act 24, Eff. Aug. 30;—CL 1929, 5539.

750.562 Fruit or vegetable containers, copyrighted or registered.

Sec. 562. Fruit or vegetable containers bearing copyrighted or registered label, etc.—Any person using any fruit or vegetable container, or part thereof, upon which is borne any copyrighted or registered label, brand, stamp or trade-mark, or using a copyrighted or registered bag, tag or card without first obtaining permission to do so from the person, corporation, association, society or persons having legal control of the copyrighted or registered label, brand, stamp, trade-mark, tag, bag, or card, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, That nothing in this section shall prohibit the use of the container or part thereof herein mentioned in the sale of a commodity other than that described on the label, brand, stamp, tag or card attached thereto or appearing thereon.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.562. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 79 of 1925, being CL 1929, 8964; and Sec. 2 of Act 79 of 1925, being CL 1929, 8965.

750.563 Livestock or poultry; duty in weighing.

Sec. 563. Duty of persons weighing cattle, etc.—Any person who shall weigh for any person purchasing, or selling, or offering for sale, any live stock, neat cattle, sheep, swine, poultry, or other live animals, or any beef, pork, mutton, fowls, or other animals when dressed, or any hay, grain or produce, and shall fail, neglect or refuse to make a true and correct weight or weights thereof or give to the purchaser and seller, or person offering the same for sale, when requested, the true, full, correct and gross amount of any and all such weights, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.563. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 189 of 1881, being How. 1576;—CL 1897, 4903;—CL 1915, 6251;—CL 1929, 5565; and Sec. 2 of Act 189 of 1881, being How. 1576a;—CL 1897, 4904;—CL 1915, 6252;—CL 1929, 5566.

750.564 Fruit or vegetable containers to hold quantity represented.

Sec. 564. Fruit or vegetable containers to hold quantity represented—Any person who shall offer for sale or sell in any township, city or village within this state, any fruits or vegetables contained in the drawers, cases, boxes or baskets, represented to hold 1 bushel or any fractional part thereof, which said drawers, cases, boxes or baskets shall not be of the dimensions to hold or shall not hold the quantity offered for sale or sold whether by the bushel or 32 quarts or any fractional part thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.564. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 101 of 1877, being How. 1574;—CL 1897, 4907;—CL 1915, 6255;—CL 1929, 5590; and Sec. 2 of Act 101 of 1877, being How. 1575;—CL 1897, 4908;—CL 1915, 6256;—CL 1929, 5591.

750.565 Fruit baskets to be marked as to number of pounds.

Sec. 565. Fruit baskets to be marked as to number of pounds—Any manufacturer or shipper of or dealer in peach baskets or other fruit packages designed for the shipment of peaches, grapes and plums, who shall sell or offer to sell such peach baskets or other fruit packages without marking or causing to be marked in a plain manner on the outside, otherwise than the bottom of such baskets or packages, the capacity of each basket or package in pounds at the rate of 1 pound for each 43.008 cubic inches of space contained in such basket or package, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

750.566 Binder twine; marking.

Sec. 566. Marking of binder twine—Any person who shall sell, expose or offer for sale within this state, binder twine, except the same bear upon each ball a stamp, tag or label truly stating the name of the manufacturer, importer or jobber of such twine, the kind or kinds of material it contains, and the number of feet to the pound in such ball, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, That a deficiency not exceeding 5 per cent in the length or tensile strength stated on the stamp, tag or label shall not be a violation hereof.

The selling or exposing for sale of any ball of twine which does not conform to the requirements of this section shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 750.566. This section supersedes and merges Sec. 1 of Act 55 of 1909, being CL 1915, 6267;—CL 1929, 5616; and Sec. 2 of Act 55 of 1909, being CL 1915, 6268;—CL 1929, 5617; and Sec. 3 of Act 55 of 1909, being CL 1915, 6269;—CL 1929, 5618.

752.26 Violation of act; complaint on suspicion, search warrant; seizure and disposal of certain instruments.

Sec. 6. When complaint is made, on oath or affirmation, to any magistrate authorized to issue warrants in criminal cases, that the complainant believes that any of the provisions of this act are being, or are about to be violated in any particular building, or place, such magistrate, if satisfied that there is reasonable cause for such belief, shall issue and deliver a search warrant to any sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable or public officer, authorizing him to search such building or place and to arrest any person or persons engaged in violating any of the provisions of this act as well as any person or persons there present, and aiding or abetting therein, and to bring such person or persons before some magistrate of competent jurisdiction, to be dealt with according to law. Such officer shall, at the same time, seize and bring to said magistrate every article or instrument found in said building or place especially designed or adapted to torture or inflict wounds upon any animal or to aid in the fighting or baiting of any animal; and unless within 10 days after the trial of the person or persons so arrested the owner of said article or instrument shall show, to the satisfaction of said magistrate,

752.313 Duties of attorney general and state police.

Sec. 3. (a) The attorney general shall maintain complete records of all information received by him and may deliver to the prosecuting attorney of any county all information and evidence of matters which have come to his attention relating in any manner to the activities prohibited by section 2 of this act. The attorney general may cooperate with the prosecuting attorneys of the several counties or may intervene in any proceedings or may initiate proceedings in enforcing the provisions of this act. The expense incurred by any county of this state in the prosecution of any person charged with violation of this act shall, upon approval by the attorney general, be reimbursed to such county from the general fund of the state.

(b) The attorney general may cooperate with the attorney general of the United States, the department of justice of the United States, the federal bureau of investigation, and all other police agencies which collect and exchange information and evidence relating to activities prohibited by this act.

(c) The state police shall collect information and evidence relating in any manner to activities prohibited by this act and may cooperate and exchange information relating thereto with any police agency and shall, at the request of the attorney general, report to him any such information and evidence so collected, necessary to any prosecution for the violation of the provisions of this act.

(d) Any person who discloses any information or evidence collected under authority of this act, except as authorized hereby or except as specifically authorized by the attorney general, shall be guilty of a felony.

752.314 Sections repealed; pending proceedings.

Sec. 4. (a) Sections 1 and 2 of Act No. 168 of the Public Acts of 1935, being sections 752.301 and 752.302, respectively, of the Compiled Laws of 1948, are hereby repealed.

(b) All proceedings pending and all rights and liabilities existing, acquired or incurred, at the time this act takes effect, are hereby saved, and such proceedings may be consummated under and according to the law in force at the time such proceedings are or were commenced. It is the legislative intent that this act shall not be construed to alter, affect, or abate any pending prosecution, or prevent prosecution hereafter instituted under such repealed sections, chapters or acts for offenses committed prior to the effective date of this act; and all prosecutions pending at the effective date of this act, and all prosecutions instituted after the effective date of this act, for offenses committed prior to the effective date of this act, may be continued or instituted under and in accordance with the provisions of the law in force at the time of the commission of such offense.

Act 117, 1952, p. 132; Imd. Eff. Apr. 17.

AN ACT requiring communists and knowing members of communist front organizations to register with the Michigan state police; providing that neither the names of nominees of the communist party nor the names of communists shall appear upon the ballots in primary or general elections; providing that probable communists and knowing members of communist front organizations shall not hold non-elective positions or jobs; outlawing sabotage; and providing criminal penalties.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

752.321 Subversive groups and elements in public and private employment and schools, finding; infiltration.

Sec. 1. The legislature hereby finds and declares that there are present in the state of Michigan subversive groups and elements, particularly of the communist party and certain of its affiliated organizations, which have infiltrated into both private and public employment and into the public schools of the state. This has occurred and continues despite the existence of present statutes. The consequence of any such infiltration into the public schools is that subversive propaganda can be disseminated among children of tender years by those who teach them and to whom the children look for guidance, authority and leadership. Infiltration of these elements into the public service results in employment and retention of groups which teach and advocate that the government of the United States or of any state or of any political subdivision thereof shall be overthrown by force or violence or by any unlawful means. The legislature finds that members of such groups frequently use their office or position to advocate and teach subversive doctrines. The legislature finds that members of such groups are frequently bound by oath, agreement, pledge or understanding to follow, advocate and teach a prescribed party line or group, dogma or doctrine without regard to truth or free inquiry. The legislature finds that such dissemination of propaganda may be and frequently is sufficiently subtle to escape detection in the classroom. It is difficult, therefore, to measure the menace of such infiltration in the schools by conduct in the classroom. The legislature further finds and declares that in order to protect the children and our state institutions from such subversive influence it is essential that the laws prohibiting persons who are members of subversive groups, such as the communist party and its affiliated organizations, from obtaining or retaining employment in the public schools or state financed positions, be vigorously enforced. The legislature deplores the failure heretofore to prevent such infiltration which threatens dangerously to become a commonplace in our schools and institutions.

HISTORY: New 1952, p. 132, Act 117, Imd. Eff. Apr. 17.

752.322 Communist defined.

Sec. 2. A "communist" is a person who:

(a) Is a member of the communist party, knowing it to be such as herein defined, notwithstanding the fact that he may not pay dues to, or hold a card in, said party; or

(b) Contributes funds or any character of property to the communist party, knowing it to be such as herein defined; or

(c) Commits or advocates the commission of any act reasonably calculated to further the overthrow of the government of the United States of America, the government of the state of Michigan, or the government of any political subdivision of either of them, by force or violence; or

(d) Commits or advocates the commission of any act reasonably calculated to further the overthrow of the government of the United States, the government of the state of Michigan, or the government of any political subdivision of either of them, by unlawful or unconstitutional means, and the substitution therefor of a communist government.

HISTORY: New 1952, p. 132, Act 117, Imd. Eff. Apr. 17;—Am. 1953, p. 32, Act 37, Imd. Eff. Apr. 29.

752.323 Communist party defined.

Sec. 3. The "communist party" is any organization which in any manner advocates, participates in or acts to further, the world communist movement which has as its objectives, among others, the overthrow of the government of the United States or the government of the state of Michigan by force and violence or other unlawful means.

HISTORY: New 1952, p. 132, Act 117, Imd. Eff. Apr. 17;—Am. 1953, p. 33, Act 37, Imd. Eff. Apr. 29.

752.324 Communist front organization, annual publication of list; party to proceedings.

Sec. 4. A "communist front organization" is any organization, the members of which are not all communists, but which is substantially directed, dominated or controlled by communists or by the communist party, or which in any manner advocates, or acts to further, the world communist movement. The attorney general of the state of Michigan shall after hearing as "in any contested case" as provided by Act No. 197 of the Public Acts of 1952, being section 24.101 et seq. of the Compiled Laws of 1948, prepare a list of communist front organizations, as herein defined, which list shall be published at least annually. Any such organization, but not the individual members or officers thereof, shall be deemed to be a party to such proceedings and shall have those rights as such including those of an aggrieved party, which are prescribed by that act.

HISTORY: New 1952, p. 133, Act 117, Imd. Eff. Apr. 17;—Am. 1953, p. 33, Act 37, Imd. Eff. Apr. 29.

752.325 Registration with state police, contents; questionnaire, contents; penalty for failure to register; inspection of records; names transmitted to attorney general.

Sec. 5. (a) Each person in this state who is a communist or is knowingly a member of a communist front organization, shall forthwith register with the Michigan state police; and, so long as he remains in this state, shall register annually with said Michigan state police.

(b) Such registration shall be under oath upon a questionnaire prepared by the attorney general and shall set forth the name, including any assumed name used or in use, business, occupation, purpose of presence in the state of Michigan, sources of income, place of birth, places of former residence, and features of identification, including fingerprints, of the registrant; organizations of which registrant is a member; names of persons known by registrant to be communists or members of any communist front organization; and any other information deemed by the attorney general to be relevant to the purposes of this act as herein declared. Such questionnaire shall be so prepared as to afford each registrant opportunity to refuse to answer any specific question on the ground that such answer would tend to incriminate him.

(c) Each and every officer of the communist party and each and every officer of communist front organizations, knowing said organizations to be communist front organizations, shall register or cause to be registered said party or organizations with the Michigan state police, if said party or organizations have any members who reside, permanently or for a period of time more than 30 days, in the state of Michigan. Such registration shall be under oath upon a questionnaire prepared by the attorney general and shall include the name of the organization, the location of its principal office and of its offices and meeting places in the state of Michigan; the names, real and assumed, of its officers; the names, real and assumed, of its members in the state of Michigan and of any person who has attended its meetings in the state of Michigan; a financial statement reflecting receipts and disbursements and by whom and to whom paid; and any other information deemed by the attorney general to be relevant to the purposes of this act as herein declared. Such registration shall be made within 30 days after the effective date of this act, and thereafter at such intervals as are directed by the Michigan state police. Such questionnaire shall be so prepared as to afford each registrant opportunity to refuse to answer any specific question on the ground that such answer would tend to incriminate him.

(d) Failure to register as herein required, or the making of any registration which contains any material false statement or omission, shall constitute a felony and shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $10,000.00, or by imprisonment of not more than 10 years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(e) Under order of any court of record, the registration records shall be open for inspection by any person in whose favor such order is granted; and the records shall at all times, without the need for a court order, be open for inspection by any law enforcement officer of this state, of the United States or of any state or territory of the United States. At the discretion of the Michigan state police, such records may also be open for inspection by the general public or by any member thereof.

(f) The commissioner of the Michigan state police shall transmit to the attorney general of the state of Michigan the name of any person who holds a non-elective position, job or office for the state of Michigan, or any political subdivision thereof, and who from all of the evidence available to the commissioner of Michigan state police appears to be a communist or a member of a communist front organization. The attorney general of the state of Michigan may transmit the name of such person to his employer or superior, and may submit such evidence that such person is a communist or a member of a communist front organization as the attorney general of the state of Michigan and the commissioner of state police shall deem advisable.

HISTORY: New 1952, p. 133, Act 117, Imd. Eff. Apr. 17;—Am. 1953, p. 33, Act 37, Imd. Eff. Apr. 29.

752.326 Sabotage; penalty; definition.

Sec. 6. It shall be a felony, punishable by a term in the state prison for not more than 20 years, for any person, with the intent to injure the United States, the state of Michigan, or any facilities or property used for national defense, to sabotage or destroy, or to attempt to sabotage or destroy, any property, facility or service that is being used or is to be used in connection with national defense. Should any loss of life occur by reason of such sabotage or destruction, or by reason of any attempted sabotage or destruction of such character, the person committing or attempting to commit same shall be guilty of murder with malice aforethought and shall be punished by confinement in the state prison for life or for any term of years. The word "sabotage" as used herein means the willful and malicious infliction of physical damage or injury to property. The penalty herein provided shall be cumulative of all other penalties which might be imposed by virtue of the fact that the acts constituting an offense under this statute also constitute separate offenses under other laws of this state.

HISTORY: New 1952, p. 134, Act 117, Imd. Eff. Apr. 17.

752.327 Appearance on ballot prohibited.

Sec. 7. The name of any communist or of any nominee of the communist party shall not be printed upon any ballot used in any primary or general election in this state or in any political subdivision thereof.

HISTORY: New 1952, p. 134, Act 117, Imd. Eff. Apr. 17.

752.328 Holding non-elective position prohibited; persons in classified service, hearing; refusal to testify.

Sec. 8. No person may hold any non-elective position, job or office for the state of Michigan, or any political subdivision thereof, where the remuneration of said position, job or office is paid in whole or in part by public moneys or funds of the state of Michigan, or of any political subdivision thereof, where reasonable grounds exist, on all of the evidence, from which, after hearing, the employer or superior of such person can say with reasonable certainty that such person is a communist or a knowing member of a communist front organization. In cases involving a person within the classified service of the state of Michigan such hearing shall be held by the civil service commission: Provided, That the refusal of any person who holds a non-elective position, job or office for the state of Michigan, or any political sub-division thereof, who upon being called before a duly authorized tribunal or in an investigation under authority of law, to testify concerning his being a communist or a member of a communist front organization on the ground that his answers might tend to incriminate him, shall be, in the hearing provided for in this section, prima facie evidence that such person is a communist or a knowing member of a communist front organization.

Act 175, 1927, p. 281; Eff. Sep. 5.

AN ACT to revise, consolidate and codify the laws relating to criminal procedure and to define the jurisdiction, powers, and duties of courts and of the judges and other officers thereof under the provisions of this act; to provide laws relative to the rights of persons accused of criminal offenses; to provide for the arrest of persons charged with or suspected of criminal offenses; to provide for bail of persons arrested for or accused of criminal offenses; to provide for the examination of such persons accused of criminal offenses; to regulate the procedure relative to grand juries, indictments, informations, and proceedings before trial; to provide for trials of persons complained of or indicted for criminal offenses and to provide for the procedure therein; to provide for judgments and sentences of persons convicted of criminal offenses; to provide for procedure relating to new trials, appeals, writs of error and bills of exception in criminal causes; to provide a uniform system of probation throughout the state of Michigan, the appointment of probation officers and to prescribe the powers, duties and compensation of such officers and to provide penalties for the violation of the duties of such officers; to provide for procedure governing proceedings to prevent crime; proceedings for the discovery of crime; to provide for the jurisdiction, powers, duties, and procedure of justices of the peace in criminal cases; to provide for fees of officers, witnesses and others in criminal cases; miscellaneous provisions as to criminal procedure in certain cases; to provide penalties for the violation of certain provisions of this act and to repeal all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with or contravening any of the provisions of this act.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

TITLE AND CONSTRUCTION

760.1 Code of criminal procedure; short title.

760.2 Construction of act.

760.1 Code of criminal procedure; short title.

Sec. 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as "The Code of Criminal Procedure".

HISTORY: Am. 1929, p. 85, Act 47, Eff. Aug. 28;—CL 1929, 17116;—CL 1948, 760.1.

FORMER ACTS: See the acts listed in the repeal clause, being Compilers' § 776.19n.

COMMISSION: Act 15, 1926 (Ex. Ses.) p. 28, Imd. Eff. March 13, created a commission to "inquire into and investigate criminal court procedure" and to recommend changes in such procedure. As a result of the work of such commission the present act was passed in 1927.

RECORDER'S COURT: For application of "general law" of the state to prosecutions in such court, see Compilers' § 726.31.

CIVIL PROCEDURE: See (Judicature Act), being Compilers' § 800.101 et seq.

PENAL CODE: See Compilers' § 750.1 et seq.

760.2 Construction of act.

Sec. 2. This act is hereby declared to be remedial in character and as such shall be liberally construed to effectuate the intents and purposes thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17117; CL 1948, 760.2.

CHAPTER I.

DEFINITIONS.

761.1 Code of criminal procedure; definitions.

761.1 Code of criminal procedure; definitions.

[Sec. 1.]

In this act:

The singular number includes the plural and the plural includes the singular.

The masculine gender includes the feminine and neuter genders.

The words "person," "accused," and similar words include, unless a contrary intention appears, public and private corporations, copartnerships, unincorporated or voluntary associations.

The term "act" or "doing of an act" includes "omission to act."

The word "property" includes any matter or thing upon or in respect to which any offense may be committed.

The word "indictment" includes information, presentment, complaint, warrant and any other formal written accusation.

The word "indictment," unless a contrary intention appears, includes any count thereof.

The term "writing," "written" and any term of like import includes words printed, painted, engraved, lithographed, photographed or otherwise copied, traced or made visible to the eye.

The term "magistrate" wherever used in this act is defined as including all officials named in section 1 of chapter 4 of this act, excepting justices of the supreme court and circuit judges; and judges of courts of record having jurisdiction of criminal causes: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed as limiting the power of justices of the supreme court and circuit judges and judges of courts of record having jurisdiction of criminal causes under this act or depriving them of the power to exercise in their discretion the authority of magistrates.

The term "felony" when used in this act, shall be construed to mean an offense for which the offender, on conviction may be punished by death, or by imprisonment in state prison.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17118;—CL 1948, 761.1. This section supersedes and merges in part, Secs. 18, 20, and 21 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 161, being CL 1857, 5954, 5956, 5957;—CL 1871, 7820, 7822, 7823;—How. 9430, 9432, 9433;—CL 1897, 11791, 11793, 11794;—CL 1915, 15618, 15620, 15621.

NOTE: Sec. 1 of Ch. 4, above referred to, is Compilers' § 764.1.

COMPILERS' NOTE: This chapter as enacted had no section number, so the one in brackets above has been inserted to facilitate referencing, etc.

CONSTRUCTION OF STATUTES: See Compilers' § 8.3.

PROPERTY: In the former sections, "property" and "personal property" were defined at length but the new section gives a brief definition.

CHAPTER II. COURTS.

762.1	Jurisdiction; existing courts and persons.	762.11	Criminal offense by youth between ages of 17 and 20; assignment as youthful trainee; consent.
762.2	Jurisdiction; justice of the peace.	762.12	Termination or revocation as youthful trainee; reinstatement of criminal case; evidence; credit against sentence.
762.3	Jurisdiction; offenses near county lines.	762.13	Commitment to department of corrections; probation.
762.4	Jurisdiction; court of record; offense near boundary line.	762.14	Assignment as youthful trainee not deemed conviction; proceedings closed to public inspection, opened to court inspection.
762.5	Jurisdiction; fatal force and death in different counties.	762.15	Applicability to youths over fifteen.
762.6	Jurisdiction; fatal force inflicted on high seas or navigable rivers.	762.16	Holmes youthful trainee act; short title.
762.7	Jurisdiction; change of venue, procedure; saving clause.
762.8	Jurisdiction; felony consisting of more than one act.
762.9	Jurisdiction; felony on moving vessel or vehicle.
762.10	Jurisdiction; embezzlement.

762.1 Jurisdiction; existing courts and persons.

Sec. 1. The various courts and persons of this state now having jurisdiction and powers over criminal causes, shall have such jurisdiction and powers as are now conferred upon them by law, except as such jurisdiction and powers may be hereinafter repealed, enlarged or modified.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17119; CL 1948, 762.1.

OFFENSES ON GREAT LAKES: For jurisdiction of the several counties bordering on the great lakes, see Compilers' § 45.6 et seq.

RECORDER'S COURT: For application of "general law" of the state to prosecutions in such court, see Compilers' § 726.31.

762.2 Jurisdiction; justice of the peace.

Sec. 2. Any justice of the peace is empowered and authorized to perform all official acts and duties and to exercise jurisdiction in criminal causes in any township or city situate in the county within which the justice of the peace was elected and qualified, with the same rights and powers as though performed and exercised within the city or township in which such justice of the peace was elected and qualified.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17120;—CL 1948, 762.2. This section re-enacts Sec. 1 of Act 124 of 1925.

JURISDICTION AND PROCEDURE OF JUSTICE COURT: See Ch. XIV of this code, being Compilers' § 774.1 et seq.

762.3 Jurisdiction; offenses near county lines.

Sec. 3. (1) Any offense committed on the boundary line of 2 counties, or within 1 mile of the dividing line between them, may be alleged in the indictment to have been committed, and may be prosecuted and punished in either county.

(2) If it appears to the attorney general that a felony has been committed within the state and that it is impossible to determine within which county it occurred, the offense may be alleged in the indictment to have been committed and may be prosecuted and punished in such county as the attorney general designates. The state shall bear all expenses of such prosecution. The responsibility and the authority with reference to all steps in the prosecution of such case shall be the same, as between the prosecuting attorney of the county so designated and the attorney general, as though it were an established fact that the alleged criminal acts, if committed at all, were committed within that county.

(3) With regard to state offenses cognizable by the examining magistrate and to examinations conducted for offenses not cognizable by the examining magistrate, the following special provisions apply:

(a) If an offense is committed on the boundary of 2 or more counties, districts or political subdivisions or within 1 mile thereof, venue is proper in any of the counties, districts or political subdivisions concerned.

(b) If an offense is committed in or upon any railroad train, automobile, aircraft, vessel or other conveyance in transit, and it cannot readily be determined in which county, district or political subdivision the offense was committed, venue is proper in any county, district or political subdivision through or over which the conveyance passed in the course of its journey.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), if it appears to the attorney general that the alleged state offense has been committed within the state and that it is impossible to determine within which county, district or political subdivision it occurred, the violation may be alleged to have been committed and may be prosecuted and punished or the examination conducted in such county, district or political subdivision as the attorney general designates. The responsibility and the authority with reference to all steps in the prosecution of such case shall be the same, as between the prosecuting attorney of the county so designated and the attorney general, as though it were an established fact that the alleged criminal acts, if committed at all, were committed within that county, district or political subdivision.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17121;—Am. 1935, p. 236, Act 151, Imd. Eff. Jun. 4;—CL 1948, 762.3;—Am. 1970, p. 594, Act 213, Imd. Eff. Oct. 4.

This section as originally enacted reenacted Sec. 6 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 161, being CL 1857, 5942;—CL 1871, 7804;—How. 9418;—CL 1897, 11779;—CL 1915, 15606, inserting word "line" after "boundary". See Sec. 1 of Act 399 of 1921.

762.4 Jurisdiction; court of record; offense near boundary line.

Sec. 4. Whenever any court of record having criminal jurisdiction, the boundaries of whose jurisdiction as fixed by statute are not coincident with the boundary lines of a county or counties, shall take jurisdiction or have pending before it any trial or cause arising out of the commission of an offense at, on or near to the boundary line of the jurisdiction of said court, the jurisdiction of said court shall not be questioned, after the swearing of the jury, unless the evidence shall show the offense to have been committed more than 100 rods outside of the boundary of the jurisdiction of said court as fixed by statute.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17122;—CL 1948, 762.4. This section supersedes Act 399 of 1921.

762.5 Jurisdiction; fatal force and death in different counties.

Sec. 5. If any mortal wound shall be given or other violence or injury shall be inflicted, or any poison shall be administered in 1 county by means whereof death shall ensue in another county, the offense may be prosecuted and punished in either county.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17123;—CL 1948, 762.5. This section re-enacts Sec. 7 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 161, being CL 1857, 5943;—CL 1871, 7809;—How. 9419;—CL 1897, 11780;—CL 1915, 15607.

762.6 Jurisdiction; fatal force inflicted on high seas or navigable rivers.

Sec. 6. If any such mortal wound shall be given, or other violence or injury shall be inflicted or poison administered on the high seas, or in any other navigable waters, or on land, either within or without the limits of this state, by means whereof death shall ensue in any county thereof, such offense may be prosecuted and punished in the county where such death shall have ensued.

762.7 Jurisdiction; change of venue, procedure; saving clause.

Sec. 7. Each court of record having jurisdiction of criminal cases upon good cause shown by either party may change the venue in any cause pending therein, and direct the issue to be tried in the circuit court of another county, and make all necessary rules and orders for the certifying and removing such cause, and all matters relating thereto, to the court in which such issue shall be ordered to be tried, and the court to which such cause shall be so removed shall proceed to hear, try and determine the same, and execution may thereupon be had in the same manner as if the same had been prosecuted in the court having original jurisdiction of such cause, except that in all causes when the defendant shall be convicted and be sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail or to pay a fine, or to both such imprisonment and fine, the court awarding such sentence shall have authority to direct and shall direct that the defendant be imprisoned in the county jail of the county in which such prosecution commenced; and that such fine, when paid, shall be paid over to the county treasurer of the county in which such prosecution commenced, in the same manner as is now provided by law for paying over fines to county treasurers; and in every case where a change of venue is ordered, all expenses of such trial shall be a charge upon the county in which the prosecution originated; and when there shall be a disagreement of the jury on the trial of any criminal cause in the circuit court to which such cause was ordered for trial, the circuit judge before whom the same was tried, if he shall deem that the public good requires the same, may, upon cause shown by either party, order and direct the issue to be tried in the circuit court of another county in the state; and the court to which such cause shall be removed shall proceed to hear, try and determine the same in the same manner and with like effect as was pursued by the circuit court making such order: Provided, That in any and all suits, proceedings, causes or actions now pending in any of the circuit courts of this state, whether the court has general or special jurisdiction, a change of venue may be had in the manner provided and in accordance with section 10 of Act No. 157 of the Public Acts of 1851, as amended by Act No. 309 of the Public Acts of 1905 and the provisions of said act shall be continued in full force and effect for such purpose: Provided further, That in all suits, proceedings, causes or actions in which a change of venue has been granted, the court to which such suit, proceeding, cause or action has been transferred, shall retain jurisdiction.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17125;—CL 1948, 762.7. This section supersedes part of Sec. 10 of Act 157 of 1851, being CL 1857, 3420;—As Am. 1871, p. 15, Act 12, Imd. Eff. Feb. 15;—CL 1871, 4946;—As Am. 1879, p. 86, Act 88, Imd. Eff. May 22;—How. 6468;—CL 1897, 309;—As Am. 1905, p. 483, Act 309, Imd. Eff. June 17;—As Am. 1907, p. 212, Act 161, Imd. Eff. June 17;—As Am. 1909, p. 103, Act 67, Eff. Sept. 1;—CL 1915, 14563, which, however, was not expressly repealed by this act probably because it covered civil as well as criminal cases.

Said Sec. 10 has never been expressly repealed but since it had also been superseded in respect to civil cases by Compilers' § 610.2 it would now seem to be superseded in entirety and therefore does not appear in the present compilation. See following note.

SAVING CLAUSE: Sec. 10 of Act 157 of 1851 above referred to is CL 1915, 14563, but does not appear in the present compilation for reasons given in the preceding note. Act 309 of 1905 was not the last act amendatory to Sec. 10.

762.8 Jurisdiction; felony consisting of more than one act.

Sec. 8. Whenever a felony consists or is the culmination of 2 or more acts done in the perpetration thereof, said felony may be prosecuted in any county in which any 1 of said acts was committed.

HISTORY: Add. 1929, p. 50, Act 24, Imd. Eff. April 2;—CL 1929, 17126;—CL 1948, 762.8.

762.9 Jurisdiction; felony on moving vessel or vehicle.

Sec. 9. Whenever a felony has been committed on a railroad train, automobile, aircraft, vessel or other moving vehicle, said offense may be prosecuted in any county, city or jurisdiction in which such conveyance was during the journey in the course of which said offense was committed.

HISTORY: Add. 1929, p. 50, Act 24, Imd. Eff. April 2;—CL 1929, 17127;—CL 1948, 762.9.

OFFENSES ON GREAT LAKES: For jurisdiction of the several counties bordering on the great lakes, see Compilers' § 45.6 et seq.

762.10 Jurisdiction; embezzlement.

Sec. 10. In all prosecutions for the crime of embezzlement said offense may be prosecuted either in the jurisdiction in which the property is received by the person charged or the jurisdiction in which it was the duty of such person to deliver, re-deliver or return said property.

HISTORY: Add. 1929, p. 50, Act 24, Imd. Eff. April 2;—CL 1929, 17128;—CL 1948, 762.10.

762.11 Criminal offense by youth between ages of 17 and 20; assignment as youthful trainee; consent.

Sec. 11. When any youth is alleged to have committed a criminal offense between his seventeenth and twentieth birthdays, the court of record having jurisdiction of such criminal offense may with the consent of either the affected youth or his legal guardian or guardian ad litem elect to consider and assign such youth to the status of youthful trainee.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 511, Act 301, Eff. Jan. 1, 1967.

762.12 Termination or revocation as youthful trainee; reinstatement of criminal case; evidence; credit against sentence.

Sec. 12. The court of record, having jurisdiction over the criminal offense referred to in section 1, may at any time terminate its consideration of the youth as a youthful trainee or, once having assigned the youth to the status of a youthful trainee, may at its discretion revoke such status at any time prior to the youth's final release. Such termination of consideration, or such revocation of status as a youthful trainee, shall serve to reinstate the criminal case against such youth at the point interrupted when the consideration as a youthful trainee was commenced. No information divulged by the youth, subsequent to the commencement of consideration of the youthful trainee status, may be admissible as evidence in the criminal case. Should the status of a youthful trainee be revoked and sentence imposed under criminal procedure, the court in imposing sentence shall specifically grant credit against the sentence for time served as a youthful trainee in an institutional facility of the department of corrections.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 511, Act 301, Eff. Jan. 1, 1967.

762.13 Commitment to department of corrections; probation.

Sec. 13. If a youth is assigned to the status of a youthful trainee and the underlying charge is an offense punishable by imprisonment in a state prison for a term of more than 1 year, the court shall (a) commit the youth to the department of corrections for custodial supervision and training for a period not to exceed 3 years in an institutional facility designated by the department for such purpose or (b) place the youth on probation for a period not to exceed 3 years. A youth placed on probation shall be under the supervision of a probation officer or community assistance officer appointed by the corrections commission. Upon commitment to and receipt by the department of corrections, a youthful trainee shall be subject to the direction of the department of corrections.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 511, Act 301, Eff. Jan. 1, 1967.

762.14 Assignment as youthful trainee not deemed conviction; proceedings closed to public inspection, opened to court inspection.

Sec. 14. An assignment of a youth to the status of youthful trainee, as provided in this chapter, shall not be deemed to be a conviction of crime and such person shall suffer no civil disability, right or privilege following his release from such status because of such assignment as a youthful trainee. Unless such person shall be later convicted of the crime alleged to have been committed, referred to in section 1, all proceedings relative to the disposition of the criminal charge and to the assignment as youthful trainee shall be closed to public inspection, but shall be open to the courts of the state, the department of corrections, the department of social services and law enforcement personnel in the performance of their duties and such information may only be used for the performance of such duties.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 511, Act 301, Eff. Jan. 1, 1967.

762.15 Applicability to youths over fifteen.

Sec. 15. The provisions of this chapter may also be applied to a youth over the age of 15 years whose jurisdiction has been waived under the provisions of section 27 of chapter 4 of this act.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 512, Act 301, Eff. Jan. 1, 1967.

762.16 Holmes youthful trainee act; short title.

Sec. 16. Sections 11 to 15 shall be known as the "Holmes youthful trainee act."

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 512, Act 301, Eff. Jan. 1, 1967.

CHAPTER III.
RIGHTS OF PERSONS ACCUSED.

763.1	Rights of accused; hearing by counsel, defense, confronting witnesses.	763.5	Acquittal on facts and merits as bar to subsequent prosecution.
763.2	Conviction; bases.	763.6	Acquittal on variance, insufficiency or irregularity of indictment as bar to subsequent prosecution.
763.3	Waiver of trial by jury; form, time.
763.4	Waiver of trial by jury; jurisdiction of judge, procedure.

763.1 Rights of accused; hearing by counsel, defense, confronting witnesses.

Sec. 1. On the trial of every indictment or other criminal accusation, the party accused shall be allowed to be heard by counsel and may defend himself, and he shall have a right to produce witnesses and proofs in his favor, and meet the witnesses who are produced against him face to face.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17129;—CL 1948, 763.1. This section re-enacts Sec. 1 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 151, being CL 1857, 5704;—CL 1871, 7503;—How. 9069;—CL 1897, 11796;—CL 1915, 15623, omitting word "he" before "may."

CONSTITUTIONALITY: See Const. I, 15 and 16.

WITNESS FOR SELF: As to comment on accused's failure to testify, see Compilers' § 600.2159.

763.2 Conviction; bases.

Sec. 2. No person charged with an offense shall be convicted thereof unless by confession of his guilt in open court or by admitting the truth of the charge against him or after trial by the court or by the verdict of a jury accepted and recorded by the court.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17130;—CL 1948, 763.2. This section supersedes part of Sec. 2 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 151, being CL 1857, 5705;—CL 1871, 7504;—How. 9069;—CL 1897, 11797;—CL 1915, 15624. See Sec. 4 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 151, being CL 1857, 5707;—CL 1871, 7506;—How. 9071;—CL 1897, 11799;—CL 1915, 15626.

763.3 Waiver of trial by jury; form, time.

Sec. 3. In all criminal cases arising in the courts of this state whether cognizable by justices of the peace or otherwise, the defendant shall have the right to waive a determination of the facts by a jury and may, if he so elect, be tried before the court without a jury. Except in cases cognizable by a justice of the peace, such waiver and election by a defendant shall be in writing signed by the defendant and filed in such cause and made a part of the record thereof. It shall be entitled in the court and cause and in substance as follows: "I,, defendant in the above cause, hereby voluntarily waive and relinquish my right to a trial by jury and elect to be tried by a judge of the court in which said cause may be pending. I fully understand that under the laws of this state I have a constitutional right to a trial by jury."

.....
Signature of defendant.

Such waiver of trial by jury must be made in open court after the said defendant has been arraigned and has had opportunity to consult with counsel.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17131;—CL 1948, 763.3.

763.4 Waiver of trial by jury; jurisdiction of judge, procedure.

Sec. 4. In any case where a defendant waives his right to a trial by jury and elects to be tried by the judge of such court as provided in section 3 of this chapter any judge of the court in which said cause is pending shall have jurisdiction to proceed with the trial of said cause, and shall proceed to hear, try and determine such cause in accordance with the rules and in like manner as if such cause were being tried before a jury.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17132;—CL 1948, 763.4.

763.5 Acquittal on facts and merits as bar to subsequent prosecution.

Sec. 5. No person shall be held to answer on a second charge or indictment for any offense for which he has been acquitted upon the facts and merits of the former trial but such acquittal may be pleaded or given in evidence by him in bar of any subsequent prosecution for the same offense.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17133;—CL 1948, 763.5. This section supersedes part of Sec. 3 of R.S. 1848, Ch. 151, being CL 1857, 5706;—CL 1871, 7505;—How. 9070;—CL 1897, 11798;—CL 1915, 15625.

CONSTITUTION: See Const. I, 15 and 18.

DEGREES OF OFFENSE: For effect of conviction or acquittal for one degree on prosecution for another, see Compilers' § 768.33.

763.6 Acquittal on variance, insufficiency or irregularity of indictment as bar to subsequent prosecution.

Sec. 6. If any person who is indicted or informed against for any offense shall on his trial be acquitted upon the grounds of a variance between the indictment or information and the proof or upon any insufficiency or irregularity in the form or substance of the indictment, he may be arraigned again on a new indictment for the same offense, notwithstanding such former acquittal.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17134;—CL 1948, 763.6.

CHAPTER IV.

Sec. 1. For the apprehension of persons charged with offenses, excepting such offenses as are cognizable by justices of the peace, the justices of the supreme court, the several circuit judges, courts of record having jurisdiction of criminal causes and circuit court commissioners, mayors and recorders of cities and all justices of the peace, shall have power to issue processes to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter: Provided, however, That it shall not be lawful for any of the above named public officials to issue warrants in any criminal cases, except where warrants are requested by members of the department of public safety for traffic or motor vehicle violations until an order in writing allowing the same is filed with such public officials and signed by the prosecuting attorney for the county, or unless security for costs shall have been filed with said public officials.

HISTORY: Am. 1929, p. 755, Act 290, Eff. Aug. 28;—CL 1929, 17135;—Am. 1931, p. 273, Act 173, Imd. Eff. May 27;—CL 1948, 764.1. This section as originally enacted re-enacted Sec. 1 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 5977;—As Am. 1858, p. 13, Act 4, Eff. May 6;—CL 1871, 7643;—How. 9454;—CL 1897, 11838;—CL 1915, 15065, inserting words "courts of record having jurisdiction of criminal causes" after "circuit judges". The proviso which was added by the 1929 amendment superseded, in part, Sec. 1 of Act 108 of 1893, being How. 7135a;—CL 1897, 1061;—CL 1915, 15811.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE: Consent of prosecuting attorney to issuance of warrant, see also Compilers' § 774.4.

GAME AND FISH LAWS: Conservation officers may make complaints and institute proceedings for violations without the sanction of the prosecuting attorney or filing security for costs, see Compilers' § 300.12.

MOTOR VEHICLE LAW: Arrests, see Compilers' § 257.1 et seq.

764.2 Warrant; pursuit and apprehension of party in other county; aid.

Sec. 2. If any person against whom a warrant shall be issued for an alleged offense committed within any county, shall, either before or after the issuing of such warrant, escape from or be out of the county, the sheriff or other officer to whom such warrant may be directed, may pursue and apprehend the party charged, in any county of this state, and for that purpose may command aid and may exercise the same authority as in his own county.

764.2a Peace officer; authority outside of own bailiwick.

Sec. 2-a. Any peace officer of any county, city, or village of this state may exercise authority and powers outside his own county, city or village, when he shall be enforcing the laws of the state of Michigan in conjunction with the Michigan state police, or in conjunction with any peace officer of the county, city or village in which he may be, the same as if he were in his own county, city or village.

HISTORY: Add. 1939, p. 178, Act 100, Imd. Eff. May 16;—CL 1948, 764.2a.

764.3 Warrant; return, jurisdiction of justice.

Sec. 3. A warrant for the arrest of an accused person, when issued by any justice of the peace in any township or city other than the township or city in which the justice of the peace was elected and qualified, may be returned to and the accused brought before such justice of the peace in the city or township in which the offense was committed, or at the office of such justice of the peace in the city or township in which such justice of the peace was elected and qualified: Provided, That any such justice of the peace may in such warrant direct that the accused person be brought before another qualified justice of the peace within the same county, and in the absence of the justice of the peace who issued the warrant or in case of his inability to attend, the accused person may be brought before another qualified justice of the peace within the same county, which latter justice of the peace may proceed to hear or try the cause and have full jurisdiction thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17137;—CL 1948, 764.3. This section re-enacts Sec. 2 of Act 124 of 1925, omitting word "charged" after "offense".

764.4 Offense not punishable by death or not cognizable by justice; prisoner's right to be brought before magistrate of county where arrested.

Sec. 4. In all cases where the offense charged in the warrant is not punishable with death, or imprisonment in the state prison, and not cognizable by a justice of the peace, if the arrest shall be made in any other county than that where the offense is charged to have been committed, and if the person arrested shall request that he be brought before a magistrate of the county in which the arrest was made, it shall be the duty of the officer or person arresting him to bring such prisoner before a magistrate of that county.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17138;—CL 1948, 764.4. This section re-enacts Sec. 5 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 5981;—CL 1871, 7847;—How. 9458;—CL 1897, 11842;—CL 1915, 15669, changing word "carry" to "bring" before "such prisoner".

OFFENSE COGNIZABLE BY A JUSTICE: See Compilers' §§ 764.9 to 764.12.

764.5 Offense not punishable by death or not cognizable by justice; recognizance for appearance before magistrate issuing warrant; inapplicability of section.

Sec. 5. Such magistrate may take from the person arrested, a recognizance with sufficient sureties, for his appearance before the magistrate who issued such warrant within 20 days thereafter: Provided, however, That this section shall not apply in cases where the maximum punishment for the offense charged is imprisonment for 5 years or more, or for life.

HISTORY: Am. 1929, p. 51, Act 24, Imd. Eff. April 2;—CL 1929, 17139;—CL 1948, 764.5. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 6 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 5982;—CL 1871, 7848;—How. 9459;—CL 1897, 11843;—CL 1915, 15670;—As Am. 1925, p. 446, Act 302, Eff. Aug. 27.

764.6 Offense not punishable by death or not cognizable by justice; warrant; certification, disposal.

Sec. 6. Such magistrate shall certify on the warrant the fact of his having let the defendant to bail, and shall deliver the same, together with the recognizance taken by him, to the person who made the arrest, who shall cause the same to be delivered without unnecessary delay to the magistrate or clerk of the court before which the accused was recognized to appear.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17140;—CL 1948, 764.6. This section re-enacts Sec. 7 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 5983;—CL 1871, 7849;—How. 9480;—CL 1897, 11844;—CL 1915, 15671, inserting words "magistrate or" before "clerk".

764.7 Offense not punishable by death or not cognizable by justice; disposition of accused in absence of bail.

Sec. 7. If such magistrate refuses to let to bail the person so arrested and brought before him, or if no sufficient bail be offered or the offense be notailable by such magistrate, the person having him in charge shall take him before the magistrate who issued the warrant, or before some other magistrate of the same county, as in the next section prescribed.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17141;—CL 1948, 764.7. This section supersedes part of Sec. 8 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 5984;—CL 1871, 7850;—How. 9461;—CL 1897, 11845;—CL 1915, 15672.

764.8 Other offense not cognizable by justice; prisoner before magistrate issuing warrant; absence or inability to attend.

Sec. 8. Persons arrested under any warrant issued for any offense not cognizable by a justice of the peace, shall where no provision is otherwise made, be brought before the magistrate who issued the warrant; or if he be absent or unable to attend, before some other magistrate of the same county; and the warrant, with a proper return thereon, signed by the person who made the arrest, shall be delivered to the magistrate.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17142;—CL 1948, 764.8. This section re-enacts Sec. 9 of R.S. 1846 of Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 5985;—CL 1871, 7851;—How. 9462;—CL 1897, 11846;—CL 1915, 15673.

764.9 Offense cognizable by justice; prisoner's right to be brought before magistrate in county where arrested.

Sec. 9. In all cases where the offense charged in the warrant is cognizable by a justice of the peace, if the arrest shall be made in another county than where the offense is charged to have been committed and if the person arrested shall request that he be brought before a magistrate of the county in which the arrest was made, it shall be the duty of the person or officer arresting him, to carry such prisoner before a magistrate of that county.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17143;—CL 1948, 764.9. See Sec. 4 of this chapter.

OFFENSE NOT COGNIZABLE BY A JUSTICE: See Compilers' §§ 764.4 to 764.8.

764.9a Offense cognizable by justice; summons in lieu of warrant; content; service.

Sec. 9a. (1) As an alternative to filing an order allowing a warrant as provided in section 1 if the arrest is to be for an offense, violation of a city, village or township ordinance cognizable by a justice of the peace or a municipal judge, the prosecuting attorney for the county may issue a written order for a summons addressed to a defendant, directing the defendant to appear before a magistrate or other judicial officer at a designated future time for proceedings as are hereinafter set forth.

(2) A summons shall designate the name of the issuing court, the offense charged in the underlying complaint, the name of the defendant to whom it is addressed, and be subscribed by the issuing judicial officer.

(3) A summons may be served in the same manner as a warrant.

HISTORY: Add. 1968, p. 210, Act 147, Eff. Nov. 15.

CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: Sections 764.9a to 764.9e are cited in § 257.1517a.

764.9b Offense cognizable by justice; arrest without warrant; appearance ticket; issuance, service; release from custody.

Sec. 9b. When any person is arrested without a warrant for any misdemeanor, violation of a city, village or township ordinance cognizable by a justice of the peace or a municipal judge, the defendant need not be taken to a magistrate as provided in section 9, but in the alternative a police officer may issue and serve an appearance ticket upon the defendant and release him from custody as prescribed in section 9c.

HISTORY: Add. 1968, p. 210, Act 147, Eff. Nov. 15.

764.9c Offense cognizable by justice; arrest without warrant; appearance ticket; who may issue.

Sec. 9c. (1) Whenever a police officer has arrested a person without a warrant for any misdemeanor, violation of a city, village or township ordinance cognizable by a justice of the peace or a municipal judge, pursuant to section 15, in lieu of taking such person to a local criminal court and promptly filing a complaint therewith, he may issue to and serve upon such person an appearance ticket as defined in section 9f.

(2) A public servant other than a police officer, who is specially authorized by law to issue and serve appearance tickets with respect to a particular class of offenses of less than felony grade, may issue and serve upon a person an appearance ticket when he has reasonable cause to believe that the person has committed such an offense.

HISTORY: Add. 1968, p. 210, Act 147, Eff. Nov. 15;—Am. 1970, p. 481, Act 147, Imd. Eff. Sep. 1.

764.9d Complaint; filing; contents; dismissal.

Sec. 9d. (1) Except as otherwise provided by sections 9f and 9g, a police officer or other public servant who has issued and served an appearance ticket, at or before the time the appearance ticket is returnable, shall file or cause to be filed in the local criminal court in which it is returnable a complaint charging the person named in the appearance ticket with the offense specified therein.

(2) If the complaint is not sufficient on its face, and if the court is satisfied that a complaint sufficient on its face cannot be drawn and filed on the basis of the available facts or evidence, it shall dismiss the complaint.

HISTORY: Add. 1968, p. 210, Act 147, Eff. Nov. 15;—Am. 1970, p. 481, Act 147, Imd. Eff. Sep. 1.

764.9e Failure to appear; arrest.

Sec. 9e. If after the service of an appearance ticket and filing of a complaint for the offense designated therein the defendant does not appear in the designated local criminal court at the time the appearance ticket is returnable, the court may issue a summons or a warrant of arrest based upon the complaint filed.

HISTORY: Add. 1968, p. 211, Act 147, Eff. Nov. 15.

764.9f Appearance ticket; definition; form, sections.

Sec. 9f. (1) As used in sections 9a to 9g, "appearance ticket" means a complaint or written notice issued and subscribed by a police officer or other public servant authorized by law to issue it, directing a designated person to appear in a designated local criminal court at a designated future time in connection with his alleged commission of a designated violation or violations of state law or local ordinance for which the maximum permissible penalty does not exceed 90 days in jail and a fine of $500.00. The appearance tickets shall be numbered consecutively, be in such form as determined by the attorney general, the state court administrator and the director of the department of state police and shall consist of the following parts:

(a) The original which shall be a complaint or notice to appear by the officer and filed with the court.

(b) The first copy which shall be the abstract of court record.

(c) The second copy which shall be retained by the local enforcement agency.

(d) The third copy which shall be delivered to the alleged violator.

(2) With the prior approval of such state officials, such appearance ticket may be appropriately modified as to content or number of copies to accommodate law enforcement and local court procedures and practices.

HISTORY: Add. 1970, p. 481, Act 147, Imd. Eff. Sep. 1;—Am. 1970, p. 623, Act 232, Imd. Eff. Dec. 3.

764.9g Magistrates jurisdiction; pleas, complaint.

Sec. 9g. (1) When under the provisions of sections 9b or 9c an officer issues an appearance ticket, an examining magistrate may accept a plea of guilty or not guilty upon the appearance ticket, without the necessity of a sworn complaint. If the offender pleads not guilty, no further proceedings may be had until a sworn complaint is filed with the magistrate. A warrant for arrest shall not issue for an offense charged in the appearance ticket until a sworn complaint is filed with the magistrate.

(2) A district court magistrate may accept a plea of guilty upon an appearance ticket, without the necessity of a sworn complaint, for those offenses within his jurisdiction as prescribed by section 8511 of Act No. 236 of the Public Acts of 1961, as amended, being section 600.8511 of the Compiled Laws of 1948.

HISTORY: Add. 1970, p. 482, Act 147, Imd. Eff. Sep. 1.

764.10 Offense cognizable by justice; recognizance for appearance; liberation.

Sec. 10. Such magistrate may take from the person arrested a recognizance with sufficient sureties for his appearance before the magistrate having cognizance of the offense within 20 days thereafter, and the person arrested shall thereupon be liberated.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17144;—CL 1948, 764.10. See Sec. 6 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 5962;—CL 1871, 7848;—How. 9459;—CL 1897, 11843;—CL 1915, 15670;—As Am. 1925, p. 446, Act 302, Eff. Aug. 27.

764.11 Offense cognizable by justice; warrant, certification to bail; disposal.

Sec. 11. Such magistrate shall certify on the warrant the fact of his having let the defendant to bail and shall deliver the same, together with the recognizance taken by him, to the person who made the arrest, who shall cause the same to be delivered without unnecessary delay to the magistrate or clerk of the court before which the accused was recognized to appear.

CL 1929, 17145;—CL 1948, 764.11. See Sec. 7 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 5963;—CL 1871, 7849;—How. 9460;—CL 1897, 11844;—CL 1915, 15671.

764.12 Offense cognizable by justice; insufficient bail; records, disposition of prisoner.

Sec. 12. If such magistrate determines that no sufficient bail has been offered, he shall make a note of the same in his records and the person having the person arrested in charge shall take him before the magistrate who issued the warrant or before some other magistrate of the same county, as hereinbefore provided.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17146;—CL 1948, 764.12. See Sec. 8 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 5964;—CL 1871, 7850;—How. 9461;—CL 1897, 11845;—CL 1915, 15672.

764.13 Disposition of person; arrest by peace officer without warrant; filing complaint.

Sec. 13. A peace officer who has arrested a person for a felony offense without a warrant must without unnecessary delay, take the person arrested before the most convenient magistrate of the county in which the offense was committed, and must make before the magistrate a complaint, stating the offense for which the person was arrested.

HISTORY: Add. 1964, p. 65, Act 58, Eff. Aug. 28.

Former section 764.13 (Sec. 13, Ch. IV, Act 175, 1927, p. 281, Eff. Sept. 5) was repealed by Act 44, 1961, p. 46, Imd. Eff. May 20. It provided for taking of person arrested without warrant before magistrate without unnecessary delay, and for making a complaint.

764.14 Disposition of person; following arrest by private person; complaint.

Sec. 14. A private person who has made an arrest must without unnecessary delay, take the person arrested before the most convenient magistrate in the county in which the offense was committed or deliver him to a peace officer, who must without unnecessary delay take him before such magistrate. The peace officer or private person so taking the person arrested before such magistrate must lay before the magistrate a complaint stating the offense for which the person was arrested.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17148;—CL 1948, 764.14.

764.15 Arrest; power of officer without warrant.

Sec. 15. Any peace officer may, without a warrant, arrest a person—

- (a) For the commission of any felony or misdemeanor committed in his presence;
- (b) When such person has committed a felony although not in the presence of the officer;
- (c) When a felony in fact has been committed and he has reasonable cause to believe that such person has committed it;
- (d) When he has reasonable cause to believe that a felony has been committed and reasonable cause to believe that such person has committed it;
- (e) When he has received positive information by written, telegraphic, teletypic, telephonic, radio or other authoritative source that another officer holds a warrant for such arrest;
- (f) When he has received such positive information broadcast from any recognized police or other governmental radio station, or teletype, as may afford him reasonable cause to believe that a felony has been committed and reasonable cause to believe that such person has committed it;
- (g) When he has reasonable cause to believe that such person is an escaped convict, or has violated a condition of parole from any prison, or has violated a condition of probation imposed by any court, or has violated any condition of a pardon granted by the executive.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17160;—CL 1948, 764.26.

764.27 Arrest; procedure in case of child under seventeen.

Sec. 27. Whenever any child under the age of 17 years is arrested with or without a warrant, such child shall be taken immediately before the juvenile division of the probate court of the county wherein the offense is alleged to have been committed and the officer making the arrest shall immediately make and file or cause to be made and filed, a petition against such child as provided by chapter 12A of Act No. 288 of the Public Acts of 1939, as amended, being sections 712A.1 to 712A.28 of the Compiled Laws of 1948 and the said court shall proceed to hear and determine the matter in like manner as provided by said act, as amended. If, during the pendency of any criminal case against any child in any court in this state having criminal jurisdiction, it shall be ascertained that said child is under the age of 17 years, it shall be the duty of the court before whom such case is pending to immediately transfer such case, together with all papers connected therewith to the juvenile division of the probate court of the county wherein the offense is alleged to have been committed: Provided, however, That in any case where a child over the age of 15 years is charged with a felony the judge of probate of the county wherein the offense is alleged to have been committed, may, after investigation and examination, and upon motion of the prosecuting attorney, waive jurisdiction; whereupon it shall be lawful to try such child in the court having general criminal jurisdiction of such offenses. If, during the pendency of any criminal case against any child in any court of record other than a probate court, it shall be determined that said child is 17 or 18 years of age, then the said court may in its discretion if the court finds that any of the conditions exist as outlined in subsection (d) of section 2 of chapter 12A of Act No. 288 of the Public Acts of 1939, as amended, being section 712A.2 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, upon motion of the prosecuting attorney, the child or his or her representative, transfer such case together with all papers connected therewith to the juvenile division of the probate court of the counties wherein the offense is alleged to have been committed.

This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 6 of Act 6 of 1907, Ex. Ses., as Am. 1915, p. 558, Act 308, Eff. Aug. 24, being CL 1915, 2016;—As Am. 1923, p. 148, Act 105, Eff. Aug. 30, which, however, was not expressly repealed by this act.

764.28 Arrest; person who defaults on appeal from justice court.

Sec. 28. When any person under recognizance on an appeal in a criminal proceeding from a conviction and judgment of a justice of the peace, shall not appear according to the condition of such recognizance, and the said recognizance shall have become forfeited by reason of the breach of the condition thereof, and such forfeiture shall have been entered on record by order of the circuit court, it shall be lawful for said court to issue a capias for the arrest of the appellant or defendant named in such recognizance, to bring him before the court to answer to the complaint or prosecution against him in the proceedings in which appeal was taken.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17162;—CL 1948, 764.28. This section supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 209 of 1861, being CL 1871, 7962;—How. 9575;—CL 1897, 11959;—CL 1915, 15832.

Sec. 1. Officers before whom persons charged with crime shall be brought, shall have power to let them to bail as follows:

(a) Any justice of the supreme court, judge of a circuit court, judge of any court of record having jurisdiction of criminal causes, circuit court commissioners, in all cases except for offenses enumerated in section 5 of this chapter;

(b) Any justice of the peace, judge of a police or municipal court, mayor of a city, in all cases where the punishment for the offense charged shall be less than imprisonment for life in the state prison: Provided, That in courts in cities, in which the justice or judge, or justices or judges, as the case may be, have the criminal jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, or the jurisdiction to try and sentence for violations of city ordinances, or both, and having a clerk, recognizances for the appearance of persons charged with a criminal offense, may be taken and entered into by and before the clerks of such courts, subject to the direction of the court, when the amount of bail has been set by the justice or judge.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17163;—CL 1948, 765.1;—Am. 1951, p. 4, Act 3, Imd. Eff. Mar. 6.

This section as originally enacted superseded, with additions, Sec. 26 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 6002;—As Am. 1858, p. 13, Act 4, Eff. May 6;—CL 1871, 7868;—How. 9479;—CL 1897, 11863;—CL 1915, 15690.

CIVIL CASES: See Compilers' § 600.1815 et seq.

765.2 Admission to bail; courts of record having power.

Sec. 2. The several circuit courts, the recorder's court of the city of Detroit, the superior court of the city of Grand Rapids, and all courts of record having jurisdiction over criminal causes, shall have power to let to bail any person committed, in all cases in which a justice of the supreme court is authorized to let such person to bail.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17164;—CL 1948, 765.2. This section supersedes, with additions, Sec. 27 of R.S. 1848, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 6003.

RECORDER'S COURT: For a similar provision, see Compilers' § 726.14.

765.3 Admission to bail; application, notice to prosecutor.

Sec. 3. Any justice of the supreme court, circuit court commissioner or any judge of any circuit court for any county, or of the recorder's court of the city of Detroit or the superior court of the city of Grand Rapids or of any court of record having jurisdiction of criminal causes, on application of any prisoner committed for any bailable offense, and after due notice to the prosecuting attorney for the county, may inquire into the case and admit such prisoner to bail; and any person committed for not finding such sureties to recognize for him, may be admitted to bail by any of the said officers.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17165;—CL 1948, 765.3. This section supersedes, with additions, Sec. 23 of R.S. 1848, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 5999.

765.4 Admission to bail; procedure for information, same as under indictment.

Sec. 4. Any person who may, according to law, be committed to jail or become recognized or held to bail with sureties for his appearance in court to answer to any indictment may, in like manner so be committed to jail, or become recognized and held to bail for his appearance, to answer to any information or indictment as the case may be.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17166;—CL 1948, 765.4. This section re-enacts Sec. 5 of Act 138 of 1859, being CL 1871, 7941;—How. 9552;—CL 1897, 11937;—CL 1915, 15764.

765.5 Admission to bail; persons not entitled.

Sec. 5. No person charged with treason or murder shall be admitted to bail if the proof of his guilt is evident or the presumption great.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17167;—CL 1948, 765.5.

CONSTITUTION: See Const. I, 15.

765.6 Admission to bail; persons entitled; amount.

Sec. 6. In all other cases the person accused shall be entitled to bail, the amount to be uniform whether the bail bond be executed by the person for whom bail has been set or by a surety. The amount of the recognizance shall be fixed with consideration of the seriousness of the offense charged, the previous criminal record of the defendant and the probability or improbability of his appearing at the trial of the cause.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17168;—CL 1948, 765.6;—Am. 1969, p. 400, Act 222, Imd. Eff. Aug. 6.

CONSTITUTION: See Const. I, 15.

765.7 Admission to bail; writ of error taken by people.

Sec. 7. In all cases where a writ of error shall be taken by or on behalf of the people of the state of Michigan from any court of record to the supreme court, the defendant shall be admitted to bail on his own recognizance, pending the prosecution and determination of said writ; unless the trial court shall determine and certify that the character of the offense, of the respondent and of the questions involved in such review, render it advisable that bail be required.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17169;—CL 1948, 765.7. This section supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 159 of 1917.

BAIL: See also Compilers' § 770.9.

WRIT OF ERROR: When allowed to the people, see Compilers' § 770.12.

765.8 Surety; practicing attorney.

Sec. 8. No practicing attorney or counselor shall become security or bail for the appearance of any person charged with a felony or a misdemeanor in any criminal action and any such surety or bail for appearance taken by a judge, circuit court commissioner, justice of the peace or other officer authorized by law to take security or bail, shall be void.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17170;—CL 1948, 765.8. This section re-enacts Sec. 75 of Ch. 1 of Act 314 of 1915 (Jud. Act), being CL 1915, 12080, changing word "crime" to "a felony or a misdemeanor", which, however, was not expressly repealed. Sec. 75, in turn re-enacted Sec. 1 of Act 61 of 1965, being CL 1871, 5645;—How. 7196;—CL 1897, 1143, omitting "at law." See Compilers' § 601.75.

SURETY COMPANY: See Compilers' § 550.101 for the right of such a company to act as surety on a recognizance for the appearance of a person charged with crime.

765.9 Surety; person acting in same capacity on other bond.

Sec. 9. Any magistrate or judge of any court shall have authority in his discretion to refuse to accept as surety upon a bond any person who shall, at the time of so offering himself, be acting as surety on any other bond pending in his court.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17171;—CL 1948, 765.9.

SURETIES: For a similar provision as to municipal courts of record, see Compilers' § 725.16.

765.10 Recognizance in case of offense against municipal ordinance; power of clerk.

Sec. 10. All recognizances for the appearance of offenders in the several municipal courts of this state, to answer for offenses committed against the by-laws and ordinances of any municipal corporation, may be taken and entered into by and before the clerks of said courts: Provided, however, That if the party or parties becoming recognized shall not be satisfied with the sum fixed therein by the clerk, the same shall be fixed by the judge of the court, if demanded by the party or parties becoming recognized.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17172;—CL 1948, 765.10. This section re-enacts Act 228 of 1859, being CL 1871, 7878;—How. 9489;—CL 1897, 11874;—CL 1915, 15701, omitting first word, "that".

765.11 Cash in lieu of bond; justice court cause; acceptance, forfeiture, discharge.

Sec. 11. When under the laws of this state any bond is required in any cause, in any justice court in this state, it shall be lawful for the party from whom such bond is required to deposit cash in lieu thereof. Such security shall be taken and accepted by the justice of the peace and be forfeited or discharged in the same manner as the bond required.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17173;—CL 1948, 765.11. This section supersedes Act 250 of 1917.

765.12 Deposit of cash; certified check or certain securities in lieu of bond or bail; right.

Sec. 12. In any criminal cause or proceeding where bond or bail of any character is required or permitted for any purpose, the party or parties required or permitted to furnish such bail or bond may deposit, in lieu thereof, in the manner herein provided, cash, certified check on any state or national bank in this state, obligations of the United States government negotiable by delivery or bonds of any municipality of this state negotiable by delivery, equal in amount to the amount of the bond or bail so required or permitted.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17174;—CL 1948, 765.12. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 332 of 1919.

CIVIL CASES: See Act 212 of 1929, being Compilers' § 600.2631.

765.13 Depository; receipt.

Sec. 13. Such cash, check or security shall be deposited with the clerk of the court, if under bond, or with the treasurer of the county, city, village or township within which the bail or bond is to be furnished or, in any case, with the state treasurer. Such treasurer or clerk shall accept such cash, check or security and deliver to the depositor thereof a receipt, in duplicate, reciting the fact and purpose of such deposit. In case such bail or bond be required after the office hours of the treasurer or clerk with whom the deposit should be made, such deposit may be made with the officer who has the function of approving the bond or bail or with the sheriff of the county or his deputy in charge of the county jail or sheriff's office, who shall accept the same, give duplicate receipts therefor and cause the cash, check or security to be delivered to the proper treasurer or clerk within 48 hours thereafter.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17175;—CL 1948, 765.13;—Am. 1970, p. 175, Act 78, Imd. Eff. Jul. 16.

This section supersedes part of Sec. 4 of Act 332 of 1919.

765.14 Deposit of cash; filing duplicate receipts in court, effect.

Sec. 14. The filing of 1 of such duplicate receipts in the court in which such bond or bail is required or permitted to be filed shall have the same effect as the furnishing of such bond or bail and shall be taken and given effect by such court and its officers in lieu of such bond or bail.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17176;—CL 1948, 765.14. This section supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 332 of 1919.

765.15 Bail; deposit of cash; disposition upon forfeiture or discharge of bond or bail.

Sec. 15. (a) If such bond or bail be forfeited, the court shall enter an order upon its records directing, within 45 days of the order, the disposition of such cash, check or security, and the treasurer or clerk, upon presentation of a certified copy of such order, shall make disposition thereof. The court shall set aside the forfeiture and discharge the bail or bond, within 1 year from the time of the forfeiture judgment, in accordance with subsection (b) of this section if the person who forfeited bond or bail is apprehended and the ends of justice have not been thwarted and the county has been repaid its costs for apprehending the person.

(b) If such bond or bail be discharged, the court shall enter an order to that effect with a statement of the amount to be returned to the depositor. Upon presentation of a certified copy of such order, the treasurer or clerk having such cash, check or security shall pay or deliver the same to the person named therein or to his order.

(c) In case such cash, check or security shall be in the hands of the sheriff or any officer, other than such treasurer or clerk, at the time it is declared discharged or forfeited, the officer holding the same shall make such disposition thereof as the court shall order, upon presentation of a certified copy of the order of the court.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17177;—CL 1948, 765.15;—Am. 1970, p. 175, Act 78, Imd. Eff. Jul. 16;—Am. 1970, p. 610, Act 226, Eff. Apr. 1, 1970.

This section supersedes part of Sec. 4 of Act 332 of 1919.

765.16 Subjection to legal process; assignment.

Sec. 16. Cash, checks or securities deposited hereunder shall not be subject to garnishment or attachment. No assignment thereof shall be valid unless it be in writing, signed by the depositor, before 2 witnesses, acknowledged before an officer having authority to take the acknowledgment of deeds, and specifically stating the desired disposition of the whole of the deposit. An assignment made before the order of the court directing the disposition of such cash, check or security shall be contingent upon the discharge of the same and shall not be valid or effective unless and until it is filed with the court having jurisdiction to discharge the bond or bail. No assignment made after the order of the court discharging such bail or bond shall be valid unless it is indorsed upon or attached to the certified copy of the discharge order presented to the treasurer, clerk or officer having custody of the cash, check or security. In case 1 or more assignments be filed with the court before the order discharging the bail or bond, the court shall, in the order, determine the persons to whom such cash shall be paid or securities delivered.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17178;—CL 1948, 765.16;—Am. 1970, p. 175, Act 78, Imd. Eff. Jul. 16.

This section supersedes, in part, part of Sec. 4 of Act 332 of 1919.

765.17 Deposit in special fund; interest.

Sec. 17. Any cash or securities received by any treasurer or clerk under the provisions of this chapter shall be deposited in a special fund, or place of deposit subject to the order of the proper court. Any interest accumulating upon such fund shall be paid into the general fund or corresponding fund of the state, county, city, village or township according to the nature of the case or in accordance with the order of the proper court. When bonds or other securities are deposited the interest coupons shall not be detached therefrom but shall follow the disposition of the securities.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17179;—CL 1948, 765.17;—Am. 1970, p. 178, Act 78, Imd. Eff. Jul. 18.

This section re-enacts Sec. 5 of Act 332 of 1919, omitting words "board or commission" after "court," changing "act" to "chapter."

765.18 Deposit of cash; redemption before forfeiture by substitution of bond.

Sec. 18. Any person, firm or corporation availing himself or itself of the provisions of this chapter may, at any time before forfeiture of the same, redeem any cash or securities so deposited by substituting the bond originally required or permitted.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17180;—CL 1948, 765.18. This section re-enacts Sec. 6 of Act 332 of 1919, changing "themselves" to "himself or itself", and "act" to "chapter".

765.19 Construction of act.

Sec. 19. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to repeal any of the provisions of Act No. 332 of the Public Acts of 1919, so far as the same may apply to commissions or bodies other than courts having jurisdiction of criminal cases.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17181;—CL 1948, 765.19.

NOTE: Act 332 of 1919, above referred to, was repealed, perhaps inadvertently, by this act, see Compilers' § 776.19n. It dealt with the use of cash or security in lieu of bail and its repeal left no law of that nature in force. Act 212 of 1929, being Compilers' §§ 691.771 to 691.776, is practically a re-enactment of Act 332 of 1919, but applies only to civil proceedings.

765.20 Surety on recognizance; oath to ascertain financial condition, pledge of realty, justification, lien in case offense cognizable by justice.

Sec. 20. In every court in this state having criminal jurisdiction, each judge thereof shall have power in his discretion to administer an oath to any proposed surety upon any recognizance given for the release of a person accused of any crime, offense, misdemeanor or violation of any city or village ordinance, to ascertain his financial condition. Each of the judges of any such court shall have power in his discretion to require any surety upon any criminal recognizance taken before him, to pledge to the people of the state of Michigan, real estate owned by said surety and located in the county in which such court is established, the value of the interest of said surety in said real estate being at least equal to the penal amount of the said recognizance. Whenever such a pledge of real estate shall be required by any such court or by any of the judges thereof, of any proposed surety, there shall be executed by said surety the usual form of recognizance and in addition there shall be included in said recognizance, as a part thereof, an affidavit of justification in substantially the following form. Such affidavit shall be executed by the proposed surety under an oath administered by the clerk or any judge of said court.

Each of the judges of any such court may, in his discretion and in addition to the above affidavit, require the proposed surety to depose under oath that he is not at the time of executing said recognizance and affidavit surety upon any other recognizance and that there are no unsatisfied judgments or executions against him. Each of the judges of any such court may, in his discretion, require such proposed surety to depose to any other fact which is relevant and material to a correct determination of the proposed surety's sufficiency to act as bail: Provided, That no lien upon real estate shall be required for any offense cognizable by a justice of the peace.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17182;—CL 1948, 765.20. This section supersedes, with additions, Sec. 1 of Act 17 of 1926, (Ex. Ses.).

765.21 Surety on recognizance; attachment of lien; record notice of lien, form, effect.

Sec. 21. Upon the execution of any recognizance in the usual form and an affidavit of justification containing a description of real estate there shall immediately attach to the said real estate, described in said affidavit of justification, a lien in favor of the people of the state of Michigan in the penal amount of the recognizance, which lien shall remain in full force and effect during the time that said recognizance remains effective, or until the further order of said court. Upon the acceptance by any of the judges of any such court of a recognizance in the usual form containing the above described affidavit of justification, and description of real estate, the said recognizance shall be immediately filed with the clerk of such court. The clerk of such court shall forthwith upon the filing with him of said recognizance, record with the register of deeds of the county in which said real estate is located, a notice of lien in writing in substantially the following form:

To Whom It May Concern:

765.24 Effect of chapter on certain recognizances; order releasing lien.

Sec. 24. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as limiting or qualifying in any way the power of any such courts or any of the judges thereof to release any accused person upon his personal recognizance, or upon a recognizance executed by a surety in accordance with the provisions of Act No. 229 of the Public Acts of 1923, or upon the deposit with the clerk of such court of any cash bail or other security in accordance with the provisions of section 6 of Act No. 369, of the Public Acts of 1919. Whenever such surety deposits with the clerk of such court the penal amount of such recognizance in cash or in other security satisfactory to such court, an order shall issue releasing the lien on the real estate. Nothing in this act shall be construed as qualifying or in any way changing the usual and legal and existing procedure of collecting upon forfeited recognizances, as provided by law.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17186;—CL 1948, 765.24. This section re-enacts Sec. 5 of Act 17 of 1926, Ex. Ses., changing "act" to "chapter", inserting word "number" after "act".

NOTE: Act 229 of 1923, amending Act 266 of 1895, above referred to, is Compilers' § 548.101. Sec. 6 of Act 369 of 1919 is Compilers' § 725.8.

765.25 Perjury in affidavit of justification; penalty.

Sec. 25. Any surety who shall swear falsely to any of the material facts set up in his affidavit of justification shall be deemed guilty of perjury and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished in accordance with the law in such case made and provided.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17187;—CL 1948, 765.25. This section re-enacts Sec. 6 of Act 17 of 1926, Ex. Ses.

PERJURY: For the punishment of this crime see Compilers' § 750.422 et seq.

765.26 Release of surety; arrest of accused; mittimus.

Sec. 26. In all criminal cases where any person or persons have entered into any recognizance for the personal appearance of another and such bail and surety shall afterwards desire to be relieved from his responsibility, he may with or without assistance, arrest the accused and deliver him at the jail or to the sheriff of said county. In making such arrest he shall be entitled to the assistance of the sheriff, chief of police of any city or any peace officer. The sheriff or keeper of any jail in said county is authorized to receive such principal and detain him in jail until he is discharged in due course of law. Upon delivery of his principal at the jail by the surety or any officer, such surety shall be released from the conditions of his recognizance. Whenever the prosecuting attorney of any county shall become satisfied that any person who has been recognized to appear for trial has absconded, or is about to abscond, and that his sureties or either of them have become worthless, or are about to dispose or have disposed of their property for the purpose of evading the payment or the obligation of such bond or recognizance, or with intent to defraud their creditors, and such prosecuting attorney shall make a satisfactory showing to this effect to the court having jurisdiction of such person, said court or judge shall forthwith grant a mittimus to the sheriff or any constable of said county, commanding him forthwith to arrest the person so recognized and bring him before the officer issuing such mittimus, and on the return of said mittimus may, after a full hearing on the merits, order him to be recommitted to the county jail until such time as he shall give additional and satisfactory sureties, or be otherwise discharged according to law.

765.27 Action on recognizance; technicality as bar.

Sec. 27. No action brought upon any recognizance entered into in any criminal prosecution, either to appear and answer, or to testify in any court, shall be barred or defeated nor shall judgment thereon be arrested, by reason of any neglect or omission to note or record the default of any principal or surety at the time when such default shall happen, nor by reason of any defect in the form of the recognizance, if it sufficiently appear, from the tenor thereof, at what court the party or witness was bound to appear, and that the court or a magistrate before whom it was taken was authorized by law to require and take such recognizance.

765.28 Default in recognizance; record, notice, summary judgment, execution.

Sec. 28. In addition to any other method available, it is hereby provided that whenever default shall be made in any recognizance in any court of record, the same shall be duly entered of record by the clerk of said court and thereafter said court, upon the motion of the attorney general, prosecuting attorney or city attorney, may give the surety or sureties 20 days' notice, which notice shall be served upon said surety or sureties in person or left at his or their last known place of residence. Said surety or sureties shall be given an opportunity to appear before the court on a day certain and show cause why judgment should not be entered against him or them for the full amount of such recognizance. If good cause is not shown, the court shall then enter judgment against the surety or sureties on said recognizance for such amount as it may see fit not exceeding the full amount thereof. Execution shall be awarded and executed upon said judgment in like manner as is provided in personal actions.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17190;—CL 1948, 765.28.

ACTION ON RECOGNIZANCE: In case of forfeiture, see Compilers' § 600.4821 et seq.

765.29 Bail for appearance of witness; necessity; repeal.

Sec. 29. It shall not be necessary in any criminal case for any witness to give bail for his appearance as a witness in such cause unless required to do so by the order of a judge of a court of record or a circuit court commissioner; all laws contravening this section are hereby repealed.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17191;—CL 1948, 765.29. This section re-enacts Act 177 of 1875, as Am. 1879, p. 142, Act 141, Eff. 766.14	Trial of accused where offense proves to be one cognizable by justice.

766.1 Right of state and accused to prompt examination.

Sec. 1. The state and accused shall be entitled to a prompt examination and determination by the examining magistrate in all criminal causes and it is hereby made the duty of all courts and public officers having duties to perform in connection with such examination, to bring them to a final determination without delay except as it may be necessary to secure to the accused a fair and impartial examination.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17193;—CL 1948, 766.1.

766.2 Complaint of certain offense; examination.

Sec. 2. Whenever complaint shall be made to any magistrate named in section 1, chapter 4, of this act, that a criminal offense not cognizable by a justice of the peace has been committed, he shall examine on oath the complainant and any witnesses who may be produced by him.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17194;—CL 1948, 766.2. This section supersedes Sec. 2 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 5978;—CL 1871, 7844;—How. 9455;—CL 1897, 11839;—CL 1915, 15666.

NOTE: Sec. 1, Ch. 4, above referred to, is Compilers' § 764.1.

OFFENSE COGNIZABLE BY JUSTICE: As to examination and procedure see Compilers' § 774.4, et seq.

766.3 Warrant; issuance, contents.

Sec. 3. If it appears from such examination that any criminal offense not cognizable by a justice of the peace has been committed, the magistrate shall issue a warrant directed to the sheriff, chief of police, constable or any peace officer of the county, reciting the substance of the accusation and commanding him forthwith to take the person accused of having committed the offense and bring him before the appropriate court to be dealt with according to law, and in the same warrant may require the officer to summon such witnesses as are named therein.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17195;—CL 1948, 766.3;—Am. 1970, p. 594, Act 213, Imd. Eff. Oct. 4.

766.4 Examination by magistrate; time, manner.

Sec. 4. The magistrate before whom any person is brought on a charge of having committed an offense not cognizable by the court before which he is brought shall set a day for examination not exceeding 12 days thereafter, at which time the court shall examine the complainant and the witnesses in support of the prosecution, on oath in the presence of the prisoner, in regard to the offense charged and in regard to any other matters connected with such charge which the court considers pertinent.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 171.96;—CL 1948, 766.4;—Am. 1970, p. 594, Act 213, Imd. Eff. Oct. 4.

EXAMINATION: See Compilers' § 767.42 for necessity of examination before filing of information.

766.5 Admission to bail; commitment to jail.

Sec. 5. If it shall appear that an offense not cognizable by a justice of the peace has been committed, and that there is probable cause to believe the prisoner guilty thereof, and if the offense be bailable by the magistrate, and the prisoner offer sufficient bail, it shall be taken and the prisoner discharged; but if no sufficient bail be offered, or the offense be not bailable by the magistrate, the prisoner shall be committed to jail for trial.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 171.97;—CL 1948, 766.5. This section re-enacts Sec. 18 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 5994;—CL 1871, 7860;—How. 9471;—CL 1897, 11855;—CL 1915, 15682, changing word "prison" to "jail".

See a similar provision in part of Compilers' § 766.13.

766.6 Associate magistrate; powers, duties, fees.

Sec. 6. Any magistrate to whom complaint is made, or before whom any prisoner is brought, may associate with himself 1 or more other magistrates of the same county, and they may together execute the powers and duties conferred upon such magistrates respectively by this chapter, but no fees shall be taxed for such associates.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 171.98;—CL 1948, 766.6. This section re-enacts Sec. 24 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 6000;—CL 1871, 7866;—How. 9477;—CL 1897, 11861;—CL 1915, 15688, changing "respectfully" to "respectively".

766.7 Adjournment of examination; grounds, disposition of accused, effect on jurisdiction.

Sec. 7. Any magistrate may adjourn an examination for an offense not cognizable by him if the same be necessary, to the same or a different place in the county as such magistrate shall deem necessary; and in such case the accused may in the meantime be committed either to the county jail or to the custody of the officer by whom he was arrested or to any other officer; or, unless he shall be charged with treason or murder, he may be recognized in a sum and with sureties to the satisfaction of the magistrate, for his appearance before such magistrate for further examination: Provided, That no adjournments, continuances or delays of such examination shall be granted by such magistrate except for good cause shown: And provided further, That no magistrate shall adjourn, continue or delay the examination of any cause by the consent of the prosecution and accused unless in his discretion it shall clearly appear by a sufficient showing to said magistrate to be entered upon the record that the reasons for such consent are founded upon strict necessity and that the examination of said cause cannot then be had, or a manifest injustice will be done. No action on the part of the magistrate in adjourning or continuing any case, shall cause said magistrate to lose jurisdiction of said case.

766.8 Adjournment of examination; form of commitment of accused, order for re-appearance.

Sec. 8. The person accused may be committed as provided in the preceding section, by the verbal order of the magistrate, or by a warrant under his hand, stating that he is committed for such further examination on a day to be named in the warrant; and on the day therein specified, he may be brought before the magistrate by his verbal order to the same officer by or to whose custody he was committed, or by an order in writing to a different officer.

766.9 Exclusion of persons from examination.

Sec. 9. On the preliminary examination of every person charged with the offense of rape, assault with intent to commit rape, seduction, adultery, bastardy or other offense against chastity, morality or decency, it shall be in the discretion of the examining magistrate to exclude from the place where such examination is held, any or all persons not officers of the court, or persons by law required to be in attendance.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17201;—CL 1948, 766.9. This section re-enacts Act 138 of 1895, being CL 1897, 11873;—CL 1915, 15700, omitting first word, "that".

CIVIL CASES: Exclusion of minors in cases involving scandal or immorality, see Compilers' § 800.1420.

OFFENSES: For other offenses against chastity, morality or decency, see Compilers' § 750.335 et seq.

766.10 Exclusion of persons from examination; witness not examined, minor; separation of witnesses.

Sec. 10. The magistrate while conducting such examination may exclude from the place of the examination all the witnesses who have not been examined; and he may also, if requested or if he sees cause, direct the witnesses whether for or against the prisoner, to be kept separate so that they cannot converse with each other until they shall have been examined. And such magistrate may in his discretion, also exclude from the place of examination any or all minors during the examination of such witnesses.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17202;—CL 1948, 766.10. This section re-enacts Sec. 15 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 5991;—CL 1871, 7857;—How. 9468;—As Am. 1885, p. 244, Act 178, Eff. Sept. 19;—CL 1897, 11852;—CL 1915, 15679.

766.11 Subpoena of witness; taking of evidence; procedure, stenographer's oath and fees.

Sec. 11. Witnesses may be compelled to appear before such magistrate by subpoenas issued by him, or by any officer or court authorized to issue subpoenas, in the same manner and with the like effect and subject to the same penalties for disobedience, or for refusing to be sworn or to testify, as in cases of trials before justices of the peace; and the evidence given by the witnesses examined shall be reduced to writing by such magistrate, or under his direction and shall be signed by the witnesses respectively: Provided, That unless otherwise provided by law, the evidence so given shall be taken down in shorthand by a county stenographer where one has been appointed under the provision of any local act of the legislature or by the board of supervisors of the county wherein such examination is held, or the magistrate for cause shown may appoint some other suitable stenographer at the request of the prosecuting attorney of said county with the consent of the respondent or his attorney to act as official stenographer pro tem. for the court of such magistrate to take down in shorthand the testimony of any such examination, and any stenographer so appointed shall take the constitutional oath as such official stenographer and shall be entitled to the following fees: $6.00 for each day and $3.00 for each half day while so employed in taking down such testimony and 10 cents per folio for typewriting such testimony so taken down in shorthand, or such other compensation and fees as shall be fixed by the board of supervisors appointing such stenographer, and the same may be allowed and paid out of the treasury of the county in which such testimony is taken: Provided further, That it shall not be necessary for a witness or witnesses whose testimony is taken in shorthand by such stenographer above provided, to sign such testimony, but any witness or witnesses shall have the right to have such testimony read to them upon their request. Such testimony, after being typewritten, shall be received and filed in the court to which the accused is held for trial without the signature of such witness or witnesses for the same purpose and with like effect as the testimony of witnesses hereinabove provided, which is signed by such witness or witnesses and such testimony so taken shall be considered prima facie evidence of the testimony of such witness or witnesses at such examination.

766.13 Discharge of defendant; binding defendant over for trial.

Sec. 13. If it shall appear to the magistrate upon the examination of the whole matter, either that no offense has been committed or that there is not probable cause for charging the defendant therewith, he shall discharge such defendant. If it shall appear to the magistrate upon the examination of the whole matter, that an offense not cognizable by a justice of the peace has been committed and there is probable cause for charging the defendant therewith, said magistrate shall forthwith bind such defendant to appear before the circuit court of such county or any court having jurisdiction of said cause, for trial.

766.18 Admission to bail after commitment to jail; clerk of court, authority.

Sec. 18. The clerk of the court to whom such bail is offered, is authorized and required to examine the person or persons offered for bail on oath as to their pecuniary responsibility, and if he shall be satisfied with the same, to take bail and certify and return the recognizance in the same manner and to the same effect as the magistrate might have done.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17210;—CL 1948, 766.18. This section re-enacts Sec. 34 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, as Add. 1859, p. 444, Act 159, Eff. May 15, being CL 1871, 7876;—How. 9487;—CL 1897, 11871;—CL 1915, 15698, changing word "county" to "court".

766.19 Discharge of accused and recognizance in misdemeanor case where injured party has received satisfaction; order.

Sec. 19. When any person brought before a justice of the peace shall be committed to jail, or shall be under recognizance to answer to any charge of assault and battery or other misdemeanor for which the injured party shall have a remedy by civil action, if the injured party shall appear before the magistrate having cognizance of the offense, who made the commitment or took the recognizance, and acknowledge in writing that he has received satisfaction for the injury, the magistrate may in his discretion, on payment of the costs which have accrued, discharge the accused and the recognizance, or supersede the commitment by an order under his hand.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17211;—CL 1948, 766.19. This section re-enacts part of Sec. 28 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 6004;—CL 1871, 7870;—How. 9481;—CL 1897, 11865;—CL 1915, 15692, changing word "prison" to "jail", "or" to "and" before "the recognizance".

766.20 Discharge of accused and recognizance in misdemeanor case where injured party has received satisfaction; order, file; effect on civil remedy.

Sec. 20. Every such order discharging any recognizance, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the proper court; and every such order superseding the commitment of the offender, shall be delivered to the keeper of the jail where he shall be confined, who shall forthwith discharge him; and every such order, if so filed and delivered, and not otherwise, shall forever bar all remedy by civil action for such injury.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17212;—CL 1948, 766.20. This section re-enacts Sec. 29 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 6005;—CL 1871, 7871;—How. 9482;—CL 1897, 11866;—CL 1915, 15693, changing word "county" to "proper court".

766.21 Discharge of accused and recognizance in misdemeanor case where injured party has received satisfaction; following indictment; order, effect.

Sec. 21. If an indictment shall be found on any such charge, the injured party may in like manner appear in the court where such indictment is pending and acknowledge satisfaction for the injury and damages sustained by him; and such court may in its discretion, on payment of the costs incurred, order that no further proceedings be had on such indictment, and may discharge the defendant therefrom; which order shall operate as a perpetual stay of all further proceedings on such indictment.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17213;—CL 1948, 766.21. This section re-enacts Sec. 30 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 6006;—CL 1871, 7872. —How. 9483;—CL 1897, 11867;—CL 1915, 15694.

766.22 Discharge of accused and recognizance in misdemeanor case where injured party has received satisfaction; inapplicability of sections.

Sec. 22. The provisions of the last 3 sections shall not extend to any charge or indictment for any assault and battery or other misdemeanor charged to have been committed riotously or with intent to commit a felony or upon any public officer while in the execution of the duties of his office.

767.1 Courts of record; jurisdiction over prosecutions upon information.

Sec. 1. The several circuit courts of this state, the recorders' courts and any court of record having jurisdiction of criminal causes, shall possess and may exercise the same power and jurisdiction to hear, try and determine prosecutions upon informations for crimes, misdemeanors and offenses, to issue writs and process and do all other acts therein as they possess and may exercise in cases of like prosecutions upon indictments.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17215;—CL 1948, 767.1. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 138 of 1859, being CL 1871, 7937;—How. 9548;—CL 1897, 11933;—CL 1915, 15760; and merging Sec. 9 of Act 138 of 1859, being CL 1871, 7945;—How. 9556;—CL 1897, 11941;—CL 1915, 15768.

767.2 Applicability of indictment laws to informations.

Sec. 2. All provisions of the law applying to prosecutions upon indictments, to writs and process therein and the issuing and service thereof, to commitments, bail, motions, pleadings, trials, appeals and punishments, or the execution of any sentence, and to all other proceedings in cases of indictments whether in the court of original or appellate jurisdiction, shall, in the same manner and to the same extent as near as may be, be applied to informations and all prosecutions and proceedings thereon.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17216;—CL 1948, 767.2. See Sec. 4 of Act 138 of 1859, being CL 1871, 7940;—How. 9551;—CL 1897, 11936;—CL 1915, 15763.

767.3 Proceedings before trial; inquiry; summoning witnesses; notification to judge; taking testimony; legal counsel; disqualification of judge.

Sec. 3. Whenever by reason of the filing of any complaint, which may be upon information and belief, or upon the application of the prosecuting attorney or attorney general, any judge of a court of law and of record shall have probable cause to suspect that any crime, offense or misdemeanor has been committed within his jurisdiction, and that any persons may be able to give any material evidence respecting such suspected crime, offense or misdemeanor, such judge in his discretion may make an order directing that an inquiry be made into the matters relating to such complaint, which order, or any amendment thereof, shall be specific to common intent of the scope of the inquiry to be conducted, and thereupon conduct such inquiry. In any court having more than 1 judge such order and the designation of the judge to conduct the inquiry shall be made in accordance with the rules of such court. Thereupon such judge shall require such persons to attend before him as witnesses and answer such questions as the judge may require concerning any violation of law about which they may be questioned within the scope of the order. The proceedings to summon such witness and to compel him to testify shall, as far as possible, be the same as proceedings to summon witnesses and compel their attendance and testimony. The witnesses shall not receive any compensation or remuneration other than witness fees as paid witnesses in other criminal proceedings. The witness shall not be employed in any capacity by the judge or by any person connected with such inquiry, within the scope of the inquiry being conducted. Whenever a subpoena is issued by the judge conducting the inquiry, commanding the appearance of a witness before the judge forthwith upon the service of such subpoena, and, following the service thereof, the witness arrives at the time and place stated in the subpoena, the judge issuing the same shall be forthwith notified of the appearance by the officer serving the subpoena, and the judge forthwith shall appear and take the testimony of the witness. Any person called before the grand jury shall at all times be entitled to legal counsel not involving delay and he may discuss fully with his counsel all matters relative to his part in the inquiry without being subject to a citation for contempt. The witness shall have the right to have counsel present in the room where the inquiry is held. All matters revealed to the attorney shall be subject to the requirements of secrecy in section 4, and any revelation thereof by the attorney shall make him subject to punishment as provided in section 4. No testimony shall be taken or given by any witness except in the presence of the judge.

Any judge, prosecuting attorney or special prosecuting attorney, or the attorney general participating in any inquiry under this section which continues more than 30 calendar days shall thereafter be disqualified from appointment or election to any office other than one held at the time of the inquiry. The disqualification shall not extend more than 1 year from date of termination of the inquiry, as determined by final order of the judge entered prior to such date.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17217;—CL 1948, 767.3;—Am. 1949, p. 636, Act 311, Eff. Sep. 23;—Am. 1951, p. 582, Act 276, Eff. Sep. 25;—Am. 1965, p. 429, Act 251, Imd. Eff. Jul. 21.

This section re-enacts Sec. 1 of Act 196 of 1917.

767.4 Proceedings before trial; apprehension of suspect; disqualification as examining magistrate; finding as to misconduct in office; disclosures, penalty, exceptions; report of no finding of criminal guilt; period of inquiry; successor judge, appointment.

Sec. 4. If upon such inquiry the judge shall be satisfied that any offense has been committed and that there is probable cause to suspect any person to be guilty thereof, he may cause the apprehension of such person by proper process and, upon the return of such process served or executed, the judge having jurisdiction shall proceed with the case, matter or proceeding in like manner as upon formal complaint. The judge conducting the inquiry under section 3 shall be disqualified from acting as the examining magistrate in connection with the hearing on the complaint or indictment, or from presiding at any trial arising therefrom, or from hearing any motion to dismiss or quash any complaint or indictment, or from hearing any charge of contempt under section 5, except alleged contempt for neglect or refusal to appear in response to a summons or subpoena. If upon such inquiry the judge shall find from the evidence that there is probable cause to believe that any public officer, elective or appointive and subject to removal by law, has been guilty of misfeasance or malfeasance in office or wilful neglect of duty or of any other offense prescribed as a ground of removal, the judge shall make a written finding setting up the offense so found and shall serve said finding upon the public officer, public board or body having jurisdiction under the law to conduct removal proceedings against the officer. The finding shall be a sufficient complaint as a basis for removal of said officer and the public officer, public board or public body having jurisdiction of removal proceedings against the officer shall proceed in the method prescribed by law for a hearing and determination of said charges. Except in cases of prosecutions for contempt or perjury against witnesses who may have been summoned before the judge conducting such inquiry, or for the purpose of determining whether the testimony of a witness examined before the judge is consistent with or different from the testimony given by such witness before a court in any subsequent proceeding, or in cases of disciplinary action against attorneys and counselors in this state, any judge conducting the inquiry, any prosecuting attorney and other persons who may at the discretion of the judge be admitted to such inquiry, who shall while conducting such inquiry or while in the services of the judge or after his services with the judge shall have been discontinued, utter or publish any statement pertaining to any information or evidence involved in the inquiry, or who shall disclose the fact that any indictment for a felony has been found against any person not in custody or under recognizance, or who shall disclose that any person has been questioned or summoned in connection with the inquiry, who shall disclose or publish or cause to be published any of the proceedings of the inquiry otherwise than by issuing or executing processes prior to the indictment, or shall disclose, publish or cause to be published any comment, opinion or conclusions related to the proceedings of the inquiry, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 1 year or by a fine of not less than $100.00 nor more than $1,000.00, or both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court, and the offense when committed by a public official shall also constitute malfeasance in office. The limitations, restrictions and penalties relating to the uttering, publishing or disclosing of any statement pertaining to any information or evidence, imposed by this section, do not apply to disclosures of information or evidence made by a judge conducting such an investigation to another judge concurrently conducting an investigation as provided in section 3. Upon the termination of the inquiry if the judge shall make no presentment of crime or wrongdoing as to any person whose apprehension or removal from office he has not so caused, he may, in his discretion, with the consent of the person who may be named, file with the clerk of the county in which such inquiry has been conducted, a report of no finding of criminal guilt as to any person or persons involved in such inquiry, either as witness or otherwise, whose involvement in such inquiry has become public.

No inquiry or proceeding under this chapter shall continue longer than 6 months unless extended by specific order of the judge or his successor for an additional period not to exceed 6 months.

In the event any judge conducting such inquiry shall be unable to continue because of physical disability, disqualification, termination of office or death, the presiding circuit judge of Michigan shall appoint a successor.

CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: The above section is cited in § 201.7.

767.4a Proceedings before trial; unlawful use or possession of testimony, exhibits or proceedings; exceptions, penalty.

Sec. 4a. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to possess, use, publish, or make known to any other person any testimony, exhibits or secret proceedings obtained or used in connection with any grand jury inquiry conducted prior to the effective date of this act, except in the manner specifically provided herein, and also excepting any information heretofore disclosed before any investigating committee of the Congress of the United States or any agency of the federal government. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a felony.

HISTORY: Add. 1951, p. 584, Act 276, Eff. Sep. 28.

767.5 Proceedings before trial; failure of witnesses to appear or answer questions; hearing, penalty; commutation or suspension of sentence.

Sec. 5. Any witness neglecting or refusing to appear in response to such summons or to answer any questions which such judge may require as material to such inquiry, shall be deemed guilty of a contempt and after a public hearing in open court and conviction of such contempt, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000.00 or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding 1 year or both at the discretion of the court: Provided, That if such witness after being so sentenced shall offer to appear before such judge to purge himself of such contempt, the judge shall cause such witness to be brought before him and, after examination of such witness, the judge may in his discretion commute or suspend the further execution of such sentence.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17219;—CL 1948, 767.5;—Am. 1949, p. 638, Act 311, Eff. Sep. 23;—Am. 1951, p. 584, Act 276, Eff. Sep. 28.

This section re-enacts Sec. 3 of Act 196 of 1917.

767.5a Proceedings before trial; certain communications declared privileged and confidential.

Sec. 5a. In any inquiry authorized by this act communications between reporters of newspapers or other publications and their informants are hereby declared to be privileged and confidential. Any communications between attorneys and their clients, between clergymen and the members of their respective churches, and between physicians and their patients are hereby declared to be privileged and confidential when such communications were necessary to enable such attorneys, clergymen, or physicians to serve as such attorney, clergyman, or physician.

767.6 Proceedings before trial; incriminating answers of witnesses; immunity order, delivery to witness; application; transcript; secrecy.

Sec. 6. No witness shall upon such inquiry be required to answer any questions, or shall be convicted for contempt upon refusal to do so, when the answers might tend to incriminate him. A written order granting to such witness immunity from such incrimination may be entered by said judge pursuant to a written motion by the prosecuting attorney or other duly authorized representative of the state in such proceeding, which order shall set forth verbatim the questions which such witness refused to answer. A true copy of such motion and order shall be delivered to such witness before he shall answer such questions. The order granting immunity so made shall thereafter extend to all related questions which may thereafter be put to such witness until such judge advises the witness that said immunity no longer applies. All such questions and the answers thereto shall be reduced to writing under the direction of such judge and a true copy of such transcript, duly certified by such judge, shall be delivered to such witness as soon as practicable thereafter. The provisions for secrecy provided for in section 3 hereof shall apply to all copies of such motion, order and transcript so delivered to such witness except that the witness may be privileged to disclose the same to his attorney if such witness should thereafter be prosecuted for any offense directly or indirectly growing out of any testimony given by him in such inquiry. No person required to answer such questions shall thereafter be prosecuted for any offense concerning which such answers may have tended to incriminate him. No such order granting immunity shall extend beyond the scope of such inquiry, nor shall it extend beyond the particular questions set forth in any such motion, order or transcript.

This section re-enacts Sec. 4 of Act 196 of 1917.

767.6a Docket, journal, transcript and record; seal and file; violation of secrecy; available in connection with appeal, order, receipt; destruction of transcripts, notes and records.

Sec. 6a. On termination of any such inquiry lasting not more than 30 calendar days the docket, journal, reporters' notes, transcript and other record of such judge in such inquiry shall be sealed and filed with the clerk of the court having jurisdiction; and if lasting more than 30 calendar days shall be sealed and filed with the clerk of the supreme court of the state of Michigan, where it shall be held secretly in a separate container securely locked. Any person who shall violate the secrecy herein ordered as to such docket, journal, transcript and record shall be punished as provided in section 4 hereof. And the entire transcript and record as to any witness, and so far as material, including any grant of immunity, shall be available to such witness in connection with any appeal or other judicial proceeding where it may be relevant upon such witness filing a petition with the circuit court of the county in which he resides setting forth the proceeding for which such documents are sought and describing the portions of such transcript and record as to such witness only, which such witness requested for such appeal or proceeding; the judge of such circuit court shall issue an order upon the filing of such petition directed to the clerk of the supreme court of the state of Michigan or the clerk of the court, as the case may be, ordering such clerk to make available to such witness all such portions of the transcript and record as shall pertain to such witness and as set forth in the petition. The clerk shall immediately reseal the remaining transcript and records after compliance with such order. The petitioner shall execute to the clerk of the supreme court a receipt for such documents and such documents shall be returned to the clerk immediately upon the termination of such appeal or proceeding for which the same shall have been obtained: Provided, however, upon the petition of the prosecuting attorney of the county in which such inquiry was conducted, or any other interested person, any circuit judge, acting as such in said county, upon determining that there is no further need for preserving and retaining the same, shall enter an order providing for the referring to the supreme court, for the entry of such order or orders as a majority of the court may at any time determine, for the destruction of said transcripts, notes and records, or any part thereof: Provided further, That no such order shall be entered by such circuit judge until at least 6 years after the termination of such inquiry.

767.7 Grand jury; summoning, procedure.

Sec. 7. Grand juries shall not hereafter be drawn, summoned or required to attend at the sittings of any court within this state, as provided by law, unless the judge thereof shall so direct by writing under his hand, and filed with the clerk of said court.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17221;—CL 1948, 767.7. This section re-enacts Sec. 7 of Act 138 of 1859, being CL 1871, 7943;—How. 9554;—CL 1897, 11939;—CL 1915, 15706.

767.7a Grand jurors; term of service; recalling.

Sec. 7a. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1343 of Act No. 236 of the Public Acts of 1961, as added, being section 600.1343 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, the term of service of grand jurors shall be 6 months unless extended by specific order of the judge who summoned such jurors or his successor for an additional period not to exceed 6 months, except that the grand jurors may be recalled at any time by the judge who summoned such jurors or by his successor to conclude business commenced during their term of service.

HISTORY: Add. 1970, p. 19, Act 9, Imd. Eff. Mar. 26.

767.8 Grand jury; juror; grounds for discharge; summoning new juror.

Sec. 8. Any court in which a grand jury may be sitting, may discharge any of the grand jurors for intoxication or other gross misconduct; and in case of such discharge, or in case of the sickness, death or non-attendance of any grand juror, after he shall have been sworn, the court may cause another juror to be summoned from among the bystanders, or inhabitants of the city, township or village having the qualifications required by law, and to be sworn and to serve in his stead.

767.9 Grand jury; list; oath, form.

Sec. 9. The clerk of the court shall prepare an alphabetical list of all the persons returned as grand jurors, and when the jury is to be impaneled, the following oath shall be administered to them: "You as grand jurors of this inquest, for the body of this county of do solemnly swear that you will diligently inquire and true presentment make of all such matters and things as shall be given you in charge; your own counsel and the counsel of the people, and of your fellows, you shall keep secret; you shall present no person for envy, hatred or malice, neither shall you leave any person unrepresented for love, fear, favor, affection or hope of reward; but you shall present things truly, as they come to your knowledge, according to the best of your understanding; so help you God".

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17223;—CL 1948, 767.9. This section re-enacts Sec. 2 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 164, being CL 1857, 6011;—CL 1871, 7890;—How. 9491;—CL 1897, 11876;—CL 1915, 15703; and supersedes Sec. 3 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 164, being CL 1857, 6012;—CL 1871, 7881;—How. 9492;—CL 1897, 11877;—CL 1915, 15704.

767.10 Grand jury; affirmation in lieu of oath.

Sec. 10. Any person returned as a grand juror shall be allowed to make affirmation, substituting the word "affirm" instead of the word "swear"; and also the words, "this you do under the pains and penalties of perjury", instead of the words "so help you God".

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17224;—CL 1948, 767.10. This section re-enacts Sec. 4 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 164, being CL 1857, 6013;—CL 1871, 7862. —How. 9493;—CL 1897, 11878;—CL 1915, 15705.

767.11 Grand jury; size; foreman, appointment.

Sec. 11. There shall be no more than 17 persons nor less than 13 persons sworn on any grand jury; and after such jurors have been impaneled and have received their charge from the court, they shall retire with the officer appointed to attend them and before they proceed to discharge the duties of their office, the court shall appoint 1 of their number to be foreman and the clerk shall record the same.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17225;—CL 1948, 767.11;—Am. 1970, p. 19, Act 9, Imd. Eff. Mar. 28.

767.12 Grand jury; foreman; term, vacancy.

Sec. 12. The foreman appointed by the court in the manner provided in the preceding section, shall be foreman during the whole time they are required to serve; but in case of his death or absence or if he shall be discharged, or excused before the grand jury shall be dismissed, another of such jurors shall be appointed foreman for the residue of such time of service.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17226;—CL 1948, 767.12. This section supersedes Sec. 6 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 164, being CL 1857, 6015;—CL 1871, 7884;—How. 9495;—CL 1897, 11880;—CL 1915, 15707.

767.13 Grand jury; juror; grounds of objection to competency.

Sec. 13. A person held to answer to any criminal charge may object to the competency of any 1 summoned to serve as a grand juror, on the ground that he is the prosecutor or complainant upon any charge against such person; and if such objection be established, the person so summoned shall be set aside.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17227;—CL 1948, 767.13. This section re-enacts Sec. 7 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 164, being CL 1857, 6016;—CL 1871, 7885. —How. 9496;—CL 1897, 11881;—CL 1915, 15708.

767.14 Grand jury; no challenge of array or individual juror in other cases.

Sec. 14. No challenge to the array of grand jurors, or to any person summoned as a grand juror, shall be allowed in any other case than that specified in the preceding section.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17228;—CL 1948, 767.14. This section re-enacts Sec. 8 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 164, being CL 1857, 6017;—CL 1871, 7886. —How. 9497;—CL 1897, 11882;—CL 1915, 15709.

767.15 Grand jury; witnesses; administration of oath, list.

Sec. 15. The foreman of every grand jury, the attorney general and the prosecuting attorney, or other prosecuting officer who shall be before them, shall have authority to administer all oaths and affirmations, in the manner prescribed by law, to witnesses who shall appear before such jury for the purpose of testifying in any matter of which they may have cognizance, and the foreman shall return to the court, or deliver to the prosecuting officer, a list of all the witnesses sworn before the grand jury in each case in which an indictment shall be found.

767.16 Grand jury; clerk, stenographer; appointment, duties.

Sec. 16. The grand jury may appoint 1 of their number to be their clerk, to preserve minutes of their proceedings and of evidence given before them; which minutes shall be delivered to the prosecuting officer, when so directed by the grand jury. Whenever it appears to the judge that it is necessary he may appoint a stenographer to take the testimony given before the grand jury.

767.17 Grand jury; summoning after dismissal.

Sec. 17. When the grand jury attending any court shall have been dismissed before the court is adjourned without day, they may be summoned to attend again, in the same term at such time as the court shall direct, for the dispatch of any business that may come before them.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17231;—CL 1948, 787.17. This section re-enacts Sec. 11 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 164, being CL 1857, 6020;—CL 1871, 7889;—How. 9500;—CL 1897, 11885;—CL 1915, 15712.

767.18 Grand jury; disclosure of indictment for felony.

Sec. 18. No grand juror, stenographer or officer of the court shall disclose the fact that any indictment for a felony has been found against any person not in custody or under recognizance, otherwise than by issuing or executing process on such indictment, until such person has been arrested.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17232;—CL 1948, 787.18. This section re-enacts Sec. 12 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 164, being CL 1857, 6021;—CL 1871, 7890;—How. 9501;—CL 1897, 11886;—CL 1915, 15713, inserting word "stenographer" after "juror".

767.19 Grand jury; testimony to certain facts required.

Sec. 19. Members of the grand jury may be required by any court to testify, whether the testimony of a witness examined before such jury is consistent with, or different from the evidence given by such witness before such court; and they may also be required to disclose the testimony given before them by any person, upon complaint against such person for perjury, or upon his trial for such offense; but in no case can a member of a grand jury be obliged or allowed to testify or declare in what manner he or any other member of the jury voted on any question before them, or what opinions were expressed by any juror in relation to any such question.

767.19a Grand jury; immunity order; application, issuance.

Sec. 19a. The prosecuting attorney may apply to the judge who summoned the jury or his successor for an order granting immunity to any person, designated by name and address in the application, who might give testimony concerning any matter before the grand jury. The application shall be accompanied by a verified petition of the prosecuting attorney setting forth the facts upon which the application is based. If the judge to whom the application is presented is satisfied that it is in the interest of justice that such immunity be granted, he shall enter an order granting immunity to the witness if the witness appears before the grand jury and testifies under oath concerning any matter before the grand jury and set forth in the petition of the prosecuting attorney.

HISTORY: Add. 1970, p. 19, Act 9, Imd. Eff. Mar. 28.

767.19b Grand jury; immunity order; copy to witness; extent; duration; termination.

Sec. 19b. (1) A true copy of the order granting immunity shall be delivered to the witness before he answers such questions before the grand jury. The order granting immunity shall extend to all related questions which may thereafter be put to the witness and he shall not be prosecuted for any offense which is discovered as a result of any answers to a question put to him irrespective of the degree of knowledge provided to the questioning authority. All such questions and answers thereto shall be reduced to writing. No person required to answer such questions shall thereafter be prosecuted for any offense concerning which such answers may have tended to incriminate him. If a witness who has been granted immunity is thereafter prosecuted for an offense which he alleges was subject to the grant of immunity, then a true copy, duly certified by an officer authorized to administer oaths, of the transcript of the questions put to, and the answers of, such witness shall be delivered to the witness as soon as practicable.

(2) The order granting immunity shall continue in effect until such time as the judge who summoned the jury or his successor, in his discretion and upon the application of the prosecuting attorney, enters an order terminating the order granting immunity as to questions which may thereafter be put to the witness and advises the witness of such order of termination.

HISTORY: Add. 1970, p. 20, Act 9, Imd. Eff. Mar. 26.

767.19c Grand jury; witness, failing to appear, contempt; penalty; purging.

Sec. 19c. Any witness who neglects or refuses to appear or testify or both in response to a summons of the grand jury or to answer any questions before the grand jury concerning any matter or thing of which the witness has knowledge concerning matters before the grand jury after service of a true copy of an order granting the witness immunity as to such matters shall be guilty of a contempt and after a public hearing in open court and conviction of such contempt shall be fined not exceeding $10,000.00 or imprisoned not exceeding 1 year, or both. If the witness thereafter appears before the court to purge himself of such contempt, the court shall order the recalling of the grand jury to afford such opportunity, and after appearance of the witness before the grand jury upon a transcript of the testimony there and then given, the witness shall be brought before the court and after examination, the court shall determine whether the witness has purged himself of the contempt and shall commute the sentence upon a finding that the witness has purged himself.

HISTORY: Add. 1970, p. 20, Act 9, Imd. Eff. Mar. 26.

767.19e Grand jury; witness, right to counsel.

Sec. 19e. A witness granted immunity as provided by sections 19a and 19b of this chapter has the right to have counsel present at his side at all times at which he is being questioned concerning matters included within the order granting immunity.

HISTORY: Add. 1970, p. 20, Act 9, Imd. Eff. Mar. 26.

767.19f Grand jury; publication of testimony prohibited; penalty, exception.

Sec. 19f. Except as otherwise provided by law, it is unlawful for any person to publish or make known to any other person any testimony or exhibits obtained or used, or any proceeding conducted, in connection with any grand jury inquiry. Any person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 1 year or by a fine of not more than $1,000.00, or both. The provisions of this section respecting secrecy shall not apply to communications between prosecuting officers for the purpose of presenting evidence before the grand jury, for the purpose of reviewing evidence presented to the grand jury for prospective prosecution or for any other purpose involving the execution of a public duty. The provisions of this section shall apply to applications and petitions for and orders of immunity and to any transcript of testimony which may be delivered to a witness pursuant to his being granted immunity except that the witness may be privileged to disclose such application, petition, order and transcript to his attorney.

HISTORY: Add. 1970, p. 20, Act 9, Imd. Eff. Mar. 26.

767.19g Grand jury; testimony, when made available.

Sec. 19g. The testimony of any witness before the grand jury shall not be made available to any person indicted by such grand jury prior to the time of trial of the indictment. At such time during the course of the trial when the direct examination of a person who previously testified before the grand jury has been completed, a copy of the person's testimony before the grand jury relative to the offense with which the defendant is charged, upon the request of the defendant, shall be furnished by the prosecuting attorney to the defendant.

767.27 Repealed. 1966, p. 381, Act 266, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

Section related to procedure followed when person accused of felony was found to be insane or when he was acquitted of felony upon grounds of insanity.

767.27a Persons incompetent to stand trial; procedure.

Sec. 27a. (1) A person accused of a crime who is incompetent to stand trial shall not be proceeded against while he is incompetent. A person is incompetent to stand trial within the meaning of this section if he is incapable of understanding the nature and object of the proceedings against him, of comprehending his own condition in reference to the proceedings, or of assisting in his defense in a rational or reasonable manner.

Raising issue of competence; court rule.

(2) The issue of competence to stand trial may be raised by the prosecuting attorney, defense counsel, by any interested person on leave of the court, or by the court on its own motion. The time and form of the procedure incident to raising the issue of competence shall be provided by court rule.

Commitment for psychiatric evaluation; time; reports.

(3) Upon a showing that the defendant may be incompetent to stand trial, the court shall commit the defendant in the criminal case to the custody of the center for forensic psychiatry or to any other diagnostic facility certified by the department of mental health for the performance of forensic psychiatric evaluation. The commitment shall be for a period not to exceed 60 days. Within that period the center or other facility shall prepare a diagnostic report and recommendations which are to be transmitted to the committing court.

Determination of competency; report and recommendation, admissibility as evidence.

(4) Upon receipt of the diagnostic report and recommendations the sheriff shall immediately return the defendant to the committing court and the court shall immediately hear and determine the issue of competence to stand trial. The diagnostic report and recommendations shall be admissible as evidence in the hearing, but not for any other purpose in the pending criminal proceedings.

Adjudication of incompetency; commitment to department of mental health.

(5) If the defendant is adjudged to be incompetent to stand trial, he shall be committed to the department of mental health for treatment in a public institution approved for the purpose by the department of mental health.

Department's certification as to defendant's competency; report; redetermination of competency; admissibility as evidence.

(6) If at any time within 18 months of the entry of the order of commitment entered under section [sic] (5) the defendant has regained competence to stand trial, in the opinion of the department of mental health, it shall certify its opinion, together with a detailed psychiatric report, to the committing court and shall return the defendant to the control of that court. The return shall be made by the sheriff at the request of the department. The court shall immediately hear and determine the question of competence to stand trial. The certificate and psychiatric report shall be admissible as evidence in the hearing, but not for any other purpose in the pending criminal proceedings.

Department's certification as to defendant's inability to regain competence to probate court.

(7) If after the defendant has been committed to its custody under subsection (5), the department of mental health believes that the defendant cannot recover competence to stand trial within 18 months from the entry of the order of commitment, or if by the expiration of 18 months from the entry of the order of commitment the defendant has not regained competence to stand trial, in the opinion of the department of mental health, the department shall certify its opinion, together with a detailed psychiatric report, to the probate court in the county from which the defendant was originally committed. The probate court shall receive the certification and psychiatric report as the equivalent to a petition and physician's report under section 11 of Act No. 151 of the Public Acts of 1923, as amended, being section 330.21 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, and shall proceed to determine the matter as provided in that section.

Commitment by probate court; transfer to circuit court; rehearing de novo; reversal and recommitment.

(8) If the probate court which has received the case under subsection (7) determines that the respondent is mentally diseased and shall be committed, it shall enter an appropriate order. If the probate court determines that the respondent is not to be committed, it shall transfer the case to the circuit court which originally determined the respondent to be incompetent to stand trial. The original committing court shall proceed to hearing de novo. If the original committing court determines that the respondent is competent to stand trial, it shall proceed to trial. If the original committing court determines that the defendant is still incompetent to stand trial and enters an order to that effect, the decision of the probate court is reversed, and the original committing court shall immediately commit the defendant to the department of mental health for treatment in an appropriate state hospital, until discharged in accordance with Act No. 151 of the Public Acts of 1923, as amended, being sections 330.11 to 330.71 of the Compiled Laws of 1948. The county prosecutor shall be notified and given an opportunity to be heard in any proceedings held under this subsection.

Credits against criminal sentence; when statute of limitations begins to run.

(9) Time spent in custody under subsections (3), (5), (6), (7) and (8) shall be credited against any sentence imposed on the defendant in the pending criminal case or in any other case arising from the same transaction. The statute of limitations on the pending criminal charge or any other charge arising from the same transaction shall commence to run on the entry of an order of commitment under subsection (5) of this section and shall continue to run until and unless the committing court determines under subsection (8) that the defendant is competent to stand trial.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 379, Act 266, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

767.27b Commitment of persons acquitted by reasons of insanity; necessity of evaluation and recommendation for release.

Sec. 27b. Any person, who is tried for a crime and is acquitted by the court or jury by reason of insanity, shall be committed immediately by order of the court to the department of mental health for treatment in an appropriate state hospital, until discharged in accordance with Act No. 151 of the Public Acts of 1923, as amended. The person shall not be released on convalescent care or final discharge without first being evaluated and recommended for release by the center for forensic psychiatry.

767.27c Persons confined for incompetency to stand trial; commitment or transfer; assignment of visiting or retired judge.

Sec. 27c. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person in confinement at the Ionia state hospital as of March 10, 1967, having been previously committed for reasons of incompetency to stand trial under the provisions of section 27 prior to its repeal, shall as soon as practical be certified to the probate court of Ionia county. If, in the opinion of the department of mental health, the patient has not regained competence to stand trial within 18 months from the entry of the order of commitment, the department shall certify its opinion, together with the detailed psychiatric report, to that court, which shall receive the certification and psychiatric report as the equivalent to a petition and physicians' certificates under section 11 of Act No. 151 of the Public Acts of 1923, as amended, being section 330.21 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, and shall proceed to determine the matter as provided in that section. In each case so certified, the court shall notify the guardian and one or more relatives if their addresses be known and the prosecuting attorney of the county from which the patient was originally committed as incompetent to stand trial, at least 20 days in advance of the date set for the hearing on the matter and supply the prosecuting attorney with a copy of the certification and psychiatric report. Such notices shall be by certified mail. If the probate court determines that the respondent is mentally diseased and enters an appropriate commitment order, a copy of the order shall be supplied to the criminal court having committed the patient as incompetent to stand trial. If the probate court determines that the respondent is not to be committed, it shall transfer the case to the criminal court which originally determined the respondent to be incompetent to stand trial and such court shall proceed as provided in subsection (8) of section 27a.

Assignment of visiting or retired judge; costs.

(2) The court administrator shall assign a visiting or retired judge to the Ionia county probate court for a period not to extend beyond June 30, 1969 for the exclusive purpose of hearing cases under this section which judge is authorized to hold court within the Ionia state hospital. All costs of conducting the probate court presided over by a visiting or retired judge for the processing of cases under this section shall be a charge against state funds appropriated to the department of mental health for such purposes and not against Ionia county or any other county of the state.

767.42 Examination as condition precedent to filing of information; waiver; benefit of counsel; fugitives from justice.

Sec. 42. No information shall be filed against any person for any offense until such person shall have had a preliminary examination therefor, as provided by law, before a justice of the peace or other examining magistrate or officer, unless such person shall waive his right to such examination. If any person waives his right to such examination without having had the benefit of counsel at the time and place of the waiver, upon proper and timely application by said person or his counsel, before trial or plea of guilty, the court having jurisdiction of the cause, in its discretion, may remand the case to the magistrate for preliminary examination. Informations may be filed without such examination against fugitives from justice, and any fugitive from justice against whom an information shall be filed, may be demanded by the governor of this state of the executive authority of any other state or territory, or of any foreign government, in the same manner and the same proceedings may be had thereon as provided by law in like cases of demand upon indictment filed.

767.48 Indictment; necessity of negating statutory exception.

Sec. 48. No indictment for any offense created or defined by statute shall be deemed objectionable for the reason that it fails to negative any exception, excuse or proviso contained in the statute creating or defining the offense. The fact that the charge is made shall be considered as an allegation that no legal excuse for the doing of the act exists in the particular case.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17262;—CL 1948, 767.48.

767.49 Indictment; statement of name of individual, association or corporation.

Sec. 49. In any indictment it is sufficient for the purpose of identifying the accused to state his true name, to state the name, appellation or nickname by which he has been or is known, to state a fictitious name, or to describe him as a person whose name is unknown or to describe him in any other manner. In stating the true name or the name by which the accused has been or is known or a fictitious name, it is sufficient to state a surname, a surname and 1 or more christian name or names, or a surname and 1 or more abbreviations or initials of a christian name or names. It is sufficient for the purpose of identifying any group or association of persons, not incorporated, to state the proper name of such group or association (if such there be), to state any name or designation by which the group or association has been or is known, to state the names of all the persons in such group or association or of 1 or more of them, or to state the name or names of 1 or more persons in such group or association referring to the other or others as "another" or "others". It is sufficient for the purpose of identifying a corporation to state the corporate name of such corporation, or any name or designation by which such corporation has been or is known. It is not necessary for the purpose of identifying any group or association of persons or any corporation to state or prove the legal form of such group or association of persons or of such corporation. In no case is it necessary to aver or prove that the true name of any person, group or association of persons or corporation is unknown to the grand jury, complainant or prosecuting officer. If in the course of the trial the true name of any person, group or association of persons or corporation identified otherwise than by the true name, is disclosed by the evidence, the court shall on motion of the accused or of the prosecuting attorney, and may without such motion, insert the true name in the indictment wherever the name appears otherwise.

767.54 Indictment; ownership; allegation, proof.

Sec. 54. The indictment need not allege the ownership of any property unless such ownership is necessary to indicate the offense. Proof of possession or right of possession or lien or special property in the person alleged to be the owner shall be sufficient to sustain an allegation of ownership in such person.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17268;—CL 1948, 767.54. This section supersedes Sec. 10 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 161, being CL 1857, 5946;—CL 1871, 7812;—How. 9422;—CL 1897, 11783;—CL 1915, 15810.

767.55 Indictment; allegation of certain matters in the alternative.

Sec. 55. In an indictment for an offense which is constituted of 1 or more of several acts, or which may be committed by 1 or more of several means, or with 1 or more of several intents, or which may produce 1 or more of several results, 2 or more of such acts, means, intents or results may be charged in the alternative.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17269;—CL 1948, 767.55.

767.56 Indictment; allegation of prior conviction.

Sec. 56. Whenever it is necessary to allege a prior conviction of the accused in an indictment, it is sufficient to allege that the accused was at a certain stated time, in a certain stated court, convicted of a certain stated offense, giving the name of the offense, if it have one, or stating the substantial elements thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17270;—CL 1948, 767.56.

767.57 Pleading; statute or statutory right.

Sec. 57. In pleading a statute or a right derived therefrom it is sufficient to refer to the statute by its title, or in any other manner which identifies the statute and the court must thereupon take judicial notice thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17271;—CL 1948, 767.57. See Sec. 13 of Act 77 of 1855, being CL 1857, 6059;—CL 1871, 7928;—How. 9539;—CL 1897, 11924;—CL 1915, 15751.

767.58 Pleading; judgment or proceeding.

Sec. 58. In pleading a judgment or other determination of, or a proceeding before any court or officer, civil or military, it is unnecessary to allege the facts conferring jurisdiction on such court or officer, but it is sufficient to allege generally that such judgment or determination was duly given or made or such proceedings had.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17272;—CL 1948, 767.58. This section supersedes Sec. 17 of Act 77 of 1855, being CL 1857, 6063;—CL 1871, 7932;—How. 9543;—CL 1897, 11928;—CL 1915, 15755.

767.59 Indictment; unnecessary formal words and phrases.

Sec. 59. The indictment need not allege that the offense was committed or the act done "feloniously" or "traitorously" or "unlawfully" or "with force of arms" or "with a strong hand," nor need it use any phrase of like kind otherwise than to characterize the offense, nor need it allege that the offense was committed or the act done "burglariously", "wilfully", "knowingly", "maliciously", "negligently" nor need it otherwise characterize the manner of the commission of the offense unless such description is necessary to indicate the offense. The indictment need not contain the words "contrary to the statute", "as appears by the record", or any other words of similar import.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17273;—CL 1948, 767.59. This section supersedes, with additions, part of Sec. 8 of Act 77 of 1855, being CL 1857, 6054;—CL 1871, 7923;—How. 9534;—CL 1897, 11919;—CL 1915, 15746. 767.60 Indictment; allegations in embezzlement, larceny and false pretense cases.

Sec. 60. In any prosecution for the offenses of embezzlement, larceny, larceny by conversion, or obtaining money or property by false pretenses under the statutes of this state, it shall be sufficient to allege generally in the information or indictment the embezzlement, larceny, larceny by conversion or obtaining by false pretenses of personal property to a certain amount without specifying the particulars of such embezzlement, larceny, larceny by conversion or obtaining by false pretenses, and on the trial evidence may be given of any such embezzlement, larceny, larceny by conversion or obtaining money or property by false pretenses within 6 months next after the time stated in the information or indictment, and it shall be sufficient to maintain the charge in the information or indictment and shall not be deemed at variance if it shall be proved that any personal property was fraudulently embezzled, stolen or obtained by false pretenses within the said period of 6 months.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17274;—CL 1948, 767.60. This section supersedes Sec. 9 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 161, being CL 1857, 5945;—CL 1871, 7811;—How. 9421;—CL 1897, 11782;—CL 1915, 15609;—As Am. 1927, p. 52, Act 39, Imd. Eff. April 13.

767.61 Indictment; description of money, bonds, mortgage and similar instrument in offense relating thereto.

Sec. 61. In an indictment for larceny, larceny by conversion, embezzlement, robbery, obtaining money by false pretenses, receiving stolen property or for any other criminal conversion or misappropriation where the offense relates to money or currency, it shall be sufficient to describe the same under the terms "money", "currency", or "dollars" without specifying the particular character, number, denomination, kind, species, nature or value thereof. Where such indictment relates to promissory notes, certificates of stock, bonds, bills of lading, mortgages or any other negotiable or non-negotiable instruments, or securities or evidence of debt or property, it is sufficient to designate the same by general description without specifying the particular number or denomination thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17275;—CL 1948, 767.61. This section supersedes, with additions, Sec. 15 of Act 77 of 1855, being CL 1857, 6061;—CL 1871, 7930;—How. 9541;—CL 1897, 11926;—CL 1915, 15753.

767.61a Indictment; offense committed by sexually delinquent person; prosecution; expert testimony provided; examination of witnesses; testimony in open court; record; punishment.

Sec. 61a. In any prosecution for an offense committed by a sexually delinquent person for which may be imposed an alternate sentence to imprisonment for an indeterminate term, the minimum of which is 1 day and the maximum of which is life, the indictment shall charge the offense and may also charge that the defendant was, at the time said offense was committed, a sexually delinquent person. In every such prosecution the people may produce expert testimony and the court shall provide expert testimony for any indigent accused at his request. In the event the accused shall plead guilty to both charges in such indictment, the court in addition to the investigation provided for in section 35 of chapter 8 of this act, and before sentencing the accused, shall conduct an examination of witnesses relative to the sexual delinquency of such person and may call on psychiatric and expert testimony. All testimony taken at such examination shall be taken in open court and a typewritten transcript or copy thereof, certified by the court reporter taking the same, shall be placed in the file of the case in the office of the county clerk. Upon a verdict of guilty to the first charge or to both charges or upon a plea of guilty to the first charge or to both charges the court may impose any punishment provided by law for such offense.

HISTORY: Add. 1952, p. 389, Act 234, Eff. Sep. 18.

767.62 Place of indictment, trial and conviction; receiver of stolen property.

Sec. 62. In the cases where any person shall be liable to prosecution as the receiver of any personal property that shall have been feloniously stolen, taken or embezzled he may be indicted, tried and convicted in any county where he received or had such property, notwithstanding such theft was committed in another county.

767.63 Place of indictment; removal of stolen property from another county.

Sec. 63. When any property shall be stolen in 1 county and brought into another, the offender may be indicted, tried and convicted in the county into which such stolen property was brought, in the same manner as if such property had been originally stolen in that county; and when such property shall have been taken by burglary or robbery the offender may be indicted, tried and convicted of said burglary or robbery, in the county into which such property was brought in the same manner as if such burglary or robbery had been committed in that county.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17277;—CL 1948, 767.63. This section re-enacts Sec. 32 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 164, being CL 1857, 6041;—CL 1871, 7910;—How. 9521;—CL 1897, 11906;—CL 1915, 15733.

767.64 Place and manner of indictment, conviction and punishment; removing stolen property from another state or country; prior conviction or acquittal.

Sec. 64. Every person who shall feloniously steal the property of another, in any other state or country, and shall bring the same into this state, may be indicted, convicted and punished in the same manner as if such larceny had been committed in this state; and in every such case such larceny may be charged to have been committed in any town or city into or through which such stolen property shall have been brought: Provided, That every such person may plead a former conviction or acquittal for the same offense in another state or country; and if such plea be admitted or established, it shall be a bar to any further or other proceedings against such person for the same offense.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17278;—CL 1948, 767.64. This section re-enacts Sec. 1 of Act 119 of 1850, being CL 1857, 5797;—CL 1871, 7606;—How. 9177;—CL 1897, 11592;—CL 1915, 15347, omitting first word, "that", and adding "indicted" before "convicted".

767.65 Place and manner of indictment; receiver of property stolen in another state or country.

Sec. 65. Every receiver of personal property that shall have been feloniously stolen, knowing the same to have been stolen, may be indicted, convicted and punished in any county where he received or had such property in the same manner that receivers of personal property stolen in this state are indicted, convicted and punished, notwithstanding such theft was committed in any other state or country.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17279;—CL 1948, 767.65. This section re-enacts Sec. 2 of Act 119 of 1850, being CL 1857, 5798;—CL 1871, 7607;—How. 9178;—CL 1897, 11593;—CL 1915, 15348.

767.66 Place and manner of indictment; person aiding and abetting thief who removes stolen property from another state or country.

Sec. 66. Every person who shall aid and abet any thief, such thief having brought the stolen property into this state, may be indicted, convicted and punished in the same manner, notwithstanding such theft was committed in any other state or country, that aiders and abettors are punished, where the theft was originally committed within this state.

767.67 Indictment; charging accessory without principal; substantial felony.

Sec. 67. Any number of accessories after the fact, or receivers, buyers, or persons aiding in the concealment of any stolen money, goods, or property may be charged with substantive felonies in the same indictment, notwithstanding the principal felon shall not be included in the same indictment, or shall not be in custody or amendable to justice.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17281;—CL 1948, 767.67. This section re-enacts Sec. 5 of Act 77 of 1855, being CL 1857, 6051;—CL 1871, 7920;—How. 9531;—CL 1897, 11916;—CL 1915, 15743.

767.68 Indictment; charge of jointly receiving or concealing stolen property; conviction of less than all indictees.

Sec. 68. If 2 or more persons are indicted for jointly receiving, buying or aiding in the concealment of any stolen property, and the evidence shall be that 1 or more persons separately, knowingly received, bought or aided in the concealment of any part of such property, the jury may convict upon such indictment those who are proved to have received, bought or aided in the concealment of any part of such property.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17282;—CL 1948, 767.68. This section re-enacts Sec. 6 of Act 77 of 1855, being CL 1857, 6052;—CL 1871, 7921.—How. 9532;—CL 1897, 11917;—CL 1915, 15744.

767.69 Indictment for larceny; additional counts; conviction; election between counts unnecessary.

Sec. 69. An indictment for larceny may contain also a count for embezzlement, larceny by conversion, obtaining property by false pretenses or for receiving or having in possession, or aiding in concealing the same property, knowing it to have been stolen, and the jury may convict of any such offense; and the jury may find all or any of the persons indicted, guilty of any of the offenses charged in the indictment. The prosecuting attorney shall not be required to elect between the offenses so charged.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17283;—Am. 1931, p. 506, Act 309, Eff. Sept. 18;—CL 1948, 767.69. This section as originally enacted superseded, with additions, part of Sec. 20 of Act 77 of 1855, being CL 1857, 6066;—CL 1871, 7935;—How. 9546;—CL 1897, 11931;—CL 1915, 15758.

767.70 Indictment for libel; statement of application to party libelled.

Sec. 70. An indictment for libel need not set forth any extrinsic facts for the purpose of showing the application to the party libelled of the defamatory matter on which the indictment is founded, but it is sufficient to state generally that the same was published concerning him.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17284;—CL 1948, 767.70. This section re-enacts Sec. 18 of Act 77 of 1855, being CL 1857, 6064;—CL 1871, 7933.—How. 9544;—CL 1897, 11929;—CL 1915, 15756, changing words "shall be" to "is", omitting words "of and" after "published".

767.71 Indictment for murder and manslaughter; charging act.

Sec. 71. In all indictments for murder and manslaughter it shall not be necessary to set forth the manner in which nor the means by which the death of the deceased was caused; but it shall be sufficient in any indictment for murder to charge that the defendant did murder the deceased; and it shall be sufficient in manslaughter to charge that the defendant did kill the deceased.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17285;—CL 1948, 767.71. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 77 of 1855, being CL 1857, 6047;—CL 1871, 7916.—How. 9527;—CL 1897, 11912;—CL 1915, 15739.

767.72 Indictment for manslaughter; added count for abortion; admissibility of dying declaration under either count.

Sec. 72. An indictment or information for manslaughter may contain also a count for procuring or attempting to procure an abortion and the jury may convict of either offense. Dying declarations shall be admissible in evidence in proof of either count.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17286;—CL 1948, 767.72.

767.73 Indictment; perjury; sufficiency of statement.

Sec. 73. An indictment for perjury or for subornation of, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit perjury, is sufficient which indicates the offense for which the accused is prosecuted, the nature of the controversy in respect of which the offense was committed and before what court or officer the oath was taken or was to have been taken, without setting forth any part of the records or proceedings with which the oath was connected, and without stating the commission or authority of the court or other authority before whom the perjury was committed or was to have been committed or the form of the oath or affirmation or the manner of administering the same.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17287;—CL 1948, 767.73. This section supersedes, with additions, Sec. 3 of Act 77 of 1855, being CL 1857, 6049.—CL 1871, 7918;—How. 9529;—CL 1897, 11914;—CL 1915, 15741.

767.74 Indictment; motion to quash, dilatory plea; proof.

Sec. 74. No motion to quash, plea in abatement or other dilatory plea to the indictment, shall be received by any court unless the party offering such plea shall prove the truth thereof by affidavit, or by some other sworn evidence.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17288;—CL 1948, 767.74. This section re-enacts Sec. 33 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 164, being CL 1857, 6042;—CL 1871, 7911.—How. 9522;—CL 1897, 11907;—CL 1915, 15734, inserting words "motion to quash" before "plea".

767.75 Indictment; certain defects; quashing not allowed, remedy.

Sec. 75. No indictment shall be quashed, set aside or dismissed for any 1 or more of the following defects: (First) That there is a misjoinder of the parties accused; (Second) That there is a misjoinder of the offenses charged in the indictment, or duplicity therein; (Third) That any uncertainty exists therein. If the court be of the opinion that the first and second defects or either of them exist in any indictment, it may sever such indictment into separate indictments or informations or into separate counts as shall be proper. If the court be of the opinion that the third defect exists in any indictment, it may order that the indictment be amended to cure such defect.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17289;—CL 1948, 767.75. See Sec. 3 of Act 138 of 1859, being CL 1871, 7939;—How. 9550;—CL 1897, 11935;—CL 1915, 15762.

767.76 Indictment; time of objection to defect, amendment; discharge of jury; continuance of cause; double jeopardy; review of action by court.

Sec. 76. No indictment shall be quashed, set aside or dismissed or motion to quash be sustained or any motion for delay of sentence for the purpose of review be granted, nor shall any conviction be set aside or reversed on account of any defect in form or substance of the indictment, unless the objection to such indictment, specifically stating the defect claimed, be made prior to the commencement of the trial or at such time thereafter as the court shall in its discretion permit. The court may at any time before, during or after the trial amend the indictment in respect to any defect, imperfection or omission in form or substance or of any variance with the evidence. If any amendment be made to the substance of the indictment or to cure a variance between the indictment and the proof, the accused shall on his motion be entitled to a discharge of the jury, if a jury has been impaneled and to a reasonable continuance of the cause unless it shall clearly appear from the whole proceedings that he has not been misled or prejudiced by the defect or variance in respect to which the amendment is made or that his rights will be fully protected by proceeding with the trial or by a postponement thereof to a later day with the same or another jury. In case a jury shall be discharged from further consideration of a case under this section, the accused shall not be deemed to have been in jeopardy. No action of the court in refusing a continuance or postponement under this section shall be reviewable except after motion to and refusal by the trial court to grant a new trial therefor and no writ of error or other appeal based upon such action of the court shall be sustained, nor reversal had, unless from consideration of the whole proceedings, the reviewing court shall find that the accused was prejudiced in his defense or that a failure of justice resulted.

767.91 Out of state witnesses, attendance; definitions.

Sec. 91. As used in sections 91 to 95 of this chapter:

(a) "Witness" includes a person whose testimony is desired in any proceeding or investigation by a grand jury or in a criminal action, prosecution or proceeding.

(b) "State" includes any territory of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(c) "Summons" includes a subpoena, order or other notice requiring the appearance of a witness.

HISTORY: Add. 1970, p. 628, Act 232, Imd. Eff. Dec. 3.

767.92 Attendance in another state; hearing; summons; custody; fee.

Sec. 92. (1) A judge of a court of record in a state which by law has provided for commanding persons within that state to attend and testify in this state may certify under seal of his court that for purposes of a criminal prosecution in his court or a grand jury investigation in his state, a person in this state is required as a material witness for a specified number of days.

(2) Upon presentation of a certificate issued pursuant to subsection (1) to a judge of a court of record in a county where such witness is found, the judge shall fix a time and place for a hearing and make an order directing the witness to appear at the hearing. At such hearing the certificate shall be prima facie evidence of all the facts stated therein.

(3) The judge shall issue a summons with a copy of the certificate attached directing the witness to attend and testify in the court where the criminal prosecution is pending or a grand jury is investigating if he determines at the hearing that:

(a) The witness is material and necessary to the prosecution or investigation.

(b) The attendance and testifying in the prosecution or investigation will not cause undue hardship to the witness.

(c) The laws of the state where the prosecution or investigation is being held and the laws of any other state through which the witness may be required to pass by ordinary course of travel protect the witness from arrest and service of civil or criminal process.

(4) If a certificate recommends that the witness be taken into immediate custody and delivered to an officer of the requesting state to assure his attendance in the requesting state, the judge may direct that the witness be forthwith brought before him for a hearing without notice. If the judge at the hearing is satisfied of the desirability of custody and delivery, for which determination the certificate shall be prima facie proof of desirability, he may order that the witness be forthwith taken into custody and delivered to an officer of the requesting state without issuing a summons.

HISTORY: Add. 1970, p. 626, Act 232, Imd. Eff. Dec. 3.

767.93 Attendance from without the state; certificate; fee.

Sec. 93. (1) If a person in a state, which by law provides for commanding persons within its borders to attend and testify in criminal prosecutions, or grand jury investigations commenced or about to commence, in this state, is a material witness in a prosecution pending in a court of record in this state, or in a grand jury investigation which has commenced or is about to commence, a judge of the court may issue a certificate under the seal of the court stating these facts and specifying the number of days the witness will be required. The certificate may include a recommendation that the witness be taken into immediate custody and delivered to an officer of this state to assure his attendance in this state. This certificate shall be presented to a judge of a court of record in the county in which the witness is found.

(2) If the witness is summoned to attend and testify in this state he shall be tendered the sum of 10 cents for each mile of the ordinary traveled route to and from the court where the prosecution or investigation is being held and $5.00 for each day that he is required to travel and attend as a witness. A witness who has appeared in accordance with the provisions of the summons shall not be required to remain within this state longer than the period stated in the certificate, unless otherwise ordered by the court. If the witness, after coming into this state, fails without good cause to attend and testify as directed in the summons, he shall be punished in the manner provided for the punishment of any witness who disobeys a summons issued from a court of record in this state.

HISTORY: Add. 1970, p. 627, Act 232, Imd. Eff. Dec. 3.

767.94 Immunity of witness.

Sec. 94. (1) If a person comes into this state in obedience to a summons which is issued pursuant to section 93 he shall not while in this state pursuant to such summons be subject to arrest or the service of civil or criminal process in connection with matters which arose before his entrance into this state under the summons.

(2) If a person passes through this state while going to another state in obedience to a summons to attend and testify in that state or while returning therefrom, he shall not while so passing through this state be subject to arrest or the service of civil or criminal process in connection with matters which arose before his entrance into this state under the summons.

HISTORY: Add. 1970, p. 627, Act 232, Imd. Eff. Dec. 3.

767.95 Short title; uniformity.

Sec. 95. Sections 91 to 95 constitute the uniform act to secure the attendance of witnesses from without a state in criminal proceedings and shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate their general purposes to make uniform the law of the states which enact them.

HISTORY: Add. 1970, p. 628, Act 232, Imd. Eff. Dec. 3.

		768.35	Plea of guilty; investigation by judge, sentence; refusal to accept.

768.1 Speedy trial; right of parties, duty of public officers.

Sec. 1. The people of this state and persons charged with crime are entitled to and shall have a speedy trial and determination of all prosecutions and it is hereby made the duty of all public officers having duties to perform in any criminal case, to bring such case to a final determination without delay except as may be necessary to secure to the accused a fair and impartial trial.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17294;—CL 1948, 768.1.

768.2 Criminal cases; precedence, adjournment, continuance.

Sec. 2. The trial of criminal cases shall take precedence over all other cases; but this provision shall not be interpreted to mean that trials of civil cases shall not be interspersed between trials of criminal cases triable before a jury at any term of court. No adjournments, continuances or delays of criminal causes shall be granted by any court except for good cause shown in the manner provided by law for adjournments, continuances and delays in the trial of civil causes in courts of record: Provided, That no court shall adjourn, continue or delay the trial of any criminal cause by the consent of the prosecution and accused unless in his discretion it shall clearly appear by a sufficient showing to said court to be entered upon the record, that the reasons for such consent are founded upon strict necessity and that the trial of said cause cannot be then had without a manifest injustice being done.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17295;—CL 1948, 768.2.

768.3 Person indicted; presence at trial.

Sec. 3. No person indicted for a felony shall be tried unless personally present during the trial; persons indicted or complained against for misdemeanors may, at their own request, through an attorney, duly authorized for that purpose, by leave of the court, be put on trial in their absence.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17296;—CL 1948, 768.3. This section supersedes Sec. 9 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 165, being CL 1857, 6076;—CL 1871, 7955.—How. 9568;—CL 1897, 11951;—CL 1915, 15824.

768.4 Proof of felony at trial for misdemeanor; effect.

Sec. 4. If, upon the trial of any person for a misdemeanor, the facts given in evidence amount in law to a felony, he shall not by reason thereof, be entitled to an acquittal of such misdemeanor, and no person tried for such misdemeanor shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for felony on the same facts, unless the court before which the trial shall be had, shall discharge the jury from giving any verdict upon such trial, and shall direct such person to be indicted for felony.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17296;—CL 1948, 768.4. This section re-enacts Sec. 4 of Act 77 of 1855, being CL 1857, 6050;—CL 1871, 7919;—How. 9530;—CL 1897, 11915;—CL 1915, 15742.

768.5 Defendants jointly indicted; separation of trials.

Sec. 5. When 2 or more defendants shall be jointly indicted for any criminal offense, they shall be tried separately or jointly, in the discretion of the court.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17296;—CL 1948, 768.5. This section supersedes Sec. 14 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 165, being CL 1857, 6061;—CL 1871, 7960;—How. 9573;—CL 1897, 11956;—CL 1915, 15829.

768.6 Commission of offense in certain state institutions; penalty.

Sec. 6. Any person now or hereafter confined in any penal or reformatory institution in this state, and who during the term of such confinement shall commit any crime or offense punishable under the laws of this state by imprisonment in such institution, shall be subject to the same punishment as if the crime had been committed at any other place or by a person not so confined.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17299;—CL 1948, 768.6. This section supersedes Sec. 64 of Act 118 of 1893, being CL 1897, 2143;—CL 1915, 1762; and Sec. 1 of Act 132 of 1887, being How. 9414a;—CL 1897, 11772;—CL 1915, 11586.

768.7 Commission of offense in certain state institutions; jurisdiction of court, procedure, fees, person outside prison.

Sec. 7. The circuit court of the county in which the prison or institution named in the preceding section is, shall have jurisdiction over cases arising under the foregoing section, and the proceedings thereto pertaining shall in all ways conform to the law and rules in cases of like offenses occurring elsewhere, except that the examination may be held in 1 of the offices of the penal institutions where the crime is committed, at the option of the magistrate before whom the complaint may be made, and that the warrant shall be made in the ordinary form, shall be directed to the warden or keeper of such institution, and shall set forth that the accused is imprisoned in such institution under and by authority of the laws of the state of Michigan; and further, that the person so confined shall remain in the custody of such warden or keeper subject to the order of the circuit court of the county in which such institution is located. All jurors' fees, witness fees and fees of attorneys appointed by the court under the statute, for the defendant, shall be approved by the circuit judge and audited and allowed by the board of state auditors and paid by the state treasurer upon the warrant of the auditor general. The provisions of this and the preceding section shall apply to persons who are temporarily outside the limits of the institutions named in such sections, except those prisoners who have received a parole by due process of law and are at liberty under the terms of such parole.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17300;—CL 1948, 768.7. This section supersedes and merges Secs. 2 and 4 of Act 132 of 1887, being How. 9414d;—CL 1897, 11773, 11775;—CL 1915, 15587, 15589, and supersedes, with additions, Sec. 65 of Act 118 of 1893, being CL 1897, 2144;—CL 1915, 1763;—As Am. 1917, p. 61, Act 35, Eff. Aug. 10.

FEES: Of witnesses and attorneys for defendant, see Compilers' §§ 775.13 and 775.16.

768.7a Escape from penal or reformatory institution; sentence; supplementary power.

Sec. 7a. Any person who is now or hereafter incarcerated in any penal or reformatory institution in this state, or who escapes from such institution, and commits a crime punishable by imprisonment in any penal or reformatory institution in this state shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to sentence therefor in the manner provided by law for such crimes. The term of sentence imposed for such crime may, at the discretion of the court pronouncing judgment in such cause, commence forthwith or at the expiration of the term or terms of sentence which such person is serving or has theretofore become liable to serve in any penal or reformatory institution in this state.

The powers conferred upon the court by this section shall be deemed to be supplementary to any other power conferred by law.

HISTORY: Add. 1954, p. 124, Act 100, Imd. Eff. Apr. 14.

768.8 Jury; trial of issues of fact, empaneling, waiver.

Sec. 8. Issues of fact joined upon any indictment shall be tried by a jury drawn, returned, examined on voir dire and empaneled in the manner provided by law for the trial of issues of fact in civil cases: Provided, That nothing in this act shall change any of the provisions of statutes now in force providing special methods of drawing, returning, empaneling and examining jurors in courts where such provision is made by any general, special or local act: Provided further, That the accused may waive any trial by jury in the manner set forth by the provisions of this act.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17301.—CL 1948, CL 768.8. This section supersedes, with additions, Sec. 1 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 165, being CL 1857, 6068.—CL 1871, 7947;—How. 9559;—CL 1897, 11942;—CL 1915, 15815.

CIVIL CASES: See Compilers' § 600.1201 et seq. and GCR 511 and 516.

For trials of issues of law and fact, see GCR 517.

768.9 Challenge to juror for cause; membership on grand jury.

Sec. 9. No member of the grand jury which has found an indictment shall be put upon the jury for the trial of such indictment, if challenged for that cause by the defendant.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17302;—CL 1948, 768.9. This section re-enacts Sec. 2 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 165, being CL 1857, 6069;—CL 1871, 7948;—How. 9560;—CL 1897, 11943;—CL 1915, 15816.

768.10 Challenge to juror for cause; effect of opinion or impression not positive in character; declaration by juror.

Sec. 10. The previous formation or expression of opinion or impression, not positive in its character, in reference to the circumstances upon which any criminal prosecution is based, or in reference to the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, or a present opinion or impression in reference thereto, such opinion or impression not being positive in its character, or not being based on personal knowledge of the facts in the case, shall not be a sufficient ground of challenge for principal cause, to any person who is otherwise legally qualified to serve as a juror upon the trial of such action: Provided, That the person proposed as a juror, who may have formed or expressed, or has such opinion or impression as aforesaid, shall declare on oath, that he verily believes that he can render an impartial verdict according to the evidence submitted to the jury on such trial: Provided further, That the court shall be satisfied that the person so proposed as a juror does not entertain such a present opinion as would influence his verdict as a juror.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17303;—CL 1948, 768.10. This section re-enacts Act 117 of 1873, being How. 9564;—CL 1897, 11947;—CL 1915, 15820, omitting first word, "that", inserting word "that" as first word of provisos.

768.11 Challenge to juror for cause; opinion as to death penalty.

Sec. 11. No person whose opinions are such as to preclude him from finding any defendant guilty of an offense punishable with death, shall be compelled or allowed to serve as a juror on the trial of any indictment for such an offense.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17304;—CL 1948, 768.11. This section re-enacts Sec. 6 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 165, being CL 1857, 6073;—CL 1871, 7952;—How. 9565;—CL 1897, 11948;—CL 1915, 15821.

768.12 Peremptory challenge; offense not punishable by death or life imprisonment; number.

Sec. 12. Any person who is put on trial for an offense which is not punishable by death or life imprisonment shall be allowed to challenge peremptorily 5 of the persons drawn to serve as jurors and no more; and the prosecuting officers on behalf of the people shall be allowed to challenge peremptorily in such cases 5 of such jurors and no more. In cases involving 2 or more defendants who are being jointly tried for such an offense, each of said defendants shall be allowed to challenge peremptorily 5 persons returned as jurors and no more; and the prosecuting officers on behalf of the people shall be allowed to challenge peremptorily as many times 5 of the persons returned as jurors as there may be defendants being so jointly tried.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17305;—CL 1948, 768.12. This section supersedes and merges Secs. 3 and 4 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 165, being CL 1857, 6070, 6071;—CL 1871, 7949, 7950;—How. 9561, 9562;—CL 1897, 11944, 11945;—CL 1915, 15817, 15818, and supersedes part of Sec. 58 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 103, being CL 1857, 4400;—CL 1871, 6027;—As Am. 1883, p. 159, Act 147, Eff. Sept. 8;—How. 7607;—CL 1897, 10235;—CL 1915, 14594, which, however, was not expressly repealed by this act, probably because it covered civil as well as criminal cases. Said Sec. 58 has never been expressly repealed but since it had been re-enacted in respect to civil cases by Compilers' § 618.40 it would now seem to be superseded in entirety and therefore does not appear in the present compilation.

CHALLENGE IN JUSTICE COURT: See Compilers' § 774.17.

768.13 Peremptory challenge; offense punishable by death or life imprisonment; number.

Sec. 13. Any person who is put on trial for an offense punishable by death or imprisonment for life, shall be allowed to challenge peremptorily 20 of the persons drawn to serve as jurors, and no more; and the prosecuting officers on behalf of the people shall be allowed to challenge peremptorily 15 of such persons, and no more. In cases involving 2 or more defendants, who are being jointly tried for such an offense, each of said defendants shall be allowed to challenge peremptorily 20 persons returned as jurors, and no more; and the prosecuting officers on behalf of the people shall be allowed to challenge peremptorily as many times 15 of the persons returned as jurors as there may be defendants being so jointly tried.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17306;—CL 1948, 768.13. This section supersedes, with additions, Sec. 5 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 165, being CL 1857, 6072;—As Am. 1861, p. 75, Act 72, Eff. June 15;—CL 1871, 7951;—As Am. 1883, p. 144, Act 139, Eff. Sept. 8;—How. 9563;—CL 1897, 11946;—CL 1915, 15819.

768.14 Jurors; form of oath.

Sec. 14. The following oath shall be administered to the jurors for the trial of all criminal cases: "You shall well and truly try, and true deliverance make, between the people of this state and the prisoner at bar, whom you shall have in charge, according to the evidence and the laws of this state; so help you God."

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17307;—CL 1948, 768.14. This section re-enacts Sec. 7 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 165, being CL 1857, 6074;—CL 1871, 7953;—How. 9566;—CL 1897, 11949;—CL 1915, 15822, omitting word "the" before "bar".

768.15 Jurors; affirmation in lieu of oath.

Sec. 15. Any juror shall be allowed to make affirmation, substituting the words "This you do under the pains and penalties of perjury" instead of the words "so help you God."

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17308;—CL 1948, 768.15. This section re-enacts Sec. 8 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 165, being CL 1857, 6075;—CL 1871, 7954;—How. 9567;—CL 1897, 11950;—CL 1915, 15823.

768.16 Jurors; liberty, oath and duty of officer in charge.

Sec. 16. The jurors sworn to try a criminal action in any court of record in this state, may, at any time before the cause is submitted to the jury, in the discretion of the court, be permitted to separate or to be kept in charge of proper officers. When an order shall have been entered by the court in which such action is being tried, directing said jurors to be kept in charge of such officers, the following oath shall be administered by the clerk of the court to said officers: "You do solemnly swear that you will, to the utmost of your ability, keep the persons sworn as jurors on this trial from separating from each other; that you will not suffer any communication to be made to them, or any of them, orally or otherwise; that you will not communicate with them, or any of them, orally or otherwise, except by the order of this court, or to ask them if they have agreed on their verdict, until they shall be discharged; and that you will not, before they render their verdict, communicate to any person the state of their deliberations or the verdict they have agreed upon, so help you God." And thereafter it shall be the duty of the officer so sworn to keep the jury from separating, or from receiving any communication of any character, until they shall have rendered their verdict, except under a special instruction in writing from the trial judge. After the jurors retire to consider their verdict, the court may permit the jurors to separate temporarily, whenever in his judgment such a separation is deemed proper: Provided, That in cases where separation of the members of a jury is now forbidden by law, the authority hereby granted shall not extend to permitting separation of the members of the jury of the same sex.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17309;—CL 1948, 768.16. This section re-enacts Sec. 1 of Act 176 of 1893, being CL 1897, 11960;—As Am. 1909, p. 8, Act 4, Eff. Sept. 1;—CL 1915, 15833, changing word "on" to "upon" before "so help you God", inserting word "a" before "special"; and supersedes, in part, Act 385 of 1919, Eff. Aug. 14.

768.17 Jurors; medical attendance, use of newspapers and letters.

Sec. 17. The trial judge may order, in case of illness of any jurors mentioned in the preceding section, that such juror may receive medical attendance, and may be removed to his home or some other place agreeable to the judge during the continuance of his illness; and that any of the jurors may receive such newspapers and letters as make no mention of the trial then in progress, or of any facts connected therewith, which shall first be inspected by the said judge.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17310;—CL 1948, 768.17. This section supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 176 of 1893, being CL 1897, 11961;—CL 1915, 15834.

768.18 Jury; number; procedure.

Sec. 18. Any judge of a court of record in this state about to try a criminal case which is likely to be protracted, may order a jury empaneled of not to exceed 14 members, who shall have the same qualifications and shall be empaneled in the same manner as is, or may be, provided by law for empaneling juries in such courts. All of said jurors shall sit and hear said cause. Should any condition arise during the trial of said cause which in the opinion of the trial court justifies the excusal of any of the jurors so empaneled from further service, he may do so and said trial shall proceed, unless the number of said jurors be reduced to less than 12, and in the event that there shall be more than 12 jurors left on said jury after the charge of the court, the clerk of the court in the presence of said court shall place the names of all of the said jurors on slips, folded so as to conceal the names thereon, in a suitable box provided for that purpose, and shall draw therefrom the names of a sufficient number to reduce the jury to 12 members who shall then proceed to determine the issue presented in the manner provided by law.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17311;—CL 1948, 768.18. This section re-enacts Act 56 of 1923, omitting words "either a civil or" after "try", which, however, was not expressly repealed.

768.19 Perjury; acts of officer under oath.

Sec. 19. Any officer having taken an oath required by any provision of this chapter who shall knowingly and wilfully violate the same or permit the same to be violated, shall, on conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of the crime of perjury and subject to all the pains and penalties thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17312;—CL 1948, 768.19. This section supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 176 of 1893, being CL 1897, 11962;—CL 1915, 15835.
PENALTY FOR PERJURY: See Compilers' § 750.422 et seq.

768.20 Defense of alibi or insanity; notice to prosecutor; witnesses.

Sec. 20. Whenever a defendant in a criminal case not cognizable by a justice of the peace shall propose to offer in his defense testimony to establish an alibi on behalf of the defendant, or of the insanity of such defendant either at the time of the alleged offense or at the time of trial, such defendant shall at the time of arraignment or within 10 days thereafter but not less than 4 days before the trial of such cause file and serve upon the prosecuting attorney in such cause a notice in writing of his intention to claim such defense and the names of witnesses to be called in behalf of such defendant to establish such defense known to him at that time. Names of other witnesses may be filed and served before or during the trial by leave of the court and upon such conditions as the court shall determine. In cases of a claimed alibi such notice shall include specific information as to the place at which the accused claims to have been at the time of the alleged offense.

HISTORY: Am. 1929, p. 52, Act 24, Imd. Eff. April 2;—CL 1929, 17313;—Am. 1939, p. 136, Act 90, Eff. Sept. 29;—CL 1948, 768.20.

768.21 Defense of alibi or insanity; notice to prosecutor; failure to file notice, effect.

Sec. 21. In the event of the failure of a defendant to file the written notice prescribed in the preceding section, the court may in its discretion exclude evidence offered by such defendant for the purpose of establishing an alibi or the insanity of such defendant as set forth in the preceding section.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17314;—CL 1948, 768.21.

768.22 Rules of evidence; applicability of criminal and quasi criminal proceedings; evidence of prior conviction.

Sec. 22. (1) The rules of evidence in civil actions, insofar as the same are applicable, shall govern in all criminal and quasi criminal proceedings except as otherwise provided by law.

(2) In prosecutions charging a second or subsequent offense under Act No. 300 of the Public Acts of 1949, as amended, being sections 257.1 to 257.923 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, a certification by a judge or clerk of a court under the seal of the court of a prior conviction for the same offense is admissible and is prima facie evidence of the fact of conviction. The certification shall include the person's full name, address, date of birth, operator's or chauffeur's license number and vehicle registration number, if such information is available to the person so certifying, and the dates of the offense and the conviction thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17315;—CL 1948, 768.22;—Am. 1967, p. 63, Act 44, Eff. Nov. 2.

This section supersedes Act 208 of 1917.

RULES OF EVIDENCE: In civil actions, see the chapter on Evidence in the Jud. Act.

768.23 Exception; necessity of taking.

Sec. 23. It shall be not necessary in the trial of any criminal cause to except to any ruling or action of the court, if an objection thereto was fully made but an exception shall be deemed to follow as a matter of course.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17316;—CL 1948, 768.23. This section is similar to part of Sec. 60 of Ch. XVIII (Jud. Act), being Compilers' § 615.60, which see for the rule in civil cases.

See Sec. 2 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 166, being CL 1857, 6093;—CL 1871, 7964;—How. 9577;—As Am. 1885, p. 77, Act 79, Eff. Sept. 19;—CL 1897, 11964;—CL 1915, 15837.

EXCEPTION TO CHARGE: See Compilers' § 768.30.

768.24 Evidence; leading question.

Sec. 24. Within the discretion of the court no question asked of a witness shall be deemed objectionable solely because it is leading.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17317;—CL 1948, 768.24.

768.25 Evidence; proof of signature.

Sec. 25. Whenever in the trial of any criminal case it shall be necessary or proper to prove the signature of any person, it shall be competent to introduce in evidence for the purpose of comparison, any specimen or specimens of the handwriting or signature of such person, admitted or proved to the satisfaction of the court to be genuine, whether or not the paper on which such handwriting or signature appears is one in evidence or connected with the case or not.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17318;—CL 1948, 768.25.

768.26 Evidence; use of former testimony; deposition for defendant.

Sec. 26. Testimony taken at an examination, preliminary hearing, or at a former trial of the case, or taken by deposition at the instance of the defendant, may be used by the prosecution whenever the witness giving such testimony can not, for any reason, be produced at the trial, or whenever the witness has, since giving such testimony become insane or otherwise mentally incapacitated to testify.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17319;—CL 1948, 768.26.

768.27 Evidence; proof of intent or motive by similar acts.

Sec. 27. In any criminal case where the defendant's motive, intent, the absence of, mistake or accident on his part, or the defendant's scheme, plan or system in doing an act, is material, any like acts or other acts of the defendant which may tend to show his motive, intent, the absence of, mistake or accident on his part, or the defendant's scheme, plan or system in doing the act, in question, may be proved, whether they are contemporaneous with or prior or subsequent thereto; notwithstanding that such proof may show or tend to show the commission of another or prior or subsequent crime by the defendant.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17320;—CL 1948, 768.27.

768.28 Evidence; view by jury.

Sec. 28. The court may order a view by any jury empaneled to try a criminal case, whenever such court shall deem such view necessary.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17321;—CL 1948, 768.28. This section re-enacts Sec. 10 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 165, being CL 1857, 6077;—CL 1871, 7956;—How. 9509;—CL 1897, 11952;—CL 1915, 15825.

CIVIL CASES: See Compilers' § 800.2405 and GCR 513.

768.29 Judge's duty at trial; effect of failure to instruct.

Sec. 29. It shall be the duty of the judge to control all proceedings during the trial, and to limit the introduction of evidence and the argument of counsel to relevant and material matters, with a view to the expeditious and effective ascertainment of the truth regarding the matters involved. The court shall instruct the jury as to the law applicable to the case and in his charge make such comment on the evidence, the testimony and character of any witnesses, as in his opinion the interest of justice may require. The failure of the court to instruct on any point of law shall not be ground for setting aside the verdict of the jury unless such instruction is requested by the accused.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17322;—CL 1948, 768.29.

CIVIL CASES: As to instructions, see GCR 516.

INSTRUCTIONS: Procedure, see GCR 516.

COMMENT BY COURT: As to comment on failure of accused to testify, see Compilers' § 800.2159.

768.30 Exception to charge or refusal to charge; necessity.

Sec. 30. It shall not be necessary in any criminal suit, action or proceeding in any court of record, to except to the charge given to the jury, or to the refusal to give any charge requested by either of the parties to such suit, action or proceeding, but any party aggrieved by any such charge or refusal to charge, may assign error upon such charge or refusal to charge in his assignments of error, the same as if exception had been made to such charge or refusal to charge.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17323;—CL 1948, 768.30. This section supersedes, with additions, part of Act 101 of 1885, being How. 7621b;—CL 1897, 10247;—As Am. 1901, p. 79, Act 52, Eff. Sept. 5;—CL 1915, 14576, which, however, was not expressly repealed by this act probably because it covered civil as well as criminal cases. Said Act 101 has never been expressly repealed but since it had been superseded in respect to civil cases by Compilers' § 618.60 it would now seem to be superseded in entirety and therefore does not appear in the present compilation EXCEPTIONS IN GENERAL: See Compilers' § 768.23.

768.31 Joint defendants; discharge for insufficient evidence.

Sec. 31. Whenever 2 or more persons shall be included in the same indictment and it shall appear that there is not sufficient evidence to put any defendant on his defense, it shall be the duty of the court to order such defendant to be discharged from such indictment, before the evidence shall be deemed to be closed.

768.32 Offense consisting of different degrees; finding of jury.

Sec. 32. Upon an indictment for any offense, consisting of different degrees, as prescribed in this chapter, the jury may find the accused not guilty of the offense in the degree charged in the indictment and may find such accused person guilty of any degree of such offense, inferior to that charged in the indictment, or of an attempt to commit such offense.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17325;—CL 1948, 768.32. This section re-enacts Sec. 16 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 161, being CL 1857, 5952;—CL 1871, 7518;—How. 9428;—CL 1897, 11789;—CL 1915, 15616, changing "title" to "chapter".

768.33 Offense consisting of different degrees; subsequent trial prohibited.

Sec. 33. When a defendant shall be acquitted or convicted upon any indictment for an offense, consisting of different degrees, he shall not thereafter be tried or convicted for a different degree of the same offense; nor shall he be tried or convicted for any attempt to commit the offense charged in the indictment or to commit any degree of such offense.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17326;—CL 1948, 768.33. This section re-enacts Sec. 17 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 161, being CL 1857, 5953;—CL 1871, 7519;—How. 9429;—CL 1897, 11790;—CL 1915, 15617, omitting words "as prescribed in this title".

DOUBLE JEOPARDY: See Compilers' § 763.5.

768.34 Discharged or acquitted prisoner; liability for costs or fees.

Sec. 34. No prisoner or person under recognizance who shall be acquitted by verdict or discharged because no indictment has been found against him, or for want of prosecution, shall be liable for any costs or fees of office or for any charge for subsistence while he was in custody.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17327;—CL 1948, 768.34. This section re-enacts Sec. 12 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 165, being CL 1857, 6079;—CL 1871, 7968;—How. 9571;—CL 1897, 11954;—CL 1915, 15827.

768.35 Plea of guilty; investigation by judge, sentence; refusal to accept.

Sec. 35. Whenever any person shall plead guilty to an information filed against him in any court, it shall be the duty of the judge of such court, before pronouncing judgment or sentence upon such plea, to become satisfied after such investigation as he may deem necessary for that purpose respecting the nature of the case, and the circumstances of such plea, that said plea was made freely, with full knowledge of the nature of the accusation, and without undue influence. And whenever said judge shall have reason to doubt the truth of such plea of guilty, it shall be his duty to vacate the same, direct a plea of not guilty to be entered and order a trial of the issue thus formed.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17328;—CL 1948, 768.35. This section re-enacts Sec. 99 of 1875, being How. 9558;—CL 1897, 11957;—CL 1915, 15830, omitting first word, "that", and word "circuit" before "court."

769.1 Sentence; authority of judges to pass and pronounce judgment.

Sec. 1. The justices of the supreme court, or any of them, or any of the several circuit judges in the respective circuits, or any judge of a court of record having jurisdiction of criminal cases, in this state, are hereby authorized and empowered to pronounce judgment against and pass sentence upon all persons heretofore convicted, or that may hereafter be convicted in any court held by said justices, or judges, or any of them, for any offense heretofore committed or that may hereafter be committed against the laws of this state: Provided, That such sentence shall in no case or respect be greater than the penalty now or that may be prescribed hereafter by law.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17329;—CL 1948, 769.1. This section supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 162 of 1850, as Am. 1851, p. 272, Act 166, Imd. Eff. June 26, being CL 1857, 6113;—CL 1871, 7997;—How. 9613;—CL 1897, 11983;—CL 1915, 15856.

EXCESS SENTENCE: Valid to the extent of the lawful penalty, see Compilers' § 769.24.

PLACE OF SENTENCE: See Compilers' §§ 800.29 and 801.212.

Sec. 1a.

HISTORY: Add. 1935, p. 142, Act 88, Imd. Eff. May 27;—Am. 1937, p. 306, Act 196, Imd. Eff. July 14;—Rep. 1939, p. 376, Act 199, Eff. Sept. 29.

This section provided for procedure with respect to persons convicted of indecent crimes in courts of record.

Sec. 1b.

HISTORY: Add. 1937, p. 307, Act 196, Imd. Eff. July 14;—Rep. 1939, p. 376, Act 199, Eff. Sept. 29.

This section provided for procedure with respect to sex degenerates in penal institutions.

769.1c Psychiatrist; definition; aid from state hospitals.

Sec. 1c. A psychiatrist under the meaning of the foregoing sections and sections 22-a and 22-b of chapter 14 of this act is a physician, duly licensed to practice in the state of Michigan, who has had at least 5 years experience in actual practice, including either (a) 3 years' full time practice since January 1, 1933, in the care and treatment of persons suffering from nervous or mental disease or mental defect, in an institution provided for the care of such persons, or (b) has devoted 5 years prior to the case in which his services are requested, to a practice confined wholly or substantially to the diagnosis, care or treatment of persons suffering from nervous and mental disease or mental defect. If no qualified psychiatrist is immediately available for the purposes of aiding the court in any investigation under the foregoing sections or sections 22-a and 22-b of chapter 14 of this act, the nearest state hospital shall be required to furnish, upon request of the court, without charge, a competent psychiatrist within the meaning of this act.

HISTORY: Add. 1937, p. 308, Act 196, Imd. Eff. July 14;—CL 1948, 769.1c.

NOTE: Secs. 22a-22b, Ch. 14, above referred to, are Compilers' §§ 774.22a-774.22b.

769.1d Expense of confinement in state institutions.

Sec. 1d. The expenses of confinement of any person confined to a state hospital or other state institution as provided for in the foregoing sections and sections 22-a and 22-b of chapter 14 of this act, shall be defrayed by the state and may be recovered from such person or his estate.

HISTORY: Add. 1937, p. 308, Act 196, Imd. Eff. July 14;—CL 1948, 769.1d.

NOTE: Secs. 22a-22b, Ch. 14, above referred to, are Compilers' §§ 774.22a-774.22b.

769.2 Sentence; solitary confinement or hard labor.

Sec. 2. Whenever any person shall be lawfully sentenced by any court to imprisonment in the state prison or in any county jail, it shall be competent for the court awarding the sentence, to incorporate therein a provision that the person so sentenced shall be kept in solitary confinement or at hard labor, or both, during the term of such imprisonment, or any specific portion thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17330;—CL 1948, 769.2. This section re-enacts Sec. 1 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 168, being CL 1857, 6100;—CL 1871, 7964;—How. 9600;—CL 1897, 11970;—CL 1915, 15843.

SOLITARY CONFINEMENT: Release from, in state prison, see Compilers' § 800.37. Punishment for murder, see Compilers' § 750.316.

HARD LABOR: Sentence to such to accompany sentence to death, see Compilers' § 769.19.

769.2a Prisoners sentenced for sexual act not eligible for outside duties; exception.

Sec. 2a. Whenever any person shall be lawfully sentenced by any court to imprisonment in the state prison, or in any county jail, for a sexual act or murder in connection with a sexual act, the person so sentenced shall not be eligible for custodial incarceration outside the state penal institution or the county jail building: Provided, That the warden of any state penal institution may authorize any person sentenced under this section to work outside the state penal institution on prison farms as operated by the state penal institution.

HISTORY: Add. 1963, p. 135, Act 130, Eff. Oct. 2.

769.3 Conditional sentence; payment of fine, probation.

Sec. 3. When any persons shall be convicted of an offense punishable at the discretion of the court, either by fine or imprisonment in the county jail or by a fine or imprisonment in the state prison, the court may award against such offender a conditional sentence and order him to pay a fine, with or without the costs of prosecution, within a limited time to be expressed in the sentence, and, in default thereof, to suffer such imprisonment as is provided by law and awarded by the court. The court may also place such offender on probation with the condition that he pay a fine or costs or damages or any or all of them, as the case may be, in installments with any limited time and may, in case of the default in any of such payments, impose such sentence as is provided by law.

PROBATION: See Ch. XI of this act being Compilers' § 771.1 et seq.

769.4 Conditional sentence; execution.

Sec. 4. The person against whom any such conditional sentence shall be awarded, shall be forthwith committed to the custody of an officer in court or to the county jail, to be detained until the sentence be complied with; and if he shall not pay the fine within the time limited, the sheriff shall cause the other part of the sentence to be executed forthwith.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17332;—CL 1948, 769.4. This section re-enacts Sec. 3 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 168, being CL 1857, 6102;—CL 1871, 7986;—How. 9602;—CL 1897, 11972;—CL 1915, 15845.

769.5 Alternative or combined penalties; power of court.

Sec. 5. Whenever it is provided that an offender shall be punished by imprisonment and a fine, such offender may at the discretion of the court, be sentenced to be punished by such imprisonment without the fine or by such fine without the imprisonment; and whenever it is provided that an offense shall be punished by fine or imprisonment, the court may impose both such fine and imprisonment in its discretion. If the court shall impose both a fine, costs and imprisonment in any state prison or reformatory the offender shall be detained in said prison or reformatory until said fine and costs are paid, not exceeding however, the additional time expressed in said sentence for the non-payment of the same.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17333;—CL 1948, 769.5. This section re-enacts in part, Sec. 4 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 168, being CL 1857, 6103;—CL 1871, 7987;—How. 9603;—CL 1897, 11973;—CL 1915, 15846, omitting words "in the county jail" after "imprisonment."

FORMER ACT: Law prior to 1846, see Sec. 15, Ch. 8, title 2, part fourth, R. S. 1838, as added 1839, p. 233, Act 115, Eff. May 20.

769.6 Recognizance to keep peace; court option.

Sec. 6. Every court before whom any person shall be convicted upon an indictment for any offense not punishable with death or by imprisonment in the state prison may, in addition to the punishment prescribed by law, require such person to recognize with sufficient sureties in a reasonable sum, to keep the peace or to be of good behavior, or both, for any time not exceeding 2 years and to stand committed until he shall so recognize.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17334;—CL 1948, 769.6. This section re-enacts Sec. 5 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 168, being CL 1857, 6104;—CL 1871, 7988;—How. 9604;—CL 1897, 11974;—CL 1915, 15847.

769.7 Recognizance to keep peace; breach of condition; procedure.

Sec. 7. In case of a breach of the condition of any such recognizance the same proceedings shall be had as are prescribed in relation to recognizances to keep the peace in other cases.

RECOGNIZANCE: See Compilers' §§ 772.1 to 772.15.

769.8 Indeterminate sentence; first conviction.

Sec. 8. When any person shall hereafter be convicted for the first time of crime committed after this act takes effect, the punishment for which prescribed by law may be imprisonment in the state prison at Jackson, the Michigan reformatory at Ionia, the state house of correction and branch of the state prison in the upper peninsula, the Detroit house of correction, or any other prison, the court imposing sentence shall not fix a definite term of imprisonment, but shall fix a minimum term except as hereinafter provided. The maximum penalty provided by law shall be the maximum sentence in all cases except as herein provided and shall be stated by the judge in passing sentence. He shall before or at the time of passing such sentence ascertain by examination of such convict on oath, or otherwise, and by such other evidence as can be obtained tending to indicate briefly the causes of the criminal character or conduct of such convict, which facts and such other facts as shall appear to be pertinent in the case, he shall cause to be entered upon the minutes of the court.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17336;—CL 1948, 769.8. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 184, 1905, being CL 1915, 15859;—As Am. 1921, p. 485, Act 250, Imd. Eff. May 18.

769.9 Indeterminate sentence; inapplicability; invalid sentence.

Sec. 9. The provisions of this chapter, relative to indeterminate sentences, shall not apply to any person convicted of an offense, the only punishment for which prescribed by law is imprisonment for life: Provided, That in all cases where the maximum sentence in the discretion of the court may be for life or any number of years, the court imposing the sentence shall fix both the minimum and maximum sentence. If the sentence so fixed by the court shall be for any number of years, it shall be the duty of the court to fix both the minimum and the maximum of such sentence in terms of years or fraction thereof, and sentences so imposed shall be considered indeterminate sentences. In no case can a valid sentence be hereafter made in which the maximum penalty shall be life imprisonment with a minimum for a term of years included in the same sentence.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17337;—CL 1948, 769.9;—Am. 1957, p. 244, Act 193, Eff. Sep. 27.

769.10 Subsequent felony; term of imprisonment; probation; second conviction; placing on probation.

Sec. 10. A person, who after having been convicted within this state of a felony, or an attempt to commit a felony, or, under the laws of any other state, government or country, of a crime which if committed within this state, would be a felony, commits any felony within this state, is punishable upon conviction as follows: If the subsequent felony is such that, upon a first conviction the offender would be punishable by imprisonment for any term less than his natural life, then such person may be placed on probation or sentenced to imprisonment for a term not more than 1½ times the longest term prescribed for a first conviction of such offense or for any lesser term in the discretion of the court; if the subsequent felony is such that, upon a first conviction the offender might be punished by imprisonment for life then such person may be placed on probation or sentenced to imprisonment for life or for any lesser term in the discretion of the court.

769.11a Void sentence; trial judge to credit time served.

Sec. 11a. Whenever any person has been heretofore or hereafter convicted of any crime within this state and has served any time upon a void sentence, the trial court, in imposing sentence upon conviction or acceptance of a plea of guilty based upon facts arising out of the earlier void conviction, shall in imposing the sentence specifically grant or allow the defendant credit against and by reduction of the statutory maximum by the time already served by such defendant on the sentence imposed for the prior erroneous conviction. Failure of the corrections commission to carry out the terms of said sentence shall be cause for the issuance of a writ of habeas corpus to have the prisoner brought before the court for the taking of such further action as the court may again determine.

HISTORY: Add. 1954, p. 516, Act 205, Eff. Aug. 13;—Am. 1965, p. 97, Act 67, Imd. Eff. Jun. 22.

769.11b Credit time served prior to sentence; lack of bond.

Sec. 11b. Whenever any person is hereafter convicted of any crime within this state and has served any time in jail prior to sentencing because of being denied or unable to furnish bond for the offense of which he is convicted, the trial court in imposing sentence shall specifically grant credit against the sentence for such time served in jail prior to sentencing.

HISTORY: Add. 1965, p. 105, Act 73, Eff. Mar. 31, 1966.

769.12 Indeterminate sentence; fourth conviction; eligibility for parole.

Sec. 12. A person who after having been 3 times convicted within this state, of felonies or attempts to commit felonies, or under the law of any other state, government or country, of crimes which if committed within this state would be felonious, commits any felony within this state is punishable upon conviction as follows: If the felony for which such offender is tried is such that upon a first conviction thereof the offender might be imprisoned in a state prison for a maximum term of 5 years or more, or for life, then such person may be sentenced upon conviction of such fourth or subsequent offense to imprisonment in a state prison for the term of his natural life or for any lesser term in the discretion of the court; if the felony for which such offender is tried is such that upon a first conviction thereof the offender could not be imprisoned in a state prison for a maximum term of 5 years or more, or for life, then such person may be sentenced to imprisonment in a state prison for a term of 15 years or any lesser term in the discretion of the court. Offenders sentenced under this and the last 2 preceding sections shall not be eligible to parole before the expiration of the minimum term fixed by the sentencing judge at the time of sentence without the written approval of the judge of such court or any judge of such court if the sentencing judge is not then serving. A person to be punishable under this and the last 2 preceding sections need not have been indicted and convicted as a previous offender in order to receive the increased punishment therein provided, but may be proceeded against as provided in the following section.

CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: The above section is cited in § 780.604.

769.13 Supplemental information charging previous convictions; arraignment; trial; sentence.

Sec. 13. If at any time after conviction and either before or after sentence it shall appear that a person convicted of a felony has previously been convicted of crimes as set forth in any of the 3 foregoing sections, the prosecuting attorney of the county in which such conviction was had, in his discretion, may file a separate or supplemental information in such cause accusing the said person of such previous convictions. Whereupon the court in which such conviction was had shall cause the said person whether confined in prison or otherwise, to be brought before it and shall inform him of the allegations contained in such information, and of his right to be tried as to the truth thereof according to law, and shall require such offender to say whether he is the same person as charged in such information or not. If he says he is not the same person, or remains silent, the court shall enter a plea of not guilty, and a jury of 12 jurors shall be empanelled from the petit jurors serving at the then or a following term of said court to determine the issues raised by such information and plea. The accused may waive trial by jury in the manner provided by this act. The usual practice in the trial of criminal cases shall be followed in the empanelling of such jury and the trial of said issue and the prosecuting officer and the accused shall each be allowed 5 peremptory challenges. If the accused shall plead guilty to such information or if the jury shall return a verdict of guilty, the court may sentence him to the punishment prescribed in the 3 preceding sections, as the case may be, and shall vacate the previous sentence, deducting from the new sentence all time actually served on the sentence so vacated if required. Whenever it shall become known to any warden, or prison, probation, parole, or other peace officer that any person charged with or convicted of a felony has been previously convicted within the meaning of the 3 preceding sections, it shall become his duty forthwith to report the facts to the prosecuting attorney of the county in which such person is charged or was sentenced.

769.14 Review of sentence of prisoner or parolee; application; rights of prisoner.

Sec. 14. Any person now incarcerated in any state prison, or on parole from a sentence thereto, who was sentenced under the terms of sections 10, 11, 12 or 13 of this chapter as in effect prior to the effective date of Act No. 56 of the Public Acts of 1949, shall be entitled to a review of sentence upon application to the court in which he was sentenced. Upon such application any judge of such court may vacate the previous sentence and impose any lesser sentence which in his judgment might have been imposed under sections 10, 11, 12 or 13 of this chapter, as amended by Act No. 56 of the Public Acts of 1949, had such sections as amended been in force at the date of the previous sentence imposed upon said prisoner: Provided, That any sentence so imposed shall be deemed to have begun as of the date of the previous sentence, and the rights of such prisoner under the laws shall be governed by the lesser sentence as then imposed.

HISTORY: Add. 1951, p. 192, Act 159, Eff. Sep. 28.

Original section 14 of Chapter IX, Act 175 of 1927, provided penalties for attempts to commit offenses, and was repealed by Act 328 of 1931.

Sec. 15.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17343;—Rep. 1931, p. 754, Act 328, Eff. Sept. 18. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 22 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 161, being CL 1857, 5958;—CL 1871, 7524;—How. 9434;—CL 1897, 11795;—CL 1915, 15622.

This section provided penalties for offenses indictable at common law. For present law, see Compilers' § 750.505.

769.16 Clerk of court and sheriff; duty in executing sentence; fine or imprisonment in county jail; transcript.

Sec. 16. When any person convicted of an offense shall be sentenced to pay a fine or costs, or to be imprisoned in the county jail, the clerk of the court shall, as soon as may be, make out and deliver to the sheriff of the county or some officer in court, a transcript from the minutes of the court, of the conviction and sentence duly certified by such clerk, which shall be sufficient authority for the sheriff to execute such sentence, and he shall execute the same accordingly.

769.17 Clerk of court and sheriff; duty in executing sentence; imprisonment in state prison; warrant, abstract of conviction.

Sec. 17. When any convict shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the state prison, the clerk of the court before whom such conviction was had, shall make out a warrant, under the seal of the court, directed to the sheriff of the county, requiring him to cause such convict, without needless delay, to be removed from the county jail to the state prison, which warrant shall be delivered to such sheriff and be obeyed by him and shall be accompanied by a certified abstract from the minutes of the court, of such conviction and sentence as aforesaid.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17345;—CL 1948, 769.17. This section re-enacts Sec. 8 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 168, being CL 1857, 6107;—CL 1871, 7991;—How. 9607;—CL 1897, 11977;—CL 1915, 15850.

DUTY OF SHERIFF: Removal of person to state prison, see Compilers' § 800.46 et seq.

769.18 Record after sentence of imprisonment; duty of clerk; contents, forwarding, fee.

Sec. 18. Whenever a person shall be convicted of crime and sentenced to imprisonment pursuant to the provisions of this act, or for life, the clerk of the court shall make and forward to the warden or superintendent of the institution to which the convict is sentenced, and also to the governor, a record containing a copy of the information or complaint, the sentence pronounced by the court, the name and residence of the judge presiding at the trial, prosecuting attorney and sheriff, and the names and post-office addresses of the jurors and witnesses sworn on the trial, together with a statement of any fact or facts which the presiding judge may deem important or necessary for a full comprehension of the case, and a reference to the statute under which the sentence was imposed. One copy of the said record shall be delivered to the warden or superintendent at the time the prisoner is received into the institution, and 1 copy shall be forwarded to the governor within 10 days thereafter. In each case in which he shall perform the duties required by this act, the clerk of the court shall be entitled to such compensation as shall be certified to be just by the presiding judge at the trial not to exceed 3 dollars for any 1 case, which shall be paid by the county in which the trial is had, as a part of the expenses of such trial.

HISTORY: Am. 1929, p. 503, Act 188, Imd. Eff. May 20;—CL 1929, 17346;—CL 1948, 769.18. This section as originally enacted, re-enacted Sec. 4 of Act 184 of 1905, being CL 1915, 15862, changing "act" to "chapter".

COPY OF SENTENCE: Delivery by officer to warden, see Compilers' § 800.50.

CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: The above section is cited in § 725.4.

769.19 Death penalty; hard labor until inflicted.

Sec. 19. When any person shall be convicted of any crime punishable with death and sentenced to suffer such punishment, he shall at the same time be sentenced to hard labor in the state prison until such punishment of death shall be inflicted.

769.20 Death penalty; time of execution; records of proceedings certified; warrant.

Sec. 20. And no person, so sentenced and imprisoned shall be executed in pursuance of such sentence within 1 year from the day such sentence of death was passed, nor until the whole record of the proceedings shall be certified by the clerk of the court in which the conviction was had, under the seal thereof to the governor of this state nor until a warrant shall be issued by the governor, under the great seal of the state, directed to the sheriff of the county in which the state prison may be situated, commanding the said sentence of death to be carried into execution.

769.21 Death penalty; method, place.

Sec. 21. The punishment of death shall, in every case, be inflicted by hanging the convict by the neck until he is dead; and the sentence shall at the time directed by the warrant, be executed within the walls of the state prison, or within the enclosed yard thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17349;—CL 1948, 769.21. This section re-enacts Sec. 11 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 168, being CL 1857, 6110;—CL 1871, 7994;—How. 9610;—CL 1897, 11980;—CL 1915, 15853.

769.22 Death penalty; execution; persons present.

Sec. 22. The sheriff of the county shall be present at the place of execution, unless prevented by sickness or other casualty, and also 2 of his deputies, designated by him; and he shall request the presence of the prosecuting attorney, and 12 respectable citizens, including a surgeon or physician, and shall permit the counsel of the prisoner and such ministers of the gospel as the criminal shall desire, and his relations, to be present, also such officers of the prison, deputies, constables, and military guard, as he may see fit, but no others.

769.23 Death penalty; return of warrant, file.

Sec. 23. Whenever a sheriff shall inflict the punishment of death upon any convict in obedience to a warrant from the governor, he shall make return thereof under his hand, with his doings thereon, to the office of the secretary of state, as soon as may be; and shall also transmit to the clerk of the court in which the conviction was had, an attested copy of the warrant and return thereon; and the clerk shall place the same on file, with the indictment, and subjoin to the record of the sentence, a brief abstract of the sheriff's return on the warrant.

769.24 Excessive sentence; validity.

Sec. 24. Whenever, in any criminal case, the defendant shall be adjudged guilty and a punishment by fine or imprisonment shall be imposed in excess of that allowed by law, the judgment shall not for that reason alone be judged altogether void, nor be wholly reversed and annulled by any court of review, but the same shall be valid and effectual to the extent of the lawful penalty, and shall only be reversed or annulled on writ of error or otherwise, in respect to the unlawful excess.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17352;—CL 1948, 769.24. This section supersedes Act 170 of 1867, being CL 1871, 7998;—How. 9614;—CL 1897, 11964;—CL 1915, 15857.

769.25 Repealed. 1964, p. 393, Act 256, Eff. Aug. 28.

Section authorized imprisonment in reformatory at Ionia or Detroit house of correction instead of state prison of any male person convicted for first time of any offense other than rape, murder or treason.

769.26 Error in pleading or procedure; effect.

Sec. 26. No judgment or verdict shall be set aside or reversed or a new trial be granted by any court of this state in any criminal case, on the ground of misdirection of the jury, or the improper admission or rejection of evidence, or for error as to any matter of pleading or procedure, unless in the opinion of the court, after an examination of the entire cause, it shall affirmatively appear that the error complained of has resulted in a miscarriage of justice.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17354;—CL 1948, 769.26. This section supersedes part of Act 89 of 1915, being CL 1915, 14565, which however, was not expressly repealed, probably because it covered civil as well as criminal cases. But since said Act 89 is covered in respect to civil cases by Compilers' § 650.28 it would not seem to be superseded in entirety and therefore does not appear in the present compilation.

769.27 Change of sentence by judge; notice to prosecuting attorney; opposition to change, procedure.

Sec. 27. In the event that any sentence imposed under and by virtue of the provisions of this act shall be changed in any respect by the sentencing judge, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court of said judge to give written notice of the change to the prosecuting attorney. In the event that the prosecuting attorney desires to oppose the change, he shall file an application, within 5 days after receiving such notice, and in such a case shall be entitled to be heard in open court upon the merits of the change.

HISTORY: Add. 1935, p. 223, Act 144, Eff. Sept. 21;—CL 1948, 769.27.

769.28 Commitment or sentence for maximum of one year; place.

Sec. 28. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, in case of the commitment or sentence of any persons convicted of crime or contempt of court to imprisonment for a maximum of 1 year or less, such commitment or sentence shall be made to the county jail of the county in which such person was convicted or to the Detroit house of correction, and not to a state penal institution: Provided, That in counties in which the board of county supervisors, or the board of county auditors, if there be a board of county auditors, has an agreement for the housing of prisoners in a house of correction operated by any municipality therein, all such persons covered thereby shall be sentenced to the house of correction.

CHAPTER X.

NEW TRIALS, WRITS OF ERROR AND BILLS OF EXCEPTIONS.

770.1	New trial; reasons for granting.	770.9	Writ of error; admission to bail after granting application.
770.2	New trial; time of motion.	770.10	Bill of exceptions; settlement, time and manner.
770.3	Writs of error; issuance.	770.11	Bill of exception; time of settlement, extension.
770.4	Writs of error; statement, time; notice of statement.	770.12	Writ of error in criminal cases; right of prosecution.
770.5	Writ of error; noticing and securing settlement, extension of time.	770.13	Writ of error in criminal cases; issuance, time and manner.
770.6	Writ of error; presentation of statement to supreme court.	770.14	Rules of practice; court to adopt.
770.7	Writ of error; notice of court's decision.	770.15	Repeal.
770.8	Writ of error; admission to bail prior to court decision.

770.1 New trial; reasons for granting.

Sec. 1. The court in which the trial of any indictment shall be had may grant a new trial to the defendant, for any cause for which by law a new trial may be granted, or when it shall appear to the court that justice has not been done, and on such terms or conditions as the court shall direct.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17355;—CL 1948, 770.1. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 166, being CL 1857, 6062;—CL 1871, 7963;—How. 9576;—CL 1897, 11963;—CL 1915, 15836.

770.2 New trial; time of motion.

Sec. 2. Motions for new trials shall be made within 30 days after verdict, and not afterwards.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17356;—CL 1948, 770.2.

770.3 Writs of error; issuance.

Sec. 3. Writs of error in criminal cases shall issue only in the discretion of the supreme court or any justice thereof, on proper application therefor.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17357;—CL 1948, 770.3. This section supersedes part of Sec. 1 and Secs. 6 and 7 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 138, being CL 1857, 5332, 5337 and 5338;—CL 1871, 7119, 7124 and 7125;—How. 8678, 8683 and 8684;—CL 1897, 10484, 10489 and 10490;—CL 1915, 14587, 14588 and 14589, which, however, were not expressly repealed by this act. Sec. 1 refers to civil as well as criminal cases and since it has been superseded in respect to civil cases by Compilers' § 650.1 it would now seem to be superseded in entirety, and therefore Sec. 1 as well as Secs. 6 and 7 do not appear in the present compilation.

770.4 Writs of error; statement, time; notice of statement.

Sec. 4. Any person desiring to secure a writ of error under the provisions of this act shall, within 20 days after judgment, or within 10 days after denial of a motion for new trial, prepare a concise statement of what is involved in the case and the errors relied upon, and shall notice the same upon the prosecuting attorney for settlement before the trial judge, so that such statement may be amended, settled and signed by the trial judge within 30 days after judgment or denial of motion for a new trial.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17358;—CL 1948, 770.4. This section supersedes, with additions, Sec. 2 of Act 159 of 1917. See Sec. 2 of Ch. 166, R.S. 1846, being CL 1857, 6093;—CL 1871, 7964;—How. 9577;—Am. 1885, p. 77, Act 79, Eff. Sept. 19;—CL 1897, 11964;—CL 1915, 15837.

770.5 Writ of error; noticing and securing settlement, extension of time.

Sec. 5. The time for noticing and securing the settlement of such statement may, upon good cause shown, be extended by the trial court, upon proper application therefor and notice to the prosecuting attorney. The order granting such extension shall be returned to the supreme court together with the application for the writ of error.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17359;—CL 1948, 770.5.

CIVIL CASES: See Compilers' § 600.232 and GCR 806.

770.6 Writ of error; presentation of statement to supreme court.

Sec. 6. Such statement when settled and signed shall be presented to the supreme court or any justice thereof within 10 days after the same is so settled and signed, and shall be the basis of the application to the supreme court for a writ of error.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17360;—CL 1948, 770.6.

770.7 Writ of error; notice of court's decision.

Sec. 7. Notice of the decision of the supreme court on such application for a writ of error shall forthwith be transmitted by the clerk of the supreme court to the prosecuting attorney and to the attorney for the defendant.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17361;—CL 1948, 770.7.

770.8 Writ of error; admission to bail prior to court decision.

Sec. 8. During the time between judgment and the decision of the supreme court or any justice thereof on the application for a writ of error under this act, the trial judge may, in his discretion, admit the defendant to bail, if the offense charged is bailable.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17362;—CL 1948, 770.8. This section supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 159 of 1917.

770.9 Writ of error; admission to bail after granting application.

Sec. 9. Upon granting application for a writ of error the appellant may, in the discretion of the supreme court or any justice thereof, be admitted to bail, if the offense charged be bailable.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17363;—CL 1948, 770.9. This section supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 159 of 1917; and part of Sec. 8 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 135, being CL 1857, 5339;—CL 1871, 7126;—How. 8685;—CL 1897, 10491;—CL 1915, 14590, which, however, was not expressly repealed by this act. See Secs. 5-7 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 166, being CL 1857, 6066-6068;—CL 1871, 7967-7969;—How. 9580-9582;—CL 1897, 11967-11969;—CL 1915, 15840-15842.

BAIL: In case writ of error is taken by state, see Compilers' § 765.7.

770.10 Bill of exceptions; settlement, time and manner.

Sec. 10. Bills of exceptions in criminal cases shall be settled only within the time and in the manner hereinafter provided.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17364;—CL 1948, 770.10.

770.11 Bill of exception; time of settlement, extension.

Sec. 11. If the application for such writ of error is granted, the appellant shall have not less than 20 days thereafter in which to settle a bill of exceptions. Further time for settlement of a bill of exceptions may be granted by the trial judge in the same manner as is now provided in civil cases; such time, however, shall not exceed in all 3 months from the date of the order granting application for a writ of error by the supreme court: Provided, Upon proper application before expiration of the time and for good cause shown, the supreme court or any justice thereof may extend such time not to exceed 1 year from the date of judgment.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17365;—CL 1948, 770.11.

CIVIL CASES: See GCR 517.

770.12 Writ of error in criminal cases; right of prosecution.

Sec. 12. A writ of error may be taken by and on behalf of the people of the state of Michigan from any court of record in said state direct to the supreme court thereof, in all criminal cases, in the following instances, to wit:

(a) From a decision or judgment quashing or setting aside any indictment or information, or any count thereof, where such decision or judgment is based upon the invalidity or construction of the statute upon which such indictment or information is founded;

(b) From a decision arresting a judgment of conviction or directing a judgment of acquittal for insufficiency of the indictment, where such decision is based upon the invalidity or construction of the statute upon which such indictment or information is founded;

(c) From the decision or judgment sustaining a special plea in bar, when the defendant has not been put in jeopardy, or from any other order of the court relative to admission of evidence or proceedings had or made at any time before the defendant is put in jeopardy.

The right of the defendant to bail upon issuance of a writ of error under the provisions of this section shall be governed by the provisions of chapter 5 of this act.

NOTE: For the provisions of Ch. V. of this act, above referred to, see Compilers' § 765.7.

770.13 Writ of error in criminal cases; issuance, time and manner.

Sec. 13. Writs of error granted by the supreme court under the provisions of this act shall be issued after the settlement of the bill of exceptions, and in the same manner as is now provided in civil cases.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17367;—CL 1948, 770.13.

CIVIL CASES: See Compilers' § 800.232 and GCR 806.

770.14 Rules of practice; court to adopt.

Sec. 14. As soon as practicable after the passage of this act the supreme court shall adopt such rules of practice as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of said act.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17368;—CL 1948, 770.14.

770.15 Repeal.

Sec. 15. All acts and parts of acts relative to exceptions before sentence in criminal cases, and all other provisions of law inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, are hereby expressly repealed.

771.1 Probation; conditions precedent.

Sec. 1. In all prosecutions for crimes or misdemeanors, except murder, treason, and robbery while armed, where the defendant has been found guilty upon verdict or plea, and where it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant is not likely again to engage in an offensive or criminal course of conduct and that the public good does not require that the defendant shall suffer the penalty imposed by law, the court may place the defendant on probation under the charge and supervision of a probation officer. In any case in which the court may place the defendant on probation, it may delay the imposing of sentence of the defendant for a period of not to exceed 1 year for the purpose of giving the defendant an opportunity to prove to the court his eligibility for probation or such other leniency as may be compatible with the ends of justice and the rehabilitation of the defendant. When the sentencing is delayed, the court shall make an order setting forth the reason for the delay, which order shall be entered upon the records of the court. The delay in passing sentence shall not deprive the court of jurisdiction to sentence the defendant at any time during the extended period.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17371;—Am. 1931, p. 502, Act 308, Eff. Sep. 18;—Am. 1945, p. 7, Act 5, Eff. Sep. 6;—CL 1948, 771.1;—Am. 1961, p. 265, Act 185, Eff. Sep. 8.

This section as originally enacted superseded, with additions, Sec. 1 of Act 105 of 1913, being CL 1915, 2029.

771.2 Probation; period, order.

Sec. 2. If respondent is convicted of an offense not a felony the period of probation shall not exceed 2 years, and if he is convicted of a felony, it shall not exceed 5 years. The court shall by order, to be filed or entered in the cause as the court may direct by general rule or in each case fix and determine the period and conditions of probation and such order, whether it is filed or entered, shall be considered as part of the record in the cause and shall be at all times alterable and amendable, both in form and in substance, in the court's discretion.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17372;—CL 1948, 771.2. This section re-enacts Sec. 2 of Act 105 of 1913, being CL 1915, 2030;—As Am. 1925, p. 291, Act 203, Eff. Aug. 27.

771.3 Probation; conditions.

Sec. 3. The conditions of probation shall include the following:

Nonviolation of statute or ordinance.

(1) That the probationer shall not, during the term of his probation, violate any criminal law of the state of Michigan, or any ordinance of any municipality in said state;

Leaving of state.

(2) That he shall not, during the term of his probation, leave the state without the consent of the court granting his application for probation;

Report to probation officer.

(3) That he shall make a report to the probation officer, either in person or in writing, monthly, or as often as the latter may require.

Imprisonment in county jail; payment of fine.

As a condition of probation, the court may require the probationer to be imprisoned in the county jail or the house of correction for not more than 6 months, at such time or intervals, which may be consecutive or non-consecutive, within the probation period as the court in its discretion may determine, or that he shall pay immediately or within the period of his probation, a fine imposed at the time of being placed on probation, or both, in the discretion of the court; but the period of confinement shall not exceed the maximum period of imprisonment provided for the offense charged if such maximum period is less than 6 months.

Other conditions; restitution of injured party; costs.

The court may impose such other lawful conditions of probation, including restitution in whole or in part to the person or persons injured or defrauded, as the circumstances of the case may require or warrant, or as in its judgment may be meet and proper; and in case it requires the probationer to pay any costs it shall not be confined to or governed by the laws or rules governing the taxation of costs in ordinary criminal procedure, but may summarily tax and determine such costs without regard to the items ordinarily included in taxing costs in criminal cases and may include therein all such expenses, direct and indirect, as the public has been or may be put to in connection with the apprehension, examination, trial and probationary oversight of the probationer.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17373;—Am. 1931, p. 502, Act 308, Eff. Sept. 18;—CL 1948, 771.3;—Am. 1957, p. 78, Act 72, Eff. Sep. 27.

This section as originally enacted re-enacted Sec. 3 of Act 105 of 1913, being CL 1915, 2031;—As Am. 1925, p. 291, Act 203, Eff. Aug. 27, changing "of" to "in" before "said state" in (1).

771.3a Probation; convicted person under twenty-two; probation camp, admission, escape, violation of department rules; transportation expense.

Sec. 3a. Any person under the age of 22 years who shall be convicted of a crime in this state for which a sentence in the state prison may be imposed may be required, under and pursuant to a probation order of the court, to spend such part of the probation period, not exceeding 1 year, as the court may direct, in such probation camp as may be made available to the court by the department of corrections, provided that admission to such camp will be made with the prior consent of the department of corrections. The department shall have custody of the person of such probationer for such period as the court may direct. Any probationer fleeing the custody of the department may be pursued and recaptured as if he had been regularly committed to a penal institution and had escaped therefrom. A violation by the probationer of the rules and regulations of the department shall constitute sufficient grounds for the revocation by the court of its probation order in such case and for the sentencing of the probationer for the offense for which he was originally convicted and placed on probation. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to restrict or limit the jurisdiction of the court to place any such person on probation in any other facility suitable and available to the court. The expense of transporting any such probationer to and from the probation camp shall be borne by the county from which he was committed to the department of corrections.

HISTORY: Add. 1955, p. 224, Act 154, Imd. Eff. Jun. 7;—Am. 1958, p. 114, Act 106, Eff. Sep. 13.

771.4 Probation; revocation or termination; procedure; sentence.

Sec. 4. It is the intent of the legislature that the granting of probation to one convicted shall be a matter of grace conferring no vested right to its continuance, if, during the period of probation it shall appear to the satisfaction of the sentencing court that the probationer is likely again to engage in an offensive or criminal course of conduct, or that the public good requires revocation or termination of probation previously granted. All probation orders, therefore, shall be revocable or terminable in any manner which the court which imposed probation shall deem applicable, either for any violation, or attempted violation of any condition of probation, or for any other type of antisocial conduct or action on the part of the probationer which shall satisfy such court that revocation is proper in the public interest. Hearings on such revocation shall be summary and informal and not subject to the rules of evidence or of pleadings applicable in criminal trials. The court may, in its probation order or by general rule, provide for the apprehension, detention and confinement of any probationer accused of violation of any of the conditions of probation or of conduct inconsistent with the public good. The method of hearing and presentation of charges accorded shall lie entirely within the discretion of the court which granted probation: Provided however, That the probationer shall be entitled to a written copy of the charges against him which constitute the claim that he violated his probation, and shall be entitled to a hearing thereon. Said court is hereby empowered to make such investigation and such disposition of probationer thereafter as such court may determine shall best serve the interests of the public. In case such probation order is terminated or revoked the court may proceed to sentence such probationer in the same manner and to the same penalty as it might have done if such probation order had never been made.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17374;—Am. 1947, p. 375, Act 246, Imd. Eff. June 20;—CL 1948, 771.4. This section re-enacts Sec. 4 of Act 105 of 1913, being CL 1915, 2032;—As Am. 1925, p. 291, Act 203, Eff. Aug. 27, omitting words "in the" before third "hearing."

771.5 Probation; termination.

Sec. 5. Upon the termination of the probation period, the probation officer shall report the fact to the court and also the conduct of the probationer during the period of probation, and the court may thereupon discharge the probationer from further supervision and enter a judgment of suspended sentence, or extend the probation period, as the circumstances may require: Provided, That the maximum period *or probation herein limited shall not be exceeded.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17375;—CL 1948, 771.5. This section re-enacts Sec. 5 of Act 105 of 1913, being CL 1915, 2033, inserting word "may" before "require".

*NOTE: It is evident that the word "or" should be "of".

771.6 Probation; record of discharge.

Sec. 6. When a probationer is discharged upon the expiration of the probation period, or upon its earlier termination by order of the court, entry of the discharge shall be made in the records of the court, and the probationer shall be entitled to a certified copy thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17376;—CL 1948, 771.6. This section re-enacts Sec. 6 of Act 105 of 1913, being CL 1915, 2034.

771.7 Probation officers; appointment; duties; recommendation; compensation; term.

Sec. 7. The circuit court of each of the several judicial circuits may recommend a chief probation officer, may also recommend assistant probation officers who may be appointed by the Michigan corrections commission, each of whom shall act as such probation officer in the judicial circuit in which or the probation district to which he shall have been appointed, and who shall receive such compensation as the boards of supervisors of the several counties shall provide. In cities having a municipal court, recorder's court or police court, the judge or judges of said courts may recommend a chief probation officer and may also recommend assistant probation officers, each of whom may be appointed by the Michigan corrections commission, and shall act as such probation officer within the limits of the territorial jurisdiction of such courts, or in the probation district to which he shall have been appointed, and who shall receive such compensation as the board of supervisors of the several counties or the common councils of the several cities may provide. In cities where there are 2 or more courts each having different jurisdiction the judge of each court may recommend the probation officer or officers for his own court, and where there are 2 or more judges of any such court, they shall jointly recommend the probation officer or officers for their own court. In counties where the provisions of Act No. 370 of the Public Acts of 1941, as amended, being sections 38.401 to 38.427 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, are in force, the probation officers of the recorder's court and of the circuit court, after appointment, shall be subject to such rules as now apply or may be adopted respecting vacations and sick leave of classified employees; such probation officers shall neither be considered in the classified or unclassified civil service but shall be exempt from Act No. 370 of the Public Acts of 1941, as amended, being sections 38.401 to 38.427 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, except for the purposes of this act. In counties adopting the provisions of Act No. 370 of the Public Acts of 1941, as amended, being sections 38.401 to 38.427 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, each probation officer of the recorder's and of the circuit courts shall be credited with an accumulated sick leave reserve in the same manner as the classified employees of the county, based on the date of original appointment subsequent to December 1, 1937, if there is no break in service; probation officers with a break in service shall be credited with accumulated sick leave reserve from date of appointment following their last break in service. The term of office of probation officers presently serving or appointed in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be until removed for cause by the appointing judges after a hearing.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17377;—Am. 1937, p. 440, Act 256, Imd. Eff. July 22;—Am. 1939, p. 467, Act 252, Eff. Sept. 29;—CL 1948, 771.7;—Am. 1958, p. 93, Act 85, Eff. Sep. 13;—Am. 1959, p. 385, Act 252, Eff. Mar. 19, 1960;—Am. 1966, p. 380, Act 266, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

This section as originally enacted re-enacted Sec. 7 of Act 105 of 1913, being CL 1915, 2035;—As Am. 1921, p. 304, Act 143, Eff. Aug. 15;—As Am. 1925, p. 690, Act 362, Eff. Aug. 27, changing word "boards" to "board" before second "of supervisors."

771.8 Probation officers; notice of appointment.

Sec. 8. Notice of the appointment of any chief probation officer or of any assistant probation officer shall be given in writing to the court recommending such appointment within 30 days after such appointment shall be made.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17378;—Am. 1931, p. 502, Act 308, Eff. Sept. 18;—Am. 1937, p. 440, Act 256, Imd. Eff. July 22;—CL 1948, 771.8. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 8 of Act 105 of 1913, being CL 1915, 2036.

771.9 Probation officers; oath of office.

Sec. 9. Before entering upon the duties of his office, each probation officer shall take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office, which oath shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17379;—CL 1948, 771.9. This section re-enacts Sec. 9 of Act 105 of 1913, being CL 1915, 2037.

771.10 Probation officers; removal, certificate, hearing.

Sec. 10. The Michigan corrections commission shall have the power to remove such officer or officers for incompetency, misconduct or failure to carry out the orders of the court, or neglect of any duty. Such removal may be made upon the certification of the judge or judges of the court under whom such probation officer acts, which certificate shall set forth that a full hearing has been had before said judge or judges and as a result thereof the court has determined that such probation officer is incompetent or has been guilty of misconduct, neglect of duty or refusal to carry out the order of the court. The Michigan corrections commission shall remove such officer or officers appointed by it upon the recommendation of the judge or judges of courts of cities having a population in excess of 250,000 inhabitants upon, and only upon, the filing of such certificate above mentioned.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17380;—Am. 1931, p. 503, Act 308, Eff. Sept. 18;—Am. 1937, p. 440, Act 256, Imd. Eff. July 22;—Am. 1939, p. 468, Act 252, Eff. Sept. 29;—CL 1948, 771.10. This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 10 of Act 105 of 1913, being CL 1915, 2038;—As Am. 1921, p. 305, Act 143, Eff. Aug. 18.

771.11 Probation officers; eligibility to certain offices.

Sec. 11. Probation officers in counties having a population of more than 50,000 shall not be members of a regular police force, but may be deputy sheriffs or constables.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17381;—CL 1948, 771.11. This section re-enacts Sec. 11 of Act 105 of 1913, being CL 1915, 2039;—As Am. 1921, p. 305, Act 143, Eff. Aug. 18.

771.12 Probation officers; payment of salary and expenses; time, source, method.

Sec. 12. The salary and necessary expenses of the chief probation officer and each assistant probation officer shall be paid monthly out of the treasury or treasuries of the county or counties composing the circuit within which such probation officer or officers shall act, where provision has been made by the board of supervisors of such county or counties for their payment; if such probation officer is appointed by a criminal court of record of general jurisdiction of any city, out of the treasury of the county in which said city is located, where provision for their payment has been made by the board of supervisors of the county in which said city is located; if said probation officer is appointed by a municipal or police court, out of the treasury of the city in which such municipal or police court is located, where provision for payment has been made by the commission or common council of such city. Said salary and expense shall be paid by the city or county treasurer upon an order of the clerk of the court, properly audited by the officer or board of the city or county in whom the power or duty of auditing accounts is vested.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17382;—CL 1948, 771.12. This section supersedes Sec. 12 of Act 105 of 1913, being CL 1915, 2040.

771.13 Probation officers; acceptance of compensation or gratuity, misdemeanor.

Sec. 13. Any probation officer receiving compensation from any public funds under the provisions of this act, who shall receive any compensation, gift or gratuity whatever from any person under probation or from any person, firm or corporation for doing or refraining from doing any official act in any way connected with his work as probation officer, or in any way connected with any proceeding then pending or about to be instituted in any court with which said probation officer has to do, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished accordingly.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17383;—CL 1948, 771.13. This section re-enacts Sec. 13 of Act 105 of 1913, being CL 1915, 2041.

PENALTY: For punishment of a misdemeanor where no penalty is otherwise prescribed see Compilers' § 750.504.

771.14 Probation officers; investigation prior to sentence; report, copy filed with department.

Sec. 14. Before sentencing any person charged with a felony, and, if directed by the court, in any other case where any person is charged with a misdemeanor within the jurisdiction of the court, the probation officer shall inquire into the antecedents, character and circumstances of such person or persons, and shall report thereon in writing to such court or magistrate. If such person is committed to a state penal institution or the Detroit house of correction, a copy of such pre-sentence investigation report and if a psychopathic or psychiatric examination of such person has been made for the court, a copy of the report thereon shall accompany the commitment papers; also, if such person is sentenced by fine or imprisonment or placed on probation or other disposition of his case made by the court, 2 copies each of such pre-sentence investigation report, including any psychopathic or psychiatric examination report made in his case, shall be filed with the state department of corrections. Every probation officer shall preserve complete and accurate records of cases investigated by him and of all cases placed in his care by the court and of any other duties performed by him. He shall take charge of and watch over all persons placed on probation under such regulations as may be prescribed by the court and the assistant director of corrections in charge of probation, and shall give to such probationer full instructions as to the terms of his release upon probation.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17386;—Rep. 1931, p. 504, Act 308, Eff. Sept. 18. This section as originally enacted superseded part of Sec. 17 of Act 105 of 1913, being CL 1915, 2045.

This section provided for supervision of records and reports by commissioner of public welfare.

771.17 Effect of chapter on former act.

Sec. 17. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as limiting or repealing Act No. 6 of the Public Acts of the Extra Session of 1907, and amendments thereto.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17387;—CL 1948, 771.17. This section supersedes part of Sec. 17 of Act 105 of 1913, being CL 1915, 2045.

NOTE: Act 6 of 1907, Ex. Ses., above referred to, has been repealed and superseded by Compilers' § 712A.1 et seq.

771.18 Probation officers; supervision by assistant director; authority.

Sec. 18. The assistant director shall exercise general supervision over the work of the probation officers throughout the state, and shall have the power and authority to prescribe the form of all records and reports from probation officers; to require detailed reports from probation officers throughout the state; to examine and study or cause to be examined and studied the whole question of probation in Michigan and elsewhere; to provide for such organization and cooperation of the probation officers in the several courts as may seem advisable. The assistant director shall include in his printed reports a report of the probation work of the courts of the state for the period covered by such printed report.

This section provided for a probation council.

771.20 Probation officer; reports to assistant director; record.

Sec. 20. Every probation officer or the chief probation officer of a court having more than 1 probation officer, shall transmit to the assistant director, in such form and at such times as he shall require, detailed reports regarding the work of probation in the court; and the assistant director shall keep, for the information of the courts and probation officers, suitable record thereof. Police officials shall cooperate with the assistant director and the probation officers in obtaining and reporting information concerning persons on probation. The information so obtained and recorded shall be accessible at all times to the courts and officials of the courts and to all sheriffs, chiefs, or commissioners of police, and village marshals.

772.7	Discharged of accused; complainant, payment of cost.	772.15	Surrender of principal by surety; effect.
772.8	Payment of costs when no order made; bond to keep peace.

772.1 Preservation of public peace; laws, power to execute.

Sec. 1. The justices of the supreme court, the several circuit judges, judges of courts of record having jurisdiction of criminal causes, circuit court commissioners, all mayors and recorders of cities, and all justices of the peace, shall have power to cause all the laws made for the preservation of the public peace to be kept and in the execution of this power may require persons to give security to keep the peace in the manner provided in this chapter.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17388;—CL 1948, 772.1. This section supersedes, with additions, Sec. 1 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 162, being CL 1857, 5959;—As Am. 1858, p. 13, Act 4, Eff. May 6;—CL 1871, 7825;—How. 9435;—CL 1897, 11800;—CL 1915, 15627.

772.2 Complaints; examination.

Sec. 2. Whenever complaint shall be made in writing and on oath to any such magistrate that any person has threatened to commit any offense against the person or property of another, it shall be the duty of such magistrate to examine such complainant and any witnesses who may be produced, on oath, to reduce such examination to writing and to cause the same to be subscribed by the parties so examined.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17389;—CL 1948, 772.2. This section re-enacts Sec. 2 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 162, being CL 1857, 5960;—CL 1871, 7826;—How. 9436;—CL 1897, 11801;—CL 1915, 15628.

772.3 Warrant; issuance.

Sec. 3. If it shall appear from such examination, that there is just reason to fear the commission of any such offense, such magistrate shall issue a warrant under his hand, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, reciting the substance of the complaint and commanding him forthwith to apprehend the person so complained of, and bring him before such magistrate.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17390;—CL 1948, 772.3. This section re-enacts Sec. 3 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 162, being CL 1857, 5961;—CL 1871, 7827;—How. 9437;—CL 1897, 11802;—CL 1915, 15629.

772.4 Trial; recognizance to keep peace.

Sec. 4. When the party complained of is brought before the magistrate, he may demand that the truth of the accusation shall be determined either by a trial before such magistrate, or a jury; and the trial thereof, and the selection of a jury shall be as in criminal cases, which justices of the peace are authorized to try; and if the magistrate or jury upon such trial shall find the accused guilty, the magistrate may require the accused to enter into a recognizance, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by such magistrate, in such sum as he shall direct, to keep the peace towards all the people of this state, and especially towards the person requiring such sureties, for such term as he may order not exceeding 2 years; and it shall be competent for the magistrate or the jury to find and return a special verdict that the complaint and accusation are groundless or malicious, and if they shall so find, it shall be the duty of the magistrate to enter such finding or verdict upon his docket.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17391;—CL 1948, 772.4. This section supersedes part of Sec. 4 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 162, being CL 1857, 5962.—As Am. 1867, p. 20, Act 17, Eff. June 27;—CL 1871, 7828;—How. 9438;—CL 1897, 11803;—CL 1915, 15630.

CONDUCT OF TRIAL: For the selection of a jury and other trial procedure "in criminal cases which justices of the peace are authorized to try," see Compilers' § 774.1 et seq.

772.5 Compliance with order of magistrate; discharge of accused.

Sec. 5. Upon complying with the order of the magistrate, the party complained of shall be discharged.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17392;—CL 1948, 772.5. This section re-enacts Sec. 5 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 162, being CL 1857, 5963;—CL 1871, 7829;—How. 9439;—CL 1897, 11804;—CL 1915, 15631.

772.6 Non-compliance with order of magistrate; commitment of accused.

Sec. 6. If the person so ordered to recognize shall refuse or neglect to comply with such order, the magistrate shall commit him to the county jail during the period for which he was required to give security, or until he shall so recognize, stating in the warrant the cause of commitment with the sum and the time for which such security was required.

772.7 Discharged of accused; complainant, payment of cost.

Sec. 7. If upon examination it shall not appear that there is just cause to fear that any such offense will be committed by the party complained of, he shall forthwith be discharged; and if the magistrate shall deem the complaint unfounded, frivolous or malicious, he shall order the complainant to pay the costs of the prosecution, who shall thereupon be answerable to the magistrate and the officers for their fees, as for his own debt, and execution may issue therefor.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17394;—CL 1948, 772.7. This section re-enacts, with additions, Sec. 7 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 162, being CL 1857, 5965;—CL 1871, 7831;—How. 9441;—CL 1897, 11806;—CL 1915, 15633; and supersedes part of Sec. 4 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 162, being CL 1857, 5962;—As Am. 1867, p. 20, Act 17, Eff. June 27;—CL 1871, 7828;—How. 9438;—CL 1897, 11803;—CL 1915, 15630.

772.8 Payment of costs when no order made; bond to keep peace.

Sec. 8. When no order respecting the costs is made by the magistrate, they shall be allowed and paid in the same manner as costs before justices in criminal prosecutions; but in all cases where a person is required to give security to keep the peace, the court or magistrate may further order that the costs of prosecution, or any part thereof, shall be paid by such person, who shall stand committed until such costs are paid or he is otherwise legally discharged.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17395;—CL 1948, 772.8. This section re-enacts Sec. 8 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 162, being CL 1857, 5966;—CL 1871, 7832;—How. 9442;—CL 1897, 11807;—CL 1915, 15634.

772.9 Appeal to circuit court; right.

Sec. 9. Any person aggrieved by the order of any justice of the peace, requiring him to recognize as aforesaid may, on giving the recognizance to keep the peace required by such order, appeal to the circuit court for the same county.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17396;—CL 1948, 772.9. This section re-enacts Sec. 9 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 162, being CL 1857, 5967;—CL 1871, 7833;—How. 9443;—CL 1897, 11808;—CL 1915, 15635.

772.10 Appeal to circuit court; disposal of case.

Sec. 10. The court before which such appeal is prosecuted may affirm the order of the justice or discharge the appellant or may require the appellant to enter into a new recognizance with sufficient sureties, in such sum and for such time, not exceeding 2 years, as the court shall think proper and may also make such order in relation to the costs of the prosecution as may be deemed just.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17397;—CL 1948, 772.10. This section supersedes Sec. 11 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 162, being CL 1857, 5969;—CL 1871, 7835;—How. 9445;—CL 1897, 11809;—CL 1915, 15636.

772.11 Appeal to circuit court; effect of failure to prosecute.

Sec. 11. If any party appealing shall fail to prosecute his appeal, his recognizance shall remain in full force and effect, as to any breach of the condition, without an affirmation of the judgment or order of the justice, and shall also stand as a security for any costs which shall be ordered by the court appealed to, to be paid by the appellant, a condition to that effect to be incorporated in all recognizances given under section 8 of this chapter.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17396;—CL 1948, 772.11. This section re-enacts, with additions, Sec. 12 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 162, being CL 1857, 5970;—CL 1871, 7836;—How. 9446;—CL 1897, 11810;—CL 1915, 15637.

772.12 Discharge of person committed upon giving recognizance.

Sec. 12. Any person committed for not finding sureties, or refusing to recognize, as required by the court or magistrate, may be discharged by any judge, circuit court commissioner or justice of the peace on giving such security as was required.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17399;—CL 1948, 772.12. This section re-enacts Sec. 13 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 162, being CL 1857, 5971;—CL 1871, 7837;—How. 9447;—CL 1897, 11811;—CL 1915, 15638.

772.13 Recognizance; transmission to circuit court clerk, filing.

Sec. 13. Every recognizance taken pursuant to the foregoing provisions, shall be transmitted by the magistrate to the clerk of the circuit court for the county, within 20 days after the taking thereof, and shall be filed by such clerk.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17400;—CL 1948, 772.13. This section re-enacts part of Sec. 14 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 162, being CL 1857, 5972;—CL 1871, 7838;—How. 9448;—CL 1897, 11812;—CL 1915, 15639.

772.14 Remission of part of penalty.

Sec. 14. Whenever upon a suit brought on any recognizance entered into in pursuance of this chapter, the penalty thereof shall be adjudged forfeited, the court may remit such portion of the penalty on the petition of any defendant, as the circumstances of the case shall render just and reasonable.

772.15 Surrender of principal by surety; effect.

Sec. 15. Any surety in a recognizance to keep the peace, shall have the same authority and right to take and surrender his principal as in other criminal cases, and upon such surrender shall be discharged and exempt from all liability for any act of the principal subsequent to such surrender (except as to costs on any appeal taken by the principal in the recognizance) which would be a breach of the condition of the recognizance; and the person so surrendered may recognize anew, with sufficient sureties, before any justice of the peace or circuit court commissioner for the residue of the term, and shall thereupon be discharged.

		773.23	Effect on prior acts.

773.1 Inquest by justice of the peace; certain death cases.

Sec. 1. Justices of the peace shall, subject to the provisions of this chapter, take inquests upon the view of the dead bodies of such persons as shall have come to their death suddenly, or by violence, and of such persons as shall have died in prison.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17403;—CL 1948, 773.1. This section re-enacts Sec. 1 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 167, being CL 1857, 6099;—CL 1871, 7970;—How. 9583;—As Am. 1885, p. 44, Act 48, Eff. Sept. 19;—CL 1897, 11818;—CL 1915, 15645.

773.2 Inquest by justice of the peace; petition and summons for jury.

Sec. 2. As soon as any justice of the peace shall have notice of the dead body of any person found or lying within the county, who is supposed to have come to his death in any manner described in the preceding section and the petition of not less than 5 citizens, none of whom shall be a constable or deputy sheriff of the township, city or village, in which the dead body may be lying, shall have been filed with said justice praying that an inquest be had in such case or on the written request of the prosecuting attorney of the county or the attorney general, he shall forthwith summon 6 good and lawful men, electors of the county to appear before him, at such place as he shall appoint within said county.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17404;—CL 1948, 773.2. This section supersedes Sec. 2 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 167, being CL 1857, 6090;—CL 1871, 7971;—How. 9584;—As Am. 1885, p. 44, Act 48, Eff. Sept. 19;—CL 1897, 11819;—CL 1915, 15646.

773.3 Inquest by justice of the peace; jurors, oath.

Sec. 3. When the jurors thus summoned have appeared, the justice of the peace shall call over their names and there, in view of the dead body, shall administer to them an oath or affirmation in substance as follows: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm as the case may be), that you will diligently inquire in behalf of the people of this state, when, in what manner and by what means, the person whose body lies here dead, came to his death and that you will make a true inquest thereof according to your knowledge and such evidence as shall be laid before you."

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17405;—CL 1948, 773.3. This section re-enacts Sec. 3 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 167, being CL 1857, 6091;—CL 1871, 7972;—How. 9585;—As Am. 1885, p. 45, Act 48, Eff. Sept. 19;—CL 1897, 11820;—CL 1915, 15647.

773.4 Inquest by justice of the peace; issuance of subpoena for witness or surgeon; chemist employed, compensation.

Sec. 4. The justice of the peace may issue subpoenas for witnesses returnable forthwith or at such time and place as he shall therein direct; and the attendance of the persons served with such subpoenas may be enforced in the same manner and they shall be subject to the same penalties as if they had been served with a subpoena in behalf of the people of this state, to attend a justice's court: Provided, That in all such cases it shall be lawful for the magistrate holding any such inquest, to require by subpoena the attendance of a competent physician or surgeon for the purpose of making a post-mortem examination and of testifying as to the result of the same; and he may also employ a chemist in cases affording reasonable ground of suspicion that death has been produced by poison and the amount of compensation for the attendance and services of such physician, surgeon or chemist shall be audited and allowed by the board of supervisors of the proper county, or board of county auditors in counties having such board.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17406;—CL 1948, 773.4. This section supersedes, with additions, Sec. 4 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 167, being CL 1857, 6092;—CL 1871, 7973;—How. 9586;—CL 1897, 11821;—CL 1915, 15648.

773.5 Inquest by justice of the peace; witnesses, oath.

Sec. 5. An oath or affirmation to the following effect shall be administered to each witness by the justice of the peace: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the evidence you shall give at this inquest, concerning the death of the person here lying dead, shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth."

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17407;—CL 1948, 773.5. This section re-enacts Sec. 5 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 167, being CL 1857, 6093;—CL 1871, 7974;—How. 9587;—CL 1897, 11822;—CL 1915, 15649.

773.6 Inquest by justice of the peace; supposed murder or manslaughter cases, reduction of testimony in writing.

Sec. 6. In all cases where any murder or manslaughter is supposed to have been committed, the testimony of all witnesses examined before the inquest, shall be reduced to writing by the justice of the peace, or some other person by his direction and subscribed by the witnesses.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17408;—CL 1948, 773.6. This section re-enacts Sec. 6 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 167, being CL 1857, 6094;—CL 1871, 7975;—How. 9588;—CL 1897, 11823;—CL 1915, 15650.

773.7 Inquest by justice of the peace; inquisition of jury; certificate, contents.

Sec. 7. The jury, upon the inspection of the dead body, and after hearing the testimony of the witnesses and making all needful inquiries, shall draw up and deliver to the justice of the peace their inquisition under their hands, in which they shall find and certify when, in what manner and by what means the deceased came to his death, and his name, if known, together with all the material circumstances attending his death; and if it appear that he came to his death by unlawful means, the jurors shall forthwith state who if known was guilty, either as principal or accessory, or was in any manner the cause of his death.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17409;—CL 1948, 773.7. This section re-enacts Sec. 7 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 167, being CL 1857, 6095;—CL 1871, 7976;—How. 9589;—CL 1897, 11824;—CL 1915, 15651, changing position of "if known" inserting same after word "who", changing "were" to "was".

773.8 Inquest by justice of the peace; form of inquisition.

Sec. 8. Such inquisition to be called a coroner's inquest, may be in substance in the following form:

County of, ss.

An inquisition taken at, in said county, on the day of, before, one of the justices of the peace of the said county, upon the view of the body of (or a person), there lying dead, by the oaths of the jurors whose names are hereto subscribed, who being sworn to inquire on behalf of the people of this state, when, in what manner and by what means the said (or person) came to his death, upon their oaths, say (then insert when, where, in what manner, and by what means, persons, weapons or instruments he was killed or came to his death.) In testimony whereof the said justice of the peace and the jurors of this inquest, have hereunto set their hands the day and year aforesaid.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17410;—CL 1948, 773.8. This section re-enacts Sec. 8 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 167, being CL 1857, 6096;—CL 1871, 7977;—How. 9590;—CL 1897, 11825;—CL 1915, 15652, omitting word "do" before "say".

773.9 Inquest by justice of the peace; written evidence and examination returned to circuit court, certain cases.

Sec. 9. If the jury find that any murder, manslaughter or assault had been committed upon the deceased, the justice of the peace shall forthwith return to the circuit court of said county the inquisition, written evidence and examinations by him taken.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17411;—CL 1948, 773.9. This section supersedes part of Sec. 9 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 167, being CL 1857, 6097;—CL 1871, 7978;—How. 9591;—CL 1897, 11826;—CL 1915, 15653.

773.10 Inquest by justice of the peace; issuance of warrant for accused.

Sec. 10. If any person charged by the inquest with having committed any such offense shall not be in custody, the justice of the peace shall have power to issue process for his apprehension, and such warrant shall be made returnable before him or any other magistrate or court having cognizance of the case, who shall proceed thereon in the manner that is required of magistrates in like cases.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17412;—CL 1948, 773.10. This section re-enacts Sec. 10 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 167, being CL 1857, 6098;—CL 1871, 7979;—How. 9592;—CL 1897, 11827;—CL 1915, 15654.

773.11 Inquest by justice of the peace; disposal of body, expenses and fees.

Sec. 11. When any justice of the peace shall take an inquest upon the dead body of a stranger, or being called for that purpose shall not think it necessary on view of such body that an inquest should be taken, he shall then notify the county department of social welfare, who shall cause the body to be decently buried as that of an indigent person. All other expenses and fees shall be paid from the general fund of the county in which the inquisition was taken. When an inquest is held on the body of any person who dies in any prison or public reformatory of this state, the expense of such inquest shall be audited and paid by the institution, as other charges against the institution are audited and paid.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17413;—CL 1948, 773.11;—Am. 1965, p. 602, Act 315, Eff. Mar. 31, 1966.

This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 11 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 163, being CL 1857, 1691;—CL 1871, 7980;—How. 9593;—as Am. 1885, p. 105, Act 103, Eff. Sep. 19;—CL 1897, 11828;—CL 1915, 15655.

773.12 Inquest by coroner; powers.

Sec. 12. Any coroner shall have power to hold inquests anywhere within the county for which he shall be elected, and all provisions of law relating to the holding of inquests and the disinterment of dead bodies for the purpose of holding inquests thereon by justices of the peace, are hereby made applicable to inquests so held by coroners; and all powers by the general laws of this state conferred upon justices of the peace relative to such inquests are hereby conferred upon such coroners. All powers conferred upon peace officers by the general laws of this state are hereby conferred upon such coroners.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17414;—CL 1948, 773.12. This section re-enacts Act 139 of 1881, being How. 9597;—CL 1897, 11832;—CL 1915, 15659, omitting first word, "that", adding last sentence; and supersedes, with additions, Sec. 2 of Act 88 of 1861, being CL 1871, 7982;—How. 9595;—CL 1897, 11830;—CL 1915, 15657.

773.13 Inquest by coroner; surgeon, chemist; employment, compensation.

Sec. 13. Any coroner or justice of the peace holding such inquest, shall have power to summon the attendance of a competent surgeon, whenever he shall deem such attendance necessary, and a chemist may be employed in cases affording reasonable ground of suspicion that death has been produced by poison. Any chemist or surgeon so employed shall, upon the certificate of the coroner acting in the case, receive such compensation for his or their services as shall be allowed by the county auditors of counties having a board of auditors or the supervisors of other counties, as is otherwise provided by law.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17415;—CL 1948, 773.13. This section supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 88 of 1861, being CL 1871, 7983;—How. 9596;—CL 1897, 11831;—CL 1915, 15658.

773.14 Inquest in incorporated city; coroner's jury.

Sec. 14. It shall not be competent for justices of the peace, within the incorporated cities of this state in which a county coroner resides, to hold inquests on the view of dead bodies unless both of the coroners of the county in which they are situate shall be absent, or incapacitated to act from illness or otherwise; but such inquests, within said city, shall be held by one of the coroners elected for the county in which such cities are severally situate, whenever in the judgment of such coroner, an inquest shall be necessary and that the coroners' juries shall consist of 6 persons only.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17416;—CL 1948, 773.14. This section re-enacts Sec. 1 of Act 88 of 1861, being CL 1871, 7981;—How. 9594;—CL 1897, 11829;—CL 1915, 15656, omitting first word "that".

773.15 Inquest by justice of the peace; body once buried; complaint, examination, disinterment, subsequent procedure.

Sec. 15. Whenever complaint in writing and upon oath shall be made to any justice of the peace that any person has died and that such person was buried in the county where such justice resides, and specifying in what township or city said person was buried, and containing a further statement that the complainant knows or has good reason to believe that the said deceased person came to his or her death by means of poison or violence, or in consequence of any criminal act committed by any person known or unknown, it shall be the duty of such justice to examine the complainant and such witnesses as may be produced by him on oath and reduce the same to writing and if such justice shall be satisfied from such examination that there is just cause to believe that the deceased person named or described in such complaint came to his or her death by means of poison or violence, or in consequence of any criminal act, and that a post-mortem examination of the body of such deceased person is necessary or will materially aid in the prosecution of any person charged or who may be charged with any criminal act resulting in the death of such deceased person, it shall be the duty of such justice of the peace to issue an order under his hand, directed to the sheriff of the county, commanding such sheriff, in the name of the people of the state of Michigan, forthwith to proceed with his undersheriff, or 1 of his deputies, to the place where such body was buried, and to disinter and remove the body to some suitable and convenient place in the township or city where such body was buried for the purpose of holding an inquest over the same; and said justice shall also proceed at once to summon a jury of inquest in the same manner as is in this act provided and as soon as the sheriff shall have removed such body to a suitable place as above provided, the justice as well as the jury so summoned, shall proceed in the same manner and shall have and exercise the same powers and duties as prescribed in this act.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17417;—CL 1948, 773.15. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 57 of 1873, being How. 9598;—CL 1897, 11833;—CL 1915, 15660, omitting first word "that".

773.16 Inquest by justice of the peace; body once buried; reinterment.

Sec. 16. As soon as the inquest shall have been completed, as provided for in the preceding section, the sheriff shall at once cause the body of the deceased person to be reinterred in the same place from whence he removed the same.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17418;—CL 1948, 773.16. This section re-enacts Sec. 2 of Act 57 of 1873, being How. 9599;—CL 1897, 11834;—CL 1915, 15661.

773.17 Property of value found on unknown decedent; delivery to county clerk.

Sec. 17. Whenever any money or valuable property shall be found upon the body of an unknown deceased person within this state, it shall be the duty of the coroner or justice holding the inquest over said body, or of any person who shall come into possession of said money or valuable property, to deliver all of said money or valuable property so found to the county clerk of the county where said body shall be found or be at the time of death, within 10 days after said money or property shall have come into his possession.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17419;—CL 1948, 773.17. This section re-enacts Sec. 1 of Act 84 of 1883, being How. 9599a;—CL 1897, 11835;—CL 1915, 15662, omitting first word, "that", changing word "his" to "their" before "possession".

UNCLAIMED PROPERTY: Disposition of unclaimed property in certain cases, see Compilers' § 434.101 et seq. Disposition of escheated estates, see Compilers' § 567.11 et seq.

773.18 Property of value found on unknown decedent; deposit with county treasurer; ultimate disposition, time.

Sec. 18. It shall be the duty of said county clerk to deposit the same with the county treasurer, who shall safely keep said money or property for the period of 2 years from the time of receiving the same, unless the same shall be called for by the heirs or proper representatives of the deceased person, in which case the said money or valuable property shall be delivered to them, but if at the expiration of said 2 years no demand for the same shall have been made, said county treasurer shall sell the same in such manner and after such notice as is required by law for constable sales, and shall within 10 days thereafter pay into the state treasury all the proceeds to be credited to the general fund of the state.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17420;—CL 1948, 773.18. This section supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 84 of 1883, being How. 9599b;—CL 1897, 11836;—CL 1915, 15663.

ESCHEATS: For provisions relative to disposition of escheated estates in general, see Act 238 of 1897, being Compilers' § 567.11 et seq.

773.19 Certain kinds of deaths; notice to coroner, right to remove body.

Sec. 19. It shall be the duty of any physician and of any person in charge of any hospital or institution, or of any person who shall have first knowledge of the death of any person who shall have died suddenly, accidentally, violently or as the result of any suspicious circumstances or without medical attendance up to and including at least 36 hours prior to the hour of death, or in any case of death due to what is commonly known as an abortion, whether self-induced or otherwise, to immediately notify the coroner of the death. It shall be unlawful for any undertaker, embalmer or other person to remove any body from the place where such death occurred, or to prepare same for burial or shipment, without first notifying the coroner and receiving permission to remove the body.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17421;—CL 1948, 773.19. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 248 of 1921.

DEATH WITHOUT MEDICAL ATTENDANCE: As to notice, see Compilers' § 328.8.

773.20 Property found on decedent; delivery to coroner, record, disposal.

Sec. 20. All moneys or effects that shall be upon the person of the deceased at the time of death or prior to the death, shall be turned over to the coroner whose duty it shall be to make a record of the sums and a listing of other effects in the property book and retain the same in the coroner's office until the coroner shall be able to deliver such property and effects to the personal representatives of the deceased or dispose of the same as otherwise provided by law.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17422;—CL 1948, 773.20. This section re-enacts Sec. 2 of Act 248 of 1921, omitting word "either" after first "deceased".

ESCHEATS: For provisions relative to disposition of escheated estates in general, see Act 238 of 1897, being Compilers' § 567.11 et seq.

773.21 Coroner's inquest upon order of prosecutor; jury.

Sec. 21. Where, in the discretion of the prosecuting attorney, an inquest is deemed necessary, the coroner upon the written order of the prosecuting attorney, shall summon 6 men all of whom shall be citizens of the United States, residents of the county, and shall administer the oath as provided for by this chapter except that the jurors need not view the body of the deceased.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17423;—CL 1948, 773.21. This section supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 248 of 1921.

773.22 Violation of chapter; misdemeanor, penalty.

Sec. 22. Any persons who shall fail to comply with the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not to exceed 100 dollars or to be imprisoned in the county jail for a period not to exceed 90 days or both.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17424;—CL 1948, 773.22. This section supersedes Sec. 3 of Act 84 of 1883, being How. 9599c;—CL 1897, 11837;—CL 1915, 15664; and re-enacts Sec. 6 of Act 248 of 1921, changing word "act" to "chapter", "sixty" to "ninety" before "days".

773.23 Effect on prior acts.

Sec. 23. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal any of the provisions of Act 345 of the Public Acts of 1919, or any acts amendatory or supplementary thereto.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17425;—CL 1948, 773.23.

NOTE: Act 345 of 1919, above referred to, is Compilers' § 52.111 et seq.

774.1 Justice of the peace; powers, jurisdiction; effect of excessive penalty.

Sec. 1. Any justice of the peace shall have power to hold a court subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, to hear and determine charges for all offenses arising within his county punishable by fine not exceeding $100.00, or punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding 3 months, or punishable by both said fine and imprisonment; and any justice of the peace is empowered and authorized to perform all official acts and duties and to exercise jurisdiction in criminal causes in any township or city situate in the county within which the justice of the peace was elected and qualified, with the same rights and powers as though performed and exercised within the city or township in which such justice of the peace was elected and qualified: Provided, That whenever in any criminal case, tried before any justice of the peace, the defendant shall be adjudged guilty and punishment by fine or imprisonment shall be imposed in excess of that allowed by law, the judgment shall not for that reason alone be adjudged altogether void nor be wholly reversed and annulled, but the same shall be valid and effectual to the extent of the lawful penalty and shall be reversed and annulled only in respect to the unlawful excess: Provided further, That for all offenses arising under the provisions of section 724 of Act No. 300 of the Public Acts of 1949, as amended, being section 257.724 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, any justice of the peace shall have power to impose the several fines therein provided.

HISTORY: Am. 1929, p. 53, Act 24, Imd. Eff. April 2;—CL 1929, 17426;—CL 1948, 774.1;—Am. 1952, p. 15, Act 14, Imd. Eff. Feb. 25.

This section as originally enacted superseded with additions, part of Sec. 1 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 94, being CL 1857, 3924;—CL 1871, 5525—How. 7092;—CL 1897, 1019;—As Am. 1899, p. 295, Act 189, Eff. Sept. 23;—CL 1915, 15769; and re-enacted, in part, Sec. 1 of Act 124 of 1925.

774.2 Docket entry; contents.

Sec. 2. (1) Every justice of the peace shall keep a loose-leaf docket made up of printed docket sheets numbered consecutively by the printer, in which he shall enter all completed criminal cases, which shall contain the following information:

- (a) Name and address of the defendant.
- (b) Operator or chauffeur license and vehicle registration or vessel number, if available for motor vehicle or vessel violations.
- (c) Date and place of offense, and offense.
- (d) Date of complaint and name of complainant.
- (e) Date and warrant returned and by whom, or if voluntary appearance, the date of said voluntary appearance.
- (f) Plea of defendant.
- (g) If trial, the date, and whether or not by court or jury, and the verdict.
- (h) Sentence of the court and the date thereof.
- (i) Date of all adjournments and the date adjourned to.
- (j) Name of prosecuting attorney or his assistant, and name of attorney who appeared for the defendant in the case, if any.
- (k) Names of witnesses sworn for the people and the defendant.
- (l) If jury, the names of the jurors.
- (m) Date of appeal and date return was made in circuit court, if any.

Copies, filing.

(2) Dockets shall be in such form that exact carbon copies can be made, and a true copy of the docket shall be filed on or before the last day of the month following the month in which the case was completed, with each of the following:

- (a) The prosecuting attorney of the county.
- (b) The board of auditors, or the board of supervisors of the county if no board of auditors exists.
- (c) The secretary of state and the county clerk for all motor vehicle or traffic cases involving moving violations and the director of the department of conservation for all violations involving a vessel. The county clerk, secretary of state and the director of the department of conservation shall receive only copies of dockets where the defendant was convicted. The copy filed with the county clerk shall be a certificate of conviction, and the copy filed with the secretary of state or the director of the department of conservation shall be an abstract of court and record of conviction. The copy for the secretary of state or the director of the department of conservation need contain only the information required by the secretary of state or the director of the department of conservation and the form shall be approved by the secretary of state except that in cases of violations involving a vessel the form shall be approved by the director of the department of conservation.

Examination, probable cause.

(3) The copies of the docket shall be filed in all cases regardless of the disposition of the case. If examination is held by the justice instead of a trial, the docket shall also contain information pertaining to whether or not probable cause was determined by the justice and the date the return on examination was filed in circuit court. The justice of the peace may enter any other information in the docket that he deems necessary.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17427;—CL 1948, 774.2;—Am. 1957, p. 367, Act 274, Eff. Sep. 27;—Am. 1965, p. 612, Act 324, Eff. Mar. 31, 1966;—Am. 1967, p. 588, Act 287, Imd. Eff. Aug. 1.

This section as originally enacted re-enacted Sec. 1 of Act 212 of 1879, being How. 7134;—CL 1897, 1059;—CL 1915, 15809, omitting first word, "that", changing "him" to "them" after "before".

774.2a Docket; binders, index.

Sec. 2a. (1) A suitable cover or binder shall be used to preserve the docket sheets, which shall not exceed 1,000 loose leaf docket sheets for each cover or binder.

(2) An alphabetical index containing the names of all defendants and the number of each case as it appears in the docket shall be maintained by each justice of the peace.

(3) All forms and dockets necessary for the operation of the justice of the peace courts shall be furnished by the county without charge to the justice.

HISTORY: Add. 1957, p. 368, Act 274, Eff. Sep. 27.

774.2b Criminal cases; file, contents.

Sec. 2b. Every justice of the peace shall have a file for each criminal case. The file shall be in a suitable envelope, jacket or folder, and shall contain the complaint, the warrant when returned, and any other papers filed in the case.

HISTORY: Add. 1957, p. 368, Act 274, Eff. Sep. 27.

774.3 Dockets, files, indexes; public records, inspection, time; delivery of completed dockets, destruction of files.

Sec. 3. The dockets, files and indexes shall be public records and subject to inspection and examination during court hours. When a justice of the peace does not maintain regular hours or where the hours are less than 4 hours during the day, the dockets, files and indexes shall be available for inspection and examination for at least 4 hours each day, Monday through Friday, except legal holidays. Completed dockets shall be delivered to the county clerk along with the indexes when the justice deems it advisable, but not before 1 year and not later than 4 years from the date of the last case in the docket. Files may be destroyed by the justice of the peace when he deems it advisable any time after 6 years from the date the case was completed.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17428;—CL 1948, 774.3;—Am. 1957, p. 368, Act 274, Eff. Sep. 27.

This section as originally enacted re-enacted Sec. 2 of Act 212 of 1879, being How. 7135;—CL 1897, 1060;—CL 1915, 15610.

774.4 Complaint; authority of clerk; warrant, issuance, request.

Sec. 4. Upon complaint made to any justice of the peace, by any constable or other person that any offense cognizable by a justice of the peace has been committed within the county, he shall examine the complainant on oath and witnesses produced by him. He shall reduce the complaint to writing and cause the same to be subscribed by the complainant, and if it shall appear that such offense has been committed, the justice shall issue his warrant reciting the substance of the complaint, and requiring the officer to whom it is directed forthwith to arrest the accused and bring him before such justice or some other justice of the same county, to be dealt with according to law. In the same warrant he may require the officer to summon such witnesses as shall be named therein, to appear and give evidence at the trial. Any justice of the peace who is by law provided with a clerk may issue warrants for offenses cognizable by the justice based upon a complaint taken and signed before the clerk or any deputy clerk of the court. A clerk or deputy clerk has the same power and authority to take complaints for offenses cognizable by the justice as is possessed by such justice, and upon such a complaint being presented to the justice he may in his discretion take the testimony of other witnesses or further testimony of the complaining witness; and the procedure thereafter shall be the same as in other cases.

A justice of the peace shall not issue warrants in criminal cases except where warrants are requested by (a) a sheriff or his deputy, a village marshal, an officer of the police department of an incorporated city or village or an officer of the Michigan state police for traffic or motor vehicle violations, or (b) agents of the state highway department, a county road commission or of the public service commission for violations of Act No. 300 of the Public Acts of 1949, as amended, being sections 257.1 to 257.923 of the Compiled Laws of 1948; Act No. 254 of the Public Acts of 1933, as amended, being sections 475.1 to 479.20 of the Compiled Laws of 1948; or Act No. 181 of the Public Acts of 1963, being sections 480.11 to 480.19 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, the enforcement of which has been delegated to them, until an order in writing allowing the same is filed with such justice and signed by the prosecuting attorney of the county or unless security for costs shall have been filed with the justice.

774.5 Charge read to accused; arraignment; entry of plea.

Sec. 5. The charge made against the accused, as stated in the warrant of arrest, shall be distinctly read to him at the time of his arraignment and he shall be required to plead thereto, which plea the court shall enter in its minutes; if the accused refuse to plead, the court shall enter the fact with a plea of not guilty in behalf of such accused in its minutes.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17430;—CL 1948, 774.5. This section re-enacts Sec. 5 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 94, being CL 1857, 3928;—CL 1871, 5529;—How. 7096;—CL 1897, 1023;—CL 1915, 15773, inserting "at the time of his arraignment" after "him".

774.6 Plea of not guilty; waiver of jury; trial.

Sec. 6. If the plea of the accused be not guilty, and he waive trial by jury the said court shall proceed to try such issue and to determine the same according to the evidence which may be produced against and in behalf of such accused.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17431;—CL 1948, 774.6. This section supersedes Sec. 7 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 94, being CL 1857, 3929;—CL 1871, 5530;—How. 7097;—CL 1897, 1024;—CL 1915, 15774.

WAIVER OF JURY: For a grant of this right even in cases not cognizable by a justice of the peace, see Compilers' § 763.3.

774.7 Plea of guilty; judgment rendered.

Sec. 7. If the accused shall plead guilty to such charge the court shall thereupon render judgment thereon.

774.8 Plea of not guilty; trial; time, continuance.

Sec. 8. On the return of the warrant with the accused, if he shall plead not guilty or refuse to plead to the charge in the warrant, the said justice shall proceed to hear, try and determine the cause within 10 days after the return of the same, unless the absence of witnesses from the county without the fault or connivance of the party seeking such continuance shall render such continuance necessary, or unless the sickness of witnesses or of the accused shall render a continuance of such cause necessary; in which case it shall and may be competent for the justice to adjourn or continue the same for such time as may be necessary to secure the ends of justice: Provided, That in case of the absence of witnesses the party seeking to obtain a continuance for that cause shall further show to the satisfaction of the court that he has used due diligence to obtain the testimony of such witness. Such showing shall be the same as is required in civil cases.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17433;—CL 1948, 774.8. This section supersedes, with additions, Sec. 3 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 94, being CL 1857, 3926;—As Am. 1867, p. 154, Act 117, Eff. June 27;—CL 1871, 5527;—How. 7094;—CL 1897, 1021;—CL 1915, 15771.

774.9 Subpoena issued for witnesses; power to administer oath.

CIVIL CASES: See Compilers' § 600.7001.

774.10 Juror or witness failure to appear or testify; liability.

Sec. 10. In case any person summoned to appear before any court held by a justice of the peace pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, as a juror or witness shall fail to appear, or if any witness appearing shall refuse to be sworn or to testify, he shall be liable to the same penalties and may be proceeded against in the same manner as provided by law in respect to jurors and witnesses in justices' courts in civil proceedings.

WITNESS: See Compilers' §§ 600.7005 to 600.7017 and 600.7821 to 600.7831.

JUROR: See Compilers' § 670.18.

774.11 Disposition of accused before trial; bail, commitment.

Sec. 11. From the time of the return of the warrant until the time of the trial the accused may give bail with 1 or more sufficient sureties for his appearance at the time fixed for the trial, or in the event of failure so to do, may be committed to jail for safe keeping by warrant of said justice, or left in custody of the arresting officer.

774.12 Jurors; list; striking out names by complainant or accused; number; qualifications.

Sec. 12. After the joining of issue, and before the court shall proceed to an investigation of the merits of the cause, and the accused shall not have waived his right to a trial by jury, thereupon the court shall direct the sheriff, or any constable of the county, to make a list in writing of the names of 18 inhabitants of the county, qualified to serve as jurors in the courts of record in this state, from which list the complainant and accused may each strike out 6 names: Provided, That no such officer shall make out said list if he be complainant in said cause or in any wise interested, nor shall the jury consist of less than 6 persons.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17437;—CL 1948, 774.12. This section re-enacts Sec. 8 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 94, being CL 1857, 3931;—As Am. 1861, p. 79, Act 76, Eff. June 15;—CL 1871, 5532;—How. 7099;—As Am. 1885, p. 211, Act 155, Eff. Sept. 19;—CL 1897, 1026;—CL 1915, 15776.

774.13 Jurors; striking out names by others; venire, issuance.

Sec. 13. In case the complainant or the accused shall neglect to strike out such names, the court shall direct some suitable disinterested person to strike out the names for either or both the parties so neglecting; and upon such names being struck out, the justice shall issue a venire directed to the sheriff, or any constable of the county, requiring him to summon the 6 persons whose names shall remain upon such list to appear before such court, at the time and place to be named therein, to make a jury for the trial of such offense.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17438;—CL 1948, 774.13. This section re-enacts Sec. 9 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 94, being CL 1857, 3932;—As Am. 1861, p. 79, Act 76, Eff. June 15;—CL 1871, 5533;—How. 7100;—CL 1897, 1027;—CL 1915, 15777.

774.14 Jurors; summons; certified list; return of venire.

Sec. 14. The officer to whom such venire shall be delivered shall summon such jurors personally, and shall make a list of the persons summoned, which he shall certify and annex to the venire, and return the same with such venire to the court within the time therein specified.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17439;—CL 1948, 774.14. This section re-enacts Sec. 10 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 94, being CL 1857, 3933;—CL 1871, 5534;—How. 7101;—CL 1897, 1028;—CL 1915, 15778.

774.15 Jurors; supplying deficiency in number.

Sec. 15. If any of the jurors named in such venire shall fail to attend in pursuance thereof, or if there shall be any legal objection to any that shall appear, the court shall supply the deficiency by directing the sheriff or any constable who may be present and disinterested, to summon any of the bystanders or others who may be competent and against whom no cause of challenge shall appear, to act as jurors in the cause.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17440;—CL 1948, 774.15. This section re-enacts Sec. 11 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 94, being CL 1857, 3934;—CL 1871, 5535;—How. 7102;—CL 1897, 1029;—CL 1915, 15779.

774.16 Juror; former service as ground for challenge; time.

Sec. 16. It shall be a good cause of challenge to any juror in any justice or police court in any city, township or village in this state, in addition to the other causes of challenge allowed by law, that such person has served as a juror in any justice or police court in any such city, township or village in this state 2 times within 1 year previous to such challenge.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17441;—CL 1948, 774.16. This section re-enacts part of Sec. 4 of Act 129 of 1867, as Add. 1869, p. 106, Act 62, Eff. July 5, being CL 1871, 6046;—How. 7594a;—CL 1897, 349;—As Am. 1907, p. 446, Act 316, Eff. Sept. 28;—CL 1915, 14593, being Compilers' § 725.254. Said section was not expressly repealed by this act.

CIVIL CASES: For similar provisions, see Compilers' § 600.7039.

774.17 Juror; peremptory challenges.

Sec. 17. In all criminal cases the attorney appearing for the people may challenge 5 jurors peremptorily and the defendant may challenge 5 jurors peremptorily; and the attorney appearing for the people may challenge 5 talesmen peremptorily and the defendant may challenge 5 talesmen peremptorily.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17442;—CL 1948, 774.17. This section supersedes part of Sec. 4 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 165, being CL 1857, 6071;—CL 1871, 7950;—How. 9562;—CL 1897, 11945;—CL 1915, 15818; and part of Sec. 56 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 103, being CL 1857, 4400;—CL 1871, 6027;—As Am. 1883, p. 159, Act 147, Eff. Sept. 8;—How. 7607;—CL 1897, 10238;—CL 1915, 14594; and part of Act 104 of 1885, being How. 6937a;—CL 1897, 820;—CL 1915, 14595, neither Sec. 4 or Act 104 was expressly repealed by this act, probably because they covered civil as well as criminal cases. Said Sec. 4 and Act 104 have never been expressly repealed, but since they have been superseded in respect to civil cases by Compilers' §§ 618.40 and 670.19, they would now seem to have been superseded in entirety and therefore do not appear in the present compilation.

PEREMPTORY CHALLENGE: See notes to Compilers' § 768.12.

774.18 New jury; grounds for selection; procedure.

Sec. 18. If the officer to whom the venire shall have been delivered shall fail to return the same as thereby required, or if the jury shall fail to agree and shall be discharged by the court, a new jury shall be selected and summoned in the same manner and the same proceedings shall thereupon be had, as herein prescribed in respect to the first jury, unless the accused shall consent to be tried by the court, in which case the court shall proceed to the trial of the issue, as if no jury had been demanded.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17443;—CL 1948, 774.18. This section re-enacts Sec. 12 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 94, being CL 1857, 3935;—CL 1871, 5536;—How. 7103;—CL 1897, 1030;—CL 1915, 15780.

774.19 Jurors; form of oath.

Sec. 19. To each juror shall administer the following oath or affirmation: "You do solemnly swear (or, "You do solemnly and sincerely declare and affirm", as the case may be) that you will well and truly try this cause between the people of the state of Michigan and, the accused, and a true verdict give according to law and the evidence given you in court, unless discharged by the court, so help you God."

774.20 Jurors; duties, officer in charge.

Sec. 20. After the jury shall have been sworn they shall sit together and hear the proofs and allegations in the case, which shall be delivered in public and in the presence of the accused; and after hearing such proofs and allegations, the jury shall be kept together in some convenient place, until they agree on a verdict, or are discharged by the court, and a sheriff or constable shall be sworn to take charge of the jury, in like manner as upon trials in justices' courts in civil proceedings.

774.21 Jurors; delivery of verdict, fees, certificate.

Sec. 21. When the jurors have agreed on their verdict they shall deliver the same to the court, publicly, who shall enter it in the minutes of its proceedings, and the jurors shall each be entitled to the same fees as are or may be provided by law for jurors sworn in civil cases before justices of the peace, and a certificate thereof from the justice in whose court such jurors served, countersigned by the prosecuting attorney of the county, given to each of said jurors, shall authorize the county clerk of the county to draw an order upon the county treasurer for the payment of the fees of such juror, which order shall be paid in like manner as jurors' fees in courts of record are paid.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17446;—CL 1948, 774.21. This section re-enacts Sec. 15 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 94, being CL 1857, 3938;—CL 1871, 5539;—As Am. 1877, p. 180, Act 169, Eff. FEES: Amount in civil cases, see Compilers' §§ 600.7005 and 600.7605.

774.22 Judgment upon conviction; cost of prosecution; conditional sentence.

Sec. 22. Whenever the accused shall be tried and found guilty, either by the court or by a jury, or shall be convicted of the charge made against him upon a plea of guilty, the court shall render judgment thereon and inflict such punishment, either by a fine or imprisonment or both as the nature of the case may require, together with such costs of prosecution and such other reasonable costs and expenses, direct and indirect, as the public has been put to in connection with said offense not to exceed $15.00 in criminal cases, as the justice of the peace shall order; but such punishment shall in no case exceed the limit fixed by law for the offense charged, and in rendering such judgment and inflicting such punishment the court may award against such offender a conditional sentence and order him to pay a fine with or without the costs of prosecution, within a limited time of not more than 6 months, to be expressed in the sentence, and in default thereof to suffer such imprisonment as is provided by law and awarded by the court in all cases where the offender shall be convicted of an offense punishable at the discretion of the court, either by fine or imprisonment or both.

This section as originally enacted superseded Sec. 16 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 94, being CL 1857, 3939;—As Am. 1861, p. 79, Act 76, Eff. June 15;—CL 1871, 5540;—As Am. 1881, p. 4, Act 6, Imd. Eff. Feb. 3;—How. 7107;—CL 1897, 1034;—CL 1915, 15784.

774.22a Persons convicted of disorderly conduct involving sex offenses; justice of the peace; courts' duties, procedure; state institution.

Sec. 22a. In any trial before a justice of the peace, when a person who has been convicted of any disorderly conduct involving a sex offense or has pleaded guilty thereto, shall, though not insane, appear to be a sex degenerate, or a sex pervert, or appear to be suffering from a mental disorder with marked sex deviation and with tendencies dangerous to public safety, the trial court shall certify the cause to the circuit court of the county in which the offense was committed for further proceedings, and the said court shall thereupon proceed in accordance with the provisions of sections 1-a and 1-b of chapter 9 of this act. In the event such person shall not be adjudged to be a sex degenerate or a sex pervert or to be suffering from a mental disorder with marked sex deviation and with tendencies dangerous to the public safety, or it shall later be found upon application and hearing that such person has ceased to be a menace to the public safety because of such tendencies and mental condition, such person shall be remanded by the circuit court to the justice of the peace for sentence and/or further detention in accordance with his previous conviction, allowance to be made in the latter case for any time spent in confinement in a state hospital or other institution to which such person may previously have been committed hereunder.

HISTORY: Add. 1935, p. 141, Act 87, Imd. Eff. May 27;—Am. 1937, p. 308, Act 198, Imd. Eff. July 14;—CL 1948, 774.22a.

NOTE: Secs. 1a-1b, Ch. 9 of this act, above referred to, have been repealed.

774.22b Sex degenerates in penal institutions; petition, procedure.

Sec. 22b. If any such person shall have been sentenced and committed after conviction before a justice of the peace to any jail or penal institution, and prior to the expiration of such sentence or the discharge, pardon or parole of such person, he shall appear, though not insane, to be a sex degenerate or sex pervert, or appear to be suffering from a mental disorder with marked sex deviation, with tendencies dangerous to public safety, upon petition of the sheriff, warden, or other officer in charge of such jail or other penal institution, setting forth the facts relative to said conviction and said prisoner, the circuit court of the county where such person may be confined shall institute and conduct an examination, investigation and hearing and shall otherwise proceed in the manner provided in section 1-b of chapter 9 of this act.

HISTORY: Add. 1937, p. 309, Act 198, Imd. Eff. July 14;—CL 1948, 774.22b.

NOTE: Sec. 1b, Ch. 9, above referred to, see note under Sec. 22a.

774.22c Psychiatrists and expenses of confinement; reference.

Sec. 22c. The provisions of sections 1-c and 1-d of chapter 9, relative to psychiatrists and expenses of confinement shall be applicable to proceedings taken under this chapter.

774.23 Acquittal; discharge; complainant, payment of cost, time.

Sec. 23. Whenever the accused shall be acquitted, he shall be immediately discharged; and if the court before whom the trial is had shall certify in its minutes that the complaint was wilful and malicious and without probable cause, it shall be the duty of the complainant to pay all the costs that shall have accrued to the court and the sheriff or constable and jury in the proceedings had upon such complaint, or to give satisfactory security by bond to the people of the state, with 1 or more sureties to pay the same in 30 days after the said trial.

774.24 Complainant failure to pay costs; judgment, execution.

Sec. 24. If the complainant shall refuse or neglect to pay such cost or to give such security, the court may forthwith enter judgment against him for the amount of such costs and forthwith issue execution thereon, in the same manner and with the like effect as in case of an execution issued by a justice of the peace on a judgment in an action for a trespass or other wrong; and such moneys when collected shall be paid over to such court and be applied to the payment of the costs for which the judgment was rendered.

EXECUTION: See Compilers' § 600.7201.

774.25 Judgment; execution, warrant.

Sec. 25. The judgment of every such court shall be executed by the sheriff or any constable of the county where the conviction shall be had, by virtue of a warrant under the hand of the justice who held the court, to be directed to such officers and specifying the particulars of such judgment.

774.26 Fines; payment before commitment, disposition.

Sec. 26. All fines and costs imposed by any such court, if paid before the accused is committed, shall be received by the magistrate who constituted the court before which the accused was convicted, and by such magistrate paid over to the county treasurer, on or before the last day of the month following receipt thereof, the county treasurer to reimburse said court for his lawful fees within 15 days after auditing pursuant to law, and such fines shall be distributed according to law.

DISPOSITION OF FINES: Compilers' §§ 397.32 and 600.4845 and 600.4851.

774.26a Fines; forms furnished by county treasurer, contents.

Sec. 26a. The county treasurers shall provide all justices of the peace within their respective counties with blank forms which have been approved by the auditor general. The forms shall provide space for recording the following information with respect to all sums of money which the justices shall receive in criminal cases on account of any forfeiture of bail bond, recognizance, fine, penalty, or taxation of costs: (1) receipt number, (2) docket number, (3) nature of offense, (4) amount of the fine, (5) amount of justice fees, (6) officers' fees, (7) other receipts such as forfeited bond, (8) total receipts, (9) disposition of the case, (10) name of defendant, (11) the name of the justice, and (12) the name of the township or city in which he is elected. Each justice shall complete the forms and shall furnish 1 copy to the county treasurer, 1 to the county clerk or controller or board of auditors in counties having a controller or board of auditors and he shall retain 1 completed form.

HISTORY: Add. 1957, p. 354, Act 268, Eff. Sep. 27.

774.26b Fines; receipt forms, use, contents.

Sec. 26b. The county treasurer shall also provide to each justice of the peace blank serially numbered receipt forms in triplicate to be used whenever the justice receives any moneys on account of any cash bail bond, fine, penalty, or taxation of costs. The receipt forms shall provide space for recording the following information: (1) the name of the defendant and payor, (2) the name of the justice, (3) the docket number, (4) the date, (5) the amount of any fine received, (6) the amount of costs received, (7) amount and nature of any other sum received, and (8) total amount received. One copy of the receipt form shall be for the payor, 1 for the justice and 1 for the county treasurer. The justice shall retain his copies as long as he serves and shall deliver them to his successor as provided in section 3 of this chapter.

HISTORY: Add. 1957, p. 354, Act 268, Eff. Sep. 27.

774.26c Fines; criminal case receipts; separate bank account, deposits, withdrawals.

Sec. 26c. Every justice of the peace shall maintain a separate bank account for criminal case receipts at a bank of his selection. All criminal case receipts shall be deposited in this account daily if such receipts exceed $500.00 or whenever such receipts exceed $500.00. Withdrawals from this account shall be made only by check and only for the purposes of making deposits with the county treasurer, making refunds or transfers of cash bail bonds, making payments for restitution or for making refunds to defendants in case of an error: Provided, however, That a bank account need not be maintained where receipts are less than $500.00 per month.

HISTORY: Add. 1957, p. 355, Act 266, Eff. Sep. 27.

774.26d Violation of sections; misdemeanor.

Sec. 26d. Any person who fails to comply with sections 26, 26a, 26b and 26c of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: Add. 1957, p. 355, Act 266, Eff. Sep. 27.

774.27 Fines and costs; payment after commitment; sheriff; disposition.

Sec. 27. If the accused be committed, payment of any fine or costs imposed on him shall be made to the sheriff of the county who shall, within 30 days after the receipt thereof, pay over the same to the county treasurer for the purpose aforesaid.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17452;—CL 1948, 774.27. This section re-enacts Sec. 22 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 94, being CL 1857, 3945;—CL 1871, 5546.—How. 7113;—CL 1897, 1040;—CL 1915, 15790, adding words "or costs" after "fine".

774.28 Fines and costs; failure to pay over receipts; civil suit; misdemeanor, penalty; failure of justice to keep record, penalty.

Sec. 28. If any person who shall have received any such fine or costs or any part thereof, shall neglect to pay over the same pursuant to the foregoing provisions, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer immediately to commence a suit therefor, in the name of the people of the state of Michigan, and to prosecute the same diligently to effect. Any person neglecting to pay over such fine to the county treasurer within 60 days after receiving the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not less than 50 nor more than 100 dollars or be imprisoned in the county jail of such county not less than 30 nor more than 90 days, or both, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That all justices of the peace shall keep an exact record of all proceedings had before them, and failing to do so, shall be liable to the same penalties as above.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17453;—CL 1948, 774.28. This section re-enacts Sec. 23 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 94, being CL 1857, 3946;—As Am. 1869, p. 124, Act 76, Eff. CERTIFICATE OF JUSTICE: Use of certificate made by justice of another state as evidence, see Compilers' § 600.2112. Docket entries or transcripts as evidence, see Compilers' § 600.2120.

774.32, 774.33 Repealed. 1957, p. 369, Act 274, Eff. Sep. 27.

Sections provided for report to prosecuting attorney within ten days after final disposition of case to which state had been a party or wherein county might be liable and set penalty for failure of justice of peace to report within 20 days.

774.34 Appeal to circuit court; recognizance, discharge of defendant, procedure, return.

Sec. 34. The person charged with and convicted by any justice of the peace of any offense, may appeal to the circuit court even though the sentence may have been suspended or the fine and costs have been paid. The person shall enter into a recognizance to the people of the state in a sum not less than $50.00 nor more than $500.00 within 10 days after the rendition of the judgment, with 1 or more sureties, conditioned to appear before the court on the first day of the next term thereof to prosecute his appeal to effect and to abide the orders and judgment of the court. The justice from whose judgment an appeal is taken shall thereupon discharge the person so convicted or order his discharge, shall make a special return of the proceedings had before him and shall file the complaint, warrant and the return together with the recognizance and the testimony taken by him in the circuit court on or before the first day of the circuit court next held for the county. If there are any objections to the complaint, warrant or other proceedings and the decision of the justice thereon which would not be allowed to be made on the trial of the appeal, the same may be set forth specifically in such recognizance. Such justice shall in addition to his return as required by this section, make a full and complete return as to all matters specifically mentioned in such recognizance, and the same shall be deemed issues of law for the determination of such circuit court.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17459;—CL 1948, 774.34;—Am. 1958, p. 35, Act 32, Eff. Sep. 13;—Am. 1959, p. 313, Act 212, Eff. Mar. 19, 1960.

This section supersedes part of Sec. 18 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 94, as Am. 1848, p. 5, Act 6, Imd. Eff. Jan. 21;—Rep. 1849, p. 344, Act 258, Imd. Eff. April 2;—re-enacted 1855, p. 352, Act 154, Eff. May 15, being CL 1857, 3941;—As Am. 1861, p. 80, Act 76, Eff. June 15;—CL 1871, 5542;—How. 7109;—CL 1897, 1036;—As Am. 1909, p. 28, Act 23, Eff. Sept. 1;—CL 1915, 15786.

774.35 Writ of certiorari; persons to allow, time of application, affidavit.

Sec. 35. A writ of certiorari to remove into the circuit court of the proper county a conviction had before a justice of the peace, may be allowed by the circuit judge or the circuit court commissioner on the application of the party convicted. The party desiring such certiorari or someone in his behalf, shall apply for the same within 20 days after such conviction shall have been had and shall make an affidavit specifying the alleged error or errors complained of.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17460;—CL 1948, 774.35. This section supersedes Sec. 1 of Act 258 of 1849, being CL 1857, 3952;—CL 1871, 5553;—How. 7121;—CL 1897, 1047;—CL 1915, 15797.

774.36 Writ of certiorari; indorsement of allowance on affidavit.

Sec. 36. If the person to whom application for such certiorari be made, shall be satisfied that error has been committed in the proceedings or judgment, he shall indorse upon the affidavit his allowance thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17461;—CL 1948, 774.36. This section re-enacts Sec. 2 of Act 258 of 1849, being CL 1857, 3953;—CL 1871, 5554;—How. 7122;—CL 1897, 1048;—CL 1915, 15798, omitting word "any" before "error".

774.37 Writ of certiorari; service on justice, return by justice.

Sec. 37. The writ of certiorari and affidavit shall be served upon the justice before whom such conviction was had within 10 days after said allowance, and the justice shall make a return to all the matters specified in such affidavit and shall cause such writ, affidavit and return to be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county within 10 days after the service of such writ.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17462;—CL 1948, 774.37. This section re-enacts Sec. 3 of Act 258 of 1849, being CL 1857, 3954;—CL 1871, 5555;—How. 7123;—As Am. 1891, p. 12, Act 12, Imd. Eff. March 12;—CL 1897, 1049;—CL 1915, 15799.

774.38 Writ of certiorari; suspension of sentence, release of prisoner, deposit of recognizance.

Sec. 38. After the service of the writ of certiorari as provided in the preceding section, if the party convicted shall enter into recognizance with surety or sureties satisfactory to such justice or to the person allowing the certiorari, conditioned that he will appear at the next term of the circuit court to be held in and for said county and abide the order and determination of the court, the justice shall order that the sentence be suspended; and if the defendant shall have been committed to jail on such sentence, the justice shall order the jailer to set such prisoner at liberty, who is hereby required to comply with such order. The person receiving such recognizance shall within 20 days thereafter, cause the same to be deposited with the county clerk.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17463;—CL 1948, 774.38. This section re-enacts Sec. 4 of Act 258 of 1849, being CL 1857, 3955;—CL 1871, 5556;—How. 7124;—CL 1897, 1050;—CL 1915, 15800.

774.39 Writ of certiorari; power to compel return.

Sec. 39. The circuit court shall have power to compel a return or an amended or further return to all writs of certiorari issued under the provisions of this act.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17464;—CL 1948, 774.39. This section re-enacts Sec. 5 of Act 258 of 1849, being CL 1857, 3956;—CL 1871, 5557;—How. 7125;—CL 1897, 1051;—CL 1915, 15801.

774.40 Writ of certiorari; appearance of defendant or assignment of error; hearing, judgment.

Sec. 40. It shall not be necessary for the defendant to appear in the said circuit court upon the prosecution of such certiorari unless the court otherwise direct; nor shall any assignment or rejoinder in error be necessary but the said court shall proceed to hear the parties and give judgment on the return made to such writ of certiorari as the right of the matter may appear.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17465;—CL 1948, 774.40. This section re-enacts Sec. 6 of Act 258 of 1849, being CL 1857, 3957;—CL 1871, 5558;—How. 7126;—CL 1897, 1052;—CL 1915, 15802.

774.41 Writ of certiorari; notice of argument to prosecutor, time.

Sec. 41. At least 4 days' notice of argument upon any such matter shall be given to the prosecuting attorney of the county where the offense was committed, before the time at which a hearing is intended to be had.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17466;—CL 1948, 774.41. This section supersedes Sec. 7 of Act 258 of 1849, being CL 1857, 3958;—CL 1871, 5559;—How. 7127;—CL 1897, 1053;—CL 1915, 15803.

774.42 Writ of certiorari; recognizance; continuance, change of security, default.

Sec. 42. The circuit court in which the person recognized shall be bound to appear, shall have power to continue such recognizance or to require a new recognizance with further or other security until a decision shall be had in such case; and in default thereof, the same court may commit the party so convicted to close confinement.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17467;—CL 1948, 774.42. This section re-enacts Sec. 8 of Act 258 of 1849, being CL 1857, 3959;—CL 1871, 5560;—How. 7128;—CL 1897, 1054;—CL 1915, 15804, omitting word "so" before "recognized", changing "said" to "same" before "court".

774.43 Writ of certiorari; judgment; discharge of defendant, execution of sentence.

Sec. 43. If the conviction and judgment of the justice be reversed, the circuit court shall discharge the defendant; but if the judgment of such justice be affirmed, the said circuit court shall order that such sentence be executed; and if the defendant shall have been let out of prison as hereinbefore provided, he shall be remanded back to such prison for the length of time that remained unexpired of his sentence at the period he was so let out of prison.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17468;—CL 1948, 774.43. This section re-enacts Sec. 9 of Act 258 of 1849, being CL 1857, 3960;—CL 1871, 5561;—How. 7129;—CL 1897, 1055;—CL 1915, 15805.

774.44 Writ of certiorari; effect of delay in bringing on cause for argument, order to quash.

Sec. 44. If at any time it shall appear to the said circuit court that the person prosecuting such certiorari has unreasonably delayed bringing on such cause for argument, the court may enter an order to quash such certiorari, and may also direct the sentence of the justice to be carried into effect.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17469;—CL 1948, 774.44. This section re-enacts Sec. 10 of Act 258 of 1849, being CL 1857, 3961;—CL 1871, 5562;—How. 7130;—CL 1897, 1056;—CL 1915, 15806.

774.45 Writ of certiorari; fee for making return.

Sec. 45. The following fees shall be allowed and paid under the provisions of this chapter for the services herein named: For making return to writ of certiorari, 2 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17470;—CL 1948, 774.45. This section re-enacts Sec. 11 of Act 258 of 1849, being CL 1857, 3962;—CL 1871, 5563;—How. 7131;—CL 1897, 1057;—CL 1915, 15807, changing "act" to "chapter".

774.46 Process in criminal cases; issuance.

Sec. 46. Justices of the peace shall have power to issue such writs and process as may be necessary in criminal cases to carry into effect their orders and sentences: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not be construed to eliminate the requirements of the statutes relative to the approval of the prosecuting attorney prerequisite to the issuance of a warrant in criminal cases.

HISTORY: Add. 1941, p. 298, Act 199, Eff. Jan. 10, 1942;—CL 1948, 774.46.

774.47 Jurisdiction of justices of city in case warrant issued by another justice.

Sec. 47. In any city having more than 1 justice of the peace, or other judicial officer having the criminal jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, whenever a warrant shall be issued for the arrest of any person charged with any offense against the laws of the state, or for the violation of a city ordinance, any justice or other judicial officer of said city shall have jurisdiction to arraign, set bail, adjourn, try, take testimony in, conduct a preliminary examination, dismiss, hold for trial in circuit court, and to do any act or acts in connection with the trial and disposition of any such case brought before any such justices of the peace: Provided, however, That this shall apply only to the court or courts of justices of the peace in cities where said justices are paid a salary in lieu of fees.

HISTORY: Add. 1941, p. 462, Act 264, Eff. Jan. 10, 1942;—CL 1948, 774.47.

774.48 Files, indexes, dockets; delivery to successor in office; audit of records, time, certificate, fraud.

Sec. 48. Every justice of the peace shall deliver to his successor in office all files, indexes and dockets. Upon the death of any justice of the peace, or when for any other reason his office becomes vacant, and also at the end of each term, the board of auditors of the county or the board of supervisors of the county shall cause the records of the justice of the peace to be audited immediately. The audit shall be completed within 30 days from the date of vacancy or end of the term. Where a justice of the peace has been reelected to office, the audit shall be completed within 6 months from the date of expiration of office of his previous term. The audit report shall set forth the amount due the justice of the peace, his executor or administrator, as well as the amount due the county for fines and costs collected by the justice. The board of auditors or board of supervisors shall issue to the justice of the peace, his executor or administrator, a certificate stating that all amounts required to be paid to the county during his term of office have been so paid, if the audit so determines. This certificate shall be of no effect if it is later determined that there was fraud, embezzlement or other criminal concealment or acts involved in the funds collected by the justice of the peace.

775.6 Fees; to be county charges.

Sec. 6. The fees hereinbefore in this chapter allowed for services, except those which are otherwise provided for by law, shall be county charges, and shall be audited by the board of supervisors of the county in which the services are rendered, and shall be paid in the same manner as other contingent charges of the county.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17476;—CL 1948, 775.6. This section re-enacts Sec. 6 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 169, being CL 1857, 5683;—CL 1871, 7482;—How. 9057;—CL 1897, 12008;—CL 1915, 15901.

775.7 Expenses of certain witnesses for people; order directing payment.

Sec. 7. Whenever any person shall attend any court of record as a witness in behalf of the people of this state, upon request of the public prosecutor, or upon subpoena, or by virtue of a recognizance for that purpose, and it shall appear that such person has come from any other state or territory of the United States, or from any foreign country or that such person is poor, the court may, by an order to be entered on its minutes, direct the county treasurer of the county in which the court may be sitting, to pay such witness such sum of money as shall seem reasonable for his expenses; and no fees shall be allowed or paid to witnesses on the part of the people in any criminal proceeding or prosecution except as is provided in this section and act.

PEOPLE'S WITNESS: Fees, see Compilers' § 775.13.

775.8 Expenses of certain witnesses for people; certified copy of order.

Sec. 8. The clerk of the court by which such order shall be made, shall immediately make out and deliver a certified copy thereof to the person in whose favor the same is made, without any fee for such service.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17478;—CL 1948, 775.8. This section re-enacts Sec. 8 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 169, being CL 1857, 5685;—CL 1871, 7484;—How. 9059;—CL 1897, 12010;—CL 1915, 15903.

775.9 Expenses of certain witnesses for people; payment by county treasurer.

Sec. 9. Upon the production of such certified copy to the county treasurer, or as soon thereafter as he shall have sufficient moneys in his hands, he shall pay to the person authorized to receive the same, or to his order, the sum of money so directed to be paid, which shall be allowed to the treasurer in his accounts.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17479;—CL 1948, 775.9. This section re-enacts Sec. 9 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 169, being CL 1857, 5686;—CL 1871, 7485;—How. 9060;—CL 1897, 12011;—CL 1915, 15904.

775.10 Fees; prohibited as in civil cases.

Sec. 10. The provisions of law prohibiting the taking of any fees for services in civil cases, other than such as are allowed by law, shall apply to the taking of fees in criminal cases beyond the amount allowed by law for such services.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17480;—CL 1948, 775.10. This section re-enacts Sec. 10 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 169, being CL 1857, 5687;—CL 1871, 7486;—How. 9061;—CL 1897, 12012;—CL 1915, 15905.

CIVIL CASES: What fees prohibited, see Compilers' § 600.2513 et seq.

775.11 Fees; services of prosecutor.

Sec. 11. In all criminal prosecutions where an indictment shall be found and judgment for costs against the defendant shall be rendered, there shall be taxed for the use of the county the following fees for the services of the prosecuting attorney, to-wit: For drawing an indictment, 2 dollars; for trying the cause, 4 dollars; for arguing each motion in arrest of judgment, or for a new trial, 2 dollars; for services where exceptions are taken by defendant, 2 dollars; for every discharge of the prosecution on the acknowledgment of satisfaction in such cases as are authorized by law, 2 dollars.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17481;—CL 1948, 775.11. This section re-enacts Sec. 11 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 169, being CL 1857, 5688;—CL 1871, 7487;—How. 9062;—CL 1897, 12013;—CL 1915, 15906, omitting word "the" before "defendant".

775.12 Prosecution at instance of private person; cost; security, payment, execution.

Sec. 12. In all prosecutions for any crime or misdemeanor, when the prosecution is at the instance of a private person, and not of some public officer or of the grand jury, such person shall give security for costs and if the defendant or prisoner be discharged on examination by such magistrate, or acquitted on trial, or a nolle prosequi be entered on the indictment by order of the court before which it may be pending, the complainant shall pay all costs which shall have accrued to the court, sheriff, constable and jury, and upon proceedings had upon such complaint, execution shall issue for the collection of such costs as in civil cases, as well against the surety as against the complainant, unless the magistrate or court before whom the complaint is made or trial is had, shall certify in his minutes that there was probable cause for the making of such complaint.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17482;—CL 1948, 775.12. This section re-enacts Sec. 1 of Act 77 of 1849, being CL 1857, 5689;—CL 1871, 7456,—How. 9063;—CL 1897, 12014;—CL 1915, 15907, omitting first word, "that", changing "prosecutor" to "complainant".
CIVIL CASES: See GCR 109.

775.13 Witness fees; mileage.

Sec. 13. Whenever any person shall attend any court as a witness in behalf of the people of this state upon request of the public prosecutor, or upon a subpoena, or by virtue of any recognizance for that purpose, he shall be entitled to the following fees: For attending in a court of record, $12.00 for each day and $6.00 for each half day; for attending in a justice court or upon an examination, $10.00 for each day and $5.00 for each half day; and for traveling, at the rate of 10 cents per mile in going to and returning from the place of attendance, to be estimated from the residence of such witness if within the state; if without the state, from the boundary line which witness passed in going to attend the court.

Peace officers, witness fees.

No peace officer shall receive any fee as a witness in behalf of the people of this state if he is on duty at the time he shall attend court, nor shall he receive compensation in going to the place of attendance unless he shall travel thereto at his own expense.

775.13a Expert witnesses; payment of sum in excess of ordinary witness fee.

Sec. 13a. Whenever any person shall attend any court, including justice or municipal court, as a witness in a criminal case upon request of the public prosecutor, city attorney, or defendant by virtue of any recognizance or subpoena for that purpose, whether at the trial of the case or any other proceedings in the case, to testify as an expert witness, he may be paid as compensation for his services a sum in excess of the ordinary witness fees provided by law. The sum to be awarded shall be determined by the judge before whom the witness appears.

HISTORY: Add. 1966, p. 171, Act 148, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

775.14 Expert witnesses; proof of attendance and travel, certificate, payment of fees.

Sec. 14. In courts of record such witness shall prove his attendance and travel in open court before the clerk, and in justice courts before the justice, on the day of trial, or upon an examination, and a certificate thereof from the justice, countersigned by the prosecuting attorney of the county, shall authorize the county clerk to draw an order upon the county treasurer for the payment of the fees of such witnesses attending such justice court as aforesaid, which order shall be paid by the said county treasurer in like manner as witness fees in courts of record are paid, and an order therefor from the clerk of such court of record shall authorize the county treasurer to pay the fees of witnesses attending such court of record as aforesaid in the same manner as the fees of jurors attending such courts are paid.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17484;—CL 1948, 775.14. This section re-enacts Sec. 3 of Act 77 of 1849, being CL 1857, 5689;—CL 1871, 7486;—How. 9065;—As Am. 1887, p. 187, Act 180, Eff. Sept. 28;—CL 1897, 12016;—CL 1915, 15909.

775.15 Accused unable to procure witness; subpoena, fee.

Sec. 15. If any person accused of any crime or misdemeanor, and about to be tried therefor in any court of record in this state, shall make it appear to the satisfaction of the judge presiding over the court wherein such trial is to be had, by his own oath, or otherwise, that there is a material witness in his favor within the jurisdiction of the court, without whose testimony he cannot safely proceed to a trial, giving the name and place of residence of such witness, and that such accused person is poor and has not and cannot obtain the means to procure the attendance of such witness at the place of trial, the judge in his discretion may, at a time when the prosecuting officer of the county is present, make an order that a subpoena be issued from such court for such witness in his favor, and that it be served by the proper officer of the court. And it shall be the duty of such officer to serve such subpoena, and of the witness or witnesses named therein to attend the trial, and the officer serving such subpoena shall be paid therefor, and the witness therein named shall be paid for attending such trial, in the same manner as if such witness or witnesses had been subpoenaed in behalf of the people.

775.16 Accused unable to procure counsel; examination, defense, payment by county.

Sec. 16. Whenever any person charged with having committed any felony or misdemeanor not cognizable by a justice of the peace or magistrate and who appears before such justice of the peace or magistrate without counsel, and who shall not have waived examination upon the charge upon which he appears, such person shall be advised of his right to have counsel appointed for such examination, and if such person states that he is unable to procure counsel, the justice or magistrate shall notify the presiding judge of the circuit court in the jurisdiction of which the offense is alleged to have occurred, and upon proper showing the presiding judge shall appoint some attorney to conduct the accused's examination before a justice court or examining magistrate and to conduct the defense, and the attorney so appointed shall be entitled to receive from the county treasurer on the certificate of the presiding judge that such services have been duly rendered, such an amount as the presiding judge shall in his discretion deem reasonable compensation for the services performed.

This section re-enacts, except proviso, Sec. 1 of Act 109 of 1857, being CL 1857, 5675;—CL 1871, 7471;—How. 9046;—As Am. 1893, p. 121, Act 96, Eff. Aug. 28;—CL 1897, 12018;—As Am. 1911, p. 32, Act 23, Eff. Aug. 1;—CL 1915, 15912.

775.17 Accused unable to procure counsel; attorney, duty; enlarged compensation.

Sec. 17. An attorney shall not, in such case, be compelled to follow a case into another county or into the supreme court, but if he does so, may recover an enlarged compensation to be fixed by the court.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17487;—CL 1948, 775.17. This section supersedes Sec. 2 of Act 109 of 1857, being CL 1857, 5676;—CL 1871, 7472;—How. 9047;—CL 1897, 12019;—CL 1915, 15913.

775.18 Accused unable to procure counsel; number of attorneys; affidavit.

Sec. 18. Only 1 attorney in any 1 case shall receive the compensation above contemplated, nor shall he be entitled to this compensation until he files his affidavit in the office of the county clerk, in which such trial or proceedings may be had, that he has not, directly or indirectly, received any compensation for such services from any other source.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17488;—CL 1948, 775.18. This section re-enacts Sec. 3 of Act 109 of 1857, being CL 1857, 5677;—CL 1871, 7473;—How. 9048;—CL 1897, 12020;—CL 1915, 15914.

775.19 Compensation of interpreter; amount, payment.

Sec. 19. Whenever any person shall attend any court as an interpreter for the purpose of interpreting the testimony of any witness given in behalf of the people of this state, or for the purpose of translating or interpreting any writing or document introduced or used in any court in behalf of the people of this state, either upon request of the prosecuting attorney or by and with the consent of the presiding judge or justice of the peace, he shall receive such compensation as shall be ordered by said presiding judge or justice of the peace. The compensation for such interpreter in the justice court shall not exceed the sum of $25.00 for each day and the sum of $15.00 for each half day actually employed. The certificate of the clerk of a court of record or of a justice of the peace stating the amount ordered to be paid as hereinbefore provided, shall authorize the county treasurer to pay the amount therein stated.

775.19a Compensation of interpreter; appointment for defendant, compensation.

Sec. 19a. If any person is accused of any crime or misdemeanor and is about to be examined or tried before any justice of the peace, magistrate or judge of a court of record and it appears to the magistrate or judge that such person is incapable of adequately understanding the charge or presenting his defense thereto because of a lack of ability to understand or speak the English language or inability adequately to communicate by reason of being deaf and/or mute, or that such person suffers from a speech defect or other physical defect which handicaps such person in maintaining his rights in such cause, the justice of the peace, magistrate or judge shall appoint a qualified person to act as an interpreter. The interpreter so appointed shall be compensated for his services in the same amount and manner as is provided for interpreters in section 19 of this chapter.

HISTORY: Add. 1955, p. 27, Act 27, Imd. Eff. Apr. 13.

775.20 Expenses of prosecution for malfeasance in state office; payment.

Sec. 20. The expenses of all prosecutions against persons holding or who may have held any state office, for malfeasance in office, shall be paid from the general fund, by the state treasurer, and the board of state auditors are hereby authorized and empowered to allow all just and legal claims for such prosecutions, and this section shall be deemed to apply to the expenses of any prosecutions already commenced, as well as to any which may occur in the future.

Sections related to issuance and contents of search warrants and to custody and disposal of seized property.

776.6 Extradition; agent to demand certain persons from another state or government; appointment; payment of accounts.

Sec. 6. The governor of this state may in any case authorized by the constitution and laws of the United States, appoint agents to demand of the executive authority of any other state or territory, or from the executive authority of any foreign government, any fugitive from justice or any person charged with treason; and the accounts of the agents appointed for that purpose shall, unless otherwise directed by the governor, be audited by the auditor general and paid out of the state treasury.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17496;—CL 1948, 776.6. This section re-enacts Sec. 6 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 170, as Am. 1853, p. 1, Act 1, Imd. Eff. Jan. 10, being CL 1857, 6119;—CL 1871, 8004;—How. 9620;—CL 1897, 11991;—CL 1915, 15884.

UNIFORM ACT: See Compilers' § 780.1 et seq.

776.7 Extradition; demand for certain persons by another state; warrant to sheriff, examination, attorney general's report.

Sec. 7. Whenever a demand shall be made upon the governor of this state by the governor of any other state or territory in any case authorized by the constitution and laws of the United States for the delivery over of any person charged in such state or territory with treason, felony or any other crime and there shall be produced with such demand a copy of the indictment found or information filed, or affidavit or complaint made before a magistrate of the state or territory demanding, charging the person so demanded with having committed treason, felony, or other crime within such state or territory, duly certified as authentic by the governor or chief magistrate of the state or territory from whence the person so charged fled, with due proof of the fleeing, it shall be the duty of the governor of this state to issue an order or warrant to the sheriff of the county in which such person so charged may be found, commanding him to forthwith arrest such alleged fugitive and to deliver him to the duly authorized agent appointed by the executive authority making such demand to receive him and remove him to the proper place for prosecution. But the sheriff, while the alleged fugitive is in his custody and before delivering him up to the agent of the demanding state, shall afford him every facility to enable him to have a judicial examination if he desires it, by habeas corpus or otherwise, to ascertain whether the demand and arrest have been made conformably to the requirements of law so that such person if he ought not to be delivered may be duly discharged, and the attorney general when required by the governor shall forthwith investigate the grounds of demand and report to the governor all material facts, which may come to his knowledge, as to the situation and circumstances of the person so demanded, and especially whether he is held in custody or is under recognizance to answer for any offense against the laws of this state, or of the United States or by virtue of any civil process, and also whether such demand was made conformably to law, so that such person ought not to be delivered up.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17497;—CL 1948, 776.7. This section supersedes Sec. 7 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 170, being CL 1857, 6120;—CL 1871, 9005;—As Am. 1879, p. 211, Act 235, Eff. Aug. 30;—How. 9621;—CL 1897, 11992;—CL 1915, 15885.

776.8 Extradition; warrant to agent; issuance, contents.

Sec. 8. If the governor shall be satisfied that the demand is conformable to law, and ought to be complied with, he shall issue his warrant, under the seal of the state, authorizing the agents who make such demand, either forthwith or at such time as shall be designated in the warrant, to take and transport such person to the line of this state, at the expense of such agents, and shall also by such warrant require the civil officers within this state to afford all needful assistance in the execution thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17498;—CL 1948, 776.8. This section re-enacts Sec. 8 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 170, being CL 1857, 6121;—CL 1871, 9006;—How. 9622;—CL 1897, 11993;—CL 1915, 15886.

776.9 Extradition; persons liable to; complaint, warrant.

Sec. 9. Whenever any person shall be found within this state charged with any offense committed in any other state or territory and liable by the constitution and laws of the United States to be delivered over upon the demand of the governor of such other state or territory, any court or magistrate authorized to issue warrants in criminal cases, may upon complaint on oath setting forth the offense, and such other matters as are necessary to bring the case within the provisions of law, issue a warrant to bring the person so charged before the same or some other court or magistrate, within this state, to answer to such complaint as in other cases.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17499;—CL 1948, 776.9. This section re-enacts Sec. 9 of R.S. 1846, Ch. 170, being CL 1857, 6122;—CL 1871, 9007;—How. 9623;—CL 1897, 11994;—CL 1915, 15887.

776.10 Extradition; examination, recognizance.

Sec. 10. If, upon the examination of the person charged, it shall appear to the court or magistrate that there is reasonable cause to believe that the complaint is true, and that such person may be lawfully demanded of the governor, he shall if not charged with a capital crime, or with murder in the first degree, be required to recognize, with sufficient sureties, in a reasonable sum, to appear before such court or magistrate at a future day, allowing a reasonable time to obtain the warrant of the governor, and to abide the order of such court or magistrate in the premises.

776.11 Extradition; failure or inability to recognize, commitment, default.

Sec. 11. If such person shall not recognize, or if he shall be charged with a capital crime, or with the crime of murder in the first degree, he shall be committed to prison and there detained until such day in like manner as if the offense charged had been committed within this state; and if the person so recognizing shall fail to appear according to the condition of his recognizance, he shall be defaulted and the same proceedings shall be had as in the case of other recognizances entered into before such court or magistrate.

776.12 Extradition; discharge, delivery to authorized person, new recognizance or commitment.

Sec. 12. If the person so recognized or committed, shall appear before the court or magistrate upon the day ordered, he shall be discharged, unless he shall be demanded by some person authorized by the warrant of the governor to receive him, or unless the court or magistrate shall see cause to commit him, or to require him to recognize anew for his appearance at some other day; and if, when ordered, he shall not so recognize, he shall be committed and detained as before: Provided, That whether the person so charged shall be recognized, committed or discharged, any person authorized by the warrant of the governor may, at all times, take him into custody and the same shall be a discharge of the recognizance, if any, and shall not be deemed an escape.

776.13 Extradition; complainant to support prisoner and cost, liability; failure to pay, effect.

Sec. 13. The complainant in any such case shall be answerable for all the actual costs and charges and for the support in prison of any person so committed, to be paid weekly or otherwise as may be ordered by the court or magistrate; and if the charge for his support in prison shall not be so paid, the jailer may on the failure of the complainant discharge such person from his imprisonment.

These sections provided penalties for partner of prosecuting attorney defending accused. For present law, see Compilers' § 750.487.

776.18 Assistant; right of prosecutor to procure; compensation, qualification.

Sec. 18. The prosecuting attorney may, under the direction of the court, procure such assistance in the trial of any person charged with a felony as he may deem necessary for the trial thereof, and the prosecuting attorney may, under the direction of the court, in case of disability of the prosecuting attorney, appoint an assistant to perform his duties during the disability of the prosecuting attorney, and such assistant shall be allowed such reasonable compensation as the board of supervisors or the board of county auditors in counties having county auditors shall determine, for his services to be paid by the county treasurer upon presenting to said board the certificate of the circuit judge of the county for which such services were performed, certifying to the services rendered by such assistant: Provided, That no person or attorney shall be employed or appointed as assistant who is interested as attorney or otherwise in any case involving the same facts or circumstances involved in the cases to be conducted or tried by said assistant, or who has received any compensation from any person or persons who are interested in such cases.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17509;—CL 1948, 776.18. This section re-enacts Act 195 of 1879, being How. 560;—CL 1897, 2569;—As Am. 1915, p. 457, Act 258, Eff. Aug. 24;—CL 1915, 2418, omitting first word, "that", changing words "the crime of" to "a" before "felony", which, however, was not expressly repealed by this act.

ASSISTANT PROSECUTING ATTORNEY: See Compilers' § 49.41 et seq.

776.19 Reward for criminal or escaped prisoner; authority to offer and pay.

Sec. 19. The board of supervisors is hereby authorized to offer and pay out of the general fund of the county not to exceed 2,000 dollars as a reward for the arrest and conviction, or for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons having committed a crime within the county or having escaped from any penal institution therein: Provided, That the powers granted hereby may be exercised by the finance committee of the board of supervisors when said board of supervisors is not in session.

Aug. 27, changing amount of reward from 1 to 2 thousand and using word "when" instead of "where" in last line, which, however, was not expressly repealed by this act. Said Sec. 2 was amended by Act 310 of 1927 and is Compilers' § 46.2. This section as originally enacted contained special provisions relative to supervisors in villages of Detroit and Monroe which have long since been superseded by charter provisions.

776.20 Firearms violations; burden of establishing exception.

Sec. 20. In any prosecution for the violation of any acts of the state relative to use, licensing and possession of pistols or firearms, the burden of establishing any exception, excuse, proviso or exemption contained in any such act shall be upon the defendant but this does not shift the burden of proof for the violation.

Act 144, 1937, p. 218; Eff. Oct. 29.

AN ACT relative to and to make uniform the procedure on interstate extradition; to prescribe penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act; and to repeal all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

780.1 Uniform criminal extradition act; definitions.

Sec. 1. Definitions. Where appearing in this act, the term "governor" includes any person performing the functions of governor by authority of the law of this state. The term "executive authority" includes the governor, and any person performing the functions of governor in a state other than this state. The term "state," referring to a state other than this state, includes any other state or territory, organized or unorganized, of the United States of America.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.1. This act was prepared under the supervision of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, and recommended by such commissioners for passage by the several states. It has been adopted (those marked * being modified versions) by the legislatures of the following states: California, Delaware, Florida, Hawaii, *Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Utah, Virginia, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

COMPILERS' NOTE: The catchlines following the act section numbers were incorporated as part of the act as enacted.
CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE: See Compilers' § 776.6 et seq.

780.2 Fugitives from justice; duty of governor.

Sec. 2. Fugitives from justice; duty of governor. Subject to the provisions of this act, the provisions of the constitution of the United States controlling, and any and all acts of congress enacted in pursuance thereof, it is the duty of the governor of this state to have arrested and delivered up to the executive authority of any other state of the United States any person charged in that state with treason, felony, or other crime, who has fled from justice and is found in this state.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.2.

780.3 Form of demand.

Sec. 3. Form of demand. No demand for extradition of a person charged with a crime in another state shall be recognized by the governor unless in writing, accompanied by the following papers:

- (1) Governor's requisition under the seal of the state;
- (2) Prosecutor's application for requisition for the return of a person charged with crime, wherein shall be stated:
 - (a) The name of the person so charged;
 - (b) The nature of the crime;
 - (c) The approximate time, place and circumstances of its commission;
 - (d) That the accused was present in demanding state at the time of commission of alleged crime;
 - (e) That he thereafter fled from the state;
 - (f) The state in which he is believed to be, including the location of the accused therein, at the time the application is made; certifying that, in the opinion of the said prosecuting attorney, the ends of justice require the arrest and return of the accused to the demanding state for trial, and that the proceeding is not instituted to enforce a private claim;
- (3) Verification by affidavit of said application, which shall be accompanied by certified copies of the indictment returned, or information and affidavit filed, or of the complaint made to the judge or magistrate, and the warrant issued thereupon, stating the offense with which the accused is charged, or of the judgment of conviction or of a sentence imposed in execution thereof, together with a statement by executive authority of the demanding state that the person claimed has escaped from confinement or has broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole. Affidavits or documents as the prosecutor may deem proper may be submitted with such application;
- (4) Executive warrant, under the seal of the state, authorizing agent, therein named, to receive the person demanded;
- (5) The indictment, information, or affidavit made before the magistrate must substantially charge the person demanded with having committed a crime under the law of that state; and the copy of indictment, information, affidavit, judgment or conviction or sentence must be authenticated by the executive authority making the demand.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.3.

780.3a Extradition; persons not present in demanding state at time of commission of crime.

Sec. 3a. The governor of this state may also surrender, on demand of the executive authority of any other state, any person in this state charged in such other state in the manner provided in section 3 with committing an act in this state, or in a third state, intentionally resulting in a crime in the state whose executive authority is making the demand, and the provisions of this act not otherwise inconsistent shall apply to such cases, even though the accused was not in that state at the time of the commission of the crime, and has not fled therefrom, and the requirements contained in subdivisions (d) and (e) of section 3 of this act shall not apply to such cases.

HISTORY: Add. 1939, p. 137, Act 81, Eff. Sept. 29;—Am. 1947, p. 195, Act 143, Imd. Eff. May 29;—CL 1948, 780.3a.

780.4 Investigation by governor.

Sec. 4. Governor may investigate case. When a demand shall be made upon the governor of this state by the executive authority of another state for the surrender of a person so charged with crime, the governor may call upon the attorney general or any prosecuting officer in this state to investigate or assist in investigating the demand, and to report to him the situation and circumstances of the person so demanded, and whether he ought to be surrendered.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.4.

780.5 Extradition; persons imprisoned or awaiting trial in another state or who have left demanding state under compulsion.

Sec. 5. Extradition of persons imprisoned or awaiting trial in another state or who have left the demanding state under compulsion. When it is desired to have returned to this state a person charged in this state with a crime, and such person is imprisoned or is held under criminal proceedings then pending against him in another state, the governor of this state may agree with the executive authority of such other state for the extradition of such person before the conclusion of such proceedings or his term of sentence in such other state, upon condition that such person be returned to such other state at the expense of this state as soon as the prosecution in this state is terminated.

The governor of this state may also surrender on demand of the executive authority of any other state any person in this state who is charged in the manner provided in section 22 of this act with having violated the laws of the state whose executive authority is making the demand, even though such person left the demanding state involuntarily.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.5.

780.6 Governor's warrant; issuance, recitals.

Sec. 6. Issue of governor's warrant of arrest; its recitals. If the governor decides that the demand should be complied with, he shall sign a warrant of arrest, which shall be sealed with the state seal, and be directed to any peace officer or other person whom he may think fit to entrust with the execution thereof. The warrant must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.6.

780.7 Governor's warrant; execution, manner and place.

Sec. 7. Manner and place of execution. Such warrant shall authorize the peace officer or other person to whom directed to arrest the accused at any time and any place where he may be found within the state and to command the aid of all peace officers or other persons in the execution of the warrant, and to deliver the accused, subject to the provisions of this act to the duly authorized agent of the demanding state.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.7.

780.8 Arresting officer; authority.

Sec. 8. Authority of arresting officer. Every such peace officer or other person empowered to make the arrest, shall have the same authority, in arresting the accused, to command assistance therein, as peace officers have by law in the execution of any criminal process directed to them, with like penalties against those who refuse their assistance.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.8.

780.9 Rights of accused persons; writ of habeas corpus, application.

Sec. 9. Rights of accused person; application for writ of habeas corpus. No person arrested upon such warrant shall be delivered over to the agent whom the executive authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court of record in this state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his surrender and of the crime with which he is charged, and that he has the right to demand and procure legal counsel; and if the prisoner or his counsel shall state that he or they desire to test the legality of his arrest, the judge of such court of record shall fix a reasonable time to be allowed him within which to apply for a writ of habeas corpus. When such writ is applied for, notice thereof, and of the time and place of hearing thereon, shall be given to the prosecuting officer of the county in which the arrest is made and in which the accused is in custody, and to the said agent of the demanding state.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.9.

780.10 Violation of section; misdemeanor, penalty.

Sec. 10. Penalty for non-compliance with preceding section. Any officer who shall deliver to the agent for extradition of the demanding state a person in his custody under the governor's warrant, in wilful disobedience to the last section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction, shall be fined, not more than 1,000 dollars or be imprisoned not more than 6 months or both.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.10.

780.11 Confinement in jail; necessary circumstances.

Sec. 11. Confinement in jail when necessary. The officer or persons executing the governor's warrant of arrest, or the agent of the demanding state to whom the prisoner may have been delivered, may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the officer or person having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route, such officer or person being chargeable with the expense of keeping.

The officer or agent of a demanding state to whom a prisoner may have been delivered following extradition proceedings in another state, or to whom a prisoner may have been delivered after waiving extradition in such other state, and who is passing through this state with such a prisoner for the purpose of immediately returning such prisoner to the demanding state may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the officer or agent having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route, such officer or agent, however, being chargeable with the expense of keeping: Provided, however, That such officer or agent shall produce and show to the keeper of such jail satisfactory written evidence of the fact that he is actually transporting such prisoner to the demanding state after a requisition by the executive authority of such demanding state. Such prisoner shall not be entitled to demand a new requisition while in this state.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.11.

780.12 Arrest prior to requisition.

Sec. 12. Arrest prior to requisition. Whenever any person within this state shall be charged on the oath of any credible person before any judge or magistrate of this state with the commission of any crime in any other state and, except in cases arising under section 3a, with having fled from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole, or whenever complaint shall have been made before any judge or magistrate in this state setting forth on the affidavit of any credible person in another state that a crime has been committed in such other state and that the accused has been charged in such state with the commission of the crime, and, except in cases arising under section 3a, has fled from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole, and is believed to be in this state, the judge or magistrate shall issue a warrant directed to any peace officer commanding him to apprehend the person named therein, wherever he may be found in this state, and to bring him before the same or any other judge, magistrate or court who or which may be available in or convenient of access to the place where the arrest may be made, to answer the charge or complaint and affidavit, and a certified copy of the sworn charge or complaint and affidavit upon which the warrant is issued shall be attached to the warrant.

780.13 Arrest without warrant.

Sec. 13. Arrest without a warrant. The arrest of a person may be lawfully made also by any peace officer without a warrant upon reasonable information that the accused stands charged in the courts of a state with a crime punishable by death or imprisonment for a term exceeding 1 year, but when so arrested the accused must be taken before a judge or magistrate with all practicable speed and complaint must be made against him under oath setting forth the ground for the arrest as in the preceding section; and thereafter his answer shall be heard as if he had been arrested on a warrant.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.13.

780.14 Commitment to await requisition; bail.

Sec. 14. Commitment to await requisition; bail. If from the examination before the judge or magistrate it appears that the person held is the person charged with having committed the crime alleged, and, except in cases arising under section 3a, that he has fled from justice, the judge or magistrate must, by a warrant reciting the accusation, commit him to the county jail for such a time not exceeding 30 days and specified in the warrant, as will enable the arrest of the accused to be made under a warrant of the governor on a requisition of the executive authority of the state having jurisdiction of the offense, unless the accused give bail as provided in the next section, or until he shall be legally discharged.

HISTORY: Am. 1939, p. 138, Act 81, Eff. Sept. 29;—CL 1948, 780.14.

780.15 Bail; type of cases; condition of bond.

Sec. 15. Bail; in what cases; condition of bond. Unless the offense with which the prisoner is charged is shown to be an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment under the laws of the state in which it was committed, a judge or magistrate in this state may admit the person arrested to bail by bond, with sufficient sureties, and in such sum as he deems proper, conditioned for his appearance before him at a time specified in such bond, and for his surrender, to be arrested upon the warrant of the governor of this state.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.15.

780.16 Extension of time of commitment; adjournment.

Sec. 16. Extension of time of commitment, adjournment. If the accused is not arrested under warrant of the governor by the expiration of the time specified in the warrant or bond, a judge or magistrate may discharge him or may recommit him for a further period not to exceed 60 days, or a judge or magistrate judge may again take bail for his appearance and surrender, as provided in section 15, but within a period not to exceed 60 days after the date of such new bond.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.16.

780.17 Forfeiture of bail.

Sec. 17. Forfeiture of bail. If the prisoner is admitted to bail, and fails to appear and surrender himself according to the conditions of his bond, the judge, or magistrate by proper order, shall declare the bond forfeited and order his immediate arrest without warrant if he be within this state. Recovery may be had on such bond in the name of the state as in the case of other bonds given by the accused in criminal proceedings within this state.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.17.

780.18 Persons under criminal prosecution in state at time of requisition.

Sec. 18. Persons under criminal prosecution in this state at time of requisition. If a criminal prosecution has been instituted against such person under the laws of this state and is still pending, the governor, in his discretion, either may surrender him on demand of the executive authority of another state or hold him until he has been tried and discharged or convicted and punished in this state.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.18.

780.19 Guilt or innocence of accused when inquired into.

Sec. 19. Guilt or innocence of the accused, when inquired into. The guilt or innocence of the accused as to the crime of which he is charged may not be inquired into by the governor or in any proceeding after the demand for extradition accompanied by a charge of crime in legal form as above provided shall have been presented to the governor, except as it may be involved in identifying the person held as the person charged with the crime.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.19.

780.20 Governor's warrant; recall or issuance of another.

Sec. 20. Governor may recall warrant or issue alias. The governor may recall his warrant of arrest or may issue another warrant whenever he deems proper.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.20.

780.21 Fugitives from state; duty of governor.

Sec. 21. Fugitives from this state; duty of governor. Whenever the governor of this state shall demand a person charged with crime or with escaping from confinement or breaking the terms of his bail, probation or parole in this state, from the executive authority of any other state, or from the chief justice or an associate justice of the supreme court of the District of Columbia authorized to receive such demand under the laws of the United States, he shall issue a warrant under the seal of this state, to some agent, commanding him to receive the person so charged if delivered to him and convey him to the proper officer of the county in this state in which the offense was committed.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.21.

780.22 Application for issuance of requisition; contents.

Sec. 22. Application for issuance of requisition; by whom made; contents.

1. When the return to this state of a person charged with crime in this state is required, the prosecuting attorney shall present to the governor his written application for a requisition for the return of the person charged, in which application shall be stated the name of the person so charged, the crime charged against him, the approximate time, place and circumstances of its commission, the state in which he is believed to be, including the location of the accused therein, at the time the application is made and certifying that, in the opinion of the said prosecuting attorney the ends of justice require the arrest and return of the accused to this state for trial and that the proceeding is not instituted to enforce a private claim.

2. When the return to this state is required of a person who has been convicted of a crime in this state and has escaped from confinement or broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole, the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the offense was committed, the parole board, or the warden of the institution or sheriff of the county, from which escape was made, shall present to the governor a written application for a requisition for the return of such person, in which application shall be stated the name of the person, the crime of which he was convicted, the circumstances of his escape from confinement or of the breach of the terms of his bail, probation or parole, the state in which he is believed to be, including the location of the person therein at the time application is made.

3. The application shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate and shall be accompanied by 2 certified copies of the indictment returned, or information and affidavit filed, or of the complaint made to the judge or magistrate, stating the offense with which the accused is charged, or of the judgment of conviction or of the sentence. The prosecuting officer, parole board, warden or sheriff may also attach such further affidavits and other documents in duplicate as he or they shall deem proper to be submitted with such application. One copy of the application, with the action of the governor indicated by endorsement thereon, and 1 of the certified copies of the indictment, complaint, information, and affidavits, or of the judgment of conviction or of the sentence shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state to remain of record in that office. The other copies of all papers shall be forwarded with the governor's requisition.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.22.

780.23 Costs and expenses.

Sec. 23. In all extradition cases the expenses therefor shall be paid out of the county treasury in the county wherein the crime is alleged to have been committed. The expenses shall be the fees paid to the officers of the state on whose governor the requisition is made, and all other necessary and reasonable expenses in returning such prisoner.

780.24 Immunity from service of process in certain civil actions.

Sec. 24. Immunity from service of process in certain civil actions. A person brought into this state by, or after waiver of, extradition based on a criminal charge shall not be subject to service of personal process in civil actions arising out of the same facts as the criminal proceedings to answer which he is being or has been returned, until he has been convicted in the criminal proceeding, or, if acquitted, until he has had reasonable opportunity to return to the state from which he was extradited.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.24.

780.25 Written waiver of extradition proceedings.

Sec. 25. Written waiver of extradition proceedings. Any person arrested in this state charged with having committed any crime in another state or alleged to have escaped from confinement, or broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole may waive the issuance and service of the warrant provided for in sections 6 and 7 and all other procedure incidental to extradition proceedings, by executing or subscribing in the presence of a judge of any court of record within this state a writing which states that he consents to return to the demanding state: Provided, however, That before such waiver shall be executed or subscribed by such person it shall be the duty of such judge to inform such person of his rights to the issuance and service of a warrant of extradition and to obtain a writ of habeas corpus as provided for in section 9.

If and when such consent has been duly executed it shall forthwith be forwarded to the office of the governor of this state and filed therein. The judge shall direct the officer having such person in custody to deliver forthwith such person to the duly accredited agent or agents of the demanding state, and shall deliver or cause to be delivered to such agent or agents a copy of such consent.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.25.

780.26 Non-waiver by state.

Sec. 26. Non-waiver by this state. Nothing in this act contained shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by this state of its right, power or privilege to try such demanded person for crime committed within this state, or of its right, power or privilege to regain custody of such person by extradition proceedings or otherwise for the purpose of trial, sentence or punishment for any crime committed within this state, nor shall any proceedings had under this act which result in, or fail to result in, extradition be deemed a waiver by this state of any of its rights, privileges or jurisdiction in any way whatsoever.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.26.

780.27 No right of asylum.

Sec. 27. No right of asylum. No immunity from other criminal prosecutions while in this state. After a person has been brought back to this state by, or after waiver of extradition proceedings, he may be tried in this state for other crimes which he may be charged with having committed here as well as that specified in the requisition for his extradition.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.31.

Act 281, 1968, p. 483; Eff. Nov. 15.

AN ACT to enact the uniform rendition of accused persons act.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

780.41 Uniform rendition of accused persons act; short title.

Sec. 1. This act may be cited as the "uniform rendition of accused persons act".

HISTORY: New 1968, p. 483, Act 281, Eff. Nov. 15.

780.42 Arrest of accused person illegally in state; warrant, procedure.

Sec. 2. (1) If a person who has been charged with crime in another state and released from custody prior to final judgment, including the final disposition of any appeal, is alleged to have violated the terms and conditions of his release, and is present in this state, a designated agent of the court, judge or magistrate which authorized the release may request the issuance of a warrant for the arrest of the person and an order authorizing his return to the demanding court, judge or magistrate. Before the warrant is issued, the designated agent shall file, with a judicial officer of this state having authority under the laws of this state to issue warrants for the arrest of persons charged with crime, the following documents:

(a) An affidavit stating the name and whereabouts of the person whose removal is sought, the crime with which the person was charged, the time and place of the crime charged, and the status of the proceedings against him.

(b) A certified copy of the order or other document specifying the terms and conditions under which the person was released from custody.

(c) A certified copy of an order of the demanding court, judge or magistrate stating the manner in which the terms and the conditions of the release have been violated and designating the affiant its agent for seeking removal of the person.

(2) Upon initially determining that the affiant is a designated agent of the demanding court, judge or magistrate, and that there is probable cause for believing that the person whose removal is sought has violated the terms or conditions of his release, the judicial officer shall issue a warrant to a law enforcement officer of this state for the person's arrest.

(3) The judicial officer shall notify the prosecuting attorney of his action and shall direct him to investigate the case to ascertain the validity of the affidavits and documents required by subsection (1) and the identity and authority of the affiant.

HISTORY: New 1968, p. 483, Act 281, Eff. Nov. 15.

780.43 Hearing; right to counsel; waiver of hearing; condition of release.

Sec. 3. (1) The person whose removal is sought shall be brought before the judicial officer immediately upon arrest pursuant to the warrant; whereupon the judicial officer shall set a time and place for hearing, and shall advise the person of his right to have the assistance of counsel, to confront the witnesses against him, and to produce evidence in his own behalf at the hearing.

(2) The person whose removal is sought may at this time in writing waive the hearing and agree to be returned to the demanding court, judge or magistrate. If a waiver is executed, the judicial officer shall issue an order pursuant to section 3.

(3) The judicial officer may impose conditions of release authorized by the laws of this state which will reasonably assure the appearance at the hearing of the person whose removal is sought.

HISTORY: New 1968, p. 483, Act 281, Eff. Nov. 15.

780.44 Hearing; report of investigation; order authorizing return of accused.

Sec. 4. The prosecuting attorney shall appear at the hearing and report to the judicial officer the results of his investigation. If the judicial officer finds that the affiant is a designated agent of the demanding court, judge or magistrate and that the person whose removal is sought was released from custody by the demanding court, judge or magistrate, and that the person has violated the terms or conditions of his release, the judicial officer shall issue an order authorizing the return of the person to the custody of the demanding court, judge or magistrate forthwith.

Act 257, 1966, p. 346; Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

AN ACT to provide for bail of persons arrested for or accused of criminal offenses involving traffic offenses or misdemeanors; by prescribing the conditions under which security is required; by prescribing the kind and amount of security required; by prescribing the conditions under which security may be forfeited and the manner of forfeiture; by prescribing penalties for violations; and to repeal certain acts and parts of acts.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

780.61 Bail for traffic offenses or misdemeanors; definitions.

Sec. 1. As used in this act:

(a) "Security" means that which is required to be pledged to insure the payment of bail.

(b) "Surety" means one who executes a bail bond and binds himself to pay the bail if the person in custody fails to comply with all conditions of the bail bond.

HISTORY: New 1966, p. 346, Act 257, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

780.62 Release upon own recognizance; failure to appear, misdemeanor; forfeiture.

Sec. 2. When from all the circumstances involving traffic offenses in violation of state law, township traffic ordinances or municipal traffic ordinances or any misdemeanor offense, the court is of the opinion that the accused will appear as required either before or after conviction the accused may be released on his own recognizance. A failure to appear as required by such recognizance is a misdemeanor and any obligated sum fixed in the recognizance shall be forfeited and collected in accordance with section 6.

This section shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purpose of relying upon criminal sanctions instead of financial loss to assure the appearance of the accused.

HISTORY: New 1966, p. 347, Act 257, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

780.63 Failure to appear; arrest.

Sec. 3. Upon failure to comply with any condition of a bail bond or recognizance the court having jurisdiction at the time of such failure, in addition to any other action provided by law, may issue a warrant for the arrest of the person at liberty on bail or his own recognizance.

HISTORY: New 1966, p. 347, Act 257, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

780.64 Amount of bail.

Sec. 4. (1) The amount of bail shall be:

- (a) Sufficient to assure compliance with the conditions set forth in the bail bond.
- (b) Not oppressive.
- (c) Commensurate with the nature of the offense charged.
- (d) Considerate of the past criminal acts and conduct of the defendant.
- (e) Considerate of the financial ability of the accused.
- (f) Uniform whether the bail bond be executed by the person for whom bail has been set or by a surety.

(2) When a person is charged with an offense punishable by a fine only the amount of the bail shall not exceed double the amount of the maximum penalty.

(3) When a person has been convicted of an offense and only a fine has been imposed the amount of the bail shall not exceed double the amount of the fine.

HISTORY: New 1966, p. 347, Act 257, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967;—Am. 1969, p. 399, Act 221, Imd. Eff. Aug. 6.

780.65 Increase or reduction in amount of bail; notices; alteration of conditions of bond.

Sec. 5. (1) Upon application by the state or a local unit of government or the defendant the court before which the proceeding is pending may increase or reduce the amount of bail or may alter the conditions of the bail bond.

(2) Reasonable notice of the application by the defendant shall be given to the state.

(3) Reasonable notice of the application by the state or local unit of government shall be given to the defendant, except as provided in subsection (4).

(4) Upon verified application by the state or local unit of government stating facts or circumstances constituting a breach or a threatened breach of any of the conditions of the bail bond the court may issue a warrant commanding any peace officer to bring the defendant without unnecessary delay before the court for a hearing on the matters set forth in the application. At the conclusion of the hearing the court may enter an order authorized by subsection (1).

HISTORY: New 1966, p. 347, Act 257, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

780.66 Bail deposit; moneys; minimum amount; procedure.

Sec. 6. (1) The person for whom bail has been set shall execute the bail bond and deposit with the clerk of the court before which the proceeding is pending a sum of money equal to 10% of the bail but at least $10.00.

(2) Upon depositing this sum the person shall be released from custody subject to the conditions of the bail bond.

(3) Once bail has been given and a charge is pending or is thereafter filed in or transferred to a court of competent jurisdiction the latter court shall continue the original bail in that court subject to the provisions of section 5.

(4) After conviction the court may order that the original bail stand as bail pending appeal or increase or reduce bail.

(5) After the entry of an order by the trial court allowing bail pending appeal either party may apply to the reviewing court having jurisdiction or to a justice thereof sitting in vacation for an order increasing or decreasing the amount of bail or allowing bail pending appeal.

(6) When the conditions of the bail bond have been performed and the accused has been discharged from all obligations in the cause the clerk of the court shall return to the accused 90% of the sum which had been deposited and shall retain as bail bond costs 10% of the amount deposited, except that, if the accused has not been convicted of the charge, the entire sum deposited shall be returned to the accused.

(7) If the accused does not comply with the conditions of the bail bond the court having jurisdiction shall enter an order declaring the bail to be forfeited. Notice of the order of forfeiture shall be mailed forthwith by the court to the accused at his last known address. If the accused does not appear and surrender to the court having jurisdiction within 30 days from the date of the forfeiture, or within such period satisfy the court that appearance and surrender by the accused is impossible and without his fault, the court shall enter judgment for the state or local unit of government against the accused for the amount of the bail and costs of the court proceedings. The deposit made in accordance with subsection (1) shall be applied to the payment of costs. If any amount of the deposit remains after the payment of costs it shall be applied to payment of the judgment and transferred to the treasury of the unit of government wherein the court is located. The balance of the judgment may be enforced and collected in the same manner as a judgment entered in a civil action.

(8) After a judgment for a fine and court costs or either is entered in the prosecution of a cause in which a deposit had been made in accordance with subsection (1) the balance of such deposit, after deduction of bail bond costs, shall be applied to the payment of the judgment.

HISTORY: New 1966, p. 347, Act 257, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

780.67 Bail bond in lieu of bail deposit; security required.

Sec. 7. (1) In lieu of the bail deposit provided for in section 6 any person for whom bail has been set may execute the bail bond with or without sureties which bond may be secured:

(a) By a deposit, with the clerk of the court, of an amount equal to the required bail, of cash, or stocks and bonds in which trustees are authorized to invest trust funds under the laws of this state; or

(b) By real estate situated in this state with unencumbered equity not exempt owned by the accused or sureties worth double the amount of bail set in the bond.

Bond secured by cash or stocks and bonds; schedule, contents.

(2) If the bail bond is secured by cash or stocks and bonds the accused or sureties shall file with the bond a sworn schedule which contains:

(a) A list of the stocks and bonds deposited describing each in sufficient detail that it may be identified.

(b) The market value of each stock and bond.

(c) The total market value of the stocks and bonds listed.

(d) A statement that the affiant is the sole owner of the stocks and bonds listed and they are not exempt from execution.

(e) A statement that such stocks and bonds have not previously been used or accepted as bail in this state during the 12 months preceding the date of the bail bond.

(f) A statement that such stocks and bonds are security for the appearance of the accused in accordance with the conditions of the bail bond.

Bond secured by real estate; schedule, contents.

(3) If the bail bond is secured by real estate the accused or sureties shall file with the bond a sworn schedule which contains:

(a) A legal description of the real estate.

(b) A description of any and all encumbrances on the real estate including the amount of each and the holder thereof.

- (c) The market value of the unencumbered equity owned by the affiant.
- (d) A statement that the affiant is the sole owner of such unencumbered equity and that it is not exempt from execution.
- (e) A statement that the real estate has not previously been used or accepted as bail in this state during the 12 months preceding the date of the bail bond.
- (f) A statement that the real estate is security for the appearance of the accused in accordance with the conditions of the bail bond.

False statements in schedule; penalty.

(4) The sworn schedule shall constitute a material part of the bail bond. The affiant commits perjury if in the sworn schedule he makes a false statement which he does not believe to be true. He shall be prosecuted and punished accordingly, or he may be punished for contempt.

Certified copy of bond and schedule; filing; lien of state; indexing, recording; fee.

(5) A certified copy of the bail bond and schedule of real estate shall be filed immediately by the court in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the real estate is situated and the state shall have a lien on the real estate from the time copies are filed in the office of the register of deeds. The register of deeds shall enter, index and record the bail bonds and schedules without requiring any advance fee, which fee shall be taxed as costs in the proceeding and paid out of the costs when collected.

Performance of conditions of bond; return of deposit; discharge of lien.

(6) When the conditions of the bail bond have been performed and the accused has been discharged from his obligations in the cause, the clerk of the court shall return to him or his sureties the deposit of any cash, stocks or bonds. If the bail bond has been secured by real estate the clerk of the court shall forthwith notify in writing the register of deeds and the lien of the bail bond on the real estate shall be discharged.

Forfeiture of bail; notice; entry of judgment.

(7) If the accused does not comply with the conditions of the bail bond the court having jurisdiction shall enter an order declaring the bail to be forfeited. Notice of the order of forfeiture shall be mailed forthwith by the clerk of the court to the accused and his sureties at their last known address. If the accused does not appear and surrender to the court having jurisdiction within 30 days from the date of the forfeiture, or within such period satisfy the court that appearance and surrender by the accused is impossible and without his fault, the court shall enter judgment for the state or local unit of government against the accused and his sureties for the amount of the bail and costs of the proceedings.

Execution judgment; procedure.

(8) When judgment is entered in favor of the state or local unit of government on any bail bond the attorney for the local unit of government, the prosecuting attorney or the attorney general shall have execution issued on the judgment forthwith and deliver same to the sheriff to be executed by levy on the cash, stocks or bonds deposited with the clerk of the court and the real estate described in the bail bond schedule. The cash shall be used to satisfy the judgment and costs and paid into the treasury of the unit of government wherein the court is located. The stocks, bonds and real estate shall be sold in the same manner as in execution sales in civil actions and the proceeds of such sale shall be used to satisfy all court costs, prior encumbrances, if any, and from the balance a sufficient amount to satisfy the judgment shall be paid into the treasury of the unit of government wherein the court is located. The balance shall be returned to the owner. The real estate so sold may be redeemed in the same manner as real estate may be redeemed after judicial or execution sales in civil actions.

Use of security only once in 12-month period.

(9) No stocks, bonds or real estate may be used or accepted as bail bond security in this state more than once in any 12-month period.

780.69 Conditions of bail bonds before conviction.

Sec. 9. (1) If a person is admitted to bail before conviction the conditions of the bail bond shall be that he will:

(a) Appear to answer the charge in the court having jurisdiction on a day certain and thereafter as ordered by the court until discharged or final order of the court.

(b) Submit himself to the orders and process of the court.

(c) Not depart this state without leave.

(2) If the defendant is admitted to bail after conviction the conditions of the bail bond shall be that he will:

(a) Duly prosecute his appeal.

(b) Appear at such time and place as the court may direct.

(c) Not depart this state without leave of the court.

(d) If the judgment is affirmed or the cause reversed and remanded for a new trial, forthwith surrender to the officer from whose custody he was bailed.

AN ACT to make uniform the law on fresh pursuit and authorizing this state to cooperate with other states therein.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

780.101 Uniform act on fresh pursuit; arrest by officer from other state.

Sec. 1. Any member of a duly organized state, county or municipal peace unit of another state of the United States who enters this state in fresh pursuit, and continues within this state in such fresh pursuit, of a person in order to arrest him on the ground that he is believed to have committed a felony in such other state, shall have the same authority to arrest and hold such person in custody, as has any member of any duly organized state, county or municipal peace unit of this state, to arrest and hold in custody a person on the ground that he is believed to have committed a felony in this state.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.101.

780.102 Uniform act on fresh pursuit; procedure.

Sec. 2. If an arrest is made in this state by an officer of another state in accordance with the provisions of section 1 of this act, he shall without unnecessary delay take the person arrested before a magistrate of the county in which the arrest was made, who shall conduct a hearing for the purpose of determining the lawfulness of the arrest. If the magistrate determines that the arrest was lawful he shall commit the person arrested to await for a reasonable time the issuance of an extradition warrant by the governor of this state. If the magistrate determines that the arrest was unlawful he shall discharge the person arrested.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.102.

780.103 Section one construed.

Sec. 3. Section 1 of this act shall not be construed so as to make unlawful any arrest in this state which would otherwise be lawful.

780.105 Fresh pursuit; definition.

Sec. 5. The term "fresh pursuit" as used in this act shall include fresh pursuit as defined by the common law, and also the pursuit of a person who has committed a felony or who is reasonably suspected of having committed a felony. It shall also include the pursuit of a person suspected of having committed a supposed felony, though no felony has actually been committed, if there is reasonable ground for believing that a felony has been committed. Fresh pursuit as used herein shall not necessarily imply instant pursuit, but pursuit without unreasonable delay.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 780.105.

780.106 Certified copies of act; executive department of states.

Sec. 6. Upon the passage and approval by the governor of this act it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to certify a copy of this act to the executive department of each of the states of the United States.

AN ACT to provide for the interstate use of prisoners as witnesses in criminal proceedings.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

780.111 Uniform rendition of prisoners as witnesses in criminal proceedings act; short title.

Sec. 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "uniform rendition of prisoners as witnesses in criminal proceedings act".

HISTORY: New 1967, p. 224, Act 161, Imd. Eff. Jun. 30.

780.112 Uniform rendition of prisoners as witnesses in criminal proceedings act; definitions.

Sec. 2. As used in this act:

(a) "Witness" means a person who is confined in a penal institution in any state and whose testimony is desired in another state in any criminal proceeding or investigation by a grand jury or in any criminal action before a court.

(b) "Penal institutions" includes a jail, prison, penitentiary, house of correction or other place of penal detention.

(c) "State" includes any state of the United States, the district of Columbia, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and any territory of the United States.

HISTORY: New 1967, p. 224, Act 161, Imd. Eff. Jun. 30.

780.113 Request of foreign court; certificate of state judge having jurisdiction over prisoner, contents; notice; hearing.

Sec. 3. A judge of a state court of record in another state, which by its laws has made provision for commanding persons confined in penal institutions within that state to attend and testify in this state, may certify (1) that there is a criminal proceeding or investigation by a grand jury or a criminal action pending in the court, (2) that a person who is confined in a penal institution in this state may be a material witness in the proceeding, investigation or action, and (3) that his presence will be required during a specified time. Upon presentation of the certificate to any judge having jurisdiction over the person confined, and upon notice to the attorney general, the judge in this state shall fix a time and place for a hearing and shall make an order directed to the person having custody of the prisoner requiring that the prisoner be produced before him at the hearing.

780.114 Orders directing witness to attend and testify; contents; production of witness.

Sec. 4. If at the hearing the judge determines (1) that the witness may be material and necessary, (2) that his attending and testifying are not adverse to the interests of this state or to the health or legal rights of the witness, (3) that the laws of the state in which he is requested to testify will give him protection from arrest and the service of civil and criminal process because of any act committed prior to his arrival in the state under the order, and (4) that as a practical matter the possibility is negligible that the witness may be subject to arrest or to the service of civil or criminal process in any state through which he will be required to pass, the judge shall issue an order, with a copy of the certificate attached, (a) directing the witness to attend and testify, (b) directing the person having custody of the witness to produce him, in the court where the criminal action is pending, or where the grand jury investigation is pending, at a time and place specified in the order, and (c) prescribing such conditions as the judge shall determine.

HISTORY: New 1967, p. 225, Act 161, Imd. Eff. Jun. 30.

780.115 Orders; contents; custodial safeguards; expenses; time effective.

Sec. 5. The order to the witness and to the person having custody of the witness shall provide for the return of the witness at the conclusion of his testimony, proper safeguards on his custody, and proper financial reimbursement or prepayment by the requesting jurisdiction for all expenses incurred in the production and return of the witness, and may prescribe such other conditions as the judge thinks proper or necessary. The order shall not become effective until the judge of the state requesting the witness enters an order directing compliance with the conditions prescribed.

780.152 Purpose of act.

Sec. 2. The purposes of this act are to improve and extend by reciprocal legislation the enforcement of duties of support and to make uniform the law with respect thereto.

HISTORY: New 1952, p. 7, Act 8, Eff. Sep. 18.

780.153 Definitions.

Sec. 3. As used in this act, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) “State” includes any state, territory or possession of the United States and the District of Columbia and any foreign state in which this or a substantially similar reciprocal law has been enacted.

(2) “Initiating state” means any state in which a proceeding pursuant to this or a substantially similar reciprocal law is commenced.

(3) “Responding state” means any state in which any proceeding pursuant to the proceeding in the initiating state is or may be commenced.

(4) “Court” means the chancery division of any of the circuit courts of this state and when the context requires means the court of any other state as defined in a substantially similar reciprocal law.

(5) “Law” includes both common and statute law.

(6) “Duty of support” includes any duty of support imposed or imposable by law, or by any court order, decree or judgment, whether interlocutory or final, whether incidental to a proceeding for divorce, judicial (legal) separation, separate maintenance or otherwise.

(7) “Obligor” means any person owing a duty of support.

(8) “Obligee” means any person to whom a duty of support is owed.

780.156 Governor to demand surrender of person found in foreign state; extradition provisions applicable.

Sec. 6. The governor of this state (1) may demand from the governor of any other state the surrender of any person found in such other state who is charged in this state with the crime of failing to provide for the support of any person in this state; and (2) may surrender on demand by the governor of any other state any person found in this state who is charged in such other state with the crime of failing to provide for the support of a person in such other state. The provisions for extradition of criminals not inconsistent herewith shall apply to any such demand, although the person whose surrender is demanded was not in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the crime and although he had not fled therefrom. Neither the demand, the oath, nor any proceedings for extradition pursuant to this section need state or show that the person whose surrender is demanded has fled from justice, or at the time of the commission of the crime was in the demanding or the other state.

780.162 Petition; copy to court of responding state; forwarding and filing.

Sec. 12. If the court of this state, acting as an initiating state, finds that the petition sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the respondent owes a duty of support and that a court of the responding state may obtain jurisdiction of the respondent or his property, he shall so certify and shall cause 3 copies of the petition, the court's certificate and this act, to be transmitted to the court in the responding state within the jurisdiction of which the respondent is alleged to reside or be present. If the name or address of such court is unknown, or if the respondent is no longer within the jurisdiction of the named court and the responding state has an information agency comparable to that established in the initiating state, such copies may be transmitted to the state information agency or other proper official of the responding state with a request that it forward them to and file them with the proper court, and that such court acknowledge the receipt thereof to the initiating state. If the responding state is a foreign state, such copies shall be transmitted to the state department of social welfare for transmittal to the proper court of the responding state after determination concerning the statutes of reciprocity in accordance with section 24 of this act.

780.162b State department of social welfare; duty.

Sec. 12b. The state department of social welfare is hereby designated as the state information agency under this act, and it shall be its duty:

(1) To compile annually a list of the courts and their addresses in this state having jurisdiction under this act and the particular officers assigned duties in connection with the administration of this act and transmit the same to the state information agency of every other state which has adopted this or a substantially similar act, including any foreign state in which this or a substantially similar reciprocal law has been enacted, together with a copy of this act whenever it has been amended, or otherwise upon request;

(2) To maintain a register of such lists received from other states and to supply information from such lists to every court in this state having jurisdiction under this act;

(3) To maintain in the bureaus of social aid a supply of duplicated copies of this act, as amended, for the use of court officers in preparing cases to be forwarded to responding states; and

(4) To act generally as a clearing center for information and maintaining general liaison with the council of state governments, law enforcement agencies, the legislature, other governmental or private agencies concerned with this act, and the public.

780.163a Inability to obtain jurisdiction; respondent, location in another county.

Sec. 13a. If a court of this state, acting as a responding state, is unable to obtain jurisdiction of the respondent or his property due to inaccuracies or inadequacies in the petition or otherwise, the court shall communicate this fact to the court in the initiating state, shall on its own initiative use all means at its disposal to trace the respondent or his property, and shall hold the case pending the receipt of more accurate information or an amended petition from the court in the initiating state. If the respondent has been located in some other county of this state it shall not be necessary to obtain an amended petition but the original petition shall be forwarded to the circuit court in chancery of the county where the respondent has been located which court shall have jurisdiction regardless of the language of the petition.

HISTORY: New 1952, p. 9, Act 8, Eff. Sep. 18.

780.166 Additional powers of court.

Sec. 16. In addition to the foregoing powers, the court of this state when acting as the responding state has the power to subject the respondent to such terms and conditions as the court may deem proper to assure compliance with its orders, and in particular:

Recognizance.

(a) To require the respondent to furnish recognizance in the form of a cash deposit or bond of such character and in such amount as the court may deem proper to assure payment of any amount required to be paid by the respondent.

Payment, report.

(b) To require the respondent to make payments at specified intervals to the clerk of the court or the friend of the court, as specified in the order, and to report personally to such clerk or friend of the court at such times as may be deemed necessary and as required by such order.

Contempt, punishment; assignment of wages; employer's liability; employer; defined.

(c) To punish the respondent who fails and refuses to obey and comply with the order of the court, having sufficient ability to comply, such punishment to be imposed by the court as a contempt of court, placing the respondent on probation or committing the respondent to the county jail of the county in which such person was convicted, or in Wayne county to the Detroit house of correction, for such period as said respondent shall continue to be in contempt, not to exceed 1 year. The court may also order an assignment to the friend of the court of the salary, wages or other income of the person responsible for the payment of support and maintenance, which assignment shall continue until further order of the court. The order of assignment shall be effective 1 week after service upon the employer of a true copy of the order by personal service or by certified mail. Thereafter, the employer shall withhold from the earnings due the employee the amount specified in the order of assignment for transmittal to the friend of the court until further order of the court. The person ordered to pay the support and maintenance shall inform the friend of the court immediately of any change which would affect the assignment or the disbursement thereof. An employer shall not use the assignment as a basis, in whole or in part, for the discharge of an employee or for any other disciplinary action against an employee. Compliance by an employer with the order of assignment operates as a discharge of the employer's liability to the employee as to that portion of the employee's earnings so affected. The term employer as used in this section includes the state and any political subdivision thereof.

780.167 Court acting as responding state; clerk of court or friend of court, duties.

Sec. 17. The court of this state, when acting as a responding state, shall have the following duties which may be carried out through the clerk of the court or the friend of the court, in counties having a friend of the court:

(a) Upon the receipt of a payment made by the respondent pursuant to any order of the court or otherwise, to transmit the same forthwith to the court of the initiating state; and

(b) Upon request to furnish to the court of the initiating state a certified statement of all payments made by the respondent.

780.168 Court acting as initiating state; receipt and disbursement of payments.

Sec. 18. The court of this state, when acting as an initiating state, shall have the duty which may be carried out through the clerk of the court or the friend of the court, in counties having a friend of the court, to receive and disburse forthwith all payments made by the respondent or transmitted by the court of the responding state.

HISTORY: New 1952, p. 9, Act 8, Eff. Sep. 18.

780.169 Husband and wife; competent witnesses.

Sec. 19. Husband and wife are competent witnesses (and may be compelled) to testify to any relevant matter in connection herewith.

HISTORY: New 1952, p. 9, Act 8, Eff. Sep. 18.

780.170 Costs; payment, reimbursement; no filing fee.

Sec. 20. Expenses of stenographic records of court proceedings and of exemplification of court records, and all other costs incurred by the court or other public agency, including filing fees in the responding state when Michigan is the initiating state, in proceedings under this act, shall be a county charge and shall be paid out of the county treasury, but the court, in its discretion, may require such reimbursement thereof from the respondent or other party to the proceeding as may appear equitable. Where the action is brought by or through the state or an agency thereof, there shall be no filing fee in Michigan.

780.173 Friend of court or county clerk fees; disposition.

Sec. 23. To reimburse the county for the cost of handling support payments under this act, the court shall order the payment of $1.50 per month, payable semiannually on January 2 and July 2 thereafter, to the friend of the court or county clerk. The fees shall be paid by the person ordered to pay any support money for a child or other persons whom the court finds he has a duty to support. The fee shall be computed from the beginning date of the support order and shall continue while the order is operative. The service charges shall be paid 6 months in advance on each due date, except for the first payment, which shall be paid at the same time the support order is filed, and shall cover the period of time from that month until the next calendar due date above mentioned. Every order or judgment for the payment of temporary or permanent alimony or support money shall provide for the payment of the fees. Any order or judgment for the payment of temporary or permanent alimony or support money, entered before the effective date of this 1967 amendatory act, may be amended by the court, upon its own motion, to provide for the payment of the fees, upon proper notice to the person ordered to pay the alimony or support money. All fees paid to the office of the friend of the court or county clerk shall be turned over to the county treasurer and credited to the general fund.

Act 276, 1957, p. 370; Eff. Sep. 27.

AN ACT relative to the return to Michigan of persons violating the terms and conditions of parole; and to repeal certain acts and parts of acts.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

780.561 Return of parole violators; deputization of employees of other state.

Sec. 1. The attorney general may deputize any person regularly employed by another state for such purposes to act as an officer and agent of this state in effecting the return of any person who has violated the terms and conditions of parole as imposed by this state. In any matter relating to the return of such a person, any agent so deputized shall have all the powers of a police officer of this state for the purpose of effecting the transfer and limited to the time required to effect it.

state pursuant hereto shall carry formal evidence of his deputization and shall produce the same upon demand.

HISTORY: New 1957, p. 371, Act 276, Eff. Sep. 27.

780.563 Parole violators; contracts for expenses, terms.

Sec. 3. The attorney general is hereby authorized, subject to the approval of the controller of the department of administration, to enter into contracts with similar officials of any other state or states for the purpose of sharing an equitable portion of the cost of effecting the return of any person who has violated the terms and conditions of parole as imposed by this state. The contract shall covenant and agree as follows:

- "1. The party states hereby agree that any two or more of them may, in the discretion of their appropriate officials, cooperate in effecting the return of any parole violator.
- "2. In any instance where any officer or officers of one or more of the parties hereto shall effect the return of a parole violator from any jurisdiction to the custody of the state directing his return, the state on whose behalf the return is made shall bear the financial burden of such return and the extent of the financial liability of the cooperating states shall be determined as provided in paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 of this contract.
- "3. In every instance where a cooperative return of one or more parole violators is undertaken, the round trip distance which would have been traveled by the officers of each cooperating state in effecting the return of its own violators shall be computed and the sum of all such round trip distances shall also be computed. The share of the expense of a trip chargeable to any cooperating state shall be determined by ascertaining the proportion which its own round trip would have borne to the sum of all round trips which would have been necessary if all states had effected the return of their own violators by employing their own regular officers. Whenever the violator or violators of any cooperating state are not returned to the ultimate destination entirely by the regular officer or officers of another cooperating state or states, the state to which such violator or violators are to be returned shall be entitled to deduct the round trip distance between said ultimate destination and the point where it receives custody of its violator or violators from the round trip distance which its officer or officers would have traveled if such state had effected the entire return of such violator or violators. Standard highway or railway mileage shall be used in calculating distances pursuant to this paragraph.
- "4. The entire cost of a cooperative trip, but not including any charge on account of the salary or wages of any officer employed on said trip, shall form the base for determining the share of the expense to be borne by each cooperating state. The cost of any mileage shall be at the official rate for vehicles prevailing in the state by which such vehicles are owned or leased.
- "5. (a) Except where any injury or damage referred to herein results solely from the violent act or acts of its own violator or violators, no cooperating state shall be chargeable with any cost nor shall such state incur any liability by reason of injury to any officer regularly employed by another cooperating state nor shall any cooperating state be chargeable with or incur any liability by reason of damage to any vehicle or other equipment owned or leased by another cooperating state.
 (b) Workmen's compensation benefits and payments shall be determined and made in accordance with the laws of the state regularly employing the officer.

"6. All payments due under this contract shall be made within thirty days of the conclusion of the cooperative trip by reason of which they have accrued unless the parties hereto shall by mutual agreement determine otherwise."

AN ACT to provide for the release of misdemeanor prisoners by giving bond to the arresting officer in certain circumstances not inconsistent with public safety; and to repeal certain acts and parts of acts.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

780.581 Arrest without warrant for misdemeanor; bond for release; detention.

Sec. 1. (1) When any person is arrested without a warrant for a misdemeanor, violation of a city, village or township ordinance punishable by imprisonment for not more than 90 days or by a fine of not more than $100.00, or both, the officer making the arrest shall take, without unnecessary delay, the person arrested before the most convenient magistrate of the county in which the offense was committed to answer to the complaint made against him.

(2) If no magistrate is available or immediate trial cannot be had, the person so arrested may recognize to the direct supervisor of the arresting officer or department or the sheriff or his deputy in charge of the county jail if the person so arrested is lodged in the county jail for his appearance by leaving with him:

(a) A sum of money not to exceed $100.00, if the offense is punishable by imprisonment for not more than 90 days or by a fine, or both except as provided in subdivision (b).

(b) A sum of money not to exceed $200.00, if the offense is a violation of sections 619, 625 or 626 of Act No. 300 of the Public Acts of 1949, as amended, being sections 257.619, 257.625 and 257.626 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, or an ordinance corresponding thereto.

(3) If, in the opinion of the arresting officer or department, the arrested person is under the influence of liquor or narcotic drug, is wanted by police authorities to answer to another charge, or it is otherwise unsafe to release him, the arrested person shall be held until he is in a proper condition to be released, or until the next session of court.

AN ACT to ratify and enact the agreement on detainers into the laws of the state; to provide for the administration and enforcement of the agreement; and to provide penalties for violation of this act.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

780.601 Interstate agreement on detainers.

Sec. 1. The agreement on detainers is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with all other jurisdictions legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

THE AGREEMENT ON DETAINERS

The contracting states solemnly agree that:

ARTICLE I

The party states find that charges outstanding against a prisoner, detainers based on untried indictments, informations or complaints, and difficulties in securing speedy trial of persons already incarcerated in other jurisdictions, produce uncertainties which obstruct programs of prisoner treatment and rehabilitation. Accordingly, it is the policy of the party states and the purpose of this agreement to encourage the expeditious and orderly disposition of such charges and determination of the proper status of any and all detainers based on untried indictments, informations or complaints. The party states also find that proceedings with reference to such charges and detainers, when emanating from another jurisdiction, cannot properly be had in the absence of co-operative procedures. It is the further purpose of this agreement to provide such co-operative procedures.

ARTICLE II

As used in this agreement:

(a) "State" shall mean a state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(b) "Sending state" shall mean a state in which a prisoner is incarcerated at the time that he initiates a request for final disposition pursuant to Article III hereof or at the time that a request for custody or availability is initiated pursuant to Article IV hereof.

(c) "Receiving state" shall mean the state in which trial is to be had on an indictment, information or complaint pursuant to Article III or Article IV hereof.

ARTICLE III

(a) Whenever a person has entered upon a term of imprisonment in a penal or correctional institution of a party state, and whenever during the continuance of the term of imprisonment there is pending in any other party state any untried indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which a detainer has been lodged against the prisoner, he shall be brought to trial within one hundred eighty days after he shall have caused to be delivered to the prosecuting officer and the appropriate court of the prosecuting officers' jurisdiction written notice of the place of his imprisonment and his request for a final disposition to be made of the indictment, information or complaint: Provided that for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or his counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance. The request of the prisoner shall be accompanied by a certificate of the appropriate official having custody of the prisoner, stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, the time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner.

(b) The written notice and request for final disposition referred to in paragraph (a) hereof shall be given or sent by the prisoner to the warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of him, who shall promptly forward it together with the certificate to the appropriate prosecuting official and court by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested.

(c) The warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of the prisoner shall promptly inform him of the source and contents of any detainer lodged against him and shall also inform him of his right to make a request for final disposition of the indictment, information or complaint on which the detainer is based.

(d) Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to paragraph (a) hereof shall operate as a request for final disposition of all untried indictments, informations or complaints on the basis of which detainers have been lodged against the prisoner from the state to whose prosecuting official the request for final disposition is specifically directed. The warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of the prisoner shall forthwith notify all appropriate prosecuting officers and courts in the several jurisdictions within the state to which the prisoner's request for final disposition is being sent of the proceeding being initiated by the prisoner. Any notification sent pursuant to this paragraph shall be accompanied by copies of the prisoner's written notice request, and the certificate. If trial is not had on any indictment, information or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the return of the prisoner to the original place of imprisonment, such indictment, information or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

(e) Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to paragraph (a) hereof shall also be deemed to be a waiver of extradition with respect to any charge or proceeding contemplated thereby or included therein by reason of paragraph (d) hereof, and a waiver of extradition to the receiving state to serve any sentence there imposed upon him, after completion of his term of imprisonment in the sending state. The request for final disposition shall also constitute a consent by the prisoner to the production of his body in any court where his presence may be required in order to effectuate the purposes of this agreement and a further consent voluntarily to be returned to the original place of imprisonment in accordance with the provisions of this agreement. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the imposition of a concurrent sentence if otherwise permitted by law.

(f) Escape from custody by the prisoner subsequent to his execution of the request for final disposition referred to in paragraph (a) hereof shall void the request.

ARTICLE IV

(a) The appropriate officer of the jurisdiction in which an untried indictment, information or complaint is pending shall be entitled to have a prisoner against whom he has lodged a detainer and who is serving a term of imprisonment in any party state made available in accordance with Article V (a) hereof upon presentation of a written request for temporary custody or availability to the appropriate authorities of the state in which the prisoner is incarcerated: Provided, That the court having jurisdiction of such indictment, information or complaint shall have duly approved, recorded and transmitted the request: And provided further, That there shall be a period of 30 days after receipt by the appropriate authorities before the request be honored, within which period the governor of the sending state may disapprove the request for temporary custody or availability, either upon his own motion or upon motion of the prisoner.

(b) Upon receipt of the officer's written request as provided in paragraph (a) hereof, the appropriate authorities having the prisoner in custody shall furnish the officer with a certificate stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, the time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner. Said authorities simultaneously shall furnish all other officers and appropriate courts in the receiving state who have lodged detainers against the prisoner with similar certificates and with notices informing them of the request for custody or availability and of the reasons therefor.

(c) In respect of any proceeding made possible by this Article, trial shall be commenced within one hundred twenty days of the arrival of the prisoner in the receiving state, but for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or his counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance.

(d) Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed to deprive any prisoner of any right which he may have to contest the legality of his delivery as provided in paragraph (a) hereof, but such delivery may not be opposed or denied on the ground that the executive authority of the sending state has not affirmatively consented to or ordered such delivery.

(e) If trial is not had on any indictment, information or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the prisoner's being returned to the original place of imprisonment pursuant to Article V (e) hereof, such indictment, information or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

ARTICLE V

(a) In response to a request made under Article III or Article IV hereof, the appropriate authority in a sending state shall offer to deliver temporary custody of such prisoner to the appropriate authority in the state where such indictment, information or complaint is pending against such person in order that speedy and efficient prosecution may be had. If the request for final disposition is made by the prisoner, the offer of temporary custody shall accompany the written notice provided for in Article III of this agreement. In the case of a federal prisoner, the appropriate authority in the receiving state shall be entitled to temporary custody as provided by this agreement or to the prisoner's presence in federal custody at the place for trial, whichever custodial arrangement may be approved by the custodian.

(b) The officer or other representative of a state accepting an offer of temporary custody shall present the following upon demand:

(1) Proper identification and evidence of his authority to act for the state into whose temporary custody the prisoner is to be given.

(2) A duly certified copy of the indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged and on the basis of which the request for temporary custody of the prisoner has been made.

(c) If the appropriate authority shall refuse or fail to accept temporary custody of said person, or in the event that an action on the indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged is not brought to trial within the period provided in Article III or Article IV hereof, the appropriate court of the jurisdiction where the indictment, information or complaint has been pending shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice, and any detainer based thereon shall cease to be of any force or effect.

(d) The temporary custody referred to in this agreement shall be only for the purpose of permitting prosecution on the charge or charges contained in one or more untried indictments, informations or complaints which form the basis of the detainer or detainers or for prosecution on any other charge or charges arising out of the same transaction. Except for his attendance at court and while being transported to or from any place at which his presence may be required, the prisoner shall be held in a suitable jail or other facility regularly used for persons awaiting prosecution.

(e) At the earliest practicable time consonant with the purposes of this agreement, the prisoner shall be returned to the sending state.

(f) During the continuance of temporary custody or while the prisoner is otherwise being made available for trial as required by this agreement, time being served on the sentence shall continue to run but good time shall be earned by the prisoner only if, and to the extent that, the law and practice of the jurisdiction which imposed the sentence may allow.

(g) For all purposes other than that for which temporary custody as provided in this agreement is exercised, the prisoner shall be deemed to remain in the custody of and subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and any escape from temporary custody may be dealt with in the same manner as an escape from the original place of imprisonment or in any other manner permitted by law.

(h) From the time that a party state receives custody of a prisoner pursuant to this agreement until such prisoner is returned to the territory and custody of the sending state, the state in which the one or more untried indictments, informations or complaints are pending or in which trial is being had shall be responsible for the prisoner and shall also pay all costs of transporting, caring for, keeping and returning the prisoner. The provisions of this paragraph shall govern unless the states concerned shall have entered into a supplementary agreement providing for a different allocation of costs and responsibilities as between or among themselves. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

ARTICLE VI

(a) In determining the duration and expiration dates of the time periods provided in Articles III and IV of this agreement, the running of said time periods shall be tolled whenever and for as long as the prisoner is unable to stand trial, as determined by the court having jurisdiction of the matter.

(b) No provision of this agreement, and no remedy made available by this agreement, shall apply to any person who is adjudged to be mentally ill.

ARTICLE VII

Each state party to this agreement shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this agreement, and who shall provide, within and without the state, information necessary to the effective operation of this agreement.

ARTICLE VIII

This agreement shall enter into full force and effect as to a party state when such state has enacted the same into law. A state party to this agreement may withdraw herefrom by enacting a statute repealing the same. However, the withdrawal of any state shall not affect the status of any proceedings already initiated by inmates or by state officers at the time such withdrawal takes effect, nor shall it affect their rights in respect thereof.

ARTICLE IX

This agreement shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate its purposes. The provisions of this agreement shall be severable, and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this agreement is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this agreement and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this agreement shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state party hereto, the agreement shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

AN ACT to provide for setting aside the conviction in certain criminal cases; and to provide for the effect of such action.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

780.621 Motion to set aside conviction; persons eligible, hearing, order.

Sec. 1. Any person who is convicted, or pleads guilty to not more than 1 offense, excepting traffic violations and criminal offenses, the maximum punishment for which is life imprisonment, the commission of which occurred before his twenty-first birthday, may move the convicting court for the entry of an order setting aside the conviction in said cause. Such motion shall not be made until the expiration of 5 years from the time of the entry of the guilty plea or rendition of the decision of the court or jury. A copy of such motion shall be served upon the office of the prosecuting attorney or attorney general who prosecuted the crime and an opportunity be given to contest the motion. Upon the hearing of the motion the court may require the filing of such affidavits and may require the taking of such proofs as it deems proper. If the court determines that the circumstances and behavior of the applicant from the date of his conviction to the filing of the motion warrant setting aside the conviction, it may, in its discretion, enter an order for same.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

780.651 Search warrant; issuance by magistrate on affidavit; oath; grounds.

Sec. 1. When an affidavit is made on oath to a magistrate authorized to issue warrants in criminal cases and when the affidavit establishes the grounds for issuing a warrant pursuant to this act, the magistrate, if he is satisfied that there is reasonable or probable cause therefor, shall issue a warrant to search the house, building or other location or place where the property or thing which is to be searched for and seized is situated.

HISTORY: New 1966, p. 214, Act 189, Eff. Mar. 10, 1967.

780.652 Search warrant; grounds for issuance.

Sec. 2. A warrant may be issued to search for and seize any property or other thing which is either:

- (a) Stolen or embezzled in violation of any law of this state.
- (b) Designed and intended for use or which is or has been used as the means of committing a criminal offense.
- (c) Possessed, controlled or used wholly or partially in violation of any law of this state.
- (d) Evidence of crime or criminal conduct on the part of any person.
- (e) Contraband.
- (f) The bodies or persons of human beings or of animals, who may be the victims of a criminal offense.
- (g) The object of a search warrant under any other law of this state providing for the same. If a conflict exists between this act and any other search warrant law, this act shall be deemed controlling.

Sec. 5. When an officer in the execution of a search warrant finds any property or seizes any of the other things for which a search warrant is allowed by this act, the officer, in the presence of the person from whose possession or premises the property or thing was taken, if present, or in the presence of at least 1 other person, shall make a complete and accurate tabulation of the property and things so seized. The officer taking property or other things under the warrant shall forthwith give to the person from whom or from whose premises the property was taken a copy of the warrant and shall give to the person a copy of the tabulation upon completion, or shall leave a copy of the warrant and tabulation at the place from which the property or thing was taken. He shall file the tabulation promptly with the court or magistrate. The tabulation may be suppressed by order of the court until the final disposition of the case unless otherwise ordered. The property and things so seized shall be safely kept by the officer so long as necessary for the purpose of being produced or used as evidence on any trial. As soon as practicable after trial, stolen or embezzled property shall be restored to the owner thereof. Other things seized under the warrant shall be disposed of under direction of the court or magistrate, except that moneys and other useful property shall be turned over to the state, county or municipality, the officers of which seized the property under the warrant. Such moneys shall be credited to the general fund of the state, county or municipality.

AN ACT to authorize circuit court judges to grant immunity to witnesses upon application of the prosecuting attorneys; to prescribe the procedures therefor; and to prescribe penalties for refusal to testify and for giving false testimony.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

780.701 Immunity to witnesses; application, contents; order.

Sec. 1. In any case of a felony or a circuit court misdemeanor the prosecuting attorney may apply at the preliminary examination to the circuit court for the county in which the offense was committed or at the trial to the trial judge for an order granting immunity to any person within the state, designated by name and address in the application, who might give testimony concerning the violation charged in the complaint and warrant. The application shall be accompanied by a verified petition of the prosecuting attorney setting forth the facts upon which the application is based. If the judge to whom the application is presented is satisfied that it is in the interest of justice that such immunity be granted, he shall enter an order granting immunity to the witness if the witness appears before any court in a criminal proceeding and testifies under oath concerning any matter or thing of which the witness has knowledge concerning matters charged in the complaint and warrant, as set forth in the petition of the prosecuting attorney.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

CHAPTER I.

DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS.

791.201 State department of corrections; creation; powers; Michigan corrections commission, members, oath, qualification, terms, vacancy, compensation; meetings.

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a state department of corrections, hereinafter called the department, which shall possess the powers and perform the duties granted and conferred. Such department shall consist of and be administered by a commission of 6 members appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, to be known as the Michigan corrections commission, hereinafter called the commission, not more than 3 of whom shall be members of the same political party, each of whom shall qualify by taking the constitutional oath of office, and filing the same in the office of the secretary of state, and of such other officers and assistants as may be appointed or employed in such department, including a director as its executive head. No person holding any position either state or federal, nor any person drawing any salary from any municipal unit of the state, shall be eligible for appointment to the commission, without having first resigned from such position. The term of office of each member of the commission shall be 6 years: Provided, That of the members first appointed 2 shall be appointed for 2 years, 2 for 4 years and 2 for 6 years. The governor shall fill any vacancy occurring in the membership of the commission for the unexpired term only, and for cause established on hearing may remove any member thereof. Each member of the commission shall hold office until his successor shall be appointed and shall qualify. The members of the commission shall receive as compensation $25.00 per diem for each day they shall attend any regular or special meeting. The members of the commission shall be entitled to actual and necessary traveling and other expenses while in the performance of any of the duties hereby imposed. Such department and commission shall have its executive office at Lansing, and it shall be the duty of the department of administration to provide suitable office accommodations therefor: Provided, however, That meetings of the commission may be held at such other suitable places as it may designate.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 408, Act 232, Eff. Oct. 2.

CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: The above section is cited in § 16.377.

791.202 Corrections commission; meetings, time, quorum; duties.

Sec. 2. When this act becomes effective, the commission shall forthwith hold its organization meeting, and proceed promptly to comply with and enforce the several provisions of this act. The commission shall elect annually a chairman and such other officers as it may deem expedient. Meetings shall be held at least once each month or at such other times as shall be deemed necessary under the provisions of this act and in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted by the commission. A majority of the total membership of the commission shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The commission shall constitute the responsible authority for the administration of the penal institutions, prison industries, parole and probation of the state, subject to the limitations hereinafter set forth. The commission shall determine all matters relating to the unified development of the penal institutions, prison industries, parole and probation of the state and shall coordinate and adjust the agencies and penal institutions within its jurisdiction so that each shall form an integral part of a general system.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 408, Act 232, Eff. Oct. 2.

791.203 Corrections commission; director of corrections, appointment, qualifications, salary, powers and duties.

Sec. 3. The commission shall appoint a director of corrections who shall be qualified by training and experience in penology. He shall hold office at the pleasure of the commission except that he may be removed for cause and only after a public hearing before the commission. He shall receive such salary as shall be appropriated by the legislature, together with actual and necessary traveling and other expenses. The director shall be the chief administrative officer of the commission and shall be responsible to the commission for the exercise of the powers and duties prescribed and conferred by this act, and for such other powers and duties as may be assigned by the commission, subject at all times to its control. Subject to the provisions of this act, and to the rules and regulations adopted by the commission, the director shall have full power and authority to supervise and control the affairs of the department, and the several bureaus thereof, and he shall carry out the orders of the commission.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 408, Act 232, Eff. Oct. 2.

791.204 State department of corrections; jurisdiction.

Sec. 4. Subject to constitutional powers vested in the executive and judicial departments of the state, the department shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the following: (a) Probation officers of this state, and the administration of all orders of probation, (b) pardons, reprieves, commutations and paroles, and (c) penal institutions, correctional farms, probation recovery camps, prison labor and industry, wayward minor programs and youthful trainee institutions and programs for the care and supervision of youthful trainees.

791.205 Corrections commission; assistant directors, powers and duties.

Sec. 5. The director, subject to the approval of the commission, shall appoint an assistant director in charge of probation, an assistant director in charge of pardons and paroles, an assistant director in charge of penal institutions, an assistant director in charge of prison industries, and an assistant director in charge of a youth division. The assistant directors shall exercise and perform the respective powers and duties prescribed and conferred by this act, and such other powers and duties as may be assigned by the director, subject at all times to his control.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 408, Act 232, Eff. Oct. 2.

791.206 Rules and regulations; provisions.

Sec. 6. The director, having first obtained the approval of the commission, subject to the provisions of Act No. 88 of the Public Acts of 1943, as amended, being sections 24.71 to 24.80 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, and subject to the provisions of Act No. 197 of the Public Acts of 1952, as amended, being sections 24.101 to 24.110, of the Compiled Laws of 1948, shall promulgate rules and regulations which shall provide:

(a) For the control, management and operation of the general affairs of the department.

(b) For supervision and control of probationers and probation officers throughout the state, subject to the provisions contained in this act.

(c) For the manner in which applications for pardon, reprieve or commutation shall be made to the governor; for procedure in handling such applications by the commission, and for recommendations thereon to the governor; for the manner in which paroles shall be considered, and to prescribe the duties of the parole board in respect thereto; for hearings on paroles and for notice thereof, in accordance with the provisions of this act; for the entering of appropriate orders granting or denying paroles; and for the supervision and control of paroled prisoners.

(d) For the management and control of state penal institutions, correctional farms, probation recovery camps, the wayward minor program and youthful trainee institutions and programs for the care and supervision of youthful trainees separate and apart from persons convicted of crimes within the jurisdiction of the commission. Such rules may permit the use of portions of penal institutions in which persons convicted of crimes are detained. Such rules shall provide that decisions as to the removal of the youth from the youthful trainee facility or the release of the youth from the supervision of the department of corrections shall be made by the department of corrections and shall assign responsibility for such decisions to a committee composed of representative departmental staff members and may include, when practical and applicable, an appropriate probation officer.

(e) For the management and control of prison labor and industry.

(f) For the establishment and supervision of a youth division.

(g) For the transfer, with the approval of the director of the state department of social services, of youthful trainees to the department of social services for admission to any of its facilities for youth, where such facilities are more appropriate for the treatment and supervision of the youth than the facilities of the department of corrections. When the facilities of the department of social services are used by the department of corrections, the youth may be required to abide by the regulations of the department of social services and shall be subject to the same supervision and discipline as other youth in its care. The cost of care of such youth while under the care of the department of social services shall be a charge against the appropriation of the department of social services.

The director, having first obtained the approval of the commission, may adopt such further rules and regulations with respect to the affairs of the department as he may deem necessary or expedient for the proper administration of this act and he may modify, amend, supplement or rescind any such rule or regulation. No rule or regulation shall be adopted which shall be inconsistent with or in contravention of any of the express provisions of this act or the constitution.

CHAPTER II.

BUREAU OF PROBATION.

791.221 Bureau of probation; creation; supervision.

Sec. 21. There is hereby established within the department a bureau of probation. This bureau shall be under the direction and supervision of the assistant director in charge of probation.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 411, Act 232, Eff. Oct. 2.

791.222 Probation officers; powers and duties; probation recovery camps.

Sec. 22. The commission shall appoint, supervise and remove probation officers for the circuit courts, municipal courts, superior courts and police courts of this state, in the manner provided by the laws of this state.

The commission shall be vested with the powers and duties prescribed by law with relation to probation recovery camps.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 411, Act 232, Eff. Oct. 2.

791.223 Assistant director; powers and duties; reports by probation officers; refusal of information, misdemeanor, penalty.

Sec. 23. The assistant director in charge of probation shall be the administrative head of the bureau of probation subject to the authority and supervision of the director of corrections, and the commission. He shall exercise general supervision over the administration of probation in circuit courts, municipal courts, superior courts and police courts of the state. He shall, with the approval of the director, appoint such personnel other than probation officers as may be necessary for the conduct of the bureau. He shall endeavor to secure the effective application of the probation system in all courts of the state and the enforcement of probation laws. He shall cooperate in promoting measures for effective treatment and prevention of juvenile delinquency. He shall supervise the work of probation officers and shall have access to all probation offices and records. He shall prescribe the form of records to be kept and reports to be made by probation officers and shall promulgate general rules which shall regulate the method of procedure in the administration of probation, including investigation, supervision, case work, record keeping and accounting. He shall collect and maintain a complete file of all pre-sentence investigations made by all probation officers throughout the state, subject to the provisions of sections 26 and 27 of this chapter. He shall collect and compile and publish statistical and other information relating to probation work in all courts and such other information as may be of value in probation service. All probation officers are hereby required to submit such reports to the department of corrections as may be required on forms to be prescribed and furnished by the department of corrections. Any person or officer contemplated in this section who shall fail or refuse such information within 30 days after the same has been demanded, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than $10.00 nor more than $200.00.

CHAPTER III.

BUREAU OF PARDONS AND PAROLES; PAROLE BOARD.

791.231 Bureau of pardons and paroles; direction and supervision by assistant director; appointment, duties; assistants.

Sec. 31. There is hereby established within the department a bureau of pardons and paroles, under the direction and supervision of an assistant director in charge of pardons and paroles, who shall be appointed by the director and who shall be within the state civil service. He shall direct and supervise the work of the bureau and shall formulate methods of investigation and supervision and develop various processes in the technique of the case work of the parole staff, including interviewing, consultation of records, analysis of information, diagnosis, plan of treatment, correlation of effort by individuals and agencies, and methods of influencing human behavior. He shall be responsible for all investigations of persons eligible for release from state penal institutions, and for the general supervision of persons so released. The assistant director in charge of the bureau of pardons and paroles shall be responsible for the collection and preservation of such records and statistics with respect to paroled prisoners as may be required by the director. He shall employ such parole officers and assistants as may be necessary, subject to the approval of the commission. He shall designate 1 of his assistants as employment director, whose duty, primarily, shall be to aid persons coming under the supervision of the bureau of pardons and paroles in securing employment. The assistant director shall, subject to the approval of the commission, divide the state into geographical parole districts and shall designate a parole officer as district supervisor of each such district. The assistant director shall select such secretarial and other assistants as may be necessary for each such parole district under the merit system hereinbefore described, and may obtain permanent quarters for such staff in each such district as may be necessary.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 412, Act 232, Eff. Oct. 2.

791.232 Parole board; members, appointment, chairman; powers and duties.

Sec. 32. There is hereby established in the department a parole board consisting of 5 members who shall be appointed by the commission and who shall be within the state civil service. The chairman of the parole board shall be designated by the commission from the membership of the parole board. The parole board shall exercise and perform the powers and duties prescribed and conferred by this act and such other powers and duties as may be assigned by the commission.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 413, Act 232, Eff. Oct. 2.

791.233 Granting parole; provisions.

Sec. 33. The grant of any parole shall be subject to the following provisions:

(a) That no prisoner shall be given his liberty on parole until the board has reasonable assurance after consideration of all of the facts and circumstances, including the prisoner's mental and social attitude, that he will not become a menace to society or to the public safety;

(b) That no parole shall be so granted to any prisoner until he has served the minimum term imposed by the court less such allowances for good time or special good time as he may be entitled to by statute: Provided, That prisoners shall be eligible for parole prior to the expiration of their minimum terms of imprisonment whenever the sentencing judge or his successor in office shall give his written approval of the parole of such prisoner prior to the expiration of such minimum terms of imprisonment;

(c) That no prisoner shall be released on parole until the parole board shall have satisfactory evidence that arrangements have been made for such honorable and useful employment as he is capable of performing, or for his education, or for his care if he is mentally or physically ill or incapacitated.

Paroles-in-custody to answer warrants filed by local, out-of-state agencies or immigration officials are permissible, provided an accredited agent of the agency filing the warrant shall call for the prisoner so paroled in custody.

The parole board, in its discretion, may adopt such other or further rules and regulations not inconsistent with the foregoing provisions with respect to conditions to be imposed upon paroled prisoners under this act.

791.233a Parole; determining prisoner's fitness, consideration of medical assistance and blood donations.

Sec. 33a. In determining a prisoner's fitness to be released on parole, the parole board may give consideration to instances of voluntary assistance to medical and other scientific research and blood donations.

HISTORY: Add. 1959, p. 322, Act 220, Eff. Mar. 19, 1960.

791.234 Jurisdiction of parole board; indeterminate and other sentences.

Sec. 34. Every prisoner sentenced to an indeterminate sentence and confined in a state prison or reformatory, and any convict who is now imprisoned under a maximum sentence for life, with a minimum in terms of years, who shall have served the minimum so provided, notwithstanding that such sentence may otherwise be construed as a life sentence, and the term of years a nullity, when he has served a period of time equal to the minimum sentence imposed by the court for the crime of which he was convicted, less allowances made for good time and special good time, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the parole board.

Same; consecutive sentences; computation of time.

In case the prisoner is sentenced for consecutive terms, whether received at the same time or at any time during the life of the original sentence, the parole board shall have jurisdiction over the prisoner for purposes of parole when he shall have served the total time of the added minimum terms, less the good time credit allowed by statute. The maximum terms of the sentences shall be added to compute the new maximum term under this provision and discharge shall be issued only after the sum total of such maximum sentences has been served less the good time credit the prisoner may earn or may be awarded by appropriate order; unless the procedure of parole shall intervene and discharge issue upon satisfactory completion of said parole, in which case the maximum term shall be discharged.

Same; termination of sentence presently being served; ratification of orders.

Whenever any convict shall have 1 or more consecutive terms remaining to serve in addition to the term he is serving, the parole board shall be empowered to terminate the sentence such convict shall be presently serving at any time, in the board's discretion, after the minimum term of such sentence has been served. All orders of termination of maximum sentences heretofore executed by the parole board or any former parole commissioner are hereby ratified and adopted retroactive nunc pro tunc as of date of execution.

Public hearing; notice to sentencing judge; parole period, validation.

Any convict who now is, or hereafter may be imprisoned in any one of the prisons or reformatories of this state under sentence for life or for any term of years, other than those so sentenced for life for murder in the first degree, and who shall have served 10 calendar years of such sentence, shall be subject to the authority and jurisdiction of the parole board and may be released on parole in the discretion of the parole board: Provided, however, That no parole shall be granted any convict so sentenced and so imprisoned except after public hearing in the manner hereinafter prescribed for pardons and commutations, except that 2 members of the parole board may conduct such public hearing: Provided further, That notice of such public hearing shall be given to the sentencing judge, or his successor in office, and said parole shall not be granted in case said sentencing judge, or his successor in office, shall file written objections to the granting thereof, which written objections shall be made part of the hearing. Parole so granted any convict so sentenced and so imprisoned shall be for a period of not less than 4 years, and subject to the usual rules appertaining to paroles issued by the parole board: Provided, however, That no parole ordered for a convict whose sentence for life or for a minimum term equaling or exceeding 10 calendar years shall become valid until the transcript of the record shall have been filed with the attorney general whose certification of receipt thereof shall within 5 days be returnable to the office of the parole board. And such file shall become [sic] a public record as in the manner made and provided for pardons and commutations.

Time of release.

The time of his release on parole shall be discretionary with the parole board. The action of the parole board in releasing prisoners shall not be reviewable if in compliance with law.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 413, Act 232, Eff. Oct. 2;—Am. 1955, p. 168, Act 107, Imd. Eff. Jun. 3;—Am. 1957, p. 242, Act 192, Eff. Sep. 27;—Am. 1958, p. 280, Act 210, Eff. Sep. 13.

791.235 Release of prisoner; procedure.

Sec. 35. The release of a prisoner on parole shall be granted solely upon the initiative of the parole board. At least 1 month prior to the expiration of the minimum term of each prisoner eligible for parole, less good time or special good time allowances, it shall be the duty of the parole board to cause each prisoner to be brought before it, together with all pertinent information with regard to such prisoner. Included in such information shall be a report of the warden of each prison or reformatory in which such prisoner has been confined as to the prisoner's conduct with a detailed statement as to all infractions of rules and discipline, punishment given to such prisoner and the circumstances connected therewith; the extent to which such prisoner appears to have responded to the efforts made to improve his social attitude; the prisoner's industrial record while confined, the nature of such occupation, and a recommendation as to the kind of work he is best fitted to perform and at which he is most likely to succeed when he is released; and the results of such physical, mental and psychiatric examinations as have been made of the prisoner. The parole board shall reach its own conclusions as to the desirability of releasing such prisoner on parole. All decisions of the parole board shall be by majority vote.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 414, Act 232, Eff. Oct. 2.

791.236 Issuance of parole; signature of chairman; notice, amendment, conditions.

Sec. 36. All paroles shall issue upon order of the parole board, duly adopted, and shall be signed by the chairman; notice thereafter shall be given the sheriff, in writing, or other local police officers of the municipality or county in which the prisoner was convicted, and to the sheriff or other local police officer of the municipality or county to which the paroled prisoner is sent. Any order of parole may be amended, revised, modified or rescinded at the discretion of the parole board. Whenever an order for parole is issued it shall contain the conditions thereof and shall specifically provide proper means of supervision of the paroled prisoner in accordance with the rules and regulations of the board and under the direction of the bureau of pardons and paroles created by this act.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 414, Act 232, Eff. Oct. 2.

791.237 Paroled prisoner; clothing, non-transferable ticket from state.

Sec. 37. Whenever any prisoner is released upon parole he shall receive from the state clothing and a non-transferable ticket to the place in which he is to reside. At the discretion of the assistant director in charge of the bureau of pardons and paroles, the prisoner may be advanced the expenses of such transportation, and such further sums, not to exceed $40.00, as the assistant director may direct for his temporary maintenance. Failure of the paroled prisoner to return such sums of money within 90 days may be declared to be a violation of his parole.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 415, Act 232, Eff. Oct. 2.

791.238 Custody of paroled prisoner; warrant for return hearing; incarceration; treatment as escaped prisoner; forfeiture of good time; committing crime while on parole; construction of parole.

Sec. 38. Every prisoner on parole shall remain in the legal custody and under the control of the commission. The assistant director of the bureau of pardons and paroles is hereby authorized, at any time in his discretion, and upon a showing of probable violation of parole, to issue a warrant for the return of any paroled prisoner to any penal institution in the state under the control of the commission. Pending hearing upon any charge of parole violation, the prisoner shall remain incarcerated in such penal institution.

A prisoner violating the provisions of his parole and for whose return a warrant has been issued by the assistant director of the bureau of pardons and paroles shall, after the issuance of such warrant, be treated as an escaped prisoner owing service to the state, and shall be liable, when arrested, to serve out the unexpired portion of his maximum imprisonment, and the time from the date of the declared violation to the date of his availability for return to any penal institution under the control of the commission shall not be counted as any part or portion of the time to be served. The warrant of the assistant director of the bureau of pardons and paroles shall be a sufficient warrant authorizing all officers named therein to detain the paroled prisoner in any jail of the state until his return to any penal institution under the control of the commission can be effected.

If any paroled prisoner shall fail to return to the prison enclosure when required by the assistant director of the bureau of pardons and paroles, or if he makes escape while on parole, he shall be treated in all respects as if he had escaped from the prison enclosure, and shall be subject to be retaken as provided by the laws of this state.

The parole board, in its discretion, may cause the forfeiture of all good time to the date of the declared violation.

Any prisoner committing a crime while at large upon parole and being convicted and sentenced therefor shall be treated as to the last incurred term, as provided under section 34.

A parole granted a prisoner shall be construed simply as a permit to such prisoner to go without the enclosure of the prison, and not as a release, and while so at large he shall be deemed to be still serving out the sentence imposed upon him by the court, and shall be entitled to good time the same as if he were confined in prison.

Sec. 44. Subject to the constitutional authority of the governor to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons, the parole board shall, upon receipt of any application for reprieve, commutation or pardon:

(a) Deliver the original application to the governor and retain a copy thereof in its file, pending investigation and hearing; and

(b) Within 10 days after receipt of any application, forward to the sentencing judge, and to the prosecuting attorney of the county having original jurisdiction of the case, or their successors in office, a written notice of the filing thereof, together with copies of the application, the supporting affidavits, and a brief summary of the case. Within 10 days after receipt of notice of the filing of any application, it shall be the duty of the sentencing judge and the prosecuting attorney, or their successors in office, to file with the parole board, in writing, such information as may be at their disposal, together with such objections as they may desire to interpose to such application.

(c) In all cases where the applicant applies for a reprieve, commutation or pardon, the parole board shall conduct a public hearing before recommending executive clemency. Two members of the board may conduct such hearing, and the public shall be represented by the attorney general or a member of his staff.

(d) At least 5 days prior to any public hearing written notice thereof shall be transmitted by mail to the attorney general, to the sentencing trial judge and to the prosecuting attorney, or their successors.

(e) Public hearing shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of this act, and in accordance with such rules and regulations as the commission may adopt. Any person having information to divulge, in connection with any application for pardon, commutation or reprieve, shall be sworn as a witness. And in hearing testimony, the parole board shall give to any technical rules of evidence a liberal construction.

(f) The parole board shall in each case make a full investigation and recommendation, and shall make all data in its files available to the governor. The files of the parole board in such cases shall be matters of public record.

CHAPTER IV.

BUREAU OF PENAL INSTITUTIONS.

791.261 Bureau of prisons; establishment, direction and supervision.

Sec. 61. There is hereby established within the department, a bureau of prisons. This bureau shall be under the direction and supervision of the assistant director in charge of the bureau of penal institutions.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 417, Act 232, Eff. Oct. 2.

791.262 Bureau of penal institutions; places administered.

Sec. 62. The following penal institutions shall be administered within said bureau: The state prison of southern Michigan in the township of Blackman, in the county of Jackson; the state house of correction and branch of state prison at Marquette, in the county of Marquette; the Michigan reformatory at Ionia, in the county of Ionia; also any other state prison or reformatory for adults hereafter established; also any state penal institutions, farm probation recovery camp, or penal institutions for sex offenders hereafter established.

Supervision and inspection of jails and houses of correction, visitation.

The department shall supervise and inspect local jails and houses of correction for the purpose of obtaining facts in any manner pertaining to the usefulness and proper management of said penal institutions and of promoting proper, efficient and humane administration thereof, and shall promulgate rules and standards with relation thereto; and any reasonable order with respect to such penal institutions may be enforced through mandamus or injunction in the circuit court of the county where the penal institution is located, through proper proceedings instituted by the attorney general on behalf of the commission. The board of supervisors may determine whether the sheriff's residence is to be a part of the county jail. Any sheriff, superintendent or employee of any penal institution, subject to inspection under the provisions of this act, who shall refuse to admit any member of the commission, or any duly authorized agent of the commission, for the purpose of visitation and inspection, or who shall refuse or neglect to furnish the information required by the commission, or its duly authorized agent, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished as provided in the laws of this state.

Records, reports.

The sheriff of each county of this state and the superintendent of each local house of correction shall keep such records with respect to the several county jails and houses of correction as shall be reasonably prescribed by the commission. The sheriff of each county of this state and the superintendent of each local house of correction shall, on or before September 30 in each year, make a report to the commission with respect to the several county jails and houses of correction such report to be in such form and contain such information as shall be reasonably prescribed by the commission. The commission shall furnish any blank forms required for the making of such report.

791.263 Wardens; appointment; personnel.

Sec. 63. The wardens of the several penal institutions of this state shall be appointed by the director of corrections and such wardens shall be within the state civil service. The assistant director in charge of the bureau of penal institutions shall, subject to the approval of the director, appoint such personnel within the bureau as may be necessary: Provided, That members of the staff and employees of each penal institution in this state shall be appointed by the warden subject to the approval of the director.

HISTORY: New 1953, p. 417, Act 232, Eff. Oct. 2.

791.264 Classification of prisoners; classification committee; information, filing; investigation.

Sec. 64. The assistant director in charge of the bureau of penal institutions shall have authority and it shall be his duty to classify the prisoners in the several penal institutions. He shall, subject to the approval of the director, promulgate regulations under which there shall be organized in each penal institution, a classification committee from the staff of such penal institution, which committee shall perform such services and in such manner as the assistant director in charge of the bureau of penal institutions shall require. It shall be the duty of each such classification committee to obtain and file complete information with regard to each prisoner sentenced under an indeterminate sentence at the time such prisoner is received in any penal institution. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the court and of all probation officers and other officials to send such information as may be in their possession or under their control to each such classification committee when and in such manner as they may be directed. When all such existing available records have been assembled, each such classification committee shall determine whether any further investigation is necessary, and, if so, it shall make such investigation. All such information shall be filed with the parole board so as to be readily available when the parole of the prisoner is to be considered.

AN ACT to provide for the establishment of probation recovery camps; to prescribe the powers and duties of the state prison commission with respect thereto; to designate persons eligible for entrance in said camps, and to declare the effect of this act.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

798.1 Probation recovery camps; state prison commission to establish and supervise.

Sec. 1. The state prison commission is hereby authorized and it shall be the duty of said commission to provide and establish probation recovery camps, to be located in such regions of the state which are adapted to reforestation and the development and conservation of the natural resources of the state, other than agricultural. Said camps shall be under the complete and exclusive supervision of the state prison commission. Said commission shall have the power to acquire by purchase, gift, grant or devise, or condemnation under the provisions of Act No. 149 of the Public Acts of 1911, as amended, being sections 3763 to 3783, inclusive, of the Compiled Laws of 1929, suitable sites and acreage; to erect and maintain appropriate buildings thereon; and to otherwise equip and furnish the said camps. The said commission is hereby authorized to engage teachers, trainers and other employees and incur such other expenses as shall be necessary to the proper functioning of this act.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 798.1.

NOTE: Act 149, 1911, above referred to, is Compilers' § 213.21 et seq.

798.2 Probation recovery camps; rules and regulations.

Sec. 2. The said commission shall adopt and enforce rules and regulations for the government and discipline of the camps: Provided, That parolees shall be segregated from probationers and confined in separate camps and that no camp shall confine both probationers and parolees. The commission shall provide educational and instructive courses of both a civil and semi-military character: Provided, That such courses shall not be other than vocational or physical and shall be best suited to equip and train the inmates as good citizens.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 798.2.

798.3 Probation recovery camps; persons eligible.

Sec. 3. Any person convicted of a crime in his state who has been or shall be declared eligible to probation, under the laws of this state, by a court of competent jurisdiction, or who, in the opinion of the state prison commission, is qualified to parole from any penal institution, is eligible to confinement in the camps herein provided for.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 798.3.

798.4 Transfer of inmates; written notice, time.

Sec. 4. The said commission shall have the discretionary power to transfer an inmate from 1 camp to another whenever it shall deem such change wise for the welfare of the inmate or the interests of the camps. Written notice of any such transfer shall be given to the committing authority within 15 days from the date thereof.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 798.4.

798.5 Agreements with state departments for joint undertakings; conservation and development of natural resources.

Sec. 5. The commission shall have the power and authority to enter into agreements with the department of conservation or any other department or agency of the state for joint undertakings for the conservation and development of the natural resources of the state and for the recovery and reclamation of any inmate of the camps, or for any other kindred purpose wherein the facilities of any such department or agencies may be useful and available and of mutual benefit and advantage. The various agencies of the state shall establish, as far as possible, reciprocal relations for the efficient functioning of this act.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 798.5.

798.6 Construction of act.

Sec. 6. This act shall be construed as supplementary to the laws of this state with respect to pardons, paroles and probation.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 798.6.

Act 89, 1935, p. 143; Imd. Eff. May 27.

AN ACT providing that the state of Michigan may enter into a compact or compacts with any of the United States for mutual helpfulness in relation to persons convicted of crime or offenses or who are or may be at large on probation or parole, and providing that the state may enter into a compact or compacts with any of the United States that will provide for cooperative effort and mutual assistance amongst them in the prevention of crime and in the enforcement of their respective penal laws and policies and to establish such agencies, joint or otherwise, as said states may deem desirable for making effective such agreements and compacts.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

798.101 Interstate compact; probation and parole.

Sec. 1. The governor of this state is hereby authorized and directed to enter into a compact on behalf of the state of Michigan with any of the United States legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

A COMPACT

Entered into by and among the contracting states, signatories hereto, with the consent of Congress of the United States of America, granted by an act entitled "An act granting the consent of Congress to any 2 or more states to enter into agreements or compacts for cooperative effort and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime and for other purposes."

The contracting states solemnly agree:

(1) That it shall be competent for the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact, (herein called "sending state") to permit any person convicted of an offense within such state and placed on probation or released on parole to reside in any other state party to this compact, (herein called "receiving state") while on probation or parole, if

(a) Such person is in fact a resident of or has his family residing within the receiving state and can obtain employment there;

(b) Though not a resident of the receiving state and not having his family residing there, the receiving state consents to such person's being sent there.

Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be granted to the receiving state to investigate the home and prospective employment of such person.

A resident of the receiving state, within the meaning of this section, is one who has been an actual inhabitant of such state continuously for more than 1 year prior to his coming to the sending state and has not resided within the sending state for more than 6 continuous months immediately preceding the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted.

(2) That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation of and supervision over probationers or parolees of any sending state and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards that prevail for its own probationers and parolees.

(3) That duly accredited officers of a sending state may at all times enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any person on probation or parole. For that purpose no formalities will be required other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the person to be retaken. All legal requirements to obtain extradition or fugitives from justice are hereby expressly waived. The decision of the sending state to retake a person on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state: Provided, however, That if at the time when a state seeks to retake a probationer or parolee there should be pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge, or he should be suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense, he shall not be retaken without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or from imprisonment for such offense.

(4) That the duly accredited officers of the sending state will be permitted to transport prisoners being retaken through any and all states parties to this compact, without interference.

(5) That the governor of each state may designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other contracting states, if and when appointed, shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to more effectively carry out the terms of this compact.

(6) That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its ratification by any state as between it and any other state or states so ratifying. When ratified, it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state; the form of ratification to be in accordance with the laws of the ratifying state.

(7) That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each ratifying state until renounced by it. The duties and obligations hereunder of a renouncing state shall continue as to parolees or probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged by the sending state. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which ratified it, by sending 6 months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 798.101.

CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: Sections 798.101 to 798.103 are cited in § 791.211.

798.102 Interstate compact; declaration of necessity.

Sec. 2. Whereas an emergency exists for the immediate taking effect of this act, the same shall become effective immediately upon its passage and, when the governor of this state shall sign and seal this compact or any compact with any other state, pursuant to the provisions of this act. Such compact or compacts as between the state of Michigan and such other state so signing shall have the force and effect of law immediately upon the enactment by such other state of a law giving it similar effect.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 798.102.

798.103 Interstate compact; prevention of crime.

Sec. 3. The governor of the state of Michigan is further authorized and empowered to enter into any other agreements or compacts with any of the United States not inconsistent with the laws of this state or of the United States, or the other agreeing states, for cooperative effort and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime and in the enforcement of the penal laws and policies of the contracting states and to establish agencies, joint or otherwise, as may be deemed desirable for making effective such agreements and compacts. The intent and purpose of this act is to grant to the governor of the state of Michigan administrative power and authority if and when conditions of crime make it necessary to bind the state in a cooperative effort to reduce crime and to make the enforcement of the criminal laws of agreeing states more effective, all pursuant to the consent of the Congress of the United States heretofore granted.

AN ACT to revise and consolidate the laws relative to the state prison, to the state house of correction, and branch of the state prison in the upper peninsula, and to the house of correction and reformatory at Ionia, and the government and discipline thereof and to repeal all acts inconsistent therewith.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

800.1 State penal institutions; maintenance.

Sec. 1. There shall continue to be maintained in this state a state prison in the township of Blackman, in the county of Jackson; a state prison at Marquette, in the county of Marquette, and a house of correction and reformatory at Ionia, in the county of Ionia, in which persons sentenced shall be confined, employed at hard labor, and governed in the manner provided by law. The state prison in the township of Blackman.

in the county of Jackson, shall be known and designated as the state prison of southern Michigan.

STATE INSTITUTIONS: For general provisions as to management and operation, see Compilers' § 21.71 et seq.

IONIA STATE HOSPITAL: For care and treatment of the criminal insane, see Act 151 of 1923, being Compilers' § 330.11 et seq.

CITY PRISONS: In fourth class cities, see Compilers' §§ 93.1 and 93.2.

VILLAGE PRISONS: See Compilers' §§ 66.11 and 67.5.

STERILIZATION: Procedure for sterilization of insane, feeble-minded, etc., convict, see Compilers' § 720.301 et seq.

800.2 Board of control; appointment, members, qualifications; ex officio members, vacancy.

Sec. 2. The government and control of said prison and of the house of correction, and of the branch of the state prison in the upper peninsula, shall be vested in a board of control for each to consist of 3 members, not more than 2 of whom shall be of the same political party, to be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, 1 to serve for 2 years, 1 to serve for 4 years, and 1 to serve for 6 years, as may be designated by the governor at the time of their appointment, and at the expiration of their term their successors shall be appointed in like manner for the term of 6 years. The governor shall be ex officio a member of said board. Whenever a vacancy occurs in either of such boards otherwise than by the expiration of a term, such vacancy shall be filled by the governor for the remainder of the term, by and with the advice of the senate, if in session. If the senate is not in session, the appointment shall continue until the next regular session of the senate. The first appointment shall be made on the passage of this act, and the terms of office of the first appointees shall terminate on the fifteenth day of February, 1895, 1897, and 1899, respectively.

HISTORY: CL 1897, 2081;—CL 1915, 1701;—CL 1929, 17545;—CL 1948, 800.2.

BOARDS OF CONTROL: Abolished: duties vested in the bureau of prisons, see Compilers' § 791.261.

800.3 Board of control; compensation; expenses.

Sec. 3. The members of said boards of control, shall receive no compensation for their time or services, but their actual and reasonable expenses, incurred in the performance of their official duties, to be verified on oath, shall be paid by the state treasurer on the warrant of the auditor general, out of money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

800.32 Aiding prisoner to escape; penalty.

Sec. 30. [32]. Any person supplying any such convict with weapons, money, clothing, disguises, or any implement or thing, with the intent to assist him in escaping from custody, or who shall in any way assist such convict in his endeavor to escape, shall upon conviction be deemed guilty of a felony, and be liable to imprisonment in any of said prisons for a period not to exceed 5 years: Provided, however, That if the convict so assisted is being imprisoned for life, then and in such case, the person so assisting in such escape may be imprisoned for a period not to exceed 20 years: And provided further, That this section shall apply to every effort to assist a convict to escape by furnishing weapons, money, clothing, disguises, or in any other manner to any convict, whether he is within the walls of the prison or is placed at work outside of the prison walls by direction of either the board or the warden. If any warden, deputy warden, guard, keeper or other officer shall through negligence, or by violating any of the rules of such prison or any of the provisions of this act, suffer any prisoner confined in any of such prisons to escape, he shall on conviction be punished by fine not exceeding 1,000 dollars, or by imprisonment in any of such prisons for a period not to exceed 2 years, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court. If any warden, deputy warden, guard, keeper or other officer shall *voluntary suffer any convict being imprisoned in any of such prisons to escape, he shall suffer the like punishment and penalties as the convict so suffered to escape was sentenced to suffer.

800.33 Infraction of prison rules; record, use at hearings; good time allowance, restoration, extension; release or discharge, eligibility, approval of parole board; parole violations.

Sec. 33. The warden shall cause a record to be kept of each and all infractions of the rules of discipline by convicts, with the names of the persons so offending, and the date and character of each offense, which record shall be placed before the commissioner of corrections at each regular hearing, and every convict who shall have no infraction of the rules of the prison or the laws of the state recorded against him, shall be entitled to and shall receive a reduction from his sentence as follows: During the first and second years of his sentence, 5 days for each month; during the third and fourth years, 6 days for each month; during the fifth and sixth years, 7 days for each month; during the seventh, eighth and ninth years, 9 days for each month; during the tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth years, 10 days for each month; during the fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth and nineteenth years, 12 days for each month; and from and including the twentieth year, up to and including the period fixed for the expiration of the sentence, 15 days for each month. This section shall not be construed so as to allow any good time in cases of commuted sentences unless so stipulated in the executive order commuting the sentence. The commissioner of corrections may, by general rule, subject to amendment from time to time and subject to general rules promulgated in compliance with the provisions of Act No. 88 of the Public Acts of 1943, as amended, being sections 24.71 to 24.82, inclusive, of the Compiled Laws of 1948, prescribe how much of the good time earned under the foregoing provisions a convict shall forfeit for 1 or more infractions of the prison rules in any month, and for any serious act of insubordination, attempt to escape, or escape, the warden may, by special order, take away any portion of the whole of the good time made by any convict up to the date of such offense. The warden may, as a reward for especially good conduct, such as aiding officials in cases of insubordination or attempts at escape, restore to any convict the whole or any portion of the good time lost because of any minor infraction of the rules. The warden, in computing the diminution of time for convicts, shall allow them the good time in accordance with the provisions of this amendatory act. Whenever a convict has been committed under several convictions, with separate sentences being served concurrently, they shall be considered as 1 continuous sentence in the granting or forfeiting of good time: Provided, That when a convict begins serving a second or any subsequent term for which he has been convicted after the effective date of this amendatory act, he shall be allowed good time in accordance with the schedule, beginning with the lowest figure stated therein. The warden of any institution subject to the provisions of this act may, with the consent and approval of the commissioner of corrections, extend the good time allowance beyond that herein specified, to persons whom he deems to have achieved a decided reformation since the date of commitment or for good work records or for exemplary conduct: Provided, however, That such additional good time allowance shall not exceed 50 per cent of the good time allowance under the foregoing schedule. This amendatory act is hereby declared to be effective as to all prisoners now in custody at said institutions as well as to all prisoners who shall hereafter be committed: Provided further, That any convict now in prison whose good time allowance has been increased by this amendatory act, who would thereby be eligible for release or discharge, shall not be released or discharged without the approval of the parole board: Provided, That every convict shall be eligible for release or discharge if he has served the maximum of his sentence less the good time allowed him under the law prior to this amendatory act. The parole board shall be exclusively empowered to cause the forfeiture of the good time credited to any convict at the time of any parole violation.

Sec. 62. When any convict shall be discharged from prison by pardon or otherwise, the warden shall furnish such convict with clothing, if he be not already provided for, not exceeding 25 dollars in value, and such sum of money, not less than 10 dollars nor exceeding 25 dollars, as the warden may deem necessary and proper. Whenever any discharged convict shall have been convicted and sentenced from any other city or village than that in which the prison from which he is discharged is located, the warden shall purchase a railroad ticket to such city or village for the use of such discharged convict, or a railroad ticket to any other point in the state selected by such discharged convict where the cost of transportation does not exceed the amount required to carry such discharged convict to the point from which sentenced, the cost of such transportation to be paid out of the general fund of the state. Upon release such convict shall be conducted to the station of the railroad from which such transportation has been purchased, by an attendant of said prison, and placed upon the proper train of such railroad. The attendant shall thereupon deliver to the conductor of such train the ticket so purchased for the use of such convict. The conductor so receiving such ticket, if the place of destination of such convict shall be without the limits of the run of such conductor, shall deliver to such convict, upon reaching such limits, the unused portion of such ticket. It shall be the duty of every such released convict to continue to the place of destination as indicated upon such ticket and failure so to do shall constitute a misdemeanor and shall be punishable as such.

AN ACT to provide for employing the convicts in the custody of the department of corrections upon public projects other than construction within any county. Am. 1970, p. 145, Act 54, Imd. Eff. Jul. 10.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

800.101 Convicts; work on public projects.

Sec. 1. Upon the written request of a majority of the board of commissioners, the department of corrections may detail such able bodied convicts as in its discretion shall seem proper, not exceeding the number specified in the written request, to work upon public projects of a county. The county shall pay to the general fund a certain fixed amount of money per day for each man so detailed, which amount shall be decided upon by the corrections commission. The amount to be paid shall be a fair and just compensation for such labor. The county shall pay expenses of transportation to and from the county and shall provide or pay for the lodging and food of the convicts while employed by it and shall furnish all tools and materials necessary in the performance of the work. The convicts employed upon the public projects shall be under the care and custody of officers as the department of corrections shall designate, and the expense of guarding if guards are necessary shall be borne by the county. Where 2 or more applications shall be on file they shall be filled pro rata. All moneys collected under the provisions of this section shall be turned over to the state treasurer and credited to the general fund.

HIGHWAY LABOR: Use of prisoners in county jails, see Compilers' § 801.10 et seq.

CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: The above section is cited in § 800.327.

800.101a Convicts; employment on state highways; control, compensation.

Sec. 1-a. Any convicts mentioned in section 1 of this act may be employed by the state highway department in this state in construction work upon the public highways of this state. The state highway commissioner shall make requisition for convicts desired for employment and in such requisition shall state the number desired, the place of such work and the time when desired. Such requisition shall be made to the commissioner of pardons and paroles who shall thereupon determine which of such convicts may be used for such employment. At the direction of the governor, the commissioner of pardons and paroles shall issue an order authorizing the transfer of such convicts from their place of confinement to such place of highway employment or prison camp, a copy of which order shall be authority to the warden for the temporary transfer of such convicts. In their employment in highway construction such convicts shall be under the direction of the state highway commissioner or his designated agents and employes. The wardens shall furnish at each place of employment sufficient guards to prevent insubordination or escape. The compensation for such employment shall be determined by the state highway commissioner and the commissioner of pardons and paroles. Such officers shall determine the amount to be paid to each convict and the amount to be paid the prison from which such convict is obtained. All sums so paid or allowed to the prison therefor shall be paid or credited to the fund of such prison.

Act 27, 1903, p. 32; Eff. Sep. 17.

AN ACT to provide for a central bureau for the receiving and compiling records of the description, measurements and histories of the convicts in the penal institutions of this and other states; to make such descriptions, measurements and histories available to the several circuit courts of this state, and to provide for the expenses necessarily incurred in so doing.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

800.231 Bureau of criminal records; location, purpose.

Sec. 1. There shall be established at the Michigan state prison at Jackson a central bureau for receiving and properly compiling all records now made and which hereafter shall be made, at the penal institutions of this state, of the description and measurements, by the Bertillon or other system, and of the criminal history of the convicts in such institutions, as provided by section 1, Act 183, Public Acts of 1891, being section 2150, Compiled Laws of 1897, and, as far as practicable, of the convicts in the penal institutions in other states.

800.329 Purchase of finished products; approval required; resale; purpose.

Sec. 9. The corrections commission, with the specific approval of the director of the department of administration, may purchase finished goods, materials or equipment of the same type as ordinarily produced by correctional industries. The commission may then sell such items to those governmental entities for whom production by correctional industries is permitted by this act. The purpose of this section is to provide for the completing of orders when production is not sufficient or for other reasons of economy and good business practice which may make such purchases beneficial to the state.

HISTORY: New 1968, p. 27, Act 15, Imd. Eff. Apr. 5.

800.330 Local correctional institutions; sale or disposal of products; applicability of act.

Sec. 10. A correctional institution now maintained by a political subdivision of this state may sell or otherwise dispose of its correctional institution products to the institutions or departments of the county or political subdivision in which the institution is located. The provisions of sections 8 and 9 shall not apply to a correctional institution of a political subdivision. None of the provisions of this act shall apply to the Detroit house of correction.

HISTORY: New 1968, p. 27, Act 15, Imd. Eff. Apr. 5.

800.331 Intent of act.

Sec. 11. It is the intent of this act:

(a) To provide adequate, regular, diversified and suitable employment for inmates of the state consistent with proper penal purposes.

(b) To utilize the labor of inmates exclusively for self-maintenance and for reimbursing the state for expenses incurred by reason of their crimes and imprisonment.

(c) To eliminate all competitive relationships between inmate labor or correctional industries products and free labor or private industry.

(d) To effect the requisitioning and disbursement of inmate labor and correctional industries products directly through established state authorities with no possibility of private profits therefrom and with the minimum of intermediating financial considerations, appropriations or expenditures, and to these ends the governor shall require the director of the department of administration to establish suitable methods of purchasing and of accounting which shall provide as may be necessary or advisable:

(i) For the purchasing and supply of supplies and materials necessary for the institutional manufacture or production of the correctional industries products in accordance with sections 2, 6 and 7.

(ii) For crediting corrections industries accounts and debiting accounts of consuming institutions or departments for products requisitioned and disbursed, at prices fixed as nearly as practicable to recapture direct and indirect costs exclusive of supervisory costs and to indicate fairly the true costs of maintenance and efficiency of the management of correctional institutions, provided that the prices or the requisitioning or disbursement of correctional industries products shall in no case be determined by or contingent upon competitive bidding from other sources.

(iii) For the purchase of all commodities or requirements other than correctional industries products as provided in this act, by competitive bidding or other methods established by law or approved practice, but no bids may be asked or received except for commodity requirements which it has been definitely decided shall not be supplied by requisitioning of correctional industries products as provided in this act.

HISTORY: New 1968, p. 27, Act 15, Imd. Eff. Apr. 5.

800.332 Payment or allowances to inmates or dependents; basis.

Sec. 12. The corrections commission may adopt a schedule of payments or allowances to inmates or to their dependents from such funds as may be provided therefor, but such payments shall be made on the basis of need or of motivation or of reward for industry or behavior and shall not be related to profits to the state from the activities to which the prisoners may be assigned.

HISTORY: New 1968, p. 28, Act 15, Imd. Eff. Apr. 5.

800.333 Violation of act by public officer; penalty.

Sec. 13. Wilful violations of any of the provisions of this act by an officer of the state or of any political subdivision thereof, or by any officer of any institution of either, shall be sufficient cause for removal from office, and subject such officer to prosecution as provided in section 14.

HISTORY: New 1968, p. 28, Act 15, Imd. Eff. Apr. 5.

800.334 Violation of act; misdemeanor.

Sec. 14. Any person, firm or corporation who wilfully violates any of the provisions of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor.

HISTORY: New 1968, p. 28, Act 15, Imd. Eff. Apr. 5.

800.335 Repeal.

Sec. 15. Act No. 210 of the Public Acts of 1935, as amended, being sections 800.301 to 800.319 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, is repealed.

HISTORY: New 1968, p. 28, Act 15, Imd. Eff. Apr. 5.

Act 253, 1935, p. 434; Imd. Eff. Jun. 8.

AN ACT relative to the state penal institutions, and the care and maintenance of prisoners therein; and to provide for the reimbursement of the state on account thereof in certain cases.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

800.401 Prison reimbursement act; short title.

Sec. 1. This act may be known and cited as "The Prison Reimbursement Act."

HISTORY: CL 1948, 800.401.

800.402 Report to auditor general; prisoner's financial responsibility; time; form.

Sec. 2. The warden of the state prison at Jackson, the branch of the state prison at Marquette, and the house of correction and reformatory at Ionia, shall forward to the auditor general a list containing the name of each prisoner, the county from which he was sentenced, term of sentence, date of admission, together with all information available on the financial responsibility of said prisoner. Such report shall be made on blanks to be furnished by the auditor general, and shall be made on or before the tenth day of each month.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 800.402.

800.403 Report to auditor general; investigation to secure reimbursement.

Sec. 3. The auditor general shall investigate or cause to be investigated all such reports furnished by said wardens for the purpose of securing reimbursement for the expense of the state of Michigan for the care, custody and control of said prisoners.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 800.403.

800.404 Appointment of guardian; procedure; additional remedy.

Sec. 4. Whenever it shall be found that any person has been admitted to any of the aforesaid state penal institutions, as a prisoner, the auditor general, or the prosecuting attorney of the county from which said person was so sentenced, shall, if such person or prisoner be possessed of any estate, or shall thereafter while he shall remain in such institution become possessed thereof, petition the circuit court of the county from which said person was sentenced, stating that such person is a prisoner in such state penal institution, and that he has good reason to believe and does believe that the said prisoner has an estate, and praying for the appointment of a guardian of such person, if a guardian has not already been so appointed, and that said estate may be subjected to the payment to the state of the expenses paid and to be paid by it on behalf of said person as a prisoner. The court shall thereupon issue a citation to show cause why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted. If such prisoner has a guardian, it shall be served upon him. If such prisoner has no guardian, it shall be served upon such prisoner by delivering a copy thereof personally or by registered mail to the warden of the penal institution where such prisoner is being detained at least 14 days before the date of hearing. The court may appoint a guardian of such person or prisoner. At the time of the hearing, if it appear that such person or prisoner has an estate which ought to be subjected to the claim of the state, the court shall without further notice appoint a guardian of the person and estate of such prisoner if the court deems one necessary for the protection of the rights of all parties so concerned, and the court shall make an order requiring the guardian or any person or corporation so possessed of the estate belonging to said prisoner to appropriate and apply such estate to the payment of so much or such part thereof as may appear to be proper toward reimbursing the state for the expenses theretofore incurred by it on behalf of such prisoner, and such part thereof towards reimbursing the state for the future expenses which it must pay on his behalf, which reimbursement shall not be in excess of the per capita cost of maintaining prisoners in the institution in which said prisoner is an inmate, regard being had to claims of persons having a moral or legal right to maintenance out of the estate of such prisoner. If such guardian, person or corporation shall neglect or refuse to comply with such order, the court shall cite him to appear before the court at such time as it may direct and to show cause why he should not be sentenced for contempt of court. As an additional remedy, the auditor general or prosecuting attorney may enforce payment of the sums provided in the original order, by a proper action in the name of the state. If in the opinion of the court, the estate of said prisoner is sufficient to pay the cost of such proceeds, such estate shall be made liable therefor by order of the court.

The proceedings provided for by this section may be begun at any time after admission to said state penal institution, and recovery thereunder may be had for the expense incurred on behalf of such person or prisoner during the entire period or periods such person has been confined as a prisoner in said state penal institution.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 800.404.

800.404a Claim for future maintenance of prisoner; procedure; lien.

Sec. 4-a. That upon admission to any state penal institution the attorney general may file a claim for future maintenance and support of such prisoner with the court from which said prisoner was sentenced, and thereupon the court may make an order making such prisoner's estate or property liable for such future care and support and that such claim shall constitute a lien upon all property, real and personal, of said prisoner.

All proceedings to enforce any such lien under this act against any such property shall be instituted by information in the name of the people of the state of Michigan addressed to such circuit court in chancery of the county in which such property is situated. The information shall be signed by the attorney general and need not be otherwise verified and shall be equivalent to a bill in chancery to enforce the lien against such property. Such information shall show the name of the prisoner, date and place of sentence, the length of time set forth in said sentence, description of the property against which said lien exists, and the amount due the state of Michigan for the care, support and maintenance of said prisoner: Provided, That in no case shall any said property be sold to satisfy such claim of the state of Michigan within 60 days after the entry of such decree: And provided further, That such lien may be removed by filing a bond approved by the circuit court for payment of said claim or by payment of the claim itself. Otherwise the sale of said property shall be conducted the same as in cases of foreclosure of liens in chancery.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 800.404a.

800.404b Lien on property; certified copy of order filed with register of deeds; fee.

Sec. 4-b. Provided further, That upon the issuance of such decree or order it shall be the duty of the auditor general of the state of Michigan or the prosecuting attorney of the county in which such decree or order was issued to record a certified copy of such decree or order in the office of the register of deeds in the county or counties wherein any of the property of such prisoner may be located, and when such decree or order is so recorded the same shall operate as a lien against said property until so removed as heretofore provided. Further, such decree or order shall be recorded without payment of any recording fee by said auditor general or prosecuting attorney.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 800.404b.

800.405 Securing reimbursement of state; duty to assist auditor general.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the sentencing judge, the sheriff of the county and the warden of the prison to furnish on inquiry to the auditor general or prosecuting attorney all information and assistance possible to enable said auditor general or prosecuting attorney to secure reimbursement for the state of Michigan.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 800.405.

800.406 Investigation costs; reimbursements credited to general fund.

Sec. 6. The costs of such investigations shall be paid from the reimbursements secured under this act, and, the balance of said reimbursements shall be credited to the general fund of the state to be available for general fund purposes. Said auditor general is hereby authorized to determine the amount due the state in such cases and render statements thereof, and such sworn statements shall be considered prima facie evidence of the account. The auditor general is further authorized to carry out this act and employ such assistance as may be necessary therefor.

HISTORY: CL 1948, 800.406.

800.407 Money saved from earnings; construction of act.

Sec. 7. The provisions of this act shall not apply to any moneys saved from earnings by the prisoner during the period of his incarceration. In enacting Act No. 253 of the Public Acts of 1935, it was not the intent of the legislature to discourage thrift and good habits by the prisoner during the period of his incarceration, but to provide for reimbursement to the state in such cases where the prisoners were possessed of estates which warranted such reimbursement.

COUNTY JAILS, AND THE REGULATION THEREOF.

801.1 County jails; use as prisons.

Sec. 1. The common jails in the several counties of this state in charge of the respective sheriffs shall be used as prisons:

Indicted persons.

First, For the detention of persons charged with offenses and duly committed for trial;

Committed persons; federal prisoners.

Second, For the confinement of persons committed pursuant to a sentence upon conviction of an offense, and of all other persons duly committed for any cause authorized by law; and the provisions of this section shall extend to persons detained in or committed to any such jail when duly authorized by or under the authority of any court or officer of the United States, as well as by the courts and magistrates of this state: Provided, however, That all persons detained or committed to such jails by the authority of the courts of the United States, or any officer of the United States, shall be received in said county jails only in cases where the cost of the care and maintenance of such persons shall be paid by the United States, at actual cost thereof, to be fixed and determined by the Michigan welfare commission upon application of the sheriffs of the respective counties of this state, and not otherwise.

HIGHWAY LABOR: Use of convicts in state prisons, see Act 181 of 1911, being Compilers' § 800.101.

801.11 Prisoners; working conditions, transportation, meals, lodging.

Sec. 11. All work performed by any such prisoners shall be performed under the direction of the highway commissioner of the township or the authorities of the city, village or institution where the work is done. All such prisoners while engaged in such work shall be under the control and custody of the sheriff. All tools necessary for use by such prisoners and all materials upon which work is to be performed shall be furnished by the township, city, village or institution in which the work is done. The sheriff shall take such precautionary measures as may be deemed necessary to prevent the escape of prisoners employed under the provisions of this act, and in case any prisoner employed shall escape, it shall be deemed to be an escape from the jail: Provided, That no additional deputy sheriff shall be appointed to guard such prisoners while so at work without the previous authorization of the board of supervisors. The board of supervisors is hereby vested with authority to reimburse the sheriff for any expenses incurred in conveying such prisoners to and from any such road, street, alley, highway, quarry, pit, yard, or institution or in properly guarding them while beyond the confines of the county jail: Provided, That all meals and food shall be furnished by the sheriff to such prisoners in the same manner as though they were confined in the county jail, except in cases where such prisoners are employed in or for a county institution providing board for inmates, in which case all meals and food shall be furnished by said institution: Provided further, That the board of supervisors shall have authority to provide for keeping such prisoners at places other than the county jail while they are performing such work as is authorized under the provisions of this act.

801.12 Prisoners; compensation; record, report.

Sec. 12. No prisoner shall be entitled to any compensation either from the county, township, city or village in which he is employed for any services performed in accordance with the requirements of this act. It shall be the duty of the sheriff to keep a record of the number of days worked by each prisoner and the township, city or village in which such work was performed, and report in full to the board of supervisors at each regular session.

R.S. 1846, Ch. 148.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO JAILS AND THE CONFINEMENT OF PRISONERS THEREIN.

801.101 United States prisoners; duty of sheriff to take and keep; compensation.

Sec. 1. The sheriffs of the several counties of this state shall receive into their respective jails and keep all prisoners who are committed to the same, by virtue of any civil process, issued by any court of record instituted under the authority of the United States, until they are discharged by the due course of the laws of the United States, in the same manner as if such prisoner had been committed by virtue of process in civil actions issued under the authority of this state, and every such sheriff may receive to his own use such sums of money as shall be payable by the United States for the use of the jails.

801.102 United States prisoners; liability of sheriff for safe keeping.

Sec. 2. Every sheriff or keeper of a prison, to whose jail any prisoner shall be committed, by any marshal or other officer of the United States, as provided in the preceding section, shall be answerable for the safe keeping of such prisoner, in the courts of the United States, according to the laws thereof.

DISTRICT COURT: The provision relating to the upper peninsula district court was added by amendatory Act 25 of 1855. This district was established by Const. (1850) XIX, 1 and abolished by Act 150 of 1863.

801.108 Designation of jail of other county; copy of designation, service on sheriff.

Sec. 8. A copy of such instrument of designation duly certified by the clerk of the county with whom it is filed under the seal of the circuit or district court thereof shall be served on the sheriff and keeper of the jail so designated whose duty it shall be from thenceforth to receive into such jail and there safely keep all persons who may be lawfully confined therein pursuant to the foregoing provisions.

801.111 Designation of jail of other county; effect on subsequent prisoner entitled to jail liberties.

Sec. 11. If any persons shall be in the custody of the sheriff of the county for which such designation shall have been made, subsequent to such designation, and shall be entitled, according to law, to the liberties of the jail thereof, they shall be admitted to the liberties of such jail, in the same manner, and in the same cases, as if no such designation had been made, but may be removed by such sheriff to the jail so designated, and confined therein, in the same cases and in the same manner, as such sheriff might by law confine them in the jail of his own county.

Act 78, 1917, p. 145; Imd. Eff. Apr. 17.

AN ACT to establish and to provide for the conduct and maintenance of work farms, factories or shops in counties of this state and to authorize the confinement of convicted persons therein and to provide for the punishment of such persons for breaking or attempting to break out; and to permit counties not operating work farms, factories or shops to contract for the care of their prisoners with counties operating such farms, factories or shops.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

801.201 County workhouse; authorization of county to acquire and own.

Sec. 1. The various counties of this state are hereby authorized to acquire, own and hold real estate and buildings within their respective boundaries to be used as work farms, factories or shops for the confinement, punishment and reformation of persons sentenced thereto, and to conduct and operate the same.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17720;—CL 1948, 801.201.

801.202 Non-partisan commission for management; election, membership, number, term, vacancies, eligibility, oath.

Sec. 2. The management and direction of such work farms, factories or shops and of the convicted persons sentenced thereto, subject to the periodical visitations of the state authorities at their discretion, shall be under the authority of a non-partisan commission to be elected for that purpose by the board of supervisors of such county. Said board of commissioners shall consist of 3 members. The first 3 members shall be elected by the board of supervisors, at any meeting at which a majority of the members-elect shall decide to operate under this act, as follows: One member for 1 year from and after January first, following this election, 1 for 2 years, 1 for 3 years, after said

January first; and annually thereafter at the regular January meeting 1 member shall be elected for the full term of 3 years. Vacancies shall be filled by said board of supervisors. The first commissioners shall assume their duties immediately on election. The commissioners shall be residents of the county which they serve, but no member of the board of supervisors shall be eligible during the term for which he was elected supervisor. The commissioners shall make and subscribe the constitutional oath of office and file the same with the county clerk before assuming their duties.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17721;—CL 1948, 801.202.

801.203 Non-partisan commission for management; superintendent; appointment, powers, oath, duties, bond; employees; appropriations.

Sec. 3. Said commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to establish and adopt rules for the regulation and discipline and the work and labor of the persons confined in and on said work farm, factory or shop; and to appoint a superintendent thereof, whose term of office shall be during good behavior, the salary to be fixed by said commission. The superintendent shall have the usual powers of a deputy sheriff, shall take the constitutional oath of office before assuming his duties, same to be filed with the county clerk; and before entering such duties he shall execute to the people of the state of Michigan a bond in the penal sum of 5,000 dollars, to be approved by said commissioners, and filed with the county clerk, conditioned that he shall faithfully account for all money and property that may come into his hands by virtue of his office and faithfully perform all the duties incumbent upon him as such superintendent, according to law. It shall also be the duty of the commissioners to employ and fix the compensation of such subordinate officers, guards and employes as such commission, with the approval of the board of supervisors, may deem necessary, and prescribe their duties not otherwise prescribed by law, and to make all rules and regulations in relation to the management and government thereof as they may deem expedient. But no appropriation of moneys shall be made by said commission without the sanction of the said board of supervisors by a vote of a majority of all the members-elect.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17722;—CL 1948, 801.203.

801.204 Non-partisan commission for management; expenses, meetings, duties, restrictions; records, inspection.

Sec. 4. Said commissioners shall serve without fee or compensation, except actual expenses. They shall hold a public meeting on the first Monday of May of each year at the county seat, and such other meetings as they shall by rule appoint. One or more of said commissioners shall visit said work farm, factory or shop once at least in each month. There shall be a meeting of said commissioners on said work farm, factory or shop once in every 3 months, when they shall examine into its management in every department, hear and determine all complaints or questions within the province of the superintendent; and shall determine and make such further rules and regulations for the good government of said work farm, factory or shop as to them shall seem proper and necessary. All rules, regulations or other orders of said commissioners shall be recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall be deemed a public record, and with the other books and records of said work farm, factory or shop shall be at all times subject to the examination of any member of committee of said board of supervisors or any officer of the county, or any officer or person duly authorized by any court of record in this state to make such examinations. No member of the board of supervisors, commissioners, or any officer or employe of said work farm, factory or shop shall be, directly or indirectly, interested in any contract, purchase or sale for or on account of said work farm, factory or shop. Nor shall they or either of them employ the labor of any persons sentenced thereto upon any work in which they or he shall be interested.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17723;—CL 1948, 801.204.

801.205 Books of account; contents; quarterly statement.

Sec. 5. The books of said work farm, factory or shop shall be so kept as to clearly exhibit the state of the inmates, number received and discharged, and the receipts from and the expenditures for and on account of each line of work, and for repairs or improvements and up-keep of the premises. A quarterly statement shall be made out which shall specify minutely all receipts and expenditures; proper vouchers for each expenditure shall accompany each statement, and the statement shall be filed with the county clerk. The accounts of said work farm shall be annually closed and balanced on December thirty-first of each year, giving a full account of the operations of the preceding year.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17724;—CL 1948, 801.205.

801.206 Reports to supervisors; removal of officials or employees.

Sec. 6. The board of supervisors of such county may require such further reports and exhibits of the condition of the management of such institution as to them may seem necessary and proper, and may, for misconduct or wilful neglect of duty, upon sufficient evidence thereof, after notice and hearing, remove any officer or employee, including the members of said commission.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17725;—CL 1948, 801.206.

801.207 Superintendent; duties.

Sec. 7. The superintendent of the said work farm, factory or shop shall have entire control and management of all its concerns, subject to said commission, and the rules and regulations adopted for its government. He shall be responsible for the manner in which said work farm, factory or shop is managed and conducted. He shall reside on the premises, devote his entire time and attention to the business thereof and visit and examine into the condition and management of every part of the work, and of each person thereon confined, daily and as often as good order and necessity may require. He shall exercise a general supervision and direction in regard to the discipline, police and business of said work farm, factory or shop.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17726;—CL 1948, 801.207.

801.208 Counties without workhouse; contract with commission; publication.

Sec. 8. The board of supervisors of any county of the state, not owning or operating a work farm, factory or shop under the provisions of this act, shall have full power and authority to enter into an agreement with any commission organized under this act to receive and keep in or on their work farm, factory or shop, any person or persons who may be sentenced to confinement by any court or magistrate in any of said counties, for any term of not more than 6 months. Whenever such agreement shall have been made it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors for any county in behalf of which such agreement shall have been made, to give public notice thereof in some newspaper published within said county.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17727;—CL 1948, 801.208.

801.209 Counties without workhouse; sentence by court to workhouse.

Sec. 9. In every county having such agreement it shall be the duty of every court, police justice, justice of the peace or other magistrate by whom any person, for any crime or misdemeanor not punishable by imprisonment in the State prison, may be sentenced for any term of not more than 6 months, to sentence such person to the said work farm, factory or shop there to be received, kept and employed in a manner prescribed by law and the rules and discipline of the said work farm, factory or shop; and by such warrant and commitment to cause such persons to be forthwith conveyed by some proper officer to said work farm, factory or shop.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17728;—CL 1948, 801.209.

801.210 Counties without workhouse; transfer of convicted persons to workhouse; employment; fees.

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of the sheriff, constable or other officer in and for any county having such agreement with said commissioners, to whom any warrant or commitment for that purpose may be directed by any court or magistrate in such county, to convey such person so sentenced to the said work farm, factory or shop and there deliver such person to the superintendent or other proper officer of the said work farm, factory or shop, whose duty it shall be to receive such person so sentenced and to safely keep and employ such person for the term mentioned in the warrant or commitment, according to the rules and regulations of the said work farm, factory or shop; the officer thus conveying and so delivering the person or persons so sentenced shall be allowed such fees or compensation therefor as shall be prescribed or allowed by the board of supervisors for the county in which such persons shall have been convicted.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17729;—CL 1948, 801.210.

801.211 Maintenance expense; tax levy.

Sec. 11. The expense of maintaining the said work farm, factory or shop, over and above the receipts for labor of persons confined therein and for crops produced thereon, and for the support of those whose support shall not be chargeable to the county, shall be audited and paid from time to time by the board of auditors or the board of supervisors of the county in counties not having boards of auditors, and shall be raised, levied and collected as part of the general expense of said county.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17730;—CL 1948, 801.211.

801.212 Commitment of prisoner; six months limited sentence; employment.

Sec. 12. It shall be lawful for any judge, justice of the peace or police magistrate of such county or of any city therein to commit persons convicted before them to said work farm, factory or shop for a term not exceeding 6 months, notwithstanding the fact that the law or ordinance under which sentence is passed provides that the respondent shall be committed to another place of detention. And every such person so sentenced shall be received upon said work farm, factory or shop provided the capacity thereof is not already overtaxed, and shall be kept and employed thereon in the manner prescribed herein, and shall be subject to the rules and discipline of said work farm, factory or shop.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

801.251 County jails; day parole of prisoners, purposes.

Sec. 1. A sentence or commitment of a person to a county jail for any reason may grant such person the privilege of leaving the jail during necessary and reasonable hours for any of the following purposes:

- (a) Seeking employment;
- (b) Working at his employment;
- (c) Conducting his own self-employed business or occupation, including in the case of a woman housekeeping and caring for the needs of her family;
- (d) Attendance at an educational institution; or
- (e) Medical treatment.

A person may petition the court for such privilege at the time of sentence or commitment, and in the discretion of the court may renew his petition. The court may withdraw the privilege at any time by order entered with or without notice.

CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: Sections 801.251 to 801.258 are cited in § 421.29.

801.252 Employed prisoner; collection of wages; garnishment.

Sec. 2. The sheriff, or friend of the court in alimony or nonsupport cases, shall collect the wages or salary of an employed prisoner, or require him to turn over his wages or salary in full when received. The officer shall deposit the same in a trust checking account and keep a ledger showing the status of the account of each prisoner. The wages or salary are not subject to garnishment in the hands of the employer or the officer during the prisoner's term.

HISTORY: New 1962, p. 49, Act 60, Eff. Mar. 28, 1963.

801.253 Prisoner liability for board; prisoner transportation.

Sec. 3. A gainfully employed prisoner is liable for the cost of his board in the jail as fixed by the sheriff. If necessarily absent from jail at a meal time, he shall at his request be furnished with an adequate nourishing lunch to carry to work. The sheriff or friend of the court shall charge his account, if he has one, for such board. If the prisoner is gainfully self-employed, he shall pay the sheriff for such board, in default of which his employment privilege is automatically forfeited. If the jail food is furnished directly by the county, the sheriff shall account for and pay the board payments to the county treasurer. The board of supervisors by ordinance may provide that the county furnish or pay for the transportation of employed prisoners to and from their place of employment.

HISTORY: New 1962, p. 49, Act 60, Eff. Mar. 28, 1963.

801.254 Employed prisoner; disbursement of wages; priority.

Sec. 4. The sheriff or friend of the court shall disburse the wages or salary of an employed prisoner for only the following purposes in the order stated:

- (a) Board of the prisoner;
- (b) Necessary travel expense to and from work and other incidental expenses of the prisoner;
- (c) Support of the prisoner's dependents, if any;
- (d) Payment, either in full or ratably, of the prisoner's obligations, acknowledged by him in writing, or which have been reduced to judgment;
- (e) The balance, if any, to the prisoner upon his discharge.

801.255 County department of social welfare; clerk of court; duties.

Sec. 5. The board of supervisors by resolution may direct that the functions of the officer under sections 2 or 4, or both, be performed by the county department of social welfare; or, if the board has not so directed, a court of record may order that the prisoner's earnings be collected and disbursed by the clerk of the court. The order shall remain in force until rescinded by the board or the court, whichever made it.

HISTORY: New 1962, p. 49, Act 60, Eff. Mar. 28, 1963.

801.256 County department of social welfare; report on prisoners dependents.

Sec. 6. The county department of social welfare shall at the request of the court investigate and report to the sheriff or friend of the court the amount necessary for support of the prisoner's dependents.

HISTORY: New 1962, p. 50, Act 60, Eff. Mar. 28, 1963.

801.257 Reduction of term for good conduct.

Sec. 7. A prisoner may receive, if approved by the court, a reduction of 1/4 of his term if his conduct, diligence and general attitude merit such reduction.

HISTORY: New 1962, p. 50, Act 60, Eff. Mar. 28, 1963.

801.258 Violation of conditions; confinement, forfeiture of earned reduction.

Sec. 8. A prisoner who violates any condition specified by the court for his conduct, custody or employment shall be reported by the sheriff to the court, which may then order that the balance of his sentence or commitment be spent in actual confinement and that any earned reduction of his term be forfeited.

Act 164, 1861, p. 262; Eff. Jun. 15.

AN ACT to establish the Detroit house of correction and authorize the confinement of convicted persons and persons awaiting trial or sentence. Am. 1970, p. 545, Act 183, Imd. Eff. Aug. 3.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

802.1 Detroit house of correction; use of building.

Sec. 1. That the building erected for that purpose by the city of Detroit, shall be known and recognized as the "Detroit house of correction" and shall be used for the confinement, punishment and reformation of criminals or persons sentenced thereto, under the provisions of this act, or any law of this state authorizing the confinement of convicted persons in said house of correction.

HISTORY: CL 1871, 8145;—How. 9843;—CL 1897, 2155;—CL 1915, 1841;—CL 1929, 17737;—CL 1948, 802.1.

802.2 Board of inspectors; duties; appointment, vacancies, terms.

Sec. 2. The management and direction of the said house of correction, subject to periodical inspection by the state authorities in their discretion, shall be under the control and authority of a board of inspectors, to be appointed for that purpose by the common council of the city of Detroit, upon the nomination of the mayor. Said board of inspectors shall consist of 4 members. The first 4 shall be appointed as follows: One member for 1 year, 1 for 2 years, 1 for 3 years, and 1 for 4 years, and annually thereafter 1 member shall be appointed for the full term of 4 years. And the official terms of the members of said board shall commence on the first day of July. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments are made.

HISTORY: CL 1871, 8146;—Am. 1881, p. 251, Act 207, Imd. Eff. June 2;—How. 9844;—CL 1897, 2156;—CL 1915, 1842;—CL 1929, 17738;—CL 1948, 802.2.

The amendatory act of 1881, amending Secs. 2, 3 and 5 of this act, has a Sec. 6, which repeals all provisions of law relative to the appointment or term of office of all officers of said house of correction not contained herein.

802.3 Board of inspectors; powers and duties; appropriation of moneys.

Sec. 3. The board of inspectors of the Detroit house of correction, as provided for in Act No. 207 of the Public Acts of 1881, are hereby authorized and empowered to establish and adopt rules for the regulation and discipline in said house of correction and to appoint a superintendent thereof, whose term of office shall be 3 years, the salary to be fixed by said board and not to exceed 4,000 dollars, and the appointment to be made at least 3 months before the expiration of the term then pending, and to fix the compensation of the subordinate officers, guards, and employees who shall be appointed by the superintendent, and prescribe their duties not otherwise prescribed by law, and to make all rules and regulations in relation to the management and government thereof as they shall deem expedient. But no appropriation of moneys shall be made by said board of inspectors for any other purpose than the necessary expenses and for the repairs of said institution from damages which may occur to the property known as the Detroit house of correction, and from ordinary wear and usage of the same without the sanction of the common council by a vote of the majority of the aldermen elect in said city at some regular meeting subsequent to the meeting in which such appropriation shall have been presented to said common council.

See history note under preceding section.

Act 161 of 1891 in addition to the text of Sec. 3 above contained the following: "All acts or parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed."

802.4 Board of inspectors; compensation; meetings; records, inspection.

Sec. 4. Said inspectors shall serve without fee or compensation. There shall be a meeting of the entire board of the house of correction once in each year, at such time, as shall be fixed by said board. One or more of said appointed inspectors shall visit the said house of correction once at least in each month. There shall be a meeting of said appointed inspectors at said house of correction once in every 3 months, when they shall fully examine into its management in every department, hear and determine all complaints or questions not within the province of the superintendent, to determine and make such further rules and regulations for the good government of said house of correction, as to them shall seem proper and necessary. All rules, regulations, or other orders of said board, shall be recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall be deemed a public record, and with the other books and records of said house of correction, shall be at all times subject to the examination of any member or committee of the common council, the controller treasurer or attorney of said city, or any officer or person duly authorized by any court of record in this state, to make such examination.

802.5 Records and accounts; annual report, publication.

Sec. 5. The books of said house of correction shall be so kept as to clearly exhibit the state of the prisoners, the number received and discharged, and the receipts from and the expenditures for and on account of each department of business, or for repair or improvement of the premises. A quarterly statement shall be made out which shall specify minutely all receipts and expenditures; proper vouchers for each expenditure shall accompany each statement, and the same be approved by the inspectors and the common council of the city of Detroit, and return to the controller of said city for safe keeping. The accounts of said house of correction shall be annually closed and balanced on the thirty-first day of December of each year, and the annual report submitted as soon thereafter as practicable, the first report to be made in 1882, giving a full account of the operations of the preceding year and the same submitted to the board of inspectors, and with their report to the common council, a copy of which shall be transmitted to each department of the state government, and to each county in the state having contracts with said city for the confinement and maintenance of convicted persons. And such report shall be published in some newspaper in the city or in such other form as shall be directed by said board of inspectors.

802.7 Superintendent; powers and duties; residence; deputy.

Sec. 7. The superintendent of the said house of correction shall have entire control and management of all its concerns subject to the authority established by law and the rules and regulations adopted for its government; it shall be his duty to obey and carry out all written orders and instructions of the inspectors not inconsistent with the laws, rules and regulations relating to the government of said institution. He shall be responsible for the manner in which said house of correction is managed and conducted. He shall reside at said house of correction, devote his time and attention to the business thereof, and visit and examine into the condition and management of every department thereof and of each prisoner therein confined daily, or as often as good order or necessity may require. He shall exercise a general supervision and direction in regard to the discipline, police and business of said house of correction. The deputy superintendent of said house of correction shall have and exercise the powers of the superintendent in his absence, so far as relates to the discipline thereof and the safe keeping of prisoners.

Act 145, 1869, p. 264; Eff. Jul. 5.

AN ACT to provide for the imprisonment and detention of convicted persons in the Detroit house of correction.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

802.101 Grant of writ by Wayne circuit court commissioner to test commitment; validity, misdemeanor to obey.

Sec. 1. That no circuit court commissioner, in the county of Wayne, shall grant a writ of habeas corpus or certiorari, to enquire [inquire] into the cause of the detention or restraint of the liberty of any person who is imprisoned, detained or restrained of his liberty, upon criminal process, whether final or otherwise, and if under a petition which does not disclose that the person in whose behalf, the writ is applied for, is so imprisoned, detained and restrained said commissioner grants said writ, he shall remand said person into custody if return is made to said writ that said person is so imprisoned, detained or restrained, and shall discontinue all proceedings under said writ. Any order of said commissioner to discharge a prisoner or person charged with or convicted of a crime or misdemeanor, shall be void, and any officer or other person obeying the same shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Said commissioner shall in no case inquire into the validity of the commitment or other process by which prisoners convicted or charged with offenses are imprisoned or detained, nor shall said commissioner let any person charged with an offense to bail.

HISTORY: CL 1871, 8172;—How. 9870;—CL 1897, 2183;—CL 1915, 1870;—CL 1929, 17766;—CL 1948, 802.101.
MISDEMEANOR: For punishment where no penalty is otherwise prescribed, see Compilers' § 750.504.

802.102 Writs of habeas corpus and certiorari; criminal cases; issuance.

Sec. 2. Any justice of the supreme court, the judge of the circuit court of Wayne county, any circuit judge of the state, and the recorder of the city of Detroit, may grant writs of habeas corpus and certiorari in criminal cases in the county of Wayne.

HISTORY: CL 1871, 8173;—How. 9871;—CL 1897, 2184;—CL 1915, 1871;—CL 1929, 17767;—CL 1948, 802.102.
HABEAS CORPUS: And certiorari, see Compilers' § 637.7 et seq. and Compilers' § 600.4301.
RECORDER: Power to grant writ of habeas corpus, see also Compilers' § 728.17.

802.103 Release from custody; defects in process, mittimus; Wayne county.

Sec. 3. No person shall be released from custody when the return to a writ of habeas corpus alleges that the person in whose behalf said writ was issued is convicted by a court or officer of competent jurisdiction, of a crime or misdemeanor, or is committed to imprisonment to find sureties of the peace by reason of any defect or informality in the process by which said person is committed by said court or officer; but the court or judge granting the writ shall only inquire into the truth of the return and determine whether the court or officer under whose judgment, order or finding said person is so imprisoned or committed, has acted within the jurisdiction of said court or officer. No person, committed to prison for trial, shall be discharged by reason of defects in the process committing him. Whenever the process by which a person convicted or committed, and is held in the jail, house of correction or other prison, is defective in any respect, but has been issued by a court or officer of competent jurisdiction, in the exercise of that jurisdiction, the court or judge granting the writ of habeas corpus, shall remand the person in whose behalf said writ was issued, by a mittimus under the seal of said court or the hand and seal of said judge, commanding the proper officer to keep the said person in custody in accordance with the judgment, order or commitment of the court or officer by whose judgment, order or commitment said person is imprisoned, and said mittimus shall be and stand in the place of the process so defective. The provisions of this act shall apply to the county of Wayne only.

802.104 Prostitute; age, complaints, imprisonment, term, release.

Sec. 4. Every person more than 15 years of age, who is a common prostitute shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the Detroit house of correction a term of 3 years. Complaints under this section may, in cities having a police justice, be made to said police justice, who shall hear, try and determine the same. In the townships, villages, and cities which have no police justice, said complaints shall be made to a justice of the peace, who shall hear, try and determine the same; but said justice of the peace shall, within 30 days after he has determined the said complaint, if the said person is found guilty, file in the office of the county clerk of his county, copies of all the proceedings under the same, and of the testimony which copies shall, by the said clerk, be forthwith submitted to the circuit judge of said county, who shall in writing, approve or disapprove of the finding of said justice of the peace, which approval or disapproval shall be filed by said judge in the office of said clerk, and shall be final. If said judge disapproves of said finding, the clerk shall certify the same under the seal of the circuit court to the superintendent of said house of correction, and said superintendent shall, upon the receipt of the certificate, release the person in whose case it is made. It is hereby made the duty of any sheriff, constable, or superintendent of police in this state to serve said certificate upon the requisition of the said clerk, on the superintendent of said house.

AN ACT to provide a state agency for the correction, education, care and protection of boys in conflict with society; to establish a boys' training school under the control of the Michigan social welfare commission; to prescribe who may be admitted thereto, the powers and duties of the officers immediately in charge of said school, the character and extent of education, discipline and training to be enforced and provided therein; to provide for the temporary use of other state facilities in certain cases of boys committed to the state department of social welfare; to provide for the temporary use of the boys' training school by the counties and at the expense of the counties for the care of delinquent boys who are mentally or physically unable to profit from the education provided therein; and to provide penalties for violations of certain provisions of this act. Am. 1944, 1st Ex. Ses., p. 18, Act 10, Imd. Eff. Feb. 19;—Am. 1953, p. 121, Act 122, Eff. Oct. 2;—Am. 1961, p. 14, Act 13, Imd. Eff. May 9.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

803.101 Boys' training school; authority of social welfare department; commitment.

Sec. 1. There is hereby authorized and established a facility to be known and designated as the boys' training school for purposes and to be governed as herein prescribed and provided. The state department of social welfare is hereby authorized to receive at boys' training school by commitment from the probate court, juvenile division, boys believed eligible by the court for admission to said school. All boys heretofore or hereafter committed to boys' training school shall be deemed committed to the state department of social welfare. Wherever commitment to boys' training school is mentioned in any law of this state, it shall be construed to mean commitment to the state department of social welfare.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17815;—CL 1948, 803.101;—Am. 1953, p. 121, Act 122, Eff. Oct. 2;—Am. 1961, p. 14, Act 13, Imd. Eff. May 9.
CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: Sections 803.101 to 803.113 are cited in § 400.14.

803.102 Boys' training school; eligibility for admission.

Sec. 2. A boy between the ages of 12 and 17 is eligible for admission to said boys' training school, upon commitment by the juvenile division of the probate court to the state department of social welfare, who:

- (1) Repeatedly associates with immoral persons, or is leading an immoral life, or is repeatedly found on premises occupied or used for illegal purposes; or
- (2) Wilfully and repeatedly absents himself from school while being required by law to attend, or repeatedly violates rules and regulations thereof; or
- (3) Has deserted his home without sufficient cause or is repeatedly disobedient to the reasonable and lawful commands of his parents, guardian or other custodian; or
- (4) Has habitually violated municipal ordinances, statutes of the United States defining petty offenses or statutes of the state defining misdemeanors cognizable by justices of the peace or who has violated any other penal statutes of the state or the United States; or
- (5) Habitually idles away his time.

Health, physical and mental examinations; exclusion or admittance; county expense; superintendent's affidavit of expense; return to committing county.

Boys committed shall be subjected to a careful health examination by a registered physician, and a written report on said examination, showing that the boy is free from any chronic or contagious disease or mental or physical defect that would be a menace to those already in the said boys' training school, shall accompany the commitment papers. When the superintendent of boys' training school has received a boy, the boy shall be held by the superintendent without formal admission to the school pending further examination. The superintendent, as soon as practical, shall obtain for each boy so held a physical and mental examination by a medical doctor, a psychiatrist and a clinical psychologist. The Michigan social welfare commission, on the basis of said findings, may exclude from admission any boy who, because of mental or physical defect, would be unable to profit from training, or, at the option of the judge who committed the boy and if the nature of the defect would not endanger other boys in said school, order the boy admitted and care for him at the expense of the county of commitment. Such expense shall be determined by the commission on a per diem basis using all cost figures for the previous fiscal year exclusive of capital expenditures. The superintendent shall make and file with the auditor general an affidavit of such expense and the state shall collect the amount of such expense from the treasurer of the county of commitment. If the county agent or some other suitable person appointed by the judge does not come for a boy not admitted to said school within 3 days after the court has been notified that the boy cannot be admitted as either a state or county charge, or if the judge has failed to provide for admission as a county charge, the superintendent shall order the boy returned to the committing county by an employee of the boys' training school and the cost of the return shall be at the expense of the county.

CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: The above section is cited in § 803.103a.

803.102a Boys' training school; maximum admission age.

Sec. 2a. The boys' training school shall accept a boy who is 17 but not older than 17 years and 6 months if the act for which he is committed occurred before his seventeenth birthday.

HISTORY: Add. 1970, p. 536, Act 179, Imd. Eff. Aug. 3.

803.103 Boys' training school; control by social welfare commission; rules, use, personal investigation; guardianship; period of confinement; temporary protection and correction, cost.

Sec. 3. The said boys' training school shall be under the general control and management of the Michigan social welfare commission, hereinafter referred to as "the commission", to the same extent as provided in section 1 of Act No. 280 of the Public Acts of 1939, as amended, being section 400.1 of the Compiled Laws of 1948. Under rules promulgated by the commission with the approval of the commissioner of corrections, the Michigan reformatory, probationary work camps and other facilities of the department of corrections, except prisons, may be used temporarily for the protection and correction of a boy 16 years of age or older heretofore or hereafter committed to the state department of social welfare under this act when such boy has been found to be so aggressively out of control as to be a menace to himself or others in said school. Such rules shall provide for a careful personal investigation by the director of the state department of social welfare of the records of said school concerning the boy and an interview by the director with the boy himself and with others acquainted with his behavior. When the facilities of the department of corrections are used by the state department of social welfare in this manner for any boy, he may be required to abide by the regulations of the department of corrections and shall be subject to the same supervision and discipline as prisoners. At any time the superintendent of the boys' training school with the approval of the director of the state department of social welfare may order the return of the boy to said boys' training school, and the guardianship for the state remains with the superintendent of the boys' training school as provided in section 5 of this act. No boy shall be confined after he has reached 19 years of age. The boys' training school shall furnish the transportation both to the facility designated by the commissioner of corrections for receiving a boy, and from the facility where he is cared for if being returned to the boys' training school for further care at the school or for release. The department of corrections is hereby authorized and directed to receive any boy sent to it for temporary protection and correction under this section, and no special provision for the segregation for such a boy from prisoners need be provided. The cost of care of such a boy while under the control of the department of corrections shall be a charge against the appropriation of the department of corrections.

803.103a Boys' training school; liabilities of counties for care of boys; foster care grant.

Sec. 3a. The county from which the boy was committed shall be liable to the state for 50% of the cost of care, but this amount may be reduced by use of funds from the annual original foster care grant of the state to the county, or otherwise, for any period of time in respect to which the commission has made a finding that the county is unable to bear 50% of the cost of care: Provided, That the county of residence of the boy shall be liable to the state rather than the county from which the boy was committed if the juvenile division of the probate court of the county of residence withheld consent to a transfer of proceedings under section 2 of chapter 12A of Act No. 288 of the Public Acts of 1939, being section 712A.2 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, as determined by the commission. The finding that the county is unable to bear 50% of the expense shall be based on a study to be made by said commission of the financial resources and of the necessary expenditures of the county. Such cost of care shall be determined by the commission on a per diem basis using all cost figures for the previous fiscal year exclusive of capital expenditures. This section shall not be deemed to apply to the costs of care of boys excluded by the commission and then specially admitted as provided in section 2 of Act No. 185 of the Public Acts of 1925, as amended, being section 803.102 of the Compiled Laws of 1948.

HISTORY: Add. 1955, p. 179, Act 114, Eff. Oct. 14.

803.104 Boys' training school; superintendent and employees.

Sec. 4. The officers in immediate charge of said boys' training school shall consist of a superintendent, who shall be responsible for the conduct, discipline, education and business affairs of said school; an assistant superintendent, who shall act for and in the absence or disability of said superintendent and who shall perform such other duties as may be assigned him by said superintendent or the commission; and such teachers, attendants, instructors, medical officers and helpers as may be necessary as the said commission may determine from time to time subject to the provisions of section 3 of this act.

803.105 Relationship of state to boy; absentees.

Sec. 5. The state shall at all times stand in the place and relationship of parent and legal guardian to each boy sent to said boys' training school during his residence therein or while under the control thereof; and the superintendent shall represent the state in such relationships. Each boy sent to such school shall be subject to the training, education and discipline herein prescribed by the commission, and shall remain therein until graduation or discharge therefrom as herein provided. No boy attending such school shall absent himself therefrom or from any school class, task or duty prescribed for him without leave or permission from said superintendent. Whenever any boy absents himself without leave beyond the limits of said school, he may be retaken thereto by any police or other public officer or agent without warrant, and it shall be the duty of every person having knowledge of the whereabouts of such boy to immediately notify the superintendent of said school of such fact, and also the nearest public official and to hold said boy in detention until he can be delivered up for return to said school.

Act 183, 1925, p. 259; Eff. Aug. 27.

AN ACT to establish at Adrian the girls' training school, continuing said school under the control of the Michigan social welfare commission; prescribing who may be admitted thereto, the powers and duties of the officers immediately in charge of said school, the character and extent of discipline and training to be enforced and provided therein, the compensation of the officers, teachers and other assistants appointed or hired in said institution, and penalties for violations of certain provisions of this act. Am. 1944, 1st Ex. Ses., p. 22, Act 12, Imd. Eff. Feb. 19;—Am. 1949, p. 184, Act 175, Eff. Sep. 23.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

804.101 Girls' training school; state department of social welfare; commitment.

Sec. 1. There is hereby authorized and continued at Adrian township, Lenawee county, a facility known and designated as the girls' training school for purposes and to be governed as herein prescribed and provided. The state department of social welfare, hereinafter referred to as the department, is hereby authorized to receive at the girls' training school, by commitment to the department from the probate court, juvenile division, girls believed eligible for admission to the school under the provisions of section 2. All girls heretofore or hereafter committed to the girls' training school shall be deemed committed to the department. Wherever commitment to the girls' training school is mentioned in any law of this state, it shall be construed to mean commitment to the department.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17845;—CL 1948, 804.101;—Am. 1959, p. 93, Act 86, Eff. Mar. 19, 1960.

CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: Sections 804.101 to 804.113 are cited in § 400.14.

804.102 Girls' training school; eligibility for admission.

Sec. 2. All girls now attending the girls' training school or released but not discharged therefrom or belonging thereto, shall continue under the authority of the girls' training school according to the orders of the several courts which sent them there in the first instance. Any girl between the ages of 12 and 17 is eligible for admission to said girls' training school upon commitment to the department by the juvenile division of the probate court, providing she:

(1) Repeatedly associates with dissolute, vicious, or immoral persons, or is leading an immoral or vicious life; or

(2) Wilfully and repeatedly absents herself from school while being required by law to attend, or repeatedly violates rules and regulations thereof; or

(3) Has deserted her home without sufficient cause, or is repeatedly disobedient to the reasonable and lawful commands of her parents, guardian or other custodian; or

(4) Has habitually violated municipal ordinances, statutes of the United States defining petty offenses or statutes of the state defining misdemeanors cognizable by justices of the peace or has violated any other penal statutes of the state or the United States.

Examination, report.

Before admission to the girls' training school each girl shall be subjected to a careful examination by a registered and competent physician, and a written report on the examination, showing that the girl is not pregnant and is free from any chronic or contagious disease or physical defect that would be a menace to those already in the girls' training school, and showing that she is not physically or mentally handicapped to the extent that she cannot be enrolled in the academic or vocational training program of the school, shall accompany the commitment papers.

Transfer from Michigan children's institute.

Under regulations prescribed by the Michigan social welfare commission, hereafter referred to as the commission, any girl admitted to the Michigan children's institute may be transferred to the girls' training school with the approval of the commission upon the recommendation of the 2 superintendents that the transfer will be of substantial benefit to her by bringing greater control and more supervision. The original commitment shall be deemed to be in full force and effect for the purpose of retaining the girl in the custody of the state. The superintendent of the girls' training school at any time may return the girl to the care of the Michigan children's institute.

804.102a Admission, maximum age.

Sec. 2a. The girls' training school shall accept a girl who is 17 but not older than 17 years and 6 months if the act for which she is committed occurred before her seventeenth birthday.

HISTORY: Add. 1970, p. 555, Act 192, Imd. Eff. Aug. 6.

804.103 Girls' training school; control by state department of social welfare.

Sec. 3. The girls' training school shall be under the general control and management of the commission as provided in this act and in Act No. 280 of the Public Acts of 1939, as amended, being sections 400.1 to 400.90 of the Compiled Laws of 1948.

804.103a Girls' training school; liability of county for cost of care.

Sec. 3a. The county from which the girl was committed shall be liable to the state for 50% of the cost of care, but this amount may be reduced by use of funds from the annual original foster care grant of the state to the county, or otherwise for any period of time in respect to which the commission has made a finding that the county is unable to bear 50% of the expense: Provided, That the county of residence of the girl shall be liable to the state rather than the county from which the girl was committed if the juvenile division of the probate court of the county of residence withheld consent to a transfer of proceedings under section 2 of chapter 12a of Act No. 288 of the Public Acts of 1939, being section 712A.2 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, as determined by the commission. The finding that the county is unable to bear 50% of the expense shall be based on a study to be made by said commission of the financial resources and of the necessary expenditures of the county. The cost of care shall be determined by the commission on a per diem basis using all cost figures for the previous fiscal year exclusive of capital expenditures.

HISTORY: Add. 1955, p. 165, Act 104, Eff. Oct. 14.

804.104 Girls' training school; superintendent and employees.

Sec. 4. The officers in immediate charge of the girls' training school shall consist of a superintendent, who shall be responsible for the conduct, discipline, educational and business affairs of said school; an assistant superintendent, who shall act for and in the absence or disability of the superintendent and who shall perform such other duties as may be assigned him by the superintendent or commission; and such teachers, attendants, instructors, medical officers and helpers as may be necessary as the commission may determine from time to time subject to the provisions of section 3 of this act.

804.105 Relation of state to girl; education, discipline; escaped girls.

Sec. 5. The state shall at all times stand in the place and relationship of parent and legal guardian to each girl sent to said girls' training school during her residence therein or while under the control thereof; and the superintendent shall represent the state in such relationships. Each girl sent to such school shall be subject to the training, education and discipline herein prescribed and to the rules and regulations of said school, and shall remain therein until graduation or discharge therefrom as herein provided. No girl attending such school shall absent herself therefrom or from any school class, task or duty prescribed for her without leave or permission from said superintendent. Whenever any girl absents herself without leave beyond the limits of said school she may be retaken thereto by any police or other public officer or agent without warrant, and it shall be the duty of every person having knowledge of the whereabouts of such girl to immediately notify the superintendent of said school of such fact, and also the nearest public official and to hold said girl in detention until she can be delivered up for return to said school.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17849;—CL 1948, 804.105.

804.106 Rules and regulations; course of study.

Sec. 6. The commission shall prescribe rules and regulations for the discipline of said school to carry out the purposes thereof. The commission, in conjunction with the superintendent of public instruction, shall also prescribe a complete and graduated course of study for the girls within the school, equal and as near as may be similar to the grades up to the twelfth grade in the public schools of this state. The commission shall also provide the means and equipment, and competent instructors for the teaching of useful arts and occupations, including home making, to the pupils therein.

804.107 Clothing and equipment furnished to girls.

Sec. 7. The girls attending said girls' training school shall be furnished clothing and athletic equipment, and given instruction in gymnastics and athletics. It shall be the duty of the officers connected with said school to stimulate esprit de corps in said school, and inculcate the principles of good citizenship in the minds of said girls.

HISTORY: CL 1929, 17851;—Am. 1944, 1st Ex. Ses., p. 24, Act 12, Imd. Eff. Feb. 19;—CL 1948, 804.107.

804.108 Temporary leaves of absence; release to parents or foster family.

Sec. 8. Under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Michigan social welfare commission, any girl in said school may be granted temporary leaves of absence for vacation periods or released to her parent or parents, or to a suitable foster family of good character.

804.109 Discharge; age limitation, conditions.

Sec. 9. Every such girl shall remain in said school until her release therefrom or for the period expressed in the order of the juvenile division of the probate court which sent her there; but no such girl shall be held in said school beyond the age of 19 years. Upon her release or discharge she may be returned either to the county from which she came or to her natural parents, if living and able to take charge of her, or placed temporarily in the care of any resident of this state of good moral character who is willing to furnish her a home or employment as provided in section 8 hereof. A release may be upon conditions set by the state department of social welfare, which may include a requirement that the girl remain under the supervision of either an employee of the department designated for that purpose or the county agent of the probate court, and that the natural parents or other persons with whom the girl is placed shall cooperate closely with the employee or agent in carrying out supervisory recommendations.

804.110 Sociological, psychological, medical and physical examination and treatment; burial; discipline; incorrigibility.

Sec. 10. The rules and regulations of the school shall provide for initial, periodical and final sociological, psychological, medical and physical examinations of each girl; for her treatment for any disease or physical ailment; for decent and appropriate burial in case of death; for her classification as to age, mental condition, adaptability as to occupation, conduct and deportment, and as to such other grounds as may be prescribed therein. The discipline prescribed shall be fairly and humanely carried on; and shall not ordinarily include any form of punishment not permitted to parents in their usual relationships. Any girl 17 years of age or older who proves to be wholly incorrigible may be returned to the public authorities of the county from which she came, upon approval of the commission, and evidence of incorrigibility in the institution shall be admissible in a hearing before the juvenile division of the probate court.

804.111 Records and reports; release of girl; confidential filing.

Sec. 11. Records shall be kept pertaining to each individual girl during her residence or connection with the school, containing such information and notations as may be prescribed by the commission. Reports shall be furnished the governor upon such matters pertaining to the school as he may require. Upon release from said school, all records pertaining to any girl shall be filed as confidential and shall not be made public thereafter, except under regulations of the commission, when deemed necessary for the best interest of the girl.

AN ACT to authorize and ratify acts of the state administrative board, the state department of administration and the trustees of the state employees' retirement funds in connection with the financing and construction of a new state office building in the city of Lansing; and to prescribe the powers and duties of the state treasurer.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

830.401 New state office building; construction, financing; department of administration approval.

Sec. 1. The state department of administration and the trustees of the state employees' retirement funds, jointly and severally, are hereby authorized and empowered to enter into and execute all leases, contracts and agreements, and take any and all necessary steps, required to finance and provide for the construction of a new state office building on block 108, original plat of the city of Lansing: Provided, That the state administrative board shall approve each of the foregoing acts: And provided further, That the state administrative board may direct any of the foregoing acts to be performed by the state department of administration.

HISTORY: New 1951, 1st Ex. Ses., p. 614, Act 4, Imd. Eff. Aug. 23.

830.402 New state office building; leases, contracts, agreements; validation.

Sec. 2. Any and all leases, contracts and agreements, and steps heretofore taken by the state administrative board, the state department of administration and the trustees of the state employees' retirement funds, jointly or severally, in connection with the financing and construction of a new state office building in the city of Lansing, are hereby ratified and declared valid.

HISTORY: New 1951, 1st Ex. Ses., p. 614, Act 4, Imd. Eff. Aug. 23.

830.403 New state office building; legislature's approval not required.

Sec. 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of Acts No. 315 and No. 316 of the Public Acts of 1947, no such contract or lease, whether heretofore or hereafter executed, shall require the approval of the legislature to become effective.

HISTORY: New 1951, 1st Ex. Ses., p. 614, Act 4, Imd. Eff. Aug. 23.

830.404 New state office building; funds; custody, disbursement.

Sec. 4. The state treasurer is hereby authorized and empowered to take custody of such funds as may be deposited with him for the execution of the contracts, leases and agreements entered into under the terms of section 1 of this act, and to disburse said funds in accordance with the accounting laws of the state.

HISTORY: New 1951, 1st Ex. Ses., p. 614, Act 4, Imd. Eff. Aug. 23.

Act 183, 1964, p. 247; Imd. Eff. May 19.

AN ACT creating the state building authority with power to acquire, furnish, equip, own, improve, enlarge, operate and maintain buildings, necessary parking structures and facilities, and sites therefor, for the use of the state or any of its agencies; to authorize the execution of leases pertaining to such properties and facilities by said building authority with the state of Michigan or any of its agencies; to provide for the issuance of revenue bonds by such building authority; to authorize the conveyance of lands by the state or any of its agencies for the purposes herein authorized; and to provide for other matters in relation thereto.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

830.411 State building authority; definitions.

Sec. 1. As used in this act:

(a) "Building authority" means the state building authority created by the provisions of this act.

(b) "State" means the state of Michigan.

(c) "Existing facilities" means all existing buildings and other facilities located on any real property acquired by the building authority under the terms of this act.

(d) "Facilities to be acquired" means all new buildings and other facilities in any way acquired or constructed by the building authority pursuant to the provisions of this act.

(e) "Annual rental" means the annual rental required to be paid by the state to the building authority pursuant to any lease between the state and the building authority entered into pursuant to the provisions of this act.

(f) "Board" means the board of trustees of the building authority.

HISTORY: New 1964, p. 247, Act 183, Imd. Eff. May 19.

CITED IN OTHER SECTIONS: Sections 830.411 to 830.424 are cited in § 16.205.

830.412 Board of trustees; grant of powers; appointment, term, vacancies; oath; officers; quorum.

Sec. 2. There is created a public benefit corporation of the state to be known as the state building authority, which is hereby made a body corporate, separate and distinct from the state and which may by that name sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, contract and be contracted with, have a corporate seal and enjoy and carry out all powers herein granted it in furtherance of the public function of the state to provide and maintain facilities and buildings for the necessary function and operation of the government of the state. The building authority shall be governed by a board of trustees consisting of 5 members appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, for terms of 4 years. In appointing the first members of the board, the governor shall designate 2 to serve for 4 years, 1 to serve for 3 years, 1 to serve for 2 years, and 1 to serve for 1 year. Each vacancy in office of a member of the board, whether caused by resignation, death, expiration of office, or otherwise, shall be filled by appointment by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. The members of the board shall enter upon their duties after their appointment and shall qualify by taking and filing the constitutional oath of office. Each member of the board shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of his successor. No person holding an elective or appointive office with the state shall be appointed to the board. Upon the designation and qualification of the members of the board, they shall organize immediately by the election of 1 of the members of the board as chairman of the building authority and through the selection of a secretary and treasurer, which offices may be combined, and the persons holding these offices may, but need not be, members of the board. The chairman shall serve as chairman throughout the term of his office. All funds of the authority shall be handled in the same manner and shall be governed by the same provisions of law as apply to state funds. A quorum for the transaction of business shall consist of 3 of the members of the board, which quorum may bind the building authority.

HISTORY: New 1964, p. 247, Act 183, Imd. Eff. May 19.

830.413 Powers; records, auditing.

Sec. 3. The building authority may:

- (a) Adopt bylaws for the regulation of its affairs and the conduct of its business.
- (b) Adopt an official seal.
- (c) Maintain a principal office at such place within the state as it may designate.
- (d) Sue and be sued in its own name and plead and be impleaded.
- (e) Acquire, construct, furnish, equip, improve, enlarge, own, operate and maintain buildings, necessary parking structures and facilities, and sites therefor which are approved by concurrent resolution of the legislature for the use of the state or any of its agencies.
- (f) Acquire in the name of the building authority and hold and dispose of real and personal property, or any interest therein, in the exercise of its powers and the performance of its duties under this act.
- (g) Borrow money for any of its corporate purposes as expressed in this act and issue negotiable revenue bonds payable solely from the annual rental and provide for the payment of the same and the rights of the holders thereof.
- (h) Make and enter into contracts, leases and other instruments necessary or incident to the performance of its duties and the execution of its powers under this act. When the cost of any contract for construction, materials or services, other than compensation for personal or professional services, involves an expenditure of more than $5,000.00, the building authority shall make a written contract with the lowest qualified bidder, after advertisement for not less than 2 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the state, and in such other publications as the building authority shall determine.
- (i) Employ consulting engineers, architects, superintendents, managers and such other construction, accounting, appraisal and financial experts, attorneys and other employees and agents as may be necessary in its judgment to carry out its duties and functions under this act and to fix their compensation.
- (j) Receive and accept from any federal agency grants for or in aid of the construction of facilities to be acquired and receive and accept aid or contributions from any source of either money, property, labor or other things of value, to be held, used and applied only for the purposes for which such grants and contributions may be made.

(k) Require from all employees handling moneys of the building authority fidelity bonds in sums and subject to such terms and conditions as are satisfactory to the board and the state controller.

(l) Do all acts and things necessary or, in the opinion of the building authority, convenient to carry out the powers expressly granted in this act.

(m) Require that all final actions of the board are entered in its journal, which journal shall be open to the inspection of the public at all reasonable times.

(n) Require that the books and records of account of the building authority shall be audited annually by the auditor general, or if he is unable to act, by an independent certified public accountant.

HISTORY: New 1964, p. 248, Act 183, Imd. Eff. May 19.

830.414 Property; acquisition; condemnation.

Sec. 4. For the purpose of accomplishing the objectives of the building authority, the building authority may acquire property by purchase, construction, lease, gift, devise or condemnation, and for the purpose of condemnation, it may proceed under the provisions of Act No. 149 of the Public Acts of 1911, as amended, being sections 213.21 to 213.41 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, or any other appropriate statute.

HISTORY: New 1964, p. 248, Act 183, Imd. Eff. May 19.

830.415 Property owned by state; conveyance to building authority, procedure.

Sec. 5. Any property owned by the state may be conveyed to the building authority for any of the purposes expressed in this act, subject, however, to prior approval thereof by the state administrative board, the attorney general, and by concurrent resolution of the legislature. Any such conveyance, after approved as herein provided, shall be executed for and on behalf of the state by the governor and secretary of state, or in the event of the absence or disability of either of them, by the lieutenant governor or deputy secretary of state.

HISTORY: New 1964, p. 249, Act 183, Imd. Eff. May 19.

830.416 Lease of facilities to state; bonds; approval.

Sec. 6. The building authority may lease any existing facilities or facilities to be acquired, for the purposes specified in this act, to the state, or any of its agencies acting by and on behalf of the state. Any lease authorized by this act shall be for a period of not exceeding 40 years from the date of execution thereof, and shall contain provision for the payment of annual rental by the state to the building authority. Any lease entered into under this act shall not be effective until approved by the legislature by a concurrent resolution. If bonds are issued by the building authority in accordance with the authorization provided in section 8 for the purpose of financing all or part of the cost of facilities to be acquired, the minimum annual rental shall be fixed in the lease at an amount sufficient to pay the annual principal and interest requirements on the bonds when due. Any lease may contain such other provisions relative to the operation, use and improvement of the leased properties within the scope and purposes provided in this act as may be agreed upon.

HISTORY: New 1964, p. 249, Act 183, Imd. Eff. May 19.

830.417 Lease of facilities from authority; approval.

Sec. 7. The state may lease from the building authority for public purposes within the concepts provided in this act, any real property and existing facilities or facilities to be acquired, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon and subject to the limitations and provisions provided in section 6. Prior to execution, any lease shall be approved by the state administrative board and the attorney general.

HISTORY: New 1964, p. 249, Act 183, Imd. Eff. May 19.

830.418 Revenue bonds; terms, exemption from taxation; approval; sale.

Sec. 8. The building authority, by resolution or resolutions of its board, may provide for the issuance of revenue bonds for the purpose of paying part or all of the cost of the facilities to be acquired, which cost may include an allowance for legal, engineering, architectural and consulting services, interest on the bonds becoming due before the collection of the first revenues available for the payment thereof, and other necessary incidental expenses. Principal of and interest and redemption premiums on the bonds issued hereunder shall be payable solely from the annual rental, except that capitalized interest may be paid from the proceeds of sale of the bonds. No bond issued hereunder or the interest thereon or the redemption premiums therefor shall ever be or become a general obligation of the state or a charge against the state; nor shall the same become a lien or secured by any property, real, personal or mixed, of the state, but all bonds and the interest thereon and the call premiums therefor shall be payable solely from the annual rental and each bond shall have such a statement printed on the face thereof and each interest coupon attached to any bond shall have a statement printed thereon that the coupon is not a general obligation of the state but is payable solely from certain revenues, as specified in the bond. The bonds may be either serial bonds or term bonds, or any combination thereof, as determined by the board. The bonds shall mature not more than 40 years from their date, and in any event not more than 1 year from the due date of the last annual rental pledged for the payment of the bonds, and shall be coupon bonds bearing interest at not more than 6% per annum, which interest shall be payable semi-annually, except as to the first coupon which may be for any number of months not exceeding 10. The board, in the resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance of the bonds, shall determine the principal amount of the bonds to be issued, the registration provisions, the date of issuance, the bond numbers, the bond denominations, the bond designations, the bond maturities, the interest payment dates, the paying agent or paying agents or the method of selection thereof, the rights of prior redemption of the bonds, the maximum rate of interest, the method of execution of the bonds, and such other provisions respecting said bonds, the rights of the holders thereof, the security therefor and the procedures for disbursement of the bond proceeds. All bonds and the interest coupons attached thereto are declared to be fully negotiable and to have all of the qualities incident to negotiable instruments under the uniform commercial code of the state, subject only to the provisions for registration of the bonds which may appear thereon. The bonds shall be exempt from all taxation by the state or any of its political subdivisions. The issuance of the bonds and the approval of the form of notice of sale for the bonds shall be subject to approval of the municipal finance commission under the provisions of Act No. 202 of the Public Acts of 1943, as amended, being sections 131.1 to 138.3 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, but the provisions of Act No. 202 of the Public Acts of 1943, as amended, shall not be applicable to the issuance of the bonds. The bonds shall be sold at public sale for not less than par after publication of notice of sale thereof at least 7 days before the date of sale in a publication approved by the municipal finance commission as a publication carrying as part of its regular services, notices of sale of municipal bonds and after 7 days' publication in a newspaper of general circulation published in the state. The bonds may be authorized and may be issued from time to time as needed, and the subsequent series or issues thereof shall enjoy equal status with respect to the pledge of the annual rental from which they are payable.

HISTORY: New 1964, p. 249, Act 183, Imd. Eff. May 19.

830.419 Bonds; creation of statutory first lien.

Sec. 9. The resolution or resolutions of the board authorizing the issuance of the bonds shall create a statutory first lien on the annual rental in favor of the holders of any bonds issued hereunder or interest coupons appertaining thereto. Any holder of bonds issued under the provisions of this act, or any coupons appertaining thereto, either by suit, action, mandamus or other proceedings, may protect and enforce the statutory first lien and any and all rights of the bondholders under the laws of the state, or granted hereunder, or under the resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance of the bonds, and may enforce and compel the performance of all duties required by this act or the resolution to be performed by the building authority, or any officers thereof. No action may be brought which would compel the sale of any property of the building authority.

HISTORY: New 1964, p. 250, Act 183, Imd. Eff. May 19.

830.420 Compliance with state constitution.

Sec. 10. Nothing in this act shall be so construed or interpreted as to authorize or permit the incurring of indebtedness of the state contrary to the provisions of the state constitution.

HISTORY: New 1964, p. 250, Act 183, Imd. Eff. May 19.

830.421 Property exempt from taxation or assessments; income.

Sec. 11. All property owned and acquired by the building authority in accordance with the authorization provided in this act shall be exempt from all taxes levied by the state or any of its political subdivisions and taxing districts, and the building authority shall not be required to pay any taxes or assessments upon its activities or upon any of its income or revenue.

HISTORY: New 1964, p. 250, Act 183, Imd. Eff. May 19.

830.422 Bonds; investments for banks, trust companies, insurers, fiduciaries.

Sec. 12. Bonds issued by the building authority under the provisions of this act are securities in which all banks, bankers, savings banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all insurance companies, insurance associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, and all administrators, executors, guardians, trustees and other fiduciaries may properly and legally invest any funds belonging to them or within their control.

HISTORY: New 1964, p. 250, Act 183, Imd. Eff. May 19.

830.423 Construction of act; governmental function.

Sec. 13. It is hereby found, determined and declared that the creation of the building authority and the carrying out of its corporate purposes are in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state and constitute a public purpose and that the facilities to be acquired are necessary for the public welfare of the people of the state, and that the building authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the power conferred upon it by this act. This act shall be liberally construed to effect the intents and purposes hereof.

HISTORY: New 1964, p. 251, Act 183, Imd. Eff. May 19.

830.424 Additional method; additional powers.

Sec. 14. This act shall be deemed to provide an additional or alternative method for the doing of the things authorized hereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing.
